ZOLA'S TOMB IS SCENE OF OUTRAGE

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF MAJOR ALFRED DREYFUS

Panic Ensues During Canonization Ceremony in French Republic.

Paris, June 4.-The canonization of Zola at the Pantheon was marred by a dastardly though unsuccessful attempt upon the life of Major Alfred Drevfus. Paris was thrown into a state of panic, for it was first thought that President Fallieres had been shot down. The major was wounded in the hand and his assailant is a prisoner.

At the conclusion of ceremony in connection with the placing of the body of Emile Zola in the Pantheon, and while the procession was emerging from the protession was emerging from the procession was emerging from the troops, a member of the staff of the "France Militare," who gave his name as Gregori, fired two shots point blank at Major Alfred Dreyfus. The latter, however, was only struck once in the hand. His assailant was arrested. Dreyfus' injury was only a slight one.

The attempt on the life of Major Dreyfus was made at the foot of the Catafalque directly in front of the tribune, from which M. Doumergue, the minister of Public Instruction, delivered an eulogy on Zola's matchiess courage in arousing the conscience of the nation to the necessity of doing justice to Dreyfus. As the last refrain of the magnificent orchestra which was playing the "Chant du Depart" was floating away through the marble columns of the temple, and as President Fallieres and the members of the presidential party, after shaking hands with Madame Zola and her two natural children, now legitimized, were moving out towards the portico to review the garrison of Paris, two sharp reports startled the vast assemblage.

reports startled the vast assemblage or the instant everyone believed that ne of indescribable confusion fol-ed and many women present faint-spot, but soon scattered when the members of the guard who lined the transepts rushed to where the attempt was struck down. A flerce knot major was struck down. A nerce knot of soldiers and civilians were struggling over Major Dreyfus and his fallen aggressor. Major Dreyfus, with hawk-like features, pale as death, but manifesting complete composure, was holding up his hand from which the blood aggressors with the soldiers. streaming, while the soldiers with difficulty, prevent the nraged crowd from beating and kick-enraged crowd from beating and kicking the man on the floor.

Upon the sharp command of Prefect of Police Lepine, who was immediately on the scene, the assailant of Dreygus was dragged to his feet. He presented a pitiful spectacle. From a blood smeared face his wild eyes looked around appealingly as if for sympathy but they met only the angry and menacing glare of the crowd and his ear heard only their imprecations upon his foul deed. The man's clothing was in shreds and his coat and vest were literally torn from his body. erally torn from his body.

Major Dreyfus, accompanied by his brother Matthew, who was the first brother Matthew, who was the first to strike the assailant after he fired. Dr. Spozzi, and several other friends was led away to the mayor's office opposite the Pantheon where his wound was dressed. The doctors found that the bullet had entered his wrist.

In the meantime a cordon had been formed about the assailant who under the direction of M. Lepine, was conducted to a side entrance of the Pantheon. At this time the vast multitude, packing the sidewalks, crowding the street, and converging on the Pantheon had no suspicion of the excitement taking place within. The appearance of President Fallieres at the portico has taking place within. The appearance of President Fallieres at the portice had been greeted with a great cheer which drowned the cries of "Down with Dreyfus," and "Long Live the Army," which came principally from a band of about 500 men belonging to a Catholic Association known as La Jeunes Lique, who had stationed themselves on a corner opposite. Soon after this cheering regiment after regiment came swinging by to the blare of trumpets and the sound of martial music.

After having his wound dressed, Major Dreyfus was taken to his home, where he was rejoined by his wife who was with him when he was shot.

The news spread like wildfire through Paris and caused a veritable panic, as it was first believed that President Fallieres had been killed. The crowds around the Pantheon were driven back and all the streets leading to the temple were barred. Twenty arrests have been made by the police.

ple were barred. Twenty arrests have been made by the police.

Emile Zola, who died in 1902 was twice condemned to 10 years' imprisonment for addressing to Felix Faure, then president of France, the famous letter "J'Accuse" in which he laid bare the conspiracy in the general army staff against Major Dreyfus. He was canonized to-day with national honors in the Pantheon, the French "temple of fame," The proposal to give Zola a glorious burial, made first in 1906, aroused in France all the dormant animosities that came out during the Dreyfus trials, and the transfer of his ashes, although duly voted by the chamber and the senate, had to be twice postponed because of the state of public opinion. Disorder; and rioting were expected to-day and the authorities found it expedient to take ample measures for the preservation of peace.

because of his famous letter, not because of his literary fame. He was the first successful leader in the Dreyfus war; he vanquished the general staff of the army and to give him a glorfous burial in the National Partheon at the side of Berthelot, and President Carnot, Victor Hugo, and Rosseau, to ap accompaniment of martial music while long lines of soldiers defiled before his tomb aroused the passions of a large number of the French people.

The attempt on the life of Major Dreyfus was made by Louis Anthenne Gregori, a member of the staff of La France Militaire, a journal devoted to military progress and the military future of the Republic, Major Dreyfus was present at the ceremony to do final use of his famous letter, not ture of the Republic. Major Dreytus was present at the ceremony to do final honor to the great leader of his cause. Gregori's act probably was inspired by the campaign which the reactionary press has been conducting against Zola as a "traducer of his country." Furthermore, the "Catholic Faith," a paper to which Gregori was attached, was a supporter of Gen. Boulanger and viosupporter of Gen. Boulanger and vio lently opposed to Dreyfus. The special edition of "La Libre Parole" issued yesterday was a direct incitement to violence.

SWEEPING REFORM IN LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Local Option Likely to Carry in Many Parts of Saskatchewan.

Regina, June 4.—Several measures passed through the house yesterday and were given the final touches by the legislators. There were: An act to provide for the care of neglected and dependent children; an act to confirm money by-laws of Battleford; an act to incorporate the Canadian National haurance Company; an act to authorize the city of Moose Jaw to expropriate lands and for other purposes; an act to amend the succession duties ordinance. The bill providing for the incorporation of the Grain Growers' Association and the bill to amend the thresher lien ordinance were read the second time.

The government amendments to the present licensing system, brought down in the House last night, provide for local option on a straight majority vote to the road to a universal penny post. Little doubt is entertained that it will speedily be followed by the announcement that negotiations with France to the same end have been satisfactorily concluded. The newspapers here are showering congratuations on Postmasters General Buxton and Meyers, and on Ambassadors Bryce and Reid, and are especially greeted as an important stage on the road to a universal penny post. Regina, June 4.-Several measures and also provide for drastic changes in the present liquor law. Local option by-laws must be submitted by the council of any town, city, or rural muof the voters therein, and a straigh fifty per cent. vote will close the traf fic as far as that district is concerned fic as far as that district is concerned. The effect of the provision is somewhat minimized by the fact that the voters' list to be used is not the municipal voters' list, but the list used for the election of legislative members. Nevertheless the change is a sweeping reform of the liquor traffic, and local option will doubtless carry in many cities and towers of the very and local option will doubtless carry in many cities and towns of the west. A provision is made that after a local option by-law is carried it cannot be repealed for two years, and then on the same vote. Two years must elapse between any two elections for this purpose.

Restrictions to the present licensing system include a reduction of the hor system include a reduction of the hours of sale by an hour and a half. The present system is to close at 11:30 p. m. and the proposal of the government is to have closed bars after 10 p. m. The number of licenses to be granted is one for a population of 300, two for 750, three for 1,500, and four for 2,500. After that, one for each 1,500 in the case of hotels. Wholesale licenses are to be one for a thousand, two for twenty-five hundred, three for seven thousand, four for fifteen thousand and five for thirty thousand. In towns and cities the hotels must have 25 rooms for guests, and in villages and rural municipalities fifteen rooms will be sufficient.

MILITIA TRAINING CAMPS TO BE HELD

Canadian Forces to Number of 12,000 Will Attend Quebec Tercentenary.

Ottawa, June 4.-The opposition has estimates for training camps this year go through without further obstruction. The camps in Eastern Canada, which had been indefinitely postponed owing to a lack of any funds by the department, will now be held as usual. Arrangements are being perfected with the Quebec tercentenary commission to have a mobilization of 12,000 troops at Quebec during the visit of the Prince of Wales. The troops will represent all the units of the Canadian forces from Halifax to Victoria, though only a small contingent of about 160 will be brought from the western provinces. tion, The camps in Eastern Canada, Manitoba Wire Pullers Direct Travesty From Spectators' Gallery.

Ottawa, May 29.—In the Montreal Gazette (Conservative) of May 28th, the following appeared in a dispatch from the Ottawa correspondent of that paper:

"Then, at 4.50 a. m., when daylight was streaming in through the windows, the government gave up the fight. Not one cent was passed, and the motionwas made by Mr. Fielding that the committee rise. Mr. Paterson made another plaintive appeal for his money. There was a laugh from the opposition, and a handful of tired members filed through the swinging doors in time to see the rising sun gild the turrets of the main tower."

Note the exultation expressed in every line of this choice little para-graph. Note that "not one cent was passed," although it was plain that the passed," although it was plain that the government was making every effort to get money for the employees of the various departments. Note, also, that-Hon. Mr. Paterson's request for money for his officials was received "with a laugh from the opposition." What a huge joke it must be for the great Commons—the joke of withholding from thousands of faithful employees their wages; the joke of depriving the wo-thousands of faithful employees their wages; the joke of depriving the women and children depending upon those employees of the necessaries of life.

And the readers of the opposition papers are told that the request of the minister of customs for supply was met with a leave. with a laugh. Here is what the minister said:

"I have no desire to keep the House late, but I will tell you how the thing stands. I want to get $2,074,500. It is all in one item, it generally passes like that. We are only asking for what is drawn our cheques to pay our outside officers. I suppose there are 2,000 men who, if you do not give them this money, will have to go without their pay. The hon, gentleman speaks about it being up. Chero. who, if you do not give them this money, will have to go without their pay. The hon, gentleman speaks about it being un-Christian to sit late. Would it not be more un-Christian to put us in the position of being unable to paymen who, we have been told to night, have been faithful men and who have well earned their wages? At any rate, so far as I am concerned, and I think I have my colleagues and the prime minister with me, I will make an effort to get the money, so that these men who are under my charge cannot at any rate lay the blame upon me if they go without the wages which they have fairly earned. I will give what explanations members may desire. I suppose there are a hundred men in this city alone who will have to go without the alone who will have to go without the pay they have earned if I do not get this money, and others are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific; too many of them, as hon, gentlemen opposite know, do not get salaries that enable them to do without their money when it is due. Therefore I desire to stay long enough at any rate to let those gentlemen know that the head of this department is not to blame if they do not get their money."

And there was a laugh from the opposition, according to the Gazette correspondent. But there is a false ring about this laughter. Even prominent members on Mr. Borden's side of the House are becoming disgusted at this alone who will have to go without the pay they have earned if I do not get members on Mr. Borden's side of the House are becoming disgusted at this indefensible holdup, and one of their best men was heard to remark yesterday: "It's sickening business and I wish I were out of it. I don't like this proposition of the opposition being run by the premier of Manitoba."

This Tory scents danger. He realized

by the premier of Manitoba."

This Tory scents danger. He realizes that these obstruction tactics will hasten a change in the rules of the House, which will curtail the scope of his friends for guerrilla warfare. He also knows that the people will place the responsibility where it belongs, and that his party will be annihilated.

Here is the issue: The government wants voters to have a fair chance, and proposes to provide this by legislation, which will prevent the manibulation of the list by unscrupulous politicians of the ward heeler type. The opposition members, inspired by the aforesaid manipulators from Manitoba (who have no wish to surrender complete control of lists that have been the surrender complete control of lists that have been the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of lists that have been supposed to the surrender complete control of the surrender complete control or surrender comp members, inspired by the aforesaid manipulators from Manitoba (who have no wish to surrender complete control of lists that have been beautifully and wonderfully "arranged") demand the withdrawal of this legisletion, or they will hold up the wages of the country's employees. The government offers a compromise, to let the judges revise the lists, thus removing the whole question from the realm of partisan polites. The opposition (still under the thumb of the Manitoba manipulators) refuses the offer. It wants to dictate.

A rather extraordinary incident occurred during the recent visit of Manitoba's promier and attorney-general to Ottawa. From their places in the spectators' gallery they could be seen directing the operations of Mr. Borden and his followers; making signals, sending notes by pages, and in other ways running the Tory part of the programme. What would Sir John Macdonald have said could he have beheld this degradation of his party?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his followers in the government have acted, throughout, with characteristic fairness and courtesy. They have shown themselves ready to grant every reasonable concession to their opponents, but they will not be dictated to by an insolent band of political soreheads, rendered practically insane by their lust for office, led by a man like Geo. Foster, upon whose shoulder the minister of justice last year branded the fleur de its.

Confirmation of the statement made n yesterday's issue of the Times regarding the extension of the subsidy granted to the Canadian-Mexican steamship line was to-day conveyed in a special dispatch to the Times from Ottawa stating that the contract with the company was recently extended by the government from three years after the date of expiry, May, 1909. The extension was secured by Capt. Worsnop and, in the contract signed by him, a clause was inserted to the effect that any discrimination against Canadian shippers on the part of the company would render the subsidy agreement ing the extension of the subsidy oid. MAGISTRATE JAY IS HAVING BUSY TIME

Many Cases Come Up Before Him-Autoists Appear in Police Court.

The police court has become quite a busy place since the police started their crusade against automobilists who exceed the speed limit and for two days now the magistrate has not been able to dispose of the cases that came before him, notwithstanding the fact that on both days afternoon sessions of the court have been held. He is having an unusual number of cases both in the city and provincial courts. Magistrate Jay's work in the police court is not, however, the only place where he is finding an unusual amount of work. The small debts court is also engaging a large amount of his time. He had held a session of that court after the police court yesterday afternoon and another this morning before he took his seat as magistrate. The sitting of the small debts court commenced at 9 o'clock and lasted until after 16:30, so that it was five minutes to 11 when the police court opened.

He had always tried to drive at a reasonable rate of speed and in the down town section did not travel faster than six miles an hour, while in the upper end of the street, where there was a fide roadway and little traffic he went faster but never over ten miles he thought. French Scientist's Model of Wonderful Apparatus-Near Solution.

"Within a year I firmly believe that s a result of the advances made in the construction of my apparatus we shall be watching one another across distances hundreds of miles apart."

shall be watching one another across distances hundreds of miles apart."

This staggering assertion was made the other day by a French scientist, M. Armenguad, who for over thirty years has been unweariedly working at the problem of supplementing the visual power of the human eye so as to make it possible to see across immense distances such as the 3,000 miles because a such as the 3,000 miles because where the such as the 3,000 miles because such as the 3,000 miles because where the such as the 3,000 miles had tween London and New York. He has just submitted to the French Society of Physics the latest model of his invention. This is intended to provide a method for the distribution of a moving image so as to admit, through the employment of selenium or any other photo-electric body, of the transmission of the said image to any distance by telegraphic or telephonic wires. The method is based on the principles of the cinematograph, which exists solely in virtue of the well-known law of the persistency of luminous impressions on the retina. The apparatus presented by M. Armengaud to the Society of Physics is only the first part of the complete system which he has conceived in order to try to solve the problem of long-distance vision. It remains to perfect the apparatus at the receiving station, where the electric current, the intensity of which varies according to the luminous intensity of each small cin-

That part of the problem is extremely delicate. But there would seem to be reason to hope that either M. Armengaud himself or one of the other countries—M. M. Marcel Deprez. FIGHTS WAY THROUGH BAND OF BRIGANDS

British Offcer's Brave Deed-Shoots Down His Captors.

Few more thrilling stories have ever been told in an official document than that in a Brtish Blue Book on Southeastern Europe, published a few days ago. The story is that of the escape of Colonel G. S. Elliot, formerly British staff officer on the Macedonian gendarmerie, from a band of brigands, and in a dispatch which accompanies the narrative the British ambassador (the late Sir N. O'Conor) describes the incident as an "extraordinary feat, and a most remarkable instance of courage and presence of mind." and presence of mind."

The affair took place in the Drama district of Macedonia on July 31st last year, when Colonel Elliot, in his official year, when Colonel Elliot, in his official capacity, was making a tour of inspection. On the date in question he was at the village of Gyuredjik, when he was suddenly attacked by a band of armed Bulgarian bandits, with a view to holding him to ramson.

The bandits were dressed in a sort of khaki uniform, were armed with Mannlicher carbines and bayonets, and carried hand grenades in felt bags

His captors, who had seized Colonel Elliot from behind, hurried him towards a forest-covered mountain on the south side of the valley. The attack was witnessed by an Armenian lady, who informed the colonel's servants of what had occurred. Armenian lady, who informed the colonel's servants of what had occurred,

Homeward Bound to England

West.

Sir Genille Cave-Browne-Cave, the celebrated cowboy baronet, is homeward bound at last after thirteen years of adventure and hardship in the Wild West. A weather-beaten, powerful, deep-chested man in the prime of life, the baronet—who, by the way, is known as "Kitty" throughout Arizona, New Mexico, Yyoming, and Colorado—visited me in quest of information as to the best way of reaching London with a limited purse, says the New York correspondent of the London Mail.

We fell to talking of his career and his canged prospects, and how he respects having to leave the West even to take his place again in England. He left England in 1895, when ill-fortune overtook him, and went to Arizona, where he obtained work as a cowboy. He had been roughrider in an English Hussar regiment, and his skill enabled him to earn money as a horse-breaker. "For the first three months;" said Sir Genille, "I was thrown three or four times a day, But in time I became so expert that it was a paying business. I was paid file a horse, and for two months in the year I rode on an average four horses a day. When a horse has been ridden three times he is supposed to be broken. I practised and prospered, and was very soon known as one of the best steer ropers in the country.

"There is still plenty of lawlessness out West," he went on, "but things are than he, so he acknowledged his defeat, and he so he acknowledged his defeat, and sone of the best steer ropers in the country.

UNFORTUNATE MAJOR HODGINS

The Colonist has our sincere sympathy in its trifling misunderstanding with Major Hodgins. Our contemporary says the Major either did not tell the truth in Victoria or he is not telling the truth at Ottawa. This in face of a declaration that the gallant but unreliable Major had interviews with both the editor-in-chief and with the city the country without getting its estieditor, predicating a sincere effort to fix up matters so that all should tell the same story-and stick to it. Unfortuantely for the Major, when he got to Ottawa he was placed upon oath and was confronted with certain facts in relation to his connection with the transcontinental commissioners and engineers which did not harmonize with tale he related to the Colonist Consequently he had to place before the committee of the House of Commons a revised edition of the romance. of his charges were based upon hearments with which to buttress his statements he destroyed them immediately upon being summoned to Ottawa for the nurpose of giving evidence; that it was not true, as he told the Colonist, that he had laid his facts before the Premier and asked for an inquiry; that was true that he had never communicated with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and that the Premier had not refused an investigation; that it was true that if his proposition as a substitute for the regular methods of classification had been adopted the contractors would have made handsome profits. In fact, the Major's evidence gives indication of a confusion of mind more disconcerting to the hunters for scandal than the confusion the Colonist is alleged to have made in its published interviews. Therefore the conclusions of the unbiassed observer must be that the Major did not tell the truth to the Colonist and that the truth he has told at Ottawa leaves the scandal-mongers at large in a very pretty predicament, to be adopted between Great Britain man, allowed himself to be made a tool of by the agents of the Conservative party, with the result that as a pro alleged against him that as an individual he is untruthful. Yet we are told that the opposition has made up its mind that no federal public business shall be transacted until the fate of the Whitney and the Gouin governments has been own individual benefit, who has usurpmeagre salaries-doubtless the governalready quoted the opinions of the Tojournal, and some independent newspathe case very strongly when it says:

It certainly a unique opportunity. If the Imperial is unconstitutional to demand for the provinces the control of the parliamentary electoral lists, and if parliament chooses to take those lists out of provincial hands, no one can make any reasonable objection, even if it took them into its own. But when the control of the lists is to be transferred entirely into the hands of the judges and itutional to demand for the

There are many gentlemen in it. Whether these many gentlemen in it. will make themselves felt remains to be "Of course the first question politically is how the country would receive the parties coming before it on such an issue. It is presumable that the filibusterers count on sympathy there. They probably say to themselves, "The people are in love with hold-up warfare, and if the government has to appeal to mates through, there are fools enough defeated, and to vote against it accordingly, as mean people do.' On the other hand, we should think that there are enough of intelligent men in the country to see that government by hold-up with a view to electoral piracy is altogether intolerable in a free coun try, and could only have the effect of reducing us to the level of a Spanish republic, and of making us a byword in the world for parliamentary failure As our thinking is altogether along the latter lines, we cannot but assume that for the opposition to force a general election on this issue would be to wipe service people whose salaries will be stopped, and who will have a chance to test the length of their credit, as well as that of the nation, possibly the raiders think that the voters look upon them with ill-will, and will be the better pleased. There are, however, a good many of them, and it is common ly believed that many of them have political backers and sympathizers or one side or the other, and many voters who themselves aspire to the civil service, so that this gigantic piece of gratuitous cruelty would seem on the whole to count pretty strongly against the buccaneers,"

CHEAP COMMUNICATION AND TRADE. The penny postage system, which was introduced by Sir William Mulock when Postmaster-General of Canada, is point of fact Major Hodgins, a weak and the United States. It was a hard thing to convince the postal authorities of Great Britain that the idea would be a success from a financial and humiliated, besides having the charge commercial point of view. Only the logic of facts could do that. The tremendous increase in postal revenue which has followed the reduction of rates in Canada furnished an object lesson which could not be ignored. Great Britain has maintained a position of analogous scepticism in regard communication with Canada. must be shown that it will pay before consenting to co-operate in an under taking of such tremendous import to the Empire. She is not yet satisfied that improving the means of commun ication tends to an increase in busi-ness. Canada has repeatedly expressed her willingness to do her part -to pay even more than her proporsidles. But the government of Great Britain still has the matter under ser ious consideration, as it has had it decided. Possibly Hon. Geo. E. Foster, for several years. The annual meeting of the Children Aid Society of Victoria will be held on of the society, says the constitution, "shall be the protection of children from cruelty and caring for and prophaned children, and the enforcemen by all lawful means of the laws relatthereto." From a superficial obsertion of the cenditions in this city, are would appear to be less need for existence of such an institution as children's aid society in Victoria an in any other city in the world. It a very rare thing to see an ill-clad insufficiently nourished little one candering in our streets. Yet there are rephans' homes here, and they are sell filled and doing a splendid work for humanity. Consequently the objects of this society are worthy of the most generous support.

A PROMINENT NEED

To the Editor:-May I suggest through your columns to the Mayor and council the genuine need of a natatorium in the the genuine need of a natatorium in the city? It is an immensely important item from the point of view of health, and would also be a good paying proposition. The temperature of the Straits of San Juan de Fuca or any of their beautiful bays (except the Gorge for a short period) is not congruous for bathing during the majority of the year's twelve months, hence my suggestion. If this matter is taken up and acted upon by our council it will be a true progressive step.

THE NOOTKA TRIBE.

To the Editor:—There appeared in last night's Times a rather sensational article under the heading "Indians Suspected of a Serious Crime." The statements of Constable McLeod are perfectly reliable, but the suspicions alluded to are rash and without the least foundation for their existence. I was in the neighborhood of Nootka the other day, and I learned from the priest stationed at the Nootka village that there was no "high revel held"; that the natives did not "assemble from all points," and I know, from a long acquaintance with them, that the Nootka Indians have not indulged in the use of intoxicants these many years.

The accusations and suspicions are uncalled for, and no unnecessary alarm should be caused by the statements of ignorant and irresponsible individuals. Constable McLeod did his duty, and he did it well, as the only residents of Nootka, the Rev. Father Stein and the storekeeper will testify.

ACTIVITY SHOWN IN OUTDOOR SPORTS

Preparations Being Made for Big Athletic Meet on July 4th.

The Y. M. C. A. is taking a much mere active interest in the outdoor sports and games this year than here-toire. Not only is there a splendid swimming club most of the members of which go into camp on the banks of the Gorge during the summer, but the baseball team is coming up well and the boys are intending to make a dead set for the city champlonship. Every alternate evening they practice at Oak Bay, the other evenings—of the week being used for training for the coming

AUTOMOBILISTS WILL ENTER PROTEST

Meeting of Local Board to Be Held to Discuss Prosecutions.

The automobilists of the city are up in arms against the authorities who have been prosecuting them of late for exceeding the speed limit. The local Motor Club is taking the matter up, a special meeting of that organization being called for Tuesday evening next at some latitude in the matter of speed. There are a number of straight broad streets in the city and suburbs, where Findlay are preparing for the 220 yard race, Gordon Agnew for the 440 and Ronald Heater for the long jump. The event will be held on July 4th, and it is expected to be a big affair.

The walking club in connection with the association is daily increasing its membership, and preparation is being made for the contemplated walk to Ladysmith. This club is quite distinct from the Rambling Club which consists of the Juniors of the association. The Ramblers will go to Oak Bay next Saturday afternoon to engage in an old-fashioned clam bake on Bowker's beach.

Orange Juice and Health

FOR STOMACH AND SKIN.

Few of us realize what an important part the skin plays in keeping us well or making us ill.

The millions of tiny glands, or pores, are intended to rid the system of waste matter, which the blood brings to the skin. It is a well known medical fact that the healthy skin carries off more Urea or waste matter than the kidneys. Just think how much poison remains in the system when there is any skin trouble.

The skin and stomach are intimately associated. Find a person with a dry, harsh skin and you will find one who suffers with indigestion or constipation, and both, usually.

Both may be relieved by a judiclous use of orange juice. Both can be cured by taking the juice of an orange every morning before breakfast, and taking "Fruit-a-tives" at night. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices in tablet form. The fresh juices of oranges, apples, figs and pruges are separated from the pulp, and then combined in such a way that the medicinal action is intensified.

SWIFTEST CRUISER WILL CARRY PRINCE

H. M. S. Indomitable is Vessel Unique Among Navies of the World.

There is reason to believe, says the London Telegraph, that the Prince of Wales will travel to Canada for the Tercentenary celebration in the new Dreadnought cruiser Indomitable, thus rendering the voyage across the Atlantic one of the most remarkable incidents in connection with navigation which has happened for some years pust. The Indomitable is a vessel which is still unique in the world's fleets—unique in her defensive qualities, her gun power, and her speed. She is the light-footed sister of the Dreadnought, and embodies the same revolutionary features, being constructed on the same lines to provide against destruction.

lutionary features, being constructed on the same lines to provide against destruction by mines or torpedoes, driven by turbines and armed on the all-biggun principle which has now been adopted by the world.

The Indomitable is the swiftest manof-war-apart from a torpedo craft—in the world—She was designed for a speed of twenty-five knots, a remarkable rate of travelling to expect from a vessel of such huge dimensions and carrying an armament of devastating power. She has been proyided with Parsons marine turbines, similar in design to those which have proved so successful in the Dreadnought, She was ssful in the Dreadnought, She was designed for a horse-power of 41,000. Although all official details are still withheld, it is understood that on the measured mile on the Clyde she actually attained a speed equivalent to twenty-eight knots, or about thirty-two/land miles. This is the rest recent twenty-eight knots, or about inity-two-hand miles. This is the most remark-able result yet obtained in a large tur-bine-propelled ship, and will cause the heir-apparent's voyage to Canada to be watched with keen interest. The ves-sel has exceeded her designed speed on her continuous runs, but by how much

In all the world's fleets, the Indomit-In all the world's fleets, the Indomitable stands alone. She combines a higher speed than has been obtained hitherto even in British cruisers, with twice the effective big gun fire of forceign battleships built prior to the eign battleships built prior to the Dreadnought. She brings to bear the same broadside as the Dreadnought. Her main particulars are as follows: Displacement (tons), 17,250; length (feet), 520; beam (feet), 78½; draught (feet), 25; coal capacity (tons), maximum, 2,000; coal capacity, normal, 1,000; armaments, 8 12-inch guns, 16 4-inch guns; speed (centinuous), 25 knots. ost about $9,000,000.

The eight 12-inch guns are mounted in four turrets, all of which can be brought to fire on either broadside, thus discharging simultaneously projectiles weighing 6,800 pounds, which is equivalent to upwards of three tons, with a combined muzzle energy sufficient to lift 318,744 tons one foot. These huge weapons can be operated with the ease of rifles, so absolutely are they under control.

In one other respect the Indemitable marks an advance on the Dreadnought, namely, the armament carried for repelling attacks by torpedo craft. The Dreadnought is provided with the new The eight 12-inch guns are mounted pelling attacks by torpedo craft. The Dreadnought is provided with the new 12-pounder gun of 18 cwt., whereas the Indomitable mounts the 4-inch breech-loading gun, which has given such excellent results. This weapon is very rapid in action, and fires a 25-pound projectile. On the other hand, while the Dreadnought has twenty-six of the smaller pieces, it has been possible to give the Indomitable only sixteen of the larger guns. Two of these 25-bounders are mounted on each turret, and four on each shelter deck.

Dounders are mounted on each turret, and four on each shelter deck.

The Indomitable has just finished a series of gunnery trials of a most exhaustive character in the English channel, and they proved entirely successful. Three rounds with full charges and one round with reduced charges were fired from each 12-inch gun, and each turret fired one simultaneous round from both set twenty per cent of the remainder will be published.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Of course everyone will go to see the New Westminster lacrosse team when they meet the Victorias at the Royal Athletic park on Saturday afternoon. The fact that they are the champion team of all Canada as well as of the West, should be sufficient inducement but when it is considered that the home lads have enough ambition to expect to hold them down, no one should stay away.

Music and sport is a good combination. Lacrosse is the king of games from a spectacular standpoint. The local team has not yet been chosen, in fact it would be foolish to choose it to soon. All the boys are eager to catch a place, for they recognize it to be a great honor. Some will naturally be disappointed, but the best men will be choosen regardless of the district or club to which they belong.

TRAVELLER IS FOND OF THE CHINESE

Norwegian Government Representative Talks About Conditions in Orient.

Having travelled extensively and for the last two years with his residence in China, Cato N. B. Aall, a gepresentative of the Norwegian government at Japan, who arrived here last night speaks of the Chinese as a whole, as a nation of very gentle, kind and con siderate manners and habits. Having in mind his travels throughout the world, which have covered every nation, there is no people among whom he prefers to live better than the Chin-ase, the higher class of which he has found to be nothing short of charming in their disposition, manners and China, he says, to the observant resi-China, he says, to the observant resident, is changing in a marvelous manner, and an army that will have to be teckoned with in the future is steadily teing increased and drilled in the most thorough manner. Attention is being paid to the matter of self-projection, and the youth of the country are now being steadily drilled and children in the public schools are being prepared with the idea of the advantages of a military training. China, ages of a military training. China e says, has socialistic tendencies, al though they are at this time not as noticeable as they are likely to become as time advances and the manufacturies of the country increase in extent. Yuan Sui Kai, the present min-ister of foreign affairs in Pekin, is, reister of foreign affairs in Pekin, is, remarked Mr. Aall, the most able man in China to-day, and is wielding great power in forming her future destinies. He, when governor of the province of Chill, organized an army of 100,000 men which he left on his retirement, recently, fully equipped on the most advanced European lines, and thoroughly drilled and ready to take their part in any defensive action that should become necessary for the protection of their country. He speaks of the similarity existing between the Japanese and the Chinese in their absence of any fear towards death. They individually look upon the future state as an honor and go to meet it when as an honor and go to meet it when their time comes with fortitude and resignation, maintaining that they live again in a better and more harmonious state than the one allotted to them on the earth.

Mr. Aall tells of the illness of the Mr. Aall tells of the illness of the Empress Dowager of China, who has for some time been suffering from a cancer in the face, and it is thought that her death may follow at any moment, by those in China who are in a position to know. She is now over seventy years of age and during later years has been a supreme controlling feure in the destines of China who figure in the destinies of China and the Chinese.

the Chinese.

Speaking of Japanese affairs, Mr.

Aall remarked that Japan is thought to be spending too much money on her navy and army, and he thinks that the reason of the active preparations on the part of the Japanese is in anticipation of the distribution of the distribution. on the part of the Japanese is in anticipation of the disturbance which might happen in the event of the death of the Empress, at which time the nation will be face to face with the possibility of continuous dissention in China and Manchuria. He discounts the idea that the Japanese preparations are being conducted with a view to protecting themselves against the American nation.

China is, he declares, the point towards which the Japanese nation is keeping its defensive eye, and between the two nations within the next few years there are events of world wide importance which may be enacted there. Of the Japanese trade depression, which is the subject of considerable trouble, Mr. And says that the depression is certainly the outcome of the stringency of the United States which meant to the Japanese nation a loss of $5,000,000 in trade through the cessation of the United States demand for Japanese goods. The loss, he says, has been nothing short of disastrous, Mr. And left on last night's boat for Vancouver en route to Norway.

Captain White Fraser, of Agassiz, who has been in St. Joseph's hospital for some weeks, returned this morning to his home, accompanied by Dan. Gillies, who has been staying with Captain Fraser over

There is a slight tendency for eags to go higher. In all probability they would have been higher this week, as a good many have been shipped out lately to the camps and northern points, but to counterbalance this a large shipment of fresh eags has been just brought in from Alberta. The Alberta eggs are selling a few cents cheaper than the local. They are very good.

" The days of old,

" The days of gold,

" The days of 'Fifty-Nine."

BYGONE DAYS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE TIMES will commence on SATURDAY, JUNE 6th, the publication of a series of articles by a well-known writer dealing with pioneer days in B. C., and giving the reminiscences of the old-timers who have made of 1858 and following years an epoch in the history of the Canadian West.

This epoch has never received justice at the hands of the historians. It is crammed with human interest—with thrilling incidents of the goldsearch of the argonauts-with the pathos and often tragedy of their frantic quest for wealth-with the sadness of their failures, as well as with the romantic glamor of their successes. The mad rush to Victoria from all parts of the continent and from over-seas, the hurrying fleet of craft, from steamers to dug-outs, which scrambled like the salmon which have since made the same river famous, up the Fraser to the head of navigation, and then the crowding onward over unbroken trails, and through mountain canyons to their El Dorado-this is the story in part which

These sketches are not dry chronicles abstracted from musty volumes-the re-hashed stories of earlier historians-but flesh and blood tales, full of local color and incident and set down at first hand from the lips of men, many of whom have never before related their story.

The memories of the pioneers, the lore and tradition of the Indians, treasured and hitherto unread manuscript have all been laid under tribute.

The writer will tell for the first time legends of the tribes relating to streams and localities in this province which have never been excelled in beauty in the folk lore of any other people.

He will tell from the lips of one whose father saw the epoch-making event the story of the voyage of Simon Fraser and his two companions down the Fraser when for the first time the semi-savage dwellers on that stream saw a pale-face navigating its waters.

These sketches will be fully illustrated—in some instances with photographs taken specially for use in this connection, and will be full of thrilling interest to all to whom the "days of øld" in this province appeal.

The Times in arranging for these sketches has done so largely for the purpose of preserving for posterity information and data which is disappearing with the actors in this early stage of provincial affairs, and who are rapidly crossing the Great Divide.

It is hoped that all survivors will not only read these sketches but will offer such additional information, correction, or amendation, as their own knowledge and experience suggests. The Times will be glad to publish all such communications.

The first article, "HISTORIC YALE," will appear in the issue of June 6th, and it is hoped to produce one on each succeeding Saturday until the series is completed.

BIG GAME HUNTERS

BACK FROM TRIP

Local Sportsmen Had Good Results on Their Tour.

The big game hunters who left for the north some time ago after bear, have returned and brought their trophies with them. There were two parties, Harry Pooley and A. J. O'Reilly went together; while W. F. Burton went in company with J. Wrigley, of the Union Steamship Company.

Messrs. Pooley and O'Reilly took a raphtha launch along, with which they went up Gardner's canal and funted on the rivers flowing into that water, particularly on the Kemano river. They bagged two grizzlies, slx black bear, and a lynx.

river. They bagged two grizzlies, six black bear, and a lynx.

Messrs: Burton and Wrigley failed to get any grizzlies but they brought home the skins of no less than six black bears and one brown. These were all killed close to Gardner's canal without going up the rivers. The hunters went up the forty miles of salt water in Indian cances, making Kitimat their base.

The government and parliament, when it decided to bury Zola in the Na-tional Pantheon beside Carnot, Victor Hugo, and other great Frenchmen, rea-Hugo, and other great Frenchmen, realized that it was arousing the smouldering embers of Dreyfus hatred, but Premier Clemenceau and the present government, including War Minister Picquart, who attained his present position as a result of the successful outcome of the long Dreyfus struggle, did not shrink from this final act of justice to the remove of the man who accorded not shrink from this final act of justice to the memory of the man who, according to Anatole France in his funeral oration at Zola's burial six years ago, "represented the human conscience." The programme for the ceremonies of last night and to-day was consequently carefully arranged to avoid any organized street demonstrations.

There was no public lying-in-state under the Arc de, Triomphe as in the case of Victor Hugo, 23 years ago, nor any popular procession of untold thousands such as followed the famous novelist to his grave. Instead, the body of Zola was quietly taken to the Panof Zoia was quictly tagen to the Pan-theon last night. But the manifesta-tions of last night, although not very serious, gave the government ample warning of the possibility of trouble to-day.

In order therefore to be prepared for any eventuality, long lines of mounted Cuirassiers and Republican guards were deployed along all the approaches to the Pantheon several hours before the crowds began to arrive. Over 15,the crowds began to arrive. Over 15,000 people were gathered in the streets

While the dignitaries were arriving, the crowd was divided in the nature of its demonstrations. Small but noisy groups, shouted "Down with Zola" and "Long live the army," about 500 men belonging to a Catholic organization being particularly violent. A great majority of the multitude, however, was sympathetic and their cheers drowned the cries of dissent.

Inside the Pantheon which is in the in black.

Inside the Pantheon which is in the form of a Greek cross, the beautifully decorated casket containing the body of decorated easket containing the body of Emile Zola reposed upon a high red and gold catafalque placed in the centre of the transept and beneath the cupola. The base was banked with flowers, and eight green flames burning from gigantic golden castors around the bier, gave a strange and weird effect. The balustrades of the Pantheon were hung with golden drapery bearing Zola's initials and overhung with violet tulle. Mme. Zola and Zola's two natural children, who have been legitimized, together with some friends, occupied a place in the corner of the transept flanking the position of President Failieres and the members of the ident Fallieres and the members

The diplomatic corps were directly opposite. Premier Clemenceau sat in the first row before the president and immediately in front of General Picimmediately in front of General Picquart. In the intervening space were delegations from the senate and chamber of deputies, members of the cabinet in green uniforms, officers of the army and navy, and representatives of various ministries, and all the state and municipal corporations. The profusion of uniforms added to the brilliancy of the assemblage. Many distinguished men of letters also were present, though the Dreytus opponents, together with all the members of opposition in parliament, were notable by their absence.

LONGSHOREMEN STRUCK WORK ON HENRIETTA

Captain of McKenzie Steamship Compromised on Higher Wage.

While the steamship Henrietta, under charter to McKenzie Bros., Vancouver, was unloading freight for Foley, Welch & Stewart at Prince Rupert on Saturday, the longshoremen, after working eight hours, struck for a raise of 10 cents an hour. They had been receiving 40 cents and wanted 50 cents, refusing to handle another ounce of cargo until their demands were acceded to.

The G. T. P. contractors, consignees of the cargo, refused to pay the increase asked for, but Capt. Butler, of the Henrietta, effected a compromise with the men, who finally went back to work at 45 cents an hour.

Dr. Palmer Delighted His Au- Style of Dress Fashion Dedience Last Evening.

Long before 8 o'clock last evening.
St. Andrew's Roman Catholic cathedral was thronged by a brilliant assembly. The evening being perfect, permitted gay June costumes to exhibit their attractiveness.

Dr. Palmer, of whom so much was said, and so much expected, certainly acquitted himself admirably, and fully justified every sentence that was uttered concerning his great accomplishments as a finished organist.

Of his organ numbers perhaps his greated performances were the great D Major Fugue, of Bach, and the Tocata, of Duboir, the latter of which closed the programme. Of his smaller items, in Paradistum, again by Duboir, was probably most relished. Dr. Palmer proved himself to possess absolute control of all the mechanical contrivances in connection with the beautiful new organ, which by the way, he speaks of in the most englished terms, stating his amazement at the very superior instrument made by a Canadian firm. Of the soloists, Miss Sehl and Benedig Bantly, the former delighted her hearers with a composition admirably suited to her range, and combined with the violin obligator made a lasting impression. It is a pity that Victorians do not hear more of ner beautiful singing. Mr. Bantly bore out his reputation in performing his violin number in a masterly manner. The composition proved very refreshing after the heavy organ numbers.

At the end of the programme the singing of the National Anthem by the male voice choir brought a very splendid concert to a fitting conclusion.

M. le Poittevin said that he would take M. Lemoine at his word, and would order the sealed packet to be deposited with the registrar of the court until the expiration of the period fixed. If such a diamond as he deserbed was not produced, M. Lemoine would go back to jail and the envelope would be opened. The experiments will be carried out by the chemist alone, without the presence of experts or magistrates.

A large shed has already been taken, it is understood, at St. Denis, near the bank of the Seine, and has been elaborately fitted, but M. Lemoine refuses to speak on the subject of his experiaments.

A skirt that is sheathlike in its outline, an abnormally high-crowned hat, a tight-fitting sleeve, swathed to the arm and so long as almost to cover the back of the hand, a sloping shoulder line and a boa of extremely small dimensions, all contribute to the attenuated appearance which is the height of present-day smartness.

The assistance of the beauty doctor, the physical culturist, the masseuse and the corsetiere, among other specialists in the art of figure-changing, is being invoked by thousands of women who want to adopt the new fashion of dress.

City Council Meets.

City Council Meets.

The meeting of the city council last night was again exceptionally brief. Mayor Nicholson reported that he had found an engineer who would complete the city survey from Fourth to Sixth avenue, and take three levels from salt water to First avenue for $70. It would be some time before the surveyor could get here, but the arrangement was satisfactory to Mr. Mohun, and it would enable the latter to complete the profiles and the estimate for a sewer system for the entire city. It was accordingly agreed to engage this engineer to complete the city survey.

COUGARS AT SAVONA.

Savona, June 2.—Cougars are still prevalent in this district, and two more horses have fallen victims to animals of this species. One of the horses killed was owned by James Uren and the other by Thos, Cooney. Two cougars were recently shot, one close to town and the other across the lake. It was thus hoped that the district had been rid of them. After these recent losses several local cattlemen and horse owners have announced that they will liberally supplement the government provincial bounty for each cougar shot.

CHINESE MUST SERVE LIFE.

Vancouver, June 3.—Li Wing Hai, a Chinese, who by his confession, killed his wife at Sumas, Wash, on April 25th, was at Bellingham yesterday convicted of murder in the second degree. He was sentenced to life imprisonment. He seemed not to care about nor even to hear the words of the sentence pronounced against him,

PLANS FOR REGATTA

AT COWICHAN BAY

W. H. Hayward, M. P. P., Advocates Establishment of Egg Market in District.

(Special Correspondence) Cowichan Station, June 3.-A general meeting to appoint a committee to make arrangements for the annual remake arrangements for the annual regatta at Cowichan Bay on July 1st was a led in the Buena Vista hotel in Saturday last. Mr. Jewel was appointed secretary and Messrs. Hayward, Maitland-Dougall, May, Hincks, Irvine, Brownjohn, Mutter, Morton and others are on the committee, which will meet again on Thursday to draw out a list of races and sports, which will include rowing for laddes and gentlemen, saling, Indian canoe races, upset races and walking the greasy pole.

W. H. Hayward Gives Address.

W. H. Hayward Gives Address.

W. H. Hayward, M. P. P., address W. H. Hayward, M. P. P., addressed a fairly large and representative meeting at the South Cowichan hall last evening. Mr. Hayward said that he had called the meeting partly for the purpose of refuting the statement so often made that members are only seen during election times. He said he would be pleased to answer any questions put of $600 for loss of profits for the riot week.

The regatta will also be a strong card. In addition to the usual sculling events, the Indian canoe races, and the swimming contests, there is to be a waterpolo competition. Good prizes will be given to the winning club and invitations will be sent to the Victoria clubs to send up teams. It is also probable that during the progress of the regatta the Ladysmith male voice party will be on hand to render selections under the leadership of Mr. J. M. Morgan of Victoria.

Altogether so far the prize list will run over the thousand dollar mark, and the semantic season of $600 for loss of profits for the riot week.

"This is a hideous commentary on existing conditions," said Commissioner King. "My own view is that he manufacture of this drug should not be personal the multicature of this drug should not be personal that the prohibition lay entirely with the waspleasing to knew that the financial during el arket should be established in e market should be established in connection with the creameries, and so keep the price of that product at a better level and avoid having to do with the middlemen.

A number of questions of local interest were put to and answered by Mr. Hayward, and a resolution was framed to try and restrict the speed of motor cars passing over the narrow and winding roads of this district. A vote of thanks to Mr. Hayward terminated the proceedings.

Boathouse at Buena Vista,

Mr. Brownjohn, of the Buena Vista, has just completed a new boathouse, and will be able to accommodate his guests with good boats for fishing at all times. He expects to have telephone connection by the end of the month, and also contemplates starting a general store for the convenience of those living near the bay. living near the bay.

Arrivals at Station,

E. A. Harris and party from Victoria were week-end guests at the Buena Vista hotel. Mr. Harris had bad luck fishing on account of the logs at the mouth of the Cowichan river.

Late arrivals at the above hotel include Mrs. C. Fitz Gibbon, Miss Frances Fitz Gibbon, and Miss Jessica Bell.

TERRIBLE BREATHING DIFFICULTY.

"For ten years." states Capt. McDonald, of Kingston. Ont., "I have been a terrible sufferer from Bronchitis. Asthma, and often it was so bad that for nights at a time I couldn't sleep. I spent hundreds of doilers on doctors and medicines, but one dollar outlit of Catarrhozone cured me."
Four months later Capt. McDonald writes: "I am still perfectly well and have no bother from my old trouble."
The reason Catarrhozone is so succeasful is because it's healing-balsays and vapors get at the root of the bronchial irritation—right where the disease has it's root. Other remedies work through the blood or the stomach

BEAR PURSUES UNARMED MAN. Vancouver, June 3,-S. May and a Vancouver, June 3.—S. May and a companion, attached to Goldman's logging camp, located near Harrison mills, had an exciting hour one day last week. The pair were going through the brush along Cottonwood creek when they aroused a large black bear, which made for the men. Being unarmed, they dodged among the trees for some time, but were finally compelled to a place of refuge. The bear time, but were finally compelled to climb to a place of refuge. The bear did not follow them, but hung around in the vicinity for several hours, arousing whenever the men made an attempt to come down. Their shouts finally attracted two fishermen along the cseek, and these men, being armed, quickly dispatched the bear.

ODD FELLOWS TO GATHER.

New Westminster, June 3.—Local Odd Fellows are making great preparations for the gathering of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, which will take place in this city next week. The grand encampment will hold sessions on Tuesday, while the grand lodge will be in session on Wednesday and Thursday. A banquet will be held at the Hotel Russell on Thursday night.

LIFEBOAT ORGANIZATION

The Good Services Rendered

Last evening the second annual meeting of the Lifeboat and Lifesaving Association was held in the city hall, at which Mayor Hall presided. The following were present: H. Dallas Helmcken, K. C., Capt. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Ian St. Clair, J. S. Bailey, J. G. Warner, H. C. Marsh, A. S. Margison, E. T. Lawrie, W. H. Spurrier and Joseph Pierson.

chief business of the evening was the election of officers and the reading of the annual report of the president and secretary.

Mr. Joseph Peirson, secretary of the association, read the following report:

Lifeboat and Lifesaving Association of British Columbia, incorporated by act of B. C. Legislature, 1906.

In presenting the second annual re-port, being a resume of proceedings for the year ending 31st March, 1908, the committee of management regret to have to record a continued and deplorable indifference on the part of the general public, the almost universal expression being that the work of, or aids to the preservation of life from shipwrecking or other casualty at see shipwrecking or other casualty at sea should rest with the government. If it be true that governments are what the people make them, it is surely the duty of the public to urge and influence government to action, and how can sentiments and influences be given power to move the state better than by an organized force as is acquired by an organized force, as is acquired by this association? The eminently hu-mane and beneficial work of life sav-ing should both demand and command the aid-and assistance of every high-minded and good-hearted citizen.

of the Dominion government. This your committee accepted when the president and secretary waited upon the Hon. W. Fempleman, M. P., and discussing dealis, it was at once arranged that this association take over the boat with its equipment together with the boat house anchored in the harbor. And, whilst hanking the Dominion government for anchored in the harbor. And, whilst thanking the Dominion government for this expression of its munificence for the protection, more particularly, of Victoria and adjacent waters, would express the greatest possible satisfaction in witnessing the noble work done, and being done, by the Dominion government on the west ceast, long known as "the graveyard of ships." A motor lifeboat, with full crew has been stationed at Bamfield, and three other life-boats are stationed, respectively, at Clayoquot, Ucluelet and Clo-oose, the two first being supplied with full crews Clayoquot, Ucluelet and Clo-oose, the offers being supplied with full crews from December 1st to March 31st, but in respect to the latter, there has so far meen some difficulty in arranging for a regular crew, the district being sparsoly populated except by Indians, whom it is difficult to bring to a full understanding of the work. Wireless telegraph stations have been crected at Estevan Point and Pachina Point, 24 miles of trail along the coast has telegraph stations have been will all on the coast has telegraph stations and patriols have been made, and in further prosecution of the work, between Bamfield and Carmanah, 75 men are now at work. The lighthouses have been well equipped, and, independent of them, look-out stations and patriols have been countries and unique to the four most danger-ous months of the year, whilst telephonic and wireless and other telegraphic communication are in operation. As regards the provincial government phonic and wireless and other telegraphic communication are in operation.

As regards the provincial government although an appeal for financial help has not yet been productive of desired results, yet it is hoped that ere long its promise of favorable consideration of grants of crown land, suitable for life saving stations, may soon be put into effect, possibly in the neighborhood of the Queen Charlottes, as with the development of the north, and consequent increase in shipping, such will be required. And, whitst again noting appreciation of the excellent work of the Dominion government, in the way of preventing seafaring casualties, your committee would also thank the Hon. Wm. Templeman, M. P., for his great interest, and Capt. J. Gaudin and his staff for Indefatigable and painstaking service in the same direction.

Touching the matter of operating the Touching the matter of operating the association's own boat, in December last advertisements were inserted in the papers for a volunteer crew, which the papers for a volunteer crew, which met with a response from Mr. Brace, of the Y. M. C. A., offering the services of some of his most staiwart athletes. It was resolved that these young men should make a trial. E. T. Mayor Hall, thanking the association for his election to the post of vice-president, said that he was sorry to see the citizens of Victoria were not as interested in its work as they should be.

Mr. Peirson characterized the lack of interest in the association which was evident last year as positively disgraceful. Fourteen committee meetings were ul. Fourteen committee meetings were alled during the year and eight of hem had to be postponed for lack of quorums.

A report was presented by the treasurer showing a balance for the year ending on March 31st of $431.97, compared with balance carried over from the previous year, of $448.57. The receipts for the year were $29.10 and the expenditures amounted to $45.70.

Toward the conclusion of the meeting the work of Tan St. Clair, in getting young men to take an interest in the local lifeboat, was highly praised by Mr. Helmcken.

Mr. Peirson said that there was a possibility that the Prince of Wales would become a patron of the associa-

ould become a patron of the associa tion.

The association then tendered votes of thanks to the ladies of St. Agnes' Guild, James Bay, for a handsome flag presented to it, to the officers who had served during the past year, and the crew from the Y. M. C. A. which had manned the lifeboat taken over by the association from the Dominion government. It was suggested that the crew of the lifeboat and the members of the executive committee be entertained by the association as a mark of appreciation, and this matter will be taken up tion, and this matter will be taken up

CAN VICTORIA GROW?

To the Editor:-For many years the beautiful city of Victoria was practically at a standstill. Of late years there has been a growth that has meant much for the people, the city and the province. As one who has made a study of the condition of things here and desirous in every way of promoting the welfare of the city. I wish to make a few criticisms that are on the lips of most people. Commendatory criticism is always welcome, and much can be said of the situation, picturesqueness and commercial advantages of this end of the Island. Victorian must, however, remember she is not all Canada, nor all British Columbia. Those of us who know other and perhaps all parts of our Dominion are the more likely to come to the truest conclusions, and of an all-round nature, respecting the place and the people. Old Victorians have some things to learn yet. The more modern and up-to-date citizens, too, do not know it all, much less do those who so often tell you what is done where they come from, and how much superior are the ways of some other parts to British, Columbia. Such persons might well consider the better service of blending all nationalities, customs and usages into one harmonious propaganda for the enhancement of Victoria the beautiful. My short residence in the province gives me the better title to say this than if-1 were an oldmonious propaganda for the enhancement of Victoria the beautiful. My short residence in the province gives me the better title to say this than if I were an old-time resident with a small horizon.

It is the duty of a government, whether provincial or municipal, to do everything in their power to make their locality a desirable place to live in. Victoria locality for natural beauty and climate cannot be excelled in Canada, and I have lived all over the Dominion; but there are two special things which militate against a large population. The first is the cost of real estate. The high prices asked for real estate. The high prices asked for land, houses and business blocks are simply outrageous, and quite beyond the income of any ordinary person. In many cases rents have more than doubled the last two years, and not a few families have left the city, being unable to pay the exorbitant figures demanded both for purchase and rent. Only a few people can pay high rents. Many who got land for almost nothing years ago have truly got rich on unearned increment. Some, and not a few people either, blame real estate men for this unwarranted advance in real estate. They are usually the boom makers, and, like most others, will advocate that which will pay them best. That is called business. But there is another side to this question. A larger field and a larger population is of far greater advantage to real estate men, just as much as decent prices are to the wage earner. Rents must come down, and so must the purchase values. They will come down when the people make up their minds not pay. If governing bodies would frown upon this constant running up of prices: MAYNARD & SON, Auctioneers.

Carpet Values

Of Unequalled Merit Offered Here

FOR JUST about a half-century, this house has enjoyed an enviable reputation for selling the best of carpets and rugs. During this stretch of time, each succeeding year's carpet business has shown great gains over the former totals. We strive each season to better our previous records in assortments and values—in the satisfactory filling of the carpet wants of British Columbians. We buy only from the world's best makers, and control, for these parts, the products of such worldfamous looms as Crossley, Templeton, etc. Only the purchase of tremendous quantities could secure such a favor and, in buying in quantity, the price concessions enable us to offer you better carpet values than any other establishment in the city. Carpets "run into money" quickly, and care should be exercised in the selecting. You are safe if you buy carpets guaranteed by the world's largest carpet manufacturers and by their representatives-
