All Americans Can Serve

Every man, woman and child in this country, who wants to serve the country, can serve it and serve it in a very simple and effective way, says Secretary McAdoo.

That service is to lend your money to the government. Every 25 cents loaned to the government is a help at this time and practically every man, woman and child, by making some trifling sacrifice, some denial of a pleasure, or giving up some indulgence, can render the government that support.

Liberty Potatoes

Or potatoes from two Liberty Acres.

Last Spring one of Carmel's residents, out walking, thinking probably, of the war and its demands, and gazing upon an unused field, conceived the idea of making this field productive for the Red Cross.

He got to work. He decided upon "spuds." He has worked hard ever since. Nature smiled upon the venture, and

The fine, big potatoes are now matured and ready for delivery at $1.50 per 100 pound sack.

Every cent received from the sale of these potatoes goes to the Red Cross. Not a penny is taken out for expenses—seed, irrigation, cultivating, delivery, etc.; these will be wholly assumed by the gentleman farmer.

Eat potatoes and save wheat.
Leave orders at Pine Cone office.

Pine Needles

Mrs. J. V. Christy and children of San Jose are now occupying their Solid Comfort cottage here, and may remain all summer.

Mr. Kelly part owner of "Over the Top," Camp Fremont soldiers' paper, was a sojourner here last week.

Mrs. Sarah Fator, wife of C. O. Favor, died on June 30 in Oakland. The funeral services were held on the following Tuesday at the Shattuck Ave. M. E. Church. The old couple had many friends here. R. W. Ball attended the funeral.

Gordon Davis, who two years ago helped to make "The Piper" a success, is now in the Navy. He was here for a few days last week.

Mrs. I. M. Hoffman and her son, Ross, who spent several weeks here recently, are now sojourning at Feather River Inn, in Plumas county.

The Forest Theatre Society has been given a $10 donation by a visiting lady, who in this way desires to express her appreciation of the organization's efforts on behalf of the Red Cross.

County Auditor A. G. Winckler was a Carmel visitor last Sunday. He is one of the few county officials who will have no opposition in the next month's primary.

Patriotic exercises were held at Carmel Highland Inn on 4th of July evening. There was singing, the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and appropriate remarks by F. H. Powers. Among the interested ones in attendance was Professor Bernard Moses.

The county assessment valuation of taxable property in the Sunset School District is slightly less this year than last. The figures are: Outside, not including Carmel-by-the-Sea, for 1917 $274,995, for 1918 $257,685. Inside, including all of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, for 1917 $367,890, for 1918 $366,318.

Miss A. C. Robertson, who is occupying her Paradise Park cottage here, has as guests her sister, Mrs. J. M. Scott, her niece, Miss Margaret Scott, and nephews Benny and Willie Scott, all from San Francisco. They will remain until the first week in August.

The married son of the Ranks, who is now here, has been called by the St. Louis exemption board. He will report at Salinas.

During the week the publisher of the Pine Cone received from recent visitors here two checks, one for $41.80, the other for $87.88, for the purchase of thirty-one War Savings Stamps, to be credited to mel quota.

George P. Adams and family of Berkeley are spending the month here. They have the Kench house.

Miss N. Bowman of San Francisco, who has been here a fortnight, is looking forward to the coming of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Williams of Sausalito, who have taken the new Gilbert cottage for a month, from the 15th.

Mrs. H. P. Larouette left last week for San Jose, for a brief visit with her many friends there. The Garden City was the former home of the Larouettes.

Miss H. M. Starks of Moorestown, N. J., is to reside in Carmel permanently, and will make her home with Miss Emma Williams.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

OFFICIAL FOOD NEWS

Issued by
U. S. Food Administration
for California

By HERBERT HOOVER

California has sent a host of fine, strong, clean lads to our Army and Navy. Some are in the front line trenches now and they all will have had their turn in the next few months.

There is a great army of young patriots left in California, ready to line up as a strong reserve in the second line trenches. Every army has to have its reserves—reserves of men, reserves of food, reserves of ammunition. Every child in the public schools in California can be a food soldier. He can stand in line, shoulder to shoulder with all the others, with firm intent to produce food and to conserve food, so that the reserve of food for their big brothers and their fathers in the front line trenches will be always ready in France when needed.

The country has had cause to be glad that so many of its young people have already received instruction in conservation of food and clothing and loyalty of act and thought. A great deal has been done, but it is undoubtedly true that a great deal more can be done, and if every person acts as an able and aggressive officer in this army of the second line, there is no reason why wonderful California with its wheat and its fruit, should not lead the Union in increase of production and conservation, and decrease of consumption. Is the cause not great enough? Is the reward not worth while? The Food Administration looks to you for support and loyalty.

PROSECUTION OF ENGLISH FOOD LAW VIOLATORS.

"Jessie F. Courtney of Bow street was fined $75 for serving suet on meatless days.

"Mrs. Wild, a wealthy woman of Winston, offered 3 shillings per pound for butter, buying it for the wounded. She said she was spending a fortune of $35,000 among the poor. The bench bound her over for 12 months.

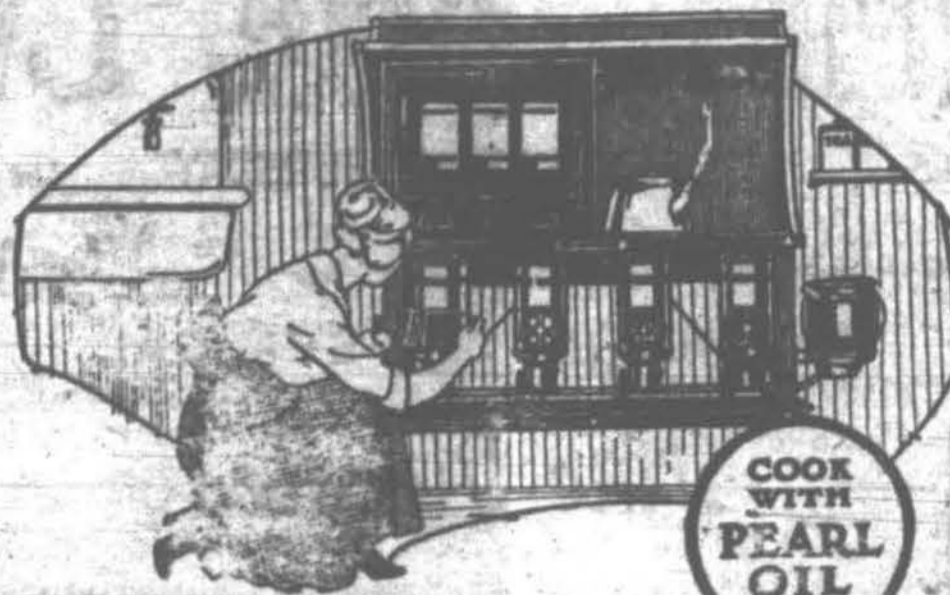

"Albert Norrish and Kenneth Landle, manager and secretary, respectively, of a club at Cardiff, were fined $2500 and $500 respectively, with costs, for permitting excessive consumption of meat in the club.

"A fine of $50 each was imposed upon Charles and Sarah Marfleet for feeding six greyhounds wheat bread soaked in milk.

"Thomas Bailey, a farmer of Graf-foe, was fined $250 for feeding barley sheaves to cattle."

POLITICAL NOTES

Registration for the county and state election has been resumed here at the Pine Cone and J. W. Hand offices. Registration for the Primary closes on July 27.

Monterey county voters will be gratified to know that T. P. Joy will again be a candidate for the position he has for many years so satisfactorily filled—County Clerk. Notwithstanding the increased work of the office, efficiency and economy have marked its administration.

With eight terms—sixteen years in Congress, the friends of E. A. Hayes are making a determined fight for his nomination at the August Primary for a ninth term. Hayes' opponents are Senator M. H. Johnson on the Republican side and on the Democratic side Hugh S. Hersman is the candidate.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The friends of Miss Gertrude Walter will be interested to learn of her marriage to Lieut. Charles Webster. Miss Walter has visited here several summers with Mrs. D. A. Leonard, her aunt. Lieut. Webster is an aviation instructor at North Island, and at San Diego near the couple will make their home.

The Waiting-room, corner of San Carlos Highway and Ocean Avenue, is a new and much appreciated public utility. Automobiles to all points and stages to Monterey leave this corner.

The globe-trotters, Miss Mary Ayers and Miss Paul, are in our midst, but the genial Mrs. Mazie Coppuck is missed this season. Pike's Peak, or just!

Music, Drama and the Dance News Notes

Israel Seligman, the Russian pianist, is resting in Carmel. He was travelling through Russia and Siberia, giving concerts, when the revolution brought his second tour to an abrupt end. After playing in the San Francisco Symphony in the Fall, he expects to go to New York.

Arthur T. Maitland, who is director and manager of the San Francisco Little Theatre Club in the St. Francis Hotel, is visiting in Carmel. Last season this finished actor presented some of the best modern dramas of Europe and America, playing the star roles in almost all of them. Mr. Maitland speaks most encouragingly of the coming season, which opens in October. So far he has selected more than sixty plays out of one hundred and fifty submitted, one of which is Miss Susan Glaspell's "Women," which he says is quite as clever as her last season's success, "Suppressed Desires."

The Western Drama Society will present Dunany's beautiful play, "Tents of the Arabs," on Friday and Saturday evening, July 26 and 27, in the Forest Theatre. An excellent cast is assured. D. L. James, whose work in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and in "Tusitah" earned much praise, will play again this year, and Theodore Criley will design the setting. Herbert Heron will direct the production.

Included in the aesthetics of life, dancing seems to be one of the arts most closely identified with nature—her swaying lines, her curves and her freedom. When Jeannette Hongland presents her "Woodland Dancers" on Saturday evening, July 20, an effort will be made to express the spontaneity and Pan-consciousness which seems to brood in the woods of the Carmel Forest Theatre.

ORDINANCE NO. 22

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE SUPERVISION OF PRIVATE BUILDING CONTRACTS AND PERMITS FOR THE SAME AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION THEREOF.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1.—No person, firm or corporation shall erect a building or structure of any kind, remodel or enlarge, add to or extend any building or structure already erected in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea without first obtaining a permit therefor from the Board of Trustees of said city. The applicant for such permit shall state the exact site to be occupied, the material, dimensions and estimated cost of the proposed building or structure and the proposed time to be occupied in building. The person or corporation applying for such permit shall file with the Board of Trustees the complete plans and specifications of the proposed building or structure, or, in lieu of such plans and specifications, a statement in writing setting forth what repairs, alterations or improvements are contemplated, and stating the general character, nature and extent of the same, and particularly describing the material and size of chimneys and flues.

Section 2.—Every person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) or by imprisonment in the County Jail of Monterey County not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The judgment imposing such fine may provide for its collection by imprisonment in the County Jail of Monterey County at the rate of one day for each $2.00 of said fine.

Section 3.—All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4.—This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force thirty (30) days from and after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Trustees of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea this 2nd day of July, A. D. 1918, by the following vote:

Ayes: Trustees Fraser, Taylor, de Jable.

Noes: None.

Absent: Trustees Arne and Kibler.

APPROVED: A. P. FRASER,
President of the Board of Trustees.

Attest:

Grace P. Wickham,
City Clerk.

WEEKLY GREETING

Keep Up the Good Work

Every ounce of sugar must be saved in California to forestall a shortage and insure sufficient for canning and preserving. The recent submarine activities off the Atlantic coast destroyed many millions of pounds of sugar, and because of this it has been found necessary by the U. S. Food Administration to rigidly check sugar purchases and see to it that there is no hoarding or waste.

Sugar now ranks with wheat in the necessity for rigid conservation.

The housewife will be permitted to secure the necessary sugar for home canning and preserving but she can only secure such a supply by signing a statement agreeing to use her purchase for the specific purpose of canning foodstuffs. These statements will be immediately forwarded to the U. S. Food Administration at San Francisco where they will be checked. If it is then found that any person has made half a dozen purchases of sugar from different stores she will be called upon to prove that she intended using this for canning purposes. If she cannot do this it will constitute a violation of the hoarding law. The Food Administration takes the view that sugar purchased for canning and then used for table or cooking purposes constitutes hoarding which is a penitentiary offense.

Plans are also under way to further curtail the use of sugar by non-essential manufacturers and hotels and restaurants will probably be placed on a certificate basis.

All grocery stores have been notified that until further notice no more than two pounds of sugar may be sold at any one purchase to city residents and not more than five pounds per sale to people residing in the country districts.

The Food Administration urges everyone to rigidly observe the voluntary consumption rules which provide that not more than three pounds of sugar per person per month should be used. This does not include sugar for canning or preserving, however, but applies only to that used for cooking and the table.

A Fine Concert

After four nights of drama and music, the artistic climax of last weeks offerings of the Forest Theatre Society came on Sunday afternoon with the splendid concert by the Mare Island Naval Training Station Orchestra, conducted by Frederick Preston Search.

From beginning to end, from "The Star Spangled Banner" to "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," the program was one perfect delight.

All were especially charmed by the splendid voice of Mrs. Eva Seiger, mezzo soprano, and she was encored again and again. The sailor jazz had us all moving from the feet up. It was some concert.

Instead of two hundred, there should have been two thousand in attendance.

Red Cross Notes

Pacific Division of the American Red Cross, embracing Arizona, Nevada and California, doubled its War Fund quota and $334,093 additional. Carmel almost doubled its quota, giving $2989 where only $1500 was asked. We have a reputation to sustain and we need more workers to turn out what is required of us before September 1. Carmel's quota is 50 pairs socks, 150 sweaters and 100 blouse suits for 12 year old boys. The suits may be taken from headquarters and made at home.

A Red Cross emergency station on a Brooklyn pier took care of 244 survivors of the Carolina, sunk off the Jersey coast by enemy submarines. A Red Cross hospital for American nurses in Great Britain and on leave from France is about to be established with a capacity of approximately fifty five beds. Emergency depots are to be established in Ireland to be prepared for such disasters as the sinking of the Tuscania. Another piece of work is the projected hospital of three thousand beds at an English port, which has already been started at the request of the American Army. It is probable that a considerable number of American wounded will be transported to England for treatment. It is our part to keep the supplies moving forward.

There is every assurance that the Pacific Division will "go over the top" as the result of the recent campaign for nurses. There is an urgent call for women not under 25 and probably not over 35, who have had a course in elementary hygiene and home care of the sick, even if they have not had the hospital course for work with the civilian population in France. These may possibly be assigned to service in the French hospitals. Those speaking French will be preferred. Transportation will be paid and an allowance made for living expenses. A small salary will be paid if necessary. Applicants will be unable to obtain passports if they have husband, father, son or brother in or connected with the American army, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. or similar organizations at work in Europe.

$1.50 pays for the Pine Cone for a year. Send it to a relative or a friend who is interested in Carmel and its doings.

Children's Play Was a Great Success

"Off with his head!" Can't you hear it yet?
Lewis Carroll did a wonderful piece of work when he wrote "Alice in Wonderland"; our own Perry Newberry added to it when he arranged the book for the stage, and last Friday and Saturday nights at the Forest Theatre John Northcott Hilliard and Katharine Cooke, assisted by appropriate music, rendered by the Mare Island Naval Orchestra, made the stage version complete.

"Backward, turn backward, O, time in thy flight,
Make me a child again just for tonight."
Ah, the dream came true. We were all children again for a night. And it was our own kiddies who worked the miracle.

As compared with the 1912 presentation, there was much new "business," and the outstanding feature in this line was the "Animal Dance." Then, too, Alice, instead of taking the stage from one of the wings, came on from and through the audience—from the outer world into fairy-land; it was a clever conception.

"Did you say pig or wig?" asked the Cheshire cat, and on Ocean Avenue several people have since been overheard making the same inquiry. The White Rabbit's manner surely was charming.

It was a most successful children's play, both artistically and financially, and all concerned are to be heartily commended.

The local Red Cross chapter will be the recipient of a substantial sum as the result of the success of last week's Forest Theatre productions. It is to be hoped that the same efficient producers and business manager will be available next year.
