PREFACE.

In canvassing for the Directory the publishers have endeavored to make it as complete as possible and a reliable book of reference for the stranger as well as the citizen.

Those unacquainted with the compilation of a work of this kind cannot comprehend the many difficulties which have to be undergone in collecting the necessary information. The work has been in anticipation for many weeks, but circumstances uncontrolable have prevented an earlier issue.

Hoping it will meet with the approbation of the public they take pleasure in referring the reader to its advertising pages.

MACON, GA., 1860.
