Mr. Basancon was last year, with many others, dropped from the roll of cirks in the Prasion Office, and has ever since been pertractions in urging his refloration. To day he called upon Mr. Thompson, and, meeting him in the hall, in front of the Secretary's apartments, renewed the subject, denouncing those who had disparaged him.— The Secretary replied that he would not hear his officers traduced, and was about to ester his rooms when Besangon struck him in the back of the neck.

Turning quickly around, the Secretary asw that Besangon was drawing a revolver readed upon him and the same down. Besangon turned to retreat, and probably to fare; but the Secretary threw him on his face and fell upon him, when other persons came and took the weapon from his right hand, and the the Secretary threw him on his lace and upon him, when other persons came and took the weapon from his right hand, and the Secretary released him.

It was found, however, that Beaançon's left shoulder had been put out of place by the fall. By thett, who was fortunately in the building, reduced the dislocation immediately, and the Secretary sent Beaançon to the state of the state WASHINGTON, April 8th. ate. — A discursive debate took place or the expense attending the printing of pictur books in connection with exploring expedi-
