GIGANTIC COMBINE

After negotiations extending over some months, an agreement has been concluded between John Brown & Co. Company, of Clydebank, and Harland & Wolff, of Belfast, the combination, it is claimed, being one of the largest in the world for the building and complete equipment of ships.

The distribution of business between the two yards will follow natural lines. At the same time, the cost of building will be cheapened, and the duplication of certain classes of plant can be avoided in future.

Logan has become well known to the dairymen and stock raisers of British Columbia. The models of the cow stalls will be exhibited at Eastern fairs during the coming season.

A SUIT SALE OF TWO PRIZES WERE GREAT MERIT WON BY ONE LADY

Distribution Made Last Night of Rewards to Users of Golden West Soap.

Mrs. Davies, 105 Plaquard street, 15 on the Patterson Shoe Co.

Mrs. Wilmer, 111 Plaquard street, 14 on Henry Young & Co. and 13 on the Standard Stationery Co.

Mrs. Hillier, 123 Plaquard street, 13 on Dean & Hiscocks drug store.

The above won prizes last night in the distribution made by the Golden West Soap Man.

Plaquard street was the place visited by the soap man last evening, and it proved a good spot as everyone, with one exception, used Golden West soap.

Mrs. Davies was the first lady called upon. The soap was in evidence and the washing powder on order, but as you must show you are using both only one prize was left, the $5 order on the Patterson Shoe Co.

Mrs. Wilmer was as the saying is, "there with the goods," showing no less than four different brands, including the washing powder, made by the Golden West factory. Two prizes were left with her, the $4 order on Henry Young & Co. and the $3 order on Dean & Hiscocks drug store.

Keeping on down the street the Golden West soapman called on Mrs. Hillier. As "Christ a Shoe Emporium," Mrs. Hillier expressed herself as very well pleased with the soap and recommended it to anyone wishing something really good.

The orders for to-night are:

$5 on "Christ a Shoe Emporium,"

$4 on Henry Young & Co.,

$3 on Terry & Marett,

$3 on the Standard Stationery Co.

JAPANESE FUNERAL

Little Four-Year-Old Son of Toshi Nishimoto Buried Yesterday.

Toshi Nishimoto, the little Japanese boy who was drowned a few days ago by Porter's wharf, was buried yesterday with impressive funeral ceremonies at Ross Bay cemetery. Rev. G. K. B. Adams, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist church conducted the service at the house of the father of the deceased, J. Nishimoto, at 202 Government street. A number of missionaries including Misses Sherlock and Martin, the latter being the new missionary to the Japanese, and Mrs. Dowler, were present. The Japanese children of the Refuge Home, accompanied by Miss Snider were present at the graveside.

Behind the carriage which followed the hearse in the funeral procession came an express wagon in which stood a spruce tree hung with flowers, fruit, etc. When the body of the deceased was lowered into the grave and the earth had been returned the decorated tree was planted in the soil above the coffin. A profusion of flowers covered the little grave of the deceased. A large number of sympathizing friends attended the funeral of Toshi Nishimoto.

A brutal assault was committed in front of the Nanaimo hotel at Nanaimo last evening, with the result that J. Sentinel's eye was gouged out and other injuries received which necessitated the injured man's immediate removal to the hospital. The assailant was a Russian, named Frank Zezman, who, when arrested, alleged that he had previously been assaulted and insulted by the victim of his attack. Zezman had for four months worked in the mines at Nanaimo. Sentinel was a new arrival at Nanaimo, having come from Fer-

PRINCE RUPERT EMPIRE.

John Houston's New Paper is to be Printed in Vancouver.

The first number of the Prince Rupert Empire, the new paper to be published in the Grand Trunk Pacific terminus, will be carried north this week after being printed in Vancouver. The manuscript was brought to the Terminal City by the Princess Beatrice on her recent trip south to be printed as a newspaper. The new paper is in charge of John Houston, who has now installed himself in Prince Rupert in the premises of the solitary policeman who keeps watch and ward over the destinies of the new townsite. To the inhabitants of Prince Rupert, Mr. Houston says that he has come to stay and to make his paper a success, and considering that the premises which he has selected have inscribed over the portals the words "Police Department," it is highly probable that he will be immune from interference of the first-printed edition of the Prince Rupert Empire will be carried north by the steamer Princess Royal when she leaves Vancouver on Friday night.

PLUCKY ACTOR.

Stanley Johns, in Spite of Physical Suffering, Amused the Audience.

Stanley Johns, of the Beatrice, Moreland, Small & Company, which is appearing in vaudeville at the New Grand theatre this week, is a man of unusual nerve. His first attempt "nerves" not that kind that is used as a synonymous slang term with "gall," but the solid disregard of physical pain when it interferes with business.

Mr. Johns has been suffering from a growth in the right arm near the elbow since last night, and yesterday the arm swelled to an alarming degree with every indication of blood poisoning. Few people who witnessed the two performances at the theatre last night knew that Mr. Johns, who played his part with his usual correctness, was suffering throughout the night. After the fall of the curtain on the second performance the actor was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital in a weak condition. There Dr. Frank Hall performed a delicate operation, opening the arm and removing the cause of the blood poisoning, and Mr. Johns left the hospital this morning. His first words after the doctor had performed the operation in the early hours of this morning were characteristic. "I'm glad you've got it over so that I'll be able to go on the stage again to-night." Visitors to the theatre to-night will see whether he keeps his word or not.

MISSIONARY WORK.

Farewell Taken Last Evening of Mr. Ma Seung by Presbyterian Congregation.

Last evening a large number assembled in the Presbyterian Chinese Mission hall on Government street to bid farewell to Mr. Ma Seung, who had been missionary here for seven years. He is removed by the Foreign Missionary Committee to Cumberland, where he will continue his gospel work among his own countrymen. Last evening Dr. Campbell presided, and addresses were made by Rev. J. McCoy and several young Chinamen, converts to Christianity, who have been under the care of the mission of Mr. Ma Seung.

Mr. Ma did good work in Victoria, and carries with him the best wishes of all to his new field. Miss Gunn will conduct the work at the mission in this city until the arrival of Mr. W. L. Hall, who is appointed to take Mr. Ma Seung's place. The Christian Mission schools for Chinese young men in B. C. are not as largely attended now as in former years, the reason being that the young men attended the schools do learn English, the teaching of English being used as an inducement to them to attend; the Gospel being taught at the close of the classes each evening, and when they learned all the English they thought they needed they retired from the mission, unless meanwhile they became interested in the Gospel. The capitation tax of $500 practically excluded all immigration, so that no new recruits entered the country to take the place of those who withdrew from the mission classes. Unless immigration from China is renewed by the removal of the capitation tax, Christian missions among the Chinese in British Columbia must in a few years more cease.

In the county court yesterday Judge Lampman dismissed the case in which Drury & McGurn sought to recover $15 commission on the sale of a house. The defence was awarded the costs. J. H. Lawson appeared for the plaintiff and H. B. Robertson for the defence.

With reference to the trophy won by Mr. Garesche which was announced in the Times last evening, the name of the donating firm was incorrectly given. The valuable trophy is given by James Watson & Co., of Dundee, Scotland, the well known distillers, the agents being the Hudson Bay Company.

IMPRESSIONS OF CONVENTION

WORLD GATHERING OF THE ENDEAVORS

Rev. Herman Carson Tells of the Stirring Speeches Delivered at Seattle.

Rev. Herman Carson, pastor of the First Congregational church, has returned from Seattle, where he attended the thirty-fourth international convention of the Christian Endeavor Society...

Speaking of the convention, Rev. Carson says there were many stirring addresses from the leading speakers. All the main lines of endeavor which had been brought forward were taken up, and the decisions arrived at were crystallized to be put into practice.

Dr. Clark presided at all the main sessions of the convention. One of the most notable features of the gathering was the reception accorded to Vice-President Fairbanks. It was held in the Tent Williston. When Mr. Fairbanks entered the people, of whom there were many thousands, rose en masse and cheered loudly.

The vice-president subsequently addressed the meeting, taking as his subject, "Peace." He spoke of the special contributions made by different men to the welfare of the world, and stated that it was given to few men to see the result of their leadership in their generation.

The burden of the speaker's remarks, however, dealt with international peace. He alluded to the power of the United States, both from a military and a naval point of view. He said that the United States feared no nation or power, but that no nation need fear the United States. With regard to the questions which might arise to trouble nations, he believed that the day was not far distant when they would be settled in a court of reason, and not by the verdict of battle.

day at noon in the great opera house meetings were held under the chairmanship of James A. H. A. New York millionaire business man. These were addressed by Rev. Dr. Francis, of the Rockefeller evangelists, who was responsible for some stirring sermons. The most notable of these gatherings was held in the Tent Williston on the concluding day, when three addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles Stittzele, Dr. Francis and Mr. Hall. The former speaker is a Presbyterian labor worker throughout the United States, who combines religion with his labor work.

The entire convention was voted one of the most successful since the Christian Endeavor movement first began its efforts.

Martin Weber, a quiet, methodical German, who had worked for many years as watchman at the Heiplein Silk Mill, Broad avenue, the Bronx, was found dead in bed. When his effects were taken to the coroner's office a will was found. It had been drawn up by a lawyer and was regularly witnessed and executed. Pinned to the document was a $1 bill. An examination of the effects disclosed several savings bank books with deposits amounting to about $5,000, and a number of life insurance policies, which will increase the value of the estate to between $10,000 and $15,000. ALL LICENSES WERE RENEWED

AT THE MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS

Pointed Out By Solicitors That Board Could Not Deal With Them Until September

Overcome by a blanket vote which was put through by Commissioners Ross and Phillips at yesterday's meeting of the license board, Mayor Morley went down to defeat, and every license in the city was renewed. As the matter now stands there is a serious split in the license board, a similar split of affairs in the city council over the same matter and a point of law involved which may result in Victoria going dry for several weeks. As was pointed out by the Mayor yesterday, the granting of the licenses without enquiry savored of illegality, and if this was the case they would be null and void as soon as issued. Providing that no serious steps were taken during the course of the council it is decided upon next Monday, the actual result of the blanket resolution carried at yesterday's meeting will be only to delay the enforcement of the by-law until the next regular meeting of the board in September.

ceptle that no person should be required to conform to any law that was under appeal in the courts. Commissioner Phillips caused a stir by interjecting "There's two to one so there is no use in discussing the matter further." Mayor Morley said that the intended action of the board as outlined by City Solicitor Mann practically granted the request of the licenseholders. It was, in his opinion, however, impossible for the board to grant renewals on all licenses without some inquiry. It was not the intention of the board to harass the licenseholders as the commissioners believed that the commendable manner in which the licensees had hastened to comply with the by-law since the notices had been served upon them deserved a certain amount of consideration. The names and data of the license holders and their properties had, for one thing, become sadly mixed up making it imperative for the board to deal with each license separately. It is illegal. Upon the advice of Mr. Mann the Mayor put the motion, saying before doing so that he did not think it a wise course. It might result in every license so renewed being rendered null and void as provided by the act. Mr. Higgins said that the licenseholders were willing to take the risk and bear the responsibility should such a thing happen and the Mayor announced that the motion carried, with the chairman dissenting. Immediately there was a buzz of conversation and a general stampede to the city treasurer's office to obtain licenses. For ten minutes the commissioners waited for the disorder to subside and then, the courtroom having been practically emptied, the ordinary routine business was proceeded with. Transfers were granted to Catherine J. McDermott, for the Regent and Avenue Retreat saloons, formerly held by her husband deceased. The Bodega saloon was transferred to T. A. and C. M. McDowell and the "Clariton" or Vermont saloon to R. P. Clarke. A temporary permit for the Victoria hotel bar was granted and a temporary permit for the Elk saloon was confirmed. The license of the Commercial hotel was transferred to Samuel Shore from T. A. McDowell. The board then adjourned.

BITTER FIGHT OVER LICENSES

MAYOR CRITICISES THE COMMISSIONERS

Matter Was Brought Up in City Council When Chief Magistrate Makes His Report.

Sparks flew at the council meeting last night when the liquor license regulation by-law, yesterday's meeting of the government's appointees on that body, came before the aldermen for discussion. For once the council threw off its cloak of lethargy and assumed the habiliments of an active, if somewhat confused, assembly. The dreary chamber wherein the weekly deliberations of the municipal government takes place, shook with vehement protestations, exhortations and condemnations, and it all happened in this manner:

Mayor Morley presented the following report describing the proceedings at yesterday's meeting of the license board:

Victoria, July 15th, 1907.
To the Board of Aldermen:
Gentlemen—I beg to report that I today sat as chairman of the board of licensing commissioners, together with commissioners Phillips and Ross. The city solicitor having shortly mentioned the altered state of the law as affected by the Liquor License Regulation By-Law, Mr. Higgins and Mr. McPhillips having made certain representations without calling upon me or hearing anything that I had to say, or entertaining any application, Commissioner Phillips produced a written resolution which he moved, ordering all liquor licenses to be renewed and directing a report to be made at the next regular sitting. This resolution was seconded by Alderman Ross, and having taken the advice of the city solicitor I found I was compelled to put the resolution to the board, which thereupon was passed and became an order of the board, upon which all licenses have been renewed and now will be effective until the 15th day of January next year. I personally regard this proposed resolution as intended to defeat the operation of the by-law and feel that if the spirit actuating the two commissioners is allowed to prevail the good government of the city is imperilled. I submit this report to the council, praying that some action may be advanced promptly to deal with this very anomalous position in which, as ex officio, the head of the city and council I am placed.

A. J. MORLEY, Mayor.

When the city clerk had read the report the Mayor proceeded to explain his position in regard to the license commissioners. He said that, although the municipal council of Victoria had passed the liquor regulation by-law, two political appointees on the license board, the body which was entrusted with the enforcement of these regulations, had assumed the position of dictators to the council—had, in other words, practically endeavored to render the by-law null and void, and had placed the existing licenses, those granted at yesterday's meeting, in jeopardy. Although I had a big batch of communications in regard to licenses, said the Mayor, "in which the writers asked for information in connection with the granting of renewals and other matters, and although there were questions of importance to be considered by the board, two of the commissioners took it upon themselves to introduce and pass a resolution which prevented me from placing these matters before the council."

The Mayor further stated that this action on the part of the commissioners was most unfair to the license-holders and more so to the citizens. The latter appointed the city council to conduct the affairs of the city, and yet two appointees of the Conservative party had stepped in and dictated to the council in a manner that suggested an attempt, on their part, "to run the thing" as they pleased. He did not think that this was fair, but, at the same time, he did not lay the blame entirely upon the provincial government. He had protested, at the beginning of the year, against the appointment of Commissioner Phillips. He had spoken of the matter to Premier McBride, and the latter had told him that he, the premier, had no say in the matter of making the appointments. The party had placed both commissioners Ross and Phillips on the board, and they had attempted to take the law in their own hands. It was an anomalous position for him to be placed in and he asked the council to give him its aid in combating the dictatorship of his brother commissioners, who were, after all, really subversive to the board of aldermen by virtue of the by-law regulating their conduct in regard to granting and renewing licenses which had been passed by the council.

This communication and explanation from the Mayor came early on in the evening, and the matter was laid over until nearly the end of the meeting when it was brought up again through a resolution moved by Ald. Gleason. The resolution was of a somewhat drastic character, and was worded as follows:

Whereas, by report of His Worship the Mayor, it appears that without considering any matters intended to be submitted to them and without hearing anything to be urged by the proper authorities and with the obvious object of defeating the operation of the Liquor License Regulation By-Law, 1907, two of the three licensing commissioners, Commissioners Phillips and Ross, passed by a majority vote a resolution that all liquor licenses be renewed;

And whereas, this general resolution precluded the board from correcting what the council are advised are irregularities in the holding of licenses and also defeated the objections which on the report of the chief of police it was intended to urge against certain of the licensed premises;

Be it resolved, that the facts be communicated by the Mayor to the executive government with a view of action being taken to prevent a repetition of this violation of the council's rights as the representatives of the citizens charged with the good government of the city.

In support of his resolution Ald. Gleason spoke at length. He said that he greatly respected the necessity of the Mayor's resolution, but that he deemed it his duty to move it. Ald. Ross, who was one of the license commissioners, had never, at any meeting of the city council when the liquor license by-law was under consideration and construction expressed any opposition to it. The position taken by Ald. Ross or Mr. Phillips, and he thought that it was time that the city council took steps to prevent a repetition of such interference with its powers as had been shown at the meeting of the license board. As the situation stood, two men appointed by the provincial government had undertaken to upset the work of the council which really controlled them.

Ald. Ross defended his stand on the matter. He had seconded Commissioner Phillips' resolution because he thought it best in the interests of the citizens to do so. The Mayor had stated that he was a political appointee. If this was the case he was ignorant of it. "I have never yet discovered," said the alderman, "who or what was responsible for my appointment as license commissioner."

Mayor Morley said that when he read the names of the commissioners before they were officially appointed by the government he had asked Premier McBride to substitute others. The premier had stated to him that it was a question of party and the Conservative element had decided to appoint both Commissioner Ross and Commissioner Phillips. In passing the blanket resolution at the license board meeting both commissioners had been guilty of inconsiderate action. Under section 184 of the Municipal Clauses Act the renewals had been illegally granted by the license commissioners and were therefore null and void. "It was I claim," said the Mayor, "quite unfair for the other commissioners to bring in such a resolution as they did for it quite prevented sane action on the part of the board and has placed the vested interests in jeopardy." The license-holders and the license board had both been placed in strange and almost untenable positions. He thought brother commissioners had made this foolish and most unreasonable move. The men appointed to sit on the board should be wide-awake men acquainted with the most urgent needs of the city. He asked the council if it was in the interests of the city that such men as commissioners Phillips and Ross should be allowed to sit on the board.

Ald. Hanna was on his feet as soon as the Mayor had finished speaking. He asked the Mayor to apologize for his remarks. He had heaped unwarranted insults upon both the commissioners and should make amends. "If there has been any mistake or misunderstanding you should exercise whatever power you have to rectify the error and should not harass and insult these two men as you have presumed to do to-night. The commissioners are as you are," concluded Ald. Hanna, "representatives of the people and you should make a decent apology to them."

While the Mayor was evidently trying to find out whether Ald. Hanna spoke in a serious or comic tone, Ald. Vincent rose and pointed out that he, too, took exception to the Mayor's stand on the matter. The people had not voted for license regulations beyond the separation of shop and bottle licenses. "The last election was proof of the people's intentions," said Ald. Gleason. "They voted as much as anything on a moral issue."

SHOOTS AT CROWN PRINCE.
Servia's heir, mistaken for smuggler. Fired on by Custom Officer.

Prince George of Servia, the heir to the crown, narrowly escaped death one night recently at the hands of a customs officer.

Accompanied by Professor Petrovitch, the Crown Prince went out on the river Save in a motor-boat in order to indulge in fishing, of which pastime he is very fond.

As the little vessel neared the Croatian bank in the darkness, the Austrian customs watch, as is usual, challenged the occupants. Receiving no reply, and suspecting that the boat contained smugglers, the officer promptly fired.

Fortunately the bad light prevented his shot getting home, and neither the prince nor his companion was hurt. They did not, however, venture further, but beat a hasty retreat, and returned to Belgrade.

This is not the first adventure of the kind the Crown Prince has had on the river.

One day he got into a boat and rowed himself across to Gipsy island. As usual with him on such excursions, he carried a repeating rifle, and the story goes that shortly after landing he shot a young Macedonian, who was beating for him, destroying the sight of one eye.

For kissing a girl, aged thirteen, against her will, Thomas Cartwright, iron worker, was fined $25 and costs at Bilston (Staffs.).

DOCTORS IN TURN FAILED BUT ZAMBUK CURED.

Magistrate F. Rasmussen, writing from his residence, 211 Marquette St., Montreal, says: "I take genuine pleasure in informing you of the great good I have derived from Zam-Buk. For many years I was troubled with a serious eruption of the skin, which was both unsightly and painful. Not one, but several doctors in turn were consulted, but I was unable to get any permanent relief. Some time back I received a report from a Justice of the Peace who had been cured of a chronic skin disease by Zam-Buk, and I determined to give this balsam a trial. I can say I am delighted with it. While everything else I tried—salves, embrocations, washes, soaps and doctor's prescriptions failed absolutely to relieve my pain, three boxes of Zam-Buk have worked a complete cure. In my opinion this balsam should be even more widely known than it is, and in the hope that my experience will lead other sufferers to try this herbal healer, I have no objection to my publishing this letter. Yours truly, (Signed) F. RASMUSSEN, Justice of the Peace.

Summer sores, rashes, sunburn patches, children's heat sores or hives! chafing sores, cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites and all skin irritations and diseases yield to Zam-Buk. All stores and medicine vendors sell at 50c a box, or post free from San-Buk Co., Toronto. 6 boxes for $2.50. C. E. P. 2/23 sent answers to these letters stating that the by-law did not enforce any regulation that would compel bona-fide guests to go out into the street whenever they wished to obtain liquor. They could use the hotel passage-ways. Another letter had been received in regard to bottle licenses. In connection with this the Mayor stated that such places as Tolmie & Stewart's had an unfair advantage over other saloons, as they practically conducted two branches of the liquor business under one license. The city solicitors expressed the opinion that the council had power to enact a by-law preventing this and requiring two distinct licenses for such businesses.

MURDERER'S RAGE.
Insults the Judge While He is Passing Sentence of Death.

A murder trial at Derby assizes concluded with an extraordinary scene, the prisoner giving vent to a torrent of abuse whilst receiving sentence of death.

The prisoner, W. E. STARR, 47, a builder, separated from his wife, quarrelled with Lucy Wilson, a barmaid, at Chesterfield, and killed her with a hatchet in the street. After committing the crime he was seen to throw the hatchet away and stoop down and listen to what was being said. The warders tried to pacify him, but he turned his back on the bench, and struggled with the warders, who turned him round again.

"Prisoner next pulled a hair out of his head, put it to his mouth, and blew it away, saying, 'That's what I care for you.' Meanwhile the commission was endeavoring to make himself heard, observing that he was not the prisoner's judge, but the mere minister of human justice. He concluded with the death sentence in the usual terms, 'and may God have mercy on your soul.'"

At this the prisoner threw his cap violently on the ground, and shouted, "There is no God, or He would never have sent that woman to me." The two warders who had remained at either side of him during the trial were now joined by the head warder, who had to take hold of the prisoner and push him out of the dock.

By your masterly treatment of this complicated and difficult question, both in Ottawa at the provincial conference, and in London, you have won for yourself an enviable position amongst the leading statesmen of Canada.

G. H. BARNARD, President Liberal Conservative Ass'n. W. H. FRISCH, Secretary.

Premier McBride, in reply, said that he could confess that the hearty reception in his home city of Victoria overcame him for the moment.

He found that steps had been taken to have the bill put in shape to go through the Imperial parliament. It might have gone through in the objectionable shape had not been there.

The next step was the presentation of the bill in the House of Commons under the ten minute rule.

After this expression, Hon. Mr. McBride said he felt that something very tangible had been done in the cause of British Columbia.

He had heard to-day that there were press reports that Lord Elgin had proposed in the House of Lords to make amendments to the suggestion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier which would make the bill in large part as objectionable as at first.

If it were found that the steps reported had been taken he felt he would be justified in getting back to London again as quickly as possible.

Premier McBride then gave his attention to the need of better terms. With such a tremendous responsibility in British Columbia with Alaska on one side for a long stretch and the United States on another.

miles of trunk roads and 7,000 miles of trails, beside other means of communication.

The acknowledgment had come from the rest of the Dominion that British Columbia was entitled to better terms, unless the federal government when it was proposed to make it $100,000 a year for 10 years.

Mr. Dunsmuir, when premier had pressed in an able way for better terms. He got nothing. Col. Prior's government followed in the same line.

British Columbia had paid $20,000,000 more into the federal treasury than the province had derived from the federal authorities. It was never intended that a profit was to be derived from British Columbia.

The fight was again commencing. He had yet to see that the federal representatives at Ottawa had taken any degree of interest in this move.

He had a compliment again to Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill a man who was only 32 years of age and yet in the front rank of statesmen in the conduct of affairs.

RATE OF TAXES IS NOW FIXED

The amendment, to keep the rate the same as last year, was put and carried on the following division. For the motion: Ald. Hall, Hanna, Henderson, Vincent, Verinder and Ross. Against: The Mayor and Ald. Fullerton, Gleason and Meaton.

The general business was fairly heavy. A letter was read from E. M. Johnson in which he complained of a nuisance on the old garbage dump near the mud flats.

The communication, after considerable discussion in which the aldermen concurred that the nuisance should be removed, was referred to the streets, bridges and sewers committee.

Mr. C. E. K. Munroe complained of the action of the Taylor-Patterson Mill Company in erecting a stable at the back of her residence on Selkirk street.

It was referred to the firewardens, with power to act. A communication from S. A. Berryman asking the council to renew the license on his grocery store at the corner of Vancouver and Franklin streets was referred to the city treasurer.

The water commissioner reported that it was time for the council to order its supply of water pipes for next year. He recommended that tenders be called for 800 feet of pipe.

The Mayor stated that he did not wish to raise a discussion on the matter, but he notified the council that he would at an early date, probably next meeting, ask the aldermen to seriously consider the water redistribution question.

The matter was dropped at this and the business proceeded with. Hon. J. S. Helmcken wrote the council calling attention to the fact that a private company was laying gas pipes through Haywood avenue, which was a part of the park.

It is a well known fact that a surface drain be laid on John street, at a cost of $250; also on Parry street, at a cost of $150; also that a plank sidewalk be laid on west side of Chambers street, near Elizabeth street, at a cost of $5.
