Action plan and getting involved

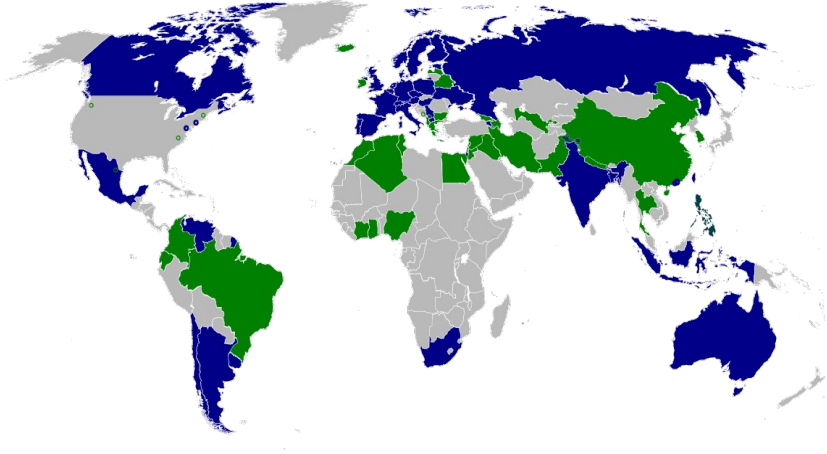

The screenshot shows the Wikimedia movement affiliates page on meta.wikimedia.org. The page title is "Wikimedia movement affiliates" and it is noted as being redirected from the main affiliates page. A language selection bar at the top indicates the page is in English. A sidebar on the left contains various navigation links such as "Main page", "Wikimedia News", "Translations", "Recent changes", "Random page", "Help", "Babel", "Community", "Wikimedia Resource Center", "Wikimedia Forum", "Mailing lists", "Requests", "Babyton", "Reports", "Research", "Planet Wikimedia", "Beyond the Web", "Meet Wikimedians", "Events", "Movement affiliates", "Donate", "Print/export", "Create a book", and "Download as PDF". The main content area features a section titled "Other languages:" with a long list of language links. Below this is a call to action: "Want to help translate? Translate the missing messages." The central text reads: "In acknowledgement of the diversity of groups contributing to the Wikimedia movement, the Wikimedia Foundation Board of Trustees recognizes models of affiliation within the Wikimedia movement – chapters, thematic organizations, and user groups." To the right of this text is the Wikimedia Movement Affiliates logo, which consists of a stylized green and red figure within a blue circle, with the text "WIKIMEDIA MOVEMENT AFFILIATES" below it. At the bottom of the page, there is a link to a "Map of geographic based affiliates".
