NARBERTH HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Baccalaureate Sermon, June 16,
7.45 P. M., Rev. John Van Ness.
Commencement Address, June
21, 8 P. M., Hon. Fletcher W.
Stites

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

Commencement week promises to be one of unusual interest this year, particularly because of the large graduating class. The class consists of the following: Sydnie Bolich, Dorothy Dubrin, Ethel Fallon, Sallie Graybeard, Mildred Harris, Ruth Haws, Edith Humphreys, Ella Israel, Jane Laird, Florence Miesen Ailiene, Needham, Grace Nevin, Esther Ricklin, Nellie Smith, Kenneth Walton, Quincy Yowell.

The above named persons are those who have fully completed the required work. The Narberth High School maintains a high standard, as is manifest by the first rank colleges who have granted her certificate privilege after thorough investigation.

Of more importance is the fact that the courses are so arranged that pupils who in certain schools would be disqualified, are here given the opportunity to continue their work, because of promotion by subject and graduation by unit credit.

The class is proud to have in its number two young ladies from the Carlisle Indian School. These young ladies have the honor of graduating in a first rank high school because of Narberth's broad educational policy which grants credit for previous work done in other institutions of first rank. There are still schools that claim to be modern that will not give such credit, but insist upon each pupil doing exactly what said school prescribes for every year's work.

Commencement week will be a busy time for all of these young people. It will be ushered in by the baccalaureate sermon, to be preached by Rev. Van Ness in the Presbyterian Church. Class Day will be held on Wednesday, June 19, at 1.30 P. M. in the auditorium. This promises to be of unusual interest. Although not open to the public in the full sense of the word as for the commencements nevertheless, all Narberth people who are interested in any of the graduates or in school work are cordially invited.

The commencement program on Friday evening will consist of an address by Mr. Stites, the salutatory and valedictory by two members of the class, the presentation of diplomas by President McCarter, and music by the high school.

No tickets or cards of admission are necessary. Doors will open at 7.30. Following past custom there will be no reserved seats excepting for the immediate relatives of the graduates.

The Narberth school belongs to the people of Narberth. Hence its doors swing wide open to the public. Come!

WILL START NEXT WEEK

The State Highway Department has started to unload material at Overbrook for the rebuilding of Lancaster pike from City Line to Rosemont, and work is expected to start next week on the new 18-foot wide road.

THE GARDEN CONTEST STARTS IMMEDIATELY

Garden Committees Announce
That Prizes Will be Awarded for Well Kept Places Throughout the Entire Summer.
Other Developments

GARDENS A FACTOR

How does your garden grow, and how does your lawn look and what condition is your flower garden in?

Better have an eye on all these things, neighbors, because the Garden Committee of the Narberth Civic Association is on the job now, and the general condition of lawns and flower and vegetable gardens, from this time on until about Labor Day, will be the basis for awarding the annual prizes in September, for the best kept lawns, etc., in the borough.

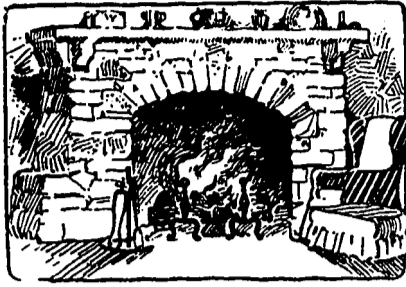

At a meeting of the Garden Committee, held last Friday night, at the home of Chairman Hillegas, it was decided to divide the town into five districts. To each district has been assigned one member of the committee. It will be the duty of each member to make a preliminary survey of his or her district, immediately, and note those lawns and gardens that indicate care and attention. These places will be listed and studied throughout the summer. From time to time those places that show neglect will be dropped from the list; while places not originally listed, that show marked improvement, will be added to the list.

It was the unanimous feeling of the committee that the garden contest would best serve the interests of the borough, and best carry out the original idea of making it the means of beautifying our town, if prizes were awarded on the general condition of the lawns and gardens throughout the entire summer, rather than on the basis of being in the "pink of condition" in early September when the judges make the awards. By following this plan, those folks who care for their places throughout the whole season, will receive the recognition of honor, rather than those who "step lively" in the last few weeks of summer and "put up the good front" for the finish.

The committee also wishes to announce that the condition of a vegetable garden will be an important factor in deciding on the general appearance of a place. Last summer there were not a few instances where lawns and flower gardens were as neat as a pin, but where vegetable gardens were neglected, and no apparent effort made by the owners to keep them neat and trim. This is an entirely unnecessary condition, as you can readily demonstrate to yourself on a walk around the borough. There are any number of vegetable gardens that are as neat and attractive as any flower garden you ever saw.

Another point made by the committee is that when families go away on vacations they should arrange to have their lawns and terraces cut, just the same as they do when they are at home. While most of the Narberth folks do this very thing, there have been in past summers quite a few cases where people have gone away for two, three or four weeks and allowed the grass to grow until they returned. This not only spoils the appearance of their own places, but mars the whole neighborhood. This is not fair to your neighbors and to your town.

The individual prizes to be awarded in September, will, as usual, be given to the occupants of the best kept places in the various classes, the classifications being based on the frontage of the properties. It is also planned to make special and honorary mention of the neighborhoods that have been the best kept throughout the summer.

A Proclamation!

With the approach of Independence Day, July the fourth, in this, the one hundred and forty-second year of the establishment of the United States of America, there must come to every loyal American citizen a renewed sense of thankfulness for the liberties which we, as a nation, enjoy, and it is fitting and proper that we should celebrate the anniversary of the nation's natal day with appropriate exercises. In the midst of a war which is being waged for the purpose of determining whether or not these liberties shall endure, there rests on us an obligation as a community to see to it that an expression of our sentiments is given which will be in keeping with the feeling of the nation.

It has always been the custom to celebrate this day by setting off fireworks and other noise-producing instruments. It should be realized that this year the observance of this custom entails an expenditure of powder which is needed on the battlefronts of Europe. Our slogan should be "save the powder for Pershing."

Now, therefore, I, Carroll Downes, Chief Burgess of the borough of Narberth, in view of the above facts, do hereby proclaim and make public to the citizens of Narberth that on Independence Day, July fourth, 1918, all citizens should, as a patriotic duty, refrain from the use of all fireworks, revolvers, pistols, cannons and other instruments or utensils employing and using powder. And I call upon all citizens to discourage the use of such instruments by others.

Given under my hand and the seal of the borough of Narberth, Montgomery County, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this tenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-second.

(Signed)

CARROLL DOWNES,

Chief Burgess.

NARBERTH WAR CHEST FUND $47,395.70

FOR ATTENTION OF NARBROOK LOT OWNERS

Treasurer Charles V. Noel's official figures to June 10 inclusive show that Narberth not only matched the $20,000 contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Percival Roberts, Jr., but went $7395.70 "over the top." The record of this community's activities in every department of war work demonstrates most conclusively the loyalty of our citizens, not only in words, but by eloquent deeds. This is as it should be. Narberth has given freely of her best young manhood, and must stand behind them to the utmost limit of her ability. This duty has been well done thus far, and will continue to be done while the need exists.

The following communications have just been received by Mr. Shand:

June 6, 1918.

Mr. A. C. Shand, Narberth, Pa.:

Dear Mr. Shand—In connection with the enclosed circular letter I desire to personally express my thanks to you and all your workers, also to the subscribers to the War Chest fund in your district, for the splendid response made by Montgomery county to the War Chest appeal. It is indeed gratifying to know that our citizens have realized the gravity of the situation which now confronts our country and that they are standing solidly behind our soldiers and sailors in their efforts on our behalf.

Without the hearty co-operation of all district chairmen it would have been impossible to accomplish these results, and to them and their organizations I wish to express my deep obligation.

Yours very truly,
Percival Roberts, Jr.

June 6, 1918.

To the District Chairmen of Montgomery County:

I am very pleased to advise you that at this writing my reports show that Montgomery county has sub-

Narbrook Park, in the main, looks very well, but there are portions of it that sadly need attention. The Civic Association has more than exhausted the amount of money that was available for development. Almost without exception lot owners have very generously expressed their willingness to pay an assessment to enable the association to repay the loan made to it, to complete the contracts. The causes of the unexpectedly increased cost of development of the park were very fully set forth in the report of the Park Development Committee, published in Our Town, issue of March 28, 1918.

Quite a number of the lots have been neglected, and until they have been put in shape by the owners, the park will be incomplete and subject to criticism by those unacquainted with the facts.

The grading and care of individual lots is in the hands of the owners. The deeds for the lots embody certain restrictions from which we quote the following clause:

We feel a pardonable pride in the total of $47,395.70 for the Narberth War Chest Fund.

The announcement of better post-office facilities is welcome to all. There is hope that later even more is in store for us.

It is with great regret that we learn of the departure from Narberth of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arthur Cole. They have been powerful factors in all civic work and have made very many friends. We wish them happiness and success in their new home and work.

Now and then we hear a mild complaint about the "war bread" we are compelled to eat, although, when made right, it is excellent and very nutritious. Think of the German war bread, with an admixture of chopped straw, dipped in soup made of cauliflower and turnip leaves!

NARBERTH

Mark where the roads climb up a hill,
There Narberth hath its own fair will,
With trees where birds are singing late,
And flowers that dream at garden's gate.

What city hath so kind a sight,
Can show the stars so very bright,
Or keep such whiteness on the snows,
Or beauty or a June-born rose?

Who would exchange or who would take
These clean sweet airs for city's sake,
And skies in their untarnished blue,
And dawns with sparkling diamond dew?

For here we have a lovely thing,
In winter, summer and in spring,
A gentle zone of verdant green,
The sunlit, starlit Narberth earth.

OFF FOR STATE COLLEGE CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

Eight Narberth Boys Now Spending Ten Days at State Farm Training Camp

The Pennsylvania division of the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve is conducting its fourth consecutive Farm Training Camp at State College. This camp, like the three preceding camps, continues over a period of ten full days. Three hundred boys from all parts of the State are instructed at sixteen different points of the 2000-acre college farm during the sixteen half working days of the camp period by the regular faculty of the School of Agriculture.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Enthusiastic
Mr. Bowen visited the third camp last week and was so impressed with the opportunities enjoyed by the boys at that camp that he came back to Narberth full of enthusiasm and a desire to see Narberth represented at this fourth and last camp. The School Board sensed the importance of the work the State College is doing and sanctioned the release of eight Narberth boys from the remaining school work to enable them to attend this training camp and prepare for summer farm work with the Boys' Working Reserve, the nation's "second line of defense."

A Real Military Camp
The foundation of the success of these training camps is their perfect military organization, with the finest type of student officers in charge. The company streets and tents are kept in an ideal condition. The bugle calls to rise, to mess, and to put lights out are obeyed on the instant. The marching for camp review is on a par with veterans, all do to the respect the boys have for their leaders.

Back in Time for Commencement
The Narberth boys released by Mr. Melchior left Monday morning for the eight-hour trip and will be back on Friday, June 21, in time for commencement. The boys who went are Albert and Robert Ward, Ralph Beatty, Thomas and Edwin Martin, Herbert McCarter, George Rose and Berkley Lough. They can be addressed at the Farm Training Camp, State College, Pennsylvania. Their mail is received and sorted at the Y. M. C. A. tent, a unit which is to this camp what the Red Triangle Hut is to the army boys.

RAISES $25,000 BY FETE

Three-day Entertainment Held at Sisters of Mercy Convent, Merion
Twenty-five thousand dollars was raised for the new Misericordia Hospital, Fifty-third street and Cedar avenue, at the three-day fete at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, Merion. The result exceeded even the predictions of the most optimistic of the persons who arranged the affair.

The fete, which ended Saturday, had a number of novel features which attracted attention and dollars. Special music was one attraction during the three days.

The number of musical features was augmented when the Saturday half holiday attracted the schoolboys and girls, as well as their parents.

The attraction in which the interest of Saturday's crowd was greatest was a drill of various troops of Boy Scouts. Trophy cups were prizes and were won by the troops from the churches of St. Francis, Our Mother of Sorrows and the Blessed Sacrament. The judge was Captain Vincent Carroll, of Camp Meade.

The great success of the affair has given the Executive Committee more work than it expected, and it will be several days before its complete report can be made. The members of the committee who are responsible for the achievement are Mrs. E. H. McMichan, Mrs. A. N. Burke, Mrs. A. A. Hirst, Mrs. J. Quennell, Mrs. John Sheehan, Mrs. James M. Mundy and Miss Laura Blackburne.

To the Editor of Our Town:
We have one resident in our block who does not cut his grass nor trim his hedge. All the other residents take considerable pride in their properties. Are there any other sections of our little town so affected?
Civic Pride.

There will be a meeting of the Narberth Civic Association on June 21. Reports of various committees will be made at that time. All members are requested to be present as an interesting and instructive meeting is contemplated.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Say, if you want to enjoy a pleasant evening, and right near home, too, hike up to the commencement exercises at the shool on the evening of the 21st. The whole burg ought to turn out each year when the annual batch of seniors bid good-bye to their school days. It stiffens up the backbones of the youngsters, on the threshold of their entering into the real struggle for life, to witness a big turn-out of their home town folks. A good send-off goes a long way.

There will be music, vocal and instrumental and other entertainment. The commencement address will be a "hummer," you may be sure, as Fletcher Stites is to be the speaker. You may also find some amusement in watching the austere school directors trying to look dignified and comfortable in their high, stiff collars and dress suits, the latter of a vintage reminding one of the cartorial genius of tailors long gone and forgotten, and bearing an odor, not even smothered by the white rosebuds in their lapels, suspiciously akin to that of camphor. Everybody is thrice welcome—come out and get acquainted. This goes for the new arrivals in Narberth especially. No tickets of admission are required and there will be no reserved seats.

Lew Hess has a very intelligent dog and Lew decided to capitalize that intelligence. Thereby hangs a tale—not the dog's, however. Lew noticed that Fido possessed a strange fondness for bottles of all kinds and this is where Lew's idea originated. Milk, as you know, has gone up some in price and if there's any liquid that Lew is fond of it's milk—yes, he does, so help me!—but he hates to pay war prices for it. So the first thing he did was to teach the dog to retrieve an empty milk bottle, which wasn't very difficult, because, as I have stated, the dog is very partial to bottles and Lew has a lot of them—now. It was a little harder to teach the kyoodle to fetch a bottle of milk, but that accomplished, Lew let the dog out early one morning and showed him bottles of milk on everybody's door step. Now you know where your milk is going and why Lew is getting fat.

The secret is out. Fred Walzer expects to be Justice of the Peace. Now we know what the crystal gazer in Harrisburg meant when he said Fred would get the appointment he was after. But how's this? Constable Walzer arrests you and Justice Walzer sentences you. That's a pretty how-to-do—police, judge and jury, three in one. But there's a bright side to it after all. If Politician Walzer happens to be around, no doubt he'll get you off with a light fine. As constable and justice he'll get two small fees and you wouldn't mind being pinched several times at that rate. See the point? It's a good way to keep the business booming. He won't make the mistake of soaking us too hard in the first place, because if he does we'll be good forever after, but if he deals mildly with us, we shall not hesitate to repeat the offenses and thereby a steady stream of fines flows in. But now look for a regular crime wave.

The Tennis Club has been honored with the custody of Narberth's proud Liberty Bond flag with three bars, which flies over the courts just below "Old Glory," but when you say that you've said it all. Nobody seems to care a rap what becomes of the flags. They're out day and night in all kinds of weather. No self-respecting flag can stand that kind of treatment long and the next thing you know, Narberth's precious souvenir will be a washed-out rag.

"Whispering Bill" Cummer sagely remarks: "A letter must be posted before it can impart information, but with some men it's different."

After getting that one off, he delivered this one: "Many a guy has a reputation for being hard-headed, when he's really bone-headed."

What's in this story I hear about the Watson crowd hiring an election worker at so much per and then refusing to pay him?

"My, that's a re-leaf," said Eve when she received a new dress she'd been waiting for a long time.

Food Administration Notes

Henry K. Boyer, Federal Food Administrator for Montgomery county,

Prices of the most essential food commodities in the various communities of Montgomery county will be regulated by the publication in the newspapers of the district of a "fair price" list. This list will contain the wholesale prices—the figure at which the grocer or other dealer purchases each article and the price at which it can be sold to give the dealer a reasonable profit. All prices will be based upon the "cash and carry" plan.

This method of regulating prices to the consumer has worked out very successfully in Philadelphia and other large cities of the country.

In order to carry out the idea in Montgomery county Food Administrator Boyer has appointed Rev. H. W. Bright, pastor of Ascension Reformed Church, Norristown, as chairman of the Fair Price Fixing Board. It will be Mr. Bright's duty to appoint committees of wholesalers, retailers and consumers in each community to fix the "fair prices."

In only one commodity has a "fair price" so far been fixed in Montgomery county. At the opening of his administration Mr. Boyer held a meeting of wholesalers and retailers at the Court House, Norristown, at which meeting the "fair price" of sugar was fixed at 9 cents.

Through County Food Administrators, National Food Commissioner Herbert Hoover is making an appeal to the patriotic people of the country to voluntarily ration their food in order that drastic and compulsory rationing may be avoided. This appeal pertains particularly to meat, wheat and sugar.

There are three methods of purchasing sugar for three different purposes:

First—For daily family use—as before from the grocer, the amount allowed being about three-fourths pound per person per week.

Second—For canning and preserving—twenty-five pounds at a time upon signing a certificate stating amount on hand and amount used during 1917. Certificates are furnished by the grocers. Successive amounts of twenty-five pounds each may be purchased, as canning and preserving are to be encouraged.

Third—For manufacturing purposes, in which case sworn statements are made out on blanks furnished by the County Food Administrator upon which certificates are issued for requirements up to July 1, 1918.

The hotel and restaurant allowance of two ounces of breadstuffs of any kind per meal per person and individual service of sugar will be strictly enforced.

County bakers are asked, in order to prevent much corn flour from spoiling in the future, to use at least 10 per cent. of corn flour in their substitutes.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in this church on Sunday morning, June 23. Preparatory meeting next Wednesday evening.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

"The Little Church on the Hill"

Rev. F. M. Gray, Pastor

Services on Sunday, June 16, as follows:

Children's day will be celebrated at the church all day. The church will be decorated with flowers and the pastor will preach at 11 A. M. on "One Thing I Know," as an emphasis on education.

At 6.45 P. M. the children's day exercises will be given by the children of the Sunday school. This service will be held at this early hour so that the children may not be kept up too late. The service will close in time for those who desire to attend the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian Church.

Sunday school at 9.45 A. M. Men's class taught by the Hon. F. W. Stites at 10 A. M. Women's class taught by Mrs. McCracken at 12.15 P. M. Epworth League at 7 P. M.

The pastor is giving a series of talks at the prayer meeting on "Christ's Definitions of Himself."

"T. C." CLUB CONTRIBUTES $50 TO THE RED CROSS

We do not know the mystic meaning of the letters "T. C.," but we do know that it is a club of young Narberth girls who deserve the highest praise for their loyalty and patriotism. The officers are: Ella Dohard, president; Elizabeth Jones, vice-president; Louise England, secretary; Elizabeth Hunter, treasurer. Other members are: May Banfield, Ethel Banfield, Dorothy Williamson, Evelyn Patten, Faith McAuliffe, Louise Jones and Katharine McKelvy.

On Saturday, June 1, the "T. C." Club held a bazaar on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Dohard, Wynnewood avenue. There were tables for the sale of fancy articles, cake, ice cream and lemonade, and other attractions, including a gypsy fortune teller, who revealed the past and future in a most startling and convincing manner.

The bazaar was well attended by friends and neighbors of the girls. The day was perfect and everybody present was highly pleased. The proceeds, amounting to $50, were handed to Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, president of the Narberth Unit of the Red Cross, for the benefit of that organization.

BUYING WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

The Boy Scouts endeavor to see the people on the streets assigned to each scout by the scoutmaster, but purchasers of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps are advised that if it is not convenient to buy through the scouts the stamps may be purchased at the postoffice. We have a plentiful supply on hand and for those purchasing in quantities checks drawn to the order of Edward S. Haws, postmaster, will be accepted.

MARKET DAYS AT THE CANNING CENTRES

Owners of small gardens and all vacant lot gardeners should be interested in the announcement of the market days to be held at the canning centres along the Main Line. Members of the canning clubs only will have the privilege of selling in these markets, which offer a splendid opportunity to dispose of surplus fruits and vegetables. They will also afford a fine chance for the townspeople to obtain delicious wholesome produce fresh from the gardens.

While the canning centres cannot pledge themselves to buy the produce brought to these markets, they will do so when circumstances make it possible to handle it in the centres. Gardeners who hope to sell directly to the centres should note the fact that canned beans and tomatoes were found to be the best sellers last season.

These small community markets will not interfere with the local grocers, who cannot handle produce in small quantities, and who must depend on a more regular source of supply.

The Food Administration is definitely committed to the policy of instituting all kinds of local markets, community, curb and roadside, as a war measure. They are of great value in disposing of larger quantities of perishables, which automatically saves the staples, and they conform to the fundamental principle that every community must feed itself as far as possible to relieve the transportation situation.

During the coming season the canning centres will redeem at five cents a piece any glass topped jars which are returned to them clean and in good condition.

The new plan to donate ten per cent. of each day's output to the use of the soldiers and sailors should be of special interest to the families of men in the service, and it is hoped that this summer there will be wider interest in the canning centres and that more women will offer themselves to help in the splendid work going on there.

The Y. M. C. A. in the War

The place taken by the Y. M. C. A. as an adjunct to Government war activities is second only to that occupied by the Red Cross. It is of tremendous importance, as is freely acknowledged even by those who hitherto have taken but little interest in this work, or who even, in the past, criticized it severely.

It was indeed fortunate that its widespread organization was ready for the sudden demand for an enormous expansion of its work to cover the needs of millions of men in the war, including prisoners in the hands of our enemies. Untold suffering has been relieved by its workers, and the splendid maintenance of the morale of the Allies is largely due to its untiring efforts.

Under these circumstances, it is strange that the local home organization, the Narberth Y. M. C. A., has met with so much indifference and neglect. But for the efforts of a comparatively small group of men and women it would have gone down and out long ago. This is a very regrettable condition of affairs. It is strange that people, while freely acknowledging the good done by the organization at large, are so slow to appreciate the fact that but for the maintenance of the various local units the great work would be impossible.

The men and women of Narberth, who have done so much to maintain other activities, should awaken to the urgent need of keeping our branch going. A modest contribution from the mass of our people would do this; without this support, the strain on the few threatens to be too great. We trust the people of Narberth will rally in effort to put it on a firm financial basis.

Please Do Not Ask Our Operators for the Correct Time

A Necessary War-Time Request

WHEN a subscriber lifts his telephone receiver and asks: "What is the time, please?" the same service on the part of the operator, the same length of time and an equal use of telephone equipment generally are necessary as are required to complete an ordinary telephone call.

In every telephone central office there is a switchboard with a certain number of operators' positions; at each position is an operator; before each operator a certain number of subscribers' lines terminate. If these telephone facilities are taxed to their utmost and a large percentage of the calls is for the time of day, the telephone user will appreciate that to eliminate such calls will permit a reassignment or redistribution of both operators' service and telephone equipment and result in our being able to care for the abnormal demands of the present, and the even greater demands that we feel will be made upon our service in the months to come.

Every true American sees his personal obligation in the great National task at hand. The Telephone Company is keenly alive to the responsibility that rests upon it. Will you make only the necessary telephone calls and so assist this Company in its service?
