FORT STREET PAVING TROUBLE

RESIDENTS OBJECT TO PAYING TWO-THIRDS

Little Likelihood of Tramway Company Assisting in Work.

The property owners on Fort street between Yates street and Oak Bay avnot think they should pay two-thirds of the cost of paving that nain thoroughfare. They consider the tramway company should help out but a joint committee of owners and aldermen who waited on A. T. Goward this forenoon did not get much sympathy with that view.

A delegation of fifteen of the most prominent property owners on the portion of the street affected waited on the council last night.

William Humphrey pointed out that the street was the inlet and outlet for all the traffic between this city and Oak Bay, Cadboro Bay, Mount Tolmie and that district, and this being so, the owners did not see why they should pay as large a proportion of the cost as if the work was being done the cost as if the work was being do the cost as if the work was being done largely for their own benefit. For himself, the only reason he would be willing to pay for any new pavement on Fort street was that it would do away with the present dust in summer and mud in winter. The property owners, thought one-third was a fair proporting to pay leaving the signer. proportion to pay, leaving the city and tramway company to foot the rest of the bill. Mr. Humphrey suggested that while the sidewalk is broken up for the laying of water mains an at-tempt be made to straighten the street tempt be made to straighten the street between Harison street and Stanley avenue, and that when the tramway line is relaid it be placed in the centre of the roadway instead of on the Mayor Hall informed the deputation that the city could not legally pay more than half the cost. He agreed with what Mr. Humphrey had said, and added that on Sundays residents had their clothes being ruined by mud or dust.

Dr. R. F. Verrinder said the street. was the only artery to the suburbs north, was narrow and congested. The traffic, far from enhancing the property from a residential standpoint, was depreciation; and on every ground the owners should not be asked to pay the usual two-thirds. He believed the the usual two-thirds. He believed the tramway company would willingly bear a portion of the cost if it was pointed out to them that it would obviate delays to traffic.

Ald. Fullerton thought that Pembroke street, when improved, would refleve a lot of the traffic on Fort to the street.

apply to all other trunk roads, and if the city was to pay a larger proportion it would not be able to do the work. It would not be able to do the work. The great difficulty on Fort street was its narrowness, but then its paying would cost less than if it were wider. City Solicitor Mann said he had always advised the council to treat the tramway company as property owners and assess for local improvements, the as was done in all American cits. Here a compromise was reached y the company doing the concreting etween the rails.

On Ald. Raymond's suggestion it

On Ald. Raymond's suggestion it was decided that a joint committee should interview the local manager of the B. C. Electric Railway Co., and mayor named Aldermen Raymond. Turner and McKeown, while William Humphrey, L. U. Conyers and Dr. Verrinder were chosen by the owners. These gentlemen saw Mr. Goward this morning. He, of course, has to con sult his principals, but he did not offe much hope that they would bear any part of the cost.

A letter was received from the secretary of the Country Club in regard to the stand they are taking in regard to the conduct of the race meet. Much eatisfaction was expressed at the action taken and this was set forth in a resolution which ran as follows:

"This council is giad to find that the Victoria Country Club intends, and is taking precautions to insure an orderly and respectable meeting." Resentment also was expressed at certain statements which had been made, implying that there was friction between the Country Club and the municipal council. None but the best feeling exists and the club will receive the cooperation of the municipality.

WORKING IN CAUSE OF ARBITRATION

Business Men Speak at International Conference at Lake Mokonk.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 21.-Last ight's session of the Lake Mohonk ght's session of the Lake Mohonk nference on international arbitration as given up entirely to business men, has. Richardson, of Philadelphia, pre-Chas. Richardson, of Philadelphia, presented a report of a special commission showing that nearly two hundred leading chambers of commerce and hoards of trade in the larger cities were co-operating with the conference in promoting international arbitration. The committee urged upon business men that they should seize every opportunity to create public sentiment in favor of this method of settling international differences and against further increase of armament, Concluding, Mr. Richardson said: "He do more than any other class to create our own and other great nation in our own and other great nations a public sentiment which no modern government could afford to ignore. IN U. S. TARIFF Committee Accepts Proposals Regarding White Lead and Cotton Seed Oil.

Washington, May 21.-The Senat esterday distributed its attention among the three amendments in the tariff bill providing for a duty on an extract of chestnut bark used in tanning and known as puebracho on cot-ton seed oil and white lead. On each read and cotton seed oil.

The lead duty fixed by the committee was originally 2% cents per pound, but Mr. Curtis, who is a member of the committee, suggested a reduction of % of a cent per pound, bringing the figure down to 2% cents, and Mr. Aldrich accepted the reduction.

epied the reduction.

Probably the most interesting con Probably the most interesting con-iest of the day was that over the question as to whether there should be any duty on cotton seed on. Sen-ators Tiliman, Bacon and Mahoney made an intense fight against the Sen-ate provision fixing a tariff of three cents a gallon, on the ground that it whild infire the sale of cotton seed, and after the controversy had gone on for some time, Mr. Aldrich withdrew the provision.

Offering an amendment to further reduce the duty of quebracho, Senator Lafollette declared that the tanning Largiette declared that the tanning industry was being driven to Canada, where quebracho is admitted free of duty. He declared that oak and hem-lock have been killed off, and now only the interior chestnut is left which ould be used successfully to make an quebracho. By a viva voce vote the duty recommended by the committee or half of one cent a pound was

EVERYWHERE A PROBLEM.

Look at newspapers from any part of the world, and you will find that the motor car appears to be the most troublesome of all things. In Great Britain the Suffragette makes possibly ed at once, and that an experienced man just as much noise, but she can be will be placeed in charge of the hatchignored by statesmen, and the wise statesman does ignore her; the foolish one talks back. The flying car connot be so treated. It defiantly tears up the favorable to success. roads; insolently fings its dust and its fumes in the faces of rich and poor, peasant and noble, having no respect of persons; wantonly slaughters such as are not sufficiently agile to leap out of the way; and in general plays the part of a vehicular bravo,

If you pursue your consideration of newspapers further, passing from the daily list of killed and injured to the nents upon the conduct of the redeyed demon, you will find that all sorts methods of treatment are suggested. It has been found that passing regulations has no effect except upon a very limited number of chauffeurs That is the most interesting part of the study, too. It is curious to note that who are ordinarily must careful in their observations of social conventions, who would as soon think of densely crowded public thoroughfare. as of violating the rules, written and unwritten, of the road, seem to forget all obligations to or consideration for their fellowmen as soon as they grip the wheel of a petrol charlot and hear Union Streets, and at Entrance to the hum of the motor. But with the practical extinction of the game and the fish came a realization of the loss sustained. Take the wild life out of the woods and it is an abode of desolation. Fishless streams are just as dead and unattractive. Now the provinces and states mentioned are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars James entered into a covenant with the annually to retrieve the errors of the past. They are importing game birds and establishing fish hatcheries, in the hope of restoring the conditions which once prevailed. This is said to be the first purely le cal enterprise of the kind in Canada, and if it proves a success, as no doubt it will, it may be the forerunner of many local and useful hatcheries that will do wonders in the way of replenishing with game fish the lakes and streams of the province.

There are some things that individuals can do better than governments. just as there are some things a man can do for himself better than anybody else can do for him. When by bass have been placed in local waters in the hope that they would reproduce their kind, focal opinion has not always prevented poachers getting away with these parent fish, thus de feating the whole experiment, when the people of a district put ur standing upon their heads upon a their own money and spend their own energies in trying to improve the fishing, they are bound to succeed. MAYOR CLASHES WITH ALDERMAN

RESENTS INSINUATION OF TRAMWAY MOTIVES

Agreement With Silver Spring Brewery is Passed in Form of By-law.

The agreement reached with the Silver Spring Brewery Company, with reference to granting them a thirty-foot on Lime street in lieu of the strip on Lime street in feel of the equivalent space which the old Fair-all brewery buildings encroached on Esquimait road, was endersed by the city council last night in the form of a by-law.

During the course of the discussion there was a sharp passage between Ald, Henderson and Mayor Hall, the lie being passed.

A by-law for the establishment and A by-law for the establishment acceptance of the western boundary of the Songhees reserve and the western side of Russell street, was introduced on Monday night and passed last night. The fifth clause of this conveys to the brewery company the Lime street strip. ider that the company agreed to erec rider that the company agreed to erect no permanent buildings, and no build-ings except of wood, on the strip, and that if the city ever required the land for street purposes it should get it back on payment of the then value of the buildings, with no compensation whatever for the land or for disturb-

City Solicitor Mann explained how ns 56 feet wide like all government coads, although the actual roadway in use in early days, was probably not over 30 feet. The solicitor stated that over 20 feet. The solicitor stated that he and the city barrister had drawn the by-law up very carefully.

Ald Henderson declared himself emphatically as entirely opposed to the deal being made with the brewery company. The city proposed to ruin a street which was a proper city street in every sense in order to make an irregular road, which was not a city street, straight, This was a ridiculous position to place themselves in. There was no need to widen Esquimalt road at the point in question, as it was quite wide enough for all traffic and there had never been any trouble or congestion. The result would be a biglawauit and all for no purpose he could see, unless it was to give the tramway commany more room. The brewery should be allowed to rebuild on the old site and Lime street be left intact. a street which was a proper city street

Last evening the twelfth annual meeting of the Union Jack Sporting Club was held in the club rooms, with President R. C. Lowe in the chair. The president, in a neat little speech traced the history of the club from its formatics, but group of High School, sides In reply to Ald, Henderson the In reply to Ald. Ald. Henderson retorted that Lime street was three blocks in length on the map, and when the Songhees reserve was thrown open it would be the main thoroughfare from the city to Executing.

Ald Ross declared that it was no street at all and would never supersede Esquimalt road.

The Mayor corroborated this view.

City Soliticor Mann remarked that the brewers has had a wooden shed on Lime street for twenty-three years.

Ald Henderson reiterated, with emphasis, that the council was doing this for the tramway company. Some one seemed to want to benefit the company in every way every chance. Sweeney.

The dull grey dawn was overdue when the festivities were brought to a close by the closing ode and the beautiful closing exercises which were performed by a picked team under the leadership of Will Maysmith.

Full Text of Judgment in Burrard Power Company

The decision in the case of the at-The doctsion in the case of the at-torney-general for the Dominion of Canada vs. the Burrard Power Com-pany, Ltd., and the attorney-general of B. C., recently given in the Ex-chequer court of Canada is a interest-ing one. It establishes points in rela-Canada vs. the Burrard Power Company, Ltd., and the attorney-general of B. C., recently given in the Exchequer court of Canada is a interesting one. It establishes points in relation to the rights of the Dominion and the province relative to lands in the railway beit in the province. The judgment of Mr. Justice Cassels in the Exchequer court as announced briefly in a despatch to the Times a few days ago is in favor of the contention of the Dominion government in the points of dispute. It is held that the Burrard company is not entitled to divert water from the navigable stream as proposed. The company was on April 7th, 1906, granted under the Water Clauses Act of the province the right to divert 25,000 inches of water from Lillocet 125,000 inches of water from Lillocet rand its fributaries and Lillocet rand its fributaries and Lillocet rand its fributaries to be used for power purposes and to be returned at a stated point. The attorney-general of the Dominion as plaintiff in the caise, sets forth that the Lillocet river and Lillocet lake are wholly within the lands known as the railway belt granted in 1880 by the province of British Columbia and the province of British Columbia by "An Lat to grant discontinuous describing the province of British Columbia by "An Lat to grant discontinuous describing the province of British Columbia by "An Lat to grant discontinuous describing the province of British Columbia by "An Lat to grant discontinuous describing the province of British Columbia and the colony of the Canadian Paelife railway. The Dominion government alleged that this record purported to be granted the company, if acted upon, would seriously interfere with the rights of province of British Columbia and the province described by the province of British Columbia and the colony had the Canadian Paelife railway belt and advisable the purpose of alding the construction for the Canadian Paelife railway. The Dominion government alleged that this record purported to be granted the company, if acted upon, would seri way belt and would also interfere with the public rights of navigation in the said Lilloet river. The Dominion also contended that the British Columbia Water Clauses, Consolidation Act expressly provided that lands reserved to the crown should not be affected by its provisions. The attorney-general for the Dominion claimed that the said water record was invalid and asked the Province a Party.

The attorney-general of British Columbia was added as a party defendant subsequent to the filing of the defence. The facts were referred for inquiry and report to Mr. Justice Martin of the Supreme court of British Columbia, and he reported amongst other things that the Lilloder liver at the point in dispute was wholly within the raliway belt, and that the proposed diversion of the water of the river under the said record, would interfer with navigation. An appeal was taken from the report of the referee to Mr. Justice Cassels. By the judgment delivered by him the a consequence the expression by the the Dominion government in the rall-duced a considerable body of evidence of the lake and of the river and of the 7. That the capacity of the Lillouet sand lakes were to a large extent out-waters, in any event where it is non tidal. This renders the British Colum-bia water clauses consolidation inoper-ative as against the Dominion in re-

Dominion. Mr. Justice Cassels also holds that if the proposed diversion by the company of waters of the Lillooet river took place, a very serious interference with the navigability of the river would result. The Dominion the river would result. The bound is held to be entitled to a declaration that the company's record is invalid as interfering with navigation, and be-pressly provided that lands reserved to the crown should not be affected by its provisions. Weak Over-worked Women

Who are broken down and made invalids by the drudgery of never ending household cares and duties, or by over-frequent bearing and nursing of childern, and many other cares, burdens and strains which the weaker sex have to bear, are deserving of profound sympathy. But while sympathy is commendable what these unfortunate women most need is a good, honest, square-deal Restorative Tonic and Strength-giving Nervine and Regulator -one compounded and carefully adapted to act in harmony with woman's peculiar, delicate, ever sensitive organization.

Who so well fitted to select, carefully proportion the ingredients and compound a remedy for the cure of these distressing and often pain-wracking weaknesses and derangements, as the carefully and thoroughly educated and regularly graduated physician who has had a long and successful experience in treating just this class of cases.

In all the above most important particulars, the "Favorite Prescription" stands absolutely alone-in a class all by itself-as woman's most reliable and trust-worthy remedy in time of sickness and distress. It is a pure glyceric extract made from American curative roots, found by long time experience most valuable in curing woman's weaknesses and derangements. The leaders in all schools of medical practice have endorsed each of its ingredients as of the best known remedies for the complicated affections for which it is recommended. So, the Kinrade inquiry came to be a case of the deepest interest to the whole continent—so, excuse—if any be needed—is found for what has been unfairly dubbed "theatrical" accompaniments-wires laid in the court housements—wires laid in the court house— the attendance of a horde of newspaper men—the demand of the public for ad-mission. In the excited state to which public opinion and public interest was aroused, nothing would have been more unwise than to have held such a case in camera after having in the beginning of it admitted the public, I am

To begin with, take Mrs. Kinrade, the poor mother. What a burden of grief is laid upon her! One girl foully done to death, another all but accused of the crime, a third—a little girl who up to this had been mainly concerned with her school books, and companons, and compar-lons, and games, all at once rudely jost-led into the heart of as black a life drama as has ever been made known, What effect can it—this publicity and scandal—apart from the shock of the murder of her sister—have on this young life? Surely a sad and depres-sing one. Surely a heavy burden to like sing one. Surely a heavy burden to lie on young shoulders.

But youth will, in time, cast much of this burden away. Not so with the ageing mother and father. Both parents have fathed miserably, physically and mentally. When Mysically ents have failed miserably, physically and mentally. When Mrs. Kinrade tottered to the witness box a few days ago, she appeared to have aged twenty years in the last six weeks. Her aspect throughout her examination was pitteous. Her poor face was lined and haggard, her eyes sunken and dimmed with term. Her mind appeared to haggard, her eyes sunten and dimes with tears. Her mind appeared to have received a shattering blow; it was at times vacant, obscured. Her hands, twisted themselves in her handker-chief, and her figure—the short and stout figure of middle age—appeared as if shrunken, the shoulders bowed, the chest sunken. One could not but feel deeply for this poor mother caught on the inexorable wheel of an adverse fate.

The figure of her daughter Florence excited less sympathy kind but more of another. Pretty, inexcited less sympathy of the forme kidd but more of another. Fretty, in-consequent butterfly again about to face another keen examination, about to have shed on her whole life a strong searchight. Which one of us—men or women—could bear such a light on our past lives, or stand such an examina-tion? Which of us has not been fool-the toligerest—singli, if you will—at ish, indiscreet—sinful, if you will—at one or another time? Which one of us is so clear of heart and of hand that we may lift the stone and throw is at an-

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prestration. Why don't you try it?

Several public schools are likely during the summer to follow the example of the United Service Cotlege, Windsor, the first school in England to have a aerial dynamics and the principles of heavier than air machines, and teach their boys aeronautics, says the London Daily Mail

"I have been in communication with several headmasters of public schools," said Mr. Patrick Alexander. who pre-sented the fully equipped laboratory to the United Service College and instructs the boys there. "It is" to say exactly what will be done at the other schools, but they will follow, no doubt, the lines we have adopted at Windsor. The boys here come and work with me in the laboratory and I give lectures, illustrated by slides, showing the various types of arroplance, steering gear, the way of wind currents, and so forth: All the periodicals, foreign and English, upon aeronautics are procured for the school library, and the boys read about the nachines which have made successful

TO MY WELL BELOVED SUBJECTS IN QUATSINO: Greeting.

I, George First of Quatsino, Reigning Sovereign of this territory by the Grace of God, and Ruler of Quatsino by Divine Providence, and Protector of Orientals within Our Kingdom,

Hearken unto Our Voice, and peruse this Proclamation on bended ees and with uncovered heads. Vile Variets, Roundheads, and Liberals, know that: On this day, Sunday, by Royal trusty servants did assemble at Our Royal Summer Palace and listened to Our Words of Wisdom and Gracious Commands, which are as

It is Our Royal Pleasure to command Our trusty vassel, Richard McBride, who holds the Barony of Victoria by Our Royal Seal and Power, to forthwith seize, provide, and forward 5,000 wheelbarrows, 10,000 shovels and pickaxes, 5,000 peavies and canthooks, 12 wellmatched coach horses with gold-mounted harness, diamond studded. also 4 fitting carriages, upholstered in gold and plush, and with Our Royal Arms embossed thereon, to-wit: A clam argent on a beach vert, Crest,-a pole-cat in reverse. Motto: "Napoleon looked like Me." Also are there to be provided 200 tons of stumping powder, as without delay We intend to clear space for a Royal orchard.

We have instructed Our loyal vassel Richard to commandeer Our Royal Cousin, King Edward Seventh's sloop of war, Shearwaten, carry the above-mentioned tribute to Our Royal stronghold of Quatsino forthwith, and therein he will fail not under penalty of Our Royal and August wrath and displeasure,

We have commanded Our Lord of the Cinque Ports and High Constable to seize forthwith any variet who shall speak disparagingly of either Ourselves or Our trusty tiege McBride. On such seizure the offending subject shall be forthwith brought into Our August Presence and on being found guilty Our Master of Ceremonies shall at once cut out with a sharp knife the tongue so offending,

We have also issued our Royal command for one wagon road 15 miles long and 15 miles wide, to be delivered in working order here at Our Royal wharf no later than April Fool's day, 1910, under pain of Our Royal displeasure. And whereas:

It has come unto Our knowledge that slurring and insulting re marks have been made about Our well-beloved Lord High Chancellor and, Secretary unto Our Royal Presence-charges having been made that he was educated and possessed of a set of brains-, know ye that, being deeply versed in the art and science of Phrenology, We held a post-mortem to determine same, and the returns of the assay are as Water, 50 per cent.; hot air, 49 per cent.; gray matter, .00029 per cent.; bluff, trace. Any more remarks by any of the variets of Our sacred territory will cause Us to send Our Lord Warden and High Constable to forthwith seize the persons and crucify them on the walls of Our Royal Palace, and may God Have Mercy on their souls.

It is furthermore Our Royal pleasure and command that, hereafter, in every dwelling house within Our realm, promptly at 9 p, m "God Save the King" be sung with due reverence.

B. N. A. Act Cited.

The British North America Act, sec. 31, enacts "the exclusive legislative authority of the province of Canada extends to all matters coming within the ses of subjects next herated, that is to say: hereinafter

"I. The public debt and property."
The 11th section of the Union agr ment provided for the payment of $100 000 per annum by the Dominion to Brit Columbia. It also provided:

"And the government of British Col-umbia agree to convey to the Domin-ion government, in trust to be appro-priated in such manner as the Dominion government may deem advisable in ion government may deem advisable in the furtherance of the construction of the said railway, a similar extent of public lands along the line of railway throughout its entire length in British Columbia, not to exceed, however, twenty miles on each side of the said line, as may be appropriated for the same purpose by the Dominion govern from the public lands in the rthwest Territories and the province Manitoba."

The lands in the province of Mani-toba were vested in the crown for the benefit of the Dominion. They formed part of the province of Manitoba just much as the present lands formed as much as the present lands formed-part of the province of British Colum-bla. Can it be contended that because the Dominion government agreed to appropriate a certain portion of these lands for the same purposes as the appropriation of the lands in British Columbia: thesefore the localizature of lumbia, therefore the legislature of initoba could pass enactments inter-ing with Dominion rights.

fering with Dominion rights.

The late Sir John Thompson, as minsister of justice, had occasion to express an opinion upon this question. In 1887 the legislature of Manitoba passed two acts, intituled respectively, "An Act respecting the construction of the Red giver Valley Railway," and an Act to amend the Public Works Act of amend the Public Works Act of Manitoba. By the former Act the goverment of Manitoba was given authority, amongst other things, to construct a tine of railway from a point within the city of Winnipeg to a point in or a line of railway from a point within the city of Winnipeg to a point in or near the town of West Lynn. By the latter act the minister of public works for Manitoba was authorized to construct any public work at the expense of the province, of which the construction might be assigned to him by the lieutenant-governor in council, and whither such work was authorized by the statute. tion might be assigned to him by the lieutenant-governor in council, and whether such work was authorized by the statutes then in force or not. It was also provided that sums needed for the construction of such public works might be raised by loan upon the credit of the province, bearing interest at a sate not exceeding five per st at a rate not exceeding five per centum. Both these acts were disal-lewed by the governor-general in coun-cil on the recommendation of Sir John Thompson. The following observations are taken from his report: Sir John Thompson. "It is evident that under such an act a railway such as the Red River rail-wap could be constructed by the min-ister of public works as a public work of the province of Manitoba. It is eviof the province of Manitoba. It is evident, also, that each of the acts referred to is in conflict with that policy of the parliament and of the government of Canada, reconfirmed at the last session of parliament, by which it is sought to prevent the diversion of trade from the railway system of Canada to the railways of the United States.

railway extending beyond the limits of the legislative Assembly heretofore the province, would be in excess of any authority which the legislature of It also recites: the province, would be in excess of any authority which the legislature of Manitoba could grant, as may be clearly seen by reference to the British North America Act. 1867, sec. 9, clause 10 (a) in the crown's territorial rights as distinguished from the jura regalla, are appropriated to and held by the Dominion as fully and effectually, and by the same tenure, as the same had been previously appropriated to and held by the province. The title is in the Sovereign in right of the Dominion, in the same sense tas to territorial rights) as it was in the Sovereign in the right of British Columbia before the act of the construction of railways with in that province, as indeed it must apply to every act by which the legislature of that province purports to give authority to enter upon such lands."

Settlers' Rights Case

Mr. Lafteur laid considerable stress on the recent decision of McGregor v. Esquimatt Railway Gompany. (App. Cas., 1907, p. 462.) The reasoning upon which that decision was based was that the land in question ceased to be

So, in the present case, if the Dominion granted any portion of the lands to settlers, the settlers would be lands to settlers, the settlers would be come subject to the enactments of British Columbia, but so long as the property remained in the crown for the benefit of the Dominion the legislature of British Columbia could not legislate rights are concerned and are subject to local legislation, then the legislature of local legislation then the legislature of local legislation, then the legislature of local legislation then the local legislation the local leg of British Columbia could not egislature of so as to affect Dominion property.

The first objection is to the finding of fact in the 5th paragraph of the report relating to the injury to the fishing rights the property of the Dominion as owners of the lands, including the beds of the river and lakes.

The plantiff does not base his claim

The plaintiff does not base his claim The plaintiff does not base his claim on any interference with any general law relating to the protection of fish. The claim is made as owners of the lands and waters. If the legislature of British Columbia have the right to pass the enactments in question, then the question of injury is immaterial. I agree with the finding of the zeferee. The case is not one which can be remedied as argued by Mr. Lafleur by a fish ladder in the dam. This might be a remedy if the waters were dammed up and overflowing the dam into the natural channel of the river, but the natural channel of the river, here it is proposed to divert the waters away from the channel, practically leaving the river below the dam with very little water.

rest ground of appeal is from the finding of fact in the 7th paragraph of the report to the effect that the Lillooet river is a navigable river. It is admitted that the river as far navigable in fact.

Bearing in mind that by the terms of the union agreement and the various statutes confirmatory of these agreements, the property in question was vested in the crown for the benefit of the Dominion. I proceed to consider the subsequent legislation.

The statute 55 Vict. cap. 47 (1892), is "An Act to confirm to the Crown all unrecorded and unappropriated water and water power in the province and for other purposes."

Buying in Burleith Buying for Old Age

A DELIGHTFUL RESTFULNESS seizes one on entering "Burleith Park." When the streets have been completed through here and new homes built, much of the seclusion and natural beauty of the old estate will have been maintained. It would be difficult to picture a more satisfactory place in which to build a permanent home.

To the many women who have visited it since Monday, "Burleith Park" has been a source of genuine delight with its rare trees, shrubs and flowers.

The waterfront lots particularly have been tramped over and over by women and children admiring the beauty of the waterfront and planning sites for the tasty new houses their imagination paints in the rustic background that fringes the Gorge water. These waterfront lots offer the chance of a lifetime to the man who has been seeking a picturesque building site with access to boathouse and water.

We have gone carefully over the list of available waterfront lots and find that we have a possible seven lots that we will sell at from $1,700 to $2,000 each. There are many waiting for this opportunity.

We also have a few very choice park lots, ranging in price from $600 to $800. You should have one of these.

Selling will be done principally from our offices for the balance of the week. We can describe the topography of the estate accurately enough to make a trip to the property unnecessary unless possibly for your final decision.

Different—because Fels-Naptha gets the wash ready for the line in about half the time of any other soap.

Different-because Fels-Naptha itself does the work of loosening the dirt from the fabric, which every other soap leaves to you to do with the washboard.

Different-because with Fels-Naptha there's no backache: no need for long bending over the tub, as with other soaps.

Different-because Fels-Naptha saves the clothes: (1) from weakening of the fibre by heat; (2) from the wear of hard rubbing.

Different-because Fels-Naptha actually does in cool or lukewarm water what the best other soaps will not do even in scalding hot water. Follow directions on the red and green

MAY WHEAT PRICES CONTINUE TO RISE

Another Record Goes in Chicago Pit-Armour

May wheat broke another record to-day when it struck $1.31\), or ic. a bushed above the extreme limit reached thus far during the present season. The buying of this option was of extensive character and the buil clique seemed to be under the leadership of that old-time bear leader. Armour. The purchases of the provision king were said to run into millions of bushes during recent days.

Foreign markeis were of very builtah character to-day, with Paris it higher at the close. Liverpool opened with a hesitating tone, and prices id. higher to id. lower, but as the trading progressed the strength became more profounced and the closing was id. to id. above yester day.

Providing for the laxation of bachelors

Providing for the laxation of bachelors and spinsters at four times the rate of married men and women, a bill has been introduced to the Danish parliament by the government.

Advertising Talk No. 4

Saying that good newspaper advertising doesn't pay is a good deal like saying that the earth is flat. There's mighty good evidence to the contrary.—Rusty Mike's Diary.

You have probably heard the story of the farmer and the giraffe? How Cy went to the circus and saw a giraffe for the first time? Anyway, Cy and the giraffe stared at each other for about five minutes and then Cy walked away muttering to himself. I don't believe thar is enny such anymile enny haow." It's an old story and hardly worth repeating, but it goes to show that there are people who won't believe the evidence of their own eyes.

But, did you ever hear the story of the man who said, "I don't believe there is any such thing as getting returns from advertising, unless you have a great big store and are in a great big city; and then people would come anyhow, so what's the use in advertising?"

That story is being told every day and there's a cunning little synopsis of those stories each week in Dunn's and Bratstreet's lists of business failures in the United States and elsewhere.

That doesn't mean that every store that failed last week failed because it didn't advertise, or that every store that didn't advertise, is going to fail next week. But a careful analysis of these failures shows that almost 90 per cent, of them are non-advertisers.

Where there's so much snoke there must be some fire.

But to go back to Cy and his giraffe.

Cy was without question past master of the Ancient and Honorable Order of Doubting Thomases. He wouldn't believe the evidence of his own eyes. But there are a lot of people who are giving Cy a hard run for second money.

Any man who can conscientiously say that to the best of his belief ad-money.

Any man who can conscientiously say that to the best of his belief advertising will not help his business, is promising material for the position of managing director of the A. O. D. T.

Good advertising has pulled more businesses out of the hole than all the money that all the banks ever loaned at any rate of interest. Money may as biff and stave off failure for a week, a month, a year or two, but money alone can't get the business coming your way and boost your sales and prevent the need of any more borrowing. Something has got to bring you and your business before the people $1 that they will recognize your store as the place where certain of their wants can best be supplied, and whatever method you use, you can't deny the fact that it's publicity or advertising. Now, there's advertising and advertising. Just as there's women and the place where certain of their wants can best be supplied, and whatever included you use, you can't deay the fact that it's publicity or advertising. Now, there's advertising and advertising just as there's women and women. Some kinds are good, some kinds are bad, and some are just naturally useless. It requires discrimination to select the best.

Out forefathers were great hands for ancestry and after all they were more than half right. If you find that two-thirds of the community think pretty well of a family, that their record is clear so far as you can tell and that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they are all right, entitled to a certain amount of credit, and if it happens to be that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they seem to move in the best society, you naturally conclude that they seem to make they are a family that it's publication and some are just naturally useless. On March I. 1878, there was a crisis and Bismarck was without a finance minister.

Why do I keep a secretary," he exclaimed to Herr Tiedemann, "if he can't find me a finance minister? I must have one this evening. Get him—living or dead."

The secretary looked through his diary and suggested Herr Hobrecht, the burgomaster of Berlin.

"He might do," said Bismarck." "do you know him? Yes? Fetch him this evening."

The burgomaster appeared, and the appointment was made. How Horecht mentioned that he knew very little about finance.

"So much the better," growled the Iron Chancellor; "you will have no preconceived ideas."

The hore of the mean that the least price will place his announcement before the greater number of people it reaches, it seems as though the newspaper is the medium referred to by Printer's Ink.

The sword is the one worn by Washington when he resigned commend of the army. December 23, 1783, and when he was inaugurated first president of the United States. In his will he wrote of the sword:

"It is not to be unsheathed for the purpose of shedding blood, except it befor self defence, or in defence of the country and its rights, and in the latter case, to keep it unsheathed and to prefer falling with it in their hands to the relinquishment thereof." wrote of the sword:

WILL GO TO PRIVY COUNCIL. Winnipeg, May 21.—At the sitting of the court of appeals yesterday J. C. O'Connor, acting for the plaintiffs in Cotter vs. Osborne, known as the plumbers case, mayed to dismiss the for leave to appeal direct to the privy council. The motion was opposed by H. W. A. Knott for the defendants.

After some discussion the application was dismissed by the court undimously. Chief Justice Howell mousty, their Justice Hower marking that the case was one of yery great importance to a large number of people interested, and that if possible it was very desirable that the points arising in the case should be settled by the highest court of the Empire.

by the highest court of the Empire.

Mr. Knott then applied to the court asking that his petition on behalf of the defendants for leave to appeal to the privy council stand until next term.

This was granted.

BUNKERS ON THE RESERVE

COUNCIL WAITS FOR OPINION ON PLANS

Inner Harbor Association Will Be Given Opportunity to See Them First.

The city council did not deal with the atter of the Songhees reserve and the P. R. plans at its meeting last night, matter of courtesy to the Inner Harthe latest, proposals of the company, The Mayor, when the matter came up, aid he had been informed that the new blan had not been seen by the association, which would like to see it, and so before the present case.

'Have we anything to say about it at law asked Ald. Stewart.

scheme or not. The Inner Harbor Asso-ciation has done a great deal of work for the karbor, has a very comprehensive plan for its improvement, and has secured some large appropriations. In regard to this proposal of the railways, they re-

"I would like to see the C. P. R. take this by expropriation and some one else take some more of it and settle the Songhees reserve question." said Ald. Stewart. "I would not mind the C. P. R. taking all if it would bring an end to that trouble. That reserve has been a nuisance to the city from as far back as 1800 and it is not settled yet. If the C. P. R. got what they want the Indians would begin to see reason."

ests of the public in these regards should be looked after by the council very care

Ald. Bishop spoke of the constant de-mand for sites for manufacturing and the number of industries Victoria has lost; because manufacturers found they could not get sites in that part of the city. The progress of Victoria West and of the city, "We have quite a few citizens at the back of these Indians inducing them to hold out against a settlement," added Ald. Bishop.

Ald. Turner mentioned that at the Board of Trade meeting G. A. Kirk, president of the Inner Harbor association, had expressed its approval of the plans. Why, then, delay action?

then, delay action?
Mayor Hall said he had been informed by the secretary of that body that the new plan had never been before it, although Mr. Kifik did speak as stated.

The motion carried, and the afsociation will be asked to take action promptly.

CHURCH UNION

Resolution Favoring Step Passed By Winnipeg Baptists.

Winnipeg, May 21.—At a general meeting of the First Eaptist church Wednesday night a resolution was ad-opted in favor of church union. At the meeting Rev. D. B. Harkness, secretary of the Baptist missions in the West, explained that the Baptists of Canada have been considering for-some years the question of organiza-tion of the Baptist church throughout Canada. A committee of twenty, rep-resenting the various congregations of the Dominion, have been looking into the matter and gathering the consensus of opinion among Baptists.

-The police court this morning saw the last of the fourteen Chinese lot-tery cases which have been on remand repeatedly since the raid over a month ago. The prosecution this morning closed its case without calling further evidence and the accused had nothing to say. They were committed for trial. The defendants all appeared before Judge Young in county court late in the morning, pleaded not guilty and elected a speedy trial. They were ad-mitted to ball in the same sureties as before. Sergeant Redgrave and Con-stable Forster took the fourteen over to county court, accompanied dozen friends and sympathizers. courtroom has never held so many mongolians at once.
