REPORT SAYS CANADA TO HAVE NAVY

Premier Commences Suit and Names Sum of $50,000 Damages

R. T. Elliott, K.C., and Mr. Oliver Will Stage Sequel to Telegram Incident in Court; M. B. Jackson, K.C., and Joseph Oliver Act For Premier.

Following a good deal of speculation as to the course he would take in reply to the charges levelled against him in the two memorable telegrams which were read to the Legislature during the dying hours of the recent session, the Hon. John Oliver, Premier of the Province of British Columbia, has made known his intentions this morning by the instituting of proceedings for libel against Richard T. Elliott, K.C., with a claim for $50,000 damages.

Confined to One Issue.

Although the telegrams alleged to have been sent by Mr. Elliott to the Premier's office in connection with the action of the Legislature in respect of the bill to strengthen the position of the Taylor Engineering Company and its relation to the Dolly Varden Mines Company, the writ defines the issue to Mr. Elliott's charges against the Premier's alleged dealings with Messrs. Petley and Keith, who had notified the Government of their desire to dispose of certain lands for soldier settlement purposes. The document recites that portion of one of the telegrams in which Mr. Elliott's conduct is alleged to be a gross and deliberate breach of public confidence, and converting it to his own advantage. The Premier denies the allegation, and complains of the fact that the words to which he objects were alleged to have been written and published by Mr. Elliott in a telegram to the Premier, and that the words were the common view of one or more of the employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Telegraph system.

The Writ.

1. The plaintiff is a farmer, and is and at all times material in this action has been, Minister of Railways in the Government of the Province of British Columbia and Premier of said Province, and resides at 1837 Fern Street, in the City of Victoria. 2. The defendant is a barrister-at-law, and resides at the City of Victoria. (Concluded on page 4.)

OVERALLS AND SPATS FOR M. P.

Major Newman Will Wear Denim in the British House

London, May 4.—Overalls are about to invade Parliament, but will be combined with spats to relieve the historic place of some of the shock. Major John Robert Prettyman Newman, member of the House of Commons for the Finchley division of Middlesex, will be the man who will introduce denim to Westminster. Major Newman has admitted his intention to wear overalls to the House, and says he has become a warm convert to this means of converting clothing prices, which was inaugurated on May Day. He clings to spats, however, and has told an interviewer he will wear them in connection with his unparliamentary garb.

Big New Merger Attracts Attention in Britain

London, May 4.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The press gives ample details of the great industrial merger that Colonel Grant Morden has organized, but there is little editorial comment offered.

The financial writer of The Times says it marks a new stage in the era of industrial combinations and probably will prove the forerunner of others, if the British Empire is to reap full benefits from the association of the self-governing nations in development.

The British steel-makers are taking a wise step in safeguarding their future supplies of raw material, he says, and providing Canada with opportunities of developing her mineral resources on a big scale. The writer urges the promoters to resist temptation to create excessive capital.

VICTORIA DELEGATES AT TRADE CONFERENCE

Board of Trade to Have Representatives at Calgary Convention

J. J. Shallcross and George I. Warren will represent the Victoria Board of Trade at a conference of Western Canadian Boards of Trade in Calgary in the middle of this month, as a result of a decision of the Board of Trade Council, reached this morning. Armed with voluminous data to be prepared by a special committee, they will impress upon the conference some of the needs of the Pacific Coast, needs which the members feel, are too often overlooked. The invitation to the conference was the cause for considerable discussion at the Council meeting today. Vice-President Beatty felt that, though Victoria might not directly benefit from the Board's representation, undoubtedly it would be advisable to send delegates to the conference.

"The fact that we are ignored here is due to our own apathy," declared Mr. Warren. "We've got to mix with these other boards and formulate a new policy in this direction."

The Echo states that the Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine, is reported to have made this announcement privately.

The newspaper further says that the recent order of the Government closing up the Canadian naval stations and discharging officials and employees attached to them was camouflage so as to allow of the introduction of a new naval programme with a clean slate. The Minister also is credited by The Echo with saying that he is tired of the criss-crossing going on in connection with the Jellicoe programme and is taking the matter wholly into his own hands.

NEW BIG MERGER

CAUSE OF QUESTION

But Ottawa Cabinet Not Informed Specially About Steel and Shipping Concern

Ottawa, May 4.—In the Commons yesterday afternoon R. L. Richardson, of Springfield, Man., asked the Acting Prime Minister whether he had any information to impart to the House regarding the proposed steel and shipping merger...

Sir George Foster replied that all mergers were not necessarily injurious. The Government was not in possession of any information which was not available to the member asking the question.

With respect to the question as to whether the Government could stop the merging of the companies, Sir George said it was one of the functions of the Government to exploit, and this Government would endeavor to perform that function.

Colonel Morden. Toronto, May 4.—Colonel W. Grant Morden, promoter of the big merger known as the British Empire Steel Corporation, member of the British Parliament for Brantford and Chio-wick, England, and a former Toronto boy, addressing the Toronto Board of Trade yesterday, said: "Proper combination to-day in trade is essential, just the same as in industry, to my knowledge, that has ever taken place which has worked out so scientifically, so fairly, and on so conservative lines in future as solidation to be known in future as the British Empire Steel Corporation."

Colonel Morden compared its position with that of the United States Steel Corporation, which had started without a dollar of assets behind the common stock.

"We assume and put against the outstanding preference shares of the constituent companies an equivalent amount of preferred shares, namely, $37,000,000," Colonel Morden said.

He said his opinion of the way in which Canada could accomplish a binding partnership was by forming an industrial partnership.

LATER VOTING HOURS FOR THE FARMERS

Ottawa Bill Changed; City Polls Open Till 6 P.M.; Rural Polls, 8 P.M.

Ottawa, May 4.—In the discussion of the Franchise Bill in the House of Commons last night, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King suggested that the hours for polling be from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., instead of from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie favored the idea of opening rural polls later and moved an amendment that the hours in city polls be from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. and in rural polling hours from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Another amendment still to be brought down will specify that in all cases standard and not daylight saving time is to be used.

Called Useless. Wm. Duff, of Lunenburg, gave vigor to the proceedings by an emphatic demand that one clause should be struck from the bill, it should be the clause which provides for advanced polls for railway employees, sailors and others.

Advertisements. Levi Thompson, QuAppelle, said the measure should provide for a public statement of the cost of the full page advertisements which business interests inserted in newspapers at election times.

In 1911 manufacturers had published many reciprocal and money generally spent in this way had not appeared in the published statements of party expenses.

Not Recognized. Mr. Guthrie pointed out that the legislation did not recognize political parties as such.

Mr. King argued that if a number of men working in a mine were dissatisfied they could not, under the bill, obtain a board on their own application.

Mrs. McDonald declared that the effect of the amendment would be to increase strikes. A section in a mining camp would be unable to secure inquiry into any grievance they might have, and the dissatisfaction might very easily infect the whole industry.

GERMANS ATTACKED POLES IN SILESIA

Oppeln, Silesia, May 3.—Via London, May 4.—Armed with knives, revolvers, clubs and stones, German men and boys attacked Poles who were holding a Sunday demonstration on the occasion of the Polish national festival and in a pitched battle that followed two persons were killed and a score wounded, including a Polish priest.

The Polish demonstrators had gathered from all parts of the surrounding country, following a demand for a demonstration on Saturday, and were forming a procession in the outskirts of the city when a large crowd of Germans attacked them.

Large crowds gathered to witness the Polish demonstration, and while the fighting continued, great excitement prevailed. It was said the trouble probably would stimulate the Polish demand that the Commission dismiss the German Security Police and recruit a police force composed equally of Poles and Germans.

CONCILIATION BOARDS SUBJECT OF DEBATE

Senate Amendments to Industrial Disputes Act Held Up in House

Ottawa, May 4.—Keen criticism in the House yesterday afternoon resulted in the temporary blocking of a Senate bill to amend the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act (The Lemieux Act). The clause of the bill particularly at issue was one relating to the authority of union leaders to apply for a board of conciliation. Under the present act, such authority must be approved by a majority of members of the union.

Especially critical of the bill were the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Leader of the Opposition, who as Deputy Minister of Labor drafted the Lemieux Act, and Angus McDonald, Labor-United Farmer for Temiskaming. It was Mr. McDonald's maiden speech in the House and was followed with interest by all sides.

Mr. King argued that if a number of men working in a mine were dissatisfied they could not, under the bill, obtain a board on their own application.

Mr. McDonald declared that the effect of the amendment would be to increase strikes. A section in a mining camp would be unable to secure inquiry into any grievance they might have, and the dissatisfaction might very easily infect the whole industry.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from costiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore, it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular.

Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This, with the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

From a child I was always very badly constipated, and I can well remember when quite young, my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning, and I got to read it every morning. Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON CANADA IN LONDON, SHORTLY

London, May 4.—(Canadian Press) A statement will be made shortly on behalf of the Government regarding Canadian representation at Washington, it was announced in the House yesterday afternoon.

It also was stated that the Franco-Canadian commercial convention had been denounced as the instance of the Canadian Government. It was further announced that the British Government was unaware whether Canada desired a further arrangement. Percy Hurd suggested the matter might be postponed until after the imperial conference when all the nations of the Empire could have considered the question of joint negotiations.

OTTAWA COMMONS AND LATE SITTINGS

Ottawa, May 4.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King asked in the Commons yesterday afternoon if it would not be possible to come to some understanding as to the adjournment of the sittings. The House had got into the habit of keeping up business late in the evening and members who took their duties seriously found it a physical strain. He suggested that discussion after 11 p.m. was generally wearisome and unproductive. If the House could agree to adjourn at 11 p.m., he thought this could be conducted better. He did not think that any advantage could be gained by exhausting the patience of members or by threats such as that made by a Minister the other night, that the House would be kept sitting until two in the morning.

Sir George Foster said his experience was against making fixed arrangements for the closing of the sittings of the House.

Parliament, said Sir George, could never observe exactly the same lines as an up-to-date business.

As to the threat, Sir George said that was a mistake. "No Minister ever made a threat," said Sir George. "He may make some strenuous observations when business, which he is evidently anxious to get through, is held up, but he does not make threats."

It was most exasperating, he went for a Minister to have his work held up. The Government, however, was anxious to get through the business on hand and he would try to exercise reason respecting late sittings.

ROBBED BY THUGS.

Winnipeg, May 4.—A. J. Goulet, of St. Boniface, was the victim of highway robbers on Sunday night on Notre Dame Avenue. He carried a watch valued at $1,000 and tried to tell a stranger the time when requested.

This was the signal for the attack by the thugs and he was rendered unconscious by blows. With ease then he was robbed of more than $50 and the watch.

SUPREME COUNCIL MAY BE CONTINUED

Paris, May 4.—A London dispatch to The Times says that in Supreme Council circles there is an inclination to insure continuation of work of the Supreme Council by making it an international governmental organization.

It is even probable, the dispatch declares, that the admission of German delegates to the Council will be considered, Russian delegates also being admitted sooner or later.

GREAT CAMPAIGN TO INFUSE LIFE

Rotary Leaders Will Travel to British Isles Regarding Convention

Atlantic City, New Jersey May 4.—South America will be brought into more intimate relations with the United States, and with Canada, through the convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs which is to be held here on the Steel Pier during the week of June 21. The Rotary Club of Montevideo, Uruguay, possibly the most southern club in the world to be represented, has sent a delegate, Herbert P. Coates, secretary and charter member, who leaves this month in order to arrive here in time. Secretary Coates will tour Chile and Peru en route in hope of commencing Rotary work in those countries. He will also visit Rotary Clubs in Panama and Cuba. The hotel reservation applications received thus far exceed the 6,000 mark, with only about 50 per cent. of the Rotary Clubs in this country and abroad heard from at this time. It is expected that the attendance will be far in excess of that figure, in a record breaking convention. International Secretary Chesley R. Perry, and Past International President Russell Greiner and E. Leslie Pidgeon, the latter of Winnipeg, will sail from New York on May 1 for the British Isles for a whirlwind and characteristically American tour prior to the big international gathering here. Their purpose is three fold. They will visit London, Edinburgh, Scotland, where International Rotary has been invited in 1921. Edinburgh is a rival to Los Angeles and Boston in that contest. The Rotary chiefs will infuse Rotary spirit into overseas clubs which may need it, and will arouse interest in the Atlantic City Convention. It is expected they will accompany the big delegation from the British Isles on the voyage to New York and this city. Past President Pidgeon is preparing the convention. It will include the formation of an International League of Rotary Nations, will deal with the problem of employer and employee, and the development of work among boys, which is emphasized by Rotary.

VENEZUELA AND STATES FRIENDLY

Marked Cordiality Features Message of Venezuelan President to Congress

Caracas, Venezuela, May 4.—Marked cordiality toward the United States featured the message of Dr. Marquez Bustillos, Provisional President, to the Venezuelan Congress today. He announced that Venezuela had been admitted to the League of Nations formed on the generous initiative of President Wilson and referred to this step as "a supremely important act."

"It is very significant," he said, "that the Minister of Public Instruction has instituted the teaching of English in the primary schools of Venezuela."

Conclusion of a reciprocal agreement between Venezuela and the United States respecting commercial travelers was announced.

Venezuelan finances are in a highly satisfactory condition, Senator Bustillos said, last year's revenues being 29,000,000 Bolivars above those of 1918.

MANY THOUSANDS WILL COME FROM STATES

To Witness the Pageant to Be Held Under the Auspices of the Hudson's Bay Co.

Vancouver, B.C., May 4.—Nineteen thousand Americans from Oregon and Washington, according to reports, will cross the international border to witness the street pageant symbolizing "The Romance of the West" which will commemorate the 250th anniversary of the Hudson's Bay Company in Vancouver, May 19.

The interest of the people of Oregon and Washington in the Hudson's Bay Company is not confined to its anniversary. Those states were once part of the vast territory ruled by the company. Fort Vancouver at the junction of the Columbia and the lanette rivers was for years the company's capital west of the Rocky mountains and Chief Factor John McLoughlin, in charge of that post, was known as the "King of Oregon."

Sir Robert Kindersley, governor of the company, will lead the parade, which will be three miles long and contain eighty floats picturing Hudson's Bay company history and pioneer achievements of British Columbia.

Following Governor Kindersley will be six mounted heralds carrying flags of the company and Canadian bandmen in the costume of 1670. Prince Rupert, the company's first governor, will appear escorted by a troop of cavalry such as that of the famous "Fur-bearing champion" of the House of Stuart in battles against Oliver Cromwell.

Then will come a replica of the Nonsuch Ketch, which sailed into Hudson Bay in 1668, followed by traders of 1674 with packs and flintlock muskets. Indians on trail and portage will be pictured. A float will set forth the fur-bearing animals of Canada with the trappers of 1855. Another will support a globe showing the territory which Hudson's Bay company once held sovereign sway.

Red river carts and prairie schooners will carry pioneer adventurers and a float will typify life in the Red River settlements of Lord Selkirk. Then will follow in order a float showing Fort Charles, first of the company's posts on James Bay; another emphasizing figuratively that the Hudson's Bay company was the first exploiter of Canada's natural resources; employees of the company, winners of the company's medals; members of the company's school children; a company of soldiers in the uniform of 1753; and floats typifying Britannia and "Father Time 1670-1920."

Of the many organizations that will take part in the following will have floats in the parade: Kiwanis, Daughters of Scotia, Victorian Order of Nurses, the cities of Vancouver, New Westminster and North Vancouver; Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, Vancouver Park Board, Sea Scouts, Army and Navy Veterans, Native Daughters of British Columbia, and the Y.M.C.A.

Three hundred Boy Scouts will be in line, one hundred Girl Guides, a company of naval cadets and hundreds of soldiers who fought for Canada in France. Unique among the marchers will be veterans of twenty-seven wars of the British Empire and survivors of the Fenian raids.

The United Commercial Travelers Association will turn out in force and some of its members in costume will represent types of the ancient and honorable orders of drummers in successive periods from 1870 until to-day.

The parade will end in Stanley Park where the mayor of Vancouver and Sir Robert Kindersley will deliver addresses.

SHIPMENT OF RUM COMING TO COAST

Port Arthur, Ont., May 4.—Upward of 7,000 gallons of No. 1 Jamaica rum were unloaded yesterday from the steamer Hamonic. The rum, shipped in huge oak casks, and said to be the finest of its kind, was shipped in bond from Kingston, Jamaica, to Winnipeg and Vancouver. A constant watch will be kept on the consignment and the cars will be double sealed and checked by the police department all along the line to its final destination.

URGES PENSIONS BE MADE HIGHER

Vancouver Patriotic Fund Official Tells Ottawa Committee of Coast Conditions

Ottawa, May 4.—(Canadian Press).—C. H. Bonnor, executive secretary of the Vancouver branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, was heard yesterday by the Special Committee on Pensions and Re-Establishment. He gave special evidence with regard to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and dealt with the distribution of the federal emergency fund and said there had been cases of misapprehension. Some of these had been prosecuted and the moral effect had been so good that eighteen men made restitution before their attempted fraud was discovered.

Lateness of the relief work being established in the West was a drawback. It was practically impossible for all funds to be issued and there was a great deal of hardship among returned men in December.

Mr. Bonnor dealt with the work of the Canadian Patriotic Fund during the war and with steps taken to deal with the problems of re-establishment. More than 20,000 men enlisted from other provinces had secured their discharges in British Columbia.

From the employers' point of view many of these men were unsatisfactory citizens.

NOT SO IN THE WEST

Mr. Bonnor denied this was the case in the West. He said that a woman without children during the war had received $55 a month. The cost of living had increased 30 per cent. since 1918.

Mr. Bonnor suggested a bonus system which would bring the pension to a widow with three children to $199 his scale for a childless widow would be $50, with a bonus of $10 a month. The rate for orphans should also be increased. Mr. Bonnor stated that the Patriotic Fund had to buy clothing for orphan children. He urged an increase of $5 a month for each orphan. Two orphan children would now receive $50 a month, but it cost $60 to keep them.

Mr. Bonnor instanced the case of a Vancouver widow with two children who had subsequently married another Canadian-Expeditionary Force man who proved to have a wife and four children in Scotland. The children were pensioned, but the wife was not allowed a pension.

Another man married after discharge, suddenly went blind and died of galloping consumption. The widow was refused a pension. This case was being reconsidered.

YEARLY RELIGIOUS EVENT IN EMPIRE

Ottawa, May 4.—(Canadian Press).—The Earl of Meath, founder of the Empire Day celebration movement in Great Britain, has written to the Prime Minister suggesting a yearly religious service, has received the reply that religious observances of a national or imperial character should not be encouraged. With the greatest caution, and if adopted, the most suitable anniversary would be the anniversary of the signing of the armistice, November 11.

The Hacking Cough Strains the Lungs

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E. I., writes: "Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I was all gone, I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine cones in the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

H. J. DAVIS NEW HEAD OF NAVY LEAGUE

British Columbia Division Held Convention Yesterday

Vancouver, May 4.—That a navy is just as essential now as it was before and during the war is the opinion of the Navy League of Canada, according to a resolution adopted at the Provincial convention of the British Columbia division of the League, which was held here yesterday.

A copy of the resolution, which calls upon the Government to do all in its power to provide a navy for Canada, will be sent to the Prime Minister at Ottawa.

H. J. Davis, of Victoria, was elected president of the British Columbia division; E. W. Desane, of Vancouver, vice-president; H. F. Helmsing, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. A. McC. Creery, of Vancouver, and Mr. Maskell, of New Westminster, were elected members of the Provincial executive. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper was elected honorary president of the League for British Columbia, and A. C. Flumerfelt, honorary vice-president. Mrs. C. D. Neroutos was elected honorary educational secretary.

A resolution which was adopted calling upon the Federal Government to use its influence in placing boys of the Naval Brigade as apprentices on the larger ships, in order that the merchant marine shall be manned by British-born subjects and not allowed to pass into the hands of aliens.

The British Columbia Division of the Navy League of Canada opened its Annual Convention at the City of Vancouver yesterday. In the absence of the President, A. C. Flumerfelt, the chairman of the Convention, Delegates were present from Victoria, Nanaimo, Cowichan, Trail, Revelstoke, New Westminster, Vernon, Vancouver, Golden, and various other parts of the Province. Reports were presented by the various delegates showing the work that had been accomplished throughout the Province during the year.

ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING QUESTIONS

that came up for discussion was the Boys' Naval Brigade work in the Province which subject was introduced by H. T. Ravenhill, Chairman of the Victoria Branch, and it was decided to ask the Dominion Government to use its best efforts to have these boys placed as apprentices on board the larger vessels in order that Canada's merchant marine shall be manned by British born subjects and not pass into the hands of aliens. It was also keenly felt that the spirit of the sea should be inculcated in the minds and hearts of the rising generation, having in mind the heroic part played by the British Navy in the Great War.

A copy of the resolution, which calls upon the Government to do all in its power to provide a navy for Canada, will be sent to the Prime Minister at Ottawa.

The matter of the Dominion Government's Naval policy was also discussed at this Convention, showing the keen interest that is taken in this matter by the Navy League, and it was decided to urge upon the Dominion Government the necessity of prompt action in the development of the Canadian Navy in order that Canada may do her part in the support of the sea power of Great Britain, which has given her security in the past and upon which she must always rely for the peace, prosperity and good of the Canadian people.

THE OFFICERS.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Honorary President, Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper; Honorary Vice-President, H. J. Davis, Victoria; Vice-President, E. W. Desane, Vancouver; Secretary-Treasurer, H. F. Helmsing, Victoria; Educational Secretary, Mrs. C. D. Neroutos, Victoria; Auditors, Bayden, Kidd & Co., Victoria; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. McC. Creery of Vancouver and Mrs. Mascell of New Westminster were appointed as members of the Provincial Executive Board.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring President, Arthur Coles, of Victoria, for the services he has rendered to the League since its inception. A vote of thanks was also given Mrs. Neroutos, the Educational Secretary, for her untiring work along educational lines, and the hope was expressed that she might very soon improve in health.

Mr. Flumerfelt thanked a standing vote of thanks was given to A. C. Flumerfelt of Victoria who has been ready at all times to do everything possible to promote the success of the Navy League in British Columbia.

A letter of sympathy and condolence was sent to Mrs. McKenzie of Nanaimo in her recent bereavement, the Navy League realizing that they had lost a very staunch and true friend in the death of the late Mayor of Nanaimo.

The Convention was then brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

The announcement of the election of Mr. Davis will afford much gratification to all interested in Navy League matters. A pioneer in the movement in this Province, Mr. Davis was the first representative to go from British Columbia to attend the inaugural convention held in Montreal in the Spring of 1918, at which meeting the Navy League of Canada came into being. Since then he has been indefatigable in his efforts to further the movement and, with the co-operation of Mrs. Neroutos, has been instrumental for the organizing of the twenty-two branches in this Province.

OUTLINES PLANS FOR GEOLOGICAL SURVEY PARTIES

Charles Camsell, B. C. Director, Has Returned From Ottawa

Six parties, possibly seven, will be operated by the Geological Survey in British Columbia during the year 1920. This statement is made by Charles Camsell, Director of the Survey in British Columbia...

Work To Be Done. However, Mr. Camsell was able to indicate to the Times last evening that the work will proceed of examining the littoral of the west coast between Quatsino and Clayquot Sounds...

The west coast work, Mr. Camsell stated, will be conducted by Dr. Victor Dolmage, who has already done extensive investigation on the west coast, coming to the district at first to examine the quicksilver deposits...

In the Slocan the work already done in that silver camp will be continued, and in the Whittewater area the object will be to add to the area already mapped, in order to give more detailed knowledge of the important iron ore deposits of that section.

Mr. Camsell states that owing to the importance of the Portland Canal silver deposits, and the great attention given to that district throughout the continent, some of the most important work will be done in that section.

TUXIS BOYS AND TRAIL RANGERS BY Firelighter

WHAT SHALL A BOY READ?

Every Tuxis Boy or Trail Ranger has at some time asked himself this question. He has had a quiet afternoon or evening and has been looking around for something to read.

In the Juvenile Court of Ottawa, last month two boys were brought before the judge on the charge of stealing and house-breaking. These boys had been before the Court a number of times before and all attempts to change their ways of life had failed.

An amusing thing happened in Toronto a few weeks ago. Five boys were brought before the magistrate for throwing snowballs at a street car full of people. This, of course, was not a terrible offence, although it was a rather thoughtless way to spend spare time.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND ALICE'S PIES.
By HOWARD R. GARIS.
Copyright, 1920, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

"Uncle Wiggily! Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Where are you going?" quacked Alice Wibblewobble, the duck girl one morning, as she saw the rabbit gentleman giving his airship a drink of gasoline.

"Oh, I'm just going to take a little ride down to the seashore and back," answered Uncle Wiggily. "Nurse Jane is not feeling very well, and a trip to the shore will do her good."

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Will you please bring me back some clam shells from the seashore?" asked Alice.

"I'll bring them!" promised Uncle Wiggily.

"What does Alice want of clam shells?" asked Nurse Jane.

"To bake little pies," answered Mr. Longears.

On and on he flew in his airship with Nurse Jane, and soon they reached the seashore. There, while the muskrat lady, housekeeper, breathed the salty air, which made her feel better, Uncle Wiggily gathered clam shells for Alice, and a little later, he and Nurse Jane started back.

Uncle Wiggily had just put his airship in the garage, when he happened to meet Alice walking along, with a covered basket on one wing.

"What have you there?" the bunny asked the duck girl.

"These are the pies I made in the clam shells you brought me," said Alice.

"My! You didn't lose much time," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "Well, speaking of pies, why don't you take some to Grandpa Goosey? I'm sure your pies would help cure his episodic."

"Oh," quacked Alice with a laugh, "you don't understand, Uncle Wiggily. The pies I have in my basket are—"

And then, all of a sudden, there was a rustling in the bushes, and out popped the bad old Skeezick, as thin as a fence rail, but as bad as the Flipsawah.

"Did you say there were pies in that basket?" asked the Skeezick of Uncle Wiggily, when he happened to see Alice walking along, with a covered basket on one wing.

"Yes," answered the bunny. "They are pies that Alice baked, and she is going to take some to Grandpa Goosey and—"

"She is not going to take them anywhere!" impolitely interrupted the

Skeek. "I am going to take them myself."

Rudely he snatched the basket off Alice's wing. Still more rudely he quacked the white paper napkin. Uncle Wiggily saw some lovely brown pies in the clam shells he had brought from the seashore.

"Oh, you pies!" gurgled the Skeek. He took a large bite from one and then he cried: "Oh wow! Oh double wow! Oh what kind of pies do you make?"

Resentment grows through brooding over a fancied slight. Hearts harden themselves in silence, and, as time goes on, it becomes more difficult to break through the silence. Often there are strained relations, who, at the bottom of their hearts, have sincere respect for each other, and smouldering affection also, which only needed a little coaxing of the sparks to burst into flame.

HOUSE SHORTAGE IN ENGLAND LEADS TO ESTABLISHMENT OF BABIES' HOTEL

London, May 4.—A small hotel for babies is the latest idea in domestic life. The baby gets a change and the mother gets a rest.

The babies' hotel or boarding house is the product of the shortage of houses and nursemaids. Parents have been forced into hotels and furnished apartments, and as many hotels have not the conveniences of the nursery, the babies' hotel where they may be received as a paying guest, with accommodation for the perambulator, is making its appearance.

Two certificated nurses conceived the idea. They have established a nursery in Hampstead, London. The walls are decorated with ducks and chickens, and each little guest has a white cot with pink curtains. A medical man and a dentist are at hand, and the tariff is from 22 1/2 pence to 24 1/2 pence a week. A few weeks old baby pays the higher charge, the little guests may stay a week, a year, or merely for the week and while the parents go house-hunting or holiday-making.

"I have two babies who came when three weeks old," said the principal nurse, "the young couple living in a flat, ready to go home, brought their three-week-old baby here. They are delighted with the place. The parents came regularly to take baby out in his perambulator or play in the garden."

"A young war widow, who has resumed her former post as secretary, has brought her baby to the nursery, and on Saturday afternoons and Sundays they spend their leisure hours together, while another woman left her little one in our charge while she rejoined her husband in the tropics."

Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I. O. D. E., will prepare wreaths for Hudson's Bay Co. pageant.

The Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I. O. D. E., held their regular meeting last evening, Mrs. W. H. Colman, the First Vice Regent, presiding.

Reports were received from the district committees. A very full and interesting report of the Municipal Chapter was given by Mrs. J. O'Connell, who reported that the committee under the leadership of Mrs. French, Mrs. Hardie and Mrs. J. G. O'Connell, had sent a detailed report of the meeting of the Provincial Chapter, showing the great work which had been accomplished by the Order during the year, and dealing especially with the war memorial.

The book donated to the Y. W. C. A. library was "Red Pepper's Patients," by Grace Richmond.

In response to a request for funds towards the upkeep of the soldiers' graves, the Chapter voted the sum of $22. A special meeting will be held on Thursday, May 20, to make Empire wreaths for May 24 pageant. Mrs. Chapter will hold a Garden Party and Tennis Tournament on Wednesday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Wootton.

NORTH SAANICH INSTITUTE

Mrs. A. Watt, M.B.E., gave interesting address on Institute work in England, Canada and Belgium.

A most delightful and profitable afternoon was spent at the meeting of the North Saanich Women's Institute, held in Sidney on Friday, upon the occasion of Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., coming from Victoria to address the meeting.

An invitation having been extended to all the ladies of North Saanich to hear Mrs. Watt there was a good attendance present.

The meeting opened promptly at 2.30, the president, Mrs. Deacon, being in the chair. Reports of committees were heard. The Garden Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Watt, had given out to the school children for the garden competition. The Educational Committee reported that the library was now open and members were asked to join and also to donate books towards the library.

Mrs. Watt gave an interesting address on the work of women's institutes in England, Canada and Belgium. In speaking of the aims and objects of the institute, Mrs. Watt stated that they must be democratic, non-sectarian and non-political, and that the meetings must be made attractive to all.

In the conclusion of the address a hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Watt, after which a dainty tea was served by the creative and artistic ladies present. The garden club members were given a chance to present a beautiful bouquet of flowers by the president.

Rely on Cuticura To Clear Away Skin Troubles

That there is to be a campaign against the bad manners of some shop-assistants is evident from the fact that there have been several demerits recently as the result of the protests of customers.

It is recognized, however, that the fault does not always lie with the shop-assistants.

In at least one West-end house orders have been given not to serve customers who come in to make trouble, say everything, with no intention of buying, and lodge unreasonable complaints against assistants who have patience.

The manager of a West-end furnishing house knew how one of these women was wont to do her shopping, and went forward to serve her himself on the last occasion she appeared.

Having failed to produce anything of which she expressed approval, he suggested that, as they evidently could not please her, she had better go to some other place. She immediately demanded to see the manager to report his insolence. But she was somewhat disconcerted on learning that he was manager and part owner of the business.—Tit-Bits.

CHARGES JURORS ARE KEPT SECRET FROM ACCUSED

W. C. Moresby Attacks Practice of Attorney-General at Opening of Assizes

SAYS-CROWN PICKS OWN TALESMEN

The recently adopted practice of the Sheriff and Attorney-General of keeping secret the names of talesmen picked for the assizes was attacked by W. C. Moresby, at the opening of the Spring assizes to-day before Mr. Justice Macdonald.

Mr. Moresby, on behalf of himself and his law partner, R. C. Lowe, both of whom are defending cases during the present session, charged that Sheriff Richards had refused to permit lawyers for the defence to see copies of the jury list. The Sheriff told them to go to the Attorney-General. From the Attorney-General they were able to get no satisfaction, as he only told them to bring the matter before the court.

An accused person has the right by the code to challenge any juror, of whom he knows who is to be on the jury? Up until now the jury lists have been open to the counsel for the defence.

Crown Chooses Jurors? The Sheriff and two justices of the peace select the names of the jurors from the voters' list. These men are officers of the Crown and thus the Crown really nominates the jury as well as prosecutes the accused.

"Any person appearing at this assize is not going to get a fair trial unless the jury list is open. In England the custom is to publish the list on the court house door where all can see it."

Mr. Justice Macdonald said he would give his decision to-morrow morning. He said he thought that for the convenience of counsel the list should be open and it would be fair to the accused.

Before the jury in the first case was called, the court gave Mr. Lowe minutes to go over the list.

Business Too Important. Some other men who were called objected to having to serve on a jury. Stephen Levings said he had some cement blocks on which he was working and if he had to act as a juror he would have to lay off three carpenters and two helpers. "The duty we owe just now is to your country and not necessarily to your surroundings," replied Mr. Justice Macdonald. Levings then wanted to know if he could go home at night to attend his cow as "I am the only one that can milk her". The court told him he could enter into the humor of the situation, anyway

Only Expert in British Columbia.

William Henry Bennett said he was engaged on special moulding work, and as the only man in the whole of British Columbia who can make these moulds.

Other men in the court began to bop up and want to say why they should not be jurors.

Mr. Justice Macdonald halted them. "This seems to be degenerating into a public meeting," he said. "The state requires you to be in attendance here, while you say your private business, calls you elsewhere. The state will prevail."

Another man pleaded to be excused because his summons read that he was to appear on April 4 instead of May 4.

"I can't excuse you now," said the court. "You shouldn't have come."

Return True Bills.

Ernest Banner, when he was called to be sworn in the Hatch boat case, complained that he had been on the jury which heard the same case last Fall, and which has caused so much trouble through its disagreement. The court said that Banner should be excused.

The Grand Jury before adjourning for lunch, returned true bills against Robert Udell for attempted murder, against Louis Moke for attempted rape, and against Jennie Carson for forgery. In the murder charge against Quon Hing Jong the Grand Jury is calling more evidence this afternoon.

The Grand Jury consists of B. S. Helsterman, forman, William J. Cove, Percy Criddle, G. H. Dawson, F. E. M. King, G. W. Purgie, Harry Fuller, Reginald Hayward, Arthur P. Jeanne, David Leeming, Thomas Plymley and F. R. Sargison.

Hatch Rowboat Again.

The first case to be heard is that against Addison E. Hatch and his young son, Ralph Hatch, who are charged with stealing a rowboat worth more than $10, from B. W. Beaumont, of District No. 1, last June. The boat, repainted and somewhat altered, was some time afterwards found at the Hatch boat house at the Upland. The case was tried at Fall, and after an extended hearing, the jury disagreed. A squad of police to-day had to carry the boat around the sharp stair corners of the court house and bring it into the assize courtroom before the judge. The evidence has been stored in the court house since last Fall. It is now becoming quite dry through having been out of the water for such a long time.

The trial is going on this afternoon. The Hatch jury was chosen as follows: William Randall, forman, W. J. Tanner, B. William Neill, Mark William Cuzner, Frank H. A. Norton, Frank E. Edolf, R. H. James Eaton, Robert Noble, John F. Jeffrey, Archibald, J. W. Burnbridge, William Andrew Aitken and Gerald B. Cross.

TO SHOW NEW DANCES

Professor Helman and his wife, noted dancers of New York who are in Victoria, are to demonstrate the latest metropolitan fox-trots at a Damsel and the ladies' auxiliary of the Army and Navy Veterans at the Criterion Wednesday evening. The Misses Ruddle will also give an exhibition.

TO GO INTO CARIBOO

Mr. Oliver Will Make a Tour of Inspection of the Pacific Great Eastern.

Premier Oliver expects to leave the city tonight or to-morrow for a tour of inspection of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. He will spend a little time in the Cariboo country and possibly continue his journey as far as Prince George before returning to the capital.

TAX REPORTS KEEP PEOPLE AWAY FROM PROVINCE, HE SAYS

Prairie Man Says East Spread Tales of Excessive Levies Here

Wealthy retired farmers from the prairies, who are desirous of settling in British Columbia, are being persuaded to keep out of the Province by reports—emanating in the East—that British Columbia taxation is excessive.

This information, conveyed in a letter from a resident of Lacombe, Alberta, caused the Board of Trade some surprise this morning.

The gentleman, who wishes his name withheld, wrote to the secretary of the Board some time ago asking what taxes were imposed in British Columbia. "I can assure you," he wrote, after outlining what he and his friends understood to be the taxation system of British Columbia, "that in this district alone there are dozens of rich farmers selling out and retiring, but though many would like to go to B. C., the general idea is that taxation is too heavy."

The Board secretary, in a return letter, informed the writer of the real conditions prevailing. This the means of making them decide to take up their residence on Vancouver Island, and believe me there are thousands, if not thousands in Alberta alone, being heartily sick of this months winter, would go to B. C. and into the Province, but are deterred by prohibitive taxes. The reports apparently emanate from the East, who are desirous of getting men who have money, and it might be worth your while to officially contradict these statements.

The council decided to forward the letter to the Victoria and Island Development Association.

CAMOUFLAGE WAGE ISSUE.

They also declare that the wage question is being camouflaged. They say bakers' wages were raised $1.00 on May 1, 1920, and then 50c a day last October. Now, the men are asking for $7 a day for bakers and $7.50 for doughmakers.

The bakers also explained that the wage scale was made so it could slide upwards at any time according to the advance in the cost of living as shown by the Labor Gazette, with an additional 40 per cent. above the official increase.

The cake men and bakers are also asking for all holidays off, no matter whether the public has to do without the bread the day after the holiday. There should be no deduction of pay for the days on which they do not work.

There were still no bread deliveries to homes to-day. The three big bakeries delivered all their output to the retailers, who were selling to the homes. Monday day supplies were sold out shortly after they reached the stores. Early to-day there was a scramble for bread in many homes.

DENY MASTERS' ASSERTIONS.

The statement of the master bakers in last night's issue of the Times that the bakers demanded Sunday off, in addition to a "decrease in wages is branded as a "deceit" in a statement issued this afternoon by Harry Jacques, business agent of the striking Bakers' Union.

Mr. Jacques states that in the proposed new agreement bakers demanded Sunday off but if master bakers would accept proposed increase of $5.15 a week they would withdraw the demand for the abolition of Sunday work. The statement, says Mr. Jacques, that the bakers want two days a week and double-time for working the sixth day is a falsehood, evidently issued for the purpose of prejudicing the public against us.

We have met the master bakers in regard to concession in the new agreement in everything they asked for with the exception of wages. "Everything has been settled except the question of wages."

CAKE MEN JOIN BAKERS IN FIGHT FOR OPEN SHOP

Bread Output Increased To-day, But No Home Deliveries Yet

The bakers' strike is not nearer an end this afternoon, although from now on it may prove less inconvenient to the bread-eating public.

The Cake Makers' Association at their meeting decided to stop making bread during the crisis to turn their plants over to making bread. One cake shop which normally turns out only 100 loaves of bread, to-day turned out 1,400 loaves of bread and no cake.

Eighteen of the nineteen cake bakeries of the city to-day came out in support of the three big bread bakeries that are out for the open shop. In this district alone these eighteen shops issued a statement in which they deny statements made by Harry Jacques, the leader of the bakers, particularly that the statement he made yesterday about all the small shops having signed the agreement with the union, except three.

"Now, this is not the truth, as there are some twenty-one small shops in this city, nineteen of which are represented by the Bakers' Association and only one of our members has signed the union agreement. This association has gone on to work for the open shop."

CAN "SLUFF OFF" SOME RELIGIOUS TRAPPINGS

Bishop Brewing, of Toronto, Delivers Eloquent Address Before Kiwanis Club

"If in these days of great advancement there are trappings and trimmings in our beliefs which may be sluffed off without affecting the main principles which underly our religion and the sooner they are sluffed off the better for the great church of God," the Bishop of Toronto, Bishop Brewing, said at the Right Rev. church of the Reform and Episcopal Church, of Toronto, at an eloquent address before the Kiwanis Club at noon to-day.

"After seeing the wonderful spirit which prevails in this club, I am convinced that the church may learn in fellowship from the men outside the church."

In these days of passionate speed the Bishop said he had often wondered whether or not the people knew where they were going, and he thought by the horns were really hanging on to the tail and being dragged along instead of controlling weight, it was controlling them.

"We must get a direction and vision of the business, which is before us," he asserted.

World Brotherhood.

The Bishop told of the "World Brotherhood" which had been established in London. Whether the brotherhood was a useful or not, he stated, became a group of men came together to serve one another unselfishly, and for the good of their community.

"It is the business of the men of to-day to keep the channels of brotherhood open so that men may come to a better understanding of each other," remarked the Bishop amid applause.

During these days of social unrest the Bishop said he was driven back to the pages of the New Testament and one of two of the great teachings to be found on the walls of schools and other places where the young people might see them. He referred to a quotation from St. Paul where he said, "I am debtor both to the Jew and the Greek, and to all men."

The Storing of Treasures.

"Any man who has a treasure which no other man has is a debtor to other men and he should be willing to impart it," declared the Bishop. "In many instances now we find men who try to make the people debtors to them. They try and hedge in these things until the people can pay the price."

The Danger of Cancer.

One of the troubles from which many of our soldiers are suffering as a result of their Army training is abnormal rapid action of the heart. This is accelerated, and so made worse, by the consumption of such a strong heart-stimulant as tea. For this reason such people should abstain from tea-drinking. Nervous and jumpy folk, persons who cannot sleep, or who sleep badly, sufferers from various forms of dyspepsia, are amongst those on whom tea can scarcely fail to act harmfully.

Even in the case of healthy subjects, tea-drinking may act injuriously when it is too strong, too long infused, and then taken on an empty stomach. Such a combination of evil factors acts upon the delicate lining membrane of the stomach as an irritant, causing a sort of rawness or abrasion of its surface, and paving the way for ulceration or even the development of a cancerous growth. On an irritated surface the chemical properties of the tannin found in over-infused tea set up a form literally a hotbed for the development of that special form of malignant disease. The kidneys also are damaged by the same injurious contents of over-drawn tea as these are passed out of the system.

Experience has proved that tea taken at breakfast does not impair the perfect digestion of eggs and bacon or fresh fish. But they do retard the efficient digestion and absorption of butcher's meat and many other articles of diet. Hence the unsuitability of tea as a beverage at a meat lunch or at the dinner-table.

To anyone whose stomach is not of the most robust kind it is always an experiment which may easily end in disastrous failure, and is therefore not worth the risk.

Many inquire against Indian tea as being coarse and harsh in flavor. It is not so if made as good tea should be made and taken not too hot. Some prefer China tea, which is certainly more delicate—tasteless and insipid, in tea chosen, it must be infused wisely and drunk moderately. Only then will it prove a real blessing to the consumer.

Money, like salt, is necessary, but an over-dose is harmful.

FURNITURE WANTED.—An appeal is made for donations of furniture for returned men who has recently arrived from the prairies, his removal to the Coast being necessitated by reasons of health.

The man's family has exhausted the man's means and caused the sale of his few household goods. This appeal is now being made in the hope that any generous persons having articles of furniture of any kind for which they have no further use will give it to this deserving family to help them in their hour of need. WELCOMES BRITISH CAPITAL

The coming in of the Canadian British Exploration Co. for active development in the Stewart district this season will bring the first English capital to that section.

Rupert (Grand Mahood to that section) development will be of inestimable value to the country in encouraging the investment of English capital. So far all the money invested there is American, with the exception of the Belgian-Algonquin Co. Hope: The owners of the Eureka silver mines on Silver Creek, British Columbia, are opening the main highway leading into Hope. A gang of men are employed to work under the supervision of Superintendent Williamson.

Mr. Williamson states that there will be over one hundred men employed in the Eureka mines this summer. This means considerable additional business for Hope.

POISON THAT COMFORTS US!

The widespread indulgence in the tea-drinking habit must be so effective, that for good or evil, on the public health.

As no two individuals are exactly alike in the way their systems react to tea, or to any other solid or liquid which they consume, it is worth while for every reader to ask himself or herself whether or not the "cup that cheers" is really likely in the long run to do good or harm. Tea is not really a food. It is not a necessary of life. Coffee is in the same category, and the essential element, the stimulating drug, is the same in each—namely, thein.

For people who are in good health, tea properly made is quite wholesome, and much better for them as mild stimulants during periods of their working life than are alcoholic beverages.

Properly-made tea is tea made with fresh water, just brought to the boil, and poured over the tea which has been put into a warmed teapot of earthenware (one teaspoonful for each person and one to the pot), allowed to infuse for two or three minutes, and then drunk. Taken in the afternoon, with or without the usual accessories, this can hurt no healthy person.

But if tea is allowed, after being made, to simmer on the hob or to stew on the kitchen-range, it becomes a very deadly concoction indeed. It shortens the life of those who already suffer from ailments of the stomach, or any other part of the digestive tube, from heart disease or from various affections of the nervous system.

FRIENDLY HELP FUNDS NEED REPLENISHING

That the Association's treasury is very low was the statement made at the monthly meeting of the Friendly Help Association, held this morning, and the hope was expressed that donations would be forthcoming from generous friends of the poor in this city. Gifts of cash, jam, fruit, rhubarb and vegetables will be gratefully received by the secretary at the rooms in the Market Building.

Fifteen members were present at the meeting, including Alderman Cameron and Dr. Price. A letter was received from the City Council asking the societies engaged in social service work to co-operate with the Board of Health. The matter was left in the hands of the executive. During the past month forty-seven families, representing 217 persons, received assistance from the Association.

The following donations received in April were acknowledged with grateful thanks: Cash from Mrs. Peters, J. E. Painter & Son, William Wilson, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Cameron, Colman, E. Jacobs and Rev. Mr. P. Macphie, Morenci, Arizona; Mr. Seward, Richard Hall & Sons, Gilbert Christie, A. Friend, Miss Douglas, Mrs. Andrew Wright, James Adam, Mrs. L. G. McTavish, C. F. Clothing from Mrs. Ryder, Mr. Rough, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Letitia Mars, Mrs. Wheeler, Sydney; Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. Ker, Mrs. Carey, Miss Beale, the Babies' Aid, Perambulators from Mrs. Shepard, and other anonymous donors; cereals from Mrs. Houghton; shoes from Mrs. Ker.

Brooklyn in Fifty-Eight Innings in Three Games

Forced to Go Nineteenth Innings With Boston Yesterday and Then Lost; Detroit Finally Wins Game After Losing Thirteen Straight.

Boston, May 4.—Boston and Brooklyn went into the nineteenth inning yesterday before Boeckel's single scored Sullivan with the run which gave Boston a two to one victory. Fillingim and Smith pitched all the way, and honors were practically even until Smith weakened in the nineteenth.

Yesterday's game, following the twenty-six-inning tie between Brooklyn and Boston Saturday, and Brooklyn's thirteen-inning game with Philadelphia on Sunday, gave Brooklyn the new major league record of fifty-eight innings played in three consecutive games. The previous record was forty-five innings, played by Pittsburgh and Brooklyn in 1917.

Fillingim Invincible.

The game yesterday was a duplicate of Saturday's contest up to the final inning, Brooklyn again scoring one run in the fifth and Boston tying in the sixth. Up to that point Brooklyn hit Fillingim freely, while Smith was effective. As the game progressed, Fillingim proved invincible, and Smith gradually lost effectiveness. Both teams fielded brilliantly, except in the fifth, when O'Neill's wide throw to third proved costly to the Braves. With one down, Smith and Olson singled. Nels hit in front of the plate, and Smith was safe at third on O'Neill's throw. Smith scored on Johnston's single.

Passed to Powell and Pick and Mann's single filled the bases for Boston in the sixth.

Powell was forced at the plate on Sullivan's tap to Johnston, but Pick scored on Holke's sacrifice fly.

In the nineteenth, with one out,

Sullivan singled, went to third on Holke's single, and scored when Boeckel hit the first ball pitched to right. Johnston's fielding at third was noteworthy. R. H. E. Brooklyn..... 2 12 1 Boston..... 2 13 2 Batteries—Smith and Miller; Fillingim and O'Neill.

Philadelphia Going Well.

Philadelphia, May 4.—Philadelphia pounded Nels for twenty-one hits yesterday, winning easily from New York the third straight game of the series and the locals' fifth straight victory. R. H. E. New York..... 6 9 1 Philadelphia..... 9 21 1 Batteries—Nels and E. Smith; Meadows and Traggator.

Took Double-Header.

Cincinnati, May 4.—Chicago won both games of the first double-header of the season here yesterday, 2 to 1 and 5 to 0. Cincinnati secured only one run off Vaughn, who also drove in both of the Chicago runs in the first game with clean hits. In

LOCAL LADY GOLFERS PLAYING IN SEATTLE

Team of 15 Went Over Yesterday to Play For Horace Henry Silverware

In an effort to wipe out the defeat which they suffered last Autumn a team of Victoria lady golfers, captained by Mrs. Philbrick, left for Seattle yesterday, and this afternoon are playing over one of the links there against a picked fifteen from the Seattle Golf Club. The local players were quite hopeful that they would be successful in their mission when they left the city.

The match is for a beautiful silver flower basket presented by Horace Henry, the well-known Seattle golf enthusiast. Four games are to be played. Next week the Seattle ladies will come here to meet the Victoria team. In the fall the teams will play another series of home-and-home games.

Fashionable Party. Mrs. Carleton, a prominent lady golfer, is captain of the Seattle team. The qualifying round for Sound Players for the game to-day was held on Sunday and brought forth a throng of smartly gowned women to observe the proceedings. FAST AMATEURS WITH THE COLLIERIES-VETS

Dave Macfarlane Announces Players on Whom He Relies to Win City Honors

After a lot of quiet rustling, Manager Dave Macfarlane is now resting easily in his big arm chair awaiting the sound of the umpire's voice which will set the city amateur baseball league in motion. Dave has been saying very little but has been scouting in the highways and byways of the city for ball players. Yesterday, with a bunch of contracts on his desk, he commented to open his heart and announce the personnel of the new Collieries-G.W.V.A. baseball team.

His Personnel.

Here is what Dave considers about the most formidable bunch of amateurs in town: Pitchers—Alex. Straith, Dick Rossan and Yummy McGregor. Catchers—Bobbie Ross and Fred Liddell. Infielders—Haley Jackson and Jim Cummins, first base; Harry Copas and Poke Gravlin, second base; Smiler Petticrew, shortstop; Harry McIvride, third base. Outfielders—Cyril Baker, Roy Copas and Kenny Petticrew.

A Helpful Fusion.

The fusion of the Collieries and Great War Veterans parties will prove of great benefit. The War Vets are always sure to be extended the support of the fans. Most of the team have seen service in France and are ready and in shape for a very hard season.

Time of practice, 6 — Stroke, Travis; No. 3, Henshall; No. 2, Armstrong; bow, Riddell.

Coach Is Busy Man.
The capacity of the club is being taxed to its limit at the present time owing to the large number of members who are taking up the rowing game. Coach Dan O'Sullivan is working overtime getting the new men broken in and is very optimistic as to the success of rowing this year at the club, judging from the material that he has on hand.

The new men are taking a great interest in the game, and making a determined effort to learn to row properly. It must be steadily borne in mind, however, that an oarsman is not made in a year, and that after a good first year they come back the second year far more proficient.

The Blue Bird was launched on Saturday afternoon and will be put in commission during this week. This speed boat is a great acquisition to the club and will greatly facilitate the coaching of the crews.

PARTY OF BOOSTERS LEAVE FOR TACOMA

Between thirty and forty boosters from Victoria will leave at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon en route for Tacoma, where they will launch their campaign for a special excursion from the City of Destiny to the Capital on Empire Day.

Jack O'Brien, President of the Capital City Baseball Company, with a number of other members of the club and several representatives from the Victoria and Island Development Association make the trip.

While on the Sound the boosters will advertise the Hudson's Bay pageant and do their best to bring in several thousand excursionists.

The party will also take in the opening ball game between Victoria and Tacoma at Tacoma to-morrow afternoon.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

Spare Rule Will Improve Lacrosse.

With the new "Spare Rule" in effect, lacrosse this year is due for a great improvement. The Pacific Coast Amateur Lacrosse Association is to be congratulated on adopting this rule, which will result in a general speeding up of the game and the prevention of any "laying down" by players who may not feel up to the scratch for a game. In the past, once a team took the field it had to play through the four periods without the chance of using a substitute, despite the fact that several of the players might have been better off on the bench. The new rule will enable more players to get into the game and eliminate the managerial difficulty of getting men to fulfill the prosaic task of playing spare. A team now will be able to carry sixteen men and, if found necessary, they can all be used in a game. If a player finds it impossible to strike his stride in a game the manager can replace him at the end of the period, and thereby strengthen the team and lighten the pace. Lacrosse is due for a big year under the new rule.

The Ball Fans Are Getting Fretful.

The horrors of waiting are making the ball fans in the city very fretful and impatient. The birds of Spring have arrived and soon the June brides will be parading down the aisles, but still the signs of baseball are a long way off. Usually the amateurs are showing their wares prior to this and the pros. In this district are coveting about the diamond, but this year everything is late. All the fans can do is to peruse the sporting pages and find that there is plenty of baseball in all other parts of the continent, even in Winnipeg, where the snow has not long since disappeared. It will be the middle of the month before any authorized ball is played in this city. The amateurs are having trouble in getting grounds. They may open the new stadium on May 15. The pro team will be here on May 15 to inaugurate the season. Owing to the fact that the stadium is not ready the team is forced to spend the first two weeks on the road. However, once the ball season does open, the fans will have plenty of games to attend. The pros. are booked for sixty games, and the amateurs will play two games a week.

C.C.M. CLEVELAND BICYCLES

Perhaps You Need A Bicycle—But Don't Know It

If you are a Workingman you need a bicycle. A ride in the fresh air is very beneficial to one who works indoors.

A bicycle will get you to work on time. Will save you long waits and tiresome rides in jammed street cars. It will take you home to a hot noon-day dinner instead of a cold lunch at the factory. A bicycle pays for itself in car-fare saved.

If you are a Carpenter you can carry your kit from job to job and save valuable time. A Collector can collect a very much larger amount of money in a day.

With a bicycle you can make double, often triple, the number of calls in a day. You can reach people off the car line, that you would otherwise put off seeing.

If you are a Clergyman you can make the rounds of your parishioners inexpensively with a bicycle and not tire yourself out.

Hundreds of Teachers and thousands of Pupils ride bicycles to school every day.

Bicycling saves time. Saves car-fare. Saves expensive shoe leather. Saves money.

Do you need a bicycle? Most likely you do.

And when you buy it, you will want a bicycle you can depend on.

C. C. M. Bicycles are famous for easy-running and long service. Many C. C. M.'s are still giving satisfaction after ten to fifteen years' service over all kinds of roads.

There's sincerity built into every part of a C. C. M. Bicycle. That's why C. C. M.'s continue to run smoothly year after year — the enamelling to keep its lustre—the nickelling to stay bright.

Ride a C. C. M.—the bicycle that stays out of the repair shop—that gives the greatest mileage at the least cost.

The new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm—is included as regular equipment without extra charge.

FOR RUSH DELIVERIES

The bicycle solves the rush delivery problems of the grocer, butcher, druggist, confectioner, hardware merchant, dry goods dealer, fruit store, etc.

For light deliveries especially a bicycle will often save the cost of an extra horse, set of harness, delivery wagon, feed and straw, or the extra cost of a light motor truck and expensive tires, gasoline, oil and repairs. One boy with a bicycle can do as many errands as three boys without. Almost every store and office needs a bicycle.

This trade mark is on the frame of every C.C.M. Bicycle.

DOMINION

Those who are fortunate enough to visit the Dominion during this week will find a list of attractions which for superiority and variety, have seldom been equaled. Doris May and Douglas MacLean who met with such enthusiastic success in "Twenty-Three and a Half Hours' Leave" will be seen in their latest starring vehicle, "What's Your Husband Doing?"

ROYAL VICTORIA

It wasn't exactly nice to be expelled from college, but Floss was one of those girls that didn't let such trifles worry her. Her aunt was provoked by her conduct and attempted to marry her off to a certain lawyer. But Floss fooled her by marrying the man she loved—a poor, struggling student. Now they couldn't get along on his meagre salary so Floss conceived the scheme of putting a complexion cream on the market in order to keep the wolf away. And she had her troubles. Make no mistake about it. The cream needed plenty of advertising so one day Floss rented an elephant from the circus and painted it pink—the same color as the cream. How her adventure turned out—how she walked on the high road of success and maintained her husband's love are events which bring an effective climax to as fine a comedy as has reached the screen in many a day. The picture is "The Blooming Angel" by Wallace Irwin. The star is Madge Kennedy, and it will be presented at the Royal Victoria theatre, to-night, Wednesday and Thursday.

VARIETY

An opportunity that the screen public has long been waiting for is offered to-day by the Variety Theatre, where Eugene O'Brien can be seen in his first Seisnick Picture, "The Perfect Lover." In this photoplay, the first one in which Mr. O'Brien has ever been starred, he does more than meet the expectations of the film world—he far surpasses them. Never has been afforded a better opportunity to display his talents than as the poor but bitous painter whose charms no woman can resist. Mrs. Ebyfield, the wife of one of the nouveaux riches, is fascinated by the handsome and charming painter and decides to foster his work. She takes him to the city where he paints her portrait and soon he becomes the vogue among the society women. He is the perfect lover; they cannot resist his charms. And Eugene O'Brien is some lover. You're not going to merely like this picture—you're going to love it. And you're not going to be satisfied with having seen it once. You'll want a repetition of those delightful thrills that are going to creep up and down your spine when Eugene kisses one of the four leading women who play with him—and he can kiss. You know that Eugene O'Brien certainly is "the perfect lover."

COLUMBIA

Norma Talmadge is known to be one of the most versatile of all feminine screen stars, but her remarkable talents in this direction have never been shown to such good advantage as in her latest Select production, "She Loves and Lies," which opens at the Columbia Theatre yesterday.

In this adaptation of Wilkie Collins' story of the same name, Miss Talmadge portrays three separate and distinct characters, each being of a different social caste, age and physical appearance. Not only does she make her portrayals realistic, but she makes them convincing. It will be remembered that Wilkie Collins has his principal character so disguise herself as to completely make her own husband believe that she is another person, something that may be easily done on the printed pages of fiction, but not so easy of accomplishment in real life on stage or screen. How Miss Talmadge gets away with it is but one of the many unusual things in "She Loves and Lies." As in all of this star's previous Select productions, the talent surrounding her is of the highest calibre. Conway Tearle is leading man, and the balance of the cast is composed of well-known stage and screen favorites. The technical work, such as settings, lighting and effects are just a little ahead of the high

JAPANESE SCENIC NOVELTY SCORES

Pantages Vaudeville Bill Abound With Excellent Entertainment Material

Peggy Rogers creates visions of the Land of Nippon. Peggy is a dainty little Miss who is making herself solid with Pantages patrons this week as the outstanding attraction in a gorgeous Japanese scenic novelty.

The Japanese Revue is presented in spectacular setting and may be described as an altogether charming act. In what she calls "Visions of Japan," Peggy Rogers poses effectively. Classical dances are truly interpreted by Kay Hawley, an exponent of the ballet.

Apart from these attractions, Merle Horton, Therese Evans, Maurine Allen and Dorothy Gerton are responsible for some delightful vocal efforts. The ingeniously contrived electrical effects and the gorgeous hand-em-broidered scenery, combine to give realism to this generally artistic reproduction of a bit of old Japan.

The big act of the current bill is "The Luck of a Totem," featuring Harry Girard, a popular favorite with Pantages audiences throughout the West, and Agnes Cain-Brown. "The Luck of a Totem" is a charming love story in Alaska setting. Harry Girard's rich voice is heard to the best possible advantage in "The Totem Pole" with human totems as the male chorus. "Mother Love" and "Gold Along the Rivers" are other song numbers featured in this splendid production. Harry Girard had long run with "The Luck of a Totem," one of his greatest successes, and he is still going strong.

This Alaska story in song will satisfy even the most captious critics. Lonnie Nace is a clever little comedienne who captivates with her imitable singing and creates whole some laughter with her particular line of patter. Lonnie puts lots of punch into her act and is bound to make a decided hit.

Walker and Dyer make an acceptable addition to a first class bill in an offering which they style "Setting the Pace in Songs, Dances and Laughs." The act bristles with good comedy and the dancing is right up to standard.

Alexander and Mack make a good comedy duo and score heavily in their interpretation of "A Breeze of Aristocracy." A whole group of the cutest kittens make the kiddie laugh with their funny capers. They respond eagerly to the promptings of Arthur Nelson, originator of "Kiddie Kitten." The kidnapping of Ruth in "The Adventures of Ruth," the Pantages film serial, provides plenty of scope for excitement and thrills.

SHAKESPEARIAN GARDEN PROPOSED

Interesting Experiment at Stratford-on-Avon With Old-time Flowers

If English, not to mention American, gardeners do not develop a new rage, the fault will not lie with the Shakespeare Trust and their G.H.Q. at Stratford-on-Avon.

A Tudor garden, of an intricate ingenuity only possible to a student, is being chiselled and pencilled into patterns belonging to the times of Shakespeare and in plants known to Shakespeare, or at least Bacon. Stratford will soon be the scene of a garden of Shakespeare's time. There is a bed in the "knot pattern," so complicated that no artist or designer could well copy it in the time of the day, though it is only seven yards long. Each line of the maze is drawn in a different plant; tiny box, or thyme, or thrift, of camomile, or London pride—everything, according to some 15th century authority.

I hear that Americans are already telegraphing for copies of the four complicated beds in this sunk garden though it is not yet nearly finished. But the whole garden is good—Tudor, with emphasis on Shakespeare's favorites—the succession of yew arbors, the rectangular beds divided by evergreens, the rose bed, even the rough bank to which on the latest additions is a young apple, with mistletoe growing at the top like an enormous chignon.

Rare Single Rose
What I liked best, what is perhaps most interesting in garden scenery is a bed crammed full as it will hold of the old, and in some cases, forgotten roses, many of them gifts from the few preservers of the old variety types. Mrs. Berkeley, for example, has sent a variety of the old and very rare single red rose. In the bed are York and Lancaster, Maiden's Blush, the old single yellow Rosa Mundi, the Persian yellow, and of course sweetbriar.

But the garden, in old corners as in the more formal beds, is a medley of all the sweet old names of Perdit's speech (in "Winter's Tale")—but this bed of the most controversial of Bacon's essays on gardens. There is rosemary and gilliflower and thyme and Crown Imperial (these last in full flower), and if anything un-Tudor the Tudors has forced an entrance—as it has here and there—it is to be ousted by the Trust in favor of gifts from lovers of Shakespeare and of garden lore.

The development of the garden, now little more than a trial bed, will be followed by gardeners everywhere, as the best pictorial essay in the garden history of merry England.—W. B. T. in the London Daily Mail.

I'ven Ferguson has been engaged to support Mitchell Lewis in "The Mutilty," the second Mac London story to be filmed by Metro. William V. Mong, Casson Ferguson, Noah Beery, Sidney Dalbrook and John P. Lockney have also been cast for the picture which is being directed by Edward Sloman

TREATMENT FOR KIDNEY TROUBLE

Even Acute Forms of Disease Affecting Kidneys and Bladder Yield to Herbs

No person who feels the first symptom of kidney trouble should neglect the warning. That dull ache in the small of the back—the feeling as though the back was breaking—the intermittent flashes of pain from that centre—these are warnings none should disregard. Once let the normal conditions of the kidney and bladder be departed from, it means that bodily waste which should be carried off is being retained, sooner or later becoming absorbed by the blood and carrying the poison to other parts of the body.

Herbs are a sovereign remedy for kidney troubles. Our forefathers used them with good effect. To-day it is practically impossible for us to gather herbs as did our grandfathers but the same herbal properties they used are to be found in Wonder Health Restorer, a remedy which is now being offered throughout B. C. This preparation contains nothing but herbs, not a trace of alcohol or drug of any kind. Its action on the kidneys is corrective, the functional fluids of the organ being restored to normal condition and the organ itself being toned up. The remedy is magic to diseased kidneys, quickly ridding the organ of the sluggish action which is the initial stage of the trouble.

Wonder Health Restorer is also an unequalled specific in cases of bladder troubles. The herb properties it contains possess solvent qualities which give quick relief in cases of stone and gravel. A teaspoon of Wonder Health Restorer, taken night and morning, works wonders in such cases.

Readers who are afflicted with these troubles should read the strong testimonials as to the efficacy of Wonder Health Restorer, given by those who have suffered from kidney and bladder troubles, many of them for years, who found relief in the remedy. Their statements are wonderfully convincing.

Wonder Health Restorer is on sale in Victoria at Ivel's Pharmacy and at agencies in all the large centres of the province. Mail orders and enquiries for literature giving full information concerning the remedy should be addressed to The W. Y. McCarter-Burr Co., 646 Hillside Ave., Victoria, Phone 6950X.

GODOWSKY THRILLS

Famous Pianist Presents Programme of Modern and Classical Music

Leopold Godowsky, the world-famed pianist, received a stirring welcome last night from a huge audience at the Royal Victoria Theatre when he offered a recital which attained perfection in artistry and musical ideals. The art of Godowsky stands supreme; its very perfection places it rarely attained and renders it peerless. To a genuine musicianship and a technique so suave and finished that it defies criticism he adds an inner vision of his art but rarely attained by the best of his acknowledged masters of the piano. Under the wizardry of his touch the instrument becomes a living, throbbing medium for the interpretation of the ideals of the pianist and the composer.

His programme was of great dignity and superlative beauty. Opening with the wonderful Beethoven Appassionata Sonata, pianissimo and a group of interpretation which imbued it with a surpassing grandeur, the programme included a number of gems from the great composers and a group of his own composition. Two Schubert-Liszt numbers, the beautiful, devotional "Ave Maria" and the gay, trilling "Hark, Hark, the Lark" made instant appeal by their exquisite rendition, while the Brahms variations on a theme by Paganini and two songs without words (Mendelssohn) rounded out a group whose rendering was of a quality marked by strongly varied tone-colouring.

In his own "Triakontameron," a group of Thirty Moods and Scenes, Mr. Godowsky wedded the art of pianist and composer into a consummation of melodic grace and delicate harmony. The selections included a Wateau Paysage, a dainty fragment of airy melody; "The Serenade," a gay, sprightly Terschipsorean Vindobona; a soothing, crooning Lullaby; the "Music-Box," a quaintly reminiscent of this early instrument, and a vivacious, dashing "Quotie Erinny" which as interpreted by the artist conjured up visions of the gallant Don. Velvety touch and wonderful tone-colour characterized the playing of the group, which was among the most popular on the programme.

"The Bat," a highly descriptive symphonic metamorphosis Strauss-Godowsky revealed dynamic power and the very essence of musical understanding. As an interpreter of Chopin, Godowsky is perhaps unrivalled, and his playing of the Ballade in G Minor, Nocturne in G Major and the Two Etudes were a revelation in the art of interpretation. Two Polish songs (Chopin-Liszt), MacDowell's March Wind and the Suite-Saxons Toccatina (Opus 9) completed a programme the magnificence of which can only be described as soul-stirring.

In connection with the Godowsky recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre, Willis Pianos, Ltd., finding that a great master's Knabe Concert Grand

The Hudson's Bay Company

NOW CELEBRATING ITS

250th Anniversary

PATHWAYS OF PROGRESS

BY
 SIR WILLIAM SCHOOLING, K.B.E., Author of
 "The Hudson's Bay Company, 1670-1920."

THE earliest Pathways of Canadian Progress were made by Nature carving the course of rivers out of the softer rocks. Along these passed the traffic of the fur trade.

Through the trackless forests animals made their paths and kept to them. They were most distinct in the case of the larger beasts and bear trails often became the routes for men from one trading post to another. Canoes and snowshoes, the cariole and the sleigh were the forerunners of the trains, steamers and motors of to-day.

These are suggestive of those other Pathways of Progress, which have been made by the Hudson's Bay Company during its life of two hundred and fifty years. Its annual "outfits" of guns, kettles, axes and other goods, which were bartered for furs, were the beginning of the trade and industry of a large part of Canada.

The lonely students—and they were numerous—in scattered forts were the precursors of the Schools and Colleges of the present time.

The first pathways to Canadian greatness were made by the Chartered Company, which—as they widen and lengthen—leads along them still.

THE KILT.

To the Editor:—In Thursday evening's issue of The Times, Highland asks, "What of the Scotsman and his kilt?"

The enclosed by an anonymous writer was printed many years ago in a Paisley newspaper and shows pretty strongly what Donald's feelings were when that catastrophe took place.

I expect it refers back to 1747 when the Highland costume was banned, but it will be of interest as it probably expresses the sentiment of many thousands at the present time. MATTHEW ARBUCKLE. R. M. D. J.

DO WORKPEOPLE PAY TAXES. To the Editor:—Because thousands of workpeople and small traders do not make any personal and direct payment of taxes to any tax-collector...

When the Government taxes dwelling houses belonging to property owners, what does the owner do. He adds the tax to the rent that the tenant pays because only in that way can he get the money to pay the Government.

It is the same with goods imported into a country. The importer adds the customs duty to the cost when selling to the wholesale merchants, and the latter charges it to the retailer who also charges it to his customers.

Therefore, it is evident that all wage-earning workpeople pay taxes even though they pay none directly to any tax-collector. They pay taxes indirectly, included with the cost of food, clothes, house-rent and so forth.

Cuticura Will Help Clear Pimples & Dandruff

The Soap to Cleanse The Ointment to Heal

Don't wait to have pimples and blackheads, redness and roughness, dandruff and itching. Prevent them by making this wonderful skin-clearing complexion soap your every-day toilet soap, assisted by touches of Cuticura Ointment to the first signs of little skin and scalp troubles.

Indirectly, in purchase of food, clothes, housing and so forth, many a mechanic thinks he pays no taxes at all, and that the high cost of Government is no concern of his.

When the Provincial Government at Victoria, B.C. recently proposed to put a poll-tax of $5 on every ordinary citizen, the members of trade unions kicked like steers against it.

Why this difference? It is because the poll-tax is a direct tax by which the artisan pays money directly to the tax-collector, whereas the other taxation is paid indirectly in the purchase of food, clothes, housing and the like.

There have been some strange delusions in the world in former times, such as those of the flat earth, perpetual motion and the like, but few delusions have been more strange than the present blindness to economic and sociological facts by which a man kicks against paying five dollars direct taxation while he readily and quietly pays about $680 of indirect taxation.

OUR BLINDED SOLDIERS. To the Editor:—To the generous public who form your readers I owe much for the support they have given to St. Dunstan's—the Hostel which I established about five years ago, in London for the care and training of the soldiers who lost their sight in the war.

These men who have already returned to something, like their old life, while some five hundred are still in training; these men who have gone back to their homes in this country or in the sister lands of the Empire, formed the most remarkable body of blind men that the world has ever known.

PEARL OF THE BOSPHORUS AND ITS VICISSITUDES Romance of the Capital of the Ottoman Empire, Once Again the Storm Centre of Europe.—What Will Become of It?

Constantinople is again a storm centre of Europe. That history which, by a recent decision of the Allies' Supreme Council, to be left in the hands of the Turks, it has become doubtful if that decision will be maintained. Following the appalling massacre of 20,000 Armenians in Asia Minor, it is rumored that British troops are being sent to the Turkish capital, a city of glaring contrasts — of palaces and hovels, of gleaming minarets and mud of pomp and poverty, of splendor and squalor. Such is Constantinople, for long years the pride and curse of Europe.

Six hundred years before Christ was cradled, Constantinople, then known as Byzantium, was a great seat of commerce, spreading its palaces, its temples and stately structures over the whole peninsula on which its successor stands to-day. Even in those days it was the centre and cradle of almost ceaseless strife between Persians, Gauls and Greeks. Its castles and walls were the "Pearl of the Bosphorus." Siege followed siege; again and again its streets ran red with blood. In the year 330 A.D. Constantine the Great turned his back on Rome to make a splendid metropolis of his Empire in the city which he re-named himself.

Europe's Plague Spot Three times the Turks laid siege to it; and the third time, in 1453, Mohammed II. made it his own after a fierce and stubborn resistance. From that day to our own Constantinople has remained in Turkish hands—the plague spot of Europe.

And what a wonderful city it is—the city of long streets and narrow alleys, the city of minarets and squalor, the city of the East which looks toward Asia at the southern entrance to the Bosphorus.

But in spite of its rich and evil odors, the human tide streams and surges into the city from the East and West. It is a note of Constantinople is Romance. It meets you at the threshold of every one of its 200

RELIABLE STATISTICS OF THE FUR INDUSTRY

First Essential to Conservation of Wild Life; Quantities Taken

The problem of securing accurate statistics regarding various phases of the fur industry was one of the important questions discussed at a convention held recently in Montreal under the auspices of the Advisory Board on Wild Life Protection. If effective steps are to be taken to guard against the depletion of fur-bearing species, it is essential to secure reliable figures as to the numbers of fur-bearing animals that are being taken from year to year.

There was then a total for the first year 1917-18 of 217,050 skins, which represented a value of $1,548,345.25, on which we collected royalty to the extent of $48,676.92. For the year 1918-19, the total number of skins taken was 238,738, representing a total value of $3,828,383.75, on which we collected $1,810,206.25 of royalty.

WORLD'S COPPER DEMAND FOR 1920 TO SHOW INCREASE

Careful estimates prepared by the Copper Export Association of America indicate that world consumption of copper during the coming year (the twelve months ending March 31 next) will probably exceed consumption in any previous year, even including the years of war. Representatives of the association visited European markets and found that the surplus that had accumulated in the continental countries following the signing of the armistice, according to the Government, had been entirely exhausted during the past year, even with consumption below normal. This leaves the surplus stocks in the United States as the only source from which the world's demand can be satisfied. Moreover, the surplus in the United States, is much below the needs of the world for the coming year.

Frank Troeh Wins State Trapshoot Tacoma, May 4.—With all events in the state trapshoot championship concluded last night, the Troeh brothers, of Vancouver, Wash., stand out prominently among the long list of contestants, with Frank Troeh, the 1920 champion by a wide margin. The champion took the 400 bird event with a score of 234; Arnold Troeh was second with 228; F. Van Atta, Vancouver, Wash., third with 227.

GETTING BACK TO NORMAL AFTER WAR

There is no particular mystery about the panicky slump in the speculative markets. Inflation tells the whole story. There has been, to begin with, a great and dangerous war inflation of banking credit, and this has been attended by an equal inflation of prices and of union wages and of all industrial calculations.

Under the wise leadership of the Federal Reserve Board banking credit has been in forced process of contraction for some time. It will be inevitable as this continues that prices and nominal wages, in so far as they kept pace with the inflation of credit, will fall back with the contraction of credit to more solid ground and better real wages. This general downward march is now proceeding. It starts with the speculative markets, as it always does, and begins with a good deal of unnecessary violence, as it always does. But it will proceed.

COUNCIL REJECTS ALL REQUESTS OF CIVIC EMPLOYEES

Turns Down Demand For Arbitration and Refuses Further Increases

LABOR SYMPATHIZERS WAGE HOPELESS FIGHT

The City Council flatly refused last night to allow the ten per cent. salary increase to apply to street sweepers, rejected the request of the Firemen's Union that firemen be granted a 10 per cent. increase.

The fight of the aldermen who are favorable to labor was hopeless from the start, but they stood their ground until the last.

Street Sweepers. The Council started to dispose of the salary question by discussing street sweepers' salaries—a subject introduced by Alderman Fullerton.

"No, it was not so decided," replied Alderman Fullerton. "It was mentioned specifically, and you heard it," declared Alderman Sangster.

"You can't do things in that slipshod way," persisted Alderman Fullerton. "There must be a motion."

Board of Inquiry. Then the Council took up the request of the Civic Employees' Protective Association that a board of arbitration investigate the salary question.

"Whereas a large number of civic employees have received no increase for the first two years while the cost of the necessities of life is still going up; and,

"Whereas the civic workers had reason to expect more generous treatment after requesting so generous an increase."

"Therefore be it resolved that this association respectfully inquire if the City Council would be willing to agree to the appointment of a board of conciliation under the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act."

"I think these men are perfectly entitled to a conciliation board," declared Alderman Todd. "As every employer of labor knows the situation between capital and labor is a very strained one, and there is a right way and a wrong one of dealing with industrial disputes."

"There was no hesitation before about allowing a conciliation board," Alderman Fullerton pointed out. "Are we afraid now that there is something wrong? That we are in the wrong? If we don't allow this arbitration we shall have friction."

"Well, if our salary expenditure increases the pruning knife will be applied, that's all," warned the Mayor. "I think it could be applied to good advantage."

Then came the request from the Firemen's Union that they be granted an increase of fifteen per cent. and an immediate interview with the Council.

the Fire Wardens, moved, seconded by Alderman Sangster, that no further increase than that already allowed be granted.

"We certainly should hear them, even if we grant any more increases," advised Alderman Johns. Alderman Dewar's amendment, however, was supported only by Alderman Dewar, Todd, Fullerton and Johns.

"Anyone can come before the Streets Committee," Alderman Patrick pointed out.

TO REVISE ALL TRAFFIC BY-LAWS

Council Stirred by Alderman Johns's Charges Against Police Commission

Victoria's traffic regulations will be completely revised and consolidated in accordance with the recommendations of Chief of Police Langley as printed in The Times last week.

The City Council decided on this action last night, but not until Alderman Albion Johns, who last year was the leading spirit in the celebrated Chinese gambling agitation, had enlivened the proceedings with charges that the Police Commission sometimes "tipped the police" not to enforce certain objectionable ordinances.

"The trouble arose when Alderman Todd suggested that the solicitor prepare an amendment to the Traffic By-Law to allow automobiles to stand after dark without their tail lights burning on streets illuminated by cluster lights."

"Why not tell the police to allow that?" asked Alderman Johns. "That's a bad principle," objected the Mayor. "The police should not be told to overlook anything."

"I take strong exception to those remarks!" exclaimed Alderman Todd. "We never did that in my day, and I'm sure the Commission members are not doing so now."

"In addition to Chief Langley's suggestions, at the request of Alderman Andros, the committee will embody in the new by-law a clause making it unlawful to park motor cars in front of fire trucks and an apparatus to be brought near to theatres without loss of time in case of fire."

CONSIDER CONTRACT WITH B. C. ELECTRIC

Jitney Referendum, If Any, to Be Submitted With Golf Bylaw

After spending most of last evening going over the proposed contract with the B. C. Electric Railway Company—the agreement which provides for a six cent fare and a reduced lighting rate—the City Council decided to delay its final action until Friday.

Unless there is a marked agitation or demonstration in favor of such a course, the Council will not submit a jitney referendum, it has been decided. If a referendum is submitted the electors will vote upon it on the same day as the golf by-law. As the Council will decide Friday when it will submit the golf by-law, unless the public shows its desire for a jitney by-law before that time, none will be submitted.

While decision on the golf by-law was deferred last night, Alderman Patrick, the father of the golf links project, intimated that May 22 would be a suitable date.

Most of the clauses of the proposed agreement with the B. C. Electric Company were passed without change by the Council. Some minor changes, however, were effected.
