Hunt For 'Mystery Man' In Strange 'Kiss Me' Case

YOUNG WIFE TELLS TALE OF FIGHT TO SAVE HERSELF

Middle Aged Visitor Eludes Police: Victim Goes To Friends' Home

Mother love and intuitive fear of woman for her honor have woven a romantic web in the life of Evelyn Helliker Avery, 20-year-old wife of Robert Avery, 200 East Dryden street, Glendale, who yesterday was the reported victim of an attack by a middle aged man.

It was asserted he stabbed Mrs. Avery with a pen knife in a fight following his efforts to kiss the comely young matron.

Slight Abrasions
Mrs. Avery this afternoon was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paggi, 842 South Fischer street, where she is practically recovered from seven slight abrasions on her face and breast—not deep cuts of a knife, it is said by those who have seen her, but mean little slashes inflicted by a safety razor blade, perhaps.

Denial is made that she was taken to her parents' home in Santa Monica for the night, but she stayed in Glendale with her husband.

Police Are Searching
Her husband, a driver for the Calla Lily Creamery company, is out on his milk route today, wondering how this nightmare of near tragedy stalked in his little home while he was away yesterday.

And the police are searching for a man—"cherze la homme"—to paraphrase a French detective formula, for they believe there was an intruder in the Avery home yesterday who was thwarted in his attempted attack by the brave girl mother of a six-month-old baby. Her husband had instructed her how to deal with men of this type and there seems to be no question but what she was successful.

Neighbors Talk
The visits of a stranger to the Avery home are substantiated by neighbors—an elderly man of apparent wealth, whose description tallies with a resident of the Verdugo foothills who has been seen at various real estate subdivisions, always talking of investment but never buying.

HURRICANE HALTS RESCUE ATTEMPT
Heavy Gales Drive Steamers From Side of Wrecked Norwegian Vessel

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 28.—After an anxious night, due to the high seas prevailing, the rescue fleet returned to the scene of the wreck of the Norwegian steamship Tatjana, ashore on Village Island on the west coast of Vancouver Island, hopeful of taking off Captain Morvig and twenty other officers and men still aboard. Seven men were rescued last night before darkness. High seas forced the rescue fleet to stand off for the night.

State of Nebraska Starts Court Fight To Sell Gasoline

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 28.—A suit against the Standard Oil company and the independent companies, charging conspiracy in restraint of trade and collusion in price fixing, was filed in the district court of Douglas county by Attorney General Spillman, acting in behalf of the state of Nebraska, it was announced here this afternoon.

ADOPT REPORT ON AVENUE PAVING

Association Members Reach Agreement In Regard To Work on Street

The committee report on the paving of Glendale avenue was adopted by a majority vote at today's luncheon meeting of the East Glendale Advancement association, at the Harriet Mae Tea room, 201 East Harvard street.

To Hold Up Pay
Following a statement by Peter L. Ferry, a member of the association and general contractor for the work, to the effect that he would not pay the National Pavement Company of California to the job until they filed a maintenance bond, the report was adopted. It follows:

"February 27, 1924.
"Glendale Advancement Association.
"Gentlemen:—The committee on paving of Glendale avenue, acting upon instructions from above association in regard to complaints received relative to improvement work and material furnished for said street, pavement, beg leave to report as follows:

"After making a careful inspection of the pavement now laid on said street from Windsor road south to Cerritos avenue as relative to the base, the top dressing, and every item complained of, we find that only in a few places

Accepts Resignations Of Prison Directors

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Governor Richardson today announced the acceptance of the resignations of A. E. Boynton and B. B. Meek as members of the State Board of Prison directors, to take effect April 1.

"I have accepted the resignations of Meek and Boynton and thanked them for their services to the state," said the governor. "I have not decided upon their successors. It is difficult to find the right man to fill these positions as they require much time and pay no salaries. The public owe a debt of gratitude to men who are willing to spend their time and energy in this important state service."

Chinese Pass Death Sentence on Russians

SHANGHAI, Feb. 28.—Intense interest was created here today by advices from Harbin that the Chinese high court there has confirmed the death sentence of Korniloff, the Russian outlaw, charged with murder and robbery. He is the first foreigner condemned to death by the Chinese in seventy years. In this case the recent Chinese law abolishing the death penalty for subjects of countries not having the extreme penalty was overridden.

AUTO TAXES CUT, SAVING 23 MILLION TO PEOPLE

Motorists Win Victory by Action of House In Making Reduction

Directors of the Glendale Motorcar Dealers' Association is in session this afternoon at the Egyptian Village were informed by The Glendale Evening News of the action by the House of Representatives in reducing the luxury taxes on automobiles and they immediately passed a resolution which will be wired the senators from California asking their favorable vote.

By A. O. HAYWARD
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Plunging ahead with its tax reducing program, the House today voted $23,000,000 into the pockets of American motorists by abolishing the 3 per cent tax on small motor trucks and cutting by 50 per cent the present 5 per cent tax on automobile tires, repair parts and accessories.

There was no record vote, but it was virtually unanimous as there were only a few scattered noes.

Mellon Plan Doomed
Secretary Mellon got some bad news from Congress today.

It was carried from the capitol to the treasury department by James E. Watson, Republican of Indiana, and Representative Ogden T. Mills, Republican of New York.

Mills told Mellon that efforts of the regular Republicans in the House to win over enough of the insurgents to save the Mellon tax plan were apparently doomed to failure, and Watson agreed that the situation in the Senate would be about as bad.

OFFER PROGRAM OF PATRIOTISM

Boy Scouts Take Part In Rotary Meeting; Appeal For Ball Club

Glendale Rotarians this afternoon at their regular weekly luncheon meeting in the Egyptian Village enjoyed a demonstration of scouting staged by Harvey R. Cheesman, executive of the Verdugo Hills district, and a dozen Boy Scouts.

Eagle Scout Homer Reed, who holds the highest rank in the organization, named the various badges he has earned. He then showed Rotarians how to make fire by friction. Other Scouts gave demonstrations of caring for the injured, rescuing the drowning and carrying crippled comrades. They won much applause for their work.

Present Flag
At the close of the program the Boy Scouts presented the American flag, led in the recital of the oath of allegiance and joined in the ensemble singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

DAUGHERTY TO QUIT

Buy Picture 30 Years Ago For $100, Now Sells For $100,000 to Collector

The painting, according to experts, is one of the few genuine ones by the famous Titian in existence. It is nearly life size and was sold to Andrews for $100,000.

Issues Warning To Public

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—"While the disease is a serious one, there is no reason for alarm," Governor Richardson said in a statement today warning the public against hysteria as a result of the foot and mouth disease outbreak.

Suicide With Shoe Polish

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Miss Vallie Martin, 25, said to be an actress out of an engagement, committed suicide early today by drinking liquid shoe polish in her apartment.

Attorney General Presents Three Conditions Upon Which to Retire

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty intends to resign from the cabinet after the Senate investigation of his administration of the department of justice and irrespective of the outcome of that investigation, he indicated to friends here before leaving for Chicago.

Senator James E. Watson of Indiana said today he had discussed with the attorney-general the question of his resignation following the White House conference with the president on Tuesday night. The attorney-general, he said, outlined three conditions upon which he would retire from the cabinet:

Three Conditions
"One—If he is requested to do so directly by President Coolidge.
"Two—If the Senate's investigation reveals something that he himself is not now cognizant of—something that will reflect upon him or his conduct.
"Three—If the Senate's investigation proves him guiltless of any wrongdoing and clears up the charges and permits him to retire honorably—through the front door and not the back door."

Goes to Chicago for Veterans' Bureau Probe

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, leaving the battlefield at Washington where his foes seek his resignation, to come to Chicago for the federal grand jury investigation into the Veterans' Bureau, arrived here at 9:05 a. m. today.

He was accompanied by Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, personal physician to the late President Harding.

Daugherty, who will attend the federal grand jury probe here into Charles R. Forbes' administration of the Veterans' Bureau, faced a corps of newspaper reporters and (Continued on Page 8)

RICH LUMBERMAN HELD FOR POLICE

Fraudulent Marriage Alleged In Complaint Filed by San Mateo Woman

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 28.—Acting on behalf of police officials in San Mateo, Cal., who hold warrants for his apprehension on criminal charges, Vancouver police last night arrested in the fashionable hotel Vancouver here Thomas J. S. Skinner, 62, alias T. J. Searle, reputed wealthy Calgary, Alta., lumberman.

The warrants were issued on information of Mrs. Thomas Searle, club woman of San Mateo, whose maiden name is given as Wilhelmina Hartman. Mrs. Searle alleges that she was tricked into a fraudulent marriage ceremony by Skinner at Spokane, Wash., in 1919.

Investigation by her attorneys has revealed that no license was issued for the marriage at Spokane and that a pseudo clergyman performed the ceremony. Mrs. Searle alleges.

Lenroot Offers To Retire From Quiz Committee

Chairman of Senate Probe Of Oil Scandal Would 'Be Glad to Quit'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Senator Lenroot, Republican, of Wisconsin, offered to retire as chairman of the Senate oil investigating committee this afternoon in the course of a Senate speech in which he gave the "inside story" of the secret conference which he said Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, had with ex-Secretary of the Interior Fall, prior to Fall's appearance on the witness stand.

"I will be glad to be relieved of the duties as chairman," said Lenroot, "and if this investigation goes on indefinitely I shall have to."

Lenroot was prompted to explain the conference by Senator Heflin, Democrat, of Alabama, who termed newspaper accounts of the "secret conference" as shocking.

Calls It 'Strange'
"This was a strange procedure," said Heflin. "Lenroot says Smoot invited him to meet to the invitation. These two senators are at cross-purposes. Lenroot says Fall told him he got his $100,000 from McLean; Smoot says Fall didn't mention McLean during the conference. I'd like to know what actually happened at that secret conference. The whole thing is shocking."

Lenroot immediately replied, saying Smoot had wired Fall in December to come before the committee to explain his purchase of a ranch for $91,000.

SHOP OWNER SHOT IN STRIKE CLASH

Attempts to Drive Garment Workers From Places Ends In Fight

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Violence marked the opening of the second day of the ladies' garment workers' strike here when a shop owner in Milwaukee avenue was shot as strikers forced their way into his shop to drive out workers who had reported for duty.

William Goldstein, member of the clothing manufacturing firm of Samuel Goldstein and Company, was the first casualty in today's strike demonstrations. He was wounded in the right leg when he attempted to expel three men who entered the shop to drive sixty workers from their places.

One of the trio opened fire, wounding Goldstein. The three escaped.

Police made preparations to handle the situation firmly after demonstrations yesterday in which several were wounded. Reserves were held ready to be rushed to any point where violence broke out.

Japs Shroud Prince's Death With Secrecy

EX-OFFICIAL'S VERSION OF TELEGRAMS IS BEING AWAITED

Senate Committee to Hear Any Explanation by Former Wilson Aid

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Senator McKellar, Democrat of Tennessee, this afternoon introduced a resolution in the senate calling upon President Coolidge to send to congress the income tax returns of Harry F. Sinclair, E. L. Doherty and Albert B. Fall.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson administration, was instructed this afternoon to appear before the Senate oil investigating committee tomorrow morning for questioning as a result of the disclosures contained in the McLean telegrams. Palmer was McLean's attorney.

Palmer is the second cabinet officer in the Democratic administration to be summoned in the oil inquiry—the other being William Gibbs McAdoo, who testified several weeks ago.

Sinclair Uses 'Club' on Rivals; Committee Hears

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Harry F. Sinclair, who leased Teapot Dome from ex-Secretary of the Interior Fall, used a "club" on rival interests to quiet their claims to his concession, it developed today before the Senate oil investigating committee, through the testimony of Karl Schuyler, Denver oil lawyer, who negotiated some of the settlements by which Sinclair adjusted these claims.

Sinclair threatened to have Secretary of the Interior Fall "cancel" by executive action the smaller claims that conflicted with Sinclair's. Schuyler said, and this was a potent argument in persuading the small claimants to settle and get out.

Serves as Attorney
Schuyler identified himself by saying he had served as attorney for the Mid-West and Pioneer Oil companies. Prior to 1920, he said, Mid-West was a lessee of Pioneer company, claiming 75 per cent of the stock.

His statement dealt largely with the history of the Stack-Bonifis claim. Harry F. Sinclair, he said, had "wrongfully acquired" the Pioneer and Belgo claims to Teapot dome. Under a previous contract, Stack had a five per cent interest in these claims. And, furthermore, Schuyler said, Sinclair was in no position to attack the Belgo and Pioneer titles without jeopardizing his own interests.

Relates Conversation
Schuyler then related in detail the conversation he had with Sinclair and Colonel J. W. Zevely, (Continued on Page 8)

SECRET SESSION IN REVOLT TRIAL

Ludendorff - Hitler Treason Evidence Heard Behind Closed Doors

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—The first secret session in the Ludendorff-Hitler treason trial, arising from the short-lived "beer cellar" revolt of last November, was held today while Lieutenant-Colonel Herman Kriebel was testifying.

Kriebel had been testifying for an hour when he requested the court to go into star chamber session. Thereupon the press and public were excluded.

Kriebel is rabidly anti-French, served in the German army in the great war. He described his experience at Spa after the German revolution of 1918, when he drove through a crowd of Belgians who howled insults at him and hissed him.

DEALERS PLAN TO SELL USED CARS
 Purchasing Power of Dollars In Auto Buying Is Told by Clark

Comprehensive plans for the disposal of the important stocks of used cars in the hands of local dealers were formulated at this week's meeting of the Glendale Automobile Dealers' association, and every effort possible will be made to place these cars in the hands of local buyers, according to the scheme that has been outlined.

"The idea of buying a used car is one to which the average motorist must be educated," says Lyman P. Clark, chairman of the used car committee of the organization. "Many of them shy off from the purchase of a used car, in the belief that it is not a safe buy. But this idea is a mistaken one."

"In dealing with a reputable automobile agency the buyer can learn with the utmost exactness the condition of any car he is offered, and such cars, after they have been serviced and overhauled, will, in every case, give good service to the men who drive them."

Purchasing Power
 "Another big inducement to the buyer of a used car is the fact that the dollar today represents a purchasing power of $1.13, as compared with the dollar spent on an automobile in 1913, and this extra spread of his money is something that appeals irresistibly to the man who must make his money do its utmost duty."

"All of the cars offered by the Glendale dealers are good for many thousands of miles of hard work, and the reputation of a dealer is at stake in the sale of a used car just as much as it is in a new automobile."

Dinner Guests Must Make Reservations

There has been such a demand for tickets for the "All States' Dinner" tomorrow night at the Glendale Presbyterian church that announcement was made this morning that only those having reservations will be served.

There will be accommodations for just a few over 500 and dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

Fresh Fruit Clearing House Will Result

FRESNO, Feb. 28.—Sanction has been given the federal government for establishment of a clearing house of fresh fruit consignment shippers in California. President Ralph P. Merritt, of the San-Maid Raisin Growers, reported to a joint session of the advisory board and board of directors here.

This was the principal outcome of negotiations which the raisin chief launched during his recent visit to President Coolidge.

"Eighty-five per cent of California's fresh fruit is handled on consignment, and the idea of the clearing house is to join these interests together into one organization to make for equitable distribution," Merritt said today.

"By this means no one market will be glutted at any time, neither will there be markets where a shortage exists. Fruit will be distributed and sold where there is demand and no more or less than that demand."

Tells of Travels
 The overpowering mystery and appalling silence that have been found by travelers through "Death Valley," ever since the first pioneers journeyed across its treacherous wastes, were pictured yesterday for Tuesday Afternoon Club women by C. R. B. Moore, vice-president of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, speaker at the meeting of the Travel department.

Mr. Moore was introduced by Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, curator, and travel talk proved one of the most interesting ones the department has listened to this year.

He was a member of a party that traveled to the valley by way of Mt. Whitney. He told of visiting Spencer cave; Arizona springs filled with fish and frogs; of seeing a peculiar snake with horns about the eyes; of visiting Bennett springs, named after a "forty-niner" by the name of Bennett, who he built still standing, with an old Piute Indian living nearby; of the salt fields now hardened almost like flint, with frequent formations resembling icicles; of the Devil's Gulch, a group of the abandoned town of Rhyolite, and other interesting places.

Mr. Moore has consented to address the club women again and illustrate his talk with valuable stereopticon slides.

Birthday Dance
 One of the enjoyable affairs in the realm of the younger social set was the "Bunco" party, given last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Dana, 1318 North Louise street, in the celebration of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Ruth Dana.

The various guests of the Dana residence had been attractively decorated for the occasion with a profusion of pink and white sweet-peas and greenery.

The evening was devoted to playing "Bunco" and dancing. Punch was served during the evening and such, after the refreshments were served.

Those present included the Misses Lucille Allen, Katherine Stoff, Winifred Parker, Emma Laura Cooper, Evelyn Hunt, Evelyn Sample, Helen Hibbs, Dorothy Houston, Doris Osmond and Messrs. Elmer Hitz, Gage Hartman, Jessie Hibbs, Archie Neal, Cecil Zann, Roland West, D. Phillips, Burton Kuntzner, Dante La Frenchie, Frank Richardson and the honoree, Miss Ruth Dana.

Birthday Affair
 The E. E. Emerick home at 464 West Elk street was the scene last Tuesday night of a happy gathering when a number of friends participated in the celebration of Mr. Emerick's birthday anniversary. Mrs. Emerick arranged the affair as a complete surprise to Mr. Emerick, decorating the rooms with a profusion of sweet peas and greenery.

The evening was devoted to the playing of "Bunco" and later a musical program was presented by several of the guests present.

Later in the evening a course of refreshments was served at attractively decorated tables.

Those who enjoyed the affair included Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. B. Spink, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pierce, Misses Lucille Spink, Loraine Spink, Edna Moore, Louise Emerick, Florence Moore, Thelma Doyle, and Messrs. Loyd Foster, Roger Early and Frank Lang of Missouri.

Plan For Dance
 Girls of the Girls' Friendly society of St. Mark's Episcopal church are finishing up details for the dancing party they are to give tomorrow night in the Odd Fellows' hall on West Broadway.

Thelma Johnston is general chairman and being assisted by Esther Veitch in charge of decorations; Margaret Campbell, refreshments; Muriel Gambrell, music.

Patronesses of the dance are Mesdames P. E. Cory, Parker, R. O. Holbrook, Galtrapp, Philip K. Kemp and Mrs. W. E. Moore.

The dance is being given to raise money to furnish a room in the Girls' Friendly lodge in Los Angeles.

Tickets can be secured from any of the girls or at the door tomorrow night.

Bab's Daughter
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Sullivan of 406 West Maple avenue, are the proud parents of a daughter, born yesterday afternoon, Wednesday, February 27, 1924, at 2 o'clock at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. The new arrival has been named Dorothy Pauline.

Mrs. Sullivan before her marriage a few years ago was Miss Dorothy Hunt, daughter of Mrs. Susan Hunt and the late Dr. David W. Hunt. For a few years she was a member of the faculty of the Glendale Grammar schools.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan have lived here for a number of years and are members of the popular younger social set of the city.

P. E. O. Hostess
 Mrs. A. M. Hunt was hostess to Chapter L. P. E. O. at her home, 207 East Lacey, Wednesday afternoon. The usual business routine under the direction of Mrs. H. D. Goss, the president of the chapter, was followed.

The program of the afternoon on the P. E. O. constitution and Roberts Rules of Order was conducted by Mrs. P. E. Maxwell.

The next meeting of the chapter, March 12, will be at the home of Mrs. Chas. H. Temple, 145 North Orange street, followed by a luncheon at the Egyptian Village. Mrs. J. G. Huntley will be the luncheon hostess, assisted by Mesdames A. M. Hunt, Seymour Smith and Frank C. Weller.

Radio Entertains
 The members of the "U and I" club were most delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. McNaughton Barnes at her home, 1255 South Maryland street, with a Radio matinee.

Mrs. Barnes is the possessor of a radio apparatus of special construction, made by her son, L. C. Barnes. It is equipped with a loud speaker and also with ear phones so that few or many may enjoy the programs.

An afternoon of Hawaiian music was heard Wednesday afternoon by the guests.

Miss A. P. Summerill, representing a corn products refining company of New York City, also gave a short talk on corn products and served light refreshments in the preparation of which the products were used.

Members and guests enjoying Mrs. Barnes' hospitality were Mesdames D. H. Goodrich, J. W. Ashton, J. M. Server, A. J. Becker, S. E. Brown, James Cunningham, John McKay, Wickstrom and Jordan.

Washington Tea
 A Washington tea yesterday afternoon at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse with members of the American Citizenship and Legislation department as hostesses, celebrated the month of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington. Members of the board of directors and Literature department were special guests.

Miss Ada D. Myers, curator of the entertaining department, presided over the program, which included singing of "America," flag salute, interesting talk on the "Life of Washington," by Mrs. H. C. Wilcox, curator of the Literature department; a talk on the "Life of George Washington" by Mrs. L. B. Banc; study of the constitution led by Miss Myers, and analogies by one of the guests.

Later tea was served by the hostesses, Mesdames C. W. Houston, S. C. Leppelman, Williams, Richardson, White and Miss White.

Live Discussion
 Discussion of religious instruction in the schools was one of the interesting features yesterday of the regular weekly meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle at the Public Library.

Mrs. H. H. Suller and Mrs. H. V. Henry reviewed articles on this subject by William G. Shepherd and Vice-president Marshall and a live discussion followed.

Mrs. Henry, who is chairman of the circle, presided at yesterday's meeting, when plans were completed for the eighth birthday celebration to be held on Tuesday, March 5. At that time every member is to answer the roll call with a short statement about the town in which she was born.

Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Peterson were named yesterday as the new tea committee.

After lunch Mrs. Henry continued reading from Dewey's "Schools of Tomorrow."

With Miss Cross
 Members of the Rodaire club were entertained last night at the home of Miss Zilda Cross on West Windsor road.

The evening was devoted to sewing and an informal social time.

At a late hour refreshments were served.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Duffey, 209 West Magnolia avenue, on Monday, March 3, instead of on Wednesday as usual.

Those present last night included Miss Eva Brehme, Mesdames F. M. Ray, Engle, Robert Godar, Paul McCowan, James McGowan, Herman Benner and the hostess, Miss Zilda Cross.

Presents Program
 Mrs. Mabel Capell, prominent Glendale vocalist of 225 West Elk street, is giving a song recital Friday night, February 29, at the Synchron hall, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Capell possesses a sweet soprano voice, broad and even in range and having remarkable tonal values.

She will be assisted by Miss Nell Stegner, pianist, and Miss Laura Giffing, violinist.

Tickets may be secured from the Glendale Music Company, it is announced.

Birthday Dinner
 Miss Thelma Ungeheuer celebrated her birthday anniversary Tuesday evening with a very enjoyable affair at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ungeheuer, 420 West Lexington drive.

A delicious chicken dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock, followed by an informal social evening.

Covers were laid for Misses Dorothy Syms, Clare Konehan and Dan Duggan, and Cecil Forsythe and the honoree, Miss Thelma Ungeheuer.

Informal Affair
 Mrs. S. L. Gillan of 203 West Maple avenue, president of Colorado Street School P.-T. A., was hostess at a pleasant informal "get together" meeting of the teachers, room mothers and members of the executive board of the P.-T. A. at her home Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Interesting games were diversions of the afternoon. Refreshments of frozen fruit salad, Marguerites and coffee were served by the hostess. Eighteen guests were present.

Matinee Party
 Mrs. A. B. Castle of 907 Mariposa street, entertained recently with a matinee party at a Los Angeles theater in honor of her daughter, Miss Alice Castle. After the matinee luncheon was enjoyed at a tea room. Each guest was presented with a corsage bouquet of violets. Those in the party

John Steven McGroarty's poems as interpreted by the author will be the delight of Tuesday Afternoon club members and guests next Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. McGroarty will be their afternoon guest.

Preceding the afternoon meeting there will be a club luncheon with Madame Josefa Kudlicka, Polish Red Cross worker, and Margaret Wysor, representative of the Travelers' Aid society, one of the worthy causes supported by the Tuesday club.

Announces Program
 Mrs. E. W. Hayward, chairman of program, announces that March 11 the program will be given by Miss Gertrude Cleophas, talented Glendale pianist, and Max Donner, violinist, formerly conductor of the Seattle Philharmonic orchestra and head of the music department at the University of West Virginia.

On March 18, John Smallman, well known musician of the southland, will give a program before the club.

Realty Board Dance • Enjoyed by Guests

Multiple listings and escrows were forgotten last night by a large number of the members of the Glendale Realty Board when they met at the Odd Fellows hall on West Broadway to enjoy the dance that had been planned by the entertainment committee.

Plenty of ice cream and cake were provided for the guests, and the air of easy informality that marks every function of the board was strongly in evidence last night, helping the guests to feel perfectly at home with their hosts.

Band of 40 Members Is Eagle Rock's Plan

Organization of the Eagle Rock band will take place at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Eagle Rock Music company, 2144 Colorado boulevard, it is announced by John C. Kraus.

All interested are urged to attend and bring their instruments. Any friends will be welcome, Mr. Kraus states. It is hoped to have a band of forty members.

Special Meeting
 Mrs. Max Lynn Green, curator of the Drama department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, has called a special meeting for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the clubhouse.

Committees will be appointed for the presentation of Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," April 4 and 5. Plans will also be made for the program the department is to give during the convention of the Los Angeles District, California Federation of Women's clubs, in Glendale, April 8, 9 and 10.

Church Concert
 A concert and play is to be given Friday night in the parlor of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church under the auspices of the young people's class.

Those who will take part in the program are Stepan Suezanski, violinist; Gretta Cordary and Pearl Adair, vocalists, pupils of Virginia Freeman; Miss Dora Wilson, Mrs. Roe and Miss S. Homer, vocalists; Mrs. C. G. Betcher, pianist, and Mrs. Marlow, reader.

COUPLE HELD AS TUJUNGA BANDITS

Victim Identifies Prisoner As Assailant In Bold Daylight Robbery

TUJUNGA, Feb. 28.—A man and a woman, giving the names LeRoy C. Maxwell and Mrs. Pearl Redmond, have been arrested by Los Angeles officers and identified by Carey R. Morgan of Tujunga as the bandit and accomplice who held him up and robbed him of $175 and a diamond ring valued at $300. The robbery occurred February 22 in Blanchard canyon, a colony on the eastern edge of Tujunga, where Morgan is engaged in the real estate business.

The couple were arrested Tuesday by the Redmond woman in Judge Russell's court when her husband, Homer, was arraigned for violation of the Wright act and Maxwell in an East First street rooming house. Wednesday Mr. Morgan went to Los Angeles and identified the man and woman.

Morgan's Statement
According to Morgan, in an exclusive statement to a Glendale Evening News reporter, he was at his tract in Blanchard canyon on the afternoon of Washington's birthday when a man approached and stated that he wished to buy a lot. They started up the canyon in Morgan's car and the man suddenly hit Morgan on the back of the head. Whether the bandit used a club or the car was not known. Morgan does not know the blow did not render him unconscious, but dazed him so that he was helpless. The bandit then took Morgan's money and diamond pin and ran back down the canyon to Hillcrest drive at the entrance to the tract. There he was met by a woman in an automobile which had been waiting in a clump of trees along the roadside. As the bandit ran out of the canyon the woman started the car and they drove away, going south to Michigan avenue and then heading west toward San Fernando.

Morgan stated that he quickly recovered from the blow and saw the man running from the canyon, pursued the fleeing car as far as Sunland, where the chase was abandoned, as no one in the pursuing party was armed. The number of the bandit's car was taken and reported to the sheriff's office in Los Angeles, and other towns to be on the lookout for the pair. A systematic search resulted in the arrest of the couple Tuesday in Los Angeles.

Motive Is Alleged
Mrs. Redmond has denied that she drove the car used by Maxwell or was with him at the time of the robbery, although she admitted being with him the same day, according to the arresting officers. It is believed that she was in need of money to help her husband, who was in jail charged with violation of the Wright act. She was arrested in court while attending his hearing on the charge.

Maxwell has been positively identified as the bandit, according to Mr. Morgan, who said that Mr. Bangs, a storekeeper in Blanchard canyon, and several others had seen the man running away and were able to recognize him.

COMMENT 'That's All'

Newspapers for Advertising Leap Year Leaps Tomorrow 'Old Bill' Sees Glendale Base Ball a Worthy Sport

By Gil A. Cowan

"Newspapers are the great advertising medium." Motley H. Flint gave the Regional Bankers' conference in Los Angeles yesterday that six-word sentence filled with wisdom which no one will deny.

Of all advertising, newspaper publicity is the most essential. It is the vital producer of results. It cannot be superseded. But it is still undeveloped by many. Merchants should not be implored to advertise in the columns of a newspaper. They should be glad there is a local medium. And they should make the most of it, instead of squandering time and money and honest effort on a thousand and one different forms of "contributions" which are put out under the guise of advertising.

Even the smallest community has its own local home for the advertiser. It is the first consideration with the merchant of that place. It should be cheerfully and willingly supported. Then there are large communities with their independent, reliable, efficient and loyal newspapers, which are equally as worthy and deserving of support.

The Glendale Evening News is proud to report that it is given the patronage it merits, and it is always seeking to merit more. If there is any way in which this newspaper may be bettered, tell us. If there are newcomers not acquainted with the Glendale Evening News, tell them of its merits. And when you desire advertising, be it display or classified, let this medium serve you.

Tomorrow we are served with an extra day. Will you make it worth while? Once in four years the old world gets twenty-nine days in February. From a news standpoint anyone having a birthday on February 29 will confer a favor by phoning the city editor at Glendale 132.

Evidently Bruce Bairnfather has been to Glendale this week. At least, there is a cartoon in the "Egyptian" temple motif in one of our real estate divisions—with "Old Bill" giving it the "once over."

Glendale has opportunity now, it is said, to have baseball this summer, depending entirely on the support the game gets here. The writer heartily recommends to all the desirability of this national pastime, and we take pleasure in reprinting a few paragraphs from the Pasadena Star-News relative to its merits:

"The baseball season opens on the Pacific coast early in April, and in the major leagues a little later in the same month. Teams already are in training. Last season saw about the poorest playing ever witnessed on this coast. Managers ascribe this to discontinuance of the draft and to unavailability of fresh talent for the several teams. It seemed to spectators, however, that there was a lack of enthusiasm among the players—that several teams, and several individual players in important positions, failed to perform up to their abilities. There was no suspicion of dishonesty—but there was evidence of very different playing. This affected attendance adversely. The public is keenly observant of these things, and admirers of the game resent any lack of vigor or interest on the part of players.

But this is a new season. Better things are hoped for and expected this year. The coast league, seemingly, has been rejuvenated. The draft again is working, and several important deals have been made which bring several stars of the big leagues to this coast. The preliminaries indicate a much more interesting season than last year.

This is a sport which, clean and up to possibilities in playing talent, affords engrossing outdoor recreation to many thousands. Baseball holds favor with the American public through all the vicissitudes of war and peace. It is truly the national game."

Roosevelt Sequoia Park to Be Larger

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Enlargement of the Roosevelt Sequoia national park, in California, by absorption of approximately 150 square miles of public lands, has been agreed upon by the departments of agriculture and interior, Stephen T. Mather, director of national parks, late yesterday told the House public lands committee. The plans of congress to enlarge the Sequoia national park and to change its name to Roosevelt national park have been held up by disagreement between the two departments which control the public lands involved. Mather said that the proposed park as projected would be one of the greatest natural parks of the world.

Urge Extension of Proposed Widening

E. L. Osborn, J. S. Thompson and others residing on West Broadway protested to the City Council this morning against the proposed widening of that street between Central and Pacific. They stated that if the widening were not extended to San Fernando road, there would be no benefit to the property owners affected. After hearing their arguments, the hearing on the matter was postponed for two weeks by the members of the Council.

K. P. WILL STAGE RANK OF KNIGHT

Banquet Planned to Follow Lodge Ceremonies at Tuesday Meeting

Glendale Knights of Pythias are planning for a banquet and meeting exemplifying the rank of knight, next Tuesday night in the K. P. hall on South Brand boulevard.

Plans for this affair were made Tuesday night of this week. S. E. Wright, chancellor commander, was in charge, and a large company of members and visiting brothers were present. A successor to Emil Rehberg, vice chancellor, who has moved to San Diego, was named. Hal E. Leedom, scout leader and master of the work, was chosen as Mr. Rehberg's successor, and Emil E. Framm, past chancellor, was elected master of work. Mr. Wright announced that the deputy grand chancellor has appointed Past Chancellor Sam Brown to install these two officers. The installation followed.

At the meeting next Tuesday night the knight rank will be exemplified by the new degree team.

ANAHEIM, Feb. 28.—It has been decided by the board of directors of the Fifth Annual Valencia Orange show that the motif is to be Italian, depicting sunny days in Italy, with its snow-capped mountains and fertile valleys. The directors also changed the date of the show to May 16 to 25, inclusive, so that it would run over a period covering two Saturdays and Sundays.

Too Many Diamonds

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 28.—With a sack in his possession containing twenty-five diamonds, which he claims he found in this morning's paper, Harry Muller, city six months ago, Harry Muller, aged 22, is being held by Police Chief Les Desgrandchamps. That he is being held but the sack of diamonds are no longer in his possession. The gems are believed to be worth over $2,000. He attempted to dispose of them for $1,000. He also gave his sweetheart two diamond rings valued at $1,500. These the police recovered.

Some More Publicity

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28.—The motion picture situation is to be written up for publication with a national circulation. Kenneth L. Roberts, feature writer of international reputation, has arrived here and is registered at a leading hotel. Prior to his assignment to this task, Mr. Roberts spent considerable time in the Orient, Asia Minor and Europe, where he reported the reparations muddle and the Balkan upheaval culminating in the rise to power of Kemal Pasha in Turkey.

Election Soon at Orange

ORANGE, Feb. 28.—The city trustee race here is commanding the attention of many residents. There are already five candidates in the field to fill the positions to be created by W. T. Walton, L. W. Hemphill and Mayor O. E. Guther, whose terms expire in April.

$500,000 in New Y.M.C.A.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 28.—The new Y. M. C. A. building that will be finished here around April 1 will be one of the finest structures of its kind in the state. S. H. Finlay, chairman of the building committee, states that but for failure of a certain sub-contractor to iron out minor irregularities sooner, the building would have been further along at the present time. It is being erected at an approximate cost of $500,000.

Blasts All Radio Theory

COSTA MESA, Feb. 28.—E. L. Humphrey, a young radio fan and member of the Santa Ana Radio Club, is reported to have evolved a method of transmitting that will blast all existing radio theories and revolutionize this newest of sciences. The method involves sending messages by direct current. The details are being zealously guarded. Mr. Humphrey is declared by Elwood Lippencott, a member of the club, to have successfully transmitted by the direct current method.

Lesson Given Speeders

PASADENA, Feb. 28.—A unique method of impressing speeders has been tried here. The Los Angeles men arrested for an alleged speed of fifty-five miles an hour were ordered by Police Chief Charles H. Kelley to be taken to the city morgue, where they could view the mangled remains of three people killed in an auto crash recently. The Angelenos were duly impressed and were then returned to court for trial, upon being unable to produce bail. Their names are given as Norman Golden, Harold Angel and W. J. Maxon.

TO DISCUSS ART AT SUNDAY MEET

Noted Artist Will Address Members of Glendale At Association

"Modern Art" is to be discussed Sunday afternoon at the meeting of the Glendale Art association at the Public Library by E. Roscoe Shraeder, dean of the Otis Art Institute and new president of the California Art club.

Having lived in California since he was three years of age, Mr. Shraeder is greatly interested in California art and architecture, and his beautiful home in Hollywood embodies his ideas of western architecture.

He has painted much of the California country as well as other scenery in various parts of the world and his canvases are exhibited with the great painters of the east.

The meeting Sunday will be at 4 o'clock and Mrs. Roy Ballagh, president of the association, invites all Glendaleans interested in art to attend.

Water Rights Muchly Sought in California

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Applications for water received in 1923 by the state department of water rights contemplate the development of 2,000,000 horsepower of electric energy, the irrigation of 1,500,000 acres of land and the storage of 3,000,000 acre-feet of water by municipalities for domestic purposes, according to the annual report of Edward Hyatt, Jr., acting superintendent. The number of permits issued annually has increased steadily. Applications reached a maximum of 567 in 1923, or two and one-half times the number received in 1915, the year the California water code was enacted. Forty-five per cent of the 3,800 applications for water rights on file were made during the last three years, the state official points out, and there is every indication that the next few years will see even greater activity.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

EVERETT, Wash., Feb. 28.—No inquest will be held into the death of Charles L. Yeomans, 51, who shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Thompson, 74, and then killed himself, Coroner Charles H. Fickle of Snohomish county announced today. It was a clear case of murder and suicide, the coroner said.

SERVICE CHIEFS OUTLINING WORK

Community Organization Is Planning for Activities Along Varied Lines

Interesting reports of activities of the Glendale Community Service organization were heard Monday, when the executive board met at the Egyptian Village. There were present Mrs. Max Lynn Green, Mrs. J. R. Case, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, C. C. Cooper, Col. John D. Fraser, Albert Cornwell, V. M. Hollister and R. Ernest Tucker, board members; and Miss Edith Tyler, George Karr and J. Arthur Myers of special committees.

Reports given told of plans for work along dramatic, social recreation, athletic and musical lines. Mrs. Case, who is chairman of social recreation, stated that her committee now includes Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Edith Tyler, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, George Karr and Col. Fraser, and that there is 100 per cent attendance at any meetings held.

Plan Two Dances

Plans are being made by Mrs. E. S. McKee, chairman of dances for two dances in March, one for the high school young people and the other for business young people. Both affairs will be held at the Tuesday afternoon club.

Miss Tyler, who is in charge of hiking, is working on plans for a hike to the top of Mt. Verdugo some time during March.

The department of drama, under Mrs. Green, is anticipating the presentation of "Mice and Men" under the direction of Granville Sturgess. This play will probably be given the nights of March 13 and 14.

Music is one of the chief interests of Community Service and at the Monday meeting Mr. Hollister announces that his committee is now working on plans for the Easter sunrise service, and on Glendale's observance of National Music week.

The Glendale Community singing group has invited the Arroyo Seco organization to come to Glendale March 13 for a "sing."

J. Arthur Myers, leader of the Choral club, reported for that unit of the Community Service.

He also told of the tentative plans for a community orchestra, and Mr. Tucker reported on the band. Raymond Crawford has been appointed band director.

PROTESTS HEARD BY CITY COUNCIL

Property Owners Object to Set Back Line; Regular Work Sidetracked

An argument over the establishment of a set-back line for an apartment court at Viola and Stocker streets occupied the attention of the City Council this morning, and it was so long that the meeting had to be adjourned until 1 o'clock this afternoon in order to get through the regular order of business.

The foundations, started last Tuesday, following the granting of a building permit by H. C. Vandewater, municipal building superintendent, are already in place and the council took no action to halt the erection of the building in question.

Mrs. Edward Abbott, 1212 Viola street, appeared and stated that the back door of the court would be in her front yard, and objected strenuously to the erection of the building. W. F. Tower, who owns property in the next block, also stated that he was of the opinion that it would injure his holdings and stated that he did not consider it fair to the property holders in question to change the set-back line without a hearing.

No Action Taken

As the council had already taken action and the permit had been issued by the building department, no motion was made as the result of the protests.

The old fight regarding the establishment of a business district on Verdugo road between Opheya way and Wabasso way was again up for consideration. W. A. Hall, who is the petitioner, and F. P. Newport, who is protesting, both appeared and made arguments in favor of their respective sides. The hearing on the proposition was continued for three weeks.

Love, Lies and Poison in Trial for Murder

FRESNO, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Eliza Potegian, on trial for murder on charges of poisoning her stepdaughter and husband, testified that E. S. Melchonian, deputy sheriff, had "made love" to her and had "promised to fix things with officials" if she would tell him "who had done the poisoning."

Mrs. Potegian's testimony followed a flurry in court when Philip Conley, attorney for the defense, passed the lie to Melchonian. When Melchonian declared that he "had accepted no more fees than you, Mr. Conley," in reply to Conley's question, Attorney Corley was fined $25 for contempt of court and made apology.

Moses Wants Reed's Address in Record

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—An echo of the approaching presidential campaign has resounded sharply in the senate chamber. Shortly after the senate convened, Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, a "bitter end" irreconcilable, asked unanimous consent to have the speech by Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, attacking William Gibbs McAdoo, printed in the Congressional Record. Reed and McAdoo are opponents for the Democratic presidential nomination.

TRACK, BASEBALL LURING ATHLETES

Stars of Cinder Paths and Diamond Compete for Places on Teams

By NEAL E. SOOY
Of The Evening News Staff.
With the basketball season practically over at Glendale Union High school, attention is turned now to track and baseball. Although Glendale did not accomplish much in the casket line, hard luck played a mean hand throughout. The players who get their letters in the cage game are as follows: Class A—Elliott, (captain), Hibbs, Hardey, Ryatt, Haig, Swaney, Zuan, and Dotson. Class C—Mitchell (captain), Beeg, Apple, Harris, Killinger, Steele, Smith, and Lovell. On account of the Class B team being still in the running for the Central League banner, those who get their letters are not quite decided, but the probable ones are: McAllister, (captain, first semester), Muff, (captain, second semester), Lovell, Stearns, Neel, Beman, Alvord, and Heideman. Harrison and C. Thompson have a fighting chance to get their award, especially if the locals win the league and get into the semifinals.

Baseball is looking good this year, very good. With exactly the same team out again that performed last season, chances for a pennant are bright. Bill Shinner, manager, has lined up several practice games, next Thursday being the first one, when the locals take on the Burbank club. The coaches are Mr. Krueger, coach, is very optimistic concerning chances and feels confident that something is going to happen when Glendale gets going good. Outside of Covina, the league does not look formidable.

For catcher, Breezy Elliott, Carver, Van Rensselaer, and Poltz have reported. Bradbury, Hibbs, Hardey, Krueger, and Stearns look good on the mound. Lavelle, West, Lundie, Zuan, and Denny are capering around the initial sack with lots of pep, while Muff, Stumpf, Neel and Booker look good on second. Dotson and Keogh are fighting it out for third, while Lovell is the only candidate for short. Bud Elliott, Pomerooy, Swanson and Krukow are the would-be outfielders.

Many Out for Track
That track is a popular sport is proven by the large number of students who have already signed up. The track at Broadway High is rapidly being put in shape by the boys of the school under the direction of the coaches. As soon as the straight-aways get packed into shape, things will commence popping, according to Coach Normal C. Hayhurst, who also considers that the team which is out to represent G. U. H. S. this year is one of the best that has ever turned out.

The running events are the most popular, especially the 880 and mile. Purdy, Fiske, Howard and Abbott are endeavoring to imitate Paddock in the 100, while Purdy, Fiske and Lee are chasing up and down the 220. Purdy, Fiske, Maydwell, Murphy and Parker look promising in the 440. DeParo, Lee, Grindell, Bradner, Harrison, Dietrich and Swaney are doing the 880 in good shape, with Bradner, Montgomery, Maydwell, Harrison, Dietrich and Swaney holding the mile down to a low mark. Other candidates are: high hurdles: Humes, Lavelle, Anstey; low hurdles: Humes, Horil, DeParo; high jump: Jones, D. Elliott; Kennedy, Murphy, Anstey; broad jump: Jones, D. Elliott, Kennedy, Murphy, Anstey; pole vault: H. Elliott, D. Elliott, Jones, Murphy; shot: H. Elliott, Fiske, Zuan, Hibbs, Bradbury; discus: Bradbury, Lavelle, DeParo, Hyatt; relay: Lee, Purdy, Murphy, Fiske.

Sprinters and Jumpers
The spring events are bidding for the most candidates in the lightweight class. Those out for the different events are as follows: 100: Walker, Hayward, Gatto, Grindell, Libert, Lipstreu, Anderson, Kirk, Townsend; 220: Libert, Kirk, Walker, Hayward, Galpin; 440: Eastman, Buttery, Andrews; 880: Eastman, Stewart, Reburn, Brown; mile: Brown; high hurdles: Warner, Huns; low hurdles: Eastman, Warner, Ruse; high jump: Guerdat, Lipstreu, Kirk, Anderson, Jones, Murphy, Walker, Ruse, Lantz; broad jump: Galpin, Lantz, Hepburn, Jones, Guerdat, Warner, Hayward, Stewart, Grindell; pole vault: Bercauw, Blair, Detwiler, Murphy, Breneman, Squire; shot put: Buttery; relay: Buttery, Anderson, Lipstreu, Hepburn; Andrews, Galpin, Townsend, Kirk.

Bears Meet Huskies In Cage Title Tilts

BERKELEY, Feb. 28.—The basketball championship of the Pacific coast intercollegiate conference will be decided in a series of games to be played between the University of California and the University of Washington at Oakland, Cal., beginning next Monday. It was announced yesterday at the University of California.

Games will be played on the evenings of March 2 and 4, and if a third contest is necessary, it will take place March 6.

CALIFORNIA GETS EASTERN BOXERS

Many Glad to Go 4-Rounds for 'Small Tokens' of Appreciation

By COPELAND C. BURG
For International News Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Something must have knocked the props loose from under the boxing game in the east. This must be true of champions at least.

Here's Harry Greb, middleweight czar, already inhaling the perfume of California's golden poppies and Mickey Walker and Billy Wells are on the way to this coast. Walker grins under the weight of Jack Britton's well-to-do title and Wells is the British welter champion.

Greb has signed for three bouts in California and Walker has announced he wants to defend his title against the best boys out here where the west begins. All the boys are after some cold coast cash.

May Meet Delaney
Greb may be sincere when he talks of decision bouts. He's not taking many chances as there is a dearth of high-class middles in these parts. Still the Pittsburgher is a stranger to the four-round game and he might be surprised if he met up with some one like Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul biter, now on the coast. Delaney, however, probably can't get down to 160 pounds, the middleweight limit.

Walker no doubt is kidding when he mentions fighting for his beloved crown. There are scores of worthy opponents in the east who have been given merely cold, blank eyes when a title match has been mentioned. Walker will never fight a bona fide title bout on the coast—unless someone trots out a mighty big purse.

Others Discussed
The New Jersey brawler justly cannot be called the new "cheese" champion, succeeding Johnny Wilson, who long failed to defend his middleweight crown against any boy of class. No one can recall his having met more than one or two near champions since he got the diadem, in spite of the fact that Walker is a pugilist.

Walker will be pretty careful when he starts out here. He'll probably find the four-round game to his liking as he really is fast and has a great amount of natural ability. If he succeeds in knocking over a couple of soft boys, he may consent to meet some of the topnotchers up and down the west seacoast.

Tommy Simpson, the Oakland impresario, is dickering for Walker's services. Simpson is going to show Greb and also Billy Wells. The Briton and Walker would dish up a pretty row, Wells has shown in the past he is pretty much of an in-and-outer but a crack at the champion of Walker's home heath should induce him to cut loose with his best.

Locals, Burbank to Hold Practice Game

The Glendale Union High school baseball team will open its season with a practice game with the Burbank High school nine, at Burbank, this afternoon, in preparation for the league season starting April 11, reports Coach Normal C. Hayhurst. The track season opens Friday, March 7, when the local sprinters will meet the Oxy freshmen at Occidental college, Eagle Rock. The Broadway High school track will be in shape by Friday of this week, Coach Hayhurst reports.

Operation Will Not Stop Jack's Battle

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Jack Dempsey was resting easily today in the Polyclinic hospital here where he is convalescing from the results of a minor operation, which he underwent yesterday. The champion will be confined to the hospital for several days, but the attending physicians said, but the official report on his condition was favorable. It was said by physicians that the operation will have no effect on Dempsey's proposed bouts with Tom Gibbons, Luis Firpo and Harry Wills this summer.

Duncan Sets Record In Hockey Playing

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 28.—Major Art Duncan, captain of the Vancouver Maroons, has established a world record in hockey by playing defense and leading the league in efficient offense. He has finished the season with twenty-one goals and nine assists, making a total of thirty points, four more than Frank Frederickson of Victoria succeeded in annexing.

WILLARD MAGNET AT BOXING SHOW

Ex-Champion to Pick Winners of Battles on First Card of Season

While many local enthusiasts will pry themselves loose from the necessary jack to see the leather thrown around tonight at the first card staged since the first of the year by the Glendale Athletic Club, the presence of Jess Willard, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, who will referee, is expected to be the magnet that will draw a capacity crowd which the management expects.

Willard, since his retirement from the ring, has elected to make Glendale his home, and owns a beautiful residence in Verdugo Woodlands. He stated today that he was anxious to meet the local fans and scrappers, and assured President Leavitt of the club that he would be on hand at the first tap of the gong.

May Make Speech
He will be present with a life membership to the club by Mayor Spencer Robinson, and other celebrities will make short talks. Jess asked to be excused from making a speech, but when asked to box an exhibition bout he chose the lesser of the two evils, so will endeavor to give the youngsters a few pointers on how to get to the top of the ladder. It is probable that he will also have something to say regarding the charges made by Gene Doyle of Los Angeles, regarding the "ticket-scalping" scandal which has implicated Tex Rickard, who staged the bouts during Jess' comeback last year.

Aside from the added attraction of Willard's appearance in the ring, the card, according to Pete Essick, matchmaker, is one of the best offered this winter. It is headed by Eddie Byrd of the local club and Tommy Richards of Van Nuys, heavyweights. Richards has "horse" on Byrd in a decision of a decision gained in recent encounter, but the local lad wants to show him up in front of the home folks.

In the semi-windup Art Springer of Vernon will meet Cecil Taylor of Burbank. These boys are both aggressive fighters, and the interest displayed in this go rivalry that of the main event.

Expect Big Crowd
Rounding out a good card are Bud Forester of Lankershim and Ted Rose of Los Angeles; Jimmy Reber and Nick Carpen; Eddie Kelly and Harry Wallace.

The largest crowd of the winter is expected to be on hand, so fans would do well to come early and get the choice seats.

GOTHAM'S BOXERS FACE RON RULE

Fight Czar's Plan to Compel Mitt Slingers to Wage Regular Battles

By ARTHUR STRUWE
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The New York boxing commission is going to rule fistic circles with an iron hand. There is going to be no dilly-dallying among the promoters, and rules will be changed so that no fighter will be able to dodge them, on penalty of suspension. The commission is going to see to it that there will be no "set up" bouts in which the stars or near-stars will compete, and has ruled that the champions must fight or fear the iron hand of discipline.

Under the new order of things, two champions, Joe Lynch, bantamweight, and Mickey Walker, welterweight, have given the commission assurances that they would be in the ring in the near future, defending their titles against worthy opponents. The two champions, who have been declared to meet opponents selected for them, have promised to meet fighters chosen by the commission. Lynch will meet Abe Goldstein on March 21. Walker will meet the best boy in his class, available on or before May 5. The commission, ruled, however, that neither bout must necessarily be held in New York state, that being left to the discretion of the champions, but if held in any other state the bout must be to a decision. Both bouts, undoubtedly, will be held in New York.

Set-ups Are Banned
Paul Berlinbach, knock-out king, is not going to have any soft marks in the future. The board has decreed that Jack Stone, who was expected to hit the canvas in next Monday's bout with Berlinbach, will also be suitable opponent, and will also look into Young Fisher of Syracuse to see if the latter will fill the bill. This ruling will mean that if Berlinbach wants to mount the fistic ladder he will have to climb the rungs over topnotchers and not set-ups.

Incidentally the ticket-scalping scandal involving Tom O'Rourke's charges against Tex Rickard is going to be given a thorough probing by the commission. Chairman Brower of the commission promised if the commission's investigation justifies criminal prosecution, that prosecution will be pushed.

More than 7,000,000 tons of various kinds of seeds are needed during the planting seasons to supply the farmers of the world.

SEEKS TO BLOCK TICKET SCALPERS

Rickard Posts Sleuths Round Garden to Foil Wiles of Speculators

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Private detectives, augmented by employees of Madison Square Garden, will stand by today during the sale of tickets for the Paul Berlinbach-Young Fisher bout at the garden tonight in the hope of eliminating all sources of supply to ticket scalpers. This, it was reported, will be Tex Rickard's reply to the demand of the state athletic commission that he break up ticket scalping around the garden, under pain of losing his license. It also will serve as his answer to charges made before legislators at Albany that Rickard is in cahoots with speculators.

The occasion will mark Berlinbach's attempt to score his 25th straight knockout and every scalper along Broadway will try to fall heir to as many tickets as his pockets will hold. The garden is sure to have a sell-out and if Rickard can manage to keep all tickets out of hands of unworthy applicants he will have achieved something in the way of a modern miracle.

Exercise Precautions
"Trying to prevent speculators from getting possession of tickets is a difficult undertaking," he declared today. "I will increase the vigilance of my staff of watchers and special men, well acquainted with the Broadway characters, and these will be on hand to weed out suspicious applicants. I am determined that there will be no cause for complaints."

Whether Rickard succeeds or not rests largely on the number of tickets already out. It is said many tickets have been sold in advance and private operatives, no matter how vigilant, would not be able to trace them to their ultimate goal. Friends of speculators are ever willing to oblige by purchasing tickets for a popular attraction and no one can doubt that the present occasion is all of that.

SEASON TICKETS FOR BALL GAMES

Kerwin Getting Support of Business Men in His White Sox Venture

Optimistic over the chances of a Class C franchise for Glendale this summer, Frank Kerwin, owner of the White Sox, is in town today conferring with local men over plans for refinancing the plant on San Fernando road. Kerwin, who is associated with Mike Cantillon in forming the new league, which will include, in addition to Glendale, Long Beach, San Diego, Santa Ana, San Bernardino and either Ventura or Bakersfield, expects that the Coast league will be fully behind the new venture, and promises a good class of ball for local fans this summer.

Not Seeking Charity
"We have not asked for a cent from local merchants or organizations since we came here," he said yesterday, "and we are not asking for charity now. But if present plans go through, we expect to put on a ticket campaign, selling season tickets for $10. If I can place 500 of these in Glendale and San Fernando valley towns it will place the White Sox proposition on its feet, and we will be able to start off with a clean slate."

Two more new faces will be seen at the Portland Beavers' training camp, which opens next week at Stockton, Cal. The Beavers, through Scout Tom Turner, have purchased William Hunnefeld, first baseman, and John Jones, outfielder, from the Philadelphia Athletics. Both men were with Montreal.

Hunnefeld bats and throws right handed and hit .344 the past season. Jones throws and bats from the port side and hung up a mark of .370 in 1923. Hunnefeld is expected to hold down the first base job until Jim Poole arrives in early April.

Harry Gardner, veteran pitcher, will lead the Portland contingent to training camp tomorrow night.

SPORTSMEN'S MEASURE SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.

An announcement was made yesterday by local sportsmen that an initiative measure will be placed on the November ballot to restrict the use of all fish and game fees to conservation and protection work under the direction of the state fish and game commission.

Scientists classify about 6,000 new species of insects each year.

ST. LOUIS GIANTS MEET WHITE SOX

Clash to Be Staged Sunday At Local Park Between Bitter Rivals

The final appearance of the St. Louis Giants, who have been the nemesis of the White Sox, will be made on the San Fernando road diamond next Sunday. These teams have clashed five times, and the Giants have come out with the long end of the score in three games. Curiously they have won all three Sunday encounters, when the crowd was large. Their two defeats were registered in week-day games.

The Giants, although able to hang it on the Sox, have been beaten by some teams that regularly had to bow to the Glendale outfit. Frank Kerwin hopes to win his first Sunday game against the brides of Central avenue this week.

Bennie Hall, the twirler who stood Lankershim on their heads last Sunday, will be in the box for the Sox, while Cooper will probably work for the visitors.

PSENNERS' TEAM BEAT CAFE FIVE

Organization of City League Planned by Bowlers At Friday Meet

Penner Brothers made a clean sweep of the three games with the Fredericks' Cafe five from Pasadena in last night's match in the Poothill league at the Recreation alleys. Brehme of the winners rolled the high game of the winners—235.

Prominent bowlers have called a meeting at the Recreation Center for Friday night at 8 o'clock to organize the Glendale City League.

PSENNER BROS.
Player	1	2	3
Keane	160	170	188
Hunter	155	200	175
Huestman	183	190	182

Brehme	182	235	192
Totals		906	993 912

Hunnefeld and Jones Secured by Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28.—Two more new faces will be seen at the Portland Beavers' training camp, which opens next week at Stockton, Cal. The Beavers, through Scout Tom Turner, have purchased William Hunnefeld, first baseman, and John Jones, outfielder, from the Philadelphia Athletics. Both men were with Montreal.

Hunnefeld bats and throws right handed and hit .344 the past season. Jones throws and bats from the port side and hung up a mark of .370 in 1923. Hunnefeld is expected to hold down the first base job until Jim Poole arrives in early April.

Harry Gardner, veteran pitcher, will lead the Portland contingent to training camp tomorrow night.

Democrats Scored by Bankers' League Head

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 28.—Aroused by the action of the Democratic caucus of the lower house in making the Garner rates in the pending tax measure, a test of Democracy, the American Bankers' league, through its president, Chas. de B. Claiborne, today issued a statement calling upon its membership and the public to repudiate the actions of any party caucus by demanding of congress a non-partisan consideration of the measure.

"We challenge the authority of any group of congressmen to de-throne the judgment or despoil the wisdom of their colleagues or to render invalid the constitutional right of a sovereign to instruct his representative in congress," the statement read.

"The Garner rates are no more of a test of Democracy than they are a test of religion. Such procedure strikes down free institutions and makes us a government by politicians, instead of a government by the people. If this government is to maintain the confidence of the American people, congressmen must consult them on fundamental principles and must realize that those who pay the taxes have an equity in this legislation that cannot be abridged by a political caucus."

WORKOUT IN GALE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28.—Despite a heavy gale, Manager Dave Beyne put the Braves through the first workout of the training season. Much attention was given young twirlers and college recruits.

COOPER TO SIGN

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 28.—With Wilbur Cooper, star port-sider, of the Pirates, here and ready to sign a contract, the Pittsburgh crew was almost complete for the 1924 voyage.

RUSSIA ASKS FOR SHIPS TO PROTECT BALTIC SEA

ROME, Feb. 28.—Russia's representatives in the League of Nations naval disarmament conference have demanded 490,000 tons of war craft unless the Turkish straits (Bosphorus and Dardanelles) are closed and entrance to the Baltic is forbidden to outside powers. Russia also demanded the return of former Russian ships held by the French at Bizartza.

READY TO START

PASO ROBLES, Feb. 28.—The Pirates were ready to begin the first day of spring training today after a long trip. Manager Lee Fohl spent a great deal of the session with the pitchers.

EAGLE ROCK SECURE MOVING PICTURE MACHINE

P.-T. A. Aids Move to Instruct Pupils by Means of Visual Education

The purchase of a $275 motion picture projecting machine by the Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher Association presages five or six periods a week devoted to visual education, it is announced by Principal C. W. Preston.

Plan Mental Tests Miss Georgia C. Shane, school counselor, is drawing up a series of mental tests which she will apply to pupils of the Eagle Rock schools, with a view to determining their intelligence and fitness for the grades they are now holding.

The system of mental tests being used by Dr. Sutherland of the U. of C. southern branch, will be adapted by Miss Shane to Eagle Rock school children. Miss Shane feels that these tests produce particularly satisfying results with children, and wants the parents to know that the work is highly important in reaching a proper basis for classification.

Popularity of the old songs will be decided tonight at the Glendale community "sing" at the Harvard High school, when all those attending will be given a list of the old favorites to check their ten favorites in order of preference.

Later, Mrs. Puffer sang "Mah Lindy Lou" (Strickland) and "The Swallows" (Cowan), with Mrs. Gertrude Erb as accompanist.

Mrs. N. V. Martin was in charge of the serving of refreshments.

Charm Of Ancient Greece Still Survives Today In Athens Of Present Day

The beauties of Athens, Greece, are told today in the travel letter written by W. B. Kirk from Milan, Italy, February 5. Mr. Kirk writes:

W. B. KIRK

"The intensely cold weather we encountered in Athens was the worst they had had since 1801, so it was almost as hard on the natives as it was on us. Their vegetation is almost as tropical as ours, although they did not grow citrus fruits to any extent.

"Their gardens of cauliflower and cabbage were laid low and the callas, tender flowers and plants were frozen. As in our country, it is a marvel to me so much greenery can go through such cold weather and not be altogether destroyed.

"We were kept indoors by the cold during Friday afternoon and all day Saturday. On Sunday morning the daughter and I ventured out to the English-American church, enjoying the walk in the crisp air through the wide, modern streets of Athens, which are in contrast to the poorly paved, narrow ones of so many of the cities we have visited. The public buildings of the city are in harmony with its classic, ancient architecture, and are very pretty.

"Athens is not a great commercial center, being a city of about a quarter of a million in normal times, but now housing about four or five times that number because of the refugees, who had to find a home here after being driven out of Asia Minor.

"Many of their shacks and temporary homes are to be seen in the suburbs. They are more substantial than many of our Southern California shacks, however, most of them being built of some kind of stone, frequently with tile roofs.

"Realizing that we would have to brave the elements on Sunday afternoon, if we saw the great ruins which we had stopped in Athens to see, we secured a good machine through a young Serbian, who we had met on route, and, accompanied by him, we started out to the Acropolis.

"The meaning of the word is 'top' or 'high city.' It is a huge rock occupying a high, beautiful hill in the center of Athens and is reached by a winding road of easy grade. OHIO GRADS MEET AT BUCKEYE CLUB VOTE TONIGHT ON OLD TIME SONGS

Former Students University At Ada, Ohio, Members Of Lodge Society Decide Popularity of Former Favorite Melodies at Community Sing

Included in the 150 former Ohioans who met last night at the Tuesday Afternoon club for an informal social evening given by the Buckeye club of Glendale, there was one group, all of whom had attended and graduated from Ohio Northern university at Ada, Ohio. The university was formerly known as Ada university. Those former students meeting last night did not all attend at the same time, but their college friends and associations were mutual.

C. N. Wilder, president of the club, was in charge of the meeting, and after a word of greeting he announced the program.

Musical Program Given Miss Julia Robinson and Mrs. Mildred Dixon Puffer gave a vocal duet, accompanied by Mrs. Spencer Robinson. They sang "Beyond the Meadow Gate" (Phillips) and "Come, Sing to Me" (Thompson).

Later, Mrs. Puffer sang "Mah Lindy Lou" (Strickland) and "The Swallows" (Cowan), with Mrs. Gertrude Erb as accompanist.

Mrs. N. V. Martin was in charge of the serving of refreshments.

BURBANK STATE OFFICIALS STUDY CITY PLAN

Immigration Commission Asks Data on Methods by Planning Body

A letter received by the city trustees from the State Commission of Immigration and Housing, in Sacramento, indicated that the local planning commission is getting a widespread reputation for its systematic efforts on behalf of Burbank.

The letter, which was read by City Clerk F. S. Webster at the last meeting, requested more information about the way the commission is guarding the activities of subdividers and builders in general, yet with the idea ever in mind of a city more beautiful in the future, and with no compromise for temporary advantages.

New Record For Notchers The sixteen members of the John Muir group of Pioneer Notchers recently added another record to their list of honors when they ran 200 points with sixteen members, being the first chapter in the state to attain the rank of third notch, which gives each member the right to wear a silver star on the uniform.

"This distinction is but another of several recently won by the John Muir Notchers," says E. B. Thomas, principal of the John Muir school. "Some weeks ago they won the Southern California pennant for the best balanced program last year, and Jerry Blake-man, one of the members, won the Pioneer gold medal for saving a woman from drowning at Seal Beach last summer.

Charm Of Ancient Greece Still Survives Today In Athens Of Present Day

The beauties of Athens, Greece, are told today in the travel letter written by W. B. Kirk from Milan, Italy, February 5. Mr. Kirk writes:

W. B. KIRK

"The intensely cold weather we encountered in Athens was the worst they had had since 1801, so it was almost as hard on the natives as it was on us. Their vegetation is almost as tropical as ours, although they did not grow citrus fruits to any extent.

"Their gardens of cauliflower and cabbage were laid low and the callas, tender flowers and plants were frozen. As in our country, it is a marvel to me so much greenery can go through such cold weather and not be altogether destroyed.

"We were kept indoors by the cold during Friday afternoon and all day Saturday. On Sunday morning the daughter and I ventured out to the English-American church, enjoying the walk in the crisp air through the wide, modern streets of Athens, which are in contrast to the poorly paved, narrow ones of so many of the cities we have visited. The public buildings of the city are in harmony with its classic, ancient architecture, and are very pretty.

"Athens is not a great commercial center, being a city of about a quarter of a million in normal times, but now housing about four or five times that number because of the refugees, who had to find a home here after being driven out of Asia Minor.

"Many of their shacks and temporary homes are to be seen in the suburbs. They are more substantial than many of our Southern California shacks, however, most of them being built of some kind of stone, frequently with tile roofs.

"Realizing that we would have to brave the elements on Sunday afternoon, if we saw the great ruins which we had stopped in Athens to see, we secured a good machine through a young Serbian, who we had met on route, and, accompanied by him, we started out to the Acropolis.

CALL PALMER IN SENATE INQUIRY

Former Wilson Aid to Have Chance to Tell About McLean Telegrams

(Continued from page 1) oil man's attorney, in Kansas City, that resulted in the $1,000,000 settlement. He said: "We went to Mr. Sinclair's suite in the hotel. Sinclair and Zevely were present. I had never met Mr. Sinclair and after my introduction to him and without further preliminary, I said: "Mr. Bonifis has told me of your last and final offer of $100,000, and a one-half interest in the net profits from the operation by you of 120 acres to be selected from your lease. On behalf of Mr. Stack I decline this offer."

Mr. Sinclair said: "Stack will not get another dollar." I replied: "Do you mean in this settlement or in the courts?" Mr. Sinclair replied: "Courts are for the lawyers, and, pointing to Colonel Zevely, said: 'There is one of the best there is.'"

More 'Oil' Telegrams Are Read Into Record

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—New light was thrown today upon the persistent, but unsuccessful, efforts to block the Senate oil investigating committee from examining Edward B. McLean, wealthy publisher, about the famous $100,000 "loan" which he made to ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall in checks that never were cashed.

A fresh batch of telegrams, disclosing the manipulation of political influence, were read into the record of the oil investigation.

They showed that every possible pressure was brought to bear in McLean's behalf, principally by A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson administration, but that all such efforts failed because of the "stubbornness" of Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Montana, the dominant figure of the committee.

One telegram told McLean that if "was all off"; that Walsh was insistent upon examining him, and that McLean should prepare himself to come to Washington for testimony.

Underwood's Request The message also revealed that McLean's friends were attempting to have "Underwood" use his influence on Walsh. Walsh quickly denied that Senator Underwood, Democrat, of Alabama, candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, ever interceded on McLean's behalf. Walsh did say, however, that he raised no objection when Underwood asked him if he would allow Palmer's letters to the committee, explaining McLean's "loan" to Fall, to go into the Congressional Record. Walsh said Underwood told him he had been requested to have the letter inserted into the Record. The names of Francis H. McAdoo and his father, William Gibbs McAdoo, were mentioned in a message which McLean sent to Washington from Palm Beach. Most of the telegrams today were signed by John Major, W. F. Wiley and W. O. Duckstein, McLean's employes in Washington.

Tells of Conversation At the request of Senators Lenroot and Dill, Democrat, of Washington, the committee decided today that Palmer should be called for examination. Palmer phoned Walsh that he planned to go south tonight and wanted to be advised if the committee desired him.

Before reading the telegrams, Walsh related a telephone conversation he had with Underwood this morning. "Senator Underwood called me on the phone this morning and stated he had read in the papers that he had endeavored to persuade me from my purpose to examine McLean. That conclusion, apparently, was drawn from telegrams yesterday," Walsh said.

"Underwood never endeavored to influence my conduct," Walsh told the committee. "He said further, however, that at the request of Bennett (editor of the Post), he asked me whether the committee was going to call McLean. He said I told him it had already been arranged for me to go to Palm Beach to examine McLean. If he said it, it must be true, but I don't recall the conversation," Walsh added.

The names of Senator Curtis, Republican, of Ohio, and Curtis, Republican, of Kansas, were found in messages sent to McLean.

Wire From Editor Ira Bennett, editor of the Washington Post, wired McLean, January 3, "that Major and I saw Curtis, who advised us to see Underwood, but he hinted that we would get nothing from Walsh."

The message spoke of Walsh's assumption that he would be swayed from his purpose to call McLean, Bennett advised against McLean showing any reluctance to testify, saying it might give Walsh an excuse to make trouble.

A telegram signed "John" said "Willis saw party this morning." Willis reported "the party in friendly mood."

The first code message was signed by "John" and mentioned he had an appointment with Eved, who "expects something."

E. S. Rochester, employed in the department of justice, wired McLean on January 16, that "I have been informed that the Senate committee is investigating to determine whether you had $100,000 in banks at the time you said you wrote the checks. Thought they had better advise you."

Palmer and see if he can and will represent me if called upon." Another wire advised Major to "keep all my telegrams in your possession," and to tell Palmer "I have no information that in any conceivable way is related to the investigation."

McLean, on December 26, told Major to notify E. W. Starling, White House secret service man, to have "Wilkins" report at once to Palm Beach. Wilkins is a bodyguard for McLean's children.

On January 25, Major wired: "Willis in full possession of matters. After battle of wits between Lambert and myself this was accomplished. In this wire Major advised not to acquaint Duck (Duckstein) with new secret code."

TEACHERS READY TO PRESENT BIG FACULTY FROLIC

Vaudeville Show at Local High School to Take Place on Friday

Surprises aplenty are promised at the second annual "Faculty Frolic," vaudeville show de luxe, to be presented at the Broadway High school auditorium at 8:15 o'clock Friday night, February 29, by the Glendale Union High school teachers, for their own delectation and that of the student body and Glendale in general.

Reversing the usual custom of pupils performing for their teachers, the faculty, cognizant no doubt that advances in a Leap Year party should come from the other side, will forego horn-rimmed dignity and classroom decorum for black-face hilarity and backstage caprice.

Deep, Dark Secret
One of the surprises promised by Harold L. Brewster, general director of the Faculty Frolic, is a black-face act that is said to be a dark secret. Other startling jazz innovations are promised by Park L. Turrill, general manager, in co-conspiracy with Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, musical director.

The play is to be given for the benefit of the scholarship fund and will present the very best talent the faculty affords, declares Mr. Brewster, who says that nothing like it will be seen again until February 29, 1928. Reservations for tickets may be made at Roberts & Echols drug store, 102 East Broadway. The states, or tickets may be obtained by getting in touch with anyone connected with the performance.

Numbers on Program
The program will open with an overture by the Glendale Union High school orchestra, Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, director. The next number will be a dramatic sketch in one scene, namely: a kitchen in the home of an English madame, the time a decade or so back. The name of the sketch is "Penelope" and the cast comprises Miss Aileen Renison, Harold L. Butterfield, Park L. Turrill, Ruford W. Blair and Mrs. Charles Parker. Next comes "The Proposal," a tense thing of high values, lending a special significance to Leap Year day. Miss Margaret Miller. (Continued on Page 4)

Frat Candidates Shine Shoes for Students, Faculty

Occidental College student body and faculty received free shoe shines yesterday when nine of the pledges in one of the local fraternities on the campus turned boot-blacks for the day. As an everlasting memory of their lowliness and insignificance as neophytes, these boys were compelled by their fraternity brothers to carry rags, shoe blacking, brushes, whisk brooms, boxes, and other equipment pertaining to that trade with them to all classes during the day shining the shoes of the Oxy students and professors. Some of the future members of that particular frat seemed to have had previous experience. Their ability to clean shoes will long be remembered, and when the new arrivals again these shiners will be given a job.

Jas. W. Pearson Party Returns From Valley

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pearson of 700 North Louise street, and Dr. Caroline Paine of 515 North Newwood street, returned yesterday from a three-day trip to the Imperial valley, visiting with Mr. Pearson's brothers, Isaac and Guy, who are not only interested in Brawley property but are shippers of early vegetables.

"A great opportunity exists in the Imperial valley today for people who want work," said Mr. Pearson on his return. "The Japanese and Hindus are leaving the valley and the fertile lands there should be farmed by Americans. It was my first visit to the hot house of California and it was a revelation."
"However, Glendale looks good after being away. At the threshold of Los Angeles it is within the magic circle of development which is so wonderful our appreciation fails to comprehend the prosperity we are enjoying."
Mr. Pearson is a realtor with offices at 715 South Brand boulevard.

SHEEP SHEARERS BUSY

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Feb. 28.—Sheep shearing in the lower San Joaquin valley will begin March 1, according to an announcement by J. B. Carr of the Sheep Shearers' organization. Half a million sheep are ready for the clippers and the price agreed upon is 15 cents per head. A good shearer can turn in 100 fleeces daily.

NURSES MOVE TO THEIR ROOMS AT NEW SANITARIUM

Separate Building Is Great Need for Them; Workmen Completing Details

The first move toward occupying the new Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital was completed this morning when the last of the nurses left their old home on Jackson street and located in the new structures. All day yesterday this morning large automobile trucks hauled the trunks, furniture and other belongings of the nurses, and today they are getting acquainted with their new surroundings.

They will be located in the new building until some plan can be devised whereby a separate building can be constructed for their accommodation. The management appreciates the fact that these young women who are so absolutely necessary to the success of the institution ought to have a separate building in which to live, but cannot relieve the situation at present.

Need Nurses' Home
The fact that they are occupying rooms in the main structure will also cut off just that many rooms that could be utilized by patients. The improvements have already cost considerably more than the management at first anticipated, but they intend to make their nurses as comfortable as possible, even though their rooms could be utilized for other purposes.

The fact that the nurses have been moved into the new building indicates that the management is bending every energy to complete it as soon as possible. Large forces of men are working in the treatment rooms in order to have them ready when the patients are removed from the old sanitarium. The plastering has been finished, and bricklayers are walling up the partitions that will separate the bathing feature from those sections that will be used for other kinds of treatments. Men are also busy smoothing off the terrazzo floors, and when this work is completed the plumbers will put the finishing touches to these rooms by installing the fixtures.

Workmen Are Busy
As soon as the lighting and radio fixtures have been installed the rooms will be completed for occupancy. Carpet layers are working earnestly every day doing their part toward finishing the rooms. (Continued on Page 4)

HOO-RAY—AT LAST HERE'S SPOT NEWS THAT DOESN'T SMELL OF "OIL"!

Fire Lookout Station Atop Mount Verdugo Suggested As Safety Measure By Fred Deal

Fred Deal, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company here and director of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, makes a suggestion which is worthy of consideration at this time. He would have a fire lookout station placed at the top of Mount Verdugo from which an observer could easily locate brush blazes in the Glendale, Montrose, La Crescenta, Tujunga, Sunland and Burbank districts.

The idea is already being used in the national forest reserves successfully, not only in expeditiously reporting fires, but in directing the efforts of firefighters in case of a conflagration. The county forester, Stuart J. Flintham, could be called upon to provide the ranger locally, it is believed.

Dry Year Ahead
And with a ranger on active duty it would be practically impossible for a blaze to gain much headway before a force of men could be assembled to give battle. Because of the prospects of a dry year, Mr. Deal believes Glendale should take particular pains to protect itself in view of the fact that another Berkeley blaze is entirely possible here if houses in the Casa Verdugo district, which has inadequate fire protection, should ignite. This particular section is outside of the Glendale city limits.

Mr. Deal states that the Standard Oil company has built a lookout station on Oak mountain in the vicinity of Newhall and strung a telephone line to the cabin. The forestry department also is stringing a line throughout Bouquet canyon west of Palmdale, which will connect with the Glendale district lines of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company. A telephone line over the Beaudry mountains, as Mount Verdugo is officially shown on local maps, would prove of great value, it is believed, but due to the local ownership of the Sunland exchange the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has no need for one. Therefore the duty will fall on some civic or governmental group.

M. G. BARR WILL OPEN STORE HERE

Men's and Women's Ready to Wear Establishment Is Being Prepared

"California lured me west and the business prosperity of Glendale inspired me in my business venture here," said M. G. Barr, who with Mrs. Barr, is completing plans for opening a men's and women's ready to wear shop at 124 North Brand boulevard. The Barrs are having the store room beautifully redecorated in smoke gray and are hoping that everything will be ready for opening Saturday.

Mr. Barr is to have charge of the men's furnishings, which will be the feature of the new store, and will include the very smartest. Women's ready to wear, coats, dresses and evening gowns, will be found in Mrs. Barr's department.

Credit System
Everything will be sold on a credit system. Both Mr. and Mrs. Barr have had wide experience. Mr. Barr has been in the ready to wear business for over eighteen years, and Mrs. Barr is well qualified to head her department. "If our business is as successful as we anticipate," says Mr. Barr, "we hope to open a manufacturing plant in Glendale." The calabash, a household heating utensil of the native Hawaiians, was carved out of wood with stone tools and the making required much skill.

DAN CAMPBELL IS REAL 'SOURDOUGH'

Banker Here Got Financial Start In Alaskan Gold Mines

By GIL A. COWAN
Where did you get your start? That is a pertinent question to ask a business man, a banker. By some it might be considered unfair while others would feign to state how they got going in the financial world.

Dan Campbell, president of the Community Savings bank, which soon will enter his new home at the corner of San Fernando road and Brand boulevard, has been associated with banking institutions here for nearly eighteen years. Indeed, his story might be written in chapters and published in book form, but the highlights of his career are only to be told here. So we will skip the first four or five chapters about a boy on the farm in Ireland and start with young Dan Campbell on his trek to Alaska in 1896 at the age of 22.

In company with a young Swede he arrived at the gold mines in the vicinity of Forty Mile post, north of the Arctic circle. They had 50 cents apiece and six months' provisions. In six years Campbell had his stake and left the north, prior to the Klondike rush.

Coming to Southern California he established himself in the storage business with his "sourdough" profits and as an avocation he planted an orange grove in the Glendale foothills. He thought agriculture more profitable than warehousing, so he devoted most of his time to the local property. Elected by the board of directors of the old First National bank as vice-president, he considered it an honorary position until the panic of 1907. The morning they were to issue "scrip," L. C. Brand, president of the institution, who had troubles of his own in Los Angeles in that financial crisis, suggested that Dan go down to the Glendale bank and assure any timid customers that the "scrip" was all right.

From that time on he was no longer a "figurehead," unless all bankers may be so dubbed. He has been associated with three local banking institutions here, and in another few weeks he will be sailing back to Ireland for a visit, just to see the old farm and renew in his mind the scenes of childhood. Mrs. Campbell will accompany him on the trip.

SECURED RELIEF THROUGH FOLEY PILLS

John R. Gordon, Danville, Ill., writes: "I have suffered with kidney trouble five years; could not sleep at night and was always tired. I was not strong and hard work made my back ache. I got some FOLEY PILLS and after a few treatments I felt better and could work with more ease, became stronger and could sleep better." Glendale will be the meeting place tomorrow for W. C. T. U. supporters from all parts of the southland, to participate in the state jubilee conference to be held in the Central Christian church at 305 East Colorado street. There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions, with educational programs given by well known speakers. Mrs. Eva Craven Wheeler, president, and Mrs. Clara Sheldon, treasurer of the California W. C. T. U. are to be honored guests and speakers. Other speakers will be Dr. John Welcorn of 1136 East Colorado street on "Dope"; Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the First Congregational church, on "International Relations"; Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., chairman of the Glendale Red Cross, and prominent club and Parent-Teacher association worker, on "Women Clubs in Co-operation with the W. C. T. U."

All-Day Session
The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Wheeler presiding, and after the noon luncheon the afternoon meeting will begin at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Wheeler will be the speaker at the feature meeting at 7:30 o'clock at night. Her subject will be "A Million for Defense," illustrated with pictures and tableaux. Mrs. Sheldon is to speak in the afternoon on "Law Enforcement." Devotions are to be led by Mrs. Marie Yeomans. Prayers will be offered by Rev. A. B. Smart and Rev. Clifford A. Cole. Vocal numbers by Mrs. Viva Lee Weidman and Mrs. Bertha Smart Ireland. (Continued on Page 4)

LEADERSHIP BIG NEED, CLAIM OF SCOUT OFFICIAL

Executive Tells of Benefits Training School Will Give Assistants

That hundreds of Glendale boys are desirous of Boy Scout training if the leaders can be found, was the announcement made yesterday by Harvey R. Cheesman, local Scout executive, when he addressed a meeting of the organization and training committees at the Egyptian Village, on the coming training school for Boy Scout leaders March 6, 7 and 8 at the Harvard High school.

Naturally, Scouting has first place in Mr. Cheesman's interests, but right at present he is unusually busy carrying out preliminary plans for developing the biggest program the Verdugo Hills council has ever sponsored. Leadership Need
With a view to providing every boy in Glendale, desirous of becoming a Scout, with such an opportunity, Mr. Cheesman has brought the need of leadership to his assistants. In addition to this, he has presented the need to local luncheon clubs, Parent-Teacher associations, schools and other organizations, and plans for the coming training school have received hearty endorsement.

At the luncheon meeting yesterday C. W. McFadden reported that he was confident the Scouts would sponsor a troop of Scouts. Like reports were given by William Hunter of the Rotary club, Lyman Clark of the Kiwanis club and D. Ripley Jackson of the Exchange club. Every man present pledged himself to attend the training institute and to interest as many others as possible. Lyman Clark Presides

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Keys to the Cabinet"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENCE

F. H.—We have a list of books on diet for children which you may have by sending the self-addressed, stamped envelope (the s. a. s. e.).

I. H.—The chin supports you can find in the toilet department of department stores. Undoubtedly, since you have had your obstructive adenoids and tonsils and enlarged bones in the nose removed and can breathe through your nose in the daytime, the mouth-breathing is simply habit at night and the chin supporters will help you overcome the habit.

E. S.—Chronic bronchitis is sometimes due to dietetic errors. Have you been following our articles on the normal diet? It is possible that your work as a painter does aggravate your trouble. You had better see a physician about it.

Mrs. B.—We have an article on goiter which you may have. You say you live in the goiter belt and all your children have signs of goiter. Simple goiter is due to a deficiency of iodine in the system. In quite a number of cities in Ohio the school children, with their parents' permission, are receiving a tablet containing a very tiny dose of organic iodine once a week. This tablet is very effective both in the prevention of simple goiter and in curing it. If your physician does not know of it, have him write to me on his official stationery and I will give him the name. Apparently you are feeding your children correctly.

The foods which are high in iodine are as follows, in the order they appear: sea fish, turnips, melons, lettuce, beets, tomatoes, French beans, green peas, radishes, carrots, parsley, potatoes.

Of course, in the goiter region it may be possible that the vegetables grown there are deficient in iodine, because there may be a deficiency of iodine in the water and in the soil. That may be why the iodine has to be supplied medically. Cod liver oil is very high in iodine. The children might have some of that. But see your physician about it.

"Dear Doctor: My mother-in-law, who is seventy-one years of age, is about seventy-five pounds overweight. She is so heavy that walking, except in the house, is out of the question. Her knees make a crunching and groaning noise when she goes upstairs. She is the dearest, most contented old lady, always with a smile, and she has been so kind to every one all her life that I will be happy to do something to help her.—Mrs. W."

As you enclosed the required stamped, self-addressed envelope, and four cents in stamps, you must have the pamphlet by this time and no doubt the dear moth-

Mother-in-Law May Figure in Proceedings

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet, Newport society leader, has been adamant in her prejudices against the wife of her son, Robert Goelet, since he married the Princess Fernanda Ribouchinsky as a result of a wartime romance. Now Mrs. Robert Goelet has filed suit for a divorce and the prejudices of the Dowager Mrs. Goelet are reported to have an important bearing on the suit. Robert Goelet's wife, who is the mother of his son, Robert, Jr., is called by sculptors one of the world's most beautiful women. She is Italian born.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

A PROBLEM OF LOVE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 20 years old and deeply in love with a fellow six years my senior. I don't know whether he cares for me or not. He knows I love him for he asked me once if I did.

He said he liked me, but he acts so funny at times. He seems to think a great deal of me when he is with me. I have gone with him for almost a year, but lately we haven't been together very much.

He lives in another town and doesn't come very often. Do you think if he cared for me he would come often? He hardly ever goes with any other girl. I try not to think of him but he is forever in my mind. I just can't forget him.

I have been out of town. Would it be all right for me to write to him or should I let him write. I would like to hear from him. He writes such nice, friendly letters.

LONESOME AND BLUE

Don't think that because a girl is popular she is bad. A man with self-respect does not care to be seen with a girl whose reputation is bad. When a girl is popular it usually means that she is interesting, kindly and adaptable. You girls are very young and have no reason to be worried because you are not sought by boys. There is still time. I think, however, that you must learn to be more tolerant and kindly. Do not condemn other people from sour grapes.

ARCHIE—Since you are meeting the boy away from home, it seems to me it would be preferable for your parents to let him come to your home to call for you. It is most unfortunate that you cannot entertain in your home. If the young man loves you he will say so. There is really no way for you to find out whether or not he loves you unless he chooses to disclose the fact. If, however, he likes to be with you and seeks your company, you may be sure he cares for you.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young man 28 years old and

SOME ANSWERS

DOUBT—Personally, I do not believe bobbed hair will ever go out of style, unless the time comes that women cut their hair even shorter. It would seem incredible to think of men wearing long hair again, and the women who have enjoyed short hair say that they will never return to long hair again. I can hardly advise you to write to him first.

If you realized that the man was losing interest in you, it would have been wiser to keep your picture. It is a mistake to do everything he wants you to and to show too plainly how much you care for him.

"Butter Dumplings": Rub one heaping tablespoon of butter into one cup of flour which has been sifted with a little salt and one-half teaspoon of baking powder. Add only just enough water to form a dough which you can handle. Flour the hands and break this dough into small pieces; roll each little piece into a round dumpling and drop it into the pot. Keep pot cover on for about 12 minutes.

BEAUTY CHATS

THE OVER-WORKED WOMAN

For all our modern conveniences I believe there are as many overworked women in the world today as there were a century and a half ago, when the light came from hand-dipped candles instead of from an electric light push-button, and the men's clothes as well as the women's were worn and made at home. I am sure that women do as much work nowadays though it may be a different kind of work, and this talk today is for the frankly overworked woman.

She hasn't much time; in fact, she hasn't any time to spend in beautifying herself, but if she finds these hints valuable and easy to follow, she should make up at some time and keep in her bathroom or kitchen a bottle containing one-third lemon juice, one-third glycerine and one-third rosewater. If she can't afford rosewater, plain boiled water will do. When she washes her hands at the end of her work a little of this rubbed into the palms of the hands will keep the skin from getting yellow and horny.

Sweeping and dusting and bending over steaming kettles on the stove will ruin the hair, but it takes no extra time to cover the head with a cap. If it is an ugly cap it will make the woman herself look ugly; if it is a nice-looking cap, it won't. I don't mean by nice-looking, something full of frills and lace, which is out of place on a woman doing housework. I mean something in plain dark material with an elastic in back to make it fit snugly to the head, and perhaps a cuff turning back from the face for becomingness.

Housework is hard on the complexion, but it takes less than one minute by the clock to rub cold cream or olive oil or lard into the skin and off again with a bit of old cloth, leaving the skin clean and soft. It takes no time to rub oil or lard into the hands just before washing them.

Discouraged M. H.—If your hollow cheeks are the result of poor health, you can fill them out best building yourself up. A fresh building massage cream would help, of course, but the real answer is to improve your health. You possibly need a fattening diet.

Betty Jane—Never mind about the plump neck and arms now, as you are still very young and undeveloped. If you take good care of yourself, after a few years of growth you will be in correct proportion, and likely with very good lines.

You can wear brown, grey and blue very well. If you want to create an effect of color in the cheeks, try flesh pinks and rose.

James—Have the doctor remove the wart on your neck. Tomorrow—Spring Tonics.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

have been writing to a young woman whom I met on Christmas day. She went out of town and said that she would write to me. I am so lonesome without her that I don't know what to do with myself. I want to make this young woman my wife, but she thinks I am not in love with her. She wrote me that I was just infatuated, but I assured her I was not.

Would you advise me to wait for this young woman? I am so lonesome without her company would you advise me to have a good time with some one else?

E. L. C.

Since the girl does not take you seriously, I would advise you to go with others and have a good time in her absence. Do not talk of love for a while. Simply show that you know how to be a good loyal friend. After you have known each other a longer time she will be more apt to realize that you are not merely infatuated.

Says Ordinary Buttermilk Best For Freckles, Sunburn and Tan

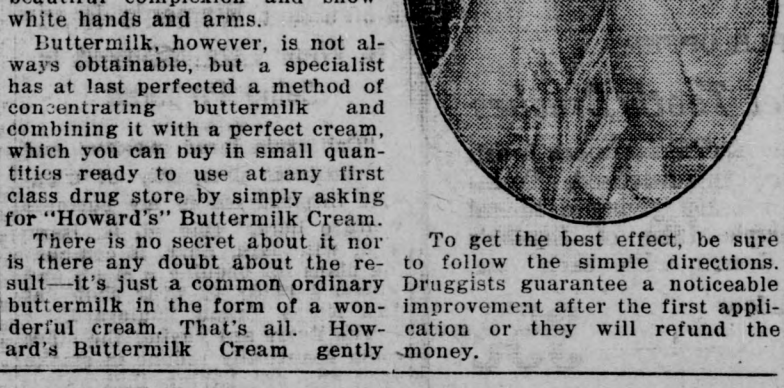

Advises Old Time Recipe of Buttermilk Cream in a New Way—
"A Gentle Massage with Fingers Before Retiring is All That Is Necessary."

Buttermilk and Cream—Simple Remedies Best—Keeps Face Hands and Arms in Excellent Condition—Soft, Smooth and Beautiful

The old-time application of Buttermilk and Cream to whiten and preserve the skin and remove harsh little wrinkles and ugly sallowness is grandmother's recipe and women throughout the country are again using it to ensure a beautiful complexion and snow-white hands and arms.

Buttermilk, however, is not always obtainable, but a specialist has at last perfected a method of concentrating buttermilk and combining it with a perfect cream, which you can buy in small quantities ready to use at any first class drug store by simply asking for "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream.

There is no secret about it nor is there any doubt about the result—it's just a common ordinary buttermilk in the form of a wonderful cream. That's all. Howard's Buttermilk Cream gently

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad

By GEORGE T. HOOK For International News Service

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Full many a flower wastes its sweetness on the desert air, and, "Ah, there's a real woman for you!" were the laudatory expressions of the "scofflaw" element of this dry-cleaned city that greeted the prohibition slugging statements here of Mrs. John Philip Altbarger, of Cody, Wyoming, a grandmother, college graduate and former Philadelphian, and, by the way, a total abstainer.

and plenty of liquor, and strangers will agree with us that prohibition on there can never be anything but funny. We stand for dry agents until they start buying liquor from people they are friendly with and squeal on them; then they have to scoot!"

"Show or shut up!" is the new convict code of the Eastern State penitentiary here that is proving the scourge of "bull-throwing" bullies. The "show" is a good old-fashioned "stand-up and knock-down" fight before assembled convicts, who stand by to see that fair play is administered to the battlers.

The rule has the sanction of Warden Groome and his deputies and so far has proved efficacious in decreasing serious rows among the "pen" inmates. It has served also to eliminate prison bullies almost entirely, cuttings and minor quarrels have been reduced to a minimum, and half a dozen of the bullies have had their yellow streaks exposed to the jibes of the other convicts. At the same time the bouts furnish red-blooded entertainment and break the monotony of prison life.

An "important bout" took place behind the prison walls the other night when Frank Costello, a New York gunman, was forced to "show the streak." Displeased by an aged "lifer" on the rock pile, Costello struck the old man a crushing blow in the temple. A negro present at the time took the "lifer's" part and invited Costello to fistie combat. He went at it, but Costello, handling his pistols and blackjacks in settling his quarrels, "took water" and quit cold amid the jeers of fellow convicts.

"It's the only way," said Deputy Warden Herbert Smith, "last year they had at least three fatal brawls and sixty or more serious cutting affrays. But that's at an end now. Instead of knife one another they send a note with one of the keepers to the prison headquarters. They explain their differences, too, and ask that a bout be arranged at the earliest possible date. We do the rest."

A stag affair semblance is usually lent the bouts by following them up with "smokes."

On the Spur of the Moment

By ROY K. MOULTON

'Tis noontime, and we sallie forth. To snatch a brief respite; A moment from our weary toil, In which to eat a bite. An old familiar pat we take— Amid the hurrying bunch; A-heeding nothing, 'till we halt Within the one arm lurch. Then hungrily we snatch a check From out the doorman's hand, And to the counter maddly dash, And take our patient stand. The motley throng that's gathered there Is but five deep or more, And cheerfully we wait our chance To move up to the fore. At last we near the foremost row But with a mighty heave, The gent in front of us steps back, His pie adorns our sleeve. Then to our left he deftly steps, More trouble to avert; More customers close in— His coffee's on our shirt. And now we ask respectfully For a plain and simple dish— An omelet—and we receive

A portion of fried fish. We murmur "milk" and we get tea But with courageous heart, We turn and face the multitude, And for a chair we start. After but colliding twice, A vacant chair we win; We spread our stuff upon the arm, Then carefully back in, A slight miscalculation here, For as we fill the gap, Our coat the next man's soup surrounds, And drags it to our lap. At last we settle snugly down, Our foot no longer hot; But napkin, salt and knife and fork Are some things we've forgot. So we must needs arise again, And with each move we make, We haplessly contrive to leave Disaster in our wake. At last we slowly stagger out, In a sad and hopeless mood; A lunch we've eaten, it is true— But our stomach craves for food!

Th Brotherhood of Man and Universal Peace seem to be getting along rapidly and doing great teamwork. The papers continue to prove it. Monday—America scraps another battleship. France invents a gun that will shoot 200 miles. Tuesday—Japan launches new battleship. American blows up one battleship. France completes new airplane fleet. Wednesday—America blows up a cruiser. England announces two new world-beating dreadnoughts for 1925. Japan starts new navy shipyard. Thursday—America hauls battleship to Philadelphia to be dismantled. France launches nine new destroyers and a battle cruiser. England lays down twelve new long distance submarines. Friday—America dismantles one battleship and a cruiser. England launches new type dreadnought. Japan accepts plans for new airplane fleet. Saturday—America scraps one battleship, two mine layers and twelve destroyers. England announces three battleships for 1926. France invents new explosive. Japan appropriates a hundred millions for new battleships. Sunday—A day off. In Japan nowadays they don't count any disturbance a real earthquake so long as they can stand on their feet.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE HEAVY CAN There, it is all ready for you," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy in the hollow stump bungalow one morning. "I said, 'What's that?' All ready? What do you mean?" asked Uncle Wiggily, who was reading in the dining room, while Nurse Jane was out in the kitchen. "Are you telling the Wozzie Wolf that my ears are all ready for him to nibble?" cried the bunny, looking for a place where he might hide. "How silly! As if I would tell the Wolf anything like that!" laughed the muskrat lady house-keeper. "I mean that the can is all ready for you to carry over to Aunt Lettie, the goat lady."

"The can? What can? I don't understand," said the rabbit gentleman. "Oh, I forgot to tell you, but Aunt Lettie has no milk this cold morning," went on Nurse Jane. "She telephoned over and asked me if I could spare any for her. As it happened, I have more than I need, so when you go out will you please leave this can of milk for Aunt Lettie?"

"I shall be very happy to do that," said the rabbit uncle. "Is the can very heavy to carry?"

"Oh, not at all heavy," answered Nurse Jane. "True, it is full of milk, but— 'Oh, ho! If that's all it is, I can easily carry that!' said the bunny. 'I thought you might mean one of those big, heavy cans of milk that I have seen on the milk wagons.' 'No this is only a quart can,' went on Nurse Jane. 'Even Baby Buntly, if she were here, could lift it.' A little later Uncle Wiggily was on his way over the fields and through the woods. On one paw he carried the tin can of milk for the goat lady. The can held about a quart of milk, and the rabbit gentleman did not find it at all heavy. "But the can is quite full," Nurse Jane warned Uncle Wiggily as he started off. "Be careful none of the milk slops over the top."

"I'll be careful," promised the rabbit. So along he hopped, but the further he went the colder it seemed to get. In fact it was a very cold day. Every time Uncle Wiggily breathed out, his breath seemed to freeze into fog in the air, and he looked like a steam rabbit hopping along. Then he happened to notice some white drops like pearls, near the top of the can of milk. At first the rabbit did not know what they were. But, on looking closer, Mr. Longears saw that a little of the milk had spilled over the top of the can. Running down a little way on the outside, the milk had frozen there. "And no wonder! For it is very cold," said the rabbit. "The milk freezes as soon as it spills outside the can. I must hurry and hop to Aunt Lettie's or the whole can of milk will be frozen into ice." "Well, Uncle Wiggily was hopping along, twinkling his pink nose as fast as he could to keep it from freezing, and he was thinking that it was so cold he wouldn't have any adventure that day. However, all of a sudden, just as Uncle Wiggily was about half a mile from Aunt Lettie's house, there suddenly popped out in front of him the bad Bob Cat with his silly little tail. "Hello!" snarled the Bob Cat. "Where are you going?" "I'm going to Aunt Lettie's house with this can," spoke the bunny gentleman. "What is in the can?" asked the Bob Cat. "Milk," answered the bunny gentleman. "Well, set your can of milk down on this log," ordered the Bob Cat, "and then hold your head still until I bite your ears!" "Oh," cried Uncle Wiggily, and he was so nervous (and no wonder, I say) that his paws trembled as he set the can of milk down on a flat log. And, as he did so, some milk spilled over the top.

under the cover and ran off the log. And as soon as the milk ran out and ran down it froze into ice and froze the can fast to the log. Uncle Wiggily saw this at once. Then the idea of playing a trick on the Bob Cat came into his mind. "Now I'm going to nibble your ears!" snarled the bad chap, as

Our Defense at Panama

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN For International News Service

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is the fourth of a series of articles relating to the Panama Canal in the scheme of national defense.

COLON, Panama, Feb. 23.—The Panama Canal, vital link in America's system of national defense, is, in the opinion of army and navy authorities, underequipped, undermanned and its auxiliary accessories are insufficient. The 5-5-3 ratio for which the United States put up a fight at the conference table, is in effect threatened and the activity of our "two billion dollar navy" decreased as a consequence, it is contended by these authorities.

To really be a first-class sea power the United States must have, they point out, a navy that can at all times operate as a strictly defensive weapon. Therefore, it is a prime requisite that the forces assigned to the defense of the canal be able to carry out this defense without assistance from the navy.

The 48-mile defile running across the isthmus, from one ocean to the other, is an important link in our defense system, as it makes it possible for the Atlantic and Pacific fleets to form a junction whenever such a contingency arises. Failure on America's part to properly defend the canal, army and navy men say, would mean:

- 1.—That the fleet would be split in two.
- 2.—That our "two billion dollar navy" would be reduced to the status of a second-class power.
- 3.—That American commerce in either ocean might be threatened or destroyed without the navy being able to prevent it.
- 4.—That from a diplomatic standpoint our fleet would be cut in half, foreign powers readily recognizing "the dilemma of the isthmus."

This year's maneuvers just finished—mostly on the Atlantic side of the canal—brought out the weakness stated in the first paragraph of this article. Last year's maneuvers, on the Pacific side, revealed the same matter of a defective defense of the sea coast, the same shortage of infantry and field artillery, a defective air force and revealed the weakness of the mobile forces even more than on the Atlantic side this year, as it is easier for an expeditionary force to land on the Pacific side because there is more even terrain, easier to maneuver over and less jungle.

On the Atlantic side of the canal are Forts Randolph, Sherman and DeLesseppe and a naval base called Coco Solo, which is close to the harbor of Colon. The primary armament of Fort Randolph comprises two six-inch guns, two 14-inch guns (these will carry 23,000 yards, or about 15 miles) and eight 12-inch mortars. Fort Sherman has two 14-inch guns capable of 23,000 yards, eight 12-inch mortars with a range of 19,500 yards, and two 6-inch guns for protecting mine fields. Fort DeLesseppe has two 6-inch guns, also for protecting mine fields.

At the important Gatun locks, ten miles inland from the Atlantic side, is Fort Davis, further west Camp Gaillard, Fort Clayton, a supply base at Corozal, and Fort Amador, which is an infantry post.

On the Pacific side of the canal are located the famous fortified islands—Naos, Perico and Flamenco. These islands are sometimes referred to as the "Gibraltar of America." Also, on the western extremity is located Fort Amador, a garrison for the coast defense of Balboa. Flamenco Island has four 14-inch guns, Perico one 16-inch gun, which army men say is out of date, and Naos boasts a dozen 12-inch mortars.

Arrested on Charge Of Violating Parole

Ernest Huseman, aged 20, 484 San Fernando road, was arrested by Detective Sergeant Blake and Officer McGuire last night and turned over to Louis M. Corbell, deputy state parole officer, of Los Angeles, on a charge of violating his parole.

According to information received by the police, Huseman had been paying attention to a girl under age, in the neighborhood of Gilbert and San Rafael streets, where the arrest was made.

PREFERENTIAL RATES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Preferential rates for American shippers who use American ships have been ordered by the United States shipping board. The lower rates are effective on all commodities except grain. The new policy is designed by officers of the board to build up the American merchant marine. Lower rates for American users of American ships were provided by the merchant marine act of 1920 but were never put into effect.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Submarines could not use Mare island as a San Francisco base because of its distance from the Golden Gate and the fogs prevailing in the upper San Francisco bay, Commander H. M. Bemis, in charge of naval operations, yesterday told the house naval affairs committee. He advocated the location of a naval base at Alameda because of its proximity to the entrance of San Francisco bay.

floors of the rooms on the second and third floors. The painters are fast finishing their work on these floors, and the larger majority of the brush welders have removed to the first floor.

During the past few days the committee on fixing rates has been engaged working on this problem. It was announced by different members of the committee that the rates would be arranged in such a manner as to permit anyone of moderate means to enjoy stay in the institution. Treatments will be included with the price of the rooms. There will be other rooms that will be arranged for men and women who will be able to pay higher prices.

Business Manager C. E. Kimlin says he is as anxious to get the building ready for patients as anyone because his mail is piling up, and many persons in different sections of the country are anxious to get started toward the institution for treatments.

There are traveling men living in first-class hotels in large cities who are anxious to come to the sanitarium, according to some of the letters that Mr. Kimlin has received. They say they are acquainted with the methods that are to be followed in the institution, having been patients in Battle Creek and other cities where this system is in vogue, and the added attractions in the climate and the natural surroundings make them more than ordinarily interested in coming as soon as possible.

The patients in the old building were entertained by students of the Glendale Academy, who depicted the pardon of a soldier by Abraham Lincoln after he had been sentenced to death for sleeping while doing sentry duty. The parts were well played by the students, and the patients applauded vigorously. Ezra Richards played the part of Lincoln. Others in the cast were Herbert Seis, as the preacher; James Barnard, the farmer who was also the father of the soldier to be shot; Genevieve Anderson, the daughter; Howard Smith, as Benny, the soldier convicted of sleeping on duty; Leland Loveland, Fred Aycock, Don Trembly, Fred Mitchell, Marion Barnard and Loren Rosenfeld, Genevieve and Iola Anderson.

"A WORLD BEATER"
"FOLEY'S Cough Medicine is a 'World Beater' for speedy relief," writes Hilton A. Lyre, 206 Evans Avenue, Evansville, Ind. "Last month I was down with a severe cold, and getting worse. I bought a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND, and the next night was well and O. K." If you want a quick, reliable remedy for coughs, colds and hoarseness insist upon FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. It has all the curative qualities of pine tar and honey. DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.
