

CELEBRATION AT MORRIS GROVE.

The celebration at Morris Grove was a grand affair, drawing thousands of people from all over the country. The program included speeches, music, and a large picnic. The speakers were highly praised for their eloquence and passion for the cause.

CELEBRATION AT ABINGTON.

The anniversary of British West India Emancipation was celebrated in Abington with a series of lectures and a large gathering. The speakers discussed the impact of emancipation and the ongoing struggle for equality.

CELEBRATION AT HOPEWELL.

The celebration at Hopewell was held in a grand hall and featured a variety of entertainment and speeches. The atmosphere was festive and the cause was well-represented.

CELEBRATION AT NEW BEDFORD.

The celebration at New Bedford was a significant event, with many people attending to support the anti-slavery cause. The program was well-organized and the speakers were highly regarded.

WENDELL PHILLIPS AT COLLEGE.

Wendell Phillips visited a college and gave a powerful speech to a group of students. His words inspired many and sparked a discussion on the moral implications of slavery.

CHILDREN'S CELEBRATION AT LONGWOOD, PA.

A special celebration for children was held at Longwood, Pennsylvania. The event was designed to educate young people about the anti-slavery cause and to inspire them to take action.

which the children presented their friends to Judge Cook's words, where they died pious-faith in groups. Such a dinner, and such a joyous company, are not often seen. The clouds giving signs of rain, all hastily retired to the shelter of the hall. The arguments were most beautiful and varied, and a few of the children made some very pretty songs. All the juveniles were as merry as larks, and those who were no longer children felt themselves young again.

The rain, it is thought, would entirely defeat the plan for visiting George Peck's beautiful Park, but a number ventured a walk into its green valley, and thus closed an occasion rare and unimagined delight to us all.

At BAXFORD, Mr. William Wells Brown delivered an eloquent address, in the evening, in the City Hall. The Bazaar 'Wells and Currier gives a very interesting passage through the week, which want of room prevents us from copying.

At BOSTON, Mr. Hale, about 4,000 people gathered to listen to addresses by John P. Hale, Joshua R. Siddings, George Morrill and others.

KANSAS MATTERS. The removal of Gov. Reeder has excited a deep feeling of indignation throughout the North. The presence of alleged speculations in land, and the fact that the President had not yet removed him, has excited a deep feeling of indignation throughout the North.

It is a great pity that the President has not yet removed Reeder. His removal would be a great step towards the establishment of a more just and equitable government in Kansas.

pend upon it will stand it out in a fashion that will do credit to the best age of martyrdom. He is absolutely unconquerable.

Judge Kane will get tired of playing jailor to him. Passmore will neither break nor bend; and Heaven! what a cheer the devil has made of a foe! Sevastopol to the allies in nothing it is.

At the Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society, held in this city in 1855, it was determined to revive the custom of an Annual Report, which, owing to various causes, had been unfortunately interrupted for a series of years.

The Annual Report of the Executive Committee, prepared by the Executive Committee, was presented to the Annual Meeting held in New York, in the month of May, 1855, and coming down to the present time, it is a most interesting and valuable document.

We reveal no secret when we say that this Report is to the same profoundly able and eminently skillful pen to which the same is so deeply indebted for all the later reports of the Executive Committee. We mean, of course, the pen of Edward Everett.

Our Philadelphia Correspondent.

PHILADELPHIA, August 6. PASSMORE WILLIAMSON is still in prison; how long he will remain will depend, for aught that appears, on the decision of the petty depot that sent him there. The progress of this outrage cannot easily be exaggerated. The more it looks at, and the better it is understood, the more infamous does it appear.

There is a strong reaction in the public mind since the appearance of James Johnson's deposition before Judge Kane. Mr. Kane and Mr. Williamson, that is to make Mr. Williamson's deposition, is a most interesting and valuable document. It is a most interesting and valuable document.
