PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR FLOWER SHOW

Special News For Rose Growers

This week we are able to announce, on Page 2 the complete list of classes of exhibits that will be shown at the Third Annual Narberth Flower Show, to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building, Saturday, June 9.

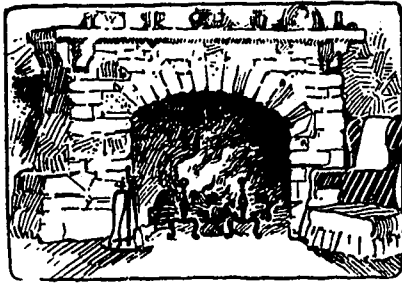

There are thirty-four classes and three special classes.

Rose growers will be especially interested in the new arrangement of classes for individual blooms. See the specifications for Classes 1, 2, 3 and 4. Only one rose of each variety may be shown. An exhibitor may enter as many varieties in each or all of the first four classes, as he or she chooses. For instance, in Class 2 for the best individual pink rose, an exhibitor may show one Killarney, one La France and one John Laing, etc., but not two blooms of the same variety.

This new arrangement will be welcomed by all rose growers and will undoubtedly result in the showing of the finest individual blooms ever seen in Narberth. So all the rose fanciers are urged to pick the very best of each variety and show them in Classes 1, 2, 3, and 4. The bunches of roses may be shown in Classes 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

The committee in charge of the show also wants to make it clear that a single exhibitor can compete in only one class. But an exhibitor may enter any number of exhibits in various classes.

Church Bus

The last few Sundays, the bus running to All Saints' Church has been so poorly patronized that unless more people use it, it may be necessary to discontinue it as the cost is too great for carrying only one or two passengers.

TOWN PATRIOTIC PARADE

The patriotic parade held on Thursday evening, May 17, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. was a grand success.

The parade was headed by Hon. George M. Henry, Burgess, who was followed by ten of our recently enlisted boys, who preceded the American flag carried by Messrs Obodyke and Leitch.

Professor Anderson's band from Tioga was there, followed by the Home Defense Unit forty-seven strong. Mr. A. Cooke and E. Jenkins carried the transparent signs behind the Home Defense Unit, while the Boy Scouts patrolled the entire column.

The School Unit, under Mr. A. V. Emmett, followed the Home Defense with the fire apparatus immediately following.

The past war veterans were in line, being conveyed along the route by automobiles.

The automobile unit brought up the rear.

Mr. Charles W. Schaeffer, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., begs to thank Captain White of the Home Defense Unit for his untiring efforts in assisting him to make the parade a success. He also desires to thank the Boy Scouts under the leadership of Mr. Lowe Cummer for the excellent assistance in distributing the advertising cards on Thursday morning and also to all who were material in making this feature a success.

FAIRVIEW UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL

Celebrates Ninety-third Anniversary—C. J. Fryer Superintendent Thirty-nine Years

By One of the Members.

The Fairview Union Sunday School, founded in May, 1824, celebrated its ninety-third anniversary on Sunday, May 20. The doors of the little building were thrown open wide and at the invitation tendered by Mr. C. J. Fryer, superintendent of the Sunday school, to residents of many of the Main Line towns, the largest number of persons that ever gathered in the Sunday school participated in the exercises.

The Fairview building, which is located on Fairview road near Summit avenue, was completed in 1828 and ever since that time has been a big factor in the spiritual uplift of Narberth and community. It was in that building not many months ago when twenty-three residents of Narberth and Fairview gathered for prayers and to discuss the idea of a religious awakening in Narberth. As a result plans were formulated for the great Deeper evangelistic campaign, the success of which has been without question.

Not only did the Sunday school celebrate its ninety-third anniversary, but Mr. C. J. Fryer, of Gladwyn, and well-known throughout Narberth, rejoined on the thirty-ninth anniversary of his superintendency of the Sunday school. The interest which Mr. Fryer takes in his work and the results accomplished are manifested in his address which is in part as follows:

"As usual, the committee to make arrangements for the anniversary has put the superintendent down for a speech. I do not propose to make a speech, but I think it only due our friends here to-day to give them an outline of the work we have been doing this year. Of course, I have not been here ninety-three years, but by turning the number backwards you will see that it is just thirty-nine years. We certainly did not expect to see such a crowd here to-day, but we always have been glad to see people come to Fairview to give us the 'glad hand' and we are glad to have them go away and say, 'I will come again,' and they usually do come again. That is demonstrated to-day as I see faces here that have been here before and I know by their smiles that they have been glad to come again."

"I do not know how many months it has been since Mr. Gara came to my place and said 'there are a number of gentlemen in Narberth who want to

When Disaster Happens Community Club Luncheon

"To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."—From the Act of Congress constituting the American National Red Cross as an official organization in war and peace.

Many associated Red Cross relief work almost wholly with the fields back of the battle line where the wounded are gathered together. But wars are not continuous and over a period of years the greater part, by far the greater part perhaps, of the work of the organization lies within the field of labor of the Department of Civilian Relief.

From the day of the organization of the American Red Cross the Department has seldom been able to rest from its labors. Since the reincorporation of the Red Cross in 1905, it has conducted nearly 100 campaigns of succor and has disbursed nearly $15,000,000. The operations of relief have followed earthquakes, fires, floods, famines, mine explosions, volcanic eruptions, and wars. The work has been "stupendously trying but stupendously successful."

It has been said that a latent desire to help others is common to all men and all women. In the Red Cross workers the desire is not passive but alive, active or ready for action at call.

It is not necessary to go so far afield as Eastern Europe to find the records of devoted accomplishment of the men and women directly connected with or affiliated with the Department of Civilian Relief of the American Red Cross. Things are best shown by illustration whether it be in word or in picture. In March, 1913, the flood in Ohio cost hundreds of lives and a loss of hundreds of millions in property. Mr. Ernest P. Bicknell, the Director General of the Department of Civilian Relief went from Washington to the scene of the flood on the first notice of impending disaster. It was of him that, in response to an inquiry as to his whereabouts, came the answer, "Somewhere in the Flood"

After the floods had subsided and the quickly organized work of relief had been carried through to a successful conclusion, Mr. Bicknell wrote an account of the relief work of the Department. The local and State authorities acted promptly. Relief, organized and unorganized, came at the call.

In New York City, in 1912, occurred what was known as the "shirt waist factory fire." It was an appalling disaster. Many young women found themselves trapped in the building after the fire had started and there was a great loss of life. The Red Cross Emergency Relief Committee of the Charity Organizations of New York, (Continued on Third Page)

The Community Club Luncheon

The Community Club gave a delightful luncheon on Tuesday afternoon; about fifty ladies attended. The tables were decorated with patriotic colors and a profusion of flowers. The meeting was opened by all joining in singing "America." Mrs. Frank Miles Day, legislative chairman for the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, was the speaker for the afternoon. All listened with great interest to her talk on what was being done by the women of Pennsylvania to better civic conditions. The club on her solicitation sent a telegram to President Wilson asking his influence to have national prohibition as an economic measure during the war. It is seldom that Narberth ladies have the pleasure of listening to so gifted and interesting a speaker as Mrs. Day. After enjoying vocal selections by Mrs. Howard Hoffman and Miss Miller, Mrs. J. W. Joyce, on behalf of the club, presented Mrs. W. M. Cameron, the retiring president, with a beautiful ivory box, as a token of gratitude for the untiring energy with which she has worked to awaken a civic spirit and make the Community Club the successful organization which the enthusiasm today indicated.

Narberth Guard Organized

At the conclusion of drill practice by members of the Home Defense Unit Monday evening, May 21, it was proposed by Mr. B. T. White that a permanent organization be effected, consisting of those members of the Home Defense Unit who are interested in creating a permanent organization of a military character. Postmaster Edward S. Haws being chosen as temporary chairman, the meeting was called to order and the following non-commissioned officers were elected: Captain B. T. White, First Lieutenant Edwin P. Dold, Second Lieutenant Jesse S. Harris, Treasurer Edward S. Haws, Temporary Secretary L. H. Trotter.

Enrollment fee was fixed at 25 cents and dues 25 cents per month. All those present immediately enrolled, and all men of Narberth who are interested in joining an organization of this character are invited to become members. The Guard will meet Monday and Thursday evenings of each week in the fire house.

MAIN LINE KENNEL CLUB

Summer Show to be Held in Narberth

The Main Line Kennel Club will hold a show at the General Wayne Inn, Narberth, on June 16. A meeting of the officers was held on Tuesday evening at the General Wayne Inn, Montgomery avenue, at which final arrangements were discussed. Mr. Alfred Frost, secretary of the club, will announce the names of the judges in a few days. Many prominent Main Line women are interested in this show and it promises to be a great success.

Congratulations to Narberth Councilmen! Some more permanent roadway going down in Narberth. Haverford avenue, like Wynnewood avenue, is to be of concrete.

The Narberth Unit of the Home Reserve has effected a permanent organization, particulars regarding which will doubtless be given publicity in the near future. This is a move in the right direction, and will doubtless lead to much greater interest, and result in a large increase of those who are drilling. We understand that Mr. White has been elected captain, and congratulate the Unit on securing his services.

The campaign for selling Liberty Loan Bonds is now on in full swing. If every one hundred million population took two ten dollar bonds, the total would be two billions of dollars. Here is an opportunity for those in very moderate circumstances to do their share. Remember, this is not giving the money. It is an investment, at only three and one-half percent, to be sure, but what is that to those who are enlisting, and offering their lives for their country? Unless the masses of the people invest a portion of their savings in these bonds, the issue will be a failure, to the great shame of our republic.

Narberth has a large army of workers in the fields, cultivating gardens, all doing their share to make up for the shortage of food, due to enormous demands for foreign shipment. These new tillers of the soil will reap two crops. One will be the vegetables and fruits produced, and the other an improvement in their health and strength, which will be worth much more to them. A practical acquaintance with the difficulties attendant on raising vegetables will also tend to a larger sympathy with those who make this their business. Farmers and truckers have much to contend with, from the vagaries of the weather, and the uncertainty of market conditions. If a strong impetus is given to the

If consistent, we solicit your influence in prohibiting the sale and use of fireworks on the Fourth of July. If you have already done so, we thank you. If you have not, we would be glad to have your co-operation. WANTED: WATER FOR HORSES IN NARBERTH

"Narberth is said to be the only town along the Main Line where teamsters have to borrow a bucket and stop at one of the tradesmen's stores to get water for their horses," writes one of our best borough boosters.

Large cities are prohibiting public drinking troughs for live stock in an attempt to prevent the spreading of glanders, etc., but the fire hydrants and buckets are made use of very generously.

Query: Shouldn't Councils make some effort to solve this little problem?

MERION WILL REMAIN MERION

P. O. Authorities Decide Case—Civic Association Holds Annual Meeting and Elects Officers

Merion station is to be Merion, Pa., and Marion, Franklin county, is to be South Marion on Uncle Sam's maps and mail schedules.

That announcement was made Tuesday night by Edward Bok, president of the Merion Civic Association, in addressing the annual meeting of the organization in the Merion Country Day School. Postal authorities, Mr. Bok said, will shortly notify Marion of its change in name, and at the same time Merion will be permitted to discard "station."

Similarity in the names of the Main Line and Franklin county towns has led to confusion. Mail for prominent Merion citizens has gone to Marion, and telegrams and express packages for Marion residents has gone to Merion, and telegrams and express packages for Merion residents have found their way to Merion. A suggestion was hotly resented by its populace, and for some months the matter has been quiescent, while mail has continued in its erratic way.

Howard Will Go On Its Trail!

That favorite article of yester-year which you are no longer able to secure—have Howard locate it! What was that you bought in parts afar, but have not come across since—Howard will hunt for it! You still want to try that good thing of which you have heard, but which no store seemed to carry—have Howard seek and find it! For the service extraordinaire is a hobby with us—and the more requests we have to supply a special need—to secure the unusual thing—the more zest our work affords! It's a way we have—and a good way, too, says the man who suggested we call it the Howard-Special-Service-System! And this is why he did:

A certain automobile polish was wanted. It had been out of the market many months, for its makers had failed, despite the excellent quality of their goods. None could be had of jobbers—none at department or supply stores in Philadelphia or New York—but Howard filled the order just the same! And to the immense gratification of the gentleman who had sought for it in vain and who had wanted it so badly!

It's one instance out of many—and it's more such things we want to do for all of you! The Howard-Special-Service-System!

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Another stirring patriotic service is to be held in the Methodist Church this Sunday evening, at 7.45 o'clock. John Sparhawk, Jr., Esq., a prominent lawyer of the Philadelphia bar, who is one of the well known orators of the city, will deliver the address.

Mr. Herman Bub, Narberth's popular tenor soloist, will sing a new patriotic song entitled, "The Flag of My Land." This song was written by Philadelphians and copies of the same are to be distributed to the congregation. Miss Prescott and Mr. Bub will render a duet. ENLISTED BOYS

ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCE

The day is done, and Narberth thrills with sheer delight.

For the enlisted boys of our town, stage their new show to-night: It isn't like the usual show one goes to see these days.

'Tis the result of hearty working—work minus praise.

Now come along and bring a friend one who dances, too.

For the dance that follows the big show is good enough for you; The music for your dancing is hired from Philly's best

Here's the looked for opportunity to please your week-end guest.

Now just remember when it comes and to your neighbor say, I'll surely be at Elm Hall, the twenty-fifth of May.

also Narberth and the surrounding country. The prayer has been answered and the people here woke up, but we believe that Fairview got the benefit of it first. As an example, we had been holding meetings here on Monday nights for a couple of months, and one night in particular I remember and which I shall never forget as long as I live. It was pitch-dark and raining and there were only eighteen persons gathered here. Out of that eighteen there were eleven who had already confessed Christ and there were seven who had not, but we got down and prayed and when we went away that night there were eighteen Christians. We just opened our hearts and left the spirit enter and that is the kind of work Fairview has been doing ever since, and now we can gather from sixty-five to seventy in our Sunday school every Sunday. Since I have been here I have never seen such spiritual interest anywhere as is displayed in this place. Twenty-eight of our members joined church and connected themselves with God in the past year, when previously but one, two, maybe three would take the step.

which is an Institutional Member of the Red Cross, barely had ended its relief work among the families of the survivors of the fire when news came of the sinking of the great trans-Atlantic liner, Titanic.

The survivors of the Titanic disaster reached New York City on April 18, 1912, on the steamship Carpathia. Mayor Gaynor had opened public subscriptions for the relief fund, and he asked the Red Cross Emergency Relief Committee to direct the expenditure of the money which was contributed.

Working with the committee was the Women's Relief Committee, a voluntary organization. Other funds raised by other American cities were sent to Mayor Gaynor and entrusted to the care of the Red Cross Committee.

BOY SCOUTS NEWS

Results of Emergency Tests—Boys Start Garden on Anthwyn Farms

Emergency tests were given two patrols of the Narberth Troop last week, which resulted in speedy responses.

The Scoutmaster telephoned the patrol leaders, without previous warning, to call the other seven members of his patrol to report at the Y. M.
 C. A.

On one night, the Flying Eagle Patrol leader, Lowe Cummer, was given the signal at 7.05, and in nine minutes seven of the patrol had assembled at the Y. M. C. A.—all but one of its roll, and the one was sick. This patrol has a first aid kit.

On another night, the Seal Patrol leader, Edwin Coggeshall, was given the signal at 6.55, and in fifteen minutes had all eight of his members at the Y. M. C. A. Six of the boys of this patrol arrived at the building in nine minutes, and the other two, who had to be called from the woods on the outskirts of the borough, arrived in fifteen minutes.

The Kangaroo Patrol have yet to be tested.

Early Gardening

Last Saturday morning the Scouts made an early start on their large garden on Anthwyn Farms. At the Friday night troop meeting, the boys were so enthusiastic about "doing their bit" that they started a good-natured competition to see who would be on the job earliest on Saturday morning.
 Here's the record: John Maguire reported at 4.30 A. M.; Roscoe Smedley at 5.00 A. M.; Wycliff Walton at 5.30 A. M.; Thomas McAuliffe at 6.00 A. M., and Taylor Faries at 6.30 A. M. They all worked until the middle of the forenoon and Walton and Faries put in most of the afternoon on the job. Since this time, some of the boys have been on the job at 5.30 in the morning, putting in time before going to school, and others have been hard at work in the late afternoon and early evening.

It is the plan of the Scouts to seed one-half the plot with potatoes. The other half is divided into three plots—one for each patrol. The potatoes raised by the troops will be stored for local civilian relief, unless the chairman of the National Food Commission offers a better plan before harvesting time. The produce raised by the individual patrols on the smaller plots will be sold by their members and the money placed in the patrol treasury.
 The patrol making the most money as a result of these sales will be awarded a suitable prize by the Scoutmaster.

Many of the Scouts also have gardens of their own on their home grounds, ranging in size from 10x20 feet to 60x300 feet.

REPORTER CUB COMES HOME REFRESHED

Absent From Duty Last Week,
 He Returns in Fine Fettle—Editorial Duties Overtaxed
 His Strength

To the Editor of Our Town: It took the people of England a year to wake up to the fact that the country was engaged in a serious war.
 It is hoped that America will profit by the lesson. Our local celebration of last Thursday night showed that Narberth is waking up to its responsibilities. You will be very glad to learn that the borough has more enlistments per capita to its credit than any other community in Montgomery county.

That was some parade, believe me.
 I don't know who furnished the band, torches, flags, etc., but have my suspicions. Anyway, it was a mighty patriotic and public-spirited act. The band was a good one, especially so when you consider that it was composed of youngsters.

The Narberth Home Defense Reserve turned out strong its three privates and seventy-five self-appointed officers doing themselves credit. Several "patriots" were conspicuous by their absence. No one expects invalids or cripples to parade, nor those who have excellent excuses; but out of 500 voters, at least a couple of hundred men to march in a celebration of this kind should be easily available, even leaving out of consideration the usual quota of slackers, four flushers, snobs and knockers, with which every community is afflicted.

Every day you read someone's remarks advising the strictest economy and incidentally recommending the purchase of the Liberty Loan Bonds with your savings. That's good, but you also receive daily advice not to cut down your expenditures but to spend just as freely as ever, as otherwise you will upset the old apple cart. How do you reconcile these two kinds of dope?

How about the fellow who is just about able to come through without starving until the next pay check arrives? Are there any such around here? Line forms on the right.

"I thought you said Doc Orr was a fine dentist."
 "Well, he used to be, but since he has taken up motoring he goes at you as though he was repairing his automobile with a monkey wrench."

Here's a sign of the times: The local garbage collector says the pails are getting very light. Suppose that means we are becoming less wastel-ful rather than that we are not buying as much grub as usual. And that reminds you of the story of the lady who asked her maid who the new neighbors were. "I don't know, Mum," was the reply, "but they sure have swell swill."

Bill Cummer says that if you wrap yourself up in newspapers you can't get seasick when out on the briny.
 He believes it, too. Poor little Jeff!

Has Betty Baxter moved to Bryn Mawr? She tells us that the special train with the French Commission passed through that town the other day. Did she notice whether the train went through Narberth or not?

If we don't protect our National Guardsmen from themselves, at the present rate they'll kill so many of each other that we won't have any of them left to fight the Germans.

To wear anything but a short skirt with $15 shoes would be wicked wastelfulness.

BRIGHT SPOTS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Junior Billiard Tournament and Bowling Tournament Under Way—Responses to Y. M. C. A. War Fund Are Lush—Chess and Checker Club to Farm

Well, the second Junior billiard tournament is now over and we find that Mr. John Dickie is the winner of the first prize, while Mr. Arthur Cooke came in for the second prize.
 A bowling tournament is now under way and we want everybody who can roll a ball to enter. Mr. William Mc-Intyre is offering a cup for the highest individual score and there will also be another cup presented for first prize.

Very few responses have been made toward the Y. M. C. A. War Fund for our soldier boys and in this respect it might be well to mention that the money solicited is not for the Y. M. C.
 A., but for the Nation and the World, in which the association and its machinery is simply being turned in a most definite way for the service of the men in arms, in camps and in prisons.

To those of you who are lovers of chess and checkers, a club is now being formed which will use the Y. M. C.
 A. as its headquarters. It's the coolest and most comfortable spot in town to pass a few evenings a week for moral recreation. Give your name to the secretary.

Tennis players take note that the association offers a summer membership which entitles you to a locker and showers together with all the other privileges of the building. It's the safest $3 summer investment ever offered.

SCHOOL NOTES

One of the practical sides of the school training for usefulness is illustrated by the recent arrangement made for providing work for boys and girls after school.

Many mothers find it impossible to get anyone to care for their children or to help with light work. Men find it hard to get their lawns mowed and yards cleaned. People have asked the school to assist in locating pupils who desire work. Until some definite arrangement can be made, Mr.
 Melchior will assume the responsibility of trying to help boys and girls and Narberth citizens. A number of boys and girls have handed their names to Mr. Melchior.

Certainly this is the real thing for Narberth boys and girls. The streets are poor places on which to train boys and girls.

Four boys who generally block the sidewalk or hold down a prominent window sill down town, have applied for work. Good work, boys and girls!
 Go to it!

Five weeks more of school! Remember commencement date, June 22, 9 P. M.

May 30 will mark a big day for the Narberth schools. Everybody welcome to Field Day! Brief memorial exercises beginning at 8.45 A. M. The children will entertain for half an hour. The Rev. John Gordon, so well-known as a forceful speaker, will deliver a brief address.

Sophomore Notes
 Avast there! Our editor is at last awake.

There has been quite a struggle for a perfect spelling lesson. Thursday's lesson ended our struggles.

The sophomores wish to extend their sympathies to the seniors over the loss of their guiding star, the banner.

Did anyone notice how well the soph'ers were represented in the patriotic parade?

Miss Ward, of the seniors, finds it hard to master the snow storms which seem so troublesome to her and her beautiful complexion—Amen.

Who was it? Somebody proposed having a class meeting every week.
 We will now have a standing vote upon the question.

Some people seem to be cutting more ice than they can melt. Oh, Ida.

Here endeth the first notes of the sophomore class to appear in ten weeks. Editor.

FLAG RAISING AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH OF THE EVANGEL.
 Last Sunday at 11 o'clock in the presence of a large audience of members of the Baptist Bible school and the church congregation a large and beautiful American flag was thrown to the breeze.

The following program was rendered: Bugle call by F. C. Patten, Star-Spangled Banner, by school and congregation while the flag was unfurled, Salute, the Flag, by the audience led by Mrs. Demmy, Scripture, remarks and prayer by pastor Demmy, bugle call, Salute the Flag.

The regular services in the church were well attended and of unusual interest.

Next Friday evening, May 25, at 8 o'clock, will be held the recognition service of our pastor, Rev. Avery S.
 Demmy; interesting addresses will be given by Rev. John Van Ness, Rev.
 C. G. Koppell, Rev. Howard Wayne Smith, D. D., and Rev. A. S. Burke.
 Dr. John Gordon will preside. All are invited to be present.

Thirty-seven classes—chances for seven—in the coming Flower Show.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Narberth Y. M. C. A. Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building on Thursday, May 31, at 2.30 promptly. As there are a number of important subjects, together with the work of the summer to be discussed to a satisfactory finish, it is essential that the attendance of members be large and enthusiastic.

In consequence of the courtesy of the R. W. Rollins Company of Brooklyn, who so generously furnished the major portion of the food, and the untiring efforts of a committee of capable women under the direction of Mrs. N. E. Smedley, chairman, the Woman's Auxiliary has been able to replenish its treasury with forty dollars, the net proceeds of the demonstration supper.

In addition to this, at the April meeting birthday offerings amounting to $4.30 were received. This account still remains open, and as we have received several little silk bags at each monthly meeting since the birthday party, it is earnestly hoped that May will prove no exception to the rule and that we will be the recipient of a generous sum.

Church Fair

The Ladies of the Guild of All Saints Episcopal Church will give a garden party, bazaar and cake sale on Saturday, June 9, from two until eight o'clock, at Wynnewood Park.
 The proceeds are for the parish and Main Line Branch No. 1 of the Red Cross. There will be a play given by the Sunday school children on this occasion.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and in who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.
 As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
