

LAY CORNERSTONE

FIRST METHODIST CONGREGATION UNITE IN IMPORTANT SERVICE

An event of great importance, not only to the members of the First Methodist Episcopal church but to Glendale at large, Sunday, was the laying of the cornerstone of the handsome new structure being erected on the corner of Kenwood and Third streets. A large number of people gathered to witness the interesting services, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, present pastor of the church, presiding. Rev. R. W. Mottern, president of the Glendale Ministers' Union, offered the opening prayer. Rev. A. Ray Moore, superintendent of the Pasadena district of the Methodist Episcopal church, read the scripture lesson. Rev. C. R. Norton, first pastor of the First Methodist church of Glendale, which was organized 13 years ago, read the names of the charter members of the church, four of whom responded to the roll call, these being Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Quick and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown. Three other charter members still reside in Glendale who were not able to be present at the services Sunday afternoon: Mrs. Mary Turner and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Russell. The church membership at that time was not more than thirty-two. Bishop James W. Bashford of Pekin, China, laid the cornerstone and gave the address, his subject being "The Universal Christ." In a few brief words he gave a survey of the progress of civilization, showing how it generally centered around water basins, and how in early history it centered around the Tigris and Euphrates, and with the westward movement of humanity centered around the Mediterranean. And then with the discovery of the new world, civilization for centuries centered around the Atlantic. In our day it centers around the Pacific. The Occident faces the Orient, and the question is: What will be the dominant religion of the world? Shall it be the oriental type, or shall it be Christianity? The church being erected here must have its part in moulding future civilization. This building is but the symbol of the spiritual forces which must be exercised. The congregation then assembled in front of the church where Rev. Snudden placed in a box a copy of the Scriptures, a list of the charter members of the church, a list of the present official board, the names of the building committee, the finance committee, architect and contractor, the names of the cabinet of the Epworth League, a copy of the Glendale Evening News of January 27 containing an announcement of the cornerstone laying, the last copy of the Christian Advocate, the last copy of the Epworth Herald, and the minutes of the last annual conference of Southern California. Two beautiful anthems were sung by the First M. E. church choir and a thank offering was taken to be used toward the expenses of the pipe organ which is to be installed. Mrs. Rebecca Lacy and daughter, members of the church, had already made a personal donation of $2000 for the organ, which will be a great attraction for the music lovers of Glendale when the edifice is completed.

The building when completed will be one in which Glendale can take pride. The architect who designed the church is Arthur G. Lindley of 301 Hollingsworth building, Los Angeles. T. H. Addison of Glendale is the contractor and the building committee is composed of T. W. Watson, chairman; A. W. Tower, secretary; C. W. Ingledue, L. E. Brockman, C. W. Spickerman, Geo. U. Moyses and J. N. Martin.

The building will be early English Gothic in architecture, faced with ruffe bricks and light gray granite—trim and foundations. Size 100x150 feet. The auditorium will have a bowled floor and galleries and will seat about 1300. The choir loft back of pulpit will seat 60 and is in an alcove specially designed for acoustic effect. An indirect lighting system will be installed and the auditorium ceiling will have groined arches and pillars, giving a Cathedral effect.

In the basement under the auditorium is a large social hall and banquet room, with stage platform and arrangement for stereopticon. This room will seat 400 at tables and has excellent kitchen and serving rooms in connection. The Sunday School part of the building is arranged in the most up-to-date manner for a graded school, having assembling room and separate class rooms for each department, as well as one room large enough to assemble the entire school. Besides these graded departments there are private class rooms for each of the adult classes, which they are taking pride in arranging furnishings for.

There is a generous superintendent's office conveniently located on the main floor, and a pastor's office

THE SIN YE DO

FRANK KEENAN, MARGERY WILSON AND ELITE CAST IN INCE PRODUCTION

It certainly is a pity and no credit to our intelligence when a Charlie Chaplin nonsense draws a packed house while a drama such as the one given here Sunday at the Palace Grand Theatre does not attract more than "fairly good" audiences.

For many months the Ince productions have generally been somewhat superior to those of other film concerns, but in "The Sin Ye Do" even the Ince forces have surpassed themselves.

The screen adaptation of a famous novel has been done with a master hand guided by a master mind. The sub-titles are rather numerous but each carries a message and the wording is more than excellent.

It should not be necessary to repeat the story and after three performances at the local play house it should be unnecessary to comment on the action in the picture. All should have seen it and would, I believe, have seen it as far as the capacity of the house permitted, had the publicity and advertising man made himself familiar with the play and then in a businesslike way had let the public know what a wonderful treat was in store for them.

Frank Keenan's ability as an actor is well known, but in no other leading part has he equaled his acting in "The Sin Ye Do." What other actor could play the part equally well? Margery Wilson as Alice Ward, the girl who kills her employer in order to save her honor, also rises to the top of fine acting, and the supporting cast, nearly all of whom are stars of fame and prominence, make the picture a true reproduction of life—not such as it could possibly be but such as it really is.

The theme of the play is not merely the theme of the unwritten law—it is much larger than that. The blood is stronger than the firmest beliefs. Environment, circumstances are the masters of our fate, no matter how much we try to convince ourselves and others contrariwise. Our better selves, if properly touched, rise above our sense of justice and pay no respect to even the most elaborate artificial system of ethics.

Finally, of course, there is love—strong, stronger, strongest. Trivialities are trivial in the light of love.

A. O. ALMEN.

DEATH OF DR. GRAF

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Graf of 1220 West Seventh street are expressing deep sympathy for them in the loss of their only son, Dr. William E. Graf, who passed out of this life at 3:20 a. m., Monday, January 29, at the Sisters' hospital in Los Angeles. Dr. Graf had been at the hospital since Sunday, January 21, where he underwent an operation on the 23rd. On account of the advanced stage of the disease the operation was unsuccessful. The deceased was a dentist with offices at Seventh and Alvarado streets and resided at 702 West 49th place, Los Angeles. He leaves a wife to mourn his death, as well as his parents and one sister, Miss Florence Graf of Glendale. Dr. Graf was thirty-five years old on August 26, last.

Funeral services will be in charge of Elks Lodge No. 99 of Los Angeles. Cremation at Rosedale.

"500" PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Q. Roberts sustained their reputation for hospitality Saturday evening when they entertained friends at "500." Four tables were arranged and the evening passed very quickly in this fascinating pastime and in pleasant social intercourse among congenial friends. Mr. Walter Stamps was winner of the gentleman's prize and Mrs. Stamps made highest score among the ladies. The guests enjoyed the delicious refreshments so daintily served by the hostess.

near the side entrance. Also large ladies' parlors with kitchenette, ladies' retiring room, etc. In the basement is a shower and locker rooms for the men and boys, to be used in connection with their outdoor sports.

A large pipe organ is being prepared for the building, to be located back of the choir alcove. It will not have exposed pipes but open grilles for conveying the music into the auditorium. Beautiful art glass windows for the entire building are now being made by Alexander and Crane, Los Angeles. A complete heating and ventilating system will be installed and the building is to be complete in every particular. The total cost when completed and furnished will be about $40,000.

DECISION FAVORS PACIFIC ELECTRIC

RAILROAD COMMISSION DENIES APPLICATION OF LOS ANGELES FOR LOWER CITY FARES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—The Railroad Commission to-day refused the application of the city of Los Angeles for a five-cent fare on the Pacific Electric line within the city limits. The company declared that the jitney busses decreased their earnings nearly a million dollars below expenses within the city. The commission held that the reduction in carfare would add $300,000 yearly to this amount.

BIG CABINET SHAKE-UP

MANY CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF PRESIDENT'S CABINET TO TAKE PLACE IS REPORT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A big cabinet shift is to occur early in Wilson's next term, it was learned to-day. This will be in addition to the reported shake-up soon after the inauguration, although the former is not expected to begin until summer. It is reported that Secretary Houston will resign in the summer and Secretaries Redfield and McAdoo in the fall, all to enter business. It is said that all will retire voluntarily. There are continued reports that Secretary Lansing may become Ambassador to Great Britain but this has not been confirmed.

BORDER RIOTING CONTINUES

FIVE HUNDRED MEXICAN MEN AND WOMEN THROW STONES AT AMERICAN TROOPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, Jan. 29.—The serious rioting by Mexicans at the Juarez end of the international bridge was resumed this morning. Five hundred Mexicans, men and women, threw stones and bottles at the American troops used as customs guards. Two guards were hurt. As the mob advanced the troops charged with rifles and drove them back. Mexican cavalry drove the mob from the bridge. Street car service across the bridge has not been resumed. Americans are not allowed to cross the line.

SUBMARINE SINKS THREE SHIPS

ARMED VESSELS GO DOWN IN MEDITERRANEAN AS RESULT OF ACTIVITIES OF GERMAN UNDERSEA BOAT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, Jan. 29.—A German submarine in the Mediterranean sunk the following vessels: Jan. 9, a fully armed and loaded steamer of 5,000 tons capacity; Jan. 15, the armed British tanker, Garfield, carrying coal and oil; Jan. 25, an armed hostile transport, sunk 200 miles east of Malta

PERSHING ON WAY HOME

GENERAL FUNSTON OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCES WITHDRAWAL OF PUNITIVE EXPEDITION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 29.—General Funston to-day officially announced that Gen. Pershing's forces are on their way from Mexico. Pershing will proceed to El Paso to report to Funston until he is assigned to some post as Major General.

MAYOR PLEADS NOT GUILTY

SEATTLE OFFICIAL CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY IN WHISKEY RING DECLARES INNOCENCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SEATTLE, Jan. 29.—Mayor Gill to-day pleaded not guilty to the federal indictment charging him with complicity in a whiskey ring to violate a federal statute.

HOBOS GATHER FOR ANNUAL MEETING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BUFFALO, Jan. 29.—Delegates to the annual convention of the International Welfare association began arriving here to-day for the annual session scheduled for to-morrow, but still somewhat uncertain due to the heavy non-arrival list. For the International Welfare association is the name under which the hoboes gather to discuss their travels. The call for the convention was issued in the Hobo News published by James Eads How, the millionaire hobo of St. Louis.

PROBE CAUSE OF WOMAN'S DEATH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
RUTLAND, Vt., Jan. 29.—Authorities state that the body of Nora Benson shipped here from Los Angeles contains bullet holes. The certificate of death accompanying the body said death was due to complications. The Los Angeles police have been asked to make an investigation.

COURT WEEK IN HEAVEN

WORK OF JUDGING NOW IN PROGRESS ABOVE SAYS EVANGELIST

Court sessions which will decide the eternal destiny of every person living upon the world are now in progress in heaven, according to Evangelist Philip L. Knox, who spoke at Evangel Hall, 115 South San Fernando Road, last night, on the subject, "Court Week in Heaven." The evangelist proved by various prophecies of Daniel and the Apocalypse that this work of judgment began in 1844, and is now in progress. He said the deeds of all are recorded by angels, and that these records are placed in evidence in the court like so many depositions. A great docket is kept, he said, called the "Book of Life," and in this are the names of all who have at any time in their lives professed Christianity. One by one their cases pass in review before the great tribunal, he added.

"Our previous studies," said the speaker, "have shown us from the statements of Daniel 8:14 and Daniel 9:24-27 that the 2300 years there referred to began in 457 B. C. The word in verse 24 of Daniel 9 translated 'determined,' means, in the original Hebrew, 'cut off.' Four hundred ninety years were cut off from the 2300 years, for the Israelites. We read that at the end of 2300 prophetic days, or literal years, the sanctuary was to have been cleansed.

"What is the cleansing of the sanctuary? The cleansing of the ancient sanctuary of the Hebrews was not a physical cleansing, but a ceremony to cleanse it of sins which, figuratively speaking, had been conveyed into it during the year. This was called the 'day of judgment,' or 'day of atonement,' and occurred once a year.

"This service continued until Christ died on the cross, when the veil, or curtain between the two apartments of the sanctuary, was rent in two from top to bottom, God thereby signifying that the Lamb of God had died for the sins of all, and that the service in the earthly sanctuary had no more merit.

"In 1844 the earthly sanctuary of the Hebrews was not in existence. In Hebrews 9:23, 24 we read of a sanctuary in heaven, of which the earthly was only a pattern or type. The service in the earthly temple was but a faint representation of the service in the heavenly, where Christ, both the priest and the offering for sin, ministers in behalf of men.

"Daniel, in the seventh chapter, ninth and tenth verses, tells us of the time when the 'Ancient of days did sit,' when 'the judgment was set and the books were opened.' Revelation 20:12 speaks of this same time, and says 'the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.' The speaker read other Scriptures to prove that the Ancient of days sits at the great Judge of all the earth.

"Christ stands before him as the Advocate, or attorney, on man's behalf," continued the evangelist. "Satan is the accuser of the brethren, and the angels are a multitude of witnesses. The deepest interest manifest among men in the decisions of earthly courts but faintly represents the interest evinced in the heavenly tribunals, when case after case comes in review before the great Judge. Christ lifts his wounded hands and pleads his death in behalf of the individual whom he recognizes as his. But when the names of those who have sinned unconfessed to God, and unforgiven, are called, Christ cannot ask for them eternal life. Against them the solemn and awful sentence is pronounced, 'Weighed and wanting.'

"Angels record with unerring accuracy all acts, both good and bad. As the features of the countenance are reproduced with unerring accuracy upon the polished camera negative, so our characters are perfectly delineated in the books of heaven.

"Momentous are the interests involved in the closing work of the atonement. According to Daniel's prophecy this work has now been in progress many years. Both the dead and the living are to be judged. None of us knows for a certainty just when the work of judging the living was to have commenced, but the Bible shows us plainly that in the awful presence of God our lives are to come up in review. The record of our past deeds will be scrutinized by the intelligences of heaven, and then will be pronounced that sentence from which there is no appeal."

The male quartet rendered several selections last night. Special music was provided by the orchestra. Song service will begin at 7:15 to-night, after which the question box will be opened. The discourse, to be given at 7:45, will be on "The Standard of the Judgment."

CIVIC CENTERS

INTERESTING LECTURE GIVEN BY REV. DANA BARTLETT AT HIGH SCHOOL

A most interesting and delightful lecture was given by Rev. Dana Bartlett, well known and beloved by thousands of Los Angeles folks, on Friday evening last, at the High School auditorium. The thoughtful and highly representative audience listened with rapt interest to the line of argument in favor of supervised recreation for young and old. How to make the best use of one's leisure time is a problem, the solution of which would prevent the jails from overflowing. As a man or boy uses his leisure time, so will his character be. Everywhere cities are striving to make the lives of its citizens sweeter and better. Safety first can be applied as truthfully and forcefully to the question of amusements and recreation as to the problem of mine explosions or automobile accidents. Clean-up weeks, such as are held in Philadelphia and New York, help to purify the streets and back lanes; opportunities for wholesome play equally purify the mind of young and old. In great cities, where slum streets abound, those same streets have long been the only place where childhood could spend its leisure hours; the result—ignorance and crime. Even in well-ordered cities, the street corners are a menace to youth. What does Glendale offer to its youth in place of the street corner?

The civic centers maintained by the city of Los Angeles in Echo Park, at St. John and Holly streets, and other districts, have proved of inestimable educational, social and moral value.

Small cities are just as important as big cities. The Master of Men was raised and educated in a little city. Many people are sick, physically they think, but the malady comes not from a sick body but from a sick heart. Loneliness, lack of congenial company, pave the way to sickness, unhappiness, often to sin. A doctor sent a patient to a social service bureau with a card: Malady, needs a friend. Civic centers, well directed, well supervised, make the best of tonics to thousands of people. Some 65 pictures flashed on the screen portrayed playground gymnasiums, swimming pools, municipal club houses, gave statistics of decrease in crime wherever civic centers are maintained, and brought vividly to the hearts of the audience the crying need of a civic recreation center for Glendale.

Mrs. H. E. Hutchinson, chairman of the civic recreation center campaign, opened the meeting and introduced Dr. Jessie Russell, chairman of the program committee, who in turn presented the speaker of the evening. Announcement was made by Mrs. Nanno Woods, chairman of the publicity committee, of a meeting to be held next Thursday evening, February 1, in the High School auditorium, when Mr. C. Raitt, Superintendent of the L. A. Playground Commission, will give a stereopticon lecture on the Practical Side of Civic Recreation Centers. This meeting will be under the auspices of the Glendale Garden Society, and will be as usual free to the public.

Chairman Publicity Committee.

VISIT W. C. T. U. HOME

Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Smart and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. C. Moore motored to Highland Park yesterday afternoon to visit the Southern California home for elderly women, taking with them $4 worth of dishes, a donation from the Glendale W. C. T. U. to the home. This institution has been a ward of the State Women's Christian Temperance Union for nearly thirty years. The building stands on its own grounds of nearly four acres in a sheltered valley, surrounded by a thrifty orchard which furnishes fruit of various kinds. The house is a three-story building, having modern conveniences, heating plant, elevator, electricity, etc., and fulfills all requirements for sanitation. There are now twenty-five inmates, elderly women waiting near the borderland. Nearby pastors hold services twice a week in the little chapel. Contributions for the home are solicited from Unions and others. A visit to the home is beneficial to both the visitor and the visited. The location is 215 Fifty-seventh avenue East, Highland Park.

ENLARGING ICE PLANT

The Crystal Ice and Cold Storage Co. of East Third street has started work to enlarge their plant to nearly twice the present capacity. Excavation has already been made for the foundation of the new building and machinery will be installed as soon as the building is completed.

THE GLENDALE EVENING NEWS

Published Daily Except Sunday
A. T. COWAN Publisher and Proprietor
Office of Publication, 920 West Broadway
SUNSET 132 —PHONES— HOME 2401

Entered at the Postoffice at Los Angeles, Cal.,
as Second-Class Mail Matter

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—Single Copy, 5 Cents; One Month, 35 Cents;
Three Months, $1.00; One Year, $4.00. All in advance.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 1917.

ONE CAUSE OF HIGH COST OF LIVING

Time and energy are measured by dollars and cents. The prices of articles placed upon the market are determined by the number of hours of time and energy used in preparing these articles for the market. The general public is not responsible for a portion of the cost of the finished article. They can not control the price paid for the raw material, nor can they control the length of time used in completing the product, but the general public have the power to control the expense incurred in placing the article on the market by the manufacturer, jobber and local dealer. The jobber by his methods of buying forces the manufacturer to an unnecessary expense. Representatives of the factory are employed to make sales to the jobbers. The jobber often puts the manufacturer to additional expense by carelessly requiring the factory salesman to make repeated calls to close a sale. This method of doing business on the part of the jobber forces the manufacturer to charge more for his output.

The local dealer in turn by his method of doing business puts the jobber to an unnecessary expense in making sales. The salesman who represents a jobbing house finds it necessary to call repeatedly on the local dealer before he can close a sale. The time and energy of the salesman is charged up to the expense account on the jobber's books, so eventually the wholesale price of articles of merchandise is increased enough to cover all of these expenses.

Now, we come to the local dealer, whose expense of doing business is greatly increased on account of the requirements of the public. The free delivery system adds the greatest item of expense. In a city of the population of Glendale there are probably 50 delivery autos purchased at an average expense of $500, or a total expenditure of $25,000, and these machines are operated at an expense including gas, repairs and driver of approximately $75 per month, making a total of $45,000 per year that retailers must add to their expense account. The consumer is required to pay all of these increases in the cost of products, and he wonders why the cost of living is so high. If the jobbers would adopt a method of buying from the manufacturer that would keep down the expense of their salesmen, and if the local dealer would buy from the jobber in such a way that the expense of a wholesaler would be cut out, the jobber would then be able to give the local dealer better prices, or perhaps the local dealer should buy direct from the manufacturer and thus save the jobber's profit.

And then, in conclusion, if the local consumers would use some means of cutting down the free delivery expense they force upon the dealer, prices of merchandise might be greatly reduced. The consumer is the one who in the end must pay for all the additional cost of placing the goods on the market and delivering the parcels of merchandise to his door.

If people prefer to sit in their homes and reach for the phone, place an order for a 50-cent article, the net cost to the retailer of delivery being from 10 to 25 cents, while children of that home are playing at a neighbor's, all good and well, but do not make a complaint about the high cost of food products. The public is demanding service and service costs money.

WORK FOR CIVIC CENTER

If the Civic Center, Chamber of Commerce, churches or city trustees wish to do something for the everlasting good of Glendale, they should get busy and install comfort stations for ladies and gentlemen.

The Pacific Electric railway at present provides the only comfort station in Glendale, and that is closed a part of the day on Sunday, just at a time when the traveling public is most in need of such stations.

Public comfort stations are needed more badly in Glendale than swimming pools. Glendale citizens should have sufficient public spirit to at least treat sightseers and visitors who are strangers to the city with common decency. The Evening News has repeatedly called attention to the need of comfort stations in Glendale, and will continue to do so until the public is aroused to these needs.

WHAT WILL THE PEOPLE DO ABOUT IT?

The press and people of this state have made an earnest fight to lower taxation and to hold down the ever-increasing burdens of our state government.

Some members would do away with the two-session legislature, and some would hold four sessions in two years, and others want a smaller body but to be continually in session.

Others would limit each member to introduction of five measures of his own get-up, not counting appropriation bills, and a great many people would be glad if it did not meet over once in five years.

The recommendations of the budget committee are $3,429,836 more than two years ago, or a flat increase of seventeen and a half per cent., showing tax-eaters' demands increase faster than population.

This would raise per capita taxation from $12.17 to $14.30, or seventy-one dollars and fifty cents for the average family of five. Of course, reformers say most of it is paid by corporations.

The state board of control has been generous with all sections of the state and given itself a slice of pork, increasing its own appropriation $62,330, making a total of $228,450 for its services.

The immigration and housing commission gets $90,000, an increase of $30,000, and as boards and commissions go has well earned its increased emoluments, having prepared a bill to bar dogs and cats from apartment houses.

The railroad commission gets an increase of $37,000, and with its fees will probably have well up to $400,000 to $500,000 a year to expend.

The people cannot escape higher taxes or higher freight and passenger rates if the legislature pass laws placing unnecessary men on the payroll of the public, the railroads or any other industry.

STUDIES IN PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

By Walt. Le Noir Church
STUDY XI—CIVIC RELIABILITY.

It might be a puzzler to ask: "WHO put the LI in Re-li-ability? Thereby hangs a tale.

It happened in old Kentucky; but maybe some shrewd observer will say: "Why, that might have happened right here in California—all most anywhere, outside of Glendale."

An enthusiastic boy scout, of neither poor nor dishonest parents, was a born hero-worshipper. He thought pretty well of the young David who slew Goliath by plumping him where the good-bad little girl had her little curl.

"That," said he, "is where any big false pretense ought to get it."

But this little philosopher, this wisdom-lover, greatly admired Solomon because he built something; he constructed a wonderful thing, which has ever since been a model of beauty and usefulness for all mankind who appreciate it. Its wise designer managed to inculcate among the workmen, from highest to lowest, all through its erection, practical lessons of fraternal helpfulness, of friendship, love and truth; of benevolence and good will, "with malice towards none and charity for all."

That young boy scout thought there never was anything quite so splendidly useful as that best and greatest work of "The Wisest Man." But Solomon lived a very long time ago and, hero-worshipper as this young aspirant was, he wanted some model nearer home.

So he went to his widowed mother, and asked: "Who is the best, wisest, and most useful man in our town?"

Used to his ways, the mother did not answer his question by asking another, but promptly said: "Your Uncle James."

Quite gratified, the boy put on his hat and went out.

Next day, after school, he asked her: "Who is probably the next-best man in town?"

Pausing a moment, she answered: "I should say Dr. Curem."

But on the third day he came to her, looking a bit discouraged; yet once more he questioned her: "Mother, dearest, now would you mind taking a guess as to who is possibly the third best man you know in Lexington?"

The troubled mother ventured to ask, noting how adroitly and non-committally his question was put: "Well, I—should suppose it might be Judge Equity; but why do you ask?"

"Oh, I just thought I'd like to be like the best man I know."

The anxious mother waited for further developments, but the subject never came up again—at least not for many years.

Now we can imagine that young plane and gets his name in the papers. There are many English airmen who are aces yet whose names have never appeared outside the official secret communiques circulated among the higher staff officers only.

Here is a concrete example: A certain lieutenant of the Royal Flying Corps was mentioned in one of these communiques. It seems he had engaged an enemy aeroplane, fought a duel with it among the clouds, and downed it fairly and squarely. Hoping to make an exception of this case permission was sought to use the aviator's name. It was courteously, but firmly refused. What he had done was not to his own personal glory but to the glory of the R. F. C.

And when the Royal Flying Corps is asked about it, it insists the honor is the Army's.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes, but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do they care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

LOOK AT YOUR BANK BOOK!

When did you last make a deposit?
If it was months ago, you've neglected an opportunity to add more money in time for the 4 per cent. Interest Our Savings Department pays.

If you've deposited weekly you're richer by interest on every dollar.

Try depositing weekly—it pays!

The Glendale Savings Bank

SOUTHWEST CORNER BROADWAY AND BRAND
GLENDALE, CAL.

H. A. WILSON Real Estate Dealer

014 W. Broadway. Phone 242-W.

List your property for sale or for rent
With

Sam P. Stoddard Real Estate

1007 W. Broadway. Glen 105

CLASSIFIED ADS

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

First insertion per line 6 cents.
Minimum charge first time 30 cents.
Succeeding consecutive insertions per line 4 cents. Count 6 words to the line. Cash must accompany order.

FOR SALE

KEEP GLENDALE LAWNS green by using specially prepared fertilizer from MacMullin's Sanitary Dairy. Sunset 154. 33tf

FOR SALE—Knock-down coops and chicken yards for sale at less than cost of material; would exchange for incubators. Anconaland. 1029 N. Pacific avenue, Glendale. 130tf

FOR SALE—A thoroughbred Jersey cow. 639 Moore avenue, Tropic. 129tf

FOR SALE—Cheap, one raccoon. Inquire Fujikawa, 303 West Eighth street, Glendale, or telephone 194-W. 129tf

FOR SALE—Studebaker 25, light delivery body; fine mechanical condition. Home phone 1203 130tf

FOR SALE—Beautiful mahogany parlor set; 3 pieces upholstered in leather; sofa, rocker and armchair. Cheap if taken at once. Glendale 367. 130tf

FOR SALE—2 Angora cats, male and female; also male and female canary birds. Will sell very cheap. Phone Glendale 370; Home Main 179. 128tf

FOR SALE—In Glendale, 3 lots cheap for cash; east front lot on Jackson between First and Doran; west front lot Belmont and Broadway; one lot Maryland and Second; will be sold under value. F. S. Thomas signs on all lots. Will sell or trade one brick, 2-story 9-room house with two baths in Los Angeles, 39th St., one block east of Central avenue. Phone South 4093-J. F. Trost, 917 E. 49th place, Los Angeles. 128tf

FOR SALE—One No. 5 Underwood typewriter in good condition. Price, $35, if taken quickly. Glendale and Montrose Railway, 1111 Broadway. 125tf

FOR SALE—Baby chicks from Wood's White Leghorns that are especially bred and selected for heavy layers. Place orders early to be sure to secure them when wanted; also hatching eggs. H. W. Wood, 1641 West Seventh. Glendale 3163. 117tf

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—California Apartments. 415 1/2 Brand boulevard; fine four-room furnished apartments; also one-room, furnished, arrangement for very light housekeeping. Location the best; prices reasonable. 101tf

FOR RENT—Four room, modern apartment. Peters block, Brand boulevard. Sunset 223 R. 130tf

FOR RENT—Fine Stein piano, good condition. W. H. Lott, 1126 West Twentieth street, Los Angeles. Phone 22809. 129tf

WANTED

WANTED—Poultry of all kinds. We call for same. York Ranch. 1630 Dryden St. Home phone 905. 32tf

WANTED—A second-hand bicycle. State price. Address Box O. Glendale News. 129tf

WANTED—An experienced chocolate dipper. Call at 247 Glendale avenue. 130tf

WANTED—Smart young man for the grocery business; give experience and apply to Box 16, Glendale Evening News. 129tf

HELP WANTED—A girl or elderly woman to do housework for three. Telephone Glendale 1360J. 127tf

WANTED—Three to five room house to be moved. Must be cheap for cash. Frank C. Peters, 1525 Myrtle St. 130tf

WANTED—A very nicely furnished house; rent must be right as good care will be taken of same. Dr. R. L. Young, 403 1/2 Brand boulevard, apartment 24. 130tf

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN—$1000 to $5000 amounts on real estate. G. Irwin Royce, 612 West Broadway. 86tf

MONEY TO LOAN—For economy in rates or expense, see me. J. F. LILLY, 410 S. Brand. Both phones. 130tf

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

DR. F. S. CHAMBERS
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Specialist

323 1/2 S. Brand Boulevard
Office Phone Glendale 1454-J. Residence Phone Glendale 1324

H. C. Smith, M. D.

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Residence, 1641 Stocker St., Glendale. Home: Call L. A. 60866, ask for Glendale 1019; Sunset, Glendale 1019. Office 1114 1/2 W. Broadway, Glendale. Hours, 10-12 a. m., 2-5 p. m.

Dr. Frank N. Arnold

DENTIST
Flower Block, over Glendale Savings Bank, Brand and Broadway
Hours—9-12; 1:30-5
PHONE 458

Dr. T. C. Young

Osteopath, Physician and Surgeon
Office, Filger Bldg., 570 W. Broadway. calls answered promptly night or day. Office Hours—8 to 10 a. m., 1 to 5 p. m. Office Phone—Sunset 348. Residence Phones—Sunset 348, Home 511

Telephones: Office, Glendale 1358; Residence, Glendale 1358.

J. E. Eckles, D. O., M. D.

Osteopath, Physician and Surgeon
Office Hours, 1 to 6 p. m. Other hours by appointment. Office: 1125 N. Central Avenue, Casa Verdugo, Cal. Residence, 1124 Viola Avenue.

Phones—Offices: Colorado 714; Residence Glendale 539-R
Hours—Office, 10 to 1; 2 to 5. Res. by appointment

D. D. COMSTOCK, M. D.

BELLE WOOD-COMSTOCK, M. D.
512-14 Citizens Sav. Bank Bldg., Pasadena, Cal.
Residence—212 N. Isabel St., Glendale

Your watch, no matter what it cost, is no good unless it keeps time. I make watches keep time. Prices quoted before work is done. Also clock and jewelry repairing. All work positively guaranteed.

HARRY B. WALKER
S.S. Phone Glen. 105 1007 W. Bway.

High-Class Dressmaking

AT POPULAR PRICES
MRS. DOUGLAS
1607 Gilbert St. Phone 587J

Robt. O. Widmann J. W. Hays
When in need of an Auto Transfer,
CALL THE
TROPICO AUTO EXPRESS
COMPANY
Successors to
TROPICO EXPRESS and MARTIN
TRANSFER
PROMPT, EFFICIENT SERVICE
We do it right and the Price is Right
Sunset Phone, Glendale 262W
Glendale 138

FRESNO AND TULARE ALFALFA RANCHES

Bargains For Sale and Exchange
E. D. COWAN
Res. 146 South Central Ave.
Glendale 1174-M
Office 228 Van Nuys Bldg. Main 3440

FOR EXCHANGE

FOR EXCHANGE—Clear corner lot 108x150 on Central avenue. Want improved close in. E. H. Kerker, Second and Brand. Sunset Glendale 108. 129tf

MISCELLANEOUS

"YOU CAN GET IT DONE" at Young's Repair Shop, 425 1-2 So. Brand Blvd., if you want your lawn mower sharpened, saw filed, soldering or repair work in general done. Or phone Glendale 276-R if you want a stove connected, gas fitting or plumbing repaired, or any kind of stove or heater, cooking or heating appliance repaired and put in working order. All work guaranteed.

PAPER hanging and tinting reasonable. All work guaranteed first class. Estimates furnished. C. Fromm, 249 East Third street, telephone 305-J. 83tf

FIRM AS A ROCK

"There," he said, pulling his shirt sleeves over his brawny arms and surveying the clothes prop which had taken him the best part of the afternoon to fix in the garden, "that's as firm as a rock. Even the combined forces of the elements cannot bring it down."

Later in the day he found the pole on the ground.

"Did you do this?" he roared to his eight-year-old son.

"No, father," was the answer; "a sparrow perched on it. I see it myself."—London Globe.

Theorist—Our housewives ought to be encouraged to make their own bread. The homemade article would not be so liable to go up.

Practical Friend—No; if it's all the kind my wife tried to make it would be too heavy to do any rising.—Exchange.

Switzerland's peace proposals are beginning to look like a chunk of her famous dairy product.—Boston Transcript.

We repair Clocks, Watches, Jewelry and any kind of small instrument work—Keys Duplicated.

Peck's Jewelry Store
1108 W. Broadway, Glendale
Phone Sunset Glendale 1349M.

Have You Tried Our Motorcycle Delivery Service?

You'll find it Prompt, Reliable and Convenient.
Phone an order and give it a trial.
Any time from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Spohr's Rexall Store Cut-Rate Druggist

Both Phones 1 5 6
We Deliver

Personals

Geo. Pfaff returned from a business trip to San Diego Saturday.

Walter Whitworth of 205 N. Jackson has moved to Los Angeles, where he will make his future home.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby, 323 South Louise street, Glendale, Sunday, January 29, 1917, an eight-pound son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Prikett of 1571 W. Fifth St., Glendale, Saturday, January 27, 1917, a nine-pound son.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben George of Arden avenue entertained relatives and friends from Los Angeles and Long Beach Sunday.

Wyllis S. Abbot and Raymond E. Wilson of Venice, both being newspaper men of that city, made a business call in Glendale, Sunday.

J. G. Dean, expert chemist employed at the cement works at Victorville, spent the week-end with his family at the corner of Burchett street and Central avenue.

Miss Dorothy Hobbs returned Sunday to her home, 600 North Central avenue, Tropic, from Berkeley, where she has been visiting her friend, Miss Kathleen Dodge, who is attending State Normal School in San Francisco.

Friends of Billy Anderson, who has been ill in Arizona with a severe attack of pneumonia, will be glad to know that he is convalescing. A letter from his mother, who went to care for him during his illness, says he is able to sit up.

Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Smart attended the South Dakota State picnic Saturday at Sycamore grove, meeting many old-time friends. There were between two and three thousand in attendance. Rev. Smart was one of the speakers on the program.

Mrs. Robert Ellis and daughter Patience of Normandie avenue and 39th place, Los Angeles, spent Sunday with her son, Lawrence Ellis, and family, 537 S. Kenwood street, attending the laying of the corner stone of the First M. E. church in the afternoon.

Miss Ruth Palmer, 116 West Colorado street, will be hostess Tuesday evening to the young people of the Y. P. B., when that organization gives a social. A good program has been prepared and a splendid time is promised any who attend. An invitation is extended to all the young people of the valley.

Mrs. Lawrence Ellis of 537 S. Kenwood street attended a banquet at Christopher's in Los Angeles, Saturday evening, given by the Theta Alumnae Association of Southern California. Mrs. Ellis is a member of the Theta Sorority of De Pauw College, Greencastle, Ind., and also of the Southern California Association.

Mrs. H. H. Parker of 411 North Kenwood street entertained at luncheon to-day in honor of Mrs. H. E. Adams of Rochester, N. Y., who is visiting this winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Weaver. After luncheon the afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework and social converse. Those present were Mrs. R. A. Chase, Mrs. H. R. Boyer, Mrs. A. L. Weaver, Mrs. H. E. Adams and the hostess.

The Thursday Afternoon Club will have a card party at the home of Mrs. C. W. Kimberly, 345 South San Fernando road, this evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kelley of Torrance on Sunday, January 28, a nine-pound baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley formerly lived on Glendale avenue and have many friends in this city.

Mrs. Horace Stanley Yeaman and Mrs. Edith L. Braswell and son Horace have returned to their home, 122 South Central avenue, after a most delightful sojourn of three months at Coronado.

Frank Bell, C. S., member of the board of lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., will give a free lecture on Christian Science at the church edifice, corner Maryland avenue and Second street, to-night.

Hon. John Davis and wife of Plentywood, Montana, and Mrs. Emma Holbrook of Traverse, B. C., are guests of J. C. Bardsley of Sixth street, North Glendale. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Holbrook are sisters of Mrs. Bardsley and they will remain here for some months, or until the weather moderates at their home cities. They will visit other sections of Southern California while here.

Company B of the Engineering Corps, under the supervision of Capt. Ervine, Lieut. Kirk and Lieut. J. E. Rockhold, the latter of Glendale, were busy yesterday on the roads to the San Fernando valley doing practice work, preliminary to making maps of Los Angeles county for the War Department. Between 35 to 40 were in the party, and they had dinner at Griffith Park.

Misses Gertie and Sarah Baum of Los Angeles gave a party at the K. of P. hall in Tropic last night in honor of the tenth wedding anniversary of their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. Baum of 526 Glendale avenue. The evening was very enjoyably spent in music and dancing, and a very bountiful supper was served, the pretty table decorations being in green and white. About fifty-eight guests were present to help celebrate the happy occasion and extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Baum.

IOWA PICNIC REUNION

The great annual Iowa picnic reunion will be held in Eastlake Park, Los Angeles, February 22, 1917, Washington's Birthday. (If rainy that date or just before it will be postponed to the first pleasant Saturday thereafter.) There will be registers and headquarters for each of the ninety-nine counties, for each of the colleges and for the "Boys who wore the Blue." Special college hour from three to four o'clock. There will be a brief program at two o'clock and the new president, Judge Frank R. Willis, will preside. Come early and stay late and make a jolly day of it.

Tourists and visitors will be warmly welcomed. Bring your well filled dinner baskets. Pass this word along to all your Hawkeye friends. Other information may be secured from the secretary, C. H. Parsons, at the California Savings Bank, Los Angeles.

WEATHER FORECAST—Cloudy to-night and Tuesday. Light westerly winds.

BOUDOIR SHOWER

A very pretty social affair on Saturday was the boudoir shower tendered Miss Janie Ray by Misses Gladys Hamilton and Catherine Hobbs at the home of the latter, 600 North Central avenue, Tropic. The guests gathered in the late afternoon and games were enjoyed for a time. In the game of "Sweethearts," the prize was won by Miss Ruth Williams. The prize was a pair of very pretty crystal candlesticks and pink candles, which Miss Williams presented to the bride-to-be, who was the guest of honor. As the curtains were opened and Miss Ray entered she was greeted with the sight of a huge watering pot suspended from the chandelier over the center of the dining table, from the spout of which ribbons were suspended and at the end of each ribbon a package was tied containing some dainty, beautiful boudoir article. The novel way of presenting the shower was very attractive, and after Miss Ray had received the many gifts presented by her friends all sat down to a daintily appointed two-course luncheon. The color scheme carried out in the house and table decorations was white and pink. The evening proved a most happy one for the guest of honor and her friends. Miss Ray becomes a bride on Saturday of this week. The guests invited were Misses Alice Gray Beach, Dorinda Haviland, Dorothy Morgan, Lois Candee, Ruth Williams, May Church, Gladys Anderson, Vera McPherson, Lorraine Mitchell, Barbara Mitchell, Eulalia Richardson, Emily Elliott, Mamie Fenton, Violet Turner, Alma Turner, Lulu Green, Lura Hibben, Alice McCoy, Vera Holloway, Mary Logan, Blanche Shea, Effie Wilson, Janie Ray and Martha Ray, Mrs. Louis Coole, Mrs. Glenn Craig, Mrs. Blanche Ballinger and Mrs. J. M. Ray, mother of the bride-to-be.

COMPLIMENT NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Baker were at home Sunday evening to a few of the younger married people from 4:30 to 7, entertaining in this delightful informal way for Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Chambers, who have recently moved to Glendale from Los Angeles, taking the house at 1219 West First street. Mrs. Chambers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Norton of Long Beach, old-time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Baker, and this charming young matron will be quite an acquisition to Glendale's younger social set. Mrs. Chambers, assisted by Mrs. Baker, will receive Wednesday afternoon, February 7, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at her home, 1219 West First street.

NOVEL PLANT GRAB

Who wants to grab a plant? Every adult attending the meeting on Thursday evening at the High School auditorium may put in their hand and pull out a plant. The lecturer alone will be well worth hearing, Mr. C. Raitt, Superintendent of the L. A. Playground Commission; the stereopticon pictures will be wonderful to gaze upon; and a huge plant-grab at the close of the lecture will amuse everybody and will give everybody a plant for their garden for nothing. All this is free to the public—lecture, pictures and plants. One hundred bulbs of first class gladioli will be amongst the many surprises in the plant-grab; also darling pansy plants and many others too numerous to mention. The auditorium will be filled with folks, so come early Thursday evening, February 1, at 8 o'clock sharp. Under auspices of Glendale Garden Society. NANNO WOODS.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Cora L. Deacon of 1615 Oak street wishes to announce the marriage of her son Walter David to Evelyn Mae Hughes on Wednesday afternoon, January twenty-fourth, at five o'clock, Rev. Norcross of the West Glendale Methodist Episcopal Church officiating.

The wedding was originally planned for the early summer, but on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Deacon, it was deemed advisable to have a quiet ceremony with only immediate relatives present.

MAKING EASY MONEY

Boys and girls are already making easy money, selling tickets for the Glendale Garden Society benefit to be given Friday evening at the Palace Grand. Everybody in Glendale and Tropic wants to see "A Modern Cinderella," and although the tickets are out only 12 hours, they are selling like hot cakes. Commission is paid on everything sold. So if you want to make pocket money, boys and girls, here is your chance. But start right away before all the tickets are sold. Phone up Sunset phones, Glendale 394, or Glendale 648, or Glendale 330 W. to get the tickets, or Glendale 395W. NANNO WOODS.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The annual meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce for the election of officers will be held at the City Hall, Tuesday evening, January 30, at 8 o'clock.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Mr. P. G. Maitland and family wish to express their sincere thanks for the kindness and sympathy extended to them in their recent bereavement.

YEOMEN'S MASQUERADE

The Tropic Lodge of Yeomen, No. 3989, gave its fourth annual masquerade ball at Yeomen's hall in Tropic on Friday evening, 160 people being in attendance, sixty or seventy of whom were in costume and masked. Busch's orchestra furnished the music for dancing and a splendid time was enjoyed by all present. There were a number of very handsome and clever costumes, the first ladies prize for the best costume going to Miss Hazel Anderson of Glendale, who was dressed as the Goddess of Liberty; the second prize to Miss Eva Torri of Tropic, who represented a poppy; the first gentleman's prize was awarded to Thomas Lynch of Los Angeles, who wore a Spanish costume, and the second prize to Levert Goddard of Tropic, who wore a very funny double-faced costume, and you couldn't tell whether he was going or coming. Other costumes worthy of special mention were a Scotch lassie's costume worn by Miss Louise Fellows; a jockey suit by Jim Griswold; a Jewish costume by Ed Shipman, and a gypsy dress by Mrs. Ed Shipman. The Yeomen took over the old K. of P. hall when that lodge completed its new building, furnishing it entirely, and dances are given thereon the fourth Friday evening of every month. And at the close of the regular lodge meeting every Friday night a social dance is enjoyed from 10 to 12 o'clock, and these affairs are always greatly enjoyed.

WHY NOT HAVE A REVIVAL?

In another column of this issue is an announcement of the election of officers of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at a meeting which will be held in the City Hall, Tuesday evening, January 30, at eight o'clock. Every member of the chamber and every prospective member should be present and consider plans for conducting a Chamber of Commerce that will be wideawake to everything that will tend to further the interests of Glendale. The Evening News stands out and out for a chamber that is big enough to represent all of Glendale from Montrose to the San Fernando Road, with no favors to anybody, and fair play to every one.

GOSPEL TABERNACLE

Rev. Geo. W. Davis will speak at the Gospel Tabernacle, corner of Louise and Chestnut streets, Tuesday evening, January 30, at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, The Amalgamation of the Nation, an act of certainty, but a failure of action, being a discussion of the President's message to the Senate with reference to the European war as a fulfillment of prophecy.

THE BITER BITTEN

A Boston man went to a dealer to purchase a dozen homing pigeons and was both surprised and delighted at the extremely low price asked for the birds. The bargain was finally concluded and the pigeons delivered. Two weeks later the gentleman happened to be passing when the dealer stopped him and asked him how the birds were getting on. "I don't know," replied the gentleman. "I have not heard from my friend." "Your friend?" "Yes; I bought them for a man in San Francisco." The dealer's jaw dropped in dismay, and then, with a rueful laugh he admitted that he had sold the birds so cheaply because he knew that on being released they would immediately return to their old home. But from San Francisco! It was a clear case of the biter being bitten.

FRENCH METHOD

French cooks blanch all vegetables before cooking. That is to say, they pour boiling water upon them, let it stand a minute, then pour it off and cover with very cold water. This improves their flavor and makes cleanliness more certain—the blanching often removes taints which have defied washing. Another fine point is in cutting vegetables, as for soups, sauces, garnishes, to make the pieces as nearly as possible equal in size. Not only do the even bits cook more equally, but the flavor is distributed better.

PLEASURE IN WELL DOING

Pleasure has a way of coming indirectly—where least you look for her and when least you expect her. She lurks in the happiness of work well done. She lingers in the consciousness of honest bookkeeping with life, and she always is to be found in the joy of growth and progress. In all these ways honest pleasure is to be found.

This isn't meant to be a dull preaching against anything but work. But it does mean to say that happiness lies in doing and the consciousness of well doing.

NEW CANDY STORE

Ice cream soda, 5c; try our 5c Sundae. Home-made candies fresh daily. Milk, Cream, Buttermilk, Cheese, Fer-mil-lac. Best Butter, 45c. Den O'Sweets, 1009 W. Broadway, Glendale. 129ft

Confession may be good for the soul, but it's often rough on the reputation.—Charleston News and Courier.

May Be Half Luck---

It is said success is the result of one-half luck and one-half ability.

ABILITY means precaution, alertness, earnestness, thrift and work.

A good thing may come your way by pure chance.

A Savings Account or a Checking Account with this Bank may place you in a position to take advantage of the opportunity that comes by chance.

Bank of Glendale

Broadway and Glendale Ave.

Boulevard Branch

340 Brand Boulevard

Grief's last Offering

The last offering that grief makes at the bier of some departed friend or relative is a funeral that is in keeping with the character of the mourners' thoughts. Our scientific knowledge of the undertaking business, gained from 25 years practical experience, has made it possible for us to offer you the best possible service.

Pulliam Undertaking Co.

919-921 WEST BROADWAY

SUNSET 201

GLENDALE

HOME 334

We Hold Up For Inspection

and we know we'll have your approval of the quality of our work. We introduce no innovations in our establishment except those that work out for the best interests of our customers. No matter what it costs us, we do your laundry work without it costing you any more.

Glendale Laundry Co.

Arden and Columbus

SUNSET 163

BOTH PHONES

HOME 723

Don't Go To Los Angeles

To Buy Your Furniture

SAVE TIME, SAVE MONEY BY BUYING IT AT THE

Glendale Furniture Store

A complete stock of Household Necessities as well as New and Second-Hand Furniture. Special Prices on Beds, Springs Mattresses.

REMEMBER THE PLACE

606-608 W. Broadway

Glendale

Phone Sunset Glendale 20W

Now is the Time to Buy Fertilizer

WE CARRY

Duff's, $2.60 per 100 lbs.
Nuvida, $3.00 per 100 lbs.
Cudahy, $3.00 per 100 lbs.
Gypsum, $1.00 per 100 lbs.

VALLEY SUPPLY CO.

306-308 SOUTH BRAND BOULEVARD

PHONE SUNSET 537;

HOME 192

AUCTION SALE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Wednesday, Jan. 31st

10 a. m., at 342 S. Adams S., Glendale

Consisting of furniture, china and crockeryware, rugs, carpets, large wardrobe, china cabinet, book case, large collection of pitchers and small china, many beautiful framed pictures, oil paintings and plaques. All the above goods were owned by the late Mrs. A. F. Hinman, Lorraine street, Casa Verdugo, and will be sold to the highest bidder without reserve.

B. C. HINMAN

TUJUNGA

Mrs. Dunn of Stevensway has just received a letter from her husband who left recently for Honolulu, stating that business and conditions generally were very good and really better than he expected to find them. Mr. Dunn was formerly with Barker-Bros. of Los Angeles but will go into business for himself in Honolulu. Mrs. Dunn is making arrangements to dispose of their holdings here and will join her husband some time this summer.

G. J. Fisher our enterprising feed man was in Los Angeles on business Thursday.

Mrs. Sheeler of the firm of Sheeler and Morlan was in Los Angeles Tuesday and Wednesday visiting friends and looking after business for the firm.

Thos. Saeger of 1215 Central ave., Casa Verdugo, is having a bungalow built on Stevensway. G. W. Calkins of Casa Verdugo is the contractor. The Saegers are now living in leased property pending the completion of their new home. Mrs. Saeger is afflicted with asthma and finds the climate here to be very beneficial to her.

John McGroarty has returned from his Eastern tour with the Mission Play and is taking a much needed rest at his noted mountain villa.

Miss Marie Van Batten who has been visiting her parents on Monte Vista boulevard the past two weeks, returned Thursday to the Burbank Hospital where she is employed as a nurse.

Mrs. Hagenbush is having a cobblestone fence built in front of her property on Sunset boulevard and will make other improvements necessary for the upkeep of her property.

The Colonial Club which has been holding its meetings on Thursday night have changed their meetings to Saturday night and the annual meeting will be held Saturday night, January 27. After the annual election of directors the evening will be spent in dancing. This is an important meeting and every member is urged to be present.

Under the able leadership of Miss Salstrum and Miss Wilson, a school play will be given at Bolton Hall Tuesday night January 30. The program consists of two plays, "The Toy Shop" will be given by the primary grade and "The Ruggles Family" will be the title of the play given by the intermediate grades. Miss Dorothy Maygrove will preside at the piano. Those interested have worked very hard to make this entertainment a success and they surely deserve a good attendance. The proceeds are to swell the fund to buy a piano for the school which is very badly needed by the children.

F. H. Johnson and Mr. Granger of La Canada, Mr. Lancaster and Mr. Rowley of Sunland, Mr. Cobb and Mr. Nettleton of La Crescenta and Mr. P. J. Blake of Tujunga representatives of the Foothills Valley Federation met with Mr. Ashby, president of the federation Thursday night and discussed plans for boosting the different projects for the betterment of the valley, and to prepare and formulate plans to be presented to the federation at their regular quarterly meeting to be held at the La Canada school house on February 12.

Dr. M. C. Martin and wife of Los Angeles were in Tujunga Thursday looking for a suitable place to move into until they can build a bungalow. Mrs. Martin is suffering with the asthma and feels sure that this climate will be very beneficial to her.

Mrs. Emma Hoffman has just returned from a visit to her husband and friends in Madera county. The climate didn't agree with her and she was obliged to cut her visit short and return to Tujunga, which she feels she never wants to leave again, as her health is so much better here. She is purchasing a cow and is going into the milk business on a small scale.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon. The principal topic of the afternoon was "California." Prof. Loomis' book on California was read by Mrs. Miles and each club member gave her experiences since being in California, which proved very interesting. The club will hold a sewing circle at the home of Mrs. Miles on San Ysidro street on Feb. 7th to meet at 9 a. m. A paper lunch will be served at noon. A good attendance is desired, not only of club members, but other ladies being very welcome.

LA CRESCENTA

It is reported that Mrs. Mary L. Thompson of Penn. Ave. has been very ill the last week with a serious attack of heart trouble, her old ailment.

Mrs. Katherine Gray left on Wednesday for Ames, Iowa, where she will accept a position in the Ames bank. She has been residing for the past few months at Claremont.

The Ladies Aid will assemble for an all-day meeting next Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church. All members are invited to be present. Hot lunch will be served to the school children at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Whiting returned last week after a two weeks' trip to Chicago and Milwaukee where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce entertained D. B. Newell as a dinner guest Tuesday evening. Miss Florence Bruce also entertained her little friend, Miss Helen Middlekauff, for the evening.

A. H. Shultz, who has been laid up the past two weeks with la grippe, is reported quite well again.

Missionary Society Meeting

It is announced that the next meeting of the Missionary Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Rheinchild, Friday, February 2, at 2:30 p. m. Outgoing officers are planning to give a reception in honor of the newly elected officers. All members are asked to come.

To Plant Trees

La Crescentaites are planning a tree planting day for Crescenta the latter part of next month. The day has not been chosen yet, but arrangements have been made with the Los Angeles Forestry Service to get the trees at the lowest possible price. It has been decided to plant pepper trees on Los Angeles avenue. Residents on Mayfield avenue will put in the red gums. Different varieties of trees will also be planted along Michigan avenue and Prospect avenue.

Baseball has been given the taboo at the Crescenta school in favor of the greater game, "Dare Base," lately. The young Walter Johnsons and Ty Cobbs like "Fannie" Foy and "Whitey" Thompson declare baseball is getting stale so "Dare Base" is all the fad now.

The residents and owners on Prospect avenue have planted acacias on each side of the street. These trees, with their wealth of yellow blossoms, will make this street a beauty spot when they attain their growth.

The scarcity of coal and these nippy days were a combination that caused Mr. Ed. Nettleton to install a distillate plant as a means of running his furnace.

SUNLAND

We want to call your attention to the Valentine social to be given by the Monte Vista School Improvement club Friday evening, Feb. 9th, at the Rowley hall at the corner of Flower street and Central avenue. Admission free. General manager, Mrs. Geo. Bernhard, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Richardson. The following chairmen of the different committees have been appointed: Entertainment, Mrs. Nance; advertising, Mrs. Richardson; reception, Mrs. Fruman. There will be booths in charge of the following ladies: Candy booth, Miss Kimball; valentine booth, Mrs. Nance; tamale booth, Mrs. A. Shelley; cake and coffee booth, Mrs. Garner; fish pond, Mrs. Richardson; fortune telling, Mrs. Lewis. The decorations will be under the direction of Mrs. S. D. Percey. There will be fine music by the band and orchestra. The proceeds of the booths is to go toward paying for the school piano. Let everybody come and have a good time and help the good cause along. Doors open at 7:30.

Mr. Geo. Edgley received the sad news of the death of his mother in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was 83 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chase have been the guests of Mrs. L. J. Freeman the past week.

Joe Arzozomi steps high. Cause, he is father of an 8 1/2 lb. boy, born Saturday morning at the French hospital, Los Angeles.

Mr. L. T. Rowley left Tuesday night for Sacramento to attend a three-days' convention of the Commercial-Secretaries. He will spend a few days in San Francisco before returning home. Mr. Eustace Rowley has charge of the hardware store during his father's absence.

Mrs. M. Sherwood from Sioux Falls, S. D., and Mrs. George of Los Angeles are visiting at the home of their cousin, Mr. A. D. Kirschman.

Mr. Johnson, father of C. B. Johnson and J. J. Johnson of Sunland, died at his home in Turlock January 15th. The immediate cause of his death was cancer. Mr. Johnson was one of the early settlers of Sunland, having taken up the homestead now occupied by C. B. Johnson.

Rev. Wester has been preaching an interesting series of sermons on "Burden Bearing." The first one on the text "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ;" the second on the text, "Every man shall bear his own burden," and the third from the fifty-fifth Psalm, "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee." He showed that taken in their context these Scriptures were not contrary at all. That in one sense we can help bear one another's burdens; that in another, every man must bear his own burden of sin. He must repent for himself and he himself must put his faith in Christ. Every man must bear his own burden of service. And the last text—we have no business to carry about a burden of worries.

A WISH

I'd like to be a boy again, a care-free prince of joy again.

I'd like to tread the hills and dales the way I used to do;

I'd like the tattered shirt again, the knickers thick with dirt again.

The ugly dusty feet again that long ago I knew.

I'd like to play first base again, and Sliver's curves to face again.

I'd like to climb the way I did a friendly apple tree,

For, knowing what I do today, could I but wander back and play

I'd get full measure of the joy that boyhood gave to me.

I'd like to a lad again, a youngster wild and glad again,

I'd like to sleep and eat again the way I used to do;

I'd like to race and run again and drain from life its fun again

And start another round of joy the moment one was through.

But care and strife have come to me, and often days are glum to me,

And sleep is not the thing it was and food is not the same;

And I have sighed and now that I must journey on again to sigh,

And I have stood at envy's point and heard the voice of shame.

I've learned that joys are fleeting things; the parting pain each meeting brings;

That gain and loss are partners here, and so are smiles and tears;

That only boys from day to day can drain and fill the cup of play,

That age must mourn for what is lost throughout the coming years.

But boys cannot appreciate their priceless joy until too late

And those who own the charms I had will soon be changed to men;

And then they, too, will sit as I and backward turn to look and sigh

And share my longing, vain, to be a care-free boy again.

—Edgar A. Guest in Detroit Free Press.

POWERFUL EFFECT

"The people who preach economy for others sometimes have to turn in and practice economy for themselves," said a railroad man. "I once asked a business man:

"Well, George, did you feed your wife that lecture on economy you said you were going to?"

"Yep," George grunted, with a gesture of disgust.

"Have any effect?" said I.

"It sure did," said George. "I've bought myself a safety razor, cut out cigars in favor of a pipe and had last season's suit cleaned so as to make it see me through this year." —Washington Star.

WORSE AND WORSER

Once the lads who sold insurance Taxed your soul beyond endurance

Morning, noon and night.

They pursued you night time, day time,

Summer, winter, autumn, May time,

Never out of sight.

They pursued you eating, drinking,

Waking, sleeping, toiling, thinking,

They were busy gents.

You could hardly ever shake them,

Yet the auto salesmen make them

Look like thirty cents.

—Geo. E. Phair in Examiner.

IF ANY

"Now tell us," sternly demanded the young legal luminary whose brow overhung like the back of a snapping turtle, addressing the cowering witness, "what was the weather, if any, upon the afternoon in question?"

INVOLVING THE BENCH

Court (to prosecutor)—Then you recognize this handkerchief as the one which was stolen?"

Prosecutor—Yes, your honor.

Court—And yet it isn't the only handkerchief of the sort in the world. See, this one I have in my pocket is exactly like it.

Prosecutor—Very likely, your honor; there were two stolen.

SAVED HIS MONEY

"Two penn'orth of bicarbonate of soda for indigestion at this time of night," cried the chemist, who had been aroused at two a. m., "when a glass of hot water does just as well."

"Weel, weel," returned Sandy hastily, "I thank you for the advice. I'll no bother ye after all. Gude night!"

We are to cast all our cares on the Lord.

Mr. Earl Sims will run a stage free of charge from Sunland to Tujunga on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30, for the benefit of those who wish to see the play entitled "The Toy Shop," given by Miss Saulstrum, Miss Wilson and the children of the Tujunga school. This play is given for the benefit of the school piano. The stage will leave the stand near the park at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Geo. Harmer had the misfortune of slipping and spraining his ankle.

Facts and Comment

The Redlands city engineer has arranged with the county for the fumigating of all trees in Redlands infested with the scale, the cost to be charged to the property owners.

The cotton crop of the Imperial valley for this season is estimated at between 55,000 and 57,000 bales. Not more than 40,000 bales have been ginned to date. This new California industry continues to grow in importance.

Saturday, March 31, has been definitely fixed as the date for the Carnival of States to be held at Long Beach. A big states parade will be held in the morning and the annual Southern California inter-scholastic track meet will be held in the afternoon.

The Epworth League convention of Mexican churches in Southern California was held in Pasadena the last of the week. A banquet was given the delegates in the First Methodist church, Pasadena, by the Pasadena Epworth League on Friday night.

The spring flower show of the Horticultural Society of Redlands will be held on April 13 and 14. There will be 102 classes. Interest will center in the two challenge cups, the George Willer cup for amateurs and the Chamber of Commerce cup for professionals.

Jotham Bixby, "the father of Long Beach," and one of the best known pioneers of Southern California, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday and has since been in a critical condition at his home in Long Beach. Mr. Bixby celebrated his 86th birthday on January 20, when he seemed to be in splendid health.

Alhambra had had a "Trade-at-Home" day on Saturday, the citizens being urged on that day to visit the home shops, note the lines of goods they carried, get prices and make comparisons. The Advocate of that city announces that its columns are open to patrons who desire to write what the results were in their own particular cases.

The first car of Imperial Valley head lettuce for the season was shipped from Heber on the 18th, a month earlier than the first car shipped last year. The car contained 300 crates, each crate containing four dozen heads weighing 16 ounces or better a head. The heads were packed in finely chopped ice to insure their keeping fresh for the northern and eastern markets.

A colonization project having for its object the supplying of workers for the cotton fields, is on foot in the Imperial valley. The Jennifer tract of a quarter section is being prepared with houses on five-acre tracts to accommodate a score or more of families who are to arrive in the valley the first part of February. It is thought a more satisfactory class of laborers can be secured for the cotton fields in this way.

Commander A. E. Leavitt and Colonel John H. Roberts, assistant adjutant general, both of San Francisco, visited Long Beach Friday for the purpose of conferring with veterans at Long Beach regarding the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of California and Nevada. The encampment will probably be held in May. The officers are also inspecting posts in Southern California. Colonel Roberts says there are about 6000 G. A. R. veterans in California.

The vacant lots in several of the Southland cities are being utilized to reduce the high cost of living. At Anaheim it has been suggested that the board of trade co-operate with the public schools by arranging to place at the disposal of the seventh and eighth grade pupils studying agriculture many of the vacant lots about the city for practical demonstration of their work. Much the same thing is being done by state school authorities at Chico. The same suggestion is being made in Alhambra.

According to the report filed for the year by the county horticultural commissioner, Riverside produced more than $8,000,000 worth of orchard and farm products during 1916. The orange and lemon crop represent nearly 45 per cent. of the value of the year's product. Cotton is becoming extremely important in the eastern portion of the county, the value of the crop for the year amounting to $600,000. The output varies from cherries to cotton, practically every product known to the temperate zone being produced in Riverside county.

Proceedings looking toward the annexation to Los Angeles of approximately 3200 acres in the Tujunga district, that the people may be supplied with aqueduct water, were started at the meeting of the public service commission last week. The territory to be joined to the city will probably include Monte Vista, Sunland, Hansen Heights, Tujunga Terrace and the Los Angeles Land and Water Company's subdivision in the McClay rancho. The question of annexation came up as a result of an appeal that the public service department purchase the water system of the Tujunga Water & Power Company, now supplying the district.

AUTOMOBILE DIRECTORY
Automobiles Vulcanizers Machine Shops Garages

The Studebaker New 18 Series
Touring Cars and Roadsters are now on hand. See them at our Salesroom or phone for Demonstration.
STUDEBAKER AGENCY, 421 BRAND BLVD., GLENDALE

The Monarch Company
(Brand Boulevard Garage)
TIRES Kelley-Springfield, Dayton, Fisk and Tyrian
Sunset 679 Home Red 83
ACCESSORIES 421 S. Brand Boulevard Glendale

Jesse E. Smith Company Broadway and Kenwood Sts. GLENDALE
FORD  AGENTS
Glendale—Los Angeles—Tropico—Eagle Rock
SERVICE FIRST—Guaranteed Repair Work. Glendale 432; Home 2573.

HOWARD W. WALKER
DISTRIBUTOR
DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS
GLENDALE, TROPICO, CASA VERDUGO, EAGLE ROCK GLENDALE
1107 BROADWAY

CONRAD VULCANIZING CO.
822 W. BROADWAY, Ford Agency Bldg., GLENDALE, CAL.
Retreads Guaranteed 3500 Miles. Michelin, Norwalk, Racine Horseshoe, Diamond and Firestone Tires in Stock
TEST OUR GUARANTEE. Tel. Glendale Sunset 1469

Moving Day
MADE EASY
Richardson Transfer
READY RELIABLE REASONABLE
DAILY TRIPS TO AND FROM LOS ANGELES
Office 343 Brand Blvd. Both Phones: Sunset 748; Home 2241

GOING TO MOVE?
If so, let us give you an estimate
Cross-country trips a specialty
Transfer and Moving
Work of all kinds, Piano Moving and Storage, Furniture Crated for Shipping.
BAGGAGE
Prompt service to all R. R. stations. Daily Truck service to and from Glendale, Tropico and Los Angeles.
Both Phones: Home 2233, Sunset 428
Night Phone: Sunset Glendale 1178J
Robinson Bros.
Transfer and Storage
1111 1/2 W. Bdwy.
Rear P. E. Station Glendale, Cal.

PICTURE FRAMING
The Glendale Book Store
C. H. BOTT, Prop.
413 S. BRAND. Phone 219
SARA E. POLLARD,
Public Stenographer and Notary Public
Phone Sunset Glendale 219 or 173-R

Have Johnny Marvel Haul Your BAGGAGE
Leave your checks at the Glendale Taxi Baggage Service office, 1102 W. Broadway. We make all L. A. Railroad stations and do package delivery. Phone Sunset Glendale 462; Home 319.
TRY US—WE SELL
RUGS, FURNITURE
WINDOW SHADES, LINOLEUMS
GLENDALE
HOUSEFURNISHING CO.
417 BRAND BLVD., GLENDALE, CAL.