RUSSIA'S MIGHT NOW COMING INTO PLAY

CENTRE PARTY ABOUT TO MOVE IN GERMANY; WILL TRY FOR PEACE

Will Make Declaration Without Regarding Liberal's Attitude; Uproar in Austrian House When Germany Attacked.

Amsterdam, July 16.—A Berlin telegram to an Amsterdam news agency quotes the Berliner Tageblatt to the effect that the Roman Catholic Centre party in the Reichstag has decided with two dissenting votes to make a declaration in favor of peace efforts without regard to the attitude of the National Liberals.

Zurich, July 16.—The Austrian Reichsrath was thrown into an uproar on Saturday when the former Czech Minister, Herr Praschek, declared the hate of the entire world was not directed against Austria, but against Germany, and that Austria should detach herself from her ally, says a Vienna dispatch.

"How are we to obtain peace if we cling to the German side?" demanded Herr Praschek. "Must we continue to sacrifice our interests to the expansion of Germany? Must we continue to submit to the German militarism that has drawn us into this war?"

The speaker declared that Czech deputies had been imprisoned for attempting to bring about an alliance of Austria with Russia and France, and added that if they were to be stigmatized as traitors, then all Czechs who believed similarly should be stigmatized.

New Chancellor.
Copenhagen, July 16.—Dr. George Michaelis, the new Chancellor of Germany, will deliver his maiden speech in the Reichstag on Thursday. The address is expected to contain an announcement of his forthcoming programme.

Field-Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, who were summoned to Berlin by the Kaiser, are continuing their conferences with party leaders. Dr. Michaelis is participating in the movement.

The Pan-German Independent League adopted a resolution of protest against the proposed peace action of the Reichstag, declaring the adoption of the majority programme would result in indefinite continuance of the war and the political and economical ruin of the Germans.

Dr. Michaelis is the father of a family of a size encouraged by Kaiser Wilhelm. He has five children living, one son having been killed in the war. Two daughters are engaged in public welfare work and the third daughter is in charge of a soldiers' convalescent home.

GERMANS NOT READY FOR REVOLUTION

Successful Upeaval Will Not Come at Once, Say British Writers

London, July 16.—The time for an uprising in Germany which will sweep away the autocracy still is far distant, according to the views of the afternoon papers to-day, commenting on the situation created by Germany's switch of Chancellors. The Pall Mall Gazette's opinion is typical.

"The German crisis," that newspaper asserts, "has ended, as usual, in a practical reminder that the Kaiser and the army are the supreme factors in the control of Germany. Germany will continue her attitude of truculence. There is abundant, vague ferment among her population, but the desperate agony that alone begets courage for a revolution still is far distant."

"This is the third famous Junker victory since the war started," declares the Manchester Guardian. "The first was the German decision to wage war, and the second was the institution of unlimited submarine operations."

"Again the Kaiser has allowed his own judgment to be overborne by the Crown Prince and the Junkers, who must now attempt to justify their faith in the sword and themselves by a supreme effort on land and on sea."

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's downfall was generally regarded here to-day as a Junker victory. Whether the militarists' coup will be able to do more than merely retard the progress of democracy in the empire is one on which observers differ. The Crown Prince and his group now seem to have triumphed.

Now Desperation of German Chiefs Plain, Says British Experts

London, July 16.—All the earmarks of German desperation are discerned by military experts here in reviewing the military situation. The present German activities along the western front, they declare, suggest the struggles of an animal driven to bay which sees the deathblow about to fall and which it seeks to avoid at all costs.

The best informed opinion here is extremely optimistic regarding the military and naval situation. The outlook is splendid, they say, and this confidence is shared by all who are in a position to be acquainted with the real facts of the situation.

AT MONTEVIDEO.

Montevideo, July 16.—Admiral Caperton and other officers of the South Atlantic American squadron were entertained to-day at a football game here for the benefit of the Red Cross.

THE WONDER-WORKER OF THE NEW RUSSIA; MINISTER KERENSKY

FRENCH HOLD PRACTICALLY ALL OF STRONG NETWORK OF TRENCHES THEY CAPTURED ON FRONT IN CHAMPAGNE

London, July 16.—The hard fighting that has marked the last few days along the French front in Northern France still continues. Last night German troops made a desperate attempt to regain the important observation posts they lost when the French on Saturday night took a strongly fortified position in the vicinity of Mont Haut and the Teton, in the Champagne. The attacking forces were able to make no impression on the Teton positions and at Mont Haut they got only a narrow foothold on the edge of the disputed ground.

French troops in local operations made some progress south of Ailles, on the Alsine front, and repulsed several strong attacks near St. Quentin and south of Corbeny.

On the British front only raiding operations and artillery and aeroplane activities are reported.

French Report.

Paris, July 16.—A strong series of German attacks last night between the Somme and Aisne and in the Champagne, where the enemy retained a few trench elements, the War Office announced this afternoon.

An official report issued yesterday afternoon announced that a strongly organized network of German trenches on a front of more than 800 yards and 300 yards in depth, north of Mont Haut and northwest of the Teton in the Champagne, was captured by French troops in a brilliant attack on Saturday night, with 300 prisoners.

German troops made a heavy attack on the salient west of Cerny-on-the-Alsine front and penetrated to a support trench, but after an all-night battle they were ejected, except from some front line elements on a front of about 500 yards.

British Reports.

London, July 16.—The following report on the operations on the British front in France was issued to-day by the War Office:

"Hostile raids were repulsed last night with a loss to the enemy north-west of Fontaine-les-Croisilles and in the neighborhood of Armentieres. We made a successful raid near Oppy. A few prisoners were taken by us."

An official report issued yesterday said:

"Patrol encounters resulting to our advantage occurred. During the night, southeast of Havrincourt, we made successful raids in the neighborhood of Bullecourt and Gavrelle and south of Armentieres. Northeast of Armentieres a German raiding party was repulsed."

German Statements.

Berlin, July 16.—Three attempts made by British troops yesterday morning to recapture the positions won by the Germans at Lombortzde, on the Belgian front, were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy, the War Department announced to-day.

An official statement given out yesterday told of the capture from the French of important positions on the Chemin des Dames, on the Alsine front, southeast of Courtecon, along a front of 1,500 metres and 300 metres deep. Three hundred and fifty prisoners were taken. The substantial repulse of a French attack in the Champagne, southeast of Moronvillers, also was reported.

M. G. NORTON DEAD.

Winona, Minn., July 16.—Matthew G. Norton, a millionaire lumberman of this city and president emeritus of Hamlin University, St. Paul, died last night at his home in Pasadena, Cal., aged 88.

WHOLE RUSSIAN FRONT NOW ALIVE WITH BATTLE; DOLINA REPORTED TAKEN IN DRIVE

GERMAN TORPEDO SUPPLY WEAKENING

Falling Off in Speed; Enemy is Feeling Tremendous Strain

CAMPAIGN NOT THOUGHT OUT BEFORE THE WAR

Washington, July 16.—There is reason to believe that the German torpedo supply is weakening, says a statement issued at the headquarters of the Navy League here.

The increasing frequency with which press dispatches report merchant ships as successfully dodging German torpedoes, says the statement, suggests to the technically trained mind that the German torpedo is deteriorating in speed, and hence in accuracy of fire at long range.

At the outset, the statement continues, the Germans were extremely careful to conserve their torpedoes. Merchant ships were sunk by gunfire whenever possible. But the arming of merchant ships and the constant improvement in the Allies' system of defence against submarine attack has driven the submarines under water and they are now forced to use torpedoes in almost every attack.

The increase in the number of submarines has further added to the strain upon the German stock of torpedoes.

U-Boat Warfare Weakens.

An analysis of reports on submarine attacks now indicates that this unprecedented expenditure of torpedoes is beginning to tell upon the effectiveness of the U boat warfare. The Germans are presenting their submarine campaign with all possible vigor and the number of attacks on merchant ships appears to be increasing. Also the zone of submarine operations is constantly widening. Yet this increased fury with which the U boat warfare is being waged has failed to increase the number of merchant ships sunk. The Germans apparently are being forced to constantly greater efforts to maintain their average of sinkings and even so are slipping back slightly.

The explanation of this offered by certain naval experts here is that the Germans are being so pressed for time in the construction of torpedoes that they can no longer maintain their speed and their accuracy of fire. It is estimated that the German torpedo has lost nearly ten knots in speed from the standard torpedo used at the outset of the war.

Short of Materials.

It takes, normally, six months to construct a torpedo and costs thousands of dollars. There also is a chance of Germany running short of some material essential in their manufacture. Whether this has occurred is not known, but the conclusion has been reached that the individual German torpedo is losing in efficiency.

The U boat warfare as now being waged, it is said, undoubtedly was not thought out and prepared for by the German Government before the war. Therefore the stock of torpedoes was not sufficient for the purpose. It is estimated that has been made up by increasing the output of torpedoes. But, with the tremendous land operations she has essayed, Germany could not have devoted a maximum of labor or materials to the making of torpedoes. Had she done this, it is not doubted she could have kept up the supply. But sacrifices in the torpedo supply were made to satisfy the folly of the Crown Prince at Verdun.

Naval experts here are continuing to lay stress on the vital importance of attempting to destroy the power of the enemy submarines by some new development in naval strategy. No degree of deterioration in the effectiveness of the German torpedo attack should lessen these efforts at effective warfare against the submarines. Yet the interest of naval experts has been attracted by this recent record of performance of the German torpedoes. They are wondering whether Germany can stand much longer the strain of this staggering expenditure of torpedoes.

WAGES INCREASED.

Hastings, N.Y., July 16.—About 8,000 employees who had been on strike against the National Conduit & Cable Company returned to work to-day after being given a wage increase of 2 cents an hour.

General Korniloff's Troops Yesterday Captured 916 Prisoners; Since July 1 Russians Have Taken Over 39,000

Washington, July 16.—The whole Russian front from the Gulf of Riga to Roumania is reported in official dispatches to-day from Petrograd to the Russian Embassy here to be alive with battle. The Germans are said to be rushing reinforcements from the Italian and French fronts and to be entirely re-arranging their positions.

To the northern front, near Riga, German reinforcements are rushing by sea on transports. On the Lemberg front the troops are being shifted back and forth by means of heavy automobiles in an attempt to prevent further advances by General Korniloff's victorious forces. On the southern front, in the Carpathians, the Austrians are said to be in full flight.

TWO CAUCUSES ARE HELD IN OTTAWA

Liberal Members Who Voted for Conscription and Conservative Members

Ottawa, July 16.—The Conservative members held a caucus at noon to-day. It was stated by Sir Robert Borden that only the question of extension of the life of the present Parliament was discussed.

The Liberal members who voted in favor of conscription at the second reading of the bill also convened. At the conclusion of the caucus F. E. Pardee, chief Liberal whip, stated that there was no announcement to be made to-day. Not one of the members would talk on the matter. Practically all the Liberal members who voted for the bill were present.

The Prime Minister will introduce the extension resolution this afternoon and Sir Wilfrid Laurier will reply. It is expected several other members will speak during the day. The general impression appears to be that the leader of the Opposition will oppose the motion.

This week promises to be a momentous one. The third reading of the conscription bill is expected to pass in the Commons after a number of amendments have been defeated. The question of whether there is to be a general election will be decided and removed from the realm of uncertainty before the week is over.

Twenty Attended.

Ottawa, July 16.—The Liberal members of the Commons who voted for the second reading of the conscription bill met to-day to decide what they will do next. The meeting was called by A. K. Maclean, Halifax. It was attended by twenty men, the east and west, including Ontario, being represented.

Chief Liberal Whip Pardee was elected chairman. The meeting lasted one hour. The gathering had before it the offer of Sir Robert Borden to form a Union Government, the chief business being to decide the still more difficult matter of which of them would enter with the support of the others.

When they emerged from the meeting the members declared that Mr. Pardee, as chairman, was the spokesman. When the spokesman was approached he declared that he had nothing to say, but that there would be another meeting later in the week.

To Consider Reply.

This is taken to mean that some decision was reached that it will be communicated to Sir Robert Borden and that the meeting later will be for the purpose of considering the reply of the Prime Minister.

In Conservative circles it is believed that there will be a reorganization of the Cabinet announced within a short time, and that the new cabinet will be found to contain several gentlemen who were present at the meeting to-day and possibly some outsiders, presumably N. W. Rowell, Liberal leader in Ontario, and Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia. Then it will be a case of deciding whether there will be an appeal to the people or an effort to apply the conscription law without such an appeal.

The Conservative members were in caucus to-day, and are understood to have reached an agreement by which there will be some modification of the clause in the conscription bill providing for the exemption of divinity students.

London, July 16.—The occupation by Russian forces of the Gallician town of Dolina is reported in a Petrograd dispatch. The Austrian army of General Boehm-Ermolli is said to have been thrown back on the Carpathians.

Dolina is some 18 miles west-southwest of Kalusz, which is in Russian hands, about 21 miles south-southeast of Stryj and about 61 miles south of Lemberg.

Petrograd, July 16.—Russian forces yesterday captured 16 officers and 900 Austro-Germans and a number of machine guns in the battle in Eastern Galicia, the War Office announced to-day.

Russian troops drove the Austrians out of the village of Lodyziany, in the Lomnica River region, and retained possession of the eastern end of the town. Northeast of Kalusz German forces launched an attack this morning. Russian forces threw them back.

From July 1 to July 13, the report says, 324 officers and 35,890 men were captured by the Russian forces. General Brusiloff's troops also captured 93 heavy and light guns, 28 trench mortars, 405 machine guns, 45 mine throwers, 45 bomb mortars, 3 fire-throwers, 2 aeroplanes and much equipment.

The war office announced yesterday that attacks on Saturday by Russian troops in the Lodyziany region, in the direction of the Carpathians, southwest of Kalusz, resulted in the Austrians losing their positions, 1,000 men in prisoners and a number of guns, Elsewhere the Russians held their ground against attacks and took more than 600 additional prisoners.

Over 30 Miles.
London, July 16.—Although the movement of the Russian infantry engaged in General Korniloff's big offensive in Eastern Galicia is being hampered by bad weather, the Cossacks apparently have been able to keep up their dashing tactics. This is indicated by a report from Petrograd through Rome to-day that the town of Dolina has been occupied by Russian forces.

If this announcement proves accurate it means an advance of more than 30 miles by the Russians since the opening of the offensive south of the Dniester a week ago. The official reports have placed them nearly two-thirds of this distance from their starting point, as Kalusz, taken by General Korniloff's troops last week, is some 20 miles from Stanislau, which virtually is their place of departure. At Kalusz the Russians were established on the western bank of the Lomnica whence the Austrians had not been able to drive them, although heavy attacks had been launched in the attempt. The route thence to Dolina lies along the Stanislau-Stryj railway line. An advance there means considerable progress in the movement now under way, intended to throw General von Boehm-Ermolli's army back against the Carpathians. The Rome reports, indeed, declare that this already has been accomplished.

INTERNED GERMANS AIDED CHANG HSUN

Tientsin, July 16.—Republican headquarters here has issued a statement in which it is declared that Gen. Chang Hsun, the monarchial commander, was assisted by interned Germans in defending his residence, and that Germans escorted him to the legation quarter, where he took refuge.

Foreign advisers state that the accuracy of the fire from Chang Hsun's forces caused the suspicion that he had expert foreign assistance.

HON. L. J. TWEEDIE

DIED LAST NIGHT

In 68th Year; Long Connected With New Brunswick Public Life

Chatham, N. B., July 16.—Hon. L. J. Tweedie, former Lieutenant-Governor and a former Premier of New Brunswick, died at his home near here late last night in his 68th year. His health had not been good of late but death was not expected. Mr. Tweedie had been in public life for forty years. His wife, four sons and two daughters survive. One son is a lieutenant in a battalion overseas.

Lemuel John Tweedie, of Irish and Scottish parentage, was born in Chatham, N. B., on November 20, 1849. He was educated at the Chatham public school and grammar school and the Presbyterian Academy of New Brunswick. In December, 1876, he married Agnes Loudon, a daughter of the late Alexander Loudon, of Chatham. Mr. Tweedie made such a success of his practice of law that he became one of the best leaders of the local bar, being made a Q. C. in 1892. He sat in the Legislature of New Brunswick as Liberal member for Northumberland from 1874 to 1878 and from 1886 to 1907. He was Surveyor-General in the Blair administration, Provincial Secretary in the Eggeson administration and Premier of the province from 1900 to 1907. Later, he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor.

COLONEL MENACED BY MONTREAL CROWD

An Anti-Conscription Meeting Yesterday Was Attended by 15,000 Persons

CROWD OF THE SAME SIZE IN QUEBEC CITY

Montreal, July 16.—Lieut.-Col. I. P. Rexford, formerly commander of an overseas battalion, and a soldier of a Highland reinforcing company, narrowly escaped maltreatment at the hands of a mob of about 5,000 persons on Fletcher's Field yesterday afternoon, when, during the progress of a big anti-conscription meeting called by Mayor Martin, M. P., he shouted contradiction of a statement made by Alphonse Verville, Labor, M. P., for Maisonneuve.

The meeting was well attended, there being about 15,000 persons packed around the speakers' platform when the speeches were at their height. The principal speakers were Mayor Martin and Mr. Verville. Leaders regretting inability to be present were received from Sir Robert Borden, Hon. William Pugsley, M. P.; Hon. Charles Murphy, M. P.; E. M. Macdonald, M. P.; and J. H. Rainville, Deputy Speaker of the Commons.

The exciting climax of the meeting came while Mr. Verville was denouncing the Government's sponsorship of the conscription bill. Mr. Verville, speaking in French, declared that there were many Canadian soldiers in England who were being kept there to prevent their physical condition from becoming known to the people in Canada.

"It is not so," Lieut.-Colonel Rexford shouted in English. Immediately the crowd broke up, although only a comparatively small number could have heard the denunciation. Hundreds followed a few who dashed toward the Highlander as the most conspicuous target. Lieut.-Colonel Rexford was in civilian dress. When the crowd realized that he had made the remark, both he and the soldier were jostled about. Under escort of Mayor Marth and the police, who ordered them to leave the vicinity for their own safety, the two soldiers boarded a street car. About 5,000 persons followed them to the car line, and when they boarded the car stones were thrown and the car windows broken.

During the walk of 150 yards to the street car line, both the colonel and the soldier were struck and Lieut.-Col. Rexford pointed out one of the assailants. The police escort had all they could do, however, in forcing a passage through the crowd for the party and no arrests were made.

A dozen of the demonstrators followed the party about the car but the presence of the police prevented further trouble. No one was injured.

To Imperial Parliament.

Mayor Martin, who was announced his candidacy for a third term as mayor, opened his address with a strong attack upon the Government. A resolution was read appealing to the Imperial Parliament against the action of the Dominion Government and was passed amid cheers. Mayor Martin called for a showing of those against the resolution. Only about 20 hands were raised.

At the close of the meeting Mayor Martin called for the singing of God Save the King "to show the people in the other provinces that we are loyal British subjects." The crowd in response sang "O Canada." There were followed cheers for the speakers. When the Mayor called for cheers for the King there was a quick response.

General Strike.

Mr. Verville during his speech said that he had no right to say what it would mean if all the workmen were to take an eight-day vacation. "I have no right to say to the people, if you would do so this law would disappear," he declared. "It will disappear if you have the courage to put into execution what I tell you."

"This is not a meeting to incite the people, not a revolutionary meeting," declared Mayor Martin. "I have thought it well to ask the people of Montreal to protest to the Imperial Government, telling it that the Government of Canada does not care for the people and wishes to put us back 19 centuries."

"I believe in doing all possible for the war, but voluntarily, and not by conscription," he declared.

The Mayor asserted that there are 3,500,000 soldiers in England available and 1,200,000 employed in occupations that are not necessary. "Men are needed in Canada," he said, "and it is not reasonable that Canadians should be forcibly enrolled to allow the 3,500,000 conscripts in England to remain at home."

"The Government is like the Kaiser. We of the Province of Quebec have been insulted since the debate in the House commenced, and by men who do not merit the distinction of being spat at," Dr. Clark, that immigrant from England, insulted our revered chief."

The 100,000 men wanted under the conscription bill, he said, would only be a beginning, and another 100,000 would be called upon when the first 100,000 had been killed.

In Quebec City.

Quebec, July 16.—Fifteen thousand people assembled at the Jacques Cartier Market Square here last night to take part in an anti-conscription meeting which was addressed by Senator Landry, Armand Laverge, Lestat E. Roy and others, after which the large gathering, marched through the streets with placards bearing the inscriptions:

"Down with Sir Robert Borden and his Bosches; We Want Elections," and "Sevigny, What Have You Done for Your Brethren?"

PARIS PAPERS ON FALL OF HOLLWEG

Beginning of Tragic Era for Germany, Says L'Homme Enchaîne

Paris, July 16.—The Paris press hails the retirement of Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg from the German Chancellorship with varying degrees of satisfaction. Some of the comment is in a jubilant tone, while other editors treat the event soberly. All, however, are agreed that it indicates a crisis in Germany of unprecedented importance.

The phrase "Scrap of paper" frequently appears in the comment, and some of the journals trace the Chancellor's downfall back to that early-in-the-war utterance of his. The Petit Parisien is one of the newspapers that is not optimistic over the development, for it says: "Though the Chancellor changes, the German masters remain the same. It is they and not the retiring functionary who desired the war, to satisfy their appetite for universal domination."

Le Journal says: "The Chancellor was so accustomed to let things be that he seems to be surprised to find himself at the bottom of the abyss. His famous exclamation, 'a scrap of paper,' which many thought to be only a cynical utterance, now echoes like a cry of distress. It seems now as if Bethmann-Hollweg had foreseen the catastrophe."

In the view of L'Homme Enchaîne, the Chancellor's retirement marks the beginning of a tragic era for Germany. The paper pictures an immense black flag yawning beneath the feet of the great militarized nation, and terms the Chancellor a man of straw.

The Action-Française says the Chancellor's departure indicates the depth to which the Germans have descended in their spirit of violence and ambition.

Nearly all the newspapers comment on the singular coincidence that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's career as Chancellor ended on an anniversary of the day it began—July 14.

LITTLE HOPE FOR BOHEMIANS FROM AUSTRIAN HOUSES

Amsterdam, July 16.—It is reported from Vienna that the German and Bohemian members of the Upper and Lower Houses of the Austrian Parliament have adopted jointly a resolution setting forth their desire for peace within the country and the possibility of living side by side with the Czechs without abridgment of the "national self-determination" of both elements. The resolution says, however, that a separate Bohemian constitution would not be recognized.

The adoption of this resolution evidently was prompted by the increasing unrest among the Czechs, an important element of Austria's population. They are reported to be out of sympathy with the military policy of the Germans in Austria.

REPORT OF A BIG I. W. W. STRIKE DENIED

Chicago, July 16.—A report that all lumber and timber workers affiliated with the I. W. W. west of the Mississippi would strike beginning to-morrow was disclaimed to-day at the I. W. W. headquarters. William Heywood, secretary of the organization, said he had heard nothing of the report.

DRAWING FOR ARMY IN STATES SATURDAY

Washington, July 16.—On the basis of advice to-day from various states where the organization work of the exemption boards has not been completed, War Department officials said the drawing of the army selective draft hardly could be held before Saturday at the earliest.

WENT FROM VANCOUVER.

London, July 16.—Lieut. Guthbert Farrar Savage, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, who has died of wounds, was a son of the Rev. Canon E. S. and Mrs. Savage, of Hexam Abbey, Northumberland. At the outbreak of the war he was in Vancouver studying for the bar. He enlisted in the Canadian Seaforth, came to England with the First Contingent and was wounded in April, 1916.

L.W.W.'S FAIL IN WASHINGTON STATE

Lumber Mills in Gray's Harbor District Working; Logging Camps Resume

Aberdeen, Wash., July 16.—The struggle set for to-day by the L. W. W. and designed to tie up all the lumber mills of Gray's Harbor had little effect, only one plant, the A. J. West mill at Junction City, closing. Some men walked out at the other mills, but not enough to cripple operations.

No shingle mills are operating in the Gray's Harbor district, but only two or three have resumed operations as the result of the strike set for to-day by the shingle-weavers' union, the majority having been shut down since the first of the month, when the Fourth of July vacation began.

Several logging camps, the majority of which were closed down by the L. W. W. strike Saturday, resumed operations this morning, but how extensive the resumption is has not yet been learned.

Aside from the attempt to fire the logging camp of the E. H. Lester Company near Montesano Saturday night, no trouble has been reported.

FREIGHT CARS RAN AWAY; NO DEATHS

Molave, Cal., July 16.—Seven heavily loaded freight cars on which the brakes had been loosened in some manner coasted out of the railroad yards here early today, jumped a derailling switch and went wild 12 miles down grade to Rosemond, where they crashed into the rear of the southbound Southern Pacific passenger train No. 8, from San Francisco, smashing the rear sleeper, overturning two others and piling the wreckage high in wrecks.

Passengers were in the damaged three cars, but none were injured. A porter in the car which landed on top of the freight car was cut and bruised slightly.

FORCED TO THROW HOLLWEG OVERBOARD

Otherwise, Wilhelm Would Have Seen the Prussian Cabinet Resign

Copenhagen, July 16.—Germany's first domestic Chancellor, Dr. Georg Michaelis, a bureaucrat without even a noble "von" before his name, has given no indication as yet of his policy regarding reform and peace.

The new Chancellor's first step, which might be interpreted as an indication of an open mind, was to receive representatives of the two divergent groups in the Reichstag and permit them to explain their respective standpoints, the Chancellor playing the role of listener to the Conservatives, conducted by the vice-chancellor, Dr. Karl Helfferich.

The German papers unite in characterizations of his energy and fairness, but are most reserved in their predictions of his probable policy. The papers aligned for the so-called German peace are perhaps a shade more enthusiastic about political possibilities under the new regime than the radical and Socialist organs.

The Cologne Volks Zeitung, the Roman Catholic organ of the Pan-German sympathizers, says Dr. Michaelis undoubtedly stands nearer the Right than the Left parties. The line of comment evidently emanating from Wilhelmstrasse is that the new Chancellor regards as his mission the restoration of the internal harmony of the nation, whatever policy may be adopted. No matter what else may result, the change undoubtedly will mean the disappearance of the Von Bethmann-Hollweg peace programme.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's policy regarding the ultimate aims of the war had from the beginning been a personal one, in which the Chancellor above all parties had formed a programme above party and the Kaiser alike, and he endeavored by gentle, steady pressure and suggestion to impose it upon a changeable sovereign, oscillating between vistas of brilliant ambition and realization of cold facts; upon the pugnacious military caste represented by Field-Marshal von Hindenburg and Gen. Ludendorff, and a blundering, unbrilliant Parliament.

is a New Deal. The appointment of Dr. Michaelis undoubtedly means a new deal of the cards.

Berlin papers which were published before the appointment of Dr. Michaelis, throw further light on the circumstances of Von Bethmann-Hollweg's retirement. They show that the Kaiser was confronted by the necessity of dropping the Imperial Chancellor or virtually the entire Prussian Cabinet, the members of which, including the War Minister, Gen. von Stein, a soldier, not a politician, would submit their resignations, declaring that they could not remain if Von Bethmann-Hollweg were retained.

The Bavarian Premier, Count von Hertling, who favored moderate peace proposals but refused flatly to accept the idea of a parliamentary ministry, which would diminish Bavaria's special influence on the Government, seems to have thrown himself into the struggle against Von Bethmann-Hollweg at the last minute. The Bavarian Centrist members of the Reichstag started an anti-Von Bethmann-Hollweg revolt within the party and the Crown Prince made valid his longstanding objections to the Imperial Chancellor.

To Talk Favorably. Field-Marshal von Hindenburg and Gen. Ludendorff were again summoned to Berlin, not to interfere, according to the unanimous accounts in the Berlin papers, in the political end of the situation, but to sidetrack the proposed peace resolution by giving encouraging reports of the military situation, and to inspire the members of the Reichstag with a belief in the possibilities of obtaining that "German peace worthy of the sacrifices" to which Von Hindenburg over and over again had committed himself in his published replies to the memorials of Pan-German organizations.

Before the selection of Dr. Michaelis became known, the papers generally agreed that Von Bethmann-Hollweg's retirement would be accompanied by sweeping changes in the Imperial and Prussian administrations. The feeling was general that a large part of the Secretaries of State and Ministers who had been in office since and before the war and had exhausted their efficiency and availability through long continuance—at their posts under the tremendous responsibilities of the war, should be replaced by fresh hands and brains, without any incumbencies of the past.

Ultimate Analysis. This, in the ultimate analysis, probably was one of the chief considerations impelling the Kaiser to accept the resignation of a personally sympathetic statesman who, according to The Vorwärts, in his political obituary, "meant well, whose wish was to conduct the war as a defensive struggle and prevent its extension to new enemies, but who yielded to forces stronger in purpose than himself, and who wanted to base his policy upon the broad basis of democracy, but who lacked energy and force to draw the necessary conclusions therefrom."

FRENCH VICTORY A BRILLIANT ONE

Correspondent Describes Taking of Ground in Area West of Rheims

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, July 16.—(By the Associated Press).—A double victory was scored Saturday by the French among the clump of hills known as the Moronvillers Massif, to the west of Rheims, as a result of well-conceived plans and brilliantly executed tactics. The German prisoners taken numbered several hundred, the exact total not being computed when the correspondent left the battlefield, but the greatest significance is attached to the ground captured which, although small in extent, possesses immense importance, as the Germans, by having it snatched from them, lost the only remaining observation post in this region and will thus be greatly hindered in future operations.

The hill group consists of five heights—Carnillet, Mont Blond, Mont Haut, the Casque and the Teton. Before Saturday night's fighting the French held all the crests, but the saddles between Mont Blond and Mont Haut and the Casque and the Teton were occupied by the Germans, who were able to watch the French movements from these points of vantage.

The writer observed the artillery preparation and the actual battle from a point whence the entire clump could be observed, and the progress of the troops could be viewed unceasingly. Hour after hour the guns of both armies belched shells, but little noise could be heard on the French side owing to the direction of the wind, which, however, did not drown the constant swish and rending of the air by the passing projectiles. All around the ground was peppered and immense clouds of vari-colored smoke and the crashing of explosives told of the heavy bombardment.

The French knew that fronting them lay strong German forces, for three divisions had been recognized, the 19th Hanoverian, the 7th Prussian and the 23rd. The French infantry attacks at the extremities of the Moronvillers clump on the saddles began at the same time and were carried out with such dash that the Germans gave way everywhere or surrendered.

The Advance. At the west end the advance attained an average depth of 200 yards along a half-mile front, while at the eastern end the average depth gained was 3,000 yards along about a third of a mile. But these small spaces contained all the German observatories.

Immediately dozens of French and German rockets, green, red and white, flashed in the air—the Germans calling for help and the French announcing the victorious results. Suddenly a depot of rocket caught fire and thousands of balls of flame lighted the scene like a pyrotechnic display, amid which seven German observation balloons rose audaciously near the front line to investigate the situation for the German staff, shut out from view by the loss of the observatories.

Prisoners meanwhile came pouring into the French lines and a German barrage fire opened, trying to prevent the French from bringing up reinforcements to the front. The inevitable German counter-attack began shortly afterward, but the effort to drive the French from the positions they had won did not succeed.

In the meantime, Rheims, nearby, suffered from the vengeance of the German commanders, who also shelled small villages far in the rear of the French lines as a reprisal for their defeat. Long lines of children, women and old men taking refuge in open fields amid the darkness and drizzle were seen.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY DIES AT WASHINGTON

Seattle, July 16.—A dispatch from Washington announces the death there of B. Sweeney, of Seattle, Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

News of the Mines

About 40 tons daily is now about the average of the output of spelter at the Trail electrolytic zinc plant. The first story of the No. 4 greater plant, requiring 150,000 brick, at the Consolidated smelter, is practically finished, and the steel is being erected.

The Spokane Rocher de Bousaaine, situated about two miles from New Hazelton, has commenced operations again with a full staff under the management of G. Jennings, Jr., formerly of Spokane.

The Silver Standard mine situated about eight miles from New Hazelton on Glen Mountain, is shipping regularly. This mine is reported to be in splendid shape for a good summer's run. Owing to the increased development at this mine, the power plant has been enlarged to twice the former capacity, and it is reported that the owners contemplate putting in a mill and concentrating plant to treat the lower grades of ore, of which there is a considerable quantity on the surface dumps.

Operations are to be resumed on the Fisher Maiden near Silverton. It is reported that some molybdenite has been found in the mountains across the lake from New Denver—Edward Shannon and his partner spent four days this month prospecting for it, but without success.

The Hudson Bay Zinc Company is raising on an ore body struck recently on the deep lower level, according to reports from Balms, B. C. A second shift will be started on this work as soon as a machine drill for the purpose is received. Operations are proceeding steadily on the upper level, from which a large production of ore has been made. The ore body opened on the lower level has a width of three feet or more. It is believed to be the same body from which production is being made on the upper level, but this has not been determined.

J. W. Power, of Vancouver, has decided to operate the Silver Glance mine at Bear Lake, near the Lucky Jim, during the summer. It is a high grade silver proposition which is likely to develop at an early date into a producer, it is stated. Mr. Power is operating the Red Elephant in the Lardeau District, a gold-silver concentrating ore property, located near the Bannockburn.

R. H. Batty, manager of the Triune mines and the Florence mines at Fernston, has 12 miners working at the Triune and at the Florence seven. This year the Triune will be worked to its full capacity in development and night and day shifts will be put to work in tunneling and sacking high grade ore.

L. H. Snyder, of Spokane, and M. C. Monaghan, of Taghum, have bonded the Monarch group of claims at Beasley, near Nelson, to the Spokane Mining Development Corporation, which is making arrangements to finance by means of a bond issue the construction of a tramway with a view to commencing shipment of the tonnage which is stated to await mining operations. The same concern, has bonded the St. Anthony group on Cottonwood Creek from the William Maher estate, Major L. E. Borden, P. J. Gallagher and Alex. L. Stewart. The Monarch consists of seven claims and is a copper proposition located 2,900 feet above the Queen Victoria mine, which has one of the heaviest records of production in the district. Three thousand tons of ore lie on the dump, and it is estimated that from 10,000 to 15,000 tons is in sight. Assays taken across the workings and from the dump run from 4.55 to 3.67 per cent, copper and $2.30 to $1.55 in gold. At 32-cent copper the value of the ore runs from $24 to $36, according to the assays, which were taken by Prof. Drew, of the University of Minnesota. Development consists largely of open-cuts, a 35-foot shaft and a tunnel of 125 feet in length. Excavated another 150 feet, this tunnel will give a depth of about 100 feet on the ore, it is stated. To facilitate shipments the new owners of the property propose to construct a tramway one mile in length, which will land the ore at the railroad. The ore is said to carry a low melting rate and the formation will lend itself to cheap mining, it is said. The new owners estimate that the ore can be mined, shipped and smelted for $6 a ton. The property is provided with bunkhouse and other accommodations for miners.

One of the most romantic features of mining has been the recovery of an ounce of platinum to the ton and as this metal is now quoted at $118 per ounce the value of the deposit is "apparent." As the ore also carries about $6 per ton in gold and three ounces of silver the prospects for profitable exploration appear to be excellent. The ore is what is known as sperlytic. A carload of ore from the old dump will be shipped at once.

THE RUSSIAN SWEEP

Pivoting on a point near Brzezany, which is still in the enemy's hands and commands his centre, the left wing of the Russian Army of Galicia is sweeping forward on a fifty-mile front.

As long as Halicz, or the bridgehead of the Dniester at that place, was held by the enemy, Brzezany, north-east of it, was safe, for its formidable natural position made it impregnable to Brusiloff's frontal assaults.

Now, however, with Halicz gone Brzezany is in a corner. The Russians across the Dniester are pressing towards the rear of the stronghold, and it must soon be abandoned by the enemy, whose only recourse must be to retire to Lemberg itself.

South of the Dniester the Russian left wing has swung around to Dolina on the Stanislaw-Lemberg railroad, thirty miles west of Stanislaw and about thirty-five miles southwest of Halicz.

Possibilities of incalculable magnitude hang upon the campaign which Brusiloff is now elaborating with such consummate skill.

placed himself in a position to dictate the retirement of the German army in Volhynia and Lithuania back to the Vistula line, at least, for the present German front in Russia would be out-flanked and its rear threatened by a Russian advance northward and northward over the Galician border.

According to dispatches received by the Russian Embassy at Washington the enemy, recognizing the grave military and political danger in the steady advance of the Russian revolutionary army, is rushing reinforcements from the western and Italian fronts, and is reorganizing his whole eastern line, which from Riga to Roumania is reported to be "alive with battle."

Germany, however, will not take many liberties with the West front in dispatching reinforcements to the East, that is, if she means to stand upon her present line.

THE FALLEN CHANCELLOR

The German Chancellor seems to have fallen before converging attacks by elements which have little in common with one another.

By this time, doubtless, the scales have fallen from the eyes of those pessimistic war-watchers who, were so sure Russia would not be a military factor in the war any longer.

The war crowd, however, with the degenerate Crown Prince at their head, know that peace without indemnities and annexations would be their ruin.

As might be expected, Hollweg's successor is a typical Prussian reactionary. This means that the fall of the Chancellor is only the first act of the grim tragedy to which Germany is rushing.

is the orthodox process which always prefaces a revolution in a military autocracy sooner or later. As we pointed out the other day, Germany cannot be democratized except by force.

A GENERAL ELECTION?

Perhaps Sir Robert Borden will explain to-day why he is introducing his resolution to extend the life of Parliament before the final adoption of the compulsory military service bill.

A general election on the question of compulsory military service will accomplish nothing. With Quebec and the Maritime Provinces against it, the Government sponsoring it, if not defeated, would find itself in precisely the same position as it was in before the election.

If the Government, whether in the form of a coalition or as a straight party ministry, shall go to the country on this question it will imperil the whole military situation in France as far as Canada's position is concerned.

The present Russian offensive, as portrayed in the reports, reads like a twice-told tale. And the Hun, are repeating their part in the story by rushing troops from every front to stem the furious torrent.

A London newspaper of aristocratic leanings, commenting on the recent Canadian "honor list," described Sir Jos. Flavelle as "a self-sacrificing soul." The joke is that the description was not intended to be "writ sarkastick."

The celebrated evangelist who is engaged in the herculean task, of attempting to protect Vancouver from "the wrath to come" has not brought peace but a sword into the religious circle he has invaded.

tain scuffings from the pulp, we have no desire for an opportunity to chortle over any outbreak of the kind in Victoria.

Far be it from us to suggest that any profiteer in Canada should be thrown into his own pork barrel or baked in his own oven, but a correspondent of the London Daily News relates that in Persia (how many years ago we shall not say) "to terrify those who took advantage of scarcity to sell provisions at exorbitant prices the cooks were roasted over slow fires and the bakers cast into a burning oven."

A little of the levity of democracy appears to have found its way across the border from Russia into Germany. At that it will have the biggest job on its hands any heaven ever lacked.

A mere change of chancellors will not give Germany her "place in the sun" of democracy or quality, her to discuss peace terms with modern peoples. More drastic measures have been demanded of her as a condition precedent to a seat at the coming peace conference.

The bankers of Berlin, by way of setting a good example, are waiving the streets and doing business in their bare feet. They anticipate a hard winter and are hardening their soles for the ordeal.

The Nationalist movement is a viper that Sir Robert Borden just picked up and warmed into vigor at his own political fireside.

Well, "Der Tag" is dawning, and the prospect does not seem to fill the Hun soul with gladness.

ONCE A GERMAN, ALWAYS A HUN.

DOPE FIEND TAKEN

BY LOCAL DETECTIVE

Is Also Charged With Theft of Hypodermic Needle and Case

Frederick W. Hines was this morning before Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court on charges of having had cocaine in his possession and of the theft of a hypodermic needle and case, the latter articles being the property of Dr. Lennox, of this city. The case was remanded until to-morrow.

Mrs. Jeanette Darreh, who was arrested on Saturday in company with Hines by Detective Heather, was charged with vagrancy, but owing to a lack of evidence against her she was dismissed with instructions from the court to return to Vancouver, from which city she recently came.

Hines and Mrs. Darreh came to Victoria about three weeks ago from the Terminal City and took up their abode at the Bellevue, where they remained for a week. According to information received by the police they were ordered by the management to leave. They then took a house on the corner of Quadra and Fort Streets.

Their actions soon excited the curiosity of the department. Mrs. Darreh being seen by herself on several occasions in Chinatown, and on Sunday afternoon the detectives discovered several Chinese attempting to enter the house that the accused parties had occupied prior to their arrest. Hines, who has been in British Columbia since 1911, has been twice convicted in Vancouver and sentenced to six and three months on charges of stealing and vagrancy respectively. He pleaded guilty to the accusation of having cocaine in his possession, stating that he had been a heavy user of the drug, a fact bore testimony to by the large amount which he had on his person when arrested. He has for several months been living with Mrs. Darreh, whose husband residing in Vancouver is now seeking to get a divorce.

When questioned regarding the needle and case, the accused stated that he was not aware that it was stolen. He had purchased it from a Chinaman for $2, and had not noticed the name of Dr. Lennox inscribed on the back.

WAS CHURCH WORKER

Funeral of Mrs. Agnes Mabel Post Took Place This Afternoon.

Agnes Mabel Post, wife of G. E. Post, 623 Moss Street, wife chief of the B. C. Telephone Company, passed away last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Victoria Private Hospital, following a serious operation performed three days previously.

Mrs. Post was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willis, of Belleville, Ont., where she was born 32 years ago. Five years ago the family removed to Victoria. Mrs. Post at once identified herself with the Fairfield Methodist Church, and has been a devoted worker in all its branches ever since. Up to the time of her illness she had been in charge of the beginners' department of the Sunday School, and had a host of friends won by a personality sincere and lovable.

There survive besides her husband two children, George and Mildred, aged 14 and 12 respectively. The funeral took place this afternoon from the B. C. Funeral parlors, Rev. A. B. Carleton officiating. There were three pallbearers each from the Fairfield Methodist Church and the Telegraphic Company, Messrs. Jones, Dyson and Paul Green from the former; Messrs. Hasper, English and Hyres from the latter.

TWO SURPRISES IN SATURDAY'S TENNIS

Results of Doubles Matches Quite Unexpected; Gordon Beats Leiphson

Saturday's round in the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club's handicap tournament brought, along with some excellent playing, two matches whose results were altogether contrary to the forecasts of the observers. It was hardly expected that Virtue and Leeming would beat Martin and Jephson, 6-3, 6-4, in consideration of the fact that the losers won the event last year. The defeat of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett by Mr. and Mrs. Meredith, 6-4, 1-6, 9-7, also occasioned no inconsiderable amount of astonishment, the sterling game played by Mrs. Meredith winning her many laudible comments. Perhaps the best doubles match of the afternoon was that in which Miss Lawson and Miss McDermott beat Miss Garrett and Miss Neame, of course the contest between Gordon Phelps, from which the former emerged victorious, evoked the most interest. It was a struggle between an inexperienced player and one who has improved tremendously in the past year and in it inexperience has performed to taste defeat.

The following are the full scores in matches played Saturday:

Miss Lawson and Miss McDermott beat Miss Garrett and Miss Neame, 8-6, 6-4.

Gordon beat Jephson, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Phelan beat Edwards, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Cove and Trimon beat Lampan and Kirkham, 6-2, 6-2.

Virtue and Leeming beat Martin and Jephson, 6-3, 6-4.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeming beat Miss Harlow and Scrivener, 5-2, 6-3.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith beat Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, 6-4, 1-6, 9-7.

To-day's Games.

At 3 o'clock—

Miss Marjorie Leeming plays Mrs. Sweeney.

Miss Williams plays Mrs. Fairbairn.

Virtue and Leeming play Davies and Fairbairn.

Miss Lawson and Miss McDermott play Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. Ward.

At 4:30 o'clock—

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbairn play Miss Williams and Harris.

Martin plays Gordon.

Garrett and Phelan play Cove and Trimon.

FOR IDENTIFICATION

Property Alleged to Have Been Stolen From Pethick Residence at Provincial Police Office.

A number of articles alleged to have been stolen by Arthur Leveick and Jerry Antipas, who were arrested near Duncan on Saturday, are now at the local headquarters of the Provincial Police, where they are being held for identification.

It is presumed that much of the material was taken from the residence of Mr. Pethick, near the 17-mile station on the Malahat Drive. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pethick are now at the front, the husband being with the forces while his wife is serving as a nurse. It is hoped that the stolen property can be identified as the trial of the accused men takes place on Friday.

LIQUOR CASE DISMISSED

D. Pallantiere Found Not Guilty of Selling Beer Without a License.

Magistrate Jay this morning dismissed the case against D. Pallantiere, who was charged with selling liquor in the Lincoln Poolroom without a license.

His Honor pointed out that there was no doubt that liquor had been served on the premises, but that there was not sufficient evidence to show that the liquor was sold by the accused. The principal witness for the prosecution, Tony Crony, who testified to the sale of the beer, might have been influenced by feelings of revenge against the defendant. Such evidence as his needed to be more strongly corroborated than had been the case.

The magistrate further pointed out that Sergeant O'Leary had entered the poolroom on the evening of the arrest, only five minutes after the witness Tony, who was found seated at a table on which were four bottles of beer, practically empty. That Tony's friends should have drunk the liquor and left the room in that space of time seemed to be very unlikely, especially as a game of cards had evidently been in progress.

In conclusion His Honor called attention to the fact that there was no evidence to disprove that the beer, as stated by the defence, was purchased by the players and brought to the poolroom. Before dismissing the charge he warned the accused to stop permitting such practices on the part of his patrons, as it lent a suspicious air to the management of the place.

BUILDING PERMIT—A building permit has been issued to F. C. Clyde, for a private garage at 529 Empress Avenue.

SCHOOL REPAIRS—Specifications are now available at the City School Board office for the painting and repairs to be effected at the schools during the vacation. The appropriation is very small this year, about $1,600, for this purpose.

CALLS OF FIRE—The Fire Department was called on Saturday to extinguish a grass fire at the Jubilee Hospital, and at 557 Figard Street to remove the gears of a number of Chinese when smoke from a chimney warned them that the choice Celestial dishes were being overdone.

MANY PLEASURES AT RED-CROSS FETE

Approximately $180 Cleared at Fernwood Branch Garden Party

Every detail of the preparations for the Fernwood Red Cross garden fete held on Saturday afternoon at "Harrington," the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Macklin, Rockland Avenue, was very cleverly thought out by the organizers, and the large company of visitors which patronized the event was quite satisfied in the realization of the pleasant anticipations aroused in the advance notices of the event. A happy combination of sports and quieter pastimes afforded something diverting for everyone, and it was late in the day when the last lingering guest departed for home. The returns totalled approximately $180.

The undertaking was organized by a wonderfully capable committee, under the general sponsorship of Mrs. Rathom, and the several sections of the event were entrusted to capable conveners. The tennis tournament, which began at 1:30 in order that all the matches might be played through during the afternoon, was in charge of Mrs. Millins and Miss Humphreys. The clock-golf competition, which was one of the first "bait" dangled before the visitor on his arrival, was in charge of Miss Pooley, and the sports programme, which had events for old and young, stern and gay, was drawn up by Messrs. Milton and Leeming. There were fourteen events in all, and despite the frank, full-faced smiles of Old Sol and numerous other onlookers, the contestants were nothing abashed and carried out their undertakings with great good humor and the best of sporting spirit.

Refreshments in Demand. Some sought refreshment immediately on entering the grounds. Others deferred the treat until the more arduous part of the day's pastimes had been covered. There was delicious lemonade in a shady corner of the grounds, Mrs. Agnew, who was in charge, being assisted by members of Campbell's Patriotic Club. Mrs. A. B. Hudson and Mrs. Robinson, helped by Mesdames Wilson and McAdam, with a corps of active assistants, managed the afternoon tea and strawberries and cream, both of which were in very great demand. Mrs. Agnew was in charge of Mesdames Watson and Agnew with a corps of helpful helpers. Still in the line of edibles were the articles offered for sale at the home-cooking stall presided over by Mrs. Dunbrack. There were delicious things here, and a brisk business was done, the saleswoman-in-chief being assisted by Mesdames Beall, F. Burbridge, Matthews, Bright and Miss Stinson. The Misses Grace and Mabel Cameron and Miss Monteith had a choice variety of toothsome sweets, which appealed to the eye as well as to the palate. At the close of the evening everything in the home-cooking line was raffled off.

Distinguished Visitors. The Royal Canadian Regiment Band, which very kindly lent its services for the day, gave additional gaiety to an affair which in no wise lacked the garden-party atmosphere of happiness. Bandmaster Prescott conducted, and with his musicians earned the very hearty thanks of the committee no less than of the visitors for the splendid programme of patriotic and other popular numbers which they provided. A number of naval and military men, were among the throng of visitors. Captain Cresson, R.N.R., of H.M.S. Lancaster, and several of the other officers of the ship being present, besides a number of the military men from Work Point and the Returned Soldiers' Convalescent Home.

Raffles. There was a raffle table, the two articles, one an English pointer pup given by Mrs. E. W. Webster, the other a "Cheer-Box," presented by Mrs. MacEffe, being won respectively by Miss Effie Moore, of Colleen Street, and Mr. Charles King, of Cedar Hill. The raffles netted $18.50. Mrs. Farr, Mrs. Curtis and the Misses Mylam and McNulty being in charge of the sale of tickets. Other raffles will be closed up when more tickets are sold.

A coconut shy was in charge of Mr. Crookford, and the reputation of the fruit, which was fine and fresh, won more than the usual numbers of "tricks." There was netted from this source $12.40.

Soap-bubbles were in embryo in the bowl bridged over by the Misses Landberg, Briggs and Adams, and were popular with the younger folk, while a "painted-butterfly" contest brought forth gay and gaudy insects on paper.

Sports Programme. The following is the sports programme and winners therein:
 Boys' race—R. Belford.
 Girls' race—E. Robertson.
 Potato race—J. Davies.
 Potato race for girls—E. Robertson.
 Needle and thread race—Miss Briggs and Yeo-Sig Cronby.

Mrs. Brown told fortunes from "leaf cups and cards," showing a fine "second sight" which won her fame.

OUR DUTY—FIGHT OR GIVE.

A mighty nation strips for war. Let the eye turn where it will, there is no escaping the precursor of approaching combat. And except a Power beyond that of man intervene America will soon seal her devotion to high ideals of liberty and justice with the blood of her bravest sons.

Thousands of gallant lads, perhaps among them our own sons, may keep their "rendevouz with death" in flaming town or at disputed barricade long ere spring trips north again. May God forbid it, but against that hour we must make immediate and adequate preparation.

As President Wilson has well said in his proclamation designating Red

Cross Week, only a small proportion of our people can have the opportunity or are fitted to serve the country upon the actual field of battle, but all—men, women and children alike—can serve effectively by insuring proper care for those under arms. In the words of the national slogan for Red Cross Week we are out to win this war, and every one must FIGHT OR GIVE—and the time to do the latter is RIGHT NOW!

ANOTHER WASHHOUSE.

To the Editor:—I see that there is another application for a washhouse license on Superior Street. The former one was very wisely refused and this one should meet the same fate.

The street is most undoubtedly a residential one and you cannot find a single property owner (except the owner of the one story building) who is not very strongly opposed to the establishment of a washhouse in their midst. Another proof of its being a residential street is the small building erected by Mr. Harman has never found a tenant.

How would it be if a license was given for a washhouse on Rockland Avenue or some other aristocratic part of the city? The taxpayers on Superior Street, have just as much right to be considered as their richer neighbors. It will, if granted, cause a depression in value of property in the neighborhood, and will the assessor, therefore, reduce the assessment?

RESIDENT.

JOHNSON STREET BRIDGE

To the Editor:—I have just been reading the E. & N. Railway Company's proposal in regard to the Johnson Street Bridge. It seems painful to me that a great corporation like the C. P. R., which we must admit to be the grandest and wealthiest institution in Canada, should write such a contemptibly penurious letter to those in authority.

What has Victoria done to call forth such meanness on the part of this great corporation? Have not our citizens spent millions to build up and beautify this city and by so doing have they not thrown millions into the coffers of this corporation? Have we not treated them in the most kindly and generous manner in regard to the hotel site? In not the prosperity of this city a great financial benefit to them? Does not the building up of Victoria build up the whole of this Island, and who will derive the greatest benefit from our advancement? There can be but one answer, the C. P. R., and yet in their smallness of mind they would disgrace our fair city that we love, not wisely, perhaps, but too well, with some old structure that would no doubt make the heart grow sick to see.

BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE

To the Editor:—Bishop Macdonald's reference to single tax in your issue of last Wednesday is so misleading, to state it quickly, that I cannot refrain from replying thereto. The Bishop's letter says:

"Adversity tries theories as well as men. Henry George's theory has been tried in the crucible of the hard times through which we are passing, and has been found to contain just 100 per cent. of brass."

In reply it is only necessary to state that Henry George's method of taxation has not been tried in the City of Victoria. True, we have had exemption of improvements for a number of years, and I doubt if there is a single person in the community, except owners of vacant land held for speculative purposes, who desire to eliminate that very small measure of single tax and return to the old system under which the poor man paid one tax on his house, and another on his lot, whilst the rich speculator owning the adjoining vacant unused lot only paid one tax. But no one who has read "Progress and Poverty" will contend that the mere exemption of improvements, constitutes even a substantial portion of Henry George's theory of taxation, which would abolish all taxes (direct and indirect) except one, and that one levied on land values. Under single tax the land would be taxed at its actual rental value, thus absorbing all community created value, and preventing the unchristian-like orgie of gambling in real estate futures in which this community, including some of the churches, indulged in a few years ago.

The Bishop also makes the statement that for four years we have been face to face with an "unearned increment." Well, five or six years ago we gambled with future values of real estate and greedily grabbed at "unearned increments," and now the inevitable reaction has overtaken us, and we must pay the penalty.

As the result of a real estate boom in 1889-92, Victoria passed through a trying period of depression similar to the present, and its exemption of improvements had not then been adopted, what reason would Bishop Macdonald ascribe for the "unearned increment" that Victorians then faced for several years?

In the course of time, perhaps in 15 or 20 years, Victoria will pass through a similar experience, unless in the meantime the city adopts the sufficient of Henry George's theory to make real estate speculation unprofitable. If one-quarter of the money which was absolutely wasted in real estate speculation had been invested in productive enterprise, what a vast difference there would be in Victoria to-day.

Henry George's system of taxation would be real practical Christianity, because it would prevent indulgence in one of the greatest curses of our civilization—land speculation.

DRURY LANE SUCCESS

SHOWN IN VICTORIA

"The Whip," Most Famous of Plays, Will Be at Royal All Week

"The Whip," which commences a week's engagement at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-day, was originally produced in the famous Drury Lane Theatre in London, and it made the most sensational success ever recorded in that home of sensational success. For over two years the throngs surged into the theatre day and day out to see this wonderful production. Then "The Whip" was brought to this country by Wm. A. Brady and produced in the Manhattan Opera House, and there it repeated its tremendous English success. Later "The Whip" was presented in Australia, and ran for two years there, and it was then translated into foreign languages and presented with equal success on the continent.

There are many reasons for this wonderful success of this play—reasons that make it even more successful as a motion picture. For instance, it is modern, it is about people of to-day; it has mammoth scenes, the biggest ever seen in motion picture; it is smart, its people are well dressed; it has a thrilling intense story; it is consistent; it has scores of "punches" and tells a love story and a story of villainy that cannot fail to grip and hold the attention of every spectator.

It is a real treat that is in store for everyone who can see "The Whip." It will be a treat to see the tremendous scenic effects, the gorgeous gowns, the wonderful interior views, and to see and enter into the enthralling and thrilling story revolving around "The Whip," the famous racehorse, whose success in a great race means so much to so many people.

LAWYERS CHALLENGE

CHAIRMAN'S ATTITUDE

Remarkable Position in Regard to Saanich License Commission Develops

An incident rare in the history of British Columbia occurred at Royal Oak on Saturday afternoon in connection with the Saanich License Commissioners' meeting when objection was taken to the Reeve acting as a member of that commission.

The trouble arose out of the recent difficulties at the Royal Oak Hotel, which were alluded to at the meeting of the Council last Tuesday, when the Reeve explained the reasons which had led to the failure of a prosecution against the licensee.

A number of lawyers were present on Saturday afternoon, the gist of their objection being that the Reeve was a prejudiced person, and therefore ought not to hear applications for renewals, etc., in connection with this particular house. With respect to the ownership of the hotel, the brewery company leasing the house and the lessee from the brewery, there was plenty of opportunity for legal argument, and they offered the benefit of their advice unstintingly.

The upshot of the proceedings is that Reeve Barden undertook to retire temporarily from the commission in order that the Council may, if it thinks fit, appoint a member of the Council to act in his place in this particular appeal. Such question will be taken up at a meeting of the Council tomorrow evening.

Some suggestion of prejudice was also made against Commissioner E. B. Knowlton, but the lawyers themselves appeared to recognize they had a weak case, and eventually abandoned the effort to challenge him, so that this commissioner, as well as Commissioner Henderson, will sit, when the proceedings resume on Wednesday afternoon.

The Reeve maintains that the only justification for the allegation of prejudice is that he had to repeat certain statements in connection with the case recently before the police court in order to explain the evidence to his fellow commissioners, and to repudiate that he is prejudiced against the licensee of the Royal Oak Hotel. However, in order to have the question settled finally he has consented to the course mentioned above.

PANTAGES OFFERS FINE PROGRAMME

"Miss Hamlet" and "A Truthful Liar" Are Leading Turns in Bright and Enjoyable Bill

One of the biggest laugh-producing travesties that has ever visited this city will headline the bill at the Pantages commencing with the matinee performance this afternoon. It is called "Miss Hamlet." Snappy comedy, tuneful music and a bevy of handsome maidens headed by a particular star in the movies are outstanding features of "Miss Hamlet." The bill as a whole is of conspicuous interest.

Taking the life of Hamlet as the basis the composer of "Miss Hamlet" has woven around the play as nifty a piece of musical comedy as it is possible to conceive. The whole thing is a travesty on the play by the Bard of Avon, but it is so constructed that even the most devout Shakespearean scholar will find food for hilarity and keen pungent humor. Pauline Barre, formerly of the moving picture world, is a first-class actress and a comedienne of a high order and the rest of the aggregation are up to the minute.

"A Truthful Liar" is not exactly what the name suggests. It is one of the most sensational offerings that have been presented here. Leila Shaw, who has made a name for herself from coast to coast, will appear as the wife of a lawyer who is pleading for the life of a convicted man condemned to die on the gallows. How she intercedes with the governor for the man's life forms one of the finest bits of acting ever staged in vaudeville.

There is a popular animal feature on this bill in a novelty presented by a troupe of trained cats and rats under the direction of M. Swain. This odd assortment of animals give an astonishing repertoire of tricks, the most striking one of which is probably the realistic boxing match between a black and a white tabby.

Nash and Nash have been catching the popular fancy right along the circuit with their song and dance offering and they will make a hit on the bill here. Howard, Kibel and Herbert will also annex lasting popularity with their bright and new songs and patter.

The film feature of the bill is the third instalment of the new series of Canadian exclusive films, "Canada's Fighting Forces." These films have been creating exceptional interest in this city. One feature of them that has been responsible for this is the fact that so many of the British Columbia boys may be recognized in the numerous close-ups.

Drowned at Summerland.—A sad boating fatality occurred on Sunday last at Summerland, when R. W. Kelly, the C. P. R. agent at Summerland, lost his life by drowning in the lake. He and a man named McQuarrie were in a canoe about 100 yards from the shore when the little craft upset and threw them both into the water. McQuarrie clung to the overturned boat and was finally rescued, but Kelly sunk and failed to rise again to the surface.

STEAMER WRECKED TEN YEARS AGO IS NOW READY FOR SEA

Francis L. Skinner, Formerly the Sesostris, Tested Out Preparatory to Sailing

The American steamship Frances L. Skinner, formerly the German freighter Sesostris, was tested out yesterday on Puget Sound, and early this week she will be turned over to her charterers, H. F. Ostrander & Co., to load for a round trip to the Far East.

The Frances L. Skinner has enjoyed one of the most unique careers in the history of maritime experiences. As a Kosmos carrier and flying the German flag in 1907, when on her homeward voyage from this port, she was caught in a storm while taking aboard cargo at Ocos, Guatemala, and was driven high up on the beach. Subsequent gales piled the sand up around the freighter and as the years passed she became firmly embedded. After the Sesostris had rested on the sandy shore for ten years, during which time several unsuccessful attempts were made to float the vessel, a syndicate was organized in Seattle, headed by D. E. Skinner, president of the Skinner & Eddy Corporation, and an expedition, composed of experts of the British Columbia-Salvage Company, was sent south to Guatemala to accept the wreck which had baffled all other salvors.

It was July, 1916, that the R. C. Salvage Co.'s crew left Victoria for the scene of the wreck. Greatly hampered by climatic and other adverse conditions the salvage crew under Capt. F. C. Stratford, worked without cessation covering a period of months, and the Sesostris was finally floated on March 24, reaching Victoria the following month.

After discharging her salvage gear at Victoria the steamer was conveyed by the steamer Savor to Seattle, where she was handed over to her owners. The work of refitting the steamer was undertaken at the plant of the Skinner Eddy Corporation as soon as she had been dry-docked and surveyed. These repairs have been thorough, and to-day the Frances L. Skinner, as she is now known, having been rechristened after the daughter of the head of the owning syndicate, looks like a new vessel.

In the virtual reconstruction of this ship, her interior was practically rebuilt. The engines required but little attention, as they were in splendid shape when she was floated. As she stands to-day the Frances L. Skinner is capable of carrying nearly 1,000 tons more freight than when she was placed in commission in 1907.

CAMOSUN TO RESUME.

Local agents of the Union Steamship Company of British Columbia were advised to-day that the steamer Camosun will be operated on her usual schedule from Victoria to northern British Columbia ports, commencing this week. Making her first trip here since the strike, the Camosun will reach here on Wednesday morning and will sail the same night, and every Wednesday night thereafter, for Bella Coola, River's Inlet and other points.

BOARD OF TRADE TO HOLD ITS EXCURSION Business Men Will Leave City by Princess Maquinna on Saturday for West Coast

Announcement was made to-day that definite arrangements have been completed for the Business Men's Excursion under the management of the Victoria Board of Trade to the west coast of Vancouver Island. Saturday, July 21, the date of the sailing of the C. P. R. steamship Princess Maquinna has been selected as the day on which many of the city's commercial leaders will lay aside their daily cares, and a pleasant holiday may be enjoyed.

The cruise that will extend over a period of six days will be confined to the west coast of the island, so that its attractions to the business man of the local retail trade will not be influenced, as the steamer will arrive back at her docks possibly on Thursday evening, July 26, or at the latest on Friday morning. The retail merchant who does a large trade on Friday need therefore have no fear of being absent from his store on that day.

A minimum number of tickets for the trip must be sold and that all arrangements may be completed as early as possible, applications for these must be made to the secretary of the Board of Trade not later than Wednesday, July 18.

It is expected and confidently hoped by the board that as many as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing the Pacific Coast of the island. Practically the entire trip is made in inland waters and many ports of call will be visited. An excellent insight into the commercial possibilities of the district should therefore be obtained. Among the stations en route are such places as: Port Renfrew, where two large logging camps are in operation; Carmanah, previously the site of the Government light-house; Clooose, a mining and logging center; Bamfield, the station of the Dominion and Government Telegraph Office and the Pacific Cable station; Port Alberni, from which large quantities of whale meat are shipped to this city; Sydney Inlet, Nootka Village, Kyunot Whaling Station, Winter Harbor, Quiet Cove, Quatsino, June Landing and Port Alice.

MAKING ATTEMPT TO FLOAT LINER KRISTIANIAFJORD

Norwegian Steamship Ashore Near Cape Race Has Three Holds Full of Water

St. John's, Nfld., July 16.—While a number of tugs and other vessels stood by ready to render aid, the crew of the 3,900-ton Norwegian-American liner Kristianfjord to-day began fighting the cargo of the ship in an effort to refloat the vessel, which went on the rocks near Cape Race on Sunday. All of the 900 passengers had been taken off without accident.

A message from Cape Race says that the vessel is not hopelessly damaged, although three of her holds are full of water. The Kristianfjord left an American port July 7.

Last Her Bearings.

St. John's, Nfld., July 16.—The Norwegian-American liner Kristianfjord, carrying 1,200 passengers from an American port via Halifax to Norway, ran aground seven miles west of Cape Race, on the southeastern coast of Newfoundland. It was found necessary to remove the passengers, all of whom were landed safely at Portugal Cove.

The liner lost her bearings during the night in a heavy rain storm which was accompanied by fog. Measures were taken to have the rescued passengers brought to this city by train.

Several steamers from this port and the Canadian Government steamer Stanley, which was wrecked by wireless at sea, have gone to the assistance of the stranded liner. Wireless dispatches from the Kristianfjord indicated that she was badly damaged.

The Kristianfjord, a steamship of 10,666 gross tons, was last officially reported as arriving at an American port June 25. She is owned by the Don Norske Amerikalinje, of Christiania, Norway. The vessel was built at Birkenhead in 1913. She is of steel construction and is 512 feet in length.

Crew Still Aboard.

St. John's, Nfld., July 16.—Preparations were made here to-day for the arrival of the 900 passengers from the Norwegian-American liner Kristianfjord, which ran ashore yesterday seven miles west of Cape Race, latest advice indicated. The crew remained aboard the steamship, which was badly damaged.

FIRST STEAMER KEEL TO BE LAID HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Sticks Being Spliced To-day at
Yard of Cameron-Genoa
Mills Shipbuilders, Ltd.

The first of the various shipbuilding concerns, which have been awarded contracts for wooden steamers by the Imperial Munitions Board, to get down to actual construction will be the Cameron-Genoa Mills Shipbuilders, Ltd., operating the big plant at Point Ellice.

It was announced to-day that a start will be made in laying the first governing keel at this yard on Wednesday morning.

Splicing and Preparing.

Men are actively engaged to-day in splicing and preparing the big keel sticks, three of which will be required for the entire keel. All the keel blocks are in position right alongside, and practically everything is in shape for an immediate start in the construction of the first government vessel. With the materials at hand there is nothing to prevent a start being made to-morrow, but inquiry at the yards this afternoon elicited the information that it will probably be Wednesday morning before an attempt is made to get the heavy sticks in position.

There will be no delay in proceeding with the work once the keel is laid down. The mill at this plant is already turning out the framing timbers for this vessel, and these will be placed in position on the keel with the least delay possible. As the work on the auxiliary tugs advances the whole energy of the plant will be concentrated on the construction of the four government steamers which have been contracted for by this concern.

Malahat Ready Soon.

It was stated by one of the shipyard officials to-day that it is expected that the schooner Malahat will be ready for launching in about three weeks, and just as soon as she takes to the water, the building slip which she now occupies, will be utilized for the keel of the second steamer.

The additional ground which has been added to the Cameron-Genoa plant has now been fenced in. It is not proposed to use the new ground for shipbuilding purposes at the present time. This area will be capable of accommodating at least three building ways, and if found to be necessary to facilitate the completing of the contracts on hand, it will be utilized.

Foundation Yard Busy.

While no date has been set for the laying of the first of the five keels by the Foundation Company, Ltd., the shipyard on the Southside Reserve is being rapidly developed, and the company will be in a position to proceed with ship construction before many days have elapsed. The ground ways for two vessels have already been put down, and the laying of the keel blocks will be started this week.

SUSPENDED SERVICES WILL RESUME AT ONCE

The negotiations which have been in progress in Vancouver between representatives of the British Columbia coast steamship companies and delegates of the Sailor's Union have been brought to a satisfactory conclusion during the week-end, both factions arriving at an amicable agreement, with the result that the strike which for the past three weeks has seriously handicapped coastal shipping, has been declared off.

It was announced this morning by the local representatives of the striking crew and deckhands that the agreement reached was entirely satisfactory to the men and that the employees would return to work just as soon as they could be placed on the boats. In some cases the 20 per cent increase demanded has been granted, while in other departments a compromise amounting to 15 per cent increase has been arrived at. The steamship companies have agreed to pay overtime to deckhands at the rate of 50 cents an hour for all work done after 60 hours during a week of seven days.

The original wage scale and the advances granted are given as follows:

Deckhand department: Portable winchmen, former wage $55 per month, now $65; quarterdeckmen, including paint-scrubbers and lookoutmen, $50 to $60; quartermasters, $55 to $62.50; A. B.'s, $50 to $55; and watchmen, $50 to $57.50.

Firemen's department: Oilers, former wage, $55, now $62.50; oil firemen, $55 to $62.50; and coal firemen, $59 to $65.

These advances were confirmed by Capt. J. W. Troup, C. P. R. manager, on being approached to-day regarding the settlement.

Now that the strike has been settled on what both sides consider a satisfactory basis the companies will immediately take steps to operate the various steamer services on the original schedule.

The night service to Vancouver will be resumed to-night, as previously announced by the C. P. R. when the steamship Princess Adelaide, arriving here from the mainland this afternoon will leave at 11.45 p.m. for Vancouver. Before the strike settlement was reached it was announced that the Princess Victoria and Princess Adelaide, which have been maintaining the day service, would double back on the night run, but now that the labor troubles is over, it is understood that the old service will immediately go into effect.

DODWELL OPERATING SWEDISH FREIGHTER

Seattle, July 16.—On her first voyage to Puget Sound, as well as her initial voyage across the Pacific ocean, the Swedish steamship Nippon is discharging cargo consigned to Dodwell & Co. at the Smith Cove terminal. She is a big freighter of over 4,000 tons capacity and was built in England in 1909.

The Nippon arrived in port practically unharmed, as the offshore movements of vessels are not generally published, and while she was known to be on her way here, little attention was paid her coming until she was reported at the cape.

Her inward cargo consisted of general merchandise, most of which is destined from the Atlantic seaboard and Great Lakes District. She will complete discharging about Monday, and whether she will load in Seattle for the outward voyage is not definitely determined.

The Nippon is owned by the Swedish East Asiatic Company, and for the past several years she has been operated between Copenhagen and Singapore, and latterly between Indian ports, Java and the Straits.

BURNING OF CONGRESS DEPICTED ON CANVAS

Port Angeles, July 16.—If there is any truth in the adage "Blood will tell," in the veins of Thomas H. Gup-till, the marine artist, who has just completed his painting, "The Burning of the Congress," on which he has been engaged for the past six months, must be reason of a long line of ancestors, contain what practically amounts to a saline solution. Mr. Gup-till was born and spent his early boyhood on the rock-ribbed coast of Maine, amid the stormy scenes that gave to Winslow Homer his greatest inspiration. And if there is anything lacking in the storm-tossed waters of the Bay of Fundy it was supplied by the gripping interest of his father's tales of voyaging in the North Sea, the Mediterranean, and to the east coast of South America and to the West Indies.

Last fall, while visiting the exposition in San Francisco, the artist met his brother, Capt. J. E. Gup-till, of the steamship Mutilla, whom he had not seen for years, and planned to spend a season in Alaska. A week after the artist came north the Congress was burned off Coos Bay, and in this incident he saw an opportunity for a picture, which temporarily displaced the Alaska. The canvas is 635 feet, showing the ship brought to a stop off the harbor in the late afternoon, the passengers crowded into the boats, getting away from the burning vessel. Flames are bursting from port holes and ventilators and enveloping the after superstructure, while a volume of fire smokes through which the setting sun casts a copper glow, is seen drifting to leeward. The striking part of the picture, aside from its vigor, is the color re-entailing in every portion. A movement is on foot to purchase it for presentation to Capt. Cousins, commander of the Congress, in recognition of his heroic work in saving his entire ship's company of over 400.

WAKENA IS AFLOAT

Border Line Motor Craft Taken to Seattle to Undergo Repairs.

The Border Line Transportation Company's motor vessel Wakena, which drove ashore at Brown's Point, near Tacoma, early Thursday morning, was floated at high tide on Saturday afternoon and taken in tow for Seattle to undergo repairs. A survey showed that the vessel had a number of holes in her bottom, due to settling on the rocks. Gasoline pumps were used to keep the vessel clear of water during the trip to Seattle.

Other arrangements are being made to take care of the British Columbia business, while the Wakena is off the run.

Washington, July 16.—Major-General Goethals postponed his plan for commandeering to-day of private shipping under construction in the United States, and for contracting immediately for building two government ship-building plants. He acted at the request of Chairman Denman, of the shipping board, who wants to lay the matter before the directors of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

TEAM IS SELECTED TO PLAY VANCOUVER

Victoria Lawn Bowlers Will Try to Annex Barnard Cup Soon

Selection has been made of the men to compose the two teams which will journey to Vancouver on July 28 to take part in the contest for the Bar- nard Cup, possession of which carries with it the championship honors of the Island and Lower Mainland. In Messrs. Bates, McDonald, Webster and Fairfull (skip), and Messrs. Ferguson, Cullin, McCosh and Stevenson (skip), Victoria is well represented and will have a large part in determining the destination of the cup. Accompanying the skip men will be Mr. Wood, who will make a worthy endeavor to bring back with him the Chambers Cup, emblematical of the singles champion- ship, which is to be contested on the same date.

The green of the local lawn bowling club at Beacon Hill Park on Saturday was thronged with spectators who evinced a keen interest in the three games played in the first round of the competition for the trophy presented by Mr. Clayton. Two of the matches were decidedly easy for the winners but the third, skipped by Ferguson and Greenhill, was exceedingly close, the ultimate victors being in doubt until the last end was played. The follow- ing are the scores:

OUIMET WINS WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Chicago, July 16.—Francis Ouimet, of Boston, won the Western Amateur Golf Championship Saturday by defeating Kenneth Edwards, of the Midwestern Country Club, 1 up in 36 holes. Ouimet obtained an easy lead during an advan- tage of four up on the local players at the end of the first nine holes, but Edwards fought gamely and finally squared the match on the thirty-first hole in the afternoon round.

Edwards went one over par on the thirty-third for a six while Ouimet was down in five, giving him the margin, but Edwards squared it again on the thirty- fourth. Ouimet obtained the winning margin when he won the thirty-fifth 5-4.

BRITISH CRICKETERS IN CASUALTY LISTS

Many Famous Sportsmen Give Up Lives on Fields of Battle

Several well-known county cricketers' names prominently in the latest casualty list issued, as the result of the severe fighting on the western front, according to a London cable. J. W. Rothery, the famous Yorkshire County player, has been seriously wounded in the left arm. His finest innings was against Kent at Dover in 1905, when he saved his side from certain defeat by putting to- gether a brilliant innings of 161 runs.

CRICKET NOTES

(By Cover Point.)

Victoria vs. Five C's.

Saturday's cricket match on the Hospital grounds between the Five C's and Victoria was voted by spectators and players alike as one of the keenest and best games played in Victoria for some time. In the end, after a terrific fight, Victoria was returned winner by 14 runs and that after two innings each had been played.

Co. Q.-M.-S. Stevens, 26, in the Victoria first innings, was the highest score of the day. The bowlers on both sides were certainly on the spot all the time, very little loose stuff being sent up at all; but it was chiefly due to the magnificent exhibition of fielding and catching that the scores were kept so low.

For the Five C's Freddy Bosson's catch at deep square leg that dis- posed of York, was a beautiful effort, the player having to run at least 25 yards and taking the ball close to the boundary; also Payne took a catch at deep cover that he had to run and jump for, his success sending Hill back. For the Victoria team Wilkinson fielding at point, undeniably made the most sensational and one of the best catches seen for a long time. From a very hard out the fielder dived for the ball and took it a few inches from the ground with his outstretched left hand. Later on at a very critical point of the game for Victoria, Wright at short leg held a very hard hit ball that was going over his head.

A word of special praise is also due to May and Stevens for their ground- fielding. During the afternoon 40 wickets fell for 254 runs between both sides.

Regarding the game itself Victoria batted first and were all out for 88, Stevens 26, York 16 and Phillips 23 were the only ones to get double figures, York being very smartly thrown out by May. With only such a small score against them the Five C's prospects were decidedly good, consid- ering their 192 last week against the Albion, but they lost 4 wickets for 8 runs. May 12, Bosson 11 then made a stand and while they remained the Five C's looked as if they were going to pull the game out of the fire, but after playing steadily for a time, Bos- son nicked the wrong one to hit from Mitchell, and was retired. May was out shortly after that to Goward. The rest of the side did little and were all out for 60.

There were still a good couple of hours cricket time and Victoria fol- lowed on but were all out for the in- significant total of 46. Lethaby 14 and Shepherd 10 were the only ones to get double figures.

The Five C's again had their chance to win, needing only 75 runs and lots of time. Bradford was out second ball clean bowled and 2 wickets were down for 2 runs. It was then a hard fight to the finish with lots of excitement, first one side and then the other appearing to hold the advantage. May got into double figures for the second time with 14 runs, and Hlingworth quickly got 12 before Goward yoked him. Got 12 before Goward yoked him. Got 12 before Goward yoked him. Got 12 before Goward yoked him.

45 not out. The same player took the chief bowling honors with 6 for 17 runs.

Garrison vs. Albion.

Another great game was witnessed on the Garrison grounds where the Work Point club were at home in the Albion. Four innings were again played. On the first innings the Albion club won by 5 runs, and after batting again, set the home club 123 runs to win, which they did with 5 runs to spare.

In this game time was an important factor, and towards the end the excitement was intense. Stephenson, Fletcher and Freeman got the scores for the Albion, and Robinson, Pegler and Wells made the high scores for the Garrison. Both sides only used two bowlers throughout the game, Askey getting 14 wickets for the home side and Parson 12 for the Albions.

In General.

Both on the Garrison and Albion grounds the fielding was poor, there being quite an epidemic of dropped catches at Work Point.

In the Congos' second innings C. and W. Speak both made good scores.

York's 45 not out was the best score of the day in the Senior League.

Warton for the E. M. C. H. in the second division against Reception C. C. made 11.

L. York's 6 for 17 was the best bowling performance of the day.

There were only two extras in both of Victoria's innings, and even they were leg byes, which speaks well of Edwards's wicket-keeping.

It would be well if the umpires in all the games kept a strict tab on the time actually played. It would prevent a lot of misunderstanding and subsequent friction.

JUNIOR FIVE C'S WIN.

The Five C's boys on Saturday lost the measure of the 3rd Troop, Boy Scouts in a seven-men-a-side cricket match by a score of 123 runs to 9. For the winners Quanton made 58 and May 28. The former also took 4 wickets for 2 runs.

SMITH SOLD TO ST. LOUIS.

New York, July 16.—The Brooklyn National League club to-day sold James D. Smith, utility infielder, to the St. Louis Nationals under the waiver rule.

Every woman wants to make her own bread nowadays, but everyone has not time. There are bread-making machines, but they are expensive. What is wanted is a little hand-kneading machine, to correspond with the little mangle machine which most of us can afford to buy. We could then make maize bread and anything we liked. The Mexican tortillas made from maize are prepared freshly for every meal, but it takes so much time to set aside solely for this important duty.—London Chronicle.

BREWING OF BEER TO BE INCREASED

Chancellor of Exchequer—Announces Permission to Add One-Third of Amount for This Quarter.

London, July 16.—Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in the House of Commons to-day that the Government had decided to permit the brewing during the quarter ending Sep- tember 30 next of an additional amount of beer not exceeding 33 1/3 per cent. of the amount allowed for that quarter.

This action, he said, was taken owing to the greater consumption during the summer months and the difficulties caused by shortage in large centres of population and in the counties where crops are being harvested.

BRITISH COLUMBIAN SUCCEEDS TO POST

M. S. Middleton Appointed Provincial Horticulturist and Inspector of Fruit Pests

That a native son of British Columbia has been appointed by the Minister of Agriculture to fill the post recently vacated by R. M. Winslow, will be in keeping with the dominant note struck at the meeting of the Victoria Board of Trade on Friday last. It was urged there that men of British Columbia should qualify for posts of importance within the provincial borders.

M. S. Middleton is appointed to be Provincial Horticulturist and Inspector of Fruit Pests in the room of Mr. Winslow who has lately accepted a billet across the international boundary. For the past nine years Mr. Middleton has been in the service of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, with headquarters at Nelson, acting in the capacity of assistant to his predecessor.

The new incumbent of the office is well-known throughout the province and has kept in touch with the fruit-growers of every section, studying their needs and closely following their systems. He has been particularly helpful to the beginner, while his wide practical knowledge has been well spoken of by the older hands of the districts to which he has been allocated. He thus comes to his new post fully equipped and with everything in his favor.

CHINAMEN LAYING RAILS ON C.N.R. LINE

Formal Complaint Laid With Hon. John Oliver; Discussed in Council

Information in the way of a formal complaint reached the Hon. John Oliver on Saturday last to the effect that some fifty Chinamen were being employed by the Canadian Northern Railway in the laying of steel on the Albert section of their line, between Burnside and Colwood.

In this connection, it may be remarked, neither in the original agreement between the company and the province, which was ratified by legislation, nor at supplementary agreement under date of April 2, 1916, was there any protective clause for labor, nor prohibitory provision against the employment of the Oriental.

SAANICH TAX SALE COMMENCED TO-DAY

Many Buyers Attended at Royal Oak This Morning; Little a Firm Land

With the windows and doors of the Council Chamber wide open, the large gathering of bidders at the Saanich tax sale endeavored to keep cool during the opening stages of the sale, which began this morning. Assessor R. F. F. Sewell conducted the proceedings.

An eleven hour reprieve may be taken, but it was nothing to the arrival of the representative of a local legal firm who came to redeem some property after the sale had been going for more than an hour. He learned in the office that the lot would be called on directly, hurried downstairs with the tax paper, and paid the cash for the 1915 taxes, a few minutes before the auctioneer came to his parcel of land.

The number of parcels which will be offered is about equal to the sales of the past two years, about 1,000 in all, out of 4,000 properties delinquent when the Council ordered a sale. Some $20,000 has been received in the past few months, and with the help of the proceeds of this sale, the financing of the municipality will be easier for the remainder of the year.

LOCAL OFFICER MISSING

Lieut. McAnally Was Serving With the Northamptonshire During the German Attack on Sand Dunes

According to a cable received during the week-end, Second Lieutenant Alan R. McAnally has been missing from his unit since the spasmodic dash of the Germans on the British lines in the sand dunes region on July 19. This information was received by the young officer's father, Charles A. McAnally, of Cadboro Bay.

Enlisting with the 88th Battalion, Victoria Fusiliers, in the early days of the war, Lieut. McAnally left the city with the 30th Battalion under Col. Hall in February, 1915. On arrival in the Old Country he transferred to the Northamptonshire and it was with this regiment that he was serving on the Belgian front. His many friends will watch for further news of his fate. Lieut. McAnally was educated at the University School, where he distinguished himself as a cross country runner. At the outbreak of war he was following his calling as a B. C. land surveyor and was engaged with Lieut. Col. W. J. H. Holmes.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Creighton, whose death occurred on Wednesday at Esquimalt, took place Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Sandia Funeral Chapel. Many friends and relatives were in attendance. The hymns sung were "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Peace, Perfect Peace." Rev. J. McCoy officiated and the pallbearers were Messrs. J. Smith, S. Griffiths, J. Neilson and G. Goodman. Interment took place at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Mrs. Hagen, whose daughter, Mrs. Wille, lives at 1418 Harrison Street, this city, died last Sunday in Cincinnati, O., at the advanced age of eighty-one years. The deceased lady, who had visited her daughter here, was the widow of the late William H. Hagen, who was in the army of the North during the Civil War as a member of the Engineer Corps. Besides her daughter in this city she is survived by the following other children: Mrs. Elizabeth Stall of Cincinnati; William Hagen, of Spokane, Wash.; and John Hagen, of Cincinnati.

WILL CHANGE REFUSE INTO VALUABLE FUEL

W. Thomas, of Nanaimo, Claims to Have Discovered New Process

W. Thomas, of Nanaimo, who is at present in the city, claims to have invented a coke that will replace much of the coal and oil now being widely utilized.

The new substance is made almost entirely from vegetable matter. Mr. Thomas asserts that the 20,000,000 tons of straw that are annually wasted on the prairies...

The inventor further claims that the material will be far more satisfactory than those fuels in present use. It differs largely from other forms of coke in that it has less than 3 per cent of ash...

It is the intention of the inventor to supply this coke in three grades, domestic, light industrial and heavy industrial. He is also sure of its success for locomotives and marine engines.

One analysis made of a sample of the domestic quality gave the following results: Ash—2.70 per cent. Moisture—2.81 per cent. Calorific value—13,800 B. T. U. per pound.

Mr. Thomas shows samples of coke which he has made from straw. Should the process prove commercially valuable it might be used to save the waste material from the mills...

TERRIBLY SICK WOMAN

Surgical Operation Thought Necessary, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her.

Medicine, Wic. I was a terribly sick woman for over three years. I suffered with terrible pains in my back and was about to have an operation when a friend said to me, 'Before having that operation just try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I let the operation wait, and my husband bought me the Vegetable Compound and it has made me a well woman and we have a lovely baby girl. We cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, and I hope this letter will lead other suffering women to try it."

There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Blake, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for ailing women.

All women are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

Do You Care for Your Teeth or Do They Care for Themselves?

In other words, do you give them the daily attention they must have in order that they may be kept sound, clean and healthy? If you are not giving them the attention they need, you should begin right away to live up to such a motto as this: "Twice a day with the tooth brush, twice a year with the dentist."

Come in and let me examine your teeth—do it to-morrow. I will charge you nothing if yours is simply a case of tarnished teeth to be made clean and wholesome. If your teeth require more attention than that, I will tell you what is the exact nature of your requirements, how much it will cost you to have them put in first-class condition by my improved dental process.

This up-to-date dental process is a boon to every sufferer from defective teeth. In every operation, large or small, it minimizes pain and discomfort. For permanency and all-round satisfaction it establishes a standard in dentistry unsurpassed in any country—at any price.

- Low prices and high-grade workmanship. Special attention given to country visitors and others who are in town at infrequent intervals. Ladies always in attendance.

SMALL VOTE CAST FOR SAANICH BY-LAWS

Reeve Borden Regards Question as One for Education of Public Opinion

Apathy accounted for a very small vote being recorded for the by-laws in Wards II and VII, Saanich, on Saturday. Both were badly beaten, the small poll registered being far less than the customary expression of opinion on money by-laws in the wards. The result was known by 7.30 o'clock, as follows:

Fire Protection By-law.
Ward II	For. Agst. 31 33
Ward VII	22 79
Total	53 112

Reeve Borden said with regard to the fire protection by-law this morning: "I hardly thought it would have carried, but the people in the lower wards early this year showed in such an emphatic manner that they wanted protection from fire loss that we had to try to meet their wishes. That was the reason why I encouraged the Legislative Committee to secure the necessary power to define fire areas in a municipality. We got the power, and then when the scheme was completed we put it to the people to decide whether they wanted protection or not."

"They have now decided adversely, but after all this is an educative policy and a chance will come at a future time, possibly at the annual election, for the people to reverse their decision on Saturday and to empower the Council to establish a department. We feel as a Council that we have done our duty in preparing a scheme and submitting it to the electors."

While criticism to a certain extent was not altogether unexpected, Major Harvey declared that the first duty devolving upon "J" unit was the most speedy mending of the man who had come back from the battlefield to be prepared for return to civil life. He said that he was equipped in the shortest possible time, with facilities unimpairing, so that he would be enabled to enter commercial life with as much value in the labor market as the man whose daily round had been undisturbed by military service.

Since the medical authorities in the jurisdiction of "J" unit, from their experience with an altogether different type of ailment—if the word ailment implies sufficient—have arrived at the conclusion that the use of alcoholics hinders in the least manner the process of recovery, then Major Harvey contends that the issuance of the order referred to was not only timely but the bounden duty of the authorities. It was not to be imagined for one moment that cases of excess were complained of. Despite the narrowing experiences of the men, they had been splendid and had upheld the dignity of the services into which they had leapt for duty as soon as the call went forth.

THE WELL-BEING OF THE TOMMY HIMSELF RETURNED SATURDAY AFTER TWO YEARS SERVICE IN FRANCE

Doctors Say Indiscriminate Use of Alcohol During Treatment Hinders Recovery Captain George Greaves, M. D., Tells of Work With Imperial Forces

"The order was given as a direct result of the findings of experienced medical men. It was given after ample consideration of the detrimental effects of the unskillful use of alcohol during the period of special treatment necessary in medical cases, such as are the product of modern warfare." Major J. S. Harvey, officer commanding "J" unit, so expressed himself to a representative of The Times when discussing various published and unpublished expressions with regard to the order, recently issued from military headquarters of this district, virtually instituting a state of prohibition as affecting returned soldiers undergoing medical treatment.

New Methods Necessary. Major Harvey states that while the progress towards recovery of men returned from the battle fronts, suffering from various entirely new disabilities, has been uniformly good, the authorities consider that everything possible should be done to add to the beneficial treatment afforded at the various hospitals and sanatoria throughout British Columbia. The medical men, therefore, attached to "J" unit came to the conclusion that so long as it was possible for alcohol to be obtained under these particular and special circumstances, the efficiency of the unit from the purely medical point of view was being impaired.

The issuance of such an order, he declares, must not be taken in the light of any attempt at coercive measures, but solely as a sensible precautionary step with the one and only consideration of the well-being of the men themselves. "It must be remembered that this war is entirely different to any other," said he, "and just as new engines of destruction have been created, their effects on the system require new methods."

Men Must Recover. While criticism to a certain extent was not altogether unexpected, Major Harvey declared that the first duty devolving upon "J" unit was the most speedy mending of the man who had come back from the battlefield to be prepared for return to civil life. He said that he was equipped in the shortest possible time, with facilities unimpairing, so that he would be enabled to enter commercial life with as much value in the labor market as the man whose daily round had been undisturbed by military service.

Since the medical authorities in the jurisdiction of "J" unit, from their experience with an altogether different type of ailment—if the word ailment implies sufficient—have arrived at the conclusion that the use of alcoholics hinders in the least manner the process of recovery, then Major Harvey contends that the issuance of the order referred to was not only timely but the bounden duty of the authorities. It was not to be imagined for one moment that cases of excess were complained of. Despite the narrowing experiences of the men, they had been splendid and had upheld the dignity of the services into which they had leapt for duty as soon as the call went forth.

Heavy Responsibility. The strength of "J" unit, when this week's arrivals are counted, will approach very near to 1,250 men, an increase of some 300 within the last month. With this fact in mind relatives and friends of the men themselves, as well as the general public, will realize the necessity for the study of every means for ensuring the recovery to normal condition of so large a body of men, and the virtual prohibition order is regarded as a vital factor in the achievement of the most beneficial results in the shortest possible time.

Fisherman Burned.—Alfred Bonist, a well-known Fraser River fisherman, is in St. Mary's Hospital suffering from severe burns on the hands and back sustained on Saturday evening when his gasoline boat took fire near his home on Barnston Island. With his clothing aflame, Bonist jumped overboard and managed to reach shore, where he was temporarily attended and later brought to the city. The boat burned to the water's edge.
