(Items of Survey)

- Article 6. The following items shall be surveyed:
 - 1. Names of the breeders ot live stock;
 2. Area of farms managed by the breeders
 - of live stock;
 - 3. Classification of breeders of live stock according to farmer, non-farmer and institutional farm;
 - 4. Number of live stock by sex, age and species, and number of hives.

(Obligation of Report)

Article 7. The breeders of live stock must report for each item stated in the preceding Article; provided that those who live in the areas appointed by the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry are not under the obligation to report according to Article 5.

- 2 The report required in the preceding paragraph shall be made in the form of answer to the question put by the agriculture, forestry and fishery enumerator (hereinafter referred to as enumerator) stated in Article 10 of the Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery Investigation Regulation (Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry Ordinance No. 111 of 1940).
- Article 8. The enumerator shall enter in the live stock investigation book (hereinafter referred to as investigation book) distributed by the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry the items collected from the breeders of live stock living in the investigation district in his charge. After summarizing these items, he shall present the investigation book to the mayor of the city or the head of the ward, town or village by February 7, 1949.
- 2 The Minister of Agriculture and Forestry decides the form of the investigation book.
- Article 9. On receipt of the investigation books required in the preceding Article, the mayor of the city, or the head of the ward, town or village shall make, according to the books, the resultant table of the city, ward, town or village and shall present it together with the investigation books to the prefectural governor by February 17, 1949.
- Article 10. On receipt of the resultant tables and the investigation books required in the preceding Article, the prefectural governor shall make, according to the resultant tables and the investigation books, the resultant tables of "gun" (in Hokkaido the resultant table of "shicho") and the resultant table of the prefecture and shall present them together with the resultant tables of the cities, wards, towns or villages to the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry by March 17, 1949.
- Article 11. The Agriculture, Forestry and Fishery Investigation Regulation is applied to the matters concerning the execution of enumerator's duties except those mentioned in this Ordinance.

(Statistical Personnel)

Article 12. In conformity with paragraph 4, Article 10 of the Statistic Law, the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry, the prefectural governor, the mayor of the city, of the head of the ward, town or village can make a person or persons other than those mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the same Article to be engaged in this survey.

(Announcement of the Result)

Article 13. The Minister of Agriculture and Forestry shall summarize the resultant tables of prefectures, and shall make the first announcement on June 30, 1949, to be followed by others during the year.

(Use of the Investigation Book)

Article 14. The investigation book, in conformity with paragraph 1, Article 15 of the Statistic Law, shall not be used for any purpose other than statistics, except, in accordance with paragraph 2 of the same Article, for purposes announced by the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry with the sanction of the Statistical Committee.

(Safe-keeping of the Investigation Book)

Article 15. After the investigation, the investigation book shall be kept in the prefecture for 5 years, the prefectural governor being responsible for its safe-keeping.
