

RANAWY from me the Subscriber, a Negro Woman, Named Kate Grealy; she was formerly the Property of John Grealy, Esq; aged about 22 Years, with a young Child 3 Weeks old, both of the Mulatto Kind. Said Wench I bought on the 13th January; at Public Sale of the Sherriff of this County—Who was Sold by said Sherriff for Theft, for House breaking and Shop lifting, and Lawfully Convicted by a Court of Justice in this Town, and as I have Good Reason to suppose that Tom Robinson, Ben Hadden, and Will Langly, were and have been her adviters to desert from my Service; I therefore Forbid any Person Harbouring, Secretting or Employing said Wench on any Account or Pretence Whatever, any Person will apprehend & Secure said Wench where she may be delivered to her Proper Owner, shall be handsomely Rewarded and all reasonable Costs paid by

BENJ. PECKHAM.

Newport, May 12, 1792.