Henderson's New Yellow Darwin Tulip

(See Front Cover) MARY EATON (See Front Cover)

The spring flower show at the Grand Central Palace, New York City, witnessed this year a great event in "Tulipdom" viz—the exhibition by Peter Henderson & Co. of their new tulip, Mary Eaton, named for the well known actress now starring in New York. News papers of March 21st.

Of course to the outsider, the addition of one more yellow tulip to the bewildering number already known did not seem to be of any great importance, but to those who know Tulips it was an event of great significance.

No golden yellow Darwin tulip had ever been seen by the eye of man until the advent of this new variety, Mary Eaton, first shown to admiring thousands at the International Flower Show Grand Central Palace, New York, on March 19th, 1928. It is in color a beautiful sun-flower yellow, both base and anthers being yellow, so that there is nothing about it to interfere with the rich golden glow characteristic of this Tulip.

Naturally, the number of bulbs so far produced is limited because a tulip bulb is five years old when we offer it for sale, but we have arranged for breeding them on a large scale, and in a few years all tulip lovers will be able to include a yellow Darwin in their collections. We have not a great quantity to offer this year, but we shall fill the orders in that order, and no doubt the supply for this year will soon be disposed of. Price $5.00 each postpaid.

Henderson's Selected GIANT DARWIN TULIPS

The Darwin Tulips are exceedingly effective when grown in the garden or herbaceous border with a back ground of greenery. The beauty, hardiness and perpetuity of Darwin Tulips has made them very popular. As cut flowers they are unsurpassable, the long-stemmed bold, durable flowers having a dignity and character exclusively their own.

To aid in making selections of varieties for continuity of bloom, etc., we have indicated their relative time of flowering by the letters E, F, G, H and I. The E's being the earliest to bloom. The height is also given but may vary. The bulbs should be spaced about 5 inches apart and base of the bulbs should be 5 to 6 in. deep on heavy soils and 6 to 7 inches deep on light soils.

They may also be grown in pots in the house in winter, if grown cool and not forced into bloom before March. The varieties marked * are best for the purpose.

Henderson's Late or May-Flowering Cottage Tulips

Cottage Tulips are so-called because many of them were found growing in the old cottage gardens of England, Scotland, Ireland and France where they had been established for 50 years or more. All are very beautiful, presenting a great variety in form and coloring, and having none of the stiffness of other tulips. For cutting they are greatly prized on account of their long stems and graceful habit. Being extremely hardy they are specially adapted for hardy flower borders, where they should be planted in large clumps and masses. To aid in making selections for continuity of bloom, etc., the relative time of flowering is indicated by the letters E, F, G, H and I. Those marked E being the earliest. Those marked I are the latest to bloom. The normal height is also given in inches. In planting the bulbs should be placed 5 inches apart and the bottom of the bulb should be 6 to 7 inches below the surface in light soils and 5 to 6 inches deep in heavy soils. If planted too shallow some may come blind. The varieties marked * are especially good for winter flowering and forcing.

Old Dutch Breeder Late or May Flowering Bulbs

The Old Dutch Breeder Tulips appeal to all tulip lovers on account of their sturdiness, large size, and beautiful "art colors." The colors of these tulips are most fascinating; including solid art colors (such as bronze, brown, buff, terra cotta) as well as many combinations of colors that are unsurpassably beautiful. In size they even outrival the popular Darwins. Under favorable conditions many sorts will grow over two and one half feet high and bear enormous flowers of ideal form and great substance. Due to the firm substance of which the flowers are composed, they will remain in perfect condition over a long period of time, either on the plants in the garden, or when cut for decorative purposes.

Old Dutch Breeder Tulips may also be successfully flowered in pots or pans of soil or fibre in the house in winter if not brought in from the cold frame or out-door plunge before the middle of January and then grown on cool and slowly in a temperature of about 60°. The early flowering ones—those marked F and G—will then flower in February and March—the later ones requiring a little more time. Too much heat is apt to cause them to grow spindling and inferior.

REMBRANDT TULIPS

These late or May-flowering garden tulips form a new class of stately beauty. They are in reality Darwin Tulips which have "broken" into permanent variegations—the flowers of various rich colors being striped, blotched and marked with different shades and colors. The flowers, large, of perfect form and lasting substance are borne on sturdy stems about two feet in height. These Rembrandts are very effective planted in groups in the herbaceous or shrubby border and will remain 3 or 4 years without replanting. The cultural directions given for Darwin Tulips apply to these.

Apollo. Rosy lilac and white, striped dark carmine.

Butterfly. Soft lilac, deep carmine stripes.

Caracalla. Fiery and red-striped white.

Eros. Lilac and white striped dark.

Marc Spado. White flamed scarlet.

Red Prince. Rose flamed fiery-red.

Semele. Vivid rose-pink striped darker rose.

Victor Hugo. Bright carmine flamed white.

HENDERSON'S SUPERIOR DOUBLE EARLY TULIPS

Named Varieties including Beautiful Novelties

The letters A, B, C, etc., following the varieties indicate their earliness of bloom, the A's flower together and are the earliest; B's follow before the A's are out of bloom, etc. The height is indicated in inches to aid in arranging flower beds. When bedded it is generally advisable to use only one variety to a bed for best effect. The bulbs are planted 5 to 6 inches apart—and the depth should be according to the soil, in heavy soils 3 to 4 inches to the base of the bulbs and in light soils an inch or so deeper. Instructions for forcing in pots for Winter blooming will be found in our leaflet "How to Grow Bulbs" sent free with every order.

HENDERSON'S "SPECIAL" HYACINTHS

FOR BEDDING OR POT CULTURE WITHOUT NAMES—CHEAPER THAN NAMED VARIETIES—FAR BETTER THAN MIXED

They are the same age as the first size Named Hyacinth offered by us from which these are the second selection. They are of great value for bedding in designs, enabling one to obtain the exact color effect desired. In beds, borders, etc., set the bulbs 5 to 6 inches apart and 4 inches deep measuring from the top of the bulb. They are much used for winter blooming in pots. Plant or pot hyacinth bulbs between September and the last of November—the earlier the better—as it gives them a longer period to make roots before winter sets in and the flowers will be better developed.

Plant 1 bulb in a 5-in. pot, 3 bulbs in a 6 or 7-in. pot, 6 or 7 bulbs in an 8-in. pot or pan.

EARLY ROMAN HYACINTHS

Roman Hyacinths are exceedingly popular and invaluable for winter flowering in the house in pots or pans, and are also extensively used for "forcing" for cut flowers. The white Roman Hyacinth is the earliest, best and most floriferous variety, though the pink, rose and light blue are very beautiful and supply a variation of color.

They are all easily grown in pots of soil and if potted in September, the pots plunged in the open ground for a month until the bulbs are well rooted, and then brought in the house they can be had in flower in November or December, and from that time throughout the winter a continuous succession of delightful flowers may be enjoyed by bringing in from the plunge or cellar a pot or two of the rooted bulbs at intervals of about two weeks. A five-in. pot is large enough for 3 bulbs, a six-inch pot or pan for 6 bulbs, a seven-inch pot or pan for 8 bulbs. Roman Hyacinths are not hardy enough for open ground planting north of Washington, but where the winters are mild, especially if lightly protected with mulch they thrive excellently in the garden.

DUTCH ROMAN HYACINTHS

The smaller or three-year-old bulbs of some varieties of Dutch Hyacinths produce, considering their size, beautiful spikes of bloom, not as large nor furnished with as many bells as older-full-sized bulbs but still so satisfactory for their low price that they are extensively grown for winter flowers, forced either in "flats" pans or pots. They may be had in flower from January on—thus succeeding the earlier French Romans. The bulbs may be placed very near together—say—an inch apart—requiring 7 or 8 bulbs for a 7-inch pan or 5 bulbs for a 5-inch pot or pan.

AMERICAN GROWN Narcissus, Daffodils and Jonquils

The varieties offered are all hardy, grow, increase and flower year after year. They may be grown in garden beds, in herbaceous borders, or grown as if wild in outlying portions of the grounds. The bulbs may be left undisturbed for several years on good loamy soils. The depth to plant varies according to the size of the bulbs—a covering of 2 to 3 inches of soil is about the average—a good rule is to cover the bulb one and a half times its own diameter. On light sandy soils plant deeper than on heavy soils. The distance apart should be 3 to 6 inches, according to size. Narcissus and Daffodils are also flowered in the greenhouse or window in pots, pans and flats of soil.

HARDY LILIES

Lilies commence flowering in June and by planting the different varieties it is quite possible to maintain a continuous and unbroken succession of bloom in the shrubbery border. Most Lily Bulbs, being of late maturity, are not ready before October. November and December (the best time to plant them). Where the ground is liable to freeze up before the late lilies arrive it should be mulched with 6 or 8 inches of leaves or manure to keep it from freezing, so the bulbs may be planted on arrival.

Auratum. (The Golden Rayed Lily of Japan.) The flowers are pure white, thickly studded with crimson spots, while through the centre of each petal runs a clear golden band. Fully expanded, the flowers measure nearly a foot across and possess a most delicious fragrance. Season of bloom from July to October 3 to 5 feet.

Extra size bulbs 50c. each; $5.00 doz.; $37.50 per 100
Mammoth bulbs 75c. each; $7.50 doz.; $60.00 per 100

Candidum, Henderson's Superior Northern Crown. This is the ever popular fragrant, snow-white, hardy garden Lily, which is also known as "Annunciation Lily," and "Madonna Lily." It grows 3 to 4 feet high, and blooms in the open ground in June. When grown in masses these lilies are especially effective against the surrounding greenery of shrubs, etc. Price, extra large bulbs, 50c. each; $5.00 doz.; $37.50 per 100.

Canadense. Our native Canadian Lily. Bright yellow marked with copious spots of red; blooms in June and July. 2 to 3 feet high. 25c. ea.; $2.50 doz.

Canadense Flavum. A pure yellow selection of the above. 25c. ea.; $2.50 doz.

Canadense Rubrum. Crimson with dark spots 25c. ea.; $2.50 doz.

Elegans Leonard Joerg. Rich apricot spotted. 30c. ea.; $3.00 doz.

The flowers are large, of a bright yellow, tinged orange and spotted maroon, with thick wax-like petals. Very robust and free. 75c. ea.; $7.50 doz.

Henryi. (The Yellow Speciosum.) A new rare and very beautiful Lily from China. It is very hardy, and without doubt one of the best Lilies for garden culture. The flower stalks, 3 to 5 feet high, carry 5 to 8 large flowers each, rich apricot yellow, lightly spotted with brown. The shape and size of the flowers has suggested the name "Yellow Speciosum." 75c. ea.; $7.50 doz.

Regale ("A Royal Beauty"). The flowers are white, slightly suffused with pink, with a beautiful shade of canary yellow at the center, blending out part way up the trumpet. The fragrance is fascinating. A splendid hardy Lily for the garden, flowering about July 1st. Well-grown bulbs often produce five to eight blooms. 75c. ea.; $7.50 doz.

Speciosum or Lancifolium. The varieties of L. Speciosum or Lancifolium are perhaps the most popular Lilies grown. They are easy of cultivation, and produce large flowers of delicate beauty on strong stems; height, from 2 to 4 feet; blooming in August. The varieties are:

The colors range through all shades of red from rose to blackish-crimson, yellow, buff, orange, etc., many being spotted. Mixed colors. 25c. ea.; $2.50 doz.; $18.00 per 100.

LILIES FOR FORCING IN POTS, ETC.

Bermuda Easter Lily Lilium Longiflorum Harrisii

The short time required to bring this peerless Lily into flower renders it invaluable. The flowers are delightfully fragrant pure waxy-white, and if cut when partially open, can be kept for two weeks. Bulbs potted in September can be had in flower in December, if desired.

A succession of bloom can be kept up throughout the winter by bringing in a few pots of bulbs from cold frames at intervals. Blooming plants in pots are suitable for Easter offerings and presents.

Bulbs Ready for Shipment—August to December. (See illustration).

Extra Size Bulbs. (7 to 9 inches in circumference.) This is the most popular size to grow as pot plants for decoration and equally as valuable for cutting. Bulbs should produce from 6 to 8 flowers. 35c. ea.; $3.50 doz.; $27.50 per 100.

Monstrous Size Bulbs. (9 to 11 inches in circumference.) These are usually grown for specimens in pots, for exhibitions and decorations. Each bulb should produce from 8 to 12 flowers. 60c. ea.; $6.00 per doz.; $45.00 per 100.

Formosa Easter Lily Lilium Longiflorum Formosum

This is an improved type of the well known L. longiflorum also known as the "Easter or St. Joseph's Lily." The plants are of health strong growth—about 3 feet high and produce beautiful snow white trumpet shaped flowers, 6 to 8 inches long. This lily is largely grown by florists who "force" them as pot plants and for cut flowers. It is not quite as early as Lilium Harrisii. For Shipment, September to December.

Extra Size Bulbs, 8 to 10 inches. 40c. ea.; $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Lilium Longiflorum Giganteum

This Japanese type is highly thought of for late winter and Easter forcing. The plant is of sturdy stocky growth—with black marked stems; The flowers of purest white are the largest of the longiflorums. For Shipment October to December.

Extra Size Bulbs, 8 to 10 inch. 40c. ea.; $4.00 doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Calla Lilies

Calla Aethiopica, or Lily of the Nile.

This old favorite White Calla Lily is too well known to require any description. We offer dry roots, as they are superior for forcing and winter-flowering purposes; they come into bloom quickly and require less room making less foliage. Extra large bulbs, 35c. ea.; $3.50 per doz.

The Godfrey Everblooming Calla. This new hybrid is a true ever-blooming variety. A good plant, produces an astonishing quantity of large, snow-white, slightly fragrant flowers. Compared with the ordinary white Calla, it gives three flowers to one. The plant is of dwarf, compact, strong growth, about 18 inches high, with an abundance of dark green leaves. Dormant bulbs, 25c. ea., $2.50 per doz.

22 SPECIAL OFFER OF PERENNIAL FLOWER SEEDS

Make a Hardy Perennial Flower Garden BY SOWING THIS SUMMER Henderson's Perennial Flower Seeds

The great charm of Perennials lies in their permanence. Once established they are a constant source of pleasure, and the most interesting plants in our gardens, presenting a variety of form and color so great as to fit them for almost every purpose in the garden. Some may be made to thrive under most unkind conditions, while others require skillful cultivation.

A very large proportion of the Perennial plants that may be grown from seed have great values as cut flowers, because of their substance, which enables them to stand up well long after cutting.

Notwithstanding their individual charm, they are most effective when planted in a mixed border, where by arranging them according to height, color and season of flowering, an attractive display may be had from the earliest days of spring, all through the summer, and even after the first frosts herald the approach of winter. And so, week by week, as sure as the season revolves such a border will present new charms and revive old ones, the beauty of it growing with ever-increasing interest.

Perennials are generally raised from seed sown from early spring to about August 1st. in the latitude of New York.

Grown in this way they make strong plants which may be planted in a permanent situation early enough in the fall to enable them to winter safely. In some instances plants will flower the first year from seed if sown quite early, but nearly all require a year to reach their full development.
