

TWO LOCAL SAFES ROBBED!

Battle On Outskirts Of Shanghai

GUNS BOOM IN FOREIGN DISTRICT

Wounded Fill Hospitals as Rival Forces Continue To Wage Warfare

By BERT H. KUHN For International News Service. SHANGHAI, Sept. 8.—The bitter battle being waged by the provinces of Chekiang and Kiangsu reached the city today.

Shortly before noon fighting took place in the outskirts of the native city which surrounds the foreign settlement.

Forcing their way to the very edge of the city, the Kiangsu forces engaged the inner line of the Chekiang defenses.

The foreign settlement remained orderly. All necessary steps have been taken for its defense if such a step becomes necessary.

With the casualties of both sides now estimated at more than 1,000 killed and 3,000 wounded, an increasingly serious problem is being presented in the care of the wounded.

Hospitals Crowded The seven base hospitals here are crowded to capacity with 1,000 seriously wounded.

Heavy fighting continues at both Huang Tu and Liuhoo. The combined Kiangsu and Fukien navy is standing off Liuhoo, covering the landing of Kiangsu reinforcements sent down the Yangtze river.

Obtains Finances Both sides this afternoon claimed advances along the west border of Taiho lake.

China appeared today to be verging on the bloodiest civil war in history. While the Chekiang armies are engaged in sanguinary conflict for the possession of the rich seaport of Shanghai, Chang Tso-Lin, Tuchun (military governor) of Manchuria, has declared war on the central government at Peking.

The central government in Peking has shown its hand in the Chekiang-Kiangsu war by issuing a mandate outlawing the military governor of Chekiang and making the military governor of Kiangsu the head of a military expedition against the Chekiang troops.

In issuing this mandate, President Tsao-Kun declared General Lu Ling Kiang, governor of Chekiang, a traitor to the nation.

By so doing Tsao saved his face, asserting that the leading militarists, including General Pei Fu and the Christian general, Fen Yu Hsiang, demanded the order.

In allying himself with the Chekiang forces, Chang Tso-Lin makes an outright declaration of war on Peking in a circular telegram to all the provinces converting the sporadic Shanghai outbreak into a national war and achieving an alliance which was started but was not completed two years ago when Cheng first marched at the head of his troops against the province of Chi-Li.

PESSIMISTS ARE SCORED BY FUNK

'Gloomy Gus' Types Draw Fire of Lutheran Pastor In Sunday Sermon

"There are too many people of the 'Gloomy Gus' breed in California just now," declared Rev. Dr. H. C. Funk, pastor of the First Lutheran church, in his sermon yesterday morning, "and some of these pessimists are trying to bring about depression in this state."

Dr. Funk logically outlined the fallacy of this attitude, in following out his subject, "How to Acquire a Happy Disposition," showing that seldom is the country enjoyed a period of prosperity equal to that of the past year, and working out the mental and spiritual applications of his text with regard to the present day.

The ceremonies in connection with the laying of the corner stone of the new church building will be conducted by Dr. Funk next Sunday, with Rev. Dr. G. H. Hillerman of Berkeley and Rev. Dr. Oscar H. Graver of Oakland. It is hoped to hold dedication services for the new structure within the next three months.

OPEN COURSE IN STUDY OF BIBLE

Rev. C. H. Chrisman Holds Class for Young Folks At Tabernacle

The first session of the course of Bible study at the Gospel Tabernacle, Louise and Chestnut streets, last night, marked the opening of the preliminary work in the preparation of sixteen young men and sixteen young women from the congregation who have pledged themselves to the work of the church in the foreign mission fields. The pastor, Rev. C. H. Chrisman, is conducting the class, which will last throughout the winter, and to which only the young people of the church are admitted as members. Following the completion of the course here the thirty-two young people will attend the missionary training institute of the Christian Missionary Alliance at Nyack, N. Y., where they will complete their training for their work abroad.

Mr. Chrisman in the morning preached on the topic "Will the Church Be Ashamed of Him at His Coming?" and at night on "The Letter to the Church at Thyatira," in a series of studies on the book of Revelations.

Santa Ana 'Y' Building

This picture shows the attractive Y. M. C. A. building at Santa Ana. The citizens of that community, much smaller than Glendale, take great pride in the building, which was opened about four months ago.

The citizens of Santa Ana are taking great pride in their Y. M. C. A. building, opened four months ago, which has quickly demonstrated its usefulness as a community center. While no special effort has been made to enroll a membership, there are 550 men and boys availing themselves of the privileges, while one day a week the facilities of the building are turned over to the young women and girls.

The Santa Ana building represents an investment of approximately $270,000. The largest contribution was a gift of $25,000. There were seven subscriptions each in the amount of $5,000.

It is suggested that Glendale, with almost three times the population of Santa Ana, should be able to aggregate subscriptions totalling the $275,000 being asked to establish a modern Y. M. C. A. building in this city.

Dr. Gilkerson Speaks Sunday at C. E. Meet

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the Glendale Presbyterian church held its regular meeting last night with a large number of members and visitors in attendance. The topic of the evening was of the series entitled "In His Steps," and dealt especially with "How Jesus Helped Suffering People." Dr. J. K. Gilkerson of Glendale, chairman of the state board of chiropractors was the speaker. Dr. Gilkerson stressed praying and daily Bible reading, in a talk on "The Quiet Hour and Its Value." He brought out the point that if, in lines of business, a department manager finds it necessary to call a conference or assembly in the morning to give those under him a period of personal help and instruction, "it is certainly expedient that we have a quiet meeting with our Lord before undertaking the day's tasks."

Miss Mildred Elliot, who has served as assistant superintendent to Howard L. Brown, tendered her resignation of the office, which was made necessary on account of her college work. At this time many of the members gave testimony to the help she had afforded them, and their sorrow in view of her resignation. Announcement was made concerning a personal work and calling campaign to be conducted by the members for the following few weeks.

The monthly business meeting of the society will be held Tuesday night, September 9, at the home of Misses Helen and Jessie Gaskin, 217 North Cedar street. Neal Sooy, chairman of the nominating committee, will announce the candidate for office for the following term. The I. C. E. Companion, the society's monthly publication, edited by John L. Simpson, will at this time be read.

TELLS NEED FOR CHRISTIAN SPIRIT

Dr. J. F. Winnard Points Way For Preparation to Enter Heaven

At the Tropico Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. James F. Winnard, D. D., the pastor, took for his subject, "The Christian's Dwelling Place," basing his text on the last verse of the 23rd psalm.

"We spend more time making up to attend church so that our personal appearance will be at least presentable than we do in the preparation of our souls to meet the Lord. You cannot enter heaven with lying lips, nor with an unforgiving spirit," said Dr. Winnard. "Heaven is a restricted dwelling place and nothing false nor evil shall ever enter into it. If the present things were put away, the parties, the joy rides, the jazz, all the light things of life, the churches would be crowded and the meetings thronged for prayer, and ministers would find the busiest days of their lives in showing penitents the way of the Cross."

"When we have the inspiration of the Psalmist we shall have his aspiration."

Rev. E. Ford Draws Lessons From Nature's Wonders Seen on Vacation

His recent trip to Vancouver, B. C., during which he visited many points of interest, furnished the theme of Rev. E. E. Ford's sermon last night at the First Baptist church, when the speaker recounted the details of his vacation and drew lessons from his experiences and from the places he saw.

"The blue of Crater lake," said Mr. Ford, "reflects the sky, and so we, as his creatures, reflect the love of God; God is the source of all our blessings, just as Mount Rainier is the source of the living streams that refresh and strengthen the lands through which they pass; and Mount Hood, where the cloud rests ever on the place where earth and sky meet, typifies the meeting of God and man."

ROYAL COURT GREETED AT BANQUET

Queen of Exposition and Guests In Ceremonies At Egyptian Village

A brilliant banquet at the Egyptian Village Saturday night, under the auspices of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, with favors of diamond rings and ropes of pearls to "Queen Laura" and her royal court, heralded the approach of the great San Fernando valley Industrial exposition, which opens Tuesday, September 9, in Burbank.

C. B. Wood, president of the Burbank chamber, acted as master of ceremonies. Covers were laid for fifty guests. "Come often and stay late," was the invitation extended by Mr. Wood to the Glendale delegation present, who were headed by Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department.

President Wood introduced Mrs. Harry Kendig, queen of the exposition, and her royal court, including her maids of honor, the Misses Cecilia Mae Fischer and Alberta Swan. After paying a fine tribute to Manager J. W. Charleville of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, who, he said, was largely responsible for the success of the affair, he introduced Mayor J. C. Crawford of Burbank, who prefaced his remarks by declaring he had never hoped to be present at a banquet attended by royalty.

Mayor Crawford declared that Glendale and Burbank, as the only two remaining independent municipalities in the San Fernando valley, share in common

Miss Sarah Chandler, Back From Trip Abroad, Tells Of Interesting Experiences

Talented Girl At Dancing Studios With Masters

Inspired and refreshed by four months of travel and study abroad, Miss Sarah Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler of 2400 Canada boulevard, Verdugo Woodlands, arrived home yesterday.

She made the trip abroad with Mrs. Lee W. Lindsay and Miss Edith Lindsay of Hollywood, the latter a well known dancer and dancing teacher with studios in Hollywood and Glendale. Miss Chandler is also a talented dancer and she and Miss Lindsay were associated together in their study with foreign masters.

Slight English Accent

Of her trip Miss Chandler said this morning:

"We were on foreign soil from the day we sailed from New York until we landed in New York again, as we crossed and returned on British boats, the Franconia and the Olympic. With officers, crew and daily routine all decidedly British, and a majority of the passengers as well, we had no difficulty while going over in acquiring a slight English accent and a desire for 4 o'clock tea, as well as sufficient knowledge of English money values to carry us safely through our stay in London. The Daily Mail, a newspaper printed on board ship, gave us our first introduction to English 'newspaper English,' ponderous and reserved. We shall never forget our last night on board the Franconia, when nobody went to bed after the concert was over, but every body stayed up to get a first glimpse of the Emerald Isle at about 3 o'clock in the morning, as the pilot came on board and the passengers for Ireland were being transferred from the ship to the Queenstown ferry boat. The approaching daylight gradually showed the outline of Queenstown with its tiny church spires against the hillsides and brought out the color of the islands, ending along about 6 o'clock by turning both land and water a beautiful flaring green.

Fails to See Joke

"In London we were duly impressed with the courtesy and dignity of the London 'bobby' and duly bewildered by the confusing street intersections in attempting to locate the Tower, Westminster Abbey, and other places of historic interest. We demonstrated the inability of the English to see a joke—at least one of the girls in our party did. She said to the operator of the 'lift' in our hotel 'I hope this rain keeps up' and he said, 'Yes, madame,' following which she added 'Then it won't come down' and waited for him to smile, but he didn't. With a perfectly serious face he said again 'Yes, Madame' and the conversation was over. The British exposition at Wembley was strictly British and I don't remember much about it. The weather was cold and the lit-tram cars running through the grounds had no springs, so it was hard for a passenger to keep his attention directed on the sights to be seen. There was much more pleasure in visiting Stratford-on-Avon and Buckingham palace.

ADVENTISTS DEDICATE CHURCH

Impressive Services Take Place at Eagle Rock Saturday Afternoon

Seventh-day Adventists of Eagle Rock and vicinity assembled in a large congregation to witness the dedication of their new church edifice on Merton avenue, Eagle Rock, Saturday at 3 p. m.

The service was in charge of Rev. A. G. Daniels, former world president of the Adventist body. Rev. J. L. McElhany, president of the Pacific Union Conference, and Rev. O. O. Bernstein, president of the Southern California Conference. Special music was furnished by the church choir, and by Prof. and Mrs. Irving Steinel.

Rev. J. L. McElhany gave the scripture reading, from 2 Chron. 6:13-40, which narrates the prayer of King Solomon at the dedication of the temple. Rev. O. O. Bernstein offered the dedicatory prayer, following a discourse by Rev. A. G. Daniels. Rev. C. S. Prout, former pastor of the building, gave a brief history of the building enterprise.

Tells of Experiences

The sermon by Rev. A. G. Daniels, was based upon the distinction to be drawn and kept in mind between the inward devotion, piety and zeal necessary to the Christian life, and those material things which are the outward symbols of Christianity, such as church and institutional buildings. He mentioned a conversation he once had with a clergyman of note who told him that it was the experience of the Methodist church that in proportion as institutionalism advanced, piety receded. Drawing a lesson from some of his experiences as a youth and later as a traveling evangelist, Rev. Daniels said:

"I grew up in the little town of West Union, Iowa, and it was there that I was converted and joined the Seventh-day Adventist church. There were only a few of us there, and we had meetings for a time in a private home. Finally we were able to build a church, doing the work of construction ourselves.

'Wonderful Building'

"To me that church edifice, 24 feet long by 18 feet wide, was a wonderful building. I was wonderfully impressed by the sermons that I heard delivered from its small wooden pulpit. And when, after an absence of twenty years, in other parts of the United States and in foreign lands, during which time I had seen our cause expand in a wonderful way, by the addi-

POLITICAL SQUABBLE MAY RESULT

Judging by reports received from all parts of the country, the voters are discussing among themselves exactly what would happen if none of the three presidential candidates—Coolidge, Davis, or La Follette—received a majority of the electoral votes.

This discussion is in part natural because the race is three cornered, but it is to a certain extent being stimulated by the strategy of both the Coolidge and Davis supporters. The Republicans are already using it as a means of getting votes, and the Democrats are even more zealous in their adaptation of it to their advantage.

The Republicans are saying that if the election is thrown into the House of Representatives for decision, as is provided in case of a deadlock in the House, the Senate may choose a vice president by the name of Charles W. Bryan through a coalition of La Follette Republicans and Democrats, and a radical would become president of the United States. This thought is most unwelcome in the conservative areas of the country, especially in the east where Bryanism for a generation has been repudiated at the polls.

But the Democrats are contending the exact opposite in talking with conservatives, namely, that the way to prevent the selection of Bryan is to support Davis either at the polls or in the House of Representatives. For example, if no candidate has received a majority of the electoral votes on November 4, Congress will be convened in regular session in December or can be called into special session even earlier. The House has until March 4 to pick a president. During the three months of discussion, the conservatives of the country who would be opposed to the selection of Bryan as a vice presidential candidate will be urging the selection of President Coolidge.

If the Democrats remain obdurate there will be a deadlock in the House because the state delegations are about evenly divided as between the Democrats and Republicans, and there could be no majority of the states cast for any candidate as is necessary under the constitution unless some of the La Follette Republicans assist President Coolidge or vote for John W. Davis. The conservative Republicans could, of course, unite with the Democrats, too, and select Davis, and thus prevent the elevation of Charles W. Bryan to the presidency. The country and Congress will have three months in which to think about the kind of president to be selected. But the sequel of an election thrown into the House of Representatives is not necessarily Bryan. It may be Davis and it may be Coolidge. The conservative Democrats and conservative Republicans in combination in the Senate could pick Charles G. Dawes as vice president if they didn't want Bryan, and if the House were deadlocked as between Coolidge, Davis and La Follette.

All this may sound remote, but it is becoming concretely near at hand every day as the possibility of a deadlock is visualized. The theory that a radical will be president is based only upon the idea that the conservatives of the country, Republicans and Democrats, would be so hostile to an agreement on Coolidge or Davis that they would deliberately permit the Senate to make a choice of vice president. It is also based on the thought that the Democrats in such a contingency would hold their strength in the Senate to Bryan and would draw in the La Follette followers to their sides.

If the Republicans really consider John W. Davis preferable to a radical they could agree to support him in the House on a pledge that Charles G. Dawes would bring Democratic support in the Senate for vice president. Were there really a conservative combination in both parties, the ticket of Davis and Dawes would not be impossible of selection at all.

But is John W. Davis going to be aligned with the conservatives when the campaign is over? His advocacy of certain principles close to the La Follette platform may be designed at the moment to corral radical votes in the general electorate, but it may also operate to make him closer to the La Follette Republicans in the House than is President Coolidge. The La Follette group will hold the balance of power. If they were assured of a voice in the next administration and of a working coalition with the Democrats as occurred in the last session of Congress in both Houses, they may prefer Davis to Coolidge. If such overtures are ineffectual, they will naturally help keep the situation deadlocked in the House in the hope of having Charles W. Bryan selected as vice president, and that means the presidency on March 4 if the House has failed to choose a president before that date. Those three months after November 4 would mean a breakdown in party lines and a consideration by the conservatives of whether they should combine either for Coolidge or for Davis and checkmate the radical ascendancy in the Senate.

As it stands today, both the Coolidge and Davis spokesmen can make out a plausible argument to get votes so as to prevent the election from being thrown into the House of Representatives.

SCHOOL DAYS

Vacation is over. School time is here again. The day dreaded by youngsters, but welcomed by mothers is at hand. Mother looks forward to the opening of school because it will take the little ones out from under her feet, or because she will know where they are for a few hours a day at least. With the opening of school the parent breathes a sigh of relief, and turns her offspring over to the teacher. She is well paid and well trained. Let her assume the responsibility.

It is very easy to criticize the teacher and the school, but often the parent who is adept at this knows little of true conditions. He has never met the teacher, knows nothing of her methods except as Johnnie reports them, and Johnnie may be prejudiced against all teachers. The parent who has only the child's side of the story has not much idea of the true state of affairs.

A teacher cannot do her best work with any pupil unless she feels she has the co-operation of the parent. It is due to the child that the parent and teacher work together. When there is friction between the two; when the child hears the teacher criticised at home; or the parent listens to, and sympathizes with the child's complaints without getting the teacher's viewpoint, the results cannot be of the best.

SO LONG

A Little Politeness

By DR. FRANK CRANE

There is a man in London who, although he is a very busy and prominent personage, is making a great success, says Ella Hepworth Dixon, by a little politeness. If he has enjoyed a party he actually writes a few charming phrases to his hostess and tells her so. It is a proceeding so unusual as to make social history.

It is just one of the little things which most of us forget. We do not realize how much it means to the jaded host and hostess, the day after a big party, in the reaction which inevitably sets in, to get a few thanks for the tumult they have undergone. This gratitude is so rare as to give real pleasure.

The English are curiously remiss in these amenities. Most people are so accustomed to the routine of the season, to accepting unending hospitality, in town as well as in the country, that only after a visit of several days is a letter of thanks considered obligatory. Beyond that they do not go, except that women often make each other little presents in return for country-house hospitality. It is difficult to recall any man who has sent a cigarette case or stick to his host as thanks for hospitality received. But perhaps men do this in that queer way of theirs and we do not hear of it.

On the whole, women are more grateful than men for being entertained. They know the infinite pains that have to be taken, not only to secure the right company, but to organize all the details of a successful gathering.

After all, asks Miss Dixon, why not a little politeness? It costs nothing but the price of a stamp and has an effect which is cumulative. A little politeness goes a long way and makes an impression perhaps far beyond its intrinsic value.

If we realized how much politeness meant we would be more liberal with it and it would do more toward helping everything along a little. Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Today's Poem

THE POET'S SONG TO HIS WIFE

How many summers, love,
Have I been thine?
How many days, thou dove,
Hast thou been mine?
Time, like the winged wind
When it bends the flowers,
To count the hours.

Some weight of thought, though
I loathe
On thee he leaves;
Some lines of care round both
Perhaps he weaves;
Some fears—a soft regret
For joys scarce known;
Sweet looks we half forget;
All else is flown.

Ah, with what thankless heart
I mourn and sing!
Look, where our children start,
Like sudden Spring!
With tongues all sweet and low,
Like a pleasant rhyme,
They tell how much I owe
To thee and Time!

Letters From Election Day Aliens

Some reasons why men and women do not vote

Editor The Evening News:—Your letter asking me why I did not vote at the primaries at hand. Well, I have always been a Democrat and voted the Democratic ticket. But my wife and daughter are Republicans, they spurn my advice and influence, and so I have just made up my mind not to vote at all. That's the only way I know to get even with them and those who favor women voting. What do women know about politics? The government has been rotten ever since they got the vote. What self-respecting man wants to go to the polls and mingle with that short-haired, painted bunch of nit-wits who are so set-up because they can vote? It was dangerous business, I'll tell you, putting the ballot in the hand of such an irresponsible bunch, and after they have utterly ruined the country it will be too late to do anything about it.

Will I vote in November? Well, I hardly think so. My family would kill my vote several times over. The sooner the country goes to the dogs the sooner people will wake up and get things back on a sensible basis. I suppose they will be giving the ballot to poodle dogs next, and as far as I can see they are just as able to vote intelligently as some of the rattle-brains you see at the polls.

I was in favor of suffrage for women at first, thinking they would vote as their men folks told them. I saw myself having five votes where I only had one before. Give a woman an inch and she will take a mile. I soon saw my mistake. My wife and daughter got to reading for themselves and, instead of taking my advice, they started to argue with me. I made up my mind then and there that I would quit voting.

My wife pretends she wants me to vote. She says it is my duty, even though it would cancel her vote. She knows the more she urges the more determined I will be to stick to my course. I am adamant when I have made a decision, I have the stamina and the strength of character to say "no" and stick to it. It is just another evidence of what the ballot has done for women that my wife calls me bull-headed.

So that is the reason I don't vote. I don't approve of women having the ballot. I am very much hurt and annoyed because my family don't vote the way I tell them to. And I don't want to have anything to do with the government the way it is being run at present. Yours truly,
I. R. PEEVED.

ROYAL BLUE HOSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—There is some hint that hosiery of royal blue will be worn with black shoes this autumn. Royal blue and black are favorite frock colors now and royal blue stockings with a black frock would seem to be rather chic.

GANGS TO START IMPROVING TRACT

Frazier Mountain Park Lakes To Be Constructed by Contractor Ferry

Actual development work on the 800-acre tract at Frazier Mountain park, near Lebec, will start this week when Contractor Peter L. Ferry will start a gang of men and sixteen mule teams to construct the chain of lakes that is to form one of the principal features of the property.

The announcement was made yesterday at Frazier Mountain park, following a conference of the officials of the Frazier Mountain Park & Fisheries Co., Inc., who spent the day in mapping out plans for the improvement of the property and in inspecting the plans that have been prepared by the firm's surveyors.

Those who were at the property were A. L. Baird, president; W. L. Twining, vice-president, in charge of construction; Harry G. MacBain, secretary; and L. H. Myers, treasurer.

To Spend $100,000

Other guests in the party were Mrs. L. H. Myers, Virgil B. Stoge, city manager; C. C. Cooper, president of the Federal Commercial & Savings bank; Albert Marple, 465 West Milford street, and Ralph A. Lynd, of The Glendale Evening News. Harry E. Betz, brick contractor, 424 North Kenwood street, and J. H. Webster, former city purchasing agent, also visited the property during the day.

The work to be done by Contractor Ferry, it is stated by Mr. Baird, will take about three months, as it is the intention of the company to spend at least $100,000 on improvements in the valley. Work on laying the tennis courts and the croquet ground will start this week, and preparations will be made to pipe the water from a spring on Frazier mountain to each of the cabin sites into which that portion of the property that is to be sold will be divided.

Trout Are Ordered
Orders have been placed for 100,000 trout to be delivered to the company by February next, when the lakes and fish hatcheries will have been completed, and a number of Chinese pheasants will also be taken to the park and turned loose as soon as they have become accustomed to their surroundings.

Many people are now visiting the park and a number of them are camping out over the weekends, and open-air cooking places on which they can prepare their meals will be built at once, preparatory to the establishment of a cafe and restaurant that are included in the plans of the company.

High Schools Open For Season's Studies

registered may do so from 9 until 12 o'clock on that morning.

On Wednesday, September 10, regular classes will start at the Broadway and Harvard High schools, beginning at 8 and continuing until 3:30 o'clock. Those who have no classes in the first period need not come until 9 o'clock, states Mr. Moyses.

Teachers Confer

An effort has been made to so arrange schedules that pupils who have first period classes will be through at 2:25 o'clock in the afternoon, while those who do not begin the day's work until the second period will have a recitation in the sixth period, and will not be through for the day until 3:30 o'clock.

The entire teaching staff of the Glendale Union High school met for a conference with Mr. Moyses and Mr. Ferguson at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Broadway High school, when the new teachers were all made acquainted with one another and final details of the fall work outlined. As a result of this conference, Mr. Moyses is able to state it as his conviction that no finer teaching personnel is to be found in any high school in California, as regards personality, character and training.

Princess Recovers From Blood Poisoning

The wife of Prince Erik of Denmark, who was formerly Frances Lois Booth, and one of the wealthiest women in Canada, has been discharged from Montezano hospital, south of Glendale, where she was suffering from an attack of blood-poisoning, and has returned to her home at Arcadia, Cal.

Parcels Post Department Of L. A. Postoffice Is Not Giving Good Service

The parcels post department of the Los Angeles postoffice does not give good service in getting parcels post packages to Glendale promptly.

It usually takes two or three days, after a package has been placed in the Los Angeles mails, to be transported to our city. So very poor is this service that few people depend upon the mails for carrying such packages.

Special messengers are sent to manufacturing houses and to distributing agencies for small packages of merchandise, at a great expense to the recipients.

It is certainly not the intention of the United States postoffice department to encourage this poor service, but, nevertheless, the poor service exists, and has existed for a decade or longer.

PLAN DINNER TO START 'Y' DRIVE

Business Men Get-Together Meeting to Be Held on Eve of Campaign

A business men's "get-together" dinner next Monday night, September 15, will inaugurate the $275,000 Y. M. C. A. building campaign in Glendale. The dinner event will be held at the Tuesday afternoon club and a general invitation is extended to all men who care to attend, particularly members of the Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis, Rotary, Optimists, Exchange club, Realty board and the churches. Reservations should be made at the Y. M. C. A. office or to members of the committee on dinner arrangements which consists of Rev. C. M. Calderwood, chairman; Dr. J. K. Gilkerson and O. E. Von Oven.

Dr. I. Frank Roach, pastor of the First Methodist church of Long Beach, will be the principal speaker and the committee assures those who hear him on this occasion a very rare treat. Dr. Roach is a popular speaker to men and in great demand by the various luncheon and civic clubs throughout Southern California. The second speaker will be E. L. Mogge of Chicago, international Y. M. C. A. secretary, who is co-operating in the direction of the Glendale campaign.

CONFERENCE OVER RE-OPENING CAMP

Merchants' Association at Luncheon Hears Both Sides Discussed

Three members of the Glendale Merchants' association were named by President C. J. Hatz at the meeting held today noon at the Alley Inn, to confer with the members of the West Glendale Protective association, on the proposed reopening of Holland's automobile camp. R. E. Johnston, M. W. Lee and Dr. James F. Menard addressed the merchants, urging them to oppose the reopening of the auto camp.

The City Council will be called upon Thursday morning to make a decision in the matter, inasmuch as the owner of the camp has filed a petition asking that the camp be reopened, it was brought out in the discussion. Bert P. Woodward, representing the owner of the camp, spoke in behalf of the reopening.

Peddler's Ordinance
William G. Lauderdale and Albert Cornwell spoke on the proposed ordinance relative to tax and license fees for peddlers, fire sales, bankruptcy sales and temporary stores. Both speakers urged the members of the association to present Thursday morning at the meeting of the City Council to ask that such an ordinance be passed.

Ted Covall of Burbank invited the members of the association to visit Burbank on Defense day and witness a sham battle to be presented by the personnel of company I, 160th infantry of the California National Guard. He announced that tomorrow would be Defense day at the San Fernando Valley Industrial exposition and urged the members of the association to attend the opening ceremonies.

E. W. Gilliland, second vice commander of Glendale post 127, American Legion, and chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for Defense day, asked the support of the merchants in making Defense day a success. The merchants voted to decorate the exteriors of their stores on that day and permit their employees to participate in the parade which will precede the mobilization activities.

Fingerprints Aid Police In Search for Thief

Bradshaw Co. occurred between 1 p. m. when J. F. Armstrong left the office yesterday and 8 o'clock at night, when Officer Wisdom reported that the safe had been broken open. The discovery of the robbery was made when Wisdom flashed his light into the office and saw the wrecked safe close to the window.

Investigation by Sergeant Black and Officer Mercer showed that the thief had entered the shop through the skylight and that he had taken a heavy sledge and other tools from the garage to help in breaking open the safe. Mr. Armstrong places his loss at more than $200 in cash and a diamond ring valued at more than $100. In this case, too, the burglar left distinct fingerprints which were photographed and which show beyond question, the police declare, that the same man operated in both instances.

Theory of Police

"The work in both cases show that the same man did the work," said Chief Fraser, "and we have reason to believe that both these robberies were pulled off by the same man or men who robbed the Piggly-Wigly store and the Union Pacific offices and attempted to break open the safes in these two places several months ago. The same gang is also believed to have robbed seven places in Pasadena within recent weeks, and they have made this raid on Glendale."

"The fingerprints that we have obtained give us an excellent clue to the person who committed both crimes, and they will be checked up with similar records in the central identification bureau in Washington and other cities to establish the identity of the criminal."

Robs Phone Box

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., was also the victim of a robbery early Saturday morning, when Sergeant Henderson observed someone running from the outside telephone booth at the company's offices at 125 South Brand boulevard. Investigation showed that the thief had jimmied open the coin box in the booth and had taken out the money that had been dropped in by patrons of the company, and on the floor of the booth he found $9.30 in small change, which he turned over to a representative of the telephone company.

The exact amount of the company's loss will not be determined until the auditor can make a check on the reports from the office of the calls that went through that particular instrument, but H. Maine, the collector, does not estimate the loss very high, as the opening of the new booths recently inside the vestibule, and which remain open until 10 o'clock at night, have materially reduced the business going through the all-night booth.

Prevents Robbery

Mrs. Will White, 526 North Howard street, frustrated a robbery at her home last night, when she returned after a brief absence, finding that a burglar had bundled all the wearing apparel he could gather together preparatory to making off with it, when she arrived on the scene. Nothing is missing, Mrs. White reports, from the check she has made of her belongings.

She advised the police that a dark-complexioned man was sitting in a light touring car in front of her home when she returned, but that he drove off hastily as she entered the house.

The police are working on this case, and they are also endeavoring to trace the thieves who stole the battery chargers from the W. L. Clark garage at 505 Wing street Saturday noon.

A report that the Fanny Bakery, 142 North Brand boulevard, had been robbed was investigated by Officer Wisdom, who found that the extent of the theft was two cakes.

Postal Employees Hold Picnic; Ball Game Tie

Approaching darkness put an end to an exciting game which featured the annual picnic of the clerks and carriers of the Glendale postoffice, and their families, held at Brookside park Saturday afternoon. The game was called in the sixth inning with the score tied, 4 to 4.

Roy B. Selover and Jack Love formed the batteries for one team while William E. Whitney and Lloyd Gomes worked as the batteries for the other team. Features of the game were a home run by Selover and a long hit by Bullock. The contest will be determined at the next annual picnic, rival players announced today.

Approximately seventy-five attended the picnic, the clerks and carriers leaving the postoffice about 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and motoring to Brookside park. Swimming was enjoyed by the youngsters during the afternoon as well as the playground equipment.

Following an afternoon of general fun, a large picnic supper was served, with a weiner roast being held in connection.

The Chinese Free Masons of the World in their convention at San Francisco pledged $100,000 for a peace temple in Shanghai.

OPEN EXHIBIT OF BUILDERS' GOODS

Beldin Sales Co. New Firm In Glendale; Locate on Maryland Avenue

Announcement was made today of a new firm in Glendale to be known as the Beldin Sales Co. J. C. Beldin and Kenneth Beldin are the owners of the business, which will be located at 117 North Maryland avenue.

Simultaneously with this announcement is the information that the new organization has been named exclusive selling agent in a wide territory by the manufacturers of Murphy-Simmons Door beds; Peerless Built-in features; Hoosier kitchen cabinets; Ohrmund, Woods & Potter gas heating systems; various types of mantels; gas stoves, water heaters; sink boards, staff work, and a number of other widely known building requisites.

A spacious building materials exhibit has been opened by the new firm on Maryland avenue, where those who are planning to build may study the newest developments in the building profession. A complete data service will be maintained for architectural builders. According to Mr. Beldin, every effort has been made to bring to Glendale a full line of building equipment, so that it will no longer be necessary to go to Los Angeles to make selections and gain suggestions.

Purchase Stock

The new company has purchased the stock and display equipment of the Glendale Sales Co., formerly operated by D. C. Stevens on East Broadway and these goods have been installed as part of the new display. Earl Storms, formerly with the Stevens organization, has been appointed sales manager, Edward McMahon, for many years production superintendent of the Beldin Sheet Metal Works, will be in charge of installations.

Architects and contractors as well as owners are urged by officials of the company to make use of the display for ideas and data in planning.

Entries for Realtors Net Games to Close

W. F. Macpherson, of Edwards & Wilkey's office, West Broadway and Central avenue, has been appointed to have charge of the plans for the tennis tournament that is to be held to select the local players who will enter the contests at the convention of the state realtors in October.

All entries, says Mr. Macpherson, must be in his hands by Wednesday, and as soon as these are in the schedules will be arranged and the elimination tests will be held.

Officers Must Make Good

says a well known Los Angeles financial journal in an article appearing in their August number. We quote the following:

"Many investors, when they learned that the Royalties Investment Company officers could not transfer their stock until stockholders had received back their investment in 100% dividends—also that they receive no salary (or commission from operation of business) for one year, were surprised, but when it was also ascertained that every stockholder absolutely receives every dollar invested in dividends as earned before the officers receive a cent of dividend on their individual organization stock holdings, it simply astonished them and suggested that the officers are obliged to make good, in order to benefit themselves."

Sixteen per cent cash dividends paid to stockholders in less than ten months is our record. Is this "making good"?

Royalties Investment Company is engaged in the business of general finance as applied to real estate, first mortgage loans, purchase and sale of carefully selected trust deeds and the erection and sale of inexpensive quality homes. Wise investors know this to be a sound and profitable business.

Our first issue of stock was oversubscribed. The balance of stock available for subscription is limited.

Increase in local business means more local improvements.

COMMUNITY CO-OPERATION

More and better homes and business places mean a greater Glendale.

Realizing the Great Community Development Truth that a City Grows exactly as its Business and Merchandising Institutions Grow, these firms have given their hearty endorsement to the movement for co-operation between Glendale merchants and Glendale consumers

Relation Between Merchant and Buyer Determines Community Growth

There are in the neighborhood of 50,000 people living in Glendale. How much do they spend each day for food, clothing, amusements and the many other things that are necessary to our daily existence? A certain Glendale man says he spends $10 a day. This amount is probably way below the average, but let us assume that each person in Glendale spends $10 a day.

Suppose this money, $500,000, all spent in Glendale, and suppose that instead of being divided into small amounts and distributed among the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker each day, the entire sum goes to the butcher one day, all to the baker the next, and so on.

The butcher gets $500,000 of business today, a large amount, but not all profit by any means. He pays his bills, including what he owes to other Glendale merchants, and then he has enough profit to erect a new building, install better facilities for the care of his meat, and make his place attractive and inviting to discriminating housewives. The next day the baker gets the coin. He puts part of the profit back into the business, and, with a part, he builds a home and makes an investment in Glendale.

In their turn every business and calling in the city receives the daily business of the people, for which, of course, value received in merchandise and service is given, and everyone makes some improvement in his place of business or home. He can afford to do so, with all the people of Glendale patronizing him.

Does not the sum of all these improvements and investments mean a Greater Glendale? And, is not the result the same if the merchant receives the entire amount in one day, or if the business is spread over the month?

Advocates of Greater Glendale contend, with good reason, that there is a close relation between the growth of the community and co-operation between merchant and buyer.

GIRL SAVES TWO LIVES
RIVERSIDE, Sept. 8.—Dagmar Dole, pretty Riverside girl, today is being congratulated on saving the lives of two men from drowning at Laguna Beach Sunday. Although not in swimming costume when she heard their cries for help she slipped off her shoes and skirts and swam out to the struggling couple—an old man and a boy, the latter having seized the elder swimmer with a death lock which Miss Dole broke and then dragged the boy to shore.

HELP SELVES TO WATER
EL CENTRO, Sept. 8.—Henry J. Burk is authority for the published statement that land owners south of the Mexican line are helping themselves to water and famishing the farms in the Imperial valley of California this season. Under the contract which the present Colorado river canal was built this is possible, so the Americans are finally awakening to the necessity for an all-American canal through the hills.

SAVED FROM DROWNING
RIVERSIDE, Sept. 8.—If swimming wasn't natural Baby Eileen Lynch, aged 18 months, daughter of Secretary J. D. Lynch of the Riverside Business Men's association, wouldn't be alive today. She floated for four blocks in the Riverside Water company canal before rescued by her father. Several children have lost their lives in the canal this season.

CHARGE OR BOOTLEGGING
RIVERSIDE, Sept. 8.—Antonio Morena, not the movie star, was bound over to the superior court here on a charge of illegal manufacture and sale of liquor. He is a one-armed Mexican from the Palos Verde Valley, who operated his still in an old adobe sixteen miles from Blythe.
VALUATIONS INCREASE
SAN PEDRO, Sept. 8.—This community's valuations jumped

50 per cent according to the tax assessor's figures which gives the two harbor districts an assessable wealth of $29,417,600, as compared with $19,484,750 last year. And many of San Pedro's improvements belonging to the city and federal governments are exempted.
Telephones, which were unknown in Lithuania for general private use until installed in 1915 by the Germans at the time of occupation of that country have become so popular that the German apparatus recently was replaced by the latest equipment made in Estonia.

the ever-present menace of annexation to Los Angeles.
History for Valley
Secretary Howard I. Wood of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce spoke next, declaring the forthcoming exposition should make history for the valley. Judge A. A. Crawford of Burbank then spoke, followed by Chief John H. sary. The following received Long of the Burbank police department and Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department.

Queen Laura then spoke in her gracious manner, after which she was presented by President Wood of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce with a beautiful diamond ring in a platinum setting. Her ladies-in-waiting, the Misses Caroline Bessano and Helena Christman, runners-up in the queen contest, also received beautiful diamond rings, as did Miss Mabelle Steddon, the queen's royal emissary. The following received strings of pearls: the Misses Mabelle Steddon, "Dutch" McKinley, Pearl Loomer and "Tiny" Mundy; while Misses Margaret Sanderson and Evelyn Dull received gold pencils.

Harry Kendig, husband of the queen, then spoke briefly, at which Dr. C. E. Van De Venter, chairman of the Defense day committee, told of Burbank's plans for recruiting Company 1 to full strength on September 12. The banquet was followed by dancing in the ballroom of the Egyptian Village.

HAY FEVER—No. 1

"My Dear Dr. Peters:—I have read with pleasure and profit your articles. I have said goodbye to pounds of fat, and I have put off five inches from the end of my trousers belt, and I bathe in the ocean with less conscious study of other figures to see: 'Do I look as fat as that man?' and I have felt glad that the medicine could add humor with advice and so make it more impressive—and lots of things—all of which are a cause of gratitude. But, say, why trouble us with anything right now, especially anything that will keep, when the hay fever season is just starting? I mean when asthma will as surely succeed it! ! ! ?"

"Why is it that when a few mornings ago I woke up and sneezed fifteen times (and with no warning) that I was able to get an immediate 'yes' when I telephoned to two friends several miles from here, and ask them if they were also sneezing for the first time? One lives where there are no weeds, only orange trees, one near the sage-brush 'wash,' and one lives on the city pavement."

"Personally, I don't believe anyone really knows much about it. Yes, I have tried everything. I acquired it at an altitude of 10,000 feet in the Colorado mountains, where thousands come every year to get rid of it. I also believe that it will be with us, even as the Turks and Armenians and the Balkan States are perpetually at war. Let me ask you in the hope for something new and effective!"

"Oh, yes, one thing more. Why is a hay fever patient fairly happy, even if persistently profane? And why is it that when asthma arrives he plumb hopes he will die soon?"—F. R. W."

I gave this letter and my comments on it again this year because no more expressive complaint has come in and the letter is the same. The letter gives a good picture of hay fever. First, that the attack comes on suddenly without any warning, that it seems to have no geographical limits, that it always seems to be with us and that it often is associated with asthma. I am glad to say that you are mistaken when you say that no one really knows anything about it. Mr. W. For I have been reading the reports of several doctors who have done research work on the subject, and there is a great deal known about it, and there is a cure.

Hay fever is due to the absorption of the protein of pollen from different plants, in persons who seem to have a susceptibility to it. Some persons have a high susceptibility and some a low. One attack, instead of developing an immunity, seems to make the person more susceptible. This susceptibility may be caused by an unhealthy condition of the mucous membrane of the nose, or there may be no apparent reason for it. It seems in some cases there may be an inherited tendency also. The poisons that seem most irritating are the rag weed pollen in the spring, causing the spring fever; and certain grasses, worm wood, chenopods, and docks in the fall. Some people have both the spring and the fall fevers.

There are some forms known as a typical form, appearing in persons whose mucous membranes are sensitive to the dandruff protein of horses and other animals and the protein of coffee dust, flour, etc. Those would have a perennial form and suffer more or less from hay fever all during the year.

Tomorrow—More on Hay Fever

St. Mark's Episcopal church women are to have two gatherings this week, a silver tea from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. Card, 209 Altura street, La Crescenta, and business and work meeting of the Guild on Thursday afternoon.

The tea at Mrs. Card's home will be sponsored by the Women's auxiliary, of which Mrs. Archie Parker is president. Mrs. L. J. Roberts is to be assisting hostess.

The affair is to be for the benefit of the home for the aged at Ramona Acres. Mrs. W. E. Holt, chairman of the home board, will be special guest and speaker.

Those who have no way of getting home from the church will find that they may take the Montrose car by transfer from the Eagle Rock car that leaves East Broadway and Maryland avenue five minutes before and twenty-five minutes after the hour. Those going on the car are to get off at the Los Angeles street, where they will be met by automobiles.

Mrs. W. J. Farbar, president of the Guild, will be in charge of the meeting Thursday. A business session will be held at 2:30 o'clock and will be followed by work.

Church Wedding

Miss Lillian Hanson and Louis R. Corson, both of Los Angeles, were married Saturday night, September 6, 1924, at 8 o'clock in the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Memorial park, by Rev. L. L. Cross, also of Los Angeles.

Preceding the reading of the marriage service, Miss Catherine Bedford of Los Angeles sang two solos. Miss Bertha Palmer, also of Los Angeles, played on the organ the "Lohengrin" wedding march for the entrance of the bride party.

The bride was attended by four bridesmaids, the Misses Anna Gilchrist, Florence C. Richardson, Irene Ferrot, Constance Vagmond, all of Los Angeles. They wore dainty white frocks with picture hats to match.

Fielding Williams of Los Angeles served as best man and the ushers were Margaret Todd, Irene Oppenheimer and Donald Milligan.

The bride wore a bridal gown of rich grey silk and carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride in Los Angeles.

At Ingledue Home

Members of the Philathea Class of the First Methodist church will meet tonight, September 8, at the home of Miss Helen Ingledue, 514 East Wilson avenue, for their regular monthly business session. This will be the first meeting of the year with the newly-elected officers in charge. Several matters of importance are to be discussed and a large attendance is anticipated.

The meeting will convene at 6:30 o'clock with a cafeteria supper, followed by the regular business meeting.

For Mrs. Bentley

The Friendship class of the Congregational church, an exceptionally interesting meeting Saturday afternoon in the church parlors. A short business session was held, when plans for the coming year were discussed and other matters of importance to members only were transacted.

Mrs. W. Q. Widdows gave an interesting talk pertaining to the Junior Choir which she is conducting at the church every Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This choir is composed of boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 14 years. She asked the members of the class to co-operate with her in interesting as many children as possible and making the choir a real success.

Mrs. Florence C. Richardson gave a short talk about her work among the Kentucky whites, both as a teacher in Berea college and as a resident among them. Readings by Miss Jacobs were also a feature of the program.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

CHAPTER XLVI.

There were a great many women deeply interested in the violinist's life; she saw their letters, realized that almost every one of his free evenings was spent in one beautiful home or another, where every accessory of beauty and charm was rallied to win from him some special sign of friendship or intimacy. He was carried off for extraordinary visits to Washington, where he met the Chief Executive, to the homes of the richest and most prominent people everywhere. His was no ordinary life; there seemed to be a chasm between him and plain and simple humanity.

Dora had showed no uneasiness or resentment at the sudden transition of Hilary's mere acquaintance with him into something like an intimacy. Inscrutable, cryptic as always, the Butterfly played her own game. Hilary, she knew, was pre-eminently practical; to Hilary's balanced mind the confusion in his correspondence would be a real anxiety. Hilary had had years of keeping books; after all, it was natural that in this leisure time she would assume this little duty for Konrad.

But there were other difficulties in Dora's path just now. Her mother-in-law was at home, and her sister was with her at one time or another nearly every day. Unexplained intervals were not as simply managed as they had been last spring; Hilary had a maddening fashion of accompanying her sister to the studio, and even old Von Manderscheid, hitherto the most discreet of companions, was always under foot.

When Dora looked at herself in the mirror, confidence returned. Never was Twenty-one more blooming, more exquisitely soft and demure and winning. But there were other times when she felt that she was not gaining ground; indeed, that she was losing it.

In wonderful April and May, only four or five months ago, she and Konrad had found endless things to say to each other, all of themselves, and of love.

There had been no admission of feeling between them, to be sure. But they had indulged in those long, abstract arguments that are so sure a sign of awakening passion: the question of affinity, of whether a man loves as a woman does, or whether love in itself is not its own sufficient excuse, had engrossed them. With her bright head, in its beautiful spring hats, bowed, and her soft hand tracing designs over many a tea table,

"Not So Fast" opened last night to gales of laughter at the tent theatre of Mahurin's Players (Murphy's Comedians), corner of Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo. It proved so fast, in fact, that the laughs were interrupted only by an occasional thrill, and a mile-a-minute pace of merriment was maintained throughout.

J. A. Menard, manager of the company, advises patrons to come early if they want to get front seats. Or they may buy their tickets in advance at J. J. Schulte's drug store, 251 North Brand boulevard. The curtain rises each night at 8 o'clock sharp.

Situation In China Told by Minister

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The present situation in China is one full of dynamite, Jacob Gold Schurmann, American minister to China, declared upon his arrival here, en route to Washington for a conference with Secretary of State Hughes on Chinese affairs.

"While I believe the chances are against a serious war, the American minister declared, "I recognize its serious possibilities. The Shanghai warfare might prove a spark to kindle a general Chinese conflagration."

UNCLE WIGGILY'S BRICK DUST

"Come and sit out under the apple tree, Nurse Jane, and I will tell you a bedtime story," invited Uncle Wiggily one afternoon to the muskrat lady house-keeper.

"Oh—you and your bedtime stories!" laughed Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"Really I will—I'll tell you a funny bedtime story," promised Mr. Longears. "Don't you believe me? Cross my ears."

"Nonsense!" laughed Nurse Jane. "Of course, I believe you. But I don't want to hear a bedtime story now. If I did I could tune in on the radio. But I have something else to do, thank you."

"What?" asked Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose thoughtfully.

"I must wash the dinner dishes and polish the knives," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "The knives are as black as your Sunday hat. They need polishing very much."

"Then let me help," begged the rabbit eagerly. "You wash the dishes and I'll polish the knives. Then you can come out under the shady apple tree with me and listen to a bedtime story. By the way, what do you use to polish the knives?"

"Brick dust!" answered Nurse Jane. "I take an old brick, and shave off a little of the red dust. Then I lay the knife on an old board and rub on some brick dust with a rag. It polishes the kitchen knives beautifully. Of course, I don't use brick dust on my parlor knives which we use when we eat in the dining room on Sunday."

"Oh, of course not!" agreed Uncle Wiggily, just as if he knew all about it—which he didn't.

"All right, Janie," said the bunny to the muskrat house-keeper. "I'll get some brick dust and polish the kitchen knives."

Over the fields and through the woods hopped the bunny gentleman, hoping he might have an adventure before he cleaned the knives. But nothing happened except that he saw a little red ant lady fall in the brook, and he helped her out on his red, white and blue striped barber pole rheumatism crutch.

Away crawled the little red ant lady, thanking the bunny gentleman. Then he found a red brick, almost the color of the little red ant lady.

"Ha! This is good luck!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. He hopped home with the red brick, and scraped off some dust as Nurse Jane told him to do. Then wetting a cloth, and dropping it in the brick dust, Mr. Longears began to polish the black and rusty kitchen knives.

All of a sudden, when the bunny had nearly finished the knives, he saw a shadow pass in front of the window near where he was working. Looking up, Uncle Wiggily saw the Bushy Bear sticking his ugly head in the window from outside.

"What are you doing?" growled the Bear.

"Polishing the knives with brick dust!" answered Uncle Wiggily as politely as he knew how.

"Well, come with me!" snarled the Bear. "I am going to take you off to my den!"

"Wait until I polish your nose!" it is blacker than any of these knives!" cried the brave rabbit uncle. Dipping his rag in the scratchy, red brick dust, Uncle Wiggily rubbed the black nose of the Bear as hard as he could. Oh, how the brick dust scratched the Bear's postie osie nose!

GIANTS MAINTAIN LEAD IN LEAGUE

Game and Half In Front of Brooklyn as They Meet For Today's Clash

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The Giants were a game and a half in front in the National League race today as they prepared to meet Brooklyn on their home grounds.

Cincinnati dealt Pittsburgh a damaging and unexpected blow yesterday by defeating the Corsairs in both ends of a double header. The Pirates are now in third place, three points behind Brooklyn and two and one-half games in the wake of the Giants.

The American League race was unchanged today, as both Washington and New York lost.

Detroit continued its winning streak and rose to within two and one-half games of the Yanks. The Tigers are four and one-half games behind the Senators.

The Giants increased their slender lead by a full game by taking an 8 to 7 slugfest from the Dodgers on the field and played tag with the outfielders. Terry batted in four runs for the champions.

Luque and Carl Mays landed two knockout punches on the Pirates as the Reds won a double header, 4 to 1 and 4 to 3. Pittsburgh is now two and one-half games behind the Giants.

The Senators failed to hit in the pinches and dropped a game to the Red Sox 6 to 2.

The Athletics staged a ninth inning rally while Bob Shawkey was dreaming about his world's series money, and the Yanks lost 2 to 1, missing a chance to cut down Washington's lead.

Hornsby's failure to hit enabled the Cubs to trim the Cardinals 2 to 1, but St. Louis got an even break by running away with the second game 15 to 4.

The Tigers made it six straight by nosing out Cleveland in the eighth, 8 to 7, and advanced to within two and one-half games of the Yankees. Cobb used six pitchers to keep the Indians within in reservation.

Glendale's Protest on Game to Be Up Tonight

A capacity crowd will undoubtedly be on hand at tonight's meeting of the Southern California Baseball Managers' association to be held at the I. O. O. F. hall, 955 South Olive, Los Angeles, to hear the protest of last Sunday's Glendale-Inglewood game by the White Sox management.

This protest, should it be upheld, will make necessary the playing of additional games to determine the semi-pro championship. Due to the fact that this is the first meeting in three weeks, considerable league business will be disposed of. Sheriff Traeger urges all members to be on hand.

Polo Players Rest In Preparation for Game

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The international polo teams of America and England will indulge in a complete rest today as final preparation for the opening match of the international series tomorrow at Meadowbrook with the Prince of Wales among the distinguished spectators. The match was postponed from Saturday owing to the heavy condition of the turf. The Americans continued to rule favorites at odds of 2 to 1.

The Colored All-Stars had their winning clothes on yesterday, beating the C. C. M. O. gang, 6 to 4, and the Eastman Tigers, 6 to 1.

ON THE SANDLOTS

String McDonald pitched Lankershim to a 2-to-1 victory over the Hawthorne crowd. Lankershim scored one in the fifth and Hawthorne tied the count in the eighth. McDonald drove in the winning run.

Burbank dedicated a new ball park with a 6-to-2 victory over the American Athletic club. Harding, hurling for Burbank, allowed only six hits, but gathered four off Johnson himself.

The Catalina Cubs scored three runs in the eighth to beat the Hoffman Autos, 5 to 2, when Mory Jones, former U. S. C. hurler, weakened.

Hits were regular things when the P. K. Dotson club defeated the Kerchoffs' Cuzner team in a Builders' Material league game, 23 to 9. The game was played on the Broadway High school diamond.

With Bob Wallace on the mound and Ennis doing the receiving, Gilmore Oilers trimmed the Palms-Culver aggregation, 9 to 3.

The Shell Oil gang continued their lead in the independent league by wallowing Belvedere Gardens, 8 to 6.

Burbank scored its second victory over the new grounds when the team beat Sunshine Ranch, 9 to 1.

The Pacific Electric crew shocked the San Bernardino team 11 to 5 yesterday.

The Glencrook Improvement association has planned a mass meeting to be held in the chapel of the Glendale Seventh Day Adventist academy in Sycamore Canyon to discuss the question of transportation into Sycamore canyon and the Glencrook section of the city. The meeting will take place tomorrow night, Tuesday, September 9, at 7:30, and all the residents interested in the subject are expected to be present.

ANGELS AND BEES SPLIT ON DOUBLE

Mormons Take First Game, 2-1, But Seraphs Make Joke of Second, 21-2

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Smarting under Kallio's stinging defeat in the opener at Washington only McAuley's triple saved the Angels from a shutout, the score being 2 to 1 to the home team trampled Sheriff John Singleton and Elmer Ponder under foot in the second set-to and won, 21 to 2.

Kallio's performance was quite professional, and Hughes' wildness gave the Bees a lead which was never overcome in the initial contest. Indeed, the pitcher's single put the first of the winning pair across, while O'Doul was responsible for the other run.

In the eighth McAuley got home after his triple when Cruise grounded out.

The second game was a huge joke, the Angel batsmen literally committing murder, everyone getting some sort of a hit and some several. Lindimore and Frederick trotted home with the pair of Mormon tallies in the first inning, whereupon the Angels got five in their half, scored several more along the way and in the sixth scored seven runs on eight hits.

By taking the last game the Angels won the series, four games out of seven. Fans agree that yesterday's performances were the best and worst seen here this season.

Oakland captured the first game, 7 to 2, from Seattle, but dropped the second tilt, 10 to 8. The series went to Seattle.

Portland won the series with Vernon, six games to one, by taking both of yesterday's games, the first 7 to 6 and the second 11 to 3.

Sacramento copped the morning game at San Francisco, 11 to 7, but the Seals evened matters in the afternoon by winning, 6 to 0.

FLYWEIGHT TITLE BOUT TO BE FAST

Genaro and Villa Are Evenly Matched; Will Be Great Battle, Says Expert

By FAIR PLAY
 Special Correspondent of the Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Had not Pancho Villa beaten Frankie Genaro to the match with Jimmie Villa, Genaro and not Villa would be the world's champion flyweight at the present writing.

The writer has seen the Filipino and Frankie in two of their bouts and so far as science and ring generalship were concerned there was no doubt that Genaro was the better man and entitled to the decisions he received.

Perhaps he cannot hit as hard as Villa, but what matters that, so long as the hardest hitter cannot land his punches solidly? Genaro has a head and uses it.

In their battle in Jersey two years ago he actually could be seen thinking two jumps ahead of his yellow-skinned rival.

Both Are Active
 There is no reason to believe that Genaro will be any slower with his br.in when the two little fellows meet, nor is there any ground for figuring that Villa's mental processes will be geared up to greater speed than in the past.

By constant training a man may improve himself physically, may sharpen his sense of timing, may accelerate his punch and adjust his eyes to quick openings. But when it comes to the intellect there is nothing much to be done. Old nature has her say and a boxer—or anyone else—must stand or fall upon the sort of gray matter he possesses.

The writer saw Villa work out in his camp at Ringwood, N. J., and herewith suggests that, who think he will be weak at 112 pounds revise their opinions. He is the same little Liberty motor as when he won the world's title, and if Genaro takes the decision—which the writer thinks is likely—it will be on the basis of his ability to box and think.

AUGUST RESULTS CHANGE CHANCES

Brooklyn In Position to Win Pennant in National League Battle

By JOHN B. FOSTER
 Special Correspondent of the Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—One fact that stands out clear in the National League race is that if the Giants lose as many points in September as they did in August, their pennant goose is cooked.

Provided, of course, that the teams which gained in August at the Giants' expense continue to forge ahead. The Giants dropped forty-one points in August. That is more than a point a day and no team can stand that kind of anti-fact treatment without entirely wasting away.

While the Giants were slumping, Pittsburgh gained thirty-six points and Brooklyn gained forty. The Brooklyn outfit is the sensation of the league. Starting with an outfit that seemed doomed to the dog pit, the combination has been patched up here and there, especially in the pitching department, until today it is the big thing in the league in pitching talent, and one of the best in either league in that respect.

The American League race in August was one of the tightest little old shows that ever broke loose in baseball. On August 1, the percentage of the Yanks was .574, and they were in the lead. The Yanks lost eleven points in August, however, and the Washingtons gained four. Not such a big change—but enough to put the Senators at the top and the Yankees down into second place.

The Yanks lost twenty-one points during the month. The St. Louis Browns, who still feel that they are the dark horse in the pasture, gained fifteen points.

Of all the teams that are playing, the Brooklyn's were the big show in the month of August. They have started September at the same speed, and if the big leaguers don't head them off they will win their customary four-year championship. They hit it off in 1916 and again in 1920, and they are due again.

The Annapolis football meeting season opens formally on September 15. This gives them little more than a month to prepare for what may prove to be a stiff game—that with Marquette. And if that is not stiff enough the next week they meet Princeton. In the last three games played Navy has captured one, Princeton one and one was a tie.

year, with hundreds of guests masked and in fancy costumes and twelve orchestras playing at different points. Of course, we were on hand at the opening of the Olympic games when the representatives of forty-five nations paraded before the president of France, and all the national groups, except the United States, lowered their flags as they passed, but our flag wasn't lowered a bit, that being against our law. We sat in the section next to where the Prince of Wales and Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks were seated, and General Pershing wasn't very far away. When our 400 American athletes paraded through the stadium it was very thrilling. At the Grand Prix race at Longchamps on June 29th we were very near to Marshal Foch and were almost breathless with awe, but the more we saw of the French people in general the less we cared for them. They weren't very nice to Americans in this summer, and our crossing in Italy was a welcome change for us. Before leaving France we visited the Valley of the Marne and the memorial fountain for Quentin Roosevelt, and I sent home a poppy I picked on 'Hill 108' at the edge of the Hindenberg line.

Dances on La Scala Stage
 "We went from Paris to Versailles, to Nice, to Genoa, to Florence, to Rome, to Venice, and back to Paris by way of Stresa on the lakes in Northern Italy and Interlaken in Switzerland. Miss Lindsay and I danced on the stage of La Scala in Milan, but it was 10 o'clock in the morning and there was no audience present. In Venice we discovered that there should be traffic officers on the canals to prevent collisions between gondolas. The system followed by the gondoliers upon approaching each other at intersections is to yell as loudly as possible, keep straight on at full speed and let their terror-stricken passengers take the consequences.

"We arrived in New York on August 19, but I had very little sight-seeing there, Miss Lindsay and I spending our mornings studying with Mr. Fokine, supplementing our course in dancing taken in Paris with Mlle. Zambelli, premier danseuse, M. Aveline, principal male dancer and M. Staats, ballet master, all of the French opera. I did manage to attend the national tennis tournament to see the match between Wm. Tilden and Manuel Alonzo, whom we met on the Olympic.

"Combining work, play, travel and sightseeing, we have had a delightful summer, but my one great wish for the past two weeks has been to get back to Glendale."

Miss Lindsay and her mother returned yesterday, also. Miss Lindsay is formulating plans for the opening of her dancing classes September 15. Miss Chandler will be associated with her in her work.

Pennies Are Feature Of Pendroy's Display

Countless copper pennies are an attractive feature of the fashionable window display at the Pendroy store at South Brand boulevard and Harvard street, where one may see many lovely things in the new popular "penny" shade.

This new shade has been slowly coming into popularity, and people who have hesitated to name it are now aware of its proper title from the clever "penny" window arranged by E. J. Sullivan, window trimmer for Pendroy's.

Kenneth Curtis Hurt When Struck by Auto

Kenneth Curtis of 330 East Michigan boulevard, La Crescenta, sustained painful injuries at 8 o'clock Saturday night, on Michigan boulevard, La Crescenta, when he was struck by an automobile while helping his brother push their own car off the road. He was taken to the Glendale hospital Sunday morning, where he was treated for a bad scalp wound.

VALLEY SCHOOLS START NEW YEAR

Crowded Classrooms Report Of Many Cities as Pupils Register

VAN NUYS, Sept. 8.—Schools throughout the San Fernando valley opened today, including Van Nuys, Lankershim, Burbank, San Fernando and Zelzah.

For the accommodation of scholars that wish to attend Van Nuys High school a bus will operate between way points. The Pacific Electric trains will be used by the Hollywood pupils, as formerly.

The board of education is making special efforts to have high school students residing in the vicinity of Lankershim enroll at Van Nuys high school this year rather than Hollywood High school, pointing out the better advantages for individual instruction to be obtained here than in the city, where classrooms are overcrowded.

Schools Crowded

For a few weeks the Lankershim schools will be greatly overcrowded, but the board of education has announced that the Carpenter school in the southwest section in the vicinity of Laurel canyon, the Satsma street school on Vineland avenue near Rio Vista and the Victory boulevard school near Pacoima in the north-west section will be ready for occupancy on or about October 10.

These three schools will be provided with bungalows until the buildings can be erected, which will greatly relieve the congested condition at the local grammar school. However, it is expected that the other pupils will prefer the Lankershim school, as all the special work can be had here, as it will be impossible to carry out a full program in the bungalows.

False Arrest Charged In Suit for Damages

OAKLAND, Sept. 8.—E. F. Moffitt, Los Angeles building contractor, arrested while speaking at an I. W. W. meeting in San Pedro two months ago, has filed suit in Alameda county superior court against August Vollmer, Berkeley chief of police, and formerly of Los Angeles, for $10,500 damages, charging false arrest.

The suit was filed in the Los Angeles city jail from July 6 to July 14, with no criminal charge pending against him, Moffitt declares in his complaint.

Loss of Fortune Is Reason for Suicide

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 8.—Broken in spirit because of the loss of his six hundred thousand through an eastern loan company, L. R. Camp, 36, is dead here, a suicide, after taking his life in a downtown hotel where he was unable to pay his room rent. A note left by the man told of his misfortunes. He is believed to have once lived in Sandusky, Ohio.

SHOE TRADE ACTIVE

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 8.—Shoe factory output is beginning to expand under the stimulus of reports from salesmen on the road, who report prospects excellent for fall and winter business. Production at the factories has been below normal for four months.

AUGUST PERMITS SHOW BIG GAINS

Eagle Rock Total for Year Is Expected to Reach Three Million

EAGLE ROCK, Sept. 8.—Building permits issued here during August totaled $204,396, according to information received from the Los Angeles building department. This brings the total for the year to $1,393,403, and represents an increase of $82,351 over July, when permits totaling $122,045 were issued.

Officials in the building department predict that the remaining months of the year will continue to increase, bringing the total for 1924 higher than any preceding year. The total for 1923 was $2,580,983 and it is thought probable that the volume of building scheduled for the fall months will bring the total close to the three million mark.

Permits by Months

Following are the building totals for the year 1924 to date:
January	$204,421
February	225,263
March	221,630
April	141,272
May	145,025
June	131,200
July	122,045
August	204,396

Primary ballots for the election of twelve directors to pass on Chamber of Commerce activities for the coming year were put in the mail on Friday, September 5. These ballots will go to the 350 members of the organization and with each will be enclosed a roster of the membership.

Vote for Twelve

Each person will be asked to mark the names of the twelve persons whom he would like to have represent him in the Chamber of Commerce activities. A stamped, addressed envelope will also be enclosed and the primary ballot must be mailed or returned in person to the Chamber of Commerce headquarters at the city hall, not later than noon, September 12. All votes will be void after that hour. When they are all in, an election committee to be appointed by J. Hartley Taylor, acting president, will check them all and interview the twenty-four receiving the highest number of votes.

Final Ballots September 17

When these have signified their willingness to serve, their names will be printed on final ballots and sent out again to members on September 17. Each must then cast a vote for the twelve that he desires to serve and the six receiving the highest number of votes will be on the board of directors for two years while the other six will serve for one. The final count will be made on September 26.

Mrs. Martin Post of Ridgeview avenue had the following friends arrive on Wednesday for a visit: Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Post, of Jacksonville, Ill.; Rosnell Post, Jr., of San Francisco; Mrs. Z. SYSTEM OF HAIR GROWTH IS TOLD

Scalp Specialist Explains Method of Treatment; Claims Success

"Yes, folks, it is a positive fact that the Golden System of Hair Growing is a success," says Maurice Hill, scalp specialist, "and I am proving it to several Glendale men who are delighted to see new hair growing in their scalps after years of baldness.

"Although the Golden System has been administered for the last fourteen years, it is comparatively new in this locality. This system is a natural method of so stimulating the cells of the scalp by a scientific nerve pressure massage, through assisting nature, that the new hair and life return the cells to a hair-producing stage.

"Almost everyone will agree that hair growth and color are dependent on the circulation of blood in the scalp. In the Golden System treatments no tonics, appliances or electricity are used. None of these is necessary for our first growth of hair and none is needed as we grow older, if the scalp is kept in a normal condition and is functioning properly.

"This treatment is for women as well as for men; restores color to gray and faded hair; curing dandruff, falling hair, dry and brittle hair; eliminates excessive oil and rejuvenates impoverished hair, bringing forth its lustrous beauty."

It will cost you nothing for an interview with Maurice Hill, a graduate of the Golden System of Therapeutics, who will frankly tell you just what can be accomplished by this treatment in your particular case.

FORMAL OPENING OF ROAD IS SET

Burbank Will Dedicate New Boulevard October 12; Youth Is Held

BURBANK, Sept. 8.—The formal opening of "Hollywood way," as Pioneer drive will henceforth be known, is scheduled for October 12, when an elaborate civic demonstration will be staged along the thoroughfare, according to Earl L. White, president of the Hollywood Way association.

This thoroughfare has just been connected with San Fernando boulevard on the west and paved with a thick concrete pavement for a distance of four miles, connecting San Fernando boulevard with Hollywood by way of Pass avenue and what has heretofore been known as Hollywood way. In addition to making a short-cut from the San Fernando road to Hollywood, the new boulevard opens up some of the finest property in the valley, which, it is believed, will experience a speedy growth as a result of the completion of this thoroughfare.

Youth Is Held

As the result of a criminal act, which he considered only a "prank," Clare Seaton, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Seaton of 250 Verdugo avenue, a Burbank High school student, is to be turned over to the Los Angeles juvenile authorities on blackmail and kidnaping charges.

On Wednesday morning a note, written in red, embellished with the usual skull and crossbones and other emblems of blood and thunder, was picked up on the lawn at the S. T. Allen home, 737 North Olive avenue, which read as follows:

"Danger—Written with poison. Mrs. Allen, we will take your girl to Tia Juana, to JGMC, if you don't kick through with $500 by 10:45 a. m. at the spur track between Olive and Verdugo avenues on Lake street. Remember 10:45 a. m., Wednesday. Drive past track, throw out bills and keep going. Don't tell the cops on penalty of death. Have the money in packages—100 $20 bills, 200 $10 bills and 100 $5 bills. Keep going when you have thrown. There are two of my men watching you. JGMC pays $4000 for girls. Will you pay $500 more? Young Seaton was caught red-handed by the Burbank police when he attempted to collect the money.

OPEN EAGLE ROCK GRAMMAR SCHOOL

High School Pupils Must Go To Los Angeles Since Glendale Closed

EAGLE ROCK, Sept. 8.—The local schools opened today with record enrollments and half-day sessions appear certain. As the Glendale Union High school will not receive any new pupils from outside points, the seventy-five pupils who graduated from the Eagle Rock grammar school last spring must attend either the Franklin or the Lincoln High schools of Los Angeles, according to C. W. Preston, principal.

Both schools are more difficult of access than Glendale, Franklin, which is the one to which Eagle Rock pupils should go, has no direct street car line or bus service. There should be a school bus to and from Franklin High school, Mr. Preston believes. Money had been granted and plans made for additions before the close of school, but apparently nothing further has been done. It will be a great relief to teachers and pupils when the additions to the buildings are made.

The petitions for a playground south of Colorado boulevard between Hermosa avenue and Royal drive, have been duly signed and sent in, and the matter has been referred to the playground committee of the Los Angeles City Council. There is some encouragement to think the matter will be acted upon soon and favorably. A playground is considered one of the crying needs of this section.

Personal Notes

Miss Laura Donnell of Windermerne avenue is at home after a delightful vacation trip. She visited Mount Hermon, Santa Cruz and Asilomar.

Mr. and Mrs. Cropp and Miss Emily McClean of Highland View avenue, have returned from a motor trip to Big Basin.

Mrs. J. C. Glassey and Miss Florence Glassey of Live Oak View avenue, with Mrs. Mary A. Crowd of Ellenwood drive, have motored to San Francisco, where they will spend their vacation.

Tujunga Residents to Vote on Bond Issue

TUJUNGA, Sept. 8.—A bond issue for the sum of $15,500 will be submitted to the voters of Tujunga at an election called for September 26, to be held at the schoolhouse. The trustees plan to use the money to fit a playground at the Palm street school, installing a heating plant in the new buildings at Pine street and the purchase of new desks and other furniture for the new classrooms now under construction.

The plan for a playground originated with the Kiwanis club and received the endorsement of civic and social organizations. The plan calls for a baseball and track field. The original plans of the new school buildings made provision for the installation of a heating plant in the event of gas being piped to Tujunga and now that this has been done the trustees desire to provide heat for the pupils before the cold weather begins.

WRITING ON ROCK CALLED CHINESE

Pre-Historic Hieroglyphs In Nevada Placed In Chan Dynasty

By W. H. BUNTIN
For International News Service.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 8.—Nevada's earliest inhabitants may have been Mongoloid. The prehistoric hieroglyphs found on the rocks near Virginia City which again inspired a discussion of the possibility that man originated on the western continent were translated today as Chinese by William P. Fong, senior student at the University of Nevada.

Fong, a former student at the University of Canton, China, accompanied by a party of University of Nevada scientists, recognized several of the petrographic photographs as "boss" or "chief" signs, a wolf, wooded grotto, trees, water, temple, cover, year, the "up" and "down" characters and several others.

Made in 2500 B. C.

Fong places these characters, which heretofore have only been a matter of conjecture, in the Chan dynasty of Chinese history, or approximately 2500 B. C.

No comprehensive narrative or history was procured from the translations, due mainly to the fact that "desert varnish," an iron film deposited throughout the centuries, covered many of the writings.

The pictographs were produced by the aboriginal people by first chipping an outline in the rock face, then filling out the lines and finishing by rubbing the cuts smooth.

Several of the drawings of animals are in red ochre and a black substance, presumably charcoal. The rock writings exist in two forms, those resembling the ancient Chinese characters and those in pictograph form, mostly animals.
