SATURDAY EVENING, ACRIL 18, 1835.

The mail via Mobile has brought New York papers to the 4th inst; and Charleston to the 9th; but no foreign news. A packet was hourly expected in New York from Liverpool, as she had been telegraphed?

The domestic news indicates a prosperous staft of the country. Railroads and canals are in progress in every direction. Money is abundant in New York; and the western merchants are making their spring purchases, to a great extent in New York and Philadelphia.

The president had been indiscound for 8 or 10 days; but is convalencent. The national convention at Balti-more is the chief subject of political polemics, among our eastern brothren—in the junction with the pretentions of Judge White, who is continued by taken up or used up by the anticadministration party.

NEW YORK, A II. 3.

From Oporto —By the brig Elizab the Capi Jon Serom Oporto 25th Feb, we have a placard sheet, (di. d. 20th January 1835.), containing, in the Fortuguese, Spanish, French and English languages, in padilic columns, the decree of 22d March, 124 which decree di. 12d July, extending its operation to the city of Oporto. Also the decree of 23d July, extending its operation to the city of Oporto. Also the decree of 23th April, 1834, which equalized the arties on entry for home consumption, on all goods, from whatever country imported. The first decree establishes the free admission to deposite, of every description of goods, under whatever flag imported, except with a nation with which Portogal may be at war. The charges and 1 per cent, and the expenses of laborers. The second decree admits to entry for home consumption every description of goods, except live pigs, powder, olive and turnip seed still main and flour, which are regulated by a special law, and to hace, soap, and crahilla, which are subject to the conditions and taws of the state contracts. The dries of goods for home consumption imported direct from the country of their own growth, production or manufacture are 15 per cent if imported in Portuguese vessel of the sels of their own countries, if otherwise imported, if per cent. Flax and hump are subject to only 5 per cent duty, and staves at 10 per cent.

A srow storm, more severe than any which has pre ceded it during this winter, took where at Quebee in the 21st and 22d uit. The snew war and drifted and the roads completely blocked up.
