PINCHOT PROPOSALS ACCEPTED AS BASIS FOR FURTHER PARLEY

Anthracite Miners Prepared to Continue Negotiations and Efforts to Avert Coal Strike May Be Successful

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 31.—Anthracite operators and miners' union officials, to-day returned answers to Governor Pinchot's peace proposals for avoiding mine suspension, the miners accepting them as a basis for continuing negotiations and the operators, while objecting to the flat ten per cent. wage increase, accepting it on condition that an agreement putting it in effect over a long term of years be effected.

Government Sitting Tight Washington, Aug. 31.—The Administration will make no move in the coal situation so long as there exists the basis for further conference along the line laid out by Governor Pinchot, it was announced officially to-day after a conference between Chairman Hammond of the Coal Commission and President Coolidge. The Government plan for emergency distribution will be held in abeyance, it was stated, while the miners and operators exhibit a willingness to continue negotiations.

In Wyoming Valley Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 31.—Thousands of miners in the Wyoming Valley quit work to-day in obedience to the suspension of the emergency United Mine Workers because of the failure of the union leaders to work out a new wage scale to replace the one which expires to-night.

PROVINCIAL AID TO MUNICIPALITIES MUST BE CONSTANT

Mr. McDiarmid Denies Difference With Union of Municipalities' Heads

Explains Reasons For Withdrawal as Parliamentary Agent

"The municipalities of British Columbia will not feel themselves financially able to carry on until the subsidies of one kind and another granted to them for special services by the Province are permanent," said F. A. McDiarmid, of Vancouver, to the Times this morning.

Mr. McDiarmid, who from 1912 until the union convention last week in Prince Rupert was the parliamentary agent to the Union of B. C. Municipalities, said that the relief in various ways was too uncertain, dependent too much on changing policies of legislatures with regard to liquor sales, the proceeds of race track gambling, and similar sources of revenue which could no longer be regarded as permanent relief to the taxation of land. The Province, he observed, was paying about $2,800,000 in various forms of aid to municipalities to carry out the functions committed to them, and as 398,000 people in the Province lived in organized municipalities, it was readily seen that the per capita assistance was not excessive. Of the seven essential services which a municipality ought to give to its citizens, four of them entailed capital expenditure. Capacity to borrow money depended upon the confidence of the investing public in the municipality spending it for public services.

Rapid development of the Province, particularly the suburban municipalities, has resulted in exceptional demands for schools, sewers, roads, and other necessities which had taxed the ratepayers to an excessive extent, all entailing heavy capital outlays.

Reasons for Retirement Mr. McDiarmid gave out the first statement he has made publicly as to his reason for leaving the parliamentary agency of the union. His view is that the union must be placed in a position to clear its liabilities in the current year, and that burdened with the expenses of a parliamentary agent, whoever he might be, the union could not put itself on a sound footing for the Pentecost convention of 1924. The union, he pointed out, had been able to keep its engagements with him from the Revelstoke convention to that at Chilliwack in 1915, when it had been voluntarily abandoned financial claims he had on the union for services of a professional kind, knowing that if he pressed the amounts, the money was not available.

HOSPITALS WANT NO MORE OF B. C. LIQUOR PROFITS

Seek to Cut Loose From Troublesome Liquor Business, McGregor Reports

Propose Government Keep Liquor Money and Increase Patients' Grants

British Columbia hospitals want to "cut loose completely" from the Government liquor business and have their revenues placed on a permanent, stable basis unaffected by fluctuations in liquor profits, according to George McGregor, Chairman of the Jubilee Hospital Board, who returned here to-day after taking a prominent part in the B. C. Hospital Association's annual convention in Penticton this week.

The Hospital Association, Mr. McGregor announced, will ask the Provincial Government immediately to remodel British Columbia's hospital finances completely when the Legislature meets in the Fall. Under this plan the Government would give the hospitals no liquor money but, instead, would increase the present grant to the hospitals fifty cents per patient per day. In the case of Victoria and Vancouver this would bring the daily grant up to ninety-five cents per patient. This system, Mr. McGregor asserted, would put hospital finances on a permanent and satisfactory basis and eliminate the bickerings over the division of liquor profits between city councils and hospital boards.

H.M.S. Royal Sovereign Leaves Mediterranean

London, Aug. 31 (Canadian Press Cable)—The departure from Malta for England of H.M.S. Royal Sovereign, the last of the ships from the Atlantic fleet in the Mediterranean, marks a return to normal in the British naval situation in the Mediterranean following ratification of the Lausanne Treaty.

B.C. Industry Reawakens, Martyn Finds

Over 2,700 Establishments Now Manufacturing With Renewed Confidence

GREAT CHANCE HERE FOR POTTERY WORKS

High-Grade Resources of Province Are Analyzed Ready For Development

WASTE

Between 5,000 and 15,000 tons of wood-waste are burned daily in and around Vancouver at a cost of 50 cents a ton to the mill owner. There is a proportionate amount in the Victoria district. Major Martyn, Deputy Minister of Industries, announced this to-day in connection with the completion of his annual report on B. C. industrial conditions and possibilities.

There are now 2,718 manufacturing establishments in British Columbia turning out 482 different articles, according to the annual report of Major Don C. Martyn, Deputy Minister of the Department of Industries, completed to-day.

"Increased activity lessened unemployment and building increased," Major Martyn says. "Output in mining, fishing and lumbering, pulp and paper showed an increase. Continuation of interest and progress in the coming year, coupled with lumbering, pulp and paper and building supply, should gradually produce the reawakening to full activity of the various shops and foundries of the Province."

"There is a renewed interest in the immense raw wealth of the Province. There is renewed confidence financially through the improvement in the Canadian dollar in terms of American funds. There is less unemployment and in lieu of objection to immigration a tendency to create free wealth by bringing in a large population by selective immigration to develop the resources that the past year has shown to be in demand once more in world markets."

Merit of B.C. Product "B.C. manufacturers, entering to a small and too limited market, are forced to put sufficient merit in their product to enable them to sell on the quality and finish of the article against Eastern competition in the prairie markets. Fine quality of British Columbia products is quite often unappreciated by local people, who consider that merit comes from afar."

RUHR RESISTANCE STUDIED POLICY

Germany's Aim is Complete Industrial and Administrative Freedom

Berlin, Aug. 31.—Passive resistance in the Ruhr and the Rhineland will automatically collapse the very moment the Germans are permitted to operate their railroad lines without molestation and when they are granted complete industrial and administrative freedom. This broadly reflects the German official attitude on the subject and in the main, reiterates the position outlined in Chancellor Stresemann's inaugural declaration before the Reichstag, when he emphasized the principle of Germany's right to exercise the nation's official and private prerogatives in the interrupted areas.

Meetings in preparation for the fourth general Assembly of the League which will be called to order on Monday, began to-day.

SAMUEL REFUSED WIDER POWERS

Request of High Commissioner in Palestine Turned Down

London, Aug. 31.—The request of Sir Herbert Samuel for wider powers in the administration of Palestine has been declined, according to the Cairo correspondent of The Daily Express. The correspondent asserts that the Arab delegation has ascertained in official quarters that the British high commissioner while on leave in London had asked the British Government to give him greater powers, but that the Cabinet refused to extend his powers beyond those provided in the constitution for the Holy Land.

GALENA DEPOSITS IN QUEENSLAND

Discovery at Chillagoe May Develop Into Another Broken Hill

Brisbane, Queensland, Aug. 31.—An important discovery of galena deposits has been made forty-seven miles from Chillagoe. Ten samples of the ore averaged from fifty-two to seventy samples of silver to the ton, with fifty per cent. lead. The Minister of Mines thinks the region may develop into another Broken Hill, the principal silver mining centre on the continent.

ITALIANS OCCUPY CORFU, IN GREECE, REPORT AT ATHENS

Italian Legation at Greek Capital Notified Greek Government Italian Force Occupied Corfu at 4 o'Clock This Afternoon; Occupation Said to Be Peaceful and But Temporary

London, Aug. 31.—Italians have occupied Corfu in Greece, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens to-night. The Italian Legation at Athens, adds the dispatch, handed the Greek Foreign Minister a note announcing that the Italians had occupied Corfu at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Legation further notified the Greek Government that at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon an ultimatum giving only five hours grace to Greece would be handed to the Greek Foreign Minister. The Legation's note says that the occupation of Corfu is a peaceful one and only temporary.

Rome, Aug. 31.—The Italian Cabinet, at a meeting to-day, found the Greek reply to its ultimatum to be unacceptable, the Stefani Agency says.

The announcement made by Stefani, which is the semi-official news agency, says that certain decisions were reached at the Cabinet Council, none of which was disclosed in statements issued by the Minister of Marine and War after the meeting.

ITALIAN FORCES LANDED AT TANGIER TO PROTECT COLONY

London, Aug. 31.—A Central News dispatch from Rome reports that Italian forces have been landed at Tangier to protect the Italian colony.

London, Aug. 31.—If, as Madrid dispatches state, Italy intends to intervene in the Tangier negotiations in London, because she feels she has interests at stake in that part of Northern Africa, it is believed in authoritative circles here that she will be informed by the other powers that her claim is inadmissible. Some British observers see in Premier Mussolini's gesture a bid for a naval position in this vital part of Africa which would be just opposite Gibraltar.

This figure is made up of thirty-five permits. The total for the eight months so far elapsed is $761,336, as compared with $737,281 in the corresponding period of 1922. Premier Mussolini Reiterates Italy's Attitude on Ruhr

Rome, Aug. 31.—Premier Mussolini, addressing yesterday's cabinet meeting reiterated his official attitude, as previously expressed in regard to the Ruhr situation. Germany, he declared, must pay a precise sum in reparations, which should, however, be much less than the hundreds of billions of gold marks spoken of after the armistice—probably in the neighborhood of $50,000,000,000 gold marks. Italy was ready, he declared, to make sacrifices for the reconstruction of Europe, but she could not tolerate changes or modifications in territory that would impair her hegemony politically, militarily or economically. The Premier reaffirmed his opinion that the reparation and inter-allied debt questions were inter-dependent.

Provincial Police Uncover Up-Island Liquor Stock Under Oriental Laundry

Cheminus, Aug. 31.—Provincial police operating under orders from Attorney-General Manson raided the laundry of Hong Hing on the road near Cheminus.

For protection Hong had an automatic shotgun and a Colt .38 revolver. The police seized these weapons with their man.

Then they started out to hunt for the liquor cache. Finally they discovered the "cellar" in a secret compartment concealed beneath the laundry floor.

With Hong and his armament the police took thirteen bottles of a particular and potent Chinese liquor, two bottles of brandy and 212 bottles of assorted beer.

The charge of illegal sales will likely be heard in Nanaimo.

Conciliatory Tone

Rome, Aug. 31.—The Italian Government to-day had before it Greece's reply to Premier Mussolini's ultimatum embodying seven demands for reparation and indemnity for the massacre of the Italian officers serving on the Greco-Albanian boundary commission.

The reply declares that the Greek Government considers as unjust the attribution to it by Italy of any responsibility for the assassinations, and says it finds it impossible to accept the fourth, fifth and sixth demands in the ultimatum, considering them violations of the honor and sovereignty of the Greek State.

These demands were that the Greek authorities institute thorough inquiry into the massacre of the Italian officers, assisted by the Italian military attaché in Athens; that all the guilty be executed and that an indemnity of 100 million Italian lire (about $2,160,000) be paid within five days of the presentation of the note.

The Greek reply promises a formal apology for the incident, but in modified form from that laid down in the Italian ultimatum, and also agrees to the celebration of a religious function in memory of the victims.

It offers "just indemnity" to the families of the slain commissioners, and concludes with the hope that Italy will acknowledge the Greek's conciliatory spirit and her desire to give satisfaction.

Demand Suspension of Work

An ultimatum from Jugo-Slavia, a comitija (committee) and the Greek, that the international commission engaged in delimiting the boundary between Albania and Jugo-Slavia suspended its work for the day, was received by the Albanian legation in Rome, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from the Italian capital. The Albanian Government, it adds, has protested to the Italian, French and British Governments and also to the ambassadors' conference in Paris which has charge of the delimitation work.

Rome, Aug. 31.—The Belgrade correspondent of The Corriere d'Italia says that the Greek Charge d'Affaires there has conferred with the acting Foreign Minister of the Albanian Government, presumably about the controversy between Italy and his country.

Rome, Aug. 31.—The newspapers learn from Brindisi that the Greek steamer Utromidon, which was scheduled to leave for Greece, port of destination, has been stopped in the harbor. The press dispatches state that the Italian steamer Adria, which had cleared for the Levant, was ordered to go direct to Constantinople without touching at Greek ports.

London, Aug. 31.—The Athens correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph says the Italian Minister visited the Greek Foreign Minister at noon to-day, and is reported to have handed him a new note from the Rome Government.

War Symptoms

London, Aug. 31.—The English newspapers appear to-day exhibiting the familiar signs and symptoms of a rapidly-rising European war fever due to the Italian demands upon Greece. Flaring headlines tell of the ultimatum served upon the Athens Government, of the rumors of troop mobilization and of reported secret orders to the Italian fleet. From Athens comes the reply of the Greek Government seeking to satisfy Rome and at the same time uphold Greek sovereignty until appeal can be taken to the League of Nations or some other tribunal.

What is transpiring behind the curtain of diplomatic exchange is unknown for the familiar news center is apparently already at this point and Rome is silent as to the news which she has planned to enforce her demands.

The English editorial writers have been hard at work suggesting a solution of the difficult international incident, which in many ways recalls the event which plunged the world into war in 1914. The League of Nations is generally fixed upon as the medium for reaching a settlement, but in view of the fact that no word from Rome refers to the Geneva tribunal The Daily News asks: "Will Mussolini torpedo the League and fire new broadsides into Article

Reorganization and centralization of hospital buying is to cut down the cost of hospital supplies.

Increase in the fees paid for the treatment of patients treated under the Women's Compensation Act so as to cover the full cost of such treatment.

Centralize Hospital Work

Another important development in the hospital situation in British Columbia discussed at the Hospital Association convention, Mr. McGregor said, is the tendency towards centralizing hospital treatment and cutting down the number of hospitals. This tendency, he declared, will create a problem which must be handled in the future.

Want No Liquor Money

"We want to cut loose entirely from liquor money," Mr. McGregor said. "We objected to being supported by liquor profits, which form a bone of contention between hospital boards and municipal councils. We feel that the hospitals should have nothing whatever to do with liquor money, and that, instead, the government should be supported by the grant be increased by fifty cents a day per patient would put the hospital on a truly sound basis, instead of spending their time worrying about finances, would be able to concentrate on real hospital problems. We want to cut adrift from liquor money. We want nothing to do with it whatever."

The purpose of the proposed hospital inspector, Mr. McGregor explained, would be to improve the standard of British Columbia hospitals. The inspector would have access to every department in every hospital, and would make recommendations for improvements as he saw fit.

Supplies at Wholesale Price

All hospital supplies would be purchased by the Government and then sold to individual hospital boards at cost under the Hospital Association's plan, Mr. McGregor stated. This would enable all hospitals to get supplies at wholesale prices, and would effect big economies, he said.

Great Britain Reluctant to Intervene

London, Aug. 31.—The British Government, it is believed, is not likely to intervene individually in the Italian-Greek crisis unless the mediatory efforts of the Allied Council of Ambassadors prove abortive or unless Italy takes a decisive step towards war against its helpless neighbor.

The feeling in Government quarters is that matters will not reach the stage of open hostilities as both Italy and Greece are solemnly committed to the principle invoking the jurisdiction of the League of Nations before resorting to war.

Twelve and into the Greek navy at the same time?"

Mussolini Criticized

Mussolini is the object of much criticism in the newspapers. The Daily Express says: "If this is Fascist diplomacy it does not seem to differ much from internal Bolshevism."

The Daily Mail, which warns Greece that the sooner she gives satisfaction to Italy, the better it will be for her, the Times characterizes the Italian demands as intended to inflict humiliation rather than merely to obtain justice. It warns Mussolini to bear in mind the danger of playing with fire.

The Daily News can not perceive what any European nation could gain by going to war with any other.

The Westminster Gazette urges control of the situation before the conflagration spreads.

The Daily Chronicle is the only newspaper optimistic enough to predict that the crisis is unlikely to have tragic consequences.

TWO MILLIONS WITHOUT WORK

Estimate of Unemployed in Britain This Winter by Frank Hodges

Toronto, Aug. 31.—That the unemployed in Great Britain this Winter will number two million was the prediction made last night by Frank Hodges, fraternal delegate to the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada from the British Trades Union Congress.

"Conditions will not permanently improve until Europe is stable again," he said, "not until nations are freed from the domination of the spirit of war."

Mr. Hodges stated that labor knew that relief could not be obtained by violence and that revolution would not restore trade.

Economic Query

London, Aug. 31 (Canadian Press Cable).—"Why are there so many unemployed men, yet so many idle hands?"

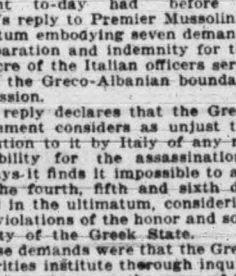

This is an economic query on the problem of unemployment put by representatives of churches of all denominations in a letter to the press with regard to the problem of bringing the employers who want help and the unemployed together.

The church representatives announce in their letter that a conference will be held by the various religious organizations of London in October in a letter to the press to bring pressure upon the Government to take decisive action to remedy the unemployment situation. "Unemployment," they say, "must be due to some grave defect in our social organization."

Under this order the open season for bear and moose in the Cariboo District starts on September 1, instead of September 15.

The open season for California quail is cancelled in Cowichan, Esquimalt, Saanich, Nanaimo, New-Castle and the Gulf Islands with the exception of Saturna Island.

Season for shooting buck only in the Highland District—Vancouver Island, will open on September 15, and run until December 15, instead of ending on September 30.

Blue grouse shooting will be open in the Highland district from September 15 to September 30. Willow grouse will be open in the Highland District from December 1 to December 15. There was no shooting season for these grouse provided for in the regulations issued a few weeks ago, but birds have had a good season and it is now considered possible to do so. There is no opening up in Saanich.

Quail are breeding so fast that bag limits in the Similkameen and South Okanagan are raised from fifty to 100.

Cock pheasant shooting season in the Eastern district of the Province will open on October 20, and run until November 15, instead of until November 15. Open season for cocks in Salmon Arm will be from October 20 to November 2.

Want Data on Protection of the West Coast

The Duncan Board of Trade has adopted the following resolution:

"That Mr. C. H. Dickie be asked what steps have been taken to date in making the necessary survey of the West Coast of Vancouver Island with a view to minimizing as far as possible the risk of loss of life by shipwreck."

This question occupied considerable attention after the series of wrecks in January and February. Before the House of Commons rose, undertakings were given of preventive steps to be taken in the interests of protecting the West Coast, in case of accident.

OVERDOSE OF DRUG

Santa Monica, Cal., Aug. 31.—The death of Herbert Jones, motion picture writer and director, was due to an overdose of a drug, the attending physician said to-day. Jones died in a hospital here last night, several hours after he had been found unconscious in his bedroom. The indications were, the physicians said, that Jones took the drug as a sleeping potion.

Burns on the director's body were found to be slight, and probably were due to the application of a hot water bottle found on the bed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lake Hill Community Centre will be held there at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

STATESMEN GATHER TO REVIEW WORK OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Fourth General Assembly in Session at Geneva Monday

Geneva, Aug. 31.—The fourth general assembly of the League of Nations will be called to order Monday morning, Sept. 3, by Viscount Ishii, former Japanese ambassador at Washington and now ambassador to France.

The forthcoming meeting is regarded with great international interest. The league has passed through its most active year of endeavor, and numerous are the questions which will come up for discussion by the representatives of the fifty-two nations, affiliated with the Geneva organization. Ireland will apply for membership; Turkey and one or two other states may do likewise.

The assembly will bring together many of the world's foremost statesmen, including General Smuts, the celebrated leader of the South African Republic; Lord Robert Cecil; Dr. P. Nansen, for many years prominent in European relief work; former Premier Branting, of Sweden; Foreign Minister Beneš, of Czechoslovakia; representatives of the British overseas Dominions, and spokesmen of some sixteen South American republics.

Something like 1,500 people, including national delegates, experts in various fields, and journalists from all corners of the globe are expected and already are making ready their display of flags of all the world, preparing the great fountain which plays in the inner harbor, and other wise plans for the reception of men from many lands, of many races, and of many languages.

Fulllest Publicity

All the work of the assembly will be done in public. Every session, both plenary and committee, is open to the press. Apparently efforts are being made to prevent the league from falling into the hands of those who often mark the course of diplomats in international negotiations. Occasionally, during the last year, some sessions of the council were held privately, with resultant criticism based on the allegation that, if the league, as it gets stronger, yields to the temptation to follow the road of secrecy, it is eventually doomed to failure because the keynote of its success must be open and honest discussion. The assembly generally discusses not only what the league has done during the past year, but also what it has not done and should do.

Each state which is a member of the league may be represented by not more than three delegates who are appointed by and responsible to their respective governments. As the work of the league covers many different fields of international life, and as the sessions are held with the greatest possible expedition, many countries have supplementary delegates and expert advisors on various problems. Each, however, has but one vote. Practically all questions of importance can be decided only by unanimous vote. On a state could block an agreement, if it wished to take the responsibility. As a matter of fact such a contingency has never arisen in the history of the league. Either negotiations have been pursued until an agreement acceptable to all has been reached, or states which felt unable to agree to a definite proposal have abstained from voting, thus allowing the proposal to be adopted by the other countries.

BUFFALO HERD TO BE SLAUGHTERED

Ottawa, Aug. 31.—The Dominion of Canada has two thousand surplus buffalo and they are to be slaughtered. The contract for the slaughter has been given by order-in-council to A. S. Duclos, of Edmonton. The once-wanted members of a race of animals which had been showing signs of disappearing are now numerous on the range at the National Park at Wainwright. For some years the Dominion Government has been paying special attention to the preservation of these animals, and so successful has this work been that the accommodation in tax which is being overtaxed. Two thousand of the buffalo are to be slaughtered this fall and the meat and skins sold.

BANKS ADOPT SCIENTIFIC METHODS AGAINST CROOKS

Chicago, Aug. 31.—The bank robber of to-day is a post graduate of the university of crooks, and his methods of cracking safes are improving just as other inventions or theories are being improved upon in the evolution of things. This fact, according to the Illinois Bankers' Association, has led to protective measures by banks that are based on the very latest and most scientific lines. The bankers, according to the association, have long since pronounced to the fingers, acetylene torches or "soup" of the modern bank robber.

Accordingly the bankers now are concerned with building safes that will give the robber the most trouble to open. When new vaults are constructed, they are built from the standpoint of how long it would take an expert safe cracker to enter them, rather than from a viewpoint of being absolutely impregnable. What the bankers call "tin doors" are safes with doors of one-half inch steel. Statistics show that these can be opened with an acetylene torch in thirty minutes. Therefore the association wants round or screw doors three and one-half inches in thickness. In addition to keeping in touch with the construction of safes, the association has divided the state into ten districts, with an inspection department operating in each district. At regular intervals each bank is inspected with a view to improving its protective features.

BACHELOR MEMBERS ACCLAIM PRINCE OF WALES AT DINNER

London, Aug. 31.—Thirty-four bachelor members of the House of Commons revelled in their unfettered estate just before Parliament shut down for the summer. There was plenty of wine and song, but no women were present when the celibate legislators sat down to the banquet table to let loose a flood of stories, jokes and witty remarks upon the joys of the single man and the woes of the wedded. The first thing the diners did was to toast the Prince of Wales—"the best and most popular bachelor." Then Sir Robert Horne broke loose with some stories, building up to this climax: "In these days of the rights of women, we are told that the women no longer run after the men. The mousetrap never runs after the mouse." Lord Hugh Cecil, brother of Lord Robert Cecil of League of Nations fame, picked up a serviette from the table and holding it high with upraised hand, said he thought bachelors could have no better emblem than this piece of paper. "Austin Hopson ended his speech by saying that 'one of the greatest pleasures of the blessed is in contemplating the tortures of the damned.'"

ITALY AND GREECE

First impressions of Premier Mussolini's demands upon Greece suggested that a highly dangerous procedure had been taken in haste and without sufficient examination of the facts.

The crime in question is a diabolical one and it is significant that the killing was confined to the Italian members of the Commission.

Official Greece can soon inform itself upon the facts. The Albanian charge is definite and places the blame squarely on Greek soldiers.

OUR MEMORIAL

Although good progress has been made and some excellent work has been put in by numerous citizens it is a pity that the committee which has been energetically led by General R. P. Clark should find it so comparatively difficult to stir up the requisite support and enthusiasm to complete Victoria's memorial avenue.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION LAW

The new law affecting Chinese immigration, about which Consul-General Tsar has been called to China to report, limits the admission to Canada of persons of Chinese origin or descent, irrespective of allegiance or citizenship, to the following classes:

The members of the diplomatic corps, or other government representatives, their suites and servants, and consuls and consular agents; the children born in Canada of parents of Chinese race or descent who have left Canada for educational or other purposes; merchants as defined by such regulations as the Minister may prescribe; students coming to Canada for the purpose of attendance, and while in actual attendance, at any Canadian university or college authorized by statute or charter to confer degrees.

The Act thus dispenses with the head-tax which was unsatisfactory to all concerned. It also requires that within twelve months after it comes into force every person of Chinese origin or descent in Canada, irrespective of allegiance or citizenship, shall register at such places as the Government shall prescribe and obtain a certificate. Those who are absent during the time fixed for registration with authority to come back may register upon their return.

During the discussion of the Act in the House of Commons last session considerable attention was given by some of the members to the provision admitting "merchants as defined by such regulations as the Minister (of Immigration and Colonization) may prescribe."

WHAT WILL HE SAY?

Although he may be on the pessimistic side when he says that there will be 2,000,000 unemployed in Great Britain next Winter, Mr. Frank Hodges is not the man to indulge in wild predictions of any kind.

Mr. Hodges is coming to Vancouver as a fraternal delegate from the Trades Union Congress of Great Britain to the annual gathering of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Note and Comment

Greece had better do as Italy asks if she does not want to add to her troubles.

We are now informed that the Provincial Police have steel cells in their new quarters on Menzies Street.

It takes a German to be really nery. A former member of a Zeppelin crew that invaded Britain during the war went into a Manchester Labor Exchange the other day and asked for the out-of-work dole.

General Hertzog still sticks to his point and says that Premier Smuts warned the South African people that Britain and France were almost on the verge of war.

The representatives of Churches of all denominations in Britain have addressed a letter to the press asking "why there are so many unsatisfied wants and yet so many idle hands."

Some Thoughts for To-day

How chang'd since last her speaking eye Glanc'd gladness round the glittering room, Where high-born men were proud to wait—Where Beauty watched to imitate. Byron.

No great genius was ever without some mixture Of madness, nor can anything grand or superior

To the voice of common mortals be spoken Except by the agitated soul. Aristotle.

Chance will not do the work—Chance send the breeze!

But if the pilot slumber at the helm, The very wind that wafts us towards the port May dash us on the shelves—The steersman's Part is vigilance, Blow it or rough or smooth. Scott.

A great character, founded on the living rock Of principle, is, in fact not a solitary phenomenon,

To be at once perceived, limited, and described. It is a dispensation of Providence; designed To have not merely an immediate, but a continuous,

Progress, and never-ending agency. It survives the man who possesses it; survives his age—Perhaps his country, his language. Ed. Everett.

Our Contemporaries

FARMERS' TROUBLES Toronto Globe—The troubles of the Nebraska farmers are presented in a new light by an Omaha paper, which shows that, while they expect to get $85,000,000 this year from their crops, it will cost them $135,000,000 to own and run their automobiles, leaving a deficit of $47,000,000.

SIR HERBERT SAMUEL Manchester Guardian—The usual crop of rumors is flourishing round the plain fact that Sir Herbert Samuel is coming home for his annual leave. The leave was arranged weeks ago, and is, certainly not due to any new crisis. If he is going to resign people here who should know something about his intentions are nevertheless in his confidence this time.

RE MEMORIAL AVENUE

To the Editor:—As the present chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Memorial Avenue Committee I must thank the press for its interest in the matter.

The delay and lack of response to repeated appeals for assistance has been so disheartening that even criticism is welcomed as evidence that some interest is still being taken in this matter.

Please do not judge from the above that the committee are in any way satisfied with the progress they have made. They would, however, like to show any interested parties the enormous pile of correspondence that this matter has already caused.

CITY STRIVING TO KEEP UP ITS SINKING FUNDS

New Finance Policy is Designed to Prevent Shortages Here

How the City Council is attempting to cope with sinking fund shortages was explained at the City Hall to-day by Alderman W. J. Sargent, for years a leader in the work of moulding city finance policies.

"I cannot see how Mr. Baird can make a statement of this kind," Alderman Sargent said to-day. "It seems to me that his ideas must have been misinterpreted, because the Council this year has made a vigorous effort to deal with the situation which Mr. Baird describes."

"It is apparent, of course, that sinking fund shortages occur because the city cannot collect all its taxes. When a shortage in tax collections occurs naturally there is a shortage in the amount applied to sinking funds, and in this way accumulated and large shortages in the sinking funds grow up. This is the situation that faced the city some time ago."

"To meet that situation we adopted two measures. First, we funded the accumulated sinking fund shortages. In the second place, we took measures to prevent, if possible, the occurrence of serious shortages in the future by deciding to use all money collected on account of arrears of taxes to cover up shortages."

Use Tax Money. "In the past, all money collected on account of arrears of taxes has been allocated to the bank to pay up overdrafts. But as the accumulated arrears were funded this year we are able to apply all the money collected from tax arrears to counter-balance any shortage that occurs in our annual tax collections. By using this tax arrear money to make up shortages in our current tax collections we hope to prevent the occurrence of any serious current shortage. This, of course, would be reflected in the condition of our sinking funds."

"This seems to me to be a sane policy and a decisive effort to deal with the situation. But it must be obvious to anyone that so long as the city cannot collect all its revenues shortages will occur."

These words prefaced a speech here by John Muir, M.P., Socialist, who ascribed the martyrdom of the engineers to the fact that in the engineering industry capital was increased threefold during the war and the ensuing boom, and therefore triple profits must be made in order to pay the pre-war rate of interest on capital.

ROYAL VICTORIA

The great photoplay "Sporting Life," produced by Maurice Tourneur, which is being shown at the Capitol Theatre this week, is a superb Paramount-Artcraft special famous Drury Lane melodrama, and there isn't a dull moment from start to finish. The scenes of the prize-fight in the National Sporting Club of London and the Derby are much admired, while the story is thrilling and heart appealing.

ROYAL VICTORIA

In one of the scenes for the big special production, "My Wild Irish Rose," which will be shown at Royal again to-day, Pat O'Malley, as Conn, the shaughraun, has a scene where he steals a kiss from Pauline Starke. In rehearsing this scene Pauline did not respond quickly enough to suit Director David Smith, and there was not enough realism in the scene. Pat's Irish wit came into play that moment, and he, in keeping with the atmosphere of the production, said in true Irish style:

"Shure, and faith O'Ul have after being a bit of realism in this scene." So he resorted to an old trick. He tapped Pauline on the right shoulder with his right hand, and when she turned to look in that direction and not seeing anyone on that side, she turned quickly, and he stole a kiss. The scene was caught by the camera and was included in the production.

All the atmosphere of old Erin, with its brogue, its humor and its wit, is recorded upon the scene in this famous Irish drama.

DOMINION

Milton Sills and Noah Berry, principals in Jesse D. Hampton's picturization of "The Spoilers," claim the world's championship in the long distance fighting handicap. Sills, playing the role of Glennister and Berry in the role of McNamara, battled five straight days, shed quantities of real gore and received more black and blue spots than there are on a Chinese lottery ticket before they satisfied Director Lambert Hillier.

They were taking scenes in the fight which occurs between the two enemies in Rex Beach's novel, "The Spoilers," which plays at the Dominion Theatre, and were determined to outdo the famous screen battle staged by William Farnum and Tom Santschi in a film version of the book made ten years ago.

COLUMBIA

Frances Warner has an important role in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," a Paramount picture starring Mary Miles Minter, which comes to the Columbia Theatre. As Ann Zuliver, Miss Warner has one of the best characterizations of her screen career, in that it calls for unusual emotional scenes. Besides Miss Minter and Miss Warner, the cast includes Antonio Moreno, leading man, and Ernest Torrence, who are featured in support of the star; Culgen Tate, Edwin Brady and J. S. Stemberidge. Charles Maigne was the director.

PRESENTED REPORT OF NATIONAL I.O.D.E. CHAPTER MEETING

Mrs. Sampson Entertained Chapter Yesterday; Scholarship Winner Welcomed

The Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E. was more than repaid for its initiative in sending a delegate to the annual meeting of the National Chapter, held in Montreal in June, when the members yesterday afternoon had the pleasure of hearing an excellent and fully comprehensive report of the proceedings from Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Municipal Regent, who represented Victoria at the annual gathering.

In her report Mrs. Sampson gave an interesting synopsis of the various provincial reports showing the progress of the Order, and also outlined the new policies as decided by resolution of the National Chapter. At the close of her interesting report Mrs. Sampson was warmly thanked and presented by Mrs. David Miller, on behalf of the members, with a beautiful bouquet of roses.

Additional interest was created by the attendance of George Hasted Dowker, of Winnipeg, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dowker, of Mount Toimie, the winner of last year's I.O.D.E. overseas scholarship for the province of Manitoba. Mr. Dowker is studying for the ministry, and will leave on Saturday for England to take up his studies at St. John's College, Oxford, under the scholarship of the Order's valuable gift. Mr. Dowker briefly enunciated some of his plans and hopes in this realization of which he was confident his studies in England would materially assist.

Yesterday's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Curtis Sampson, "Molton Combe," and at the close of the formal part of the proceedings the hostess delightfully entertained the members at tea.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Crawford, of Melfort, Saskatchewan, are registered at the Empress Hotel.

C.P.R. SOCIAL CLUB ARRANGES DANCE

The C.P.R. Social Club is to hold one of its popular small dances in the Empress Hotel ballroom on Monday evening, September 3. Dancing will commence as usual at 8.30 and will continue until 11.30. Tennis Club is to meet the local C.P.R. aggregation on Monday at the courts on the corner of Belleville and Menzies Streets. Those clubs have already teams went under. ### Charles Mair, Distinguished Author, is Visitor in City

Charles Mair, one of the most distinguished figures in Canadian literature, a pioneer of the Red River settlement, and a historian of the early days of Confederation, is visiting Victoria with his daughter. As far as his great age of eighty-four years will allow, Mr. Mair is meeting local writers and others interested in Canadian literature, and was the guest of honor at a tea given this afternoon by Mrs. M. S. Wheatley. Mr. Mair, who now makes his home in Calgary, reached the Red River settlement in 1858, one year after Confederation, to take up the position of paymaster of the first immigrant road to that district. The making of this road marked the first permanent and practical step taken by the first Dominion Government to connect the East with the West, and to encourage immigration. Mr. Mair was also commissioned to contribute a series of letters to the Canadian press on the settlement, and his letters in The Montreal Gazette and Toronto Globe in 1858 and 1859 were the first published authentic accounts of conditions in Red River. With other loyal Canadians in the district, Mr. Mair opposed Louis Riel in the first Red River rebellion in 1869, and was imprisoned for weeks in Fort Garry.

The author of "Tchumseh," a drama of the soil, which is considered without a rival in Canadian literature, and the first great Canadian poet of the nature school, Mr. Mair is at present planning to write his memoirs, which should prove most valuable as a historical record. In the current issue of MacLean's Magazine, there is an interesting account by Mr. Mair of the early days in Red River and the Riel rebellion.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB TO RESUME

Busy Month Opens Tuesday With Address by Countess d'Audiffret

September will be an unusually interesting and eventful month for members of the Women's Canadian Club. The first meeting after Summer vacation will be held at the Empress Hotel on Tuesday afternoon next when the speaker will be Countess d'Audiffret, who is in Victoria on a mission connected with the war orphans of France.

This meeting will gain additional interest through the soloists, Miss Winifred Bell, who won the gold medal in competition at Massey Hall, Toronto, last year, and who is shortly leaving to make her home in Vancouver.

September will also bring the annual convention of the Federation of Canadian Clubs to this city on September 17, 18 and 19, a meeting of paramount interest to club members, when eminent speakers will address the gatherings.

For the second meeting of the local club in September, the members will have the privilege of hearing Judge Emily Murphy, of Edmonton, who will be in Victoria at that time in connection with the triennial meeting of the Canadian Women's Press Club. Fuller particulars concerning Judge Murphy's appearance before the club will be given at a later date.

YOUR HOME AND YOU

By HELEN KENDALL

Opening the House

"Well, it's a kind of dreary time, any way you look at it, isn't it? The pang of regret that seizes you when you close the Summer cottage isn't half as keen as the wave of dismay that surges over you when you get back to the city house and see cobwebs festooned all around the front door and the windows; when you find two or three old newspapers that have been soaked and dried and browned in the sun lying on the front steps; and when the garden that was so green and gay when you went away is discovered to be full of blossoms gone to seed, brown pods, yellowed foliage, and over-run with weeds.

Yes, it's a little hard to turn one's back on the free, open life in the far-off places and come back to a house that has to be cleaned from top to bottom before it can be lived in. Sweeping and dusting, airing and disinfecting—that's our programme for the next few days, as we tackle our job of adjusting ourselves to the old familiar routine.

And yet we have had a wonderful time, haven't we? Whether we have been gone all Summer, at great hotels or little country cottages, or whether we have had only two or three weeks' motoring through distant towns and along mountain roads—we have it all to look back on, and when this first day or so of opening the house is over, we shall be joyfully telling our neighbours all the delightful experiences we have had.

This is Home! We're back in it. It is ours to make fresh and dainty and clean and orderly again—and to keep it so. We see it with new eyes. We must have new curtains here, and a new lamp shade there, and heaven! we hadn't realized how faded those chintz cushions were! We'll have new sun-room valances like those we saw in the quaint road house on Cape Cod, and the pewter pitcher we bought in the little antique shop will look charming filled with hittersweet on the red lacquer chest! After all, home-making is our job, and down in our hearts we are glad to be back at it!

WORK AS LABORERS

Lawyers, Doctors and Officers on Railroad Gang

Ellensburg, Wash., Aug. 31.—Sixteen highly educated Russians, all of whom were lawyers, doctors or army officers during the regime of the late Czar, are among forty-five laborers working on a railroad repair gang of Grant Smith & Company at Uppham, Wash. One of the laborers is a count. During the change of government several of the men were officers under General Kotchak but were driven by the Bolsheviks into Siberia. Thence they moved to China, later to the Philippines and then went to the United States.

Convicts Are Own Guards
Under Louisiana Penal System

"Joe," lifer at the Louisiana Penitentiary at Baton Rouge, keeps the bloodhounds and trains them. The little girl is a daughter of a prison official.

Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 31.—A penitentiary without a call! A prison where convicts guard themselves! And there, in substance, you have the Louisiana State Penitentiary under the administration of Governor John M. Parker.

Governor Parker's theories as regards prison reformation are attracting national attention. They are revolutionary. And those who have visited the "Big House" here say they are producing the desired results.

Except for the wall and the sentries posted thereon, one would not suspect he was in a prison. The convicts sleep in huge dormitories, kept spotlessly clean. No bars bind the windows. Only screens to keep out insects at the night, that the prisoners may sleep better.

Starts in Home

The idea of trusting men who have made a faulty step, starts in the governor's very home. His butler is a former prisoner, a man who has gained the esteem of the entire household.

For, as Parker explains it: "How could I expect other men to employ ex-convicts I know to be all right, if I did not do so myself?"

The most striking thing about the strange prison is the prisoner-guard system. Crack shots, who have good records, are chosen for the task. No other prisoner is allowed to come within thirty feet of one of these guards. Guns are loaded with buckshot, and in a few attempts within the past four years, of breaks for freedom, the aim has been accurate.

A guard knows, the governor explains, "that if he misses he is demoted, and never given the opportunity again."

One particular prison-guard, up for a stretch of ten years for killing, he believes there are terrestrial bodies in the heavens that are hidden in the great expanses beyond the centre of what scientists of to-day regard as the universe. He predicted the development of lenses with a far greater magnifying power than those of the Mount Wilson Observatory in California, which will permit man to gaze far into space and "will make a great revelation of the universe. He casually mentioned the fact that the Einstein theory of relativity had been substantiated.

He amplified that by showing his visitor a "hound chase." These have come to be great sport to the prison population. A prisoner, known to be especially resourceful, is taken outside the walls, and told to run away. He is given half an hour start, and cautioned to cover his tracks wherever possible. When he is well on his way, hounds are loosened, and the "brought back." This has a wholesome effect on those who harbor the slightest desire to break for freedom.

Punishment? When infractions of the rule are practised, the punishment inflicted is intended not so much to hurt as to ridicule the offender in the eyes of the other prisoners. These latter "sit" the stiffer, the governor says.

Governor Parker feels his theories are sound. So do prison reformers from everywhere who visit the "pen" here. And Parker intends to continue them.

Is Suing Ford
For $200,000

Herman Bernstein Charges Race Maligned in "Dearborn Independent"

New York, Aug. 31.—Herman Bernstein, journalist and companion of Henry Ford on the "Peace Ship" expedition, has filed a summons and complaint through his attorneys, Guggenheimer, Utermeyer & Marshall in the office of James A. Donegan, County Clerk, in a suit against the Detroit automobile manufacturer and the Dearborn Publishing Company, which Mr. Ford owns.

The plaintiff asks $200,000 for alleged defamation of character through an article in The Dearborn Independent, August 20, 1921, entitled, "A View of Jewish International Politics, Including a View of the 'Great Discovery' Made by Herman Bernstein, the Messenger Boy of International Jewry." This was one of the Anti-Semitic articles published under Mr. Ford's direction and based, Mr. Ford contended, on statements made by Herman Bernstein aboard the Peace Ship.

In the complaint Mr. Bernstein is described as a "noted professional newspaper correspondent and editor, traveler, publicist and lecturer of ability, commanding several languages."

The complaint charges that Mr. Ford, through The Dearborn Independent, in the United States and foreign countries, conducted a false and malicious campaign against the Jewish race and faith history, traditions and institutions of the said race, and by the publication in said journal of a series of knowingly false and malicious articles, have sought to bring the Jewish race and the members thereof into disrepute and contempt, and to expose the said race and its people to ridicule and hatred.

He charges seven offenses, according to the plaintiff, with seven offenses:

1. That leading members of the Jewish race and faith precipitated the world war.

2. That in the middle of the war they switched their support to the Allies, selling out to the highest bidder, their price being the restoration of Palestine to the Jewish people as a homeland.

3. That they murdered or caused to be murdered the Russian Czar and his family.

4. That most of the dangerous and destructive theories of government abroad in the world are of Jewish origin.

5. That they debased the professions, prostituted the arts, degraded sports and corrupted commerce.

6. That they control and dominate the press, finance, resources, institutions and politics of the United States and prostitute the same to unlawful and iniquitous purposes and to their own aggrandizement and to the great injury of the civilized world.

7. That their alleged wealth and power as a race constitute a threat to mankind.

Allusion is also made to the so-called "Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion," said to have been issued by prominent Jews. They are said to be "in every respect and particular forgeries, and were marvelously conceived, fabricated and put forward by enemies of the Jewish race with the design of exposing them to contempt, ridicule, hatred and enmity, and of manufacturing resentment and fomentation of mass action against them."

Says He Was Called Traitor

Mr. Bernstein charges that not only the article in which he is referred to as the "messenger boy of Jewry," but an interview with Henry Ford—by Allan L. Benson published on January 5, 1922, has been injurious to him. He claims that he was represented as "a traitor to the Jewish race and faith and the members thereof in that he was presented as the 'originator, author, surveyor, transmitter and informant through which certain calumnies, false asser-

CROSSES CONTINENT TO FEED NEW HOME

E. Cockell Travels 7,000 Miles to Reach Victoria

See Continent, But Chooses Home Here

Ernest Cockell, who arrived here Wednesday, after a motor tour on the continent which covered approximately 7,000 miles, has taken up permanent residence in this city at 2090 Granite Street, Oak Bay.

Mr. Cockell has been staying at the Curtis Point automobile camp, a place which, in his opinion, has few rivals on the continent. Although there are larger and better equipped camps, he says there are none which embrace more of the chief cities of the Dominion and the United States en route.

LAUNCHES ESCAPE NEW RULE, CLEAR TO B.C. PORTS

Interpretation of New Regulation Does Not Include Local Gas Boats

All Liquor Taken From Here is Duty-Paid Stock

Interpretation of the new customs regulation which has been enforced to put a stop to the alleged liquor smuggling into the United States does not include the clearance of which Victoria's large fleet of gasoline launches secure from the local customs office.

The regulation stipulates that no vessel under 250 tons deadweight can clear for foreign ports with liquor, but as all the liquor taken out of Victoria by the "gas" launches is cleared for various British Columbia ports with liquor since the instructions were received from Ottawa.

None of the "gas" launches clear from Victoria go out beyond the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Most of them clear, it was learned, for either Maple Bay or Vancouver. What happens to the liquor after it leaves this port is another story.

It is alleged that many launches transfer their cargo to other launches at nearby islands. In fact, some launches have already cleared for various British Columbia ports with liquor since the instructions were received from Ottawa.

PUBLICITY BUREAU HAS NOVEL DISPLAY

Big Map in Window Shows Where Prospective Settlers Reside

As a part of the scheme for the furthering of the big campaign, which is intended to draw settlers to Victoria and Vancouver Island, the Publicity Bureau has placed a large window display in their offices in the Belmont Building, showing the places of the world from which communications have come asking for information regarding possibilities for settlers on this island.

Each town, a citizen of which has sent a letter of inquiry to the Publicity Bureau here, is marked with a little Union Jack, stuck into the map. Already the United States, the Old Country and other portions of the English-speaking world, are thickly dotted with flags, and the present propaganda is having an astounding effect upon the display.

Wants a Home To-day a communication was received from a resident of Moscow, Soviet Russia, asking for information regarding the immigration laws of Canada, the possibilities for farmers, and other matters of interest to a prospective settler.

The inquiry, who is a Pole, is anxious to come here and make his home. The Publicity Bureau will communicate with him immediately. Other communications were received to-day, among them letters from Bermuda, Wales, England, United States and Eastern Canada. Apparently the campaign for settlers, although it is scarcely more than started as yet, is to be a most successful one.

SAILORS ADD VIM TO STRONG SPORTS CARD AT GYMKHANA

Willows Fair Opening Feature To-morrow Attracts Fine Horseflesh

Sailors from the Canadian warship Patrician will provide one of the most interesting features of to-morrow's Gymkhana at the Willows, having arranged to compete in a special four furlong horse race.

The lads in blue are preparing an amusing display of horsemanship, and it is asserted that new track feats will be spilled by the sailors with a recklessness only justified by enthusiasm supported by more horse knowledge than a deep sea sailorman is generally supposed to possess.

The latest entry for the steeplechase, the grand event of the afternoon, is the addition of "Chief" as the color bearer of the Garrison. Lieut. Mackintosh will be the rider on behalf of the Garrison officers' mess.

The full entry list to date is as follows: Horse being named first, owner second and rider third: FIVOT, R. B. Rogers and R. W. Allen.

RAMELER, B. C. Russell and J. Russell. JUDY, Mrs. Best and Lieut. Carley. THE GHOST, Victoria Riding Academy and Watta Jones.

DAN, Major Bullen, owner and rider. MINNIE M. B. M. Farm and A. M. Brown. UNNAMED MOUNT, Major Brock, owner-rider.

UNNAMED MOUNT, Major Mackenzie, owner-rider. TWO UNNAMED MOUNTS, T. Ward and H. Ward. CHIEF, Garrison, Lieut. Mackintosh. Other entries are expected to-day.

HARRY GREB who will try to capture the middleweight championship held by Johnny Wilson.

Harry Greb Gets Chance at Title Held by Wilson

Pittsburgh Windmill Will Meet Middleweight Champion in Ring To-night

New York, Aug. 31.—Champion-boxing will return to the limelight to-night at the Polo Grounds, where Harry Greb, the Pittsburgh "windmill," will attempt to win the world's middleweight crown from Johnny Wilson, of Boston, in a fifteen-round match.

Wilson has risked his title only a few times since he won it from Mike O'Dowd in 1920. For a good share of the time he was under official ban in several states as a result of his refusal to accept a challenge from the Civil Service group.

THE TIMES DAILY PICTURE PAGE

LADY MEREDITH AND THE LATE SIR WILLIAM MEREDITH, Chief Justice of Ontario, in their Toronto home.

SCOTTISH CHURCHMEN IN CANADA ON PROHIBITION MISSION.—In an effort to learn the exact truth of enforcement of prohibition laws in Canada and the United States a committee of Scottish churchmen toured these countries. The party was composed of, left to right: Rev. Dr. William Swan, B.D., D.D., South Leith, convener of the Church of Scotland Assembly's Committee on Temperance; Col. Gillett, standing counsel to the Anti-Prohibition Society, New York; Rev. Joseph Johnston, M.A., United Free Church of Scotland, Edinburgh; Robert Gibson, M.A., LL.B., B.Sc., advocate of the Scottish Bar, Edinburgh; Rev. John Malcolm Munro, M.A., Church of Scotland, West St. Giles Church, Edinburgh; and William Pringle Livingstone, author of "The Race Conflict," and other books.

STARTS FLIGHT.—Here is C. Eugene Johnson, flier of the first relay of the transcontinental mail flight, photographed as he prepared to hop off.

HOW HELEN WILLS WON.—This picture tells the complete story of how Helen Wills, seventeen, of California, defeated Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, seven times national woman's tennis champion. That is Molla in the foreground, in mad pursuit of a ball that hit near the back line. Tennis sharps say that Helen won by keeping Molla on that back line, never allowing her to come to the net.

GIDDY-YAP! — President Coolidge as he took his first presidential canter astride General, his personal mount.

A RACQUET ROMANCE.—Miss Evelyn Colyer, one of England's ranking tennis players, whose engagement to J. D. P. Wheatley, Davis Cup player, has just been announced. Miss Colyer is one of the most graceful players that ever held a racquet, as this remarkable action photo shows.

IN THE EGYPTIAN SECTION.—Visitor to Attendant: "I suppose as that's the number of the car that killed 'im."

EMPTY.—Mrs. Peter McKenzie, New York City, waits at the empty crib while forty police make a house-to-house canvass of the Chelsea District for her baby daughter, Lillian, kidnapped from her carriage.

VOICE OF A MATURE WOMAN.—Letty Noles is but fifteen, but already has the deep, rich, mature soprano voice of a mature woman. She is the child musical prodigy of the year at the Chicago Musical College. All vaudeville offers have been refused and she will continue with her studies.

MISS OCEAN CITY.—In a place like Ocean City, N. J., there are hundreds of bathing beauties. Here is Miss Grace E. Taylor, selected from all of them to be "Miss Ocean City" in the Atlantic City beauty pageant.

A STRIKING BIT OF STONE WORK on view in the Government Building at the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto this year, is in the form of a cascade, surmounted by a frog, out of whose mouth shoots a spray of water. The water tumbles down into the pools, and crawling over the side is rather a husky turtle.

BOTH CLIMB TREES, ANYWAY!—This cat, owned by a man in Lacon, Ill., is mothering two baby squirrels besides her own brood of five kittens. The baby squirrels were given to the cat before they were able to open their eyes and before the kittens arrived. Everyone's happy, too.

One Sip of Peppo and You're Another Samson

(Copyright 1923, By H. C. Fisher. Trade Mark Reg. in Canada)

Another day of trunk juggling faces me! So I gotta take a shot of Peppo tonic. One swig of that stuff and I can toss a 500 pound trunk around like it was nothing!

Darn the luck! I locked my Peppo tonic in the safe and now I can't remember the combination!

Sorry I'm late, Mut, but I feel weak today.

Don't talk but grab this trunk and carry it in!

You do seem to be weak today! How do you account for it?

Oh-

Loss of memory, Mut, loss of memory! That's all!

 Major Martyn tells of the work of the Department in cataloguing the industries and products of British Columbia, and sending out 16,000 such catalogues to merchants, buyers, public organizations and consular agencies.
 The Manufacturers' Association has shown considerable enterprise in putting in the permanent exhibit of British Columbia goods in Vancouver, he says, telling how this exhibit has been productive of orders from even casual visitors who did not think such things were produced here.
Clay and Pottery
 Possibilities of the development of a big clay and pottery industry in British Columbia feature the report. Results of research work in ceramic British Columbia clays which the Department has had carried on during the last year are given, with the forty-nine proven clay deposits of the Province. There are now sixteen clay plants in British Columbia, of which six are in the Victoria district. These turn out chiefly brick, tile, pipe, building blocks and a little mantel work.
 "But an opportunity exists here to commence the manufacture of art pottery, employing in the decoration well-known Indian designs and ornamentations," Major Martyn says. "At present large quantities of vases, bowls, trays, pots, souvenirs are imported from the Orient. Commencement in this way would meet with success from its inception and from the small beginning of art pottery a larger industry manufacturing white tableware would be developed."
 "To date Canada possesses no industry of importance in this line. Clays of British Columbia are of such extent and variety that, coupled with the availability of silica and feldspar, a pottery industry should be possible. Last year Canada imported ceramic products to the value of $9,851,652.

Fruit Products
 In the agricultural field the report deals with developments in the use of fruit crops during the last year, particularly at Victoria, Spanish and Dewdney, for the manufacture of fruit-juices, wines and cider.
 "British Columbia at present markets too many products in the raw state—copper, zinc, lumber, lead, silver, fish and particularly agricultural products," Major Martyn goes on. "At the same time—canned soups, vegetables, fruits are imported in large quantities. The co-operative movement, if loyally supported, should meet the same development here as in other places and right this condition in time, so that not only will the local market be supplied, but fruit and vegetable products, canned, dehydrated and preserved, will receive a world-wide distribution."
 "The future of the Province in this line is limited only by the agricultural population and the necessary capital to initiate the project. It is not likely that a solution will be found from outside. The start made in pre-cooling plants should be further extended, for the manufacture of a still greater distribution."
 Notable among the manufacturing achievements of the year is that of the Westminister paper mill. Before it was established, Major Martyn says, fruit-wrappers, toilets, creeps and towels all came from Eastern Canada and the States. The Okanagan alone takes forty to fifty carloads of fruit-wrappers.
 "Establishment of the Westminister plant has resulted in a reduction of thirty-five per cent to the consumer on all lines manufactured by them, and has given the Province a much better quality at these reduced prices."
 In sales tax alone, he points out, the company pays $500 a year to the Dominion.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE" WILL BE SHOWN AT THE ROYAL
 "A Royal Divorce" the greatest of films produced in England recently and which will be the attraction at the Royal all next week, is a photograph which is not only a credit to the screen but a picture which is a triumph for British film production. Impressive to a degree, this photograph of the fascinating life of Napoleon is fit to compare with the productions from any other market and is, undoubtedly, the finest picture that Mr. Samuelson has ever produced. So splendidly has it been pressed that with its excellent continuity the film, although of considerable length, runs as smoothly as possible, all the time holding one intensely interested with its fascinating peeps into Napoleon's history. The story of "A Royal Divorce" is well known to old and young alike. It has played at the principal theatres throughout the United Kingdom for years, and interest never flags in this moving story of Napoleon and Josephine.
"TO THE LAST MAN" WILL BE SHOWN AT THE CAPITOL
 "To the Last Man," Zane Grey's first story to be filmed for Paramount, will have its premiere at the Capitol Theatre next week, starting Monday. The story is thrilling and teems with action, Richard Dix and Lois Wilson, two capable Paramount stars, having the leading roles. The story deals with "The Pleasant Valley" which ravaged the Tonto Basin of Arizona, in the late eighties. Also "To the Last Man" is the first of the Zane Grey specials, played by a perfect cast and personally supervised by Mr. Grey himself. There is no need to tell our patrons of the tremendous popularity of Zane Grey stories among all classes of people. The picture was filmed on the exact locale of the novel, in the wild Tonto Basin country, the actual scene of the plot.
 Every man has a grievance and he will tell you all about it on the least provocation.

NEWS AND NOTES FROM THE MINES
 Clearwater District
 Major A. W. Davis, D.E.O., district mining engineer, has returned to Kamloops from Whitewater, where there is so much mining activity, and reports to The Standard Sentinel as follows:
 "While the country is a good one to prospect in and while what may develop into very important discoveries have been made, I have noticed a distinct tendency to exaggerate in various newspaper articles, written in connection with this district's activity. This area is adjacent to the coast batholith, where elsewhere in this Province important producing areas have been developed."
 "With reference to that part of the country more directly connected with Kamloops, high-grade complex ore, carrying gold, silver, copper, zinc and lead, is reported at the headwaters of the Clearwater.
 "The samples and accounts I have received from this district, from the prospectors concerned, are very attractive and although the season is getting late and this country is a considerable distance by trail from the railway, it is proposed to visit it again before the close of the year."
 Major Davis added that he had received advice from the Windpass mine at Chu Chua, that a life-outcrop has been encountered in a lower tunnel which was being driven on that property at the time of his visit there some three months ago. This area is also on the eastern contact of the coast batholith.
TOO REALISTIC
 "Dauber does some very realistic work, doesn't he?" said one artist to another.
 "So much so," replied the other, "that those apples he painted six weeks ago are now said by the critics to be rotten."

 "Temperament be damned!" was the forcible reply. "I have done my best. When you've said those four words, Tallente, any man ought to have philosophy enough to add, 'Whatever the result may be, it isn't going to be my funeral.' Look at you—haggard, losing weight every day, poring over papers, scheming, planning, writing articles, pouring out the great gift of your life twice as fast as you need. No one will thank you for it. It's quite enough to give half your soul and the joy of living to work for others. Keep something up your sleeve for yourself, Tallente. Mark you, that's the soundest thing in twentieth century philosophy you'll ever hear of—Corner of Clarges Street right for you, eh?"
 Tallente held out his hand. "Horlock," he said, "thank you. I know you're right but unfortunately I am not like you. I haven't an idyllic retreat, a charming companion waiting for me there, a life out on because there's nothing else."
 Horlock laid his hand upon his subject's shoulder. "My friend—and enemy," he said, "if that is so—I'm sorry for you."
 There was a tense air of expectation amongst the little company of men who filed into one of the smaller lecture rooms attached to the Government building. Two long tables were arranged with sixty or seventy chairs and a great hallot box was placed in front of the speaker. The speaker, a man of about thirty, entered the room and took his place. The Right Honourable John Weavel, a Privy Councillor, Member of Parliament and Chairman of the Iron-masters' Union. Darterey and Tallente appeared together. Miller sprang at once to his feet and addressed the chairman.
 "Mr. Chairman," he said, "I call attention to the fact that the honorary members of this company are present. I submit that as these honorary members have no vote and the present meeting is called to form a Democratic Government, honorary members be not admitted."
 Mr. Weavel shook his head. "Honorary members have the right to attend all meetings of our society," he pronounced. "They can even speak, if invited to do so by the chairman for the day. I am sure indeed to welcome Mr. Darterey and Mr. Tallente."
 There was a murmur of approval in one or two cases little dubious. Darterey smiled a greeting at Weavel. "I have asked Mr. Tallente to accompany me," he explained, "because in face of the great issues by which the party to which we all belong is confronted, some question might arise on to-day's proceedings which would render his presence advisable. He does not wish to address you. I, however, with the chairman's permission, before you go to the vote would like to say a few words."
 "I submit, Mr. Chairman," he said arrogantly, "that when I have the privilege of being elected last April no honorary member was present or allowed to speak."
 Mr. Weavel rose to his feet. "Gentlemen," he said, "you know what this meeting is. It is a meeting of fifty-seven representatives of the various trades unions of the country, to elect a single representative to take the chair whenever meetings of this company shall be necessary. This gathering does not exist as a

LITTLE ROSEBUD
 The red Rosebud nestled close up to her grown-up cousin, wondering what was to happen to her, for the naughty cousins turned their pretty faces away from little bud. "She is so small," said one; "I don't think she will ever bloom."
 "Yes," said another, "it is too bad she does not drop off the bush. She quite spoils our beauty! But perhaps some of the leaves will blow over her and she will not be seen."
 "The gardener will be sure to cut her off and toss her into the rubbish heap when he comes along," said another. "It is strange that such a little bud should be on the same bush with such beauties as these."
 "And so you see poor little Rosebud was made quite unhappy by her cousins and was wondering what would be her fate, when along came some one with shears and clipped off not only the handsome cousin roses but little Rosebud as well."
 Then they were all put into a box and again Rosebud snuggled closely to the naughty roses, wondering what was to happen to her. What would be her fate, when along came a sweet voice said, "What beautiful roses! And how sweet they are!"
 "She doesn't mean me, of course," thought little Rosebud, peeping up at a pretty face bent over the box. "It's my cousins she thinks 'looking' in my heart when the years bring them to my face, just as dear grandmother has done."

Soap that soaks clothes clean

different from anything you have ever used before

Rinso is an entirely new kind of soap, every granule made of pure materials perfectly combined.

Just by soaking, in its big lasting suds, the most ground-in dirt is gently loosened and dissolved. Only the very dirtiest places need be rubbed at all.

NOTE: In hard water it takes from 1 to 2 packages of Rinso in a tub to make good suds. In soft water you need only one package. Rinso is a tub to get the best suds that lather all the day.

CAMERAMEN HERE TO FILM SCENERY OF ISLAND CHARM

Pathoscope Representative, and Dominion Representative Take Pictures

W. B. Robinson, cameraman of the publicity department of the Canadian National Railways, and W. C. Brennan, Pathoscope representative, with their machines, arrived in Victoria yesterday to shoot pictures of the city and the Cowichan Lake line of the C.N.R.

The photographers visited Beacon Hill, the Gorge, the auto tourist camp at Curtis Point, Butchart's Gardens and Hatley Park, by special permission. In these places they "shot" their scenes, and got some of the most beautiful scenery on the island filmed. Mr. Robinson's films will be used for publicity purposes, and the Pathoscope pictures will go on the theatrical screen, it is believed. The cameramen will take scenes along the Canadian National Railway line, as far as Cowichan Lake, to-day.

The C.N.R. grade from this city to Cowichan Lake, is one of the most picturesque railways in existence. The forest country, rivers, gorges, canyons, mountains and the matchless beauty of the Vancouver Island scenery, which is far famed, generally, will give ample material for the photographers. The railroad itself, is worthy of note to the government photographer, for it is one of the few Canadian steel railways which is graded so well. The grade is never

SEEKS BOW AND ARROW MATERIAL

Harry Grey, Representative of Southern Firm, Wants Yew Trees

According to Harry Grey, Los Angeles representative of the Oakland Archers' Guild, saplings of the yew tree six feet long and from three to four inches in diameter will be purchased by that body for prices ranging from $10 to $15. Mr. Grey is registered at Cadboro Beach Hotel, where he is hoping to get in touch with owners of yew trees. His firm will take immediately twenty yew logs if they can be produced to meet heavy demands for bows and arrows for archery clubs in the South. The trade, a little known one here, annually has a large output with the archery clubs throughout the United States for a market. Yew trees are scarce, says Mr. Grey, and this mission has sent him travelling over a wide territory in search of the valuable wood.

RETURNED MEN TAKE MUCH INSURANCE

Scheme For State Insurance of Soldiers Proves Popular, Winding up

Returned soldier insurance to the extent of $500,000 has been the record for the month of the local office of the S.C.R., according to W. C. Warren, the official in charge of this work. The final day upon which applications were received is September 1. The call from the authorities to all returned men who desired the state insurance met with such good response here that the office has been flooded with applications in the past few days. From Victoria alone $275,000 in insurance has been written, while in all $2,100,000 is the total for the local office since the scheme was put in operation. Saturday is the last day for the reception of applications. The scheme is wide and all embracing. It will permit of soldiers who served in any branch of the Canadian forces at home or abroad. Full details may be obtained from Mr. Warren.

W. H. FARLEY TO SPEAK HERE ON TUESDAY

All arrangements have been completed for the Retail Merchants' Association meeting at 8.15 p.m. on Tuesday, when W. H. Farley will address the merchants of the city at the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Farley will discuss questions of vital interest to merchants. He will explain how co-operation and organization make for better business. He will describe how service can increase trade. He will discuss the need and value of training salespeople—one of the most talked-of subjects in the merchandising world to-day.

"We were so impressed with Mr. Farley's talks that we gathered a party of our executives and made a round trip of 150 miles to Stockton the following evening to hear Mr. Farley again," writes A. O. Donogh, a leading merchant of Berkeley, California. "We were well paid for the trip."

MOTOR CYCLING HILL CLIMBING CONTEST MONDAY

As part of the programme at the Native Sons' sport day, Labor Day, at Mount Douglas park, a motorcycle hillclimb will be held. The events will consist of training sessions. Prizes have been donated by various dealers interested in motorcycles and accessories, and a good afternoon's sport is looked for. Three events will be staged, a 27, 61 and an 80 free-for-all. The numbers stand for the sizes of engines. Officials from the Broom City Motorcycle Club will have charge. The machine reaching the highest point on the hill in each event will be the winner. The various motorcycle dealers are busy preparing machines and riders for the test, and there will certainly be close competition between the Harley and the Indian camps. Porter, Miles and Dieks will star for the Indian boys, while Bob Shanks will look after the Harley-Davidson interests. A. Hubbard and Harry Hub-

LLOYD GEORGE NOT LIKELY TO COME TO VICTORIA THIS YEAR

Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George probably will be unable to come to Victoria this year, according to a letter received at the City Hall yesterday afternoon from the former British Premier's secretary. In this letter Mr. Lloyd George's secretary says: "Mr. Lloyd George has asked me to acknowledge the receipt of your cable and to express his warmest thanks to the citizens of Victoria for their hearty invitation. Mr. Lloyd George has not yet made up his itinerary, and he doubts if time will permit of his visiting British Columbia; but if he finds it possible to do so he will certainly give this invitation his very careful consideration."
