

(15) Only received one letter, though I have reason to believe a good many were sent. Received three parcels opened in my presence. Nothing was removed.

- (16) October 1st. Exchanged.
Left for Flushing via Aachen and Antwerp.
Luxurious.
(17) Nil.

(1) Bell, Thomas, Private, No. 1848. 6th Scots Rifles.

- (2) 45, Hall Street, Blantyre, Scotland.
(3) La Bassee. 15th June 1915.
(4) Shot through right knee.
(5) Taken to field hospital. Preliminary operation performed under anæsthetic. Kindly treated.
(6) No. 3 field hospital, France.
(7) Three days.
Ambulance train.
(8) Neutral.
(9) Food good. Four meals a day.
(10) Did not see any German Red Cross.
(11) 18th June 1915; remaining about three weeks.
(12)—(a) Good.
(b) No nurses.
(c) Indifferent.
(d) Bad in quality and not enough in quantity.
Four meals a day.
(e) Bad waterclosets, &c., in filthy condition.
French treated better than English. Germans continually abused English, including informant,

(1) Bell, Thomas, Private, No. 1848. 6th Scots Rifles.

- (2) 45, Hall Street, Blantyre.
(3) }
(4) } Vide sheet 1 (No. 3, Field Hospital, France).
(5) }
(6) Mulheim.
(7) Eighteen hours journey.
Red Cross train.
(8) Well treated on journey.
(9) Good. Four meals during the 18 hours.
(10) Good.
(11) 1st July 1915 to 2nd October 1915.
(12)—(a) Good.
(b) None.
(c) Good.
(d) Good, except on Thursdays, Saturdays, and Mondays.
(e) Good.
English not treated as kindly as other nationalities, being subjected to abuse, assaults, and petty annoyances.

(1) Healy, Michael, No. 6041. 2nd Batt. Royal Munster Fusiliers.

- (2) Knocheane, Newcastle West, Co. Limerick.
(3) Etreux, 27th August 1914.
(4) Shrapnel wound in left hand. Bullet wound in right upper arm.
(5) Dressed by English at field dressing station which was taken by Germans.
(6) Hannover Hospital.
(7) Three days and four nights.
Coal truck of train.
(8)—(a) Badly. Little food. No ill-treatment but much abuse. (b) None seen.
(9) One slice of black bread on second day.
Bottle of water among eight or nine for two days.
(10) Good.
(11) 19th September 1914 to 19th January 1915.

(1) Lee Henry William, No. 2451. 13th London (T.).

- (2) 1, Barrett Street, Oxford Street, London, W.

(18) This informant, a lad of 20, had a very attractive personality and was more brave and cheerful than I believed under the circumstances to be possible. He was in my opinion above the average in point of intelligence; he gave me his statements without a trace of bitterness, and I consider him an eminently reliable witness.

EDGAR FOA.

calling the latter a swine and more than once kicking him on his unwounded leg.

(13) Does not know name of any of the doctors. Very cruel to informant and to English generally.

None.

(14) Nightshirt supplied, changed once a week. Straw mattress with two blankets in a cotton bag for covering. Cotton bag never changed and bed stinking.

(15) Informant was given permission to send one post card only, which he did, it was never received in England.

(16) 29th (?) June 1915.

To the Mulheim hospital, arriving there on 1st July 1915. Eighteen hours journey by Red Cross train.

Well treated on journey.

(17) Nil.

(18) Intelligent, happy disposition, high spirited, fairly reliable but not certain as to dates, inclined to attribute to one hospital events that occurred (according to subsequent recollection) at the other.

SAML. H. EMANUEL.

(13) Does not know names. Treatment humane. Right leg amputated under anæsthetic.

(14) Suit of clothes and set of underwear when coming back to England.

Night shirt and good bed linen.

Changed once a week.

(15) Rules permitted informant to send two letters and four post cards per month. All he sent were received in England. Received letters, but only one parcel, the contents of which had been stolen. Many were sent in some of which money had been enclosed, but nothing was received except the empty parcel above mentioned and one sum of 2s.

(16) 2nd October 1915.

To England.

Four days journey, for two of which informant was detained in a hospital, name unknown, for medical inspection.

Excellent treatment on journey home.

(17) Nil.

(18) Vide previous answer.

SAML. H. EMANUEL.

(12)—(a) } Good.
(b) }

(c) Good. Regular hospital.

(d) Good. Four meals a day.

(e) Good.

No.

(13) Name not known.

Humane.

To left wrist. Injection made in arm.

(14) Yes.

Hospital dress, underlinen and bed linen.

Underlinen and bed clothes changed every week.

(15) Letters received regularly and one parcel opened by informant in presence of German official.

(16) 19th January 1915.

Limburg. 24 hours.

Good. Sandwiches provided and coffee.

(17) Nil.

(18) Intelligent and reliable.

ARTHUR L. B. THESIGER.

(3) Heerbeck (five miles from Fleurbaix), 9th May 1915.

(4) Bullet wound. Left thigh fractured.

A 2

4.
5.

- (5) None.
 (6) Valenciennes.
 (7) 10 hours.
 Passenger compartment with sacks of straw. At Lille put in Red Cross train.
 (8)—(a) Very well. (b) None seen.
 (9) Cup of soup once.
 (10) Quite good.
 (11) 12th May to 23rd June 1915.
 (12) Germans took over from French Red Cross on 20th May.
 (a) Very good.
 (b) Only orderlies—no complaints.
 (c) Training college for ladies converted to hospital, 50 beds.
 (d) } Very good.
 (e) }
 No.

- (1) Lee, Henry William, No. 2451. 13th London Regiment.
 (2) 1, Barrett Street, Oxford Street, London, W.
 (3) Heerbeck, 9th May 1915.
 (4) Bullet wound. Left thigh fractured.
 (5) Nil.
 (6) 2nd hospital, Hannover.
 (7) Two days.
 Passenger carriage with wooden seat 1st day, Red Cross train 2nd day.
 (8)—(a) Good. (b) No complaint.
 (9) Not for first 24 hours. Then soup, coffee and cheese sandwich.
 (10) Good.
 (11) 25th June to 1st October 1915.
 (12)—(a) Good.
 (b) Orderlies—good.
 (c) Regular hospital. Comfortable.

- (1) McGuire, Terence Hubert, No. 9392. 2nd Batt. Royal Irish Regiment.
 (2) 34, Schofield Street, Heywood, Lancs.
 (3) Bertry, 26th August 1914.
 (4) Both legs and left wrist—shrapnel wounds. Left wrist broken.
 (5) Yes; at French field dressing station which was taken by Germans on 27th August.
 (6) Duisburg—(1) St. Vincents and (2) Diakonen.
 (7) 58 hours. Started 7th September.
 Train—passenger carriage.
 (8)—(a) No food or drink, or dressing. Abused.
 (b) At stations crowd collected, abused and spat at prisoners.
 (9) One pear was thrown at prisoner by a Red Cross man, but fell on the floor where he could not reach it.
 (10) Satisfactory.
 (11) 11th September till 27th November at St. Vincent's Hospital, Duisburg.

- (1) McGuire, Terence Hubert, No. 9392. 2nd Batt. Royal Irish Regiment.
 (2) 34, Schofield Street, Heywood, Lancs.
 (3) Bertry, 26th August 1914.
 (4) Shrapnel wound to both legs and left wrist broken.
 (5) Nil.
 (6)—(2) Diakonen Hospital, Duisburg.
 (7) }
 (8) } See sheet as to 1st hospital, St. Vincents,
 (9) } Duisberg.
 (10) }
 (11) 27th November 1914 to 17th June 1915.
 (12)—(a) } Good.
 (b) }

- (13) Dr. Werz and another (name not known). Humane.
 No.
 (14) Khaki suit supplied on leaving and civilian cap.
 Under linen—bed linen.
 Weekly.
 (15) Sent letter weekly to England, but none received there, so none could be sent to informant.
 (16) 23rd June 1915.
 Hannover hospital. Two days.
 Had been in bed till then. Had to lie on wooden seat with one blanket underneath till reached Aachen. Leg in iron case; great pain caused to back. At Aachen put in Red Cross train. No food supplied till Aachen 24 hours.
 (17) Nil.
 (18) Quite intelligent and reliable.

ARTHUR L. B. THESIGER.

- (d) Fair. Loaf of bread and small pat of butter lasted all day. Meat very seldom. Insufficient.
 (e) Very good.
 French favoured in comparison with English.
 (13) Dr. Pickels (civil), three military doctors. Humane.
 No.
 (14) None except clogs.
 Only very thin hospital clothes, so had to stay indoors on very cold days.
 Bed linen once a fortnight.
 (15) Received regularly. Letters opened before receipt. Parcels opened by informant in presence of German corporal.
 (16) 1 October 1915.
 Aachen one day. Left 6th October for England.
 Very good.
 (17) Nil.
 (18) Quite intelligent and reliable

ARTHUR L. B. THESIGER.

- (12)—(a) } Good.
 (b) }
 (c) Bed in ward of ordinary hospital.
 (d) Good—five meals a day.
 (e) Very good.
 Only English there.
 (13) Names not known. Quite humane.
 To wrist, under chloroform.
 (14) In bed, none required.
 Had bed linen.
 Whenever necessary.
 (15) Letters and parcels received regularly. Opened by German official in presence of prisoner.
 No.
 (16) 27th November 1914.
 To Diakonen Hospital, Duisburg. 10 minutes in motor omnibus.
 (17) Nil.
 (18) Most intelligent and seemed quite reliable.

ARTHUR L. B. THESIGER.

- (c) "Brother house." Training institute for ministry.
 (d) } Good.
 (e) }
 British and French there. British at first separated and mixed with French. Treatment of British and French the same, but French called "kamerad," and British "swine."
 (13) Dr. Klein and Dr. Knap. Both humane.
 Two pieces of bone extracted from wrist. No anæsthetic necessary.
 (14) Yes, French uniform.
 Under-linen and bed linen.
 Both changed weekly.