882.0.0 47 A VIEW ON THE ZUYDER ZEE, with the fortress of Naarden in the distance, represented under the aspect of a fresh breeze. The principal object which meets the eye is a Dutch coaster, with eleven sailors on board, several of whom are engaged putting packages into a boat lying alongside of it, in which are three men; beyond these are two fishing boats with dark sails; a few other vessels, at various distances, are also in view; the tower of the church, and some of the principal buildings of the fortress, are faintly perceptible in the distance

It would be impossible to adduce a more exquisitely painted or beautiful example of the master than this presents.

49 PEASANTS WITH CATTLE FORDING A RIVER. This delightful picture represents a fertile country with a broad river flowing obliquely through it, the farther bank of which is adorned with clumps of lofty umbrageous trees. On the left are a herd of cows and a number of sheep, the greater part of which have entered the river and are followed by two women, one of whom is mounted on an ass, the other is on foot, carrying a kid under her arm, the dam of which is by her side; with these are also a herdsman and a boy, the latter driving before him a goat and two sheep, and the former stands leaning on a staff near two fine cows; a peasant on an ass, conversing with a man on foot, are on the farther margin of the river, and beyond the trees are seen a number of cattle distributed over the meadows; and besides these, there is, at some distance off, a second party, with cattle just entering the stream; the appearance is that of a fine autumnal morning.

125 LA CHASSE AUX CANARD. A landscape chiefly composed of barren sand hills, with a tree on the right and in front a large pond, at the farther side of which, under a hill, is a man shooting at some ducks; and on this side of it stands a cart which a man is loading with sand; further towards the left are a sorrel horse and its rider, who has dismounted and is stooping down to fasten his shoe; and beyond them a man on horseback, another man and a boy on foot, several other figures and a led horse

127 A LANDSCAPE, composed, on the right, of a high hill of a yellow sandy soil and of a broken and picturesque form, surmounted by the decayed trunks of two old trees, and varied by a few stunted shrubs and tufts of long grass; upon a high road on the opposite side is a gentleman on horseback approaching; the receding view presents a continuity of dunes. Painted in the artist's finished manner
