Bureau will note that the enclosed article infers that there is a connection between the two murders that recently occurred in San Francisco, Calif., and "the Syndicate" or "Cosa Nostra". Chief of Police THOMAS CAHILL, Chief Deputy AL NELDER and THOMAS FITZPATRICK, Director, Bureau of Special Services and Intelligent Unit, all San Francisco, PD, this date advised Supervisor RAY MADRESS that investigation conducted on the murders of JOHN KENI CARTER and WILLIAM E. THOMAS has to date developed no evidence they are related. Further, their investigation, as well as contacts with their sources, has developed no information that there is any connection with either the murders on narcotics activitie in this area with the LCN. Director FITZPATRICK expressed the opinion that that portion of the article appearing in the "Chronicle" pertaining to a connection between the murders and the LCN or "the Syndicate" was "a pipe dream" of the reporter and merely sensationalism for the purpose of selling the newspap DANIEL CASEY, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Narcotics Bureau, San Francisco, this date advised that he was very perturbed with the enclosed article. He noted that his agency has developed absolutely no information showing any connection between the LCN and narcotics traffic in the State of Calif.
