Britain's Admiralty and Air Ministers Notify Cabinet of Willingness to Support Commander Dennis Burney's Imperial Scheme.

London, June 15.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Commander Dennis Burney's scheme of an imperial airship service from the United Kingdom and Australia has brighter prospects now than at first, as the Admiralty and Air Ministers have notified the Cabinet of their willingness to support it.

Seven-Day Flight.

The airline plans of Commander Burney are for a three-day trip in India and a seven-day flight to Australia, including stops of six hours each in Egypt and at Rangoon and Singapore. The firm of Vickers and the Shell Oil Company are interested in the scheme and the proposed capital is four million sterling. It is proposed that the airship carriage will have all the facilities of transcontinental trains and a good deal more space with sleeping cabins, restaurants, smoking rooms and other conveniences.

DELORME NOW ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Sanity of Prisoner Considered at Opening of Case

Montreal, June 15.—The mother of Adelard Delorme, whose trial for the murder of his half-brother, Raoul, began in the court of King's Bench before Mr. Justice Monahan this morning, was discharged from an asylum three days before her death, one of her sisters, and the accused, who was also committed to an asylum, while a third sister although now living at home, was ordered to be committed to an asylum. It was brought out when the question of the sanity of the prisoner was being considered at the opening of the case. Records from the St. Jean de Dieu Asylum, which date back to the jury trial dating back forty years to show the extent and spread of insanity in the Delorme family, both on the mother's and father's side.

Prisoner Indifferent.
Adelard Delorme was brought to the court house to stand trial for the murder of his half-brother, Raoul, this morning from Bordeaux jail and given a seat just outside the cells adjoining the police court.

The former convict's action was one of absolute indifference. Every precaution was taken to keep the crowds out of the court room and a double guard was stationed at all entrances.

NOTED ASTRONOMER TO SPEAK HERE

Canadian Party to Leave on Solar Eclipse Expedition Shortly

Professor C. A. Chant, University of Toronto, will address the local branch of the Royal Astronomical Society at a luncheon to be given at the Hotel Vancouver, to-morrow, the function to commence at 12.15 p.m. The subject of the luncheon address will be the forthcoming preparations in connection with observation of the solar eclipse on September 21.

Professor and Mrs. Chant, with their daughter arrived by the afternoon boat from Vancouver to-day, and will join the Canadian Astronomical Society at the Antipodes this week.

The total eclipse of the sun occurring this year is occasioning widespread interest in astronomical and all scientific circles, not only on account of the rarity of the spectacle itself, but by reason of the fact that it will be the first severest test of the Einstein theory of relativity.

Astronomers of note from all corners of the world will go to the points of observation, including the Hawaiian Islands, Christmas Islands, Northwestern Australia, on the Ninety Mile Beach, and points in southeastern Queensland. The eclipse is not visible east of New Zealand.

The astronomical parties will be on the field early, some as early as two months in advance of the phenomenon, so that photographic plates of the heavens may be prepared to serve as a check later in the actual passing of the eclipse.

The Canadian party includes Professor Chant and Dr. R. K. Young, the latter attached to the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory staff here. Representatives of the leading observatories of all countries in the world plan to be in the field to note the eclipse, which this year, it is said, will present unusual opportunities for study.

They will observe at Walla, on the northwest coast of Western Australia.

DIED AFTER LYING DAYS IN PASTURE

Saskatoon, June 15.—Sick and helpless, John Broyles, prominent farmer of Flak, Sask., lay in his own pasture for two days before he was found. He was rushed to Rosetown hospital, where he died on Sunday morning. It became known here to-day that the cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage. A neighbor, Stonehouse, went to warn Broyles that his cattle were at large in the grain fields and found him lying in a shallow hole.

Mayor Says Jay's Sunday Decisions Must Be Challenged

Magistrate Jay's dismissal of charges under the Lord's Day Act must be challenged "in the interests of law enforcement," either by the Police Commission or other persons, Mayor William Marchant announced in a telegram to The Times from Calgary late this afternoon.

The Mayor says that Magistrate Jay's dismissal of charges for infractions of the Lord's Day Act involve "grave constitutional issues. There is direct conflict with established Canadian precedents and Privy Council judgments," he adds. "The decision must be challenged in the interests of law enforcement whether so done by the Police Commission or other persons."

ODD FELLOWS CHOOSE ROYAL CITY IN 1923

Grand Lodge Will Close Proceedings Here To-day

New Lodges Authorized by Convention

New Westminster was this morning selected by the Grand Lodge, in session here, for the 1923 proceedings, winning over Prince Rupert, the only other invitation laid before the Convention.

Charter for a subordinate lodge was issued to Fort Haney, organized during the past year, and for Rebekah Lodges at Smithers, Abbotford and Kerrisdale. An application from Terrace was held over to next year on grounds of irregularity, but it is probable that the lodge will be instituted during the year under dispensation.

A deputation from the Rebekah Assembly in session here, composed of Sisters Crooks, President, and Past Presidents Mrs. Taft and Mrs. J. A. Grant, of Victoria, presented greetings, which were responded to by Grand Master Judge Swanson. Addresses by Fraternal delegates featured the session this morning. William McBride, of Paskatechewan, and M. Saunders, of Alberta, being the speakers at Fort Haney. Grand Master Tully, of Alberta, also addressed the delegates.

Amendments to the constitution are being considered this afternoon, and it is expected that the installation of the new officers and adjournment will take place to-morrow.

A.; Duncan Cameron, M. L. A.; W. H. Trueman, C. F. H. D.; Cutler, Arnie Egerton, S. R. Laird; W. R. Milton, A. L. Maclean and Dr. J. A. McTavish.

UNEMPLOYED IN GREAT BRITAIN

Eighty-five Millions Sterling Paid in Benefits Provision for Further Fifty-one Millions, Says McNamara

London, June 15.—(Canadian Press Cable)—In the course of his reply to a deputation of unemployed, from Hackney, Hon. T. J. McNamara, Minister of Labor, said the total of unemployment benefit paid since November 1920, amount to £85,000,000 sterling and provision had been made for the payment, if necessary, of a further £51,000,000 between now and July, 1923.

Mr. McNamara pointed out that at the present time there are 1,440,000 wholly unemployed in Great Britain and 109,000 on short time, compared with 1,800,000 and 300,000 respectively at the beginning of the year.

The Hague, June 15.—The first business session of the Permanent Court of International Justice began here this morning. Sir Ernest Pollock, Attorney-General for Great Britain, delivered an address commending the international efforts of nations to settle their differences just as individuals do in court.

Thursday, June 22, was set as the day when the Court will begin consideration of the two questions referred to it by the League of Nations, namely, whether the Dutch workers' delegate at the Third Internationale labor conference was nominated in accordance with the Treaty of Versailles and whether the international labor bureau is competent to deal with agricultural and labor questions.

The extensive British delegation includes special representatives from the Dominions as follows:

Canada—Sir Charles B. Gordon and E. Monpetit.

TRAPPER IS VICTIM OF ENRAGED GRIZZLY

Livingston, Mont., June 15.—One grizzly and a dog partially chewed off, when the head and torso clawed and lacerated, the body of Joseph Duret, aged 55, was found near Yellowstone National Park yesterday. Park rangers are trailing the huge grizzly bear which, according to investigators, killed Duret after breaking loose from a trap set by the grizzly's victim.

Horace M. Albright, superintendent of Yellowstone Park, said that the grizzly tracks were the largest ever seen by park rangers. Pieces of hair and flesh, remnants of the bear trap and a rifle, chewed and clawed, were found at the place where the conflict between man and bear took place.

NEW POLITICAL PARTY IN INDIA

"The National Party" Led by Sir P. S. Sivaswami Tyer Favors India as Integral Part of Empire

Delhi, India, June 15.—A new political party, calling itself "The National Party," has been organized in the Indian Legislature to give impetus to the ideas of the Indian Moderates. Under the leadership of Sir P. S. Sivaswami Tyer, it is seeking to extend its organization into the provinces and districts.

The new party stands for "The attainment by constitutional methods of full responsible government in India as an integral part of the British Empire." It is opposed to the one-handed to those British interests which are seeking to prevent the attainment of self-government by India, and on the other hand to the aims of extremist Indians who are seeking to make India an independent republic and who do not limit themselves to constitutional methods.

APPROVES POLICY OF FEDERAL AID

Good Roads Convention Affirms Principle Adopts Policy on Road Construction Effort

At the meeting of the Canadian Good Roads Association this morning the association reaffirmed its approval of the principle of Federal Aid, the provinces having undertaken comprehensive road policies because of Federal Aid. This is recommended because "improved roads are a great national asset, and are of great importance to Canada," says the report.

The report of the resolutions committee read by Secretary McNamara and unanimously adopted by the delegates present at the convention here, included a resolution asking the Canadian Association of Ottawa to memorialize the Federal and Provincial Governments in that there is great need for the carrying on of research work regarding road-building materials, road construction and similar subjects.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IS ADOPTED IN ENGLAND

London, June 15.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The House of Commons passed the Summer Time Bill last night by a vote of 207 to 28. The Bill brings Great Britain into line with other European countries in permanently daylight saving.

DOMINION REVENUES SLIGHTLY DECREASED

Drop Shown in First Two Months of Fiscal Year Income Tax Largest Source of Revenue

Ottawa, June 15.—(Canadian Press)—During the first two months of the fiscal year, April and May, the Dominion revenues have fallen slightly and the expenditures have increased as compared with the corresponding period of last year. This is shown by the financial statement for the end of May, as issued by the Finance Department.

The revenue for the two months was $81,835,000 as against $83,420,000 for the same two months of 1921, while the expenditures totaled $46,901,000 as against $42,767,000.

The largest source of revenue during the two months under review was the income tax, the figure being $38,011,000 as against $39,566,000 for April and May, 1921. The second position was occupied by customs taxation with $19,551,000 as against $19,828,000 last year. The sales and related taxes came third with $10,371,000 as against $11,312,000.

By far the largest item in expenditure was the payment of interest on the public debt, accounting for $34,977,000 out of the total of $46,901,000. Last year in these two months interest on debt accounted for $31,548,000 out of the total expenditure of $42,767,000.

These figures have to do with current expenditures only. In addition there was $147,000 expended on capital account as compared with $82,000 for the corresponding period of 1921.

The net debt at the end of May was $2,390,000,000.

REDUCTION IN DISCOUNT RATE

Bank of England Lowers Rate to 3½ Per Cent.

London, June 15.—The Bank of England to-day lowered its discount rate to three and a half per cent, a reduction of one-half per cent from the figures established on May 13 last.

The Bank again took Lombard Street by surprise in making this reduction to the official minimum rate. Its action is believed to have been largely taken through a desire to bring the rate more in line with the short loan market, which recently has had large funds unemployed at from one to two per cent, while the bank rate was four per cent.

Treasury bills were also available at easier rates, and as conditions in the United States were easier, the retention of so high an official rate here was regarded as unwarranted.

Another reason given for the change is that the authorities wish to assist the new Indian loan of £12,500,000 which is being floated. The reduction was welcomed by the traders who felt that coming as it did just when trade was picking up it would considerably assist expansion.

It is anticipated that the deposit rate of the banks will be reduced in accordance with the lower minimum.

BOYS ROB GAS STATION

Vancouver, June 15.—Ordering Miss Gladys Murphy, the attendant, into a small room and closing the door, two boys rifled the till of the Imperial Oil Company's gas station at the corner of Granville and Broadway last night and fled with about $25.

Premier Drury told how Ontario is capitalizing a part of the motor license fees which come in yearly to build a highway system which will be of service to the people of to-day as well as the future.

He explained that out of the $4,000,000 of motor license receipts a year in Ontario $2,000,000 a year is being set aside to be capitalized over twenty years to provide funds for the immediate building of necessary roads. The other $2,000,000 a year of motor licenses is being used for maintenance.

WIFE COMMITS HER HUSBAND TO JAIL

Chicago, June 15.—Acting as judge and jury in Judge M. L. McKinley's court yesterday, a wife sentenced her husband, Lee Hauser, to nine months' imprisonment.

The judge had previously offered to free the husband if Mrs. Hauser would vouch that he would pay back money obtained on cheques which he pleaded he had been forced to cash to buy the modish apparel which his wife demanded.

"He said he had money when he married you, but that as soon as the money was gone you quit loving him," remarked the court to Mrs. Hauser.

"Certainly," she replied. "Where there's no money there's no love. Put him in jail."

The judge put him there.

PEERS MUCH PREFER PRESENT ISOLATION

Peereesses Apparently Not Dissatisfied in Upper Chamber

London, June 15.—Rt. Hon. Austen Chamberlain, the Government leader, was asked in the House of Commons yesterday by Mrs. Margaret Wetherington, member for Louth, Lincolnshire, when the Government intended to introduce a bill to enable peereesses to sit and vote in the House of Lords.

Mr. Chamberlain replied that he believed the Lords, if such a bill were presented to them, would adhere to their previous decisions and refuse peereesses the right to sit. He therefore felt unjustified to introduce legislation which would have no chance of succeeding.

Questioned further as to whether the matter will be dealt with in connection with the reform of the House of Lords, Mr. Chamberlain said obviously the reform proposals would raise the point as to whether women would be eligible.

AGREEMENT IS NEAR ON MEXICAN DEBT

Plan for Readjustment May Result from Conferences

New York, June 15.—Financial circles were optimistic last night over the prospect of a plan for the readjustment of the Mexican external debt resulting from the conferences between Finance Minister De la Huerta and the combination of bankers of Mexico, which are to be resumed to-day.

The sharp rise of Mexican bonds, led by the seven-point gain of four per cent, was generally taken as an indication that an agreement between the financiers of Europe and the United States and the Mexican government representatives is near.

Referring to the problems of Russia and Siberia, Premier Kato said: "We deeply sympathize with the Russians in their sufferings and privations, and we hope they may speedily realize much needed relief. The Japanese Cabinet will endeavor to bring about an expeditious and amicable adjustment of the problems relating to Siberia."

The Premier, outlining the Cabinet policy regarding China, which with the remainder of his statement had been carefully considered by the Cabinet before being made public, asserted it was Japan's earnest hope that China soon may emerge from the unfortunate internal conditions now obtaining and quickly achieve tranquility and unity by the efforts of her own people.

"In China's welfare Japan is interested, not only sentimentally, but also materially," Premier Kato continued. "The welfare of Japan, to a considerable measure, is dependent on the peace and prosperity of her great neighbor."

"The principles of concord and co-operation, which were promoted by the powers at Washington, especially in regard to Japan, are fundamental policies for China," he concluded.

An Important Step.
"Good roads are not simply a means of pleasure," the Premier went on. "They are the first and most important step in our means of transportation. Roads are again taking their place as the most important factor in the transportation of the people. Governments can do good work and serve their day and generation by helping along the means of providing transportation for the people."

"We see the influence roads have on every phase of a people's life, social, commercial, educational and

Eyes of World Are Now Centered Upon The Hague Parley

Great Powers To-day Resume Discussions Abandoned At Genoa; New Conference Dedicated Chiefly to Problems of Russia; Dutch Foreign Minister Welcomes Delegates.

The Hague, June 15.—The economic rehabilitation of Europe and the re-establishment of Russia in the family of nations were before the world again to-day as the principal powers resumed the discussions abandoned at Genoa a month ago.

All Europe centred its hopes to-day in the new Conference, which is dedicated principally to the problem of Russia. Failure of the efforts at Paris to organize an international loan for Germany undoubtedly has served to augment the pessimism obtaining in many quarters concerning the prospects of the present gathering in making definite agreements with soviet Russia on such vital matters as credits, the treatment to be accorded to property held by foreigners and the payment of the Russian debts. Nevertheless determination was evident among the delegates gathered for the preliminary meetings to make every effort to accomplish the results which the Genoa Conference failed to achieve.

The representatives of the principal countries, except Russia, assembled in the Peace Palace at 3.30 this afternoon and there began their labors of studying the programme which will be presented to the Russian delegation at the joint meetings to open on June 26.

Foreign Minister Van Kattenbeker of Holland delivered the opening address as temporary president, welcoming the delegates and expressing his desire to accomplish the results which the Genoa Conference failed to achieve.

COALWAST WEDGE FETTERED IN NORWAY

Cabinet Allied Politically and Supported by Party

Christiania, June 15.—The King of Norway as chief executive; the Cabinet, and the Radical Party of Premier Blehr are to-day all closely allied politically and supported by the Communist Party, a group generally credited with taking orders from the Third Internationale at Moscow.

It is doubtful if the Communists are supporting the Cabinet for nothing. They are believed to have made their terms, and as a result certain elements here expect to see further legislation along Communist lines.

Taxation Burdensome. The government to-day is taking an active part in various trades and industries which formerly were privately owned. The tendency is to "socialize" everything. The burden of taxation is becoming heavier and heavier, and the end is not yet.

The Communist Party—it was until recently known as the Socialist Party—is said to have accepted Bolshevik doctrines, and is believed in certain quarters to be working for the overthrow of the present government of Norway and the establishment of a dictatorship on the Russian model.

Prohibition Movement. The recent efforts to secure national prohibition in Norway aroused opposition in Spain and Portugal, producers of wine, who in retaliation refused to buy Norwegian fish.

The Radical and Conservative Parties proposed a combination, but split on the question of national prohibition. Seeking another combination the Radicals came together with the Communists and the latter agreed to forego their opposition to a proposed measure of compulsory arbitration in labor disputes.

The radical opposition of the Communists to the arbitration measure was based in the belief that enactment would shift power from the labor organizations to the arbitration court. There is here, as elsewhere, an effort to reduce wages to a pre-war basis, and the Communists have been considering a strike of protest.

SAYS ST. LAWRENCE PROJECT IS MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE

Ottawa, June 15.—Discussion of the St. Lawrence waterway was continued in the Senate yesterday by Senator Lynch-Staunton, who said that it was the most important issue, except the war, since Confederation.

One had only to examine the report of the International Joint Commission on the St. Lawrence waterway to be convinced that it was unworthy of consideration. It was based on inaccurate, unreliable and sketchy information. Both Quebec and Ontario had ample power for their needs, and we should not commit the country to the expenditure of more power than was needed, and the cost of transportation would not be reduced.

SOME MINISTERS ARE POORLY PAID

Atlantic City, June 15.—(By Canadian Press)—Fifty thousand ministers in the United States are receiving less than $300 a year, according to Rev. J. C. Sculler, secretary of Philadelphia, secretary of the Ministerial Relief of the United States Presbyterian Church, who addressed the conference of Church Secretaries of Ministerial Relief and Pensions, here recently.

Hodgson, Captain Erskine and Captain Hon. W. C. H. Pelliffe, left Ottawa yesterday for a tour of Western Canada. During the absence of Their Excellencies in Western Canada the visitors' book at Government House will be closed.

PREDICTS REDEMPTION OF CATTLE EMBARGO

Hon. Carrol Sees Canada Emerging With Flying Colors

Quebec, June 15.—"Although the optimistic hopes of the economists and politicians of Great Britain have been to a great extent shattered by the conclusions of the Genoa Conference, it is believed in the most thoughtful circles that much good may still come out of it, when the smoke of controversial disagreements have evaporated," said the Hon. Frank Carrol, proprietor of The Quebec Telegraph, who returned home, accompanied by Mrs. Carrol, on the Canadian Pacific Empress of Scotland.

"At present the world is suffering from a stagnant state of trade, which is accentuated to a dangerous degree in some of the European nations. If the latter are not supported with extended credits or financial aid the situation will lead to a most serious crisis within the late war and its after effects. This and the fact that the people who fought in the last great struggle are now in a period of bloodshed is bound to sober the common senses of the statesmen who gathered not to disagree, but agree, and aspirations, and means to straighten out the present condition of things in Russia and aid the world in righting itself. Great Britain, France may not have agreed on many debatable points, but both nations are well aware that they must exist as equals and aspirants, as they are, include the settlement of the unhealthy state of commerce and finance, not only existing in Europe but prevalent throughout the world."

Cattle Embargo. In regard to the cattle embargo he states that "this subject, you may say, is just now next to the Genoa Conference, the industry of Canada will see Canada come out with glowing colors. Too much credit for the present active campaign cannot be given to our new High Commissioner, the Hon. Mr. Larkin, Lord Beaverbrook and his newspaper, The Daily Express, as well as to Sir Campbell Stuart, another Canadian, holding a very influential position on the Times, which journal has lent a vigorous hand in giving full publicity to the unfair treatment of Canada. At present is now interested. The British Government, through one of its Ministers at the Imperial Conference, gave its word that the cattle embargo would be lifted after the war. The very thought of a British Government breaking faith with its most important overseas dominion is full assurance of Canada's coming success."

Trade Revival. "One of the best signs of trade revival in Great Britain is to be found among the manufacturers," said Carrol. "They are beginning to receive orders from abroad in greater volume than they have experienced since the war. All, however, agree that no permanent or pre-war business will be resumed until the credits and currency of Europe have been adjusted, and everyone seems hopeful of the future. Reports coming from Germany record great activity among the workmen, who are imbued with a patriotic desire to aid in restoring business to normal. This is stirring up the British laborers, who have lost much employment through strikes. Especially is this noticeable in the big shipyards, which have been idle for months, while British ships were being built or finished in Germany. This activity is rapidly recovering her trade relations with the world, and it is said her shipping is now approaching pre-war tonnage. The first four months of this year showed that she had recovered fifty per cent. of her export trade with Japan. Every visitor returning from Germany gives these pills a glowing testimonial to be seen on all sides. Life is normal in the large cities, where the theatres and hotels are crowded and the people well dressed and happy in appearance. A member of a large shipping firm in London stated a few days before our departure that there was an unusual amount of tonnage for raw material to German ports, and all their ships were now in commission. The demand had sent up the freight rates. Another firm announced that Germany had closed with them for the purchase of over 600,000 tons of iron ore in Canada."

P. O. Box 123, Parrsboro, N. S. "I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up. I tried medicines I was advertised, and was treated by doctors but the Rheumatism always came back. In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism and took a box, and got relief; then took 'Fruit-a-tives' right along for about six months and I have never felt my Rheumatism since."

People Well Dressed. "Sit in one of the big London parks on a fine holiday for an hour or two and watch the endless procession of people go by, and you can obtain a fair idea of the condition of the people. You see a very mixed crowd, but no one suffering or in abject poverty. All are exceptionally well dressed. There is no worn footwear, nor rich or lavish display of wealth or extravagance. The theatres with orchestra stalls seats at $2.50 to $7.50 are packed to the doors, and many are patiently waiting for hours at the side doors for the choice of unreserved seats."

TAXING THE TOURIST AT ITALIAN CAPITAL. Rome, June 15.—Seeking the money of the tourist in Rome, the municipality bethought itself of collecting from him a tax of 10 per cent. of his hotel bill, simply for the privilege of sojourning in the city. But there was violent opposition from the public in general and hotel-keepers in particular, with customary references to the killing of the goose that lays the golden egg, and the proposal, for the time being at any rate, has been abandoned. Already a tourist in Rome pays a tax, based on his hotel bill of 10 per cent. for service, supposed to be in place of tips, and a luxury tax of 7 per cent. to 12 per cent. The new tax would have made a third enforced contribution. Ten per cent. in the bill instead of tips does not work out very well. The tourist avers he has to tip anyway to get good service, and the servants say they do not by any means receive their share of the considerable sum produced by this levy. The hotels of Rome, closed during the war, are reopening, but progressive are complaining of excessive costs. They declare that before the war they could find a servant for 25 cents a day, and that now they must pay $3 for the same food. All this may be true, nevertheless those who provide food and drink for the public should give these pills a trial. Their great value in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Melville Fortune, Preston, Ont., who says: "Some months ago I became very depressed and worried. My friends thought I was in a decline, I would often faint, was weak, pale, and hardly able to go about. I lost weight to the extent of 24 pounds in four months. I was taking treatment but did not get any benefit until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These made a wonderful change in my condition, and by the time I was on my fifth box I had regained 25 pounds of my lost weight. I feel altogether like a new woman, can do my housework with ease, and have reason to praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the great good I have found through their use. I will always gladly recommend them for anaemia and general debility." You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CONDITIONS THAT CALL FOR A TONIC

Symptoms That the Blood Is Thin Should Not Be Neglected. Weak, run-down, lacking strength, energy and ambition, nervous, sleepless, poor appetite, digestion disturbed—these are the symptoms named by a great majority of people who have been benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These tonic pills correct the condition described and if you have any of these symptoms you should give these pills a trial. Their great value in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Melville Fortune, Preston, Ont., who says: "Some months ago I became very depressed and worried. My friends thought I was in a decline, I would often faint, was weak, pale, and hardly able to go about. I lost weight to the extent of 24 pounds in four months. TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT SOUTH COWICHAN

Duncan, June 14.—The American Roundabout Tournament (Handicap) held by the South Cowichan Tennis Club on Saturday last proved a great success. Play was in two divisions, in one half Mrs. J. B. Green and Col. Collard tied with Miss J. Wilson and Major Garnett, and Mrs. Hicks and Mr. D. Taylor were the winners in the other half. The two former couples played off for the right to be in the finals, Miss Wilson and Major Garnett winning 6-4. They then played against Mrs. Hicks and Mr. Taylor in the finals, the latter pair winning after a hard fought game, by a score of 7, 6-3, 6-2.

COAL TRANSPORTATION AGITATES REGINA

Effort Being Made to Secure Reduction in Rates

Regina, Sask., June 15.—An effort is being made by the coal dealers of this city to secure a reduction in freight rates on coal and telegrams dealing with the question were forwarded to Hon. C. W. Kennedy, Minister of Railways, and Hon. W. R. Motherwell at the close of the Regina Coal Dealers' Association meeting Tuesday afternoon. The average cost of moving a ton of coal from the Alberta coal fields to this city ranges from three dollars and twenty cents to four dollars per ton. It was the feeling of the meeting that from eighty cents to one dollar per ton should be clipped off these rates, which would bring the rates close to the 1918 basis. It was also generally agreed that should representations to Ottawa bring the desired results the benefit should be passed on to the consumer. During the discussion of the rates on coal the opinion was expressed that if the railway commission is allowed to deal with the matter without interference that it will, if it deals justly with the situation, make a reduction of around twenty per cent. in the coal tariffs. Following is a copy of the telegram sent to Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Motherwell: "In view of the Cross Next Pass agreement being under discussion, and in view of the very large volume and revenue that coal created, we the coal dealers of Regina are of the opinion that all rates can be safely left in the hands of the railway commission, whose appointment has been since the agreement was put into effect, and we would further recommend placing all railway rates in its hands and believe this would enable it to effect a substantial reduction in the rates on coal in which we and the whole country are vitally interested." THE ROTTERS TO TOUR CANADA

New York, June 15.—(By Canadian Press)—An extensive tour of Canada is being planned for "The Rotters," the comedy of English life, following its engagement at the 35th Street Theatre. There has been a great demand in Canada for the play ever since its phenomenal success in England and Australia, but Harry Corson Clarke, who holds the world's rights to the play, has never had the opportunity before of presenting it there. "I have received urgent requests to play the comedy in the Dominion," said Clarke, "but since I acquired the play I have been occupied by a tour of the world, and consequently have not been able to accept the invitation. The Canadian tour will include engagements in all of the leading cities from coast to coast."

Remember, the B. C. Protestant Orphanage will hold Tag Day on the 17th June.

Movie Beauty Gains 10 1/2 Pounds in 22 Days through IRONIZED YEAST

Another startling evidence of Ironized Yeast's value as a weight-builder! In a test conducted under the supervision of a registered physician, Miss Dorothy Byrne, pretty artist's model and movie beauty, gains 10 1/2 pounds—in only 22 days! Miss Byrne's measurements, taken before and after the test, are given below.

A striking example—yet by no means an exceptional one. For it is not at all unusual for thin, nervous, over-worked or run-down folks to gain five pounds and more on the very first package of Ironized Yeast!

Results in Half the Usual Time! Ordinary yeast vitamin preparations have in many cases been known to bring good results. But thousands now know that Ironized Yeast, the scientifically correct vitamin tonic treatment, brings results often in just half the usual time!

One reason for this marked superiority is that Ironized Yeast, besides containing just the right amount of all three essential vitamins, contains a type of yeast which has positively no equal as a reconstructive agent—a yeast which is cultured expressly for medicinal purposes, and which is entirely different from the yeast found in ordinary yeast tablets.

Yeast Best When Ironized But even more important than this is the fact that this yeast has been ironized—or treated through a scientific process with a special form of easily assimilated organic iron, similar to the iron found in spinach. When yeast is ironized in this manner it is found that results are not only more permanent, but are secured just twice as quickly.

Watch the Quick Improvement You will certainly be amazed at the quick improvement IRONIZED YEAST shows in you. Note how it immediately increases your appetite and how quickly you begin putting on good firm flesh. See how quickly pimples, blackheads, etc., disappear and how your newly acquired "pep" makes hard work or play a pleasure instead of a task. Try IRONIZED YEAST today! Pleasant to take—will not cause gas or in any way upset your stomach. Special directions for children.

Or mail coupon for the amazing Three Day Free Trial Treatment. In either case you do not risk a single penny to learn of the wonderful benefits Ironized Yeast holds for you. Get it today!

FREE You simply will not believe what a wonderful improvement Ironized Yeast can bring in you until you try it. Mail coupon below for the amazing Three Day Free Trial Treatment. Then watch the results!

Warning! Due to the marked superiority of Ironized Yeast it is being widely imitated. Ironized Yeast is entirely different from ordinary combinations of yeast and iron—or yeast and iron taken separately. There is only one genuine Ironized Yeast. Insist upon it always—for nothing else can be like it.

ONTARIO'S PREMIER

The Hon. E. C. Drury, who arrived here yesterday to attend the Good Roads Convention, is one of the most interesting figures in Canadian public life.

The new Premier was ho-tyro in political affairs. The several generations of his family before him had been prominent in public life and he, like his cousin, the late R. L. Drury, of this city, had been raised in an atmosphere in which there was plenty of the smoke of the political controversy which raged and still rages in Ontario.

Mr. Drury's party did not have, originally, a clear majority in the Legislature, being dependent upon Labor support; but the Premier has benefited from the inability of the other parties to unite in a solid block.

Ontario is the wealthiest and most populous province of Canada. It is the largest producer from the farm, the factory, mine and the forest of all the provincial divisions.

WHAT OF THE MORROW?

On the eve of the elections in Southern Ireland the British public has been informed by Mr. Winston Churchill that the constitution for the Irish Free State conforms with the provisions of the Anglo-Irish Treaty.

particular development. Since this much is now clear, however, the stage is set for one of the most remarkable elections ever held in the British Empire. The people of Southern Ireland are asked to say whether they approve the Irish Free State, whether they are prepared to be governed by a Parliament in which there may be an almost equal preponderance of republican ideals and Free State authority, or whether they shall maintain their demand for separation from the British Commonwealth.

CHEAPER MONEY

In just a little over a month the discount rate of the Bank of England has dropped from five per cent. to three and one-half per cent. It was hardly to be supposed that after the reduction which went into effect on May 15 money would get still cheaper so soon.

VALUE IN ROADS

Quite a large number of people who help to pay the country's bills associate good roads with the requirements of an automobilist who wants to get 'll he can out of his engine. The wider significance of the movement either escapes them altogether or else it is treated with such scant consideration as to render its appeal negligible.

Hon. S. J. Latta had this to say yesterday: "Propaganda for good roads is justified not alone by economic reasons, because good roads will make it easier for all of us to make a living, but because the building of good roads is one of the greatest socializing things that we can strive for."

Here is the view of Hon. J. P. Hartman, of Seattle, with its irrefragable plain to be seen: "On this continent, fully eighty per cent. of all our real production comes from the soil. Therefore, the farmer and the farmer's interests ought to be and latterly have become a prominent part amount to all other business and enterprise. For a long time farmers have been discouraged, could not force rent success, and then became pessimists in many districts and places. Largely was this true because he was shut in, charged with unreasonable overhead expense to transport his product to the railroad and from then was the victim of the middlemen's trading pranks, and too frequently rascality, that left no value for the producer."

From these two expressions of opinion we are admitted to the relationship between good roads and socialization in the national and the international sense; we are informed upon the value of highways to the all important development of the great rural areas. From the international point of view British Columbia may contemplate with satisfaction the popularity of the Pacific Highway, the meaning of the peace arch at Blaine, while we on this Island have our own particular interest in the newly inaugurated Sidney-Anacortes ferry.

PUBLICITY WANTED

While it should be taken for granted by every intending emigrant that the various provincial agencies on the other side of the Atlantic are the proper sources of information about prospects in Canada, it goes without saying that there always will be those who take the first bait that is dangled before them and swallow it in its entirety. These are the misfits in the majority of cases and their letters of complaint which appear in the British press from time to time are the means of scaring others who might be capable of rapid assimilation in the country.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It looks as if interest in The Hague gathering, which is to commence its business-to-morrow, is of a very frigid brand.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce in London has communicated with each member of the British House of Commons and suggested that he shall support the removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle. More power to the elbow of the Chamber.

There is to be a full dress debate on the Indian question in the British House to-day. This will be a change from the other "little matter" that will pass through another phase in Ireland tomorrow.

APPROVES POLICY OF FEDERAL AID

(Continued from page 1) view: (1) Local service. (2) Eventually co-ordinating the roads within the province that the system when completed may form a comprehensive whole, and that inter-provincial roads be made part of such plan. (3) That roads be built economically and of such standard of type as may best meet the traffic which they must bear. (4) That roads when improved shall be maintained.

Federal Aid Resolution

The resolution on federal aid embodies a clause which reads: "Any province at the expiration of the time limit set forth by the present act respecting Federal Aid, which may not have been able to take full advantage of the allotment of that particular province, owing to labor and financial conditions, shall be entitled to an extension of time, such extension not interfering with any future Federal assistance."

Cars in Ontario

Premier E. C. Drury, leader of the Ontario Government, in addressing yesterday this morning, said that his province had 250,000 motor cars in a population of 3,000,000. "In other words," he said, "the people have put themselves on wheels and the government, therefore, has to provide the necessary highways," he said, and added that it was necessary to attend the commercial aspect and reveal to every man a system of good roads at hand for his use.

At the banquet last night he outlined the Ontario system, and to-day said he would refrain from repetition, but he added that practically every county in the province had a main improved road through it, and provincial centres and even townships were vying with each other in building good roads.

INFANT FOUND IN LAKE

Vancouver, June 15.—While boating and swimming in Trout Lake yesterday George Maynes and Donald Kelly discovered the unclothed body of an infant floating near the edge of the lake at the foot of 12th Ave. It is thought the child had lived and that the body was thrown in the lake. It showed signs of having been in the water for several days.

ROTARAINS SEE HOW GAS IS MADE

Members of the Rotary Club inspected the new plant of the Victoria Gas Company, Ltd., this afternoon, following their weekly luncheon in the Empress Hotel. Welcomed by officials of the Gas Company and guided by Rotarian T. R. Myers, public representative of the company, an Electric Railway Company, B. C. Incorporated, the Rotarians were taken through all parts of the plant, the operations of which were explained to them in detail.

How Gas is Made

Part of the coke is taken up an elevator and filled into coke producer furnaces to make "producer gas," which is burned around the outside of the gas retorts. This producer gas is also used to steam boiler water in the plant. The producer gas is used to heat the coal gas retorts in making coal gas and water gas. By doing so it is possible to effect the highest economy in the control of gas fuel is very much more efficient than is possible by using solid fuel in any description of apparatus. The coke having been produced is led by flues into combustion chambers surrounding the coal gas retorts and there burnt by admitting the requisite quantity of hot air and more to just completely effect the desired action. This heated air is brought about by admitting cold air into flues adjacent to the chimney flues and thus returning to the settings a large proportion of heat that would otherwise escape by the chimney.

After the gas has been cooled by pipes controlled by a gas governor and afterwards gradually cooled down to atmospheric temperature. This cooling process breaks down the vapour tension of tar, ammonia and water and is the cause of a large percentage of the above vapours coming away from the retorts. The residue of tar, ammonia, etc., remains is further treated mechanically to shock it out of the crude gas.

After the gas has been freed from its tar vapours it is washed in ammonia water to reduce sulphur compounds and carbonic acid gas, then washed with fresh water to remove the last traces of ammonia, and then passed through purifying boxes to remove the sulphur, iron oxide being the purpose. These boxes are filled with British Columbia oxide or iron. After the gas has passed through purifying boxes it is sent through a station or works gas meter of the type where the quantity is registered on the dials, and from there is passed in pipes along the yard and down under the bottom of the holder to the retorts, then up again above the water level inside the holder and again is sent into the street mains in the same way it was put in the holder.

WADE SAYS BRING SIR CAMPBELL STUART TO PACIFIC COAST

Vancouver, June 15.—"All possible pressure should be brought to bear to bring Sir Campbell Stuart to the coast," said F. C. Wade, K. C., the Province's Agent-General in London, on his arrival here for a short visit. Sir Campbell Stuart is the managing editor of The Times, and spent some time with him in Toronto the other day. He is coming West to inquire into the immigration situation in Canada, and to publish a series of articles over his own signature. He will be accompanied by Mr. Peterson, the Imperial news editor. "When I left him he was uncertain about coming to B. C., but I think every effort should be made to urge him to visit the coast, and if possible persuade him to make a thorough itinerary of all parts of the Province."

GARDEN PARTY SEASONING IN FULL SWING

Many Successful Affairs Yesterday for Local Causes

With the advent of Summer... Garden parties are in full swing, philanthropic and church organizations choosing this popular medium for the raising of funds for their various activities. Several were eminently successful, ideal weather drawing large crowds.

For St. Louis College. St. Louis College for Boys, one of the oldest schools in the city, benefited by a sum in the neighborhood of $425 as a result of the very successful fete held in the charming gardens at the home of Mrs. J. D. Carlin, Collins Street. Arranged by the Catholic Women's League, the affair attracted many patrons and every stall did a flourishing business.

Ladies' Guild For Sailors. At "The Precincts" yesterday afternoon a successful garden fete was staged by the Ladies' Guild For Sailors in aid of the Institute's fund, the sum of $114 being realized at an excellent function, which was well attended. Mrs. Curtis Sampson opened the fete, expressing every sympathy with the work of the guild. Stalls, tastefully arranged, were distributed throughout the grounds, the latter presenting a pleasurable sight with a riot of bloom.

Lutheran Church. Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid to the St. Paul's Lutheran Church a successful garden party was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. Schmeiz, Finlayson Avenue. The fete, in aid of the painting fund, was well attended. Mrs. Schmeiz was assisted by Mesdames Frikier and Frazer.

EXPLAINS MAKING OF HOME BEAUTIFUL

Mrs. Margaret Blair Lectures at Hudson's Bay Store
The most attractive functions held in the East for some time past took place last week when Mrs. Margaret Blair lectured on "The Art of Making a Home Beautiful" at Hudson's Bay Store.

One of the most attractive functions held in the East for some time past took place last week when Mrs. Margaret Blair lectured on "The Art of Making a Home Beautiful" at Hudson's Bay Store. The lecture was held in the afternoon at the Hudson's Bay Store, and was attended by a large number of people.

MRS. MARGARET BLAIR. It is unquestionably true that the furnishings of a home offer the most intimate medium of self-expression and have a tremendous influence upon the members of a household and its guests. Just how to choose the proper furniture and furnishings for the home was the theme of Mrs. Blair's talk yesterday at the Hudson's Bay Store.

AGENT-GENERAL RETURNS TO COAST

F. C. Wade Says Best Settlers Coming from England

Vancouver, June 15.—"British Columbia is in rattling good shape in the Old Country, better than she has ever been and better than most of the other provinces, I believe."

So said F. C. Wade, K. C., Agent-General for the Province in London, who arrived here last night from London.

Speaking of the immigration situation he said: "The stage is now set for developments as it never was before—and we can safely hope for a considerable influx of the very best settlers, and, as you know, none but the best are allowed to pass through the British Columbia office."

The Agent-General told of the activities inaugurated by his office to lead the people of the Old Country to know that they could obtain official information at British Columbia house on the merits of private colonization schemes and of all kinds of flotations and ventures appealing to the British public.

One of the primary objects of his present visit to the Province, Mr. Wade said, was to obtain first-hand impression of conditions here.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Victoria and District Rabbit Breeders' Association final arrangements were made for the Big Rabbit Show to be held in McCloy's sale rooms, corner of Pandora and Blanshard Streets, on Saturday. The building will be open at 8 p.m. to receive entries and to be classified as follows: Flemish Giants, 3 to 6 months, 6 to 9 months and seniors; all other varieties, juniors under 6 months, seniors over 6 months. Entrance fee 10c. Open to any breeder whether connected with the association or not. A special prize and three ribbons will be given in each class. Also prizes for best rabbit each breed, and one dollar to the boy or girl showing best rabbit, any breed. Judging will commence at 7:30, when the public will be admitted. Mr. M. Spedding will place the awards in the Belgian Hare and Flemish Giant classes, while Mr. C. Woolley will judge all the other breeds. Owing to the generosity of Maynard & Sons in lending the cooping and Mr. McCloy the building a splendid opportunity will be afforded the public of seeing and comparing the different breeds and winners.

INSTALLMENT No. 17

Mark was not there! And I turned and went back hopelessly the way I had come. I must see him that night. I had got to hear the truth from his own lips. My heart was pounding like a wild thing when I reached that gate again. I heaved against it with closed eyes and sobbing breath.

Where was he? Oh, where was he? I hated the darkness that hid him from me.

Perhaps he had gone in while I went foolishly to look for him at home; I turned to go again to the house. I was past caring what Nina or any of them thought. I had unlatched the gate, when there was a step in the darkness behind me.

It was Mark, I knew, and for an instant absolute fear of him and what he would say paralyzed my tongue. He did not see me. Another moment and he would have passed and gone on to the house, but that I stretched out a cold hand and caught him by the coat.

"Mark!"

He swung round as if he had been shot, and I heard him catch his breath hard.

"Sally! You here!" His groping hands found me and wandered over my drenched frock. "My God! you'll catch your death of cold. How long have you been here?"

"Hours and hours! Ever since your note came. I should have stayed all night if you had not come."

"I have a tragic silence; then he said, roughly:

"This is madness! You must go home at once. It's pouring with rain again. Let me take you home."

I struck at him when he would have laid his hand on my arm. I am sure that I did not know what I was doing. Alas! how many times since have I not been ashamed of myself! Of my want of pride! Of my loss of dignity! But nothing mattered then, except that I was losing him—nothing except that he did not love me.

"I'm not going home till you've told me the truth!" I said, and my voice

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MR. WOLF CALLS ON REDDY FOX—Part I.

Away up on top of the hill that looked down on the farm across the pond Reddy Fox was peeping out from behind the bare bushes. He had just come up from the south side of the hill, where he had slept away from the biting wind. Reddy did not at all like the looks of the smooth white snow, for he knew his foot prints could easily be seen, and though they might fool some folks he knew well enough that the Farmer across the pond would not think they were the tracks of Mr. Dog.

It was a hard Winter for a poor fox, so thought Reddy as he stood gazing longingly at the farm where he knew there were fat turkeys and other poultry.

It had been a hard Winter, too, for Mr. Wolf. He had left his home with two relatives but had been unfortunate enough to lose both of them and now, hungry and looking very lean and thin, he was looking for almost anything for food.

Reddy Fox heard a sound behind him. It was very faint, but Reddy's ears can catch the faintest noise of a rustling leaf.

But this was not a leaf that caught his quick ear. It was a stealthy step, and Reddy turned to see the head of Mr. Wolf just coming up over the hill.

"I have just been to call on you," said Mr. Wolf in a voice that did not sound at all friendly. "I knew you were not far away, for your bed was still warm."

Mr. Wolf was thin, Reddy saw at a glance, and he knew that when Mr. Wolf was hungry nothing was no one was safe. Reddy felt very uneasy.

"Not a very good morning for our business," said Reddy, trying to look

ESQUIMALT NAVAL COLLEGE CLOSES

Brief Career at Esquimalt Terminated by Official Action

Came Here from Halifax Following Explosion

With no ceremonies other than general hand-shaking, the closing of the Royal Naval College at Esquimalt took place this morning. In accordance with the plan from Ottawa putting an end to one of the special educational institutions in the Dominion, Commander E. A. E. Nixon informed The Times this afternoon that, on behalf of the cadets who have been under his charge, he desired to thank the citizens of Victoria and Esquimalt for the kindly treatment extended to the young men.

The forty-three youths and the ten instructors who are now leaving this district are warmly grateful for the many kindnesses received. He stated:

Long Way Home
While many of the lads are British Columbia born, there have been a considerable number of cadets who came from Eastern Canada, and from Halifax, where the college was established for many years prior to the great explosion caused by the Mont Blanc collision in Halifax harbor.

While the college is now completely disbanded and the staff dispersed beyond easy recollection, Commander Nixon will remain in Esquimalt on other naval duties.

FIRST STEAMER AT NOME.

Rome, Alaska, June 15.—Steamer Victoria, first passenger vessel of the season to reach Nome, arrived here at noon Wednesday. Ice conditions prevented launching of lighters and the passengers were taken ashore through the ice in small boats.

Captain Raold Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, was a passenger on the Victoria from Seattle. He said he expected his exploration ship Maud, with which he will attempt to drift past the North Pole in the Arctic ice pack to arrive here from Seattle in about ten days.
The Victoria encountered drift ice, fifty miles wide, about 150 miles west of Nome, and proceeded here slowly. Some roadstead is filling with drift ice from Norton Bay, which may delay vessel movements.

MASONS WILL TRAVEL ON CHARLOTTE

STARS AND STRIPES FLOAT OVER WORLD'S BEST BOOTLEGGERS

Brewery President Denounces Vessels as "Wettest on the Oceans"

St. Louis, June 15.—Letters charging the United States is "incomparably the biggest bootlegger in the world," written by August A. Busch, president of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., while en route to Europe aboard the steamship George Washington, cut off the government aid provided in the measure from any ship carrying intoxicating liquors or beverages.

One letter says in part: "We are approaching the coast of France. As this vessel is operated by the United States Shipping Board, I was amazed to learn that the Shipping Board vessels are the 'wettest on the ocean'."

"I learn that passage on these ships has been sold at a positive money back guarantee that the bars for the sale of intoxicating liquors will be thrown wide open as soon as they pass the three-mile coast line."

"This makes the United States incomparably the biggest bootlegger in the world," the letter says. "I understand that the Shipping Board has brought to the notice of high officials of the Government the fact that it could not compete on the high seas with the ships of other nations and obey the Volstead law. And either by direct or indirect means the Shipping Board is permitted to do that which it is illegal to do—in order that it may make money."

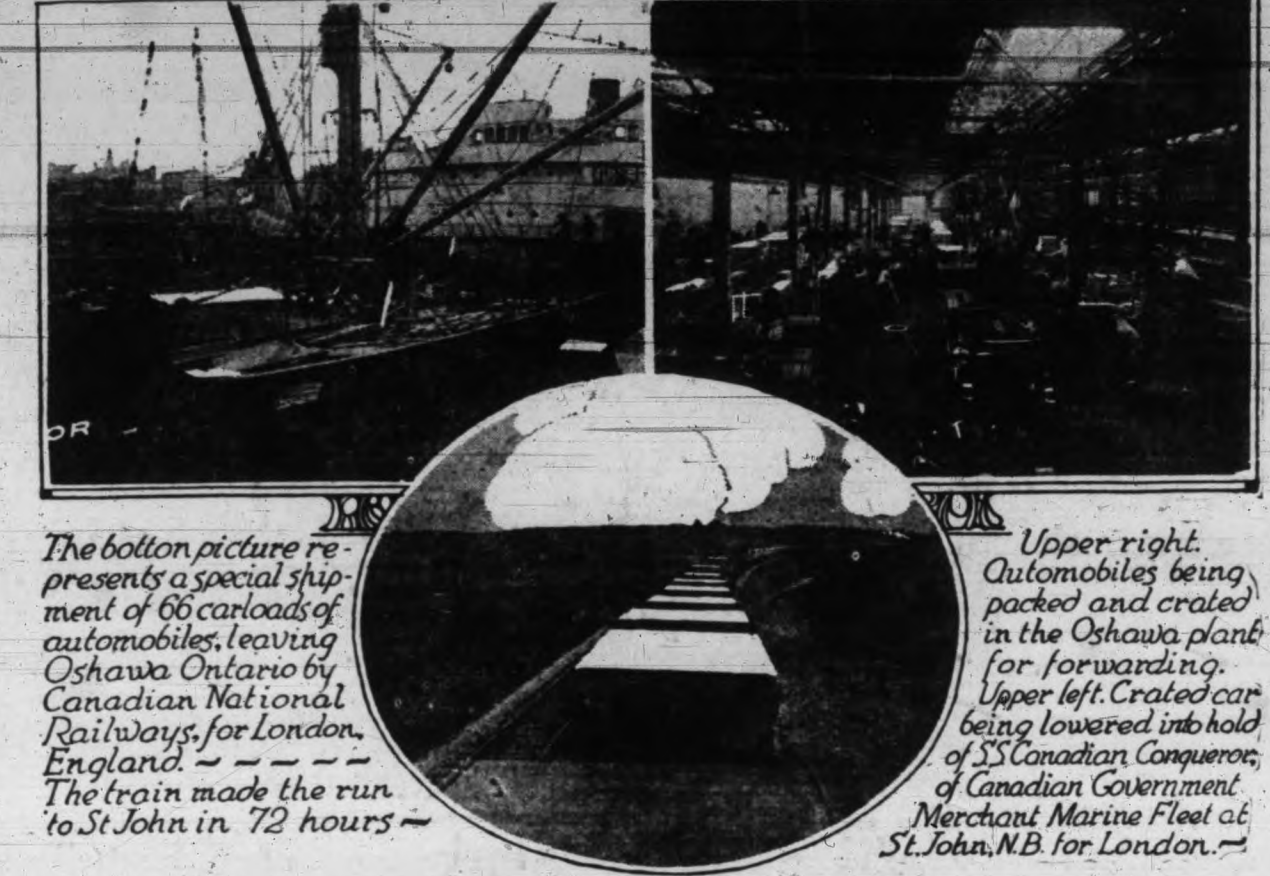

Won't Use Dry Ships.
"The fact that citizens of the United States would not buy passage on ships of the United States so long as the Volstead Act was operative upon these ships gives us a real sentiment of a considerable part of the American people with respect to prohibition and we believe that a great majority desire a modification of the Volstead Act."

CONGRESS ACTS TO END LIQUOR SALES ON AIDED SHIPS

Congressman Would Withhold Subsidies from Wet American Vessels

Washington, June 15.—Definite steps through legislation to stop the sale of liquor on America ships were started to-day through presentation by Representative Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, of an amendment to the Merchant Marine Bill which would cut off the government aid provided in the measure from any ship carrying intoxicating liquors or beverages.

Pacific Practice, Also
"For some time past waterfront gossip in Pacific Coast cities has been commenting on the freedom with which American government-owned vessels operated by private companies have dealt with the liquor regulations implied in a strict wording of the Volstead Act."

Vessels sailing from Puget Sound ports for the Orient and calling at Victoria have proven happy ships with travelers opposed to the prohibition legislation in effect on shores under the Stars and Stripes, as the bars are open to patronage without restrictions as soon as the vessels are well out to sea.

Astoria, Ore., June 15.—Reports received to-day from the wreck of the British steamer Welsh Prince lying on the edge of the channel near Altona, 15 miles above Astoria, are that while the bow of the vessel is remaining stationary—the stern is gradually sinking. During last night the stern listed to port, snapping the plates and rivets until the split in the sides is much wider than it was and allowing the stern to sink several inches.

The British steamer Eastern Prince arrived yesterday morning from Port Angeles and goes to Portland to take on freight for Kobe. She was brought down the coast by Captain John C. Reed, as pilot.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

Nature's Most Wonderful Laboratory and Out-of-Door Paradise

"The wildest geysers in the world, in bright, triumphant bands, are dancing and singing in it amid thousands of boiling springs, beautiful and awful, their basins arrayed in gorgeous colors like gigantic flowers; and hot paint-pots, mud springs, mud volcanoes, mush and broth cauldrons whose whole contents are of every color and consistency, splash and heave and roar in bewildering abundance.
"Here, too, are hills of sparkling crystals, hills of sulphur, hills of glass, hills of cinders and ashes, mountains of every style of architecture, icy or forested, mountains boiled soft like potatoes and colored like a sunset sky.
"The air is electrical and full of ozone, healing, reviving, exhilarating, kept pure by frost and fire, while the scenery is wild enough to awaken the dead."—John Muir.

RACING QUESTION IS UP ONCE MORE

City Council to Consider Issue Again; Take Up Veterans' Request

The City Council will find itself face-to-face with the horse racing question again before many days have passed, it became known at the City Hall to-day after members of the Council had conferred informally on the matter with Acting Mayor John Harvey.

The racing question will be introduced again when a deputation from the Canadian Legion meets the Council to urge that the B. C. Agricultural Association be allowed to hold two race meets here this year. Race supporters are hopeful now that the Council's former decision not to allow racing will be reversed on Monday night.

The trouble is that the Legion which is about to make representations to us on racing, so far as I can see, suggests no definite plan as to how races should be conducted, within the territorial waters of Canada. He has talked matters over with Alderman George Sangster, Secretary of the Agricultural Association. "All this agitation about racing, in my opinion, bears out my contention that we should sell the Willows agricultural grounds to a private concern."

COMPLAIN ABOUT NEW PUBLIC MARKET RENTALS

Stallholders in the Public Market have launched protests with the civic authorities against the new stall rent scale put into effect by the City Council recently. They complain about certain increases in the rental charges. Members of the Council, however, declare that the new scale is not intended as a substantial increase, but is designed only to equalize the rents in force.

SCHOOL MEDICAL SYSTEM WILL BE RE-ORGANIZED

School Board to Establish Clinic for Treatment of Children

Re-organization of the system of medical inspection at present in force in the public schools of Victoria was decided upon at a private session of the City School Board last night.

Under the new system, which was proposed in an extensive report to the Board, a medical clinic where school children will be treated free of charge will be established. This will correspond to the City Council dental clinic at the Boys' Central School, where children are treated without cost to their parents.

The trustees feel that the old system of subjecting children to medical inspection only and failing to give them treatment is obsolete and should be changed. When children are found by this medical inspection to require treatment, they believe, they should be given such treatment, even if their parents cannot afford to pay for it.

Doctor Retires.

Dr. H. J. Wasson, former school doctor, has retired and his successor will be appointed immediately. The new appointee will undertake the re-organization of the medical work.

It leaked out to-day that warm discussion centred around the medical inspection question at the private meeting.

ASK AID IN FIGHT FOR UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF MEASURES

Veterans Want City's Assistance in Moving Federal Government

The Dominion Veterans' Alliance, representing the six leading returned soldier organizations of Canada, to-day appealed to the City Council to support their fight for definite measures to cope with unemployment next winter. Their appeal will go before the Council on Monday when, it is expected, the Council will endorse their efforts.

The Alliance explains in a wire received by Acting Mayor John Harvey to-day that the Dominion federal legislation on the unemployment problem in view of the serious prospects for continued unemployment next winter.

"Parliament by resolution on April 24 recognized the inability of municipalities and provincial governments to deal adequately with the problem," the veterans' telegram says. The returned men ask the City to aid in impressing upon the Federal Government the necessity for immediate and definite action to preclude the use of improvised methods, including the dole system, next winter.

ROTARIANS HERE ON WAY HOME FROM BIG CONVENTION

Many Pause for Brief Visit After Los Angeles Meeting

Rotarians on their way home from the great International Rotary Convention in Los Angeles commenced to stream through Victoria yesterday en route to their homes in the city. About 350 Rotarians and their wives arrived here yesterday and were welcomed by members of the Victoria club during a brief stay in the city. Some hundreds more are due to arrive this afternoon.

Among this party will be F. B. Scoural, the new Rotary controller of the Victoria club, and Lester Patrick, the ex-president, who with Rotarians James Adam and J. H. Fletcher, represented Victoria at the convention.

The local Rotarians are planning to give the visitors who will be here late to-day a rousing reception, driving them about the city.

Some of the Rotarians who attended the Los Angeles convention and who are now on their way home attended the local club's luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day. They said that the convention had been a wonderful success, and declared that the new international Rotary constitution, undoubtedly, would aid the spread of Rotary, which is now one of the foremost service organizations in the world.

Fishery Charges Proceed.—Slated to proceed this morning, by an arrangement between counsel, the several charges being brought by the Fishery Department against A. Jensen, master of the schooner Clarion, was set over until this afternoon. The trial opened at 2.30 o'clock to-day with M. B. Jackson for the Crown and R. C. Lowe for the defence. The accused is facing trial on four charges, in connection with the operation of his schooner. It is alleged, within the territorial waters of Canada, that the accused pleads not guilty.

Demonstrated Fruit Canning.—At the Gordon Head Hall yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Carter, Domestic Science expert, gave an interesting demonstration of canning and the use of a steam pressure cooker before the members of the Gordon Head Women's Institute. At the close a number of questions were asked. It was decided that the Institute will hold a country fair in September at the Hall, to include an exhibition of produce and women's work. The Institute is giving a prize of five dollars at the Fall Fair, Saanich, for the best hat made by a pupil of any millinery class held in Saanich under Institute auspices. A report was given to the meeting of a ruckmaking bee held recently, and to the success of which Mrs. Wood, of Victoria, and Messdames Smith and Erb, of Gordon Head, contributed.

PEARL WHITE NOW AT COLUMBIA

Stars in "Broadway Peacock," a Striking Drama

Pearl White, the renowned Fox star, who will be seen at the Columbia Theatre, beginning to-day, in her new picture, "The Broadway Peacock," received the assistance of a couple of distinguished film actors as members of her supporting cast. These players had both been leading men, and one of them had starred in pictures on the stage.

Charles J. Brabin, who directed "The Broadway Peacock," needed men of certain qualifications to fill the parts and was determined to secure their services—leading men or not leading men. When the actors learned they were to work with Miss White, they expressed themselves as much pleased; thus it happened that their masculine politeness was collected to serve as a proper contrast to the brilliant feminine beauty of Miss White.

"The Broadway Peacock" is said to be one of the season's outstanding pictures.

ROYAL VICTORIA
A big double bill is being presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre this week when Peter B. Kyne's great story from the Saturday Evening Post entitled "The Ten Dollar Raise" will be shown, the other being a new, side-splitting comedy featuring Buster Keaton in "Cops." This is one of the best bills that has been shown at this theatre for some time, and should be the medium of attracting good audiences at all performances.

Buster Keaton, Associated First National comedian, is daily accosted by people who seek to interrogate him regarding his past, present and future. The other day, while working on his latest picture, "Cops," which is the attraction again to-day at the Royal Victoria Theatre, a young man, disengaged himself from a group watching the filming of pictures, walked over to Buster and said:

"Excuse your pardon, Mister, but your face troubles me."
"That's nothing," Buster retorted, "I've bothered me for years."
"What I mean," he persisted, "I can't seem to place it anywhere."
"I know your name all the time," he yelled at Buster.
"O. K.," was the reply, "but why didn't you ask me?"
"I couldn't do it," was the retort. "The bet was that I wasn't to ask your name outright and still make you tell me."

DOMINION
High-class literature on the screen will be offered patrons of the Dominion Theatre to-day, according to Manager Robertson. It is an Agnes Ayres Paramount picture, written by W. Somerset Maugham, a well-known British playwright and novelist. Mr. Maugham has gained fame for such plays and novels as "The Land of Promise," "The Moon and Sixpence," "Lady Frederick," "The Circle" and "Of Human Bondage." "The Ordeal" was adapted for the screen by Beulah Marie Dix while Powell directed. Conrad Nagel plays the leading male role opposite Miss Ayres.

CAPITOL
Elinor Glyn's story "Beyond the Rocks," a Paramount offering starring Gloria Swanson, will be shown at the Capitol Theatre for the rest of this week.

The story is one of Elinor Glyn's famous novel-romances, wherein Gloria Swanson, the wife, in a forced marriage to a middle-aged millionaire, falls in love with young Lord Bracondale. After a tempestuous and dramatic sequence, the story ends satisfactorily.

The settings and backgrounds are picturesque and faithful in detail. Striking roles are played by Rodolph Valentino, A. B. Francis, Mahel Puren, Gertrude Astor and other players of note.

DRURY WARNS AGAINST REPETITION OF RAILWAY MISTAKES ON THE HIGHWAYS

A Unifying Factor.
He asserted that good roads were a unifying factor that will do away with misunderstandings between the city and the country. He pointed to the important place of roads in this country, where internal commerce is most important, emphasizing that good roads mean a "better society" and a better and more united people.
Mr. Drury said that millions and millions of dollars had been thrown away on the construction of railways.

Governmental Responsibility
Like Premier Oliver as the head of a Government, Premier Drury said he, as the head of the Ontario Government, also had the responsibility of carrying out or bringing to its fruition the road policies that are advocated.
"It is an exceedingly easy thing to stir up a great popular enthusiasm but it is sometimes a difficult thing to bring fruitage out of it. The enthusiasm and the 'where-withal' to do it," he went on.

Ontario Highway Policy
Mr. Drury went into some details of the highway policy that is being developed in Ontario, and is similar in its classifications to that of British Columbia.
"In Ontario we have done a little towards solving the problem of an equitable road system," he went on. "We have attacked it as a business problem. We have realized that good roads must be built in such a way that all sections of the people should be served."
He declared that there is all sorts of criticism; some from the fellow who is not doing it, some from those who believe that good roads are extravagance, who is satisfied with a ten-foot road. On the other hand, some are those who are not satisfied with anything less than super-roads and who think the Government should build them between midnight and daylight so that they will be ready for him to travel on first thing in the morning without any delay in construction.

Fusing Canadian Race
President Latta, who presided at the dinner, congratulated the great value of roads in building up Canada. They were one of the greatest socializing factors, he said, and were bringing the races together the way which was being fused into one Canadian. He spoke of the many nations represented in Canada, and said that it was possible for each to be developed and the result would be a splendid race peopling this great Dominion.
"When we know ourselves, we are well as though we were of one race," said the president.

OLD GUERNSEY MAN TALKS
He then called upon Mr. Frank Terrace to propose a toast "to our government." Mr. Terrace said he was a native of Guernsey, but had been a naturalized American for forty years. He had attended all the Good Roads Conventions held in the world, and the question of hard-surfacing had become a religion. He said that he had become ashamed of some of the roads in this country, and his own after seeing the splendid highways in Great Britain. Surely America could afford as good roads as any country in the world, he added.

Equity, Truth and Justice Best Flux
Premier Oliver responded to the toast in a short speech and said the Government was highly gratified at the success of the convention. Such gatherings brought the people of East and West together, and when together they could discuss the problems which faced the country.
He said that roads were not the only worry of the people. Railways were in need of help and that badly, and the people must be welded together into a common whole, so that the country could prosper. He likened the fusion of the races residing in Canada to the welding of iron in a blacksmith's shop. The heating process caused the poor qualities of the metal to slough off, he explained, but it was necessary to have a good welding flux, and there was only one compound which would cement the people of Canada together; that was the compound of equity, truth and justice, coupled with the old Scripture recipe, "Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you."

Other Speakers.
J. L. Beckwith said that Victoria was proud of the fact that it was honored by the Good Roads Association in selecting this city for the 1922 convention. It was Mr. Beckwith who, in company with the late Mayor R. J. Porter induced the Association to hold its convention in Victoria this year.
Holding the distinction of having traveled the farthest to attend the convention, J. A. Clark from Prince Edward Island, said that he had come from the garden island of the Atlantic to the garden island of the Pacific. His trip from the farthest East to the farthest West had convinced him of the value of such conventions as had been held by the Canadian Good Roads Association.
Hon. J. L. Perron, newly elected president of the association, referred to Victoria and Vancouver Island as the "Paradise of the Pacific." As he had spoken on so many previous occasions, Mr. Perron said he would confine his remarks to an expression of appreciation of the hearty welcome the delegates to the convention had received at the hands of the citizens of Victoria.

A. P. Sandies, of Columbus, Ohio, spoke in a very enthusiastic manner of the friendly relations which existed between Canada and the United States and the fact that the two countries were so united on the policy of good roads was a great aid in developing this friendly relationship.
S. L. Squire, chairman of the executive of the association, expressed his appreciation of the services of the press in promoting the good roads movement and B. C. Nicholas, of the Times, responded to Mr. Squire's toast to the press. Alderman R. W. Perry, in a very happy mood, expressed the appreciation of the city in being honored by the responsibility of receiving such an important delegation of good roads enthusiasts.

Victoria Man Broke King's Sword

Story of the Missing Sword Which Once Graced Equestrian Statue of King Charles I. in Trafalgar Square; Reader of Review of Miss Montizambert's "Unnoticed London" in Victoria Times Makes Interesting Disclosure.

PROFESSOR W. T. ALLISON

Several weeks ago in this column I reviewed Miss E. Montizambert's book, "Unnoticed London," and quoted what she had to say in her very interesting way about the adventures of the equestrian statue of Charles the First which stands in Trafalgar Square looking towards Whitehall Palace. The statue was cast in 1822, but after Charles was beheaded Cromwell's Parliament sold it to a brazer to be melted down. This man pretended to obey but really buried the statue and did a roaring trade with the royalists by selling them relics which he assured them privily that he had made from the fragments. When Charles the Second came to the throne, the famous horse and its rider were dug up, and, at length, in 1874, were set up again in Trafalgar Square. Miss Montizambert goes on to say that the statue's tribulations were not yet over, for about the middle of the nineteenth century a curio hunter stole the sword, a real one of the Stuart period, and it has never been replaced. The author further remarks that a curious feature of the statue is the absence of saddle girths or trappings and she recounts an old tale that when this oversight was pointed out to Le Sueur, the sculptor, he was so overcome with mortification that he committed suicide.

B. C. MAN BROKE SWORD OF KING CHARLES.

Last week Miss Montizambert visited Winnipeg on a trip across Canada and I had the pleasure of meeting her and of telling her that according to a letter I had just received I could inform her who was responsible for the removal of the long-lost sword of King Charles the First. Curiously enough it was while ment to which this letter was sent will get round to it one of these days.

WHY THE SADDLE GIRTH WAS OMITTED.

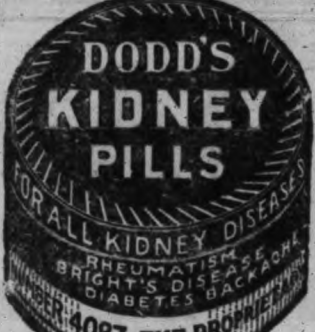

Mr. Trant continues: "I was familiar with the story of the absence of the saddle girths and the consequent suicide of the sculptor. I repeated the story over half a century ago, but was called to order by a friend for whose accuracy I had great respect. He reminded me that the absence of saddle girths is quite common amongst equestrian statues sculptured contemporaneously with that of King Charles. The sculptors of that period affected classicism, and as Caesar and persons of that ilk did not use saddle girths neither did sculptors reproduce them.

An interesting item respecting the statue of King Charles is that it was the first equestrian statue cast in metal in England."

I am assured by Miss Montizambert, who was intensely interested in this information supplied by Mr. Trant, that she will incorporate her story in the second edition of her book. I am very glad to learn that "Unnoticed London" is having a wide sale in England. Miss Montizambert was born in Quebec City. She has lived abroad for the last fifteen years for much of this time being resident correspondent in Paris and London for the Montreal "Gazette." She has just completed a second work in which she will do for Paris what she has already done for London, that is, embody her observations made during her wanderings in the French capital.

PROUD WAR RECORD OF THE BANK OF COMMERCE.

A year ago the Canadian Bank of Commerce published a large and sumptuous volume entitled "Letters from the Front." It was made up of letters written by members of its staff who served in the Great War and was of absorbing interest. It was considered that these letters, together with lists of the men who served in the war, would constitute a sufficient record, but Mr. C. L. Foster, editor of the memorial volume, conceived the idea of making a more detailed record by the publication of a supplementary volume. This work has now been completed and contains a huge amount of material which will prove not only of vital interest to the bank as constituting an historical record of the war service of members of its staff, but also of intrinsic value as part of the military annals of the Dominion. There are nearly 500 pages in volume number two and when we find on an average four biographies on each page we get some idea of the number of men who went out from this bank alone to fight for their country. The Bank of Commerce was represented on nearly every fighting front. Some shared in the tragic venture of Gallipoli. Others fought in Salonika at Lake Dolon. Two of the staff died in Mesopotamia, one of them falling in action during the attempt to relieve Kut-el-Amara in April, 1916. Others took part in the fight with the Turks east of the Suez Canal and later on helped General Allenby to free Palestine from the malign power of the Crescent. One bank clerk fought with the Russians in the Caucasus, and served later on in Roumania. Others fought in Italy, and German East Africa, in Italy, and with the Canadian force in Siberia in 1918. The great majority of the Bank of Commerce men, however, were in the front lines in some of the bloodiest battles of the war. In an admirably written introduction their fortunes are traced throughout the war. The first member of the staff to go into action was a recruit by a recruit in the Coldstream Guards. When the war broke out he was stationed in Winnipeg. He went to his regiment in London, joined his regiment in the field, and took part in the advance of the old "Contemptibles" from the Marne in September, 1914. After months of arduous warfare he was awarded the home and returned to duty with the bank on November 15, 1915.

LACONIC DIARY OF A BANK CLERK

One of the most gripping paragraphs of the introduction to this volume contains an extract from a commerce man's diary. It was written during the early days of the entrance of the First Canadian Division into the mighty struggle in France. This bank clerk posted up his diary in a brief and business-like style but he managed to include some graphic touches: "We prepared all day for the trenches. At 2 p.m. we marched to the trenches. All got in safely, no casualties. At 10 a.m. Sergeant H— was wounded which was our first casualty. After twenty-four hours in the trenches we were relieved. At 2 p.m. we went into the trenches for twenty-four hours, not quite so nervous. Two were killed from an English regiment who were with us. We received one first pay, £5. We went into the village and had a good feed. We relieved the 'Cameron's' Private J— B— was killed and H— wounded with the same bullet. We were moved into another trench. We had our trench and made two dugouts and laid a brick floor. We had to march three miles to a barracks in Bac St. Manon. We received our first bath in a laundry. We each received a pair of socks from Princess Mary. In the evening we went into the trenches. Three cattle strolled round in the firing line, and that day we had fresh beef. Our company had sports back of the firing line. We marched closer to Ypres, passing through Poperinghe. We had orders to stand by in case we were needed at Hill 60, where there was a fierce battle raging. In all, 255 members of the staff of the Bank of Commerce fell in action or died of wounds. This splendid volume is their monument and will pass down to future generations to testify to their heroism.

ARNOLD BENNETT'S TWENTY-FOURTH NOVEL.

Mr. Arnold Bennett is easily one of the most voluminous writers of our time. He just turned off "Mr. Prohack" (McClelland and Stewart, Toronto), his twenty-fourth novel. In this story he has tried to answer this question: "How would a civil servant act, and what would be the effect on his wife and children, if some one, whom he knew only slightly, suddenly died and left him an immense amount of money?" It is the easiest thing in the world to construct a romance of this kind, for the dustiest imagination could without difficulty picture the various extravagances into which the fortunate hero would plunge. Nine novelists out of ten, however, would make a vulgar narrative out of such a plot as this, for it requires a great deal of finesse, much skill in conceiving new situations and originality in characterization. As far as situations are concerned, I do not think that Mr. Bennett has been strikingly successful in this story but, as usual, he excels in witty conversation and in character portrayal. Mr. Prohack, the principal in the story, is a high official in the treasury department of the British civil service. He is described as being "a fairly tall man, with a big head, big features, and a beard." His characteristic expression denoted benevolence based on an ironic realization of the humanity of human nature. He was forty-six years of age and looked it. He had been in the treasury for twenty years at the treasury in which organization he had now attained a certain importance. He was a companion of the Bath. Yet, notwithstanding the fact that this important official made the heads of other departments tremble, so much so that he was known as "the terror of the treasury," he drew but a very moderate income. In fact he and Mrs. Prohack got up the first chapter by discussing the necessity for more rigid economy in household expenses. If this treasury official had not had a stroke of genius in the news broken to him in chapter two that he had fallen heir to one hundred thousand pounds would have been too much for him and subsequent events would have landed him in neurasthenia, as it did his good wife, whom he tenderly loved. After we have followed the humorous windings of this story, we can appreciate Mr. Bennett's moral: "Let all pleasantly, or even unpleasantly, sooty husbands think twice before they allow a rich friend to die in a benevolent frame of mind."

SEIGE BATTERY PUBLIC TO BE WELCOMED FOR 8-INCH HOWITZER FIRING TEST

The 12th Seige Battery is enjoying a very successful beginning in camp at Macaulay Point. A programme which is instructive of all the necessary details of 8-inch Howitzer, gunnery and signalling, has been laid down, and is being carefully carried out.

There are a few vacancies in the battery at camp and an invitation is extended to those who wish to join the battery to go down any evening to Macaulay Point Camp, at 6 o'clock, and interview the O. C., Major Allen.

Among the various features of interest engaged in at camp, is a militia village which has been constructed out of beach drift wood. This is to be used in the practice firing of the 8-inch Howitzers, when the big shells of roughly 200 pounds weight will be used, will take place next week.

EXPECT TO CONCLUDE SESSIONS TO-NIGHT

Good Roads' Association Convention Nearing Its Close

Terminating one of the most successful conventions ever held by the Good Roads' Association, the Good Roads Association will complete its four-day programme this evening with a dance at the Empress Hotel. Officials of the association, who are in attendance at the convention, have been so far one of the most delightful from an educational and entertainment standpoint in the history of the association. The convention is unique, too, in the history of Victoria by reason of the fact that so many men of prominence have come to the city to discuss the national problem of good roads.

It is the consensus of opinion that the 1922 convention in Victoria will result in a better understanding as to the road requirements of Canada. It was pointed out by the various speakers that it was most the general principle of good road development that the consideration of local issues that prompted the organization of the Canadian Good Roads Association. The association has taken itself in favor of the promotion of roads generally and particularly in regard to the establishment of an all-Canadian highway. The association felt that it was within its jurisdiction to dictate to any particular province where or how any necessary link in the trans-continental highway should be built. British Columbia advocates of good roads were pleased to note that the Canadian association made it a matter of paramount importance that a declaration should be made regarding the principle of establishing an all-Canadian highway. NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Lucky Boy Group. S. G. Benson made a very nice find on his Lucky Boy group, situated at the junction of Fish Creek and the Salmon River Road, says the Portland Canal News, the lead which he found is about two feet wide, is traceable on the surface for about 250 feet, and runs 125 per ton in all values. No work has yet been done on it, and the samples obtained were taken from the surface. One good feature of this new find is the fact that it is within one mile of the Salmon River wagon road, and 100 yards of the new government trail up Fish Creek. The values obtained from these surface assays establish the fact that in this lead Mr. Benson has shipping ore, therefore no time will be lost in opening it up. It is understood that Mr. Benson has associated with him in this property J. Coughlan, president of the Silverado Mining Co. PERMANENT WORK IS ESSENTIAL

Good Roads Convention Hears Address from D. W. Johnston

There is a very great divergence of opinion as to the best methods of road construction, and there is too much tearing up of existing roads to make way for expensive roads that are really of an experimental nature. D. W. Johnston, engineer of South Vancouver, told the Good Roads Convention yesterday afternoon.

"The phenomenally rapid development of swift motor traffic has produced new highway problems, and others will crowd in upon us as time passes, necessitating a flexibility of opinion unheard of a couple of decades ago," he said.

The problem confronting the highway engineer to-day is the adaptation of average existing roads to modern traffic without undue cost to the taxpayers, said Mr. Johnston, who went on to show how far the use of bituminous bound methods go toward the solution of the problem.

Four drainage, frost, excessive speed and overloading are the worst enemies of roads, said J. A. Duchas, in an address dealing chiefly with the question of foundations. Good foundations were dependent on good drainage, no matter how well the foundation had been built or of what excellent materials. Drainage was the first and last principle of road-building, and neglect of this important factor could only end in one thing—disaster.

Fast moving traffic requires a deeper and stronger foundation than slow moving traffic, the speaker explained. In some cases the best constructed roads were allowed to go to ruin because of lack of funds to carry out proper drainage methods. The majority of failures of even the best types of roads could be traced to faulty foundations, and in this connection it was the drainage that usually located the fault. The surface may be ever so fine, but it cannot last without a proper foundation and proper care for its preservation, said the speaker.

KINGHAM AWARDED BOSTON TECH DEGREE

Son of Joshua Kingham is Made Master of Science

Boston, June 15.—Joshua R. Kingham, only son of Joshua Kingham, of Victoria; Winston A. Gardner, of Victoria; and MacLeod E. Hurst, of Vancouver, were prominent among the 743 young men who have just been awarded degrees at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology here. Hurst was awarded the highest degree that it is possible for the institution to grant, the doctor of philosophy. Kingham was one of the 124 to receive the degree of master of science, and Gardner received his degree of bachelor of science. He was graduated from course two, mechanical engineering, with honors. Six hundred and ten students received their B.Sc. degree.

More than 3,500 relatives and friends attended the traditional exercises which were held in the general court of technology. Acting President Elihu Thompson gave the opening address and awarded the degrees. Joshua R. Kingham, of Victoria, is a graduate of the University of British Columbia, having received his B.Sc. degree last year. He is well known among British Columbia sportsmen, having played in the Varsity rugby team one season. Six senior year he was head of the Men's Athletic Association at the University. He served overseas with the 14th Battalion, being badly wounded at the Somme in September, 1916. He was graduated from the University School, now the University Military School, here.

IS HERE FOR GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS

Rev. T. H. Wright, who has just been transferred to Beaconsfield Methodist Church from Golden, has arrived to attend the Odd Fellows convention here. Mr. Wright is a most noble grand at Golden.

A most cordial welcome was accorded Mr. and Mrs. Wright at Beaconsfield by Rev. J. H. Wright, president of South Vancouver, presiding. Rev. (Capt.) J. H. Wright, ex-president of the B. C. Methodist Conference and chairman of the Vancouver East district, participated in the welcome. Rev. J. H. Wright is a brother of Rev. T. H. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright are well-known on the Lower Mainland and here. Rev. T. H. Wright won provincial fame last year when he graduated at the B. C. University by personal study after several years in the ministry. This year he has added to his academic degrees by graduating at the University of Alberta.

COMMITTEE GIVES REPORT ON SCHEME FOR MATERNITY WORK

Council Asked to Call Joint Meeting to Continue Inquiry

At to-night's session of the Saanich Council Councillor Dooley will urge the holding of a joint meeting with the School Board and the Directors of the Saanich Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses, to consider reports made upon the advisability of accepting maternity cases at the War Memorial Health Centre, made to the Order by a special committee appointed by Dr. H. E. Young, Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health.

In this course he will be supported by Councillor Macnicol, upon grounds that it is in the public interest that the widest use possible should be made of the institution, consonant with the terms under which the people voted the money. Mr. Macnicol maintains that one of the essential promises made the ratepayers, when they were asked to vote upon the by-laws, was the institution of a maternity service. "If the people do not want it, now is the time they should make their changed views known. I certainly believe they would prefer closing the door to paying $12,000 a year for a nursing home, but before that course is seriously considered I believe the people will demand a trial of maternity nursing services, to discover if the cost is too great and the difficulties insuperable," he said.

The majority and minority reports are as follows:

Majority Report

The Committee finds:
1. The Saanich Health Centre is as well or better equipped than most private houses for care of confinements.
2. The Saanich Health Centre could be used for normal confinements with the addition of a small amount of equipment and supplies, and the employment of one or two permanent or casual nurses in addition to the present staff. To offset this expense certain income could be derived from patients.
3. The Saanich Health Centre has not been constructed or equipped with a view for the performance of major operations. Serious maternity cases require the same care as major surgical cases.
4. The Saanich Health Centre is not used by the physicians practising in Saanich.
5. Obstetric physicians endeavor to visit their patients at frequent intervals for two weeks after confinement. The usual number of visits to the Health Centre would mean about 120 miles travelled, or lessened (poorer) medical supervision.
6. The Saanich Health Centre lies three miles from its most densely populated area, this latter district being as close or closer to the city hospitals.

7. From a medical point of view the Saanich Health Centre can never hope to compete with the two city hospitals for the care of maternity cases. At present the city hospitals have adequate accommodation to meet all the demands upon their space.
8. The Saanich Municipality are joint owners and managers of the Provincial Jubilee Hospital. The hospital has laid out a complete floor in their new building which will be equipped with the best appliances and comfort for maternity patients, and will accommodate fifty patients.
9. The by-law authorizing the loan provides for the erection of "A Health Centre" from which can radiate improved health, and the use as a city hospital for the care of infirm, disabled and decrepit persons and for general hospital purposes."
10. The Committee are of the opinion, therefore, that all points considered, it is not in the best interests of the community at this present time to treat maternity cases in the Health Centre.

We would suggest that the other purposes of the Health Centre be fully developed, viz. the radiation of improved health, the performance of minor operations, and the use as a hospital for infirm, disabled, and decrepit persons, before considering its suitability for confinements.

We would suggest also that a prenatal clinic be established, and the building be used for the convalescent treatment of women after leaving hospital after confinement or operation.

(Signed) WALTER BAPTIST, ANNIE BERTHO, THOS. MCPHERSON, Minority Report

The object of the Health Centre being to aid in the preservation of the community, such cases as would be especially benefited have the first claim to the use of the building. Parturition, being a natural physiological function, but needing skillful care and hygienic surroundings for the maintenance of a health condition, would give maternity cases the prior right of entry to the Centre.

The site of the building is ideal. Though at present somewhat isolated, the surrounding roads are in excellent condition for traffic.

The plan of the building is easily adaptable by using the left wing on the ground floor exclusively for maternity cases; thus leaving the right wing for the clinic work.

The arrangement of the case rooms and offices is very suitable.

The heating system needs some attention.

The addition of storm windows would minimize the fuel consumption considerably. The fixtures of the storm windows could be used to support screens during the summer months. This is strongly advisable.

The number of cases that could be taken under such an arrangement would be:
One private paying patient.
Three semi-private, paying or non-paying patients.

Sold by all Druggists 16 cc. bottle $1.50

Additional equipment (cursor inspection): Bed and body linen, mackintosh sheeting, a light stretcher, 4 bed-pans, baskets for the babies; long mackintoshes for the beds; 3 hot water bottles, 2 pails; 2 enamel bowls, cups and saucers, etc., stationary, solution containers (Wincchesters), absorbent cotton, safety pins, etc.

Should a patient develop abnormal conditions, it is essential to have immediate accommodation at the nearest hospital. This could be maintained by paying a retaining fee on a bed or beds.

The services of a deputy medical practitioner should be held by a retaining fee; with the understanding that the fee be paid to any substitute he might authorize; such practitioners being skilled obstetricians.

REPRESENTATIVES OF OLD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH EXPECTED

Two well-known representatives of the Church of Scotland, Rev. Dr. Martin, an ex-moderator, and Dr. MacFarlane were honored guests at the General Assembly at Winnipeg. They have decided to come on to the coast.

It is intimated in private advices received to-day that they may be expected to reach the city either to-day or to-morrow. Only a brief period will be spent in Victoria.

CANADIAN LEGION MET.

The regular meeting of the local branch of the Canadian Legion was held last night in the club rooms, Douglas Street, with Comrade Rawlinson in the chair. H. D. Twigg outlined the work of the Dominion Veteran Alliance which met recently at Ottawa. The proposal that a monument be erected to Sir Arthur Currie was endorsed by resolution. After a brief discussion on the subject of horse racing the following resolution was carried:

"Whereas the City Council at its last meeting saw fit to give a divided decision regarding race meetings; therefore be it resolved that we, the Canadian Legion, Victoria, Post No. 11, with over eight hundred and twenty-five members, respectfully requests that, as there is such a bad state of unemployment in the city, and as the result of holding two race meetings would enable the B. C. Agricultural Association to provide work for a large number of ex-service men, the Council meet at its earliest convenience and grant to the B. C. Agricultural Association the permission to hold two race meetings this year."

Remember the B. C. Protestant Orphanage will hold Tag Day on the 17th June.

CUPID INVADERS TEACHING STAFF; WORKS RARE HAVOC

His June Campaign Drives Many Teachers Into Resigning

Dan Cupid's June drive has swept through the Victoria public schools and completely overwhelmed the teaching staff, according to reports laid before the City School Board last night. The trustees sat and gasped as a long list of resignations from young teachers who are about to marry was read. And now that the matrimonial campaign is over the Board must look around for some more teachers to start work with the opening of the Fall term. The trustees join in congratulating the teachers who are leaving to marry, but are troubled over the problem of getting new ones—not that there is any real shortage of teachers here, but the Board desires to get the most efficient teachers possible.

These teachers last night handed their resignations to the Board: Miss Jeanette L. McIntyre, of the Margaret Jenkins School; Miss Charlotte Stoddard, of South Park School; Miss A. G. L. Bowron, of Oaklands School; Mrs. W. I. Fraser, of Rock Bay; Miss Dorothea Hay, of Sir James Douglas School; Miss Marjorie Fox, of the Victoria West School; Miss Dorothy M. James, of Sir James Douglas School; Miss Isabel Davidson, of the Central Domestic Science School.

W. H. Wilson, principal of the Burnside School, was given a month's leave of absence so that he can go to England on his honeymoon.

Miss Mabel Wright informed the Board that she is leaving for England soon, with the Overseas Educational League.

TO UNVEIL MEMORIAL ON SUNDAY EVENING

An interesting ceremony will take place in St. John's Church on Sunday evening when the memorial tablet which has recently been executed in memory of 230 men from St. John's Parish, who served in the Great War, and a number of whom paid the supreme sacrifice, will be unveiled. The tablet which is a handsome piece of work in bronze framed in oak, in three panels, will be unveiled by the Bishop of British Columbia, and it is anticipated that the Lieutenant-Governor and the Premier of the Province will be present on the occasion. A hearty invitation is extended to the relatives of the men whose names are inscribed on the tablet and to the general public to attend the service.
