SUBJECT: Abolition of CLCO and Establishment of Liaison Bureau in Foreign Office.

CLCO No. 1445(1G) 30 May 1949

1. It is hereby informed that the Central Liaison and Coordination Office, an external organ of the Prime Minister's Office, will be abolished as from May 31, and its affairs will be taken over by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in which a Liaison Bureau will be established principally to be responsible for such affairs. The Liaison Bureau will consist of five sections, namely, Coordination Section, Legislative Affairs Section, Liaison Section, Local Affairs Section and Criminal Investigation Section.

2. Some of the local offices of the Liaison and Coordination Office will be abolished. As provided for in Article 17 of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Establishment Law, which is appended hereto, eleven local offices, namely, Yokohama, Yokosuka, Tohoku, Hokkaido, Tokai-Hokuriku, Kyoto, Kinki, Kobe, Chugoku, Shikoku, and Kyushu Offices, will be retained, and liaison officers will be dispatched from the Yokohama Office to the Kanto Military Government Region. The branch offices at Oita, Kumamoto, Kokura, and Kagoshima and the resident officers at Yamaguchi, Matsue, Tottori, Okayama, Kanazawa, and Toyama will be abolished as from May 31. The responsibilities of the local Liaison and Coordination Offices will be the same as heretofore.

3. The official letters of the Japanese Government addressed to the Occupation Authorities, which have been given a CLCO file number and signed either by the Director General or by a responsible officer for the Director General, will be given a FOM file number and signed either by the Minister of Foreign Affairs or a responsible officer of the Ministry for the Minister of Foreign Affairs on and after June 1.

Principles for Reorganization of the Liaison and Coordination Office

April 8, 1949

I. Central Office

1. The Central Liaison and Coordination Office will be abolished, and its affairs will be taken over by a bureau (Liaison Bureau) to be set up in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. However, its agency under the Japanese Liaison Section, G-2, GHQ, will be retained as it is.

2. The Liaison Bureau of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to be created anew will probably consist of five sections. Of these five sections, two will be the continuation of the present Liaison Section and Local Affairs Section of the First Division, one will be charged with affairs relating to the trials by military courts of the Allied Powers, which are now being administered by the Third Division, and the remaining two will be responsible for the adjustment of the affairs of various administrative organs relating to liaison with the Allied Authorities, which are now in the charge of the Second Division, and also for affairs concerning translation.

3. The Central Liaison and Coordination Committee and the Conference of Executive Secretaries of the Committee, which are now auxiliary organs of the Central Office, will be abolished and replaced by a Central Liaison Council, which will maintain close contact

contact between various administrative organs in connection with their affairs of liaison with the Allied Authorities.

II. Local Organs

1. The eleven branch offices at Itabashi, Toyama, Kanazawa, Yamaguchi, Okayama, Tottori, Matsue, Oita, Kokura, Kumamoto and Kagoshima, with jurisdiction over the prefectural area, will be abolished.

2. The other offices will be retained in view of their jurisdiction over a broader area corresponding respectively to that of the Eighth Army, I Corps and IX Corps, Military Government Region or because of the special importance of the locality as a military base.

3. A Local Liaison Council, with the same function as the Central Liaison Council to be created anew, may be set up in a local office if necessary.

May 7th, 1948

His Excellency General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander For The Allied Powers.

A Petition regarding to the enactment of the Dog Race Law.

Owing to the recent general economical changes from bad to worse, the financial conditions of the local governments have become to a crisis and the stabilization of the financial plan has come almost impossible too. On the other hand, the expansion and the reformation of the local self governments are going on and their administrative affairs are much increasing. Consequently the financial expenditure is extremely swelling while there have been no improvement at all on the side of means for the revenue sources.

The central government is naturally studying eagerly for the financial stabilization of the local governments, backing up for the establishment of the local self governing systems, while the local governments themselves have now a great responsibility to devise voluntary the reconstruction of their financial problems.

From such point of view, in the beginning of this year, the governors of the whole country adopted the proposed the enforcement of the Dog Race Law to be an intention and in the meantime the careful discussion and investigation have been done on the matter of the basic problems of the legislation: the social and financial relative merits of the case. And as the result they have come to a conclusion that the legislation is a proper and salutary, as a policy for the financial stabilization of the local governments.

Here we are, in the name of the delegate of the all prefectural governors of the country, who are representing the welfare of the respective local inhabitants, respectfully presenting a petition to Your Excellency the Supreme Commander of the Allied Powers. And with the accompanying explanatory documents, we humbly beg to Your Excellency to understand the purport of this petition and kindly give us the approval on the proposed enactment of the Dog Race Law which was presented to Your Excellency from the Lower House on 5th of April.

In the name of all the prefectural Governors of the Country.

Signed; Governor of Tokyo Metropolis

Saburo Yasui.

Separate Paper: Annexed Explanatory

I. Grounds for the enactment of the Dog Race Law.

The grounds that require the enactment of the present law are as follows:

A) Positive Reasons:

(1) A supply against the revenue sources of the local government.

Now the local governments, all in no exceptions, are requested vast defrayments in connection with the reconstruction of the war disasters or reformation and amplification on such as education, police and other self-governing administrations. But their economic resources are nearly exhausted and that brings about a marked difficulties on the drawing up and the accomplishment of their financial programs and consequently the management of the administration of the local governments is in danger too.

Under these circumstances, we have come to think about that it is necessary, as a policy to break through the financial crisis, to carry on a profitable enterprise basing on a public utility first.

(2) An absorption of the floating buying power.

It is an important financial policy that to check the existing inflation and keep it under control by absorbing to the utmost of the hastily increasing current money, especially the hoard floating buying power of the newly risen classes.

Of the problem of the absorption of the current money although the government is driving forward strongly to take up such measures as the persuation on the increase of the national savings or the emphasizing of the regular tax payments, it is necessary, considering of the postwar fall of the financial liability of the general people, that to seek and devise in the field of such a counter-measures on the absorption of the floating buying powers of the newly risen such classes whose unearned income is hard to secure.

(3) The extending of the international sightseeing institutions.

It is an essential national policy for Japan, which has restarted as a peaceful nationa, that to devise and develope the extending of the international sightseeing institutions. However, the present situation is that, besides the natural elements, there is almost none that can count the institutes by human efforts and this fact itself is arresting the developement of the tourist enterprise in our country.
