FRENCH AIRMAN FLEW ACROSS GERMANY TO POLAND; OVER BERLIN

Sub.-Lieut. Marchal Dropped Copies of a Proclamation in German Capital; Rose From Nancy; Traveled 807 Miles to Chelm; Engine Trouble Forced Him to Descend; Brave Officer Taken by Enemy

Paris, July 24.—Sub-Lieut. Marchal, of the French aviation corps, late last month left French soil and flew over the German capital, upon which he dropped proclamations and then continued his flight, intending to land within the Russian lines. He was forced to descend, however, in Poland and was taken prisoner by the Austro-Germans.

An official communication given out to-day telling of Aviator Marchal's achievement, says:

"On June 20, at 9.30 o'clock in the evening, Sub-Lieut. Marchal ascended at Nancy on board a Nieuport monoplane of a special type, taking with him a supply of fuel sufficient to last 14 hours. His mission was to cross Germany at a low altitude in order to drop proclamations on the capital, Berlin, and then to descend in Russia.

This audacious flight was accomplished point by point, and after flying all night Lieut. Marchal was compelled to descend at 8.30 o'clock in the morning of June 21 near Chelm, Russian Poland, at about 100 kilometres (62 miles) from the Russian lines. He was made prisoner.

Dropped in Berlin.
The proclamation which Lieut. Marchal dropped in Berlin began with the words: "We could bombard the open town of Berlin and thus kill the women and children, but we are content to throw only the following proclamation, etc." Lieut. Marchal was interned at Salsbach, whence he forwarded to France a postal card with the details.

"I was made prisoner at 8.30 o'clock on the morning of the 21st at Chelm. The Austrian officers did not believe that I had accomplished my task, but the proof later arrived and they were obliged to bow to the reality.

Grieved at Fate.
"It was a fault of the spark plugs which stopped me and I descended to change two of the plugs and to start the motor again. Unfortunately it would have been necessary to change two more plugs and at this moment I was taken prisoner. You may judge of my chagrin."

"Aviator Marchal in the course of his journey covered in continuous flight a distance of about 1,300 kilometres (807 miles) most of which he traveled during the night."

IRISH BILL MUST BE RESULT OF AGREEMENT

Asquith States It Will Not Be Introduced Under Other Conditions

London, July 24.—Mr. Asquith told John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, in the House of Commons to-day that the government did not propose to introduce an Irish bill in regard to which there did not appear to be the prospect of a substantial agreement by all political parties.

Mr. Redmond had obtained leave to move the adjournment of the House in order "to call attention to the rapidly growing unrest in Ireland, and to the fact that the government did not propose to carry out in their entirety the terms submitted for a temporary settlement."

CANADIAN PATROLS STILL DOMINATE SITUATION ON THEIR FRONT; GUNS HAVE ADVANTAGE OVER THE ENEMY'S

Ottawa, July 24.—A dispatch received at the militia department to-day from the official representative with the Canadian forces at the front says: "There was no cessation of the activities of our front line battalions during the past week as day by day our artillery frequently silenced the enemy's batteries, destroyed his earth-works, and his wire entanglements and dispersed his working parties. The Germans appeared to rely more than usually upon their trench mortars. In daily duels with this class of weapon our trench guns maintained their

CONDITIONS NOW ARE BAD IN BULGARIA

People See Germany Deserting Them; Distress Growing Day by Day

Salonica, July 24.—It is extremely difficult to obtain reliable news as to what is happening in Bulgaria. The Bulgarian-Grecian frontier has been closed for some considerable time. All negotiations between the two countries with reference to the resumption of normal relations have failed. Letters and papers from Bulgaria are few and far between. Travelers from Sofia, once numerous, now are very few. Information has been gathered from a reliable source which sheds a little interesting light on conditions in King Ferdinand's land.

There can be no doubt that things are in a pretty bad state, for in all the political speeches made by the leaders of late, from Premier Radoslavoff downwards, the hope is expressed and the prediction made that the war soon will be over. Indeed, that would appear to be the chief hope of every one throughout the country.

Small sums of German money just kept things going, but great disappointment is felt that the country's ally, Germany, should be able to do so little to alleviate the distress, which with every day almost, is becoming more bitter.

The government papers endeavor to keep up the people's spirits by means of statements that it is the intention of the army to march on and take Salonica, but the people cannot be kept in ignorance of the fact that Bulgaria is gradually being deserted by Germany. Not long ago Germany had in Bulgaria and Serbia something like eleven divisions. It is doubtful if three full divisions remain. As the allies' offensive continues there is every prospect of these three being withdrawn, too.

TO VICTORIA FOR FARM HELP FOR SASKATCHEWAN

Winnipeg, July 24.—F. Hedley Auld, deputy minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, has gone to Vancouver and Victoria to secure there all the harvest help possible. Saskatchewan wants 20,000 men. Low rates will be given by the railways.

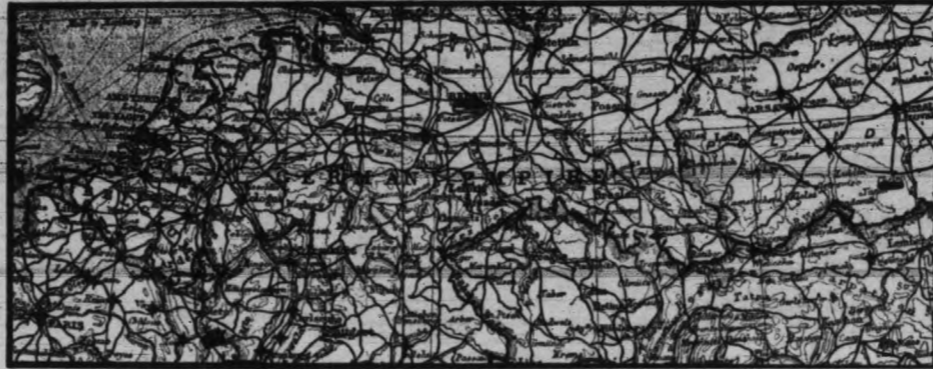

THE MESOPOTAMIA COMMISSION WILL SIT IN INDIA TOO

London, July 24.—Introducing a bill for the appointment of a commission to investigate the campaigns at the Dardanelles and in Mesopotamia, Mr. Asquith announced in the House of Commons to-day that the commissioners would be given discretion as to the privacy of otherwise of their proceedings. The commission will sit in India as well as in London.

SHIP DISCOVERY TO SHACKLETON PARTY

London, July 24.—It is announced officially that the government is sending the Antarctic ship Discovery to the relief of Shackleton's men at Elephant Island. The Discovery has been placed at the government's disposal by the Hudson's Bay Company free of cost. Lieut. James Fairweather is in command.

FROM NANCY, ACROSS GERMANY, OVER BERLIN, TO CHELM, FRENCHMAN'S FEAT

The greatest feat ever performed by a military aviator is that to the credit of Sub-Lieut. Marchal, of the French aerial corps. Starting from Nancy, he flew across Germany till he was over Berlin, where he dropped copies of a proclamation. From there he flew toward the Russian lines, but was forced through engine trouble to descend at Chelm, where he was made a prisoner by the Austro-Germans. Nancy, Berlin and Chelm are underlined on the map. He flew about 807 miles.

AT ONE POINT ON THE RIGA FRONT ENEMY DRIVEN BACK TWELVE MILES BY RUSSIANS; PRISONERS IN SOUTH

Czar's Troops Have Made Progress Along Front of 30 Miles From Gulf of Riga and Are Preparing Another Blow; in Volhynia and Galicia Russians Have Brought Latest Bag of Prisoners Up to 27,000

London, July 24.—The Germans have been driven back 12 miles at one point on the Riga front, according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd. The Russians have made progress on a front running from the Gulf of Riga to Ikskull, a distance of more than 30 miles, the greatest advance having been made along the coast line.

The dispatch says that fighting went on without pause for four days prior to Sunday. It has now halted, as the Russians require time to consolidate the ground they have gained and the Germans are waiting for reinforcements being brought from other sectors of the eastern front.

Petrograd, July 24.—The war office announced last evening that during July 20 and 21 Russian forces took prisoner 370 officers, including one general and one colonel, and 13,700 men and 10 guns. The total number of prisoners, including those given in the official communication of Saturday, amounts to 27,000 men. The total number of guns taken is 40.

Petrograd, July 24.—Forces of Emperor Nicholas operating in Turkish Armenia are steadily advancing upon the fortified town of Erzingjan from the north and the south, says an official statement issued to-day. On the east the Russian advance guards are within 15 miles of the place, which is 80 miles west-southwest of Erzerum.

ITALIAN GAIN IN THE ASTICO REGION

Effort Directed Toward Capture of Monte Cimont Making Good Progress

Rome, July 24.—Italian attacks in the Astico region to gain possession of Monte Cimont are making good progress, says an official statement issued to-day. The Austrian defences just below the summit were captured yesterday.

The statement says: "In the Astico region our attempts to gain possession of Monte Cimont are making good progress. Yesterday we captured the enemy's defences just below the summit. "On the Sette Comuni plateau two attacks launched against trenches we had taken on July 22 were repulsed. "Between Cismon and Avio we completed the occupation of the Upper Trevisinolo and St. Hollegirino valleys, taking summit of Monte Stradone and new positions on the slopes of Cima di Boche."

THE MESOPOTAMIA COMMISSION WILL SIT IN INDIA TOO

London, July 24.—Introducing a bill for the appointment of a commission to investigate the campaigns at the Dardanelles and in Mesopotamia, Mr. Asquith announced in the House of Commons to-day that the commissioners would be given discretion as to the privacy of otherwise of their proceedings. The commission will sit in India as well as in London.

London, July 24.—It is announced officially that the government is sending the Antarctic ship Discovery to the relief of Shackleton's men at Elephant Island. The Discovery has been placed at the government's disposal by the Hudson's Bay Company free of cost. Lieut. James Fairweather is in command.

$2,250,000,000 FOR BRITISH PURPOSES

Asquith Asks House of Commons to Vote That Amount

London, July 24.—Mr. Asquith to-day asked the House of Commons for a vote of credit of £450,000,000. This vote is the largest asked by the government since the beginning of the war and will bring the total voted this year to £1,950,000,000, and the total since the beginning of the war to £2,322,000,000.

In asking the vote of credit, the prime minister said the recent expenditure of the vote of credit was approximately £5,000,000 daily. The £5,000,000 daily referred to by Rt. Hon. Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, represented all the outgoings. All the expenditure from April 1 to last Saturday had been £59,000,000.

Mr. Asquith said that the navy, army and munitions had cost £379,000,000, the loans to Great Britain's allies £187,000,000, and food, supplies, railways, etc., £23,000,000. The average daily expenditure on the war had been £4,950,000.

He hoped the expenditure for the army and navy would not exceed the present level in the near future. The cost of munitions remained stationary at the highest level yet reached, he added, and might increase.

WILSON SOLICITOUS ABOUT GERMAN TRADERS

Washington, July 24.—President Wilson told callers to-day that the British blacklist against some firms in the United States was causing him a great deal of concern, but indicated that details of the plan of the American government to meet the situation had not been decided upon. Senator Hoike Smith, who said he spoke only for himself, declared after seeing the president that he thought the issue would be settled either by withdrawal or modification of the blacklist.

HON. A. HAGGART ILL.

Winnipeg, July 24.—Mr. Justice Haggart has gone to Rochester, Minn., again, to undergo a second serious operation. He suffered greatly while sitting on the Kelly appeal case.

FRENCH RETAIN ALL GAINS MADE BY THEM ON SOMME FRONT; WEATHER BAD; 800 TAKEN, TEN DAYS, NEAR VERDUN

Paris, July 24.—Bad weather prevailed along the Somme front and last night passed quietly with the French troops there, the war office announced this afternoon.

In a raid near Vailly, north of the Aisne, German trenches were penetrated and some prisoners taken. On the Verdun front east of the Meuse there were small local engagements, in the course of which French troops took 30 prisoners, making the total taken prisoner during the last 10 days in that district 800.

Sub-Lieut. Chaput, of the aviation corps, brought down his eighth hostile aeroplane near Fresnoy, in the Woerwaere region. The text of the statement follows: "On the Somme front the night was calm. The weather continues bad. "North of the Aisne reconnoitring parties penetrated enemy trenches near Vailly and brought back prisoners. "On the right bank of the Meuse last night, in the course of a small action of a detail surrounding the Salnte Fine chapel, we captured 30 prisoners. According to the latest information, the total number of prisoners taken by us in the last ten days in this sector amounts to 800. "During the night a German aviator dropped bombs on Luneville. One person was wounded. "Sub-Lieut. Chaput brought down yesterday his eighth enemy aeroplane, which fell near Fresnoy-et-Woerwaere. A second German machine which was attacked fell near Fort Vaux. "On the night of July 22-23 and on the night of July 23 our aeroplanes dropped light shells on the railroad station at Conflans, 40 on the barracks near Vignoulles and 25 on the aerodrome at Dieuseo."

MUCH OF VILLAGE OF POZIERES NOW HELD BY BRITISH TROOPS

Steady Pressure by Haig's Forces Has Resulted in Gains North of Somme; Progress Near High Wood and in Direction of Guillemont; Enemy Suffered Heavily Between Latter Two Points

London, July 24.—British troops captured a large part of the village of Pozieres, says an official statement issued this afternoon. They also gained some ground near High Wood, in the direction of Guillemont.

The night was comparatively calm. The text of the statement follows: "Apart from continuous heavy shelling by both sides during the night, comparative calm followed the severe fighting of yesterday.

"Yesterday between High Wood and Guillemont repeated counter-attacks by the enemy gained for him no advantage and very heavy casualties were inflicted by our artillery and machine gun fire.

"We gained some ground near High Wood and in the direction of Guillemont.

VICTORY IN FEW MONTHS, DECLARES MR. LLOYD GEORGE

London, July 24.—"British resourcefulness and British intelligence are going to snatch victory in a few months," was a statement made in the House of Commons this afternoon by Rt. Hon. David Lloyd-George, the successor of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener at the head of the war office.

BERLIN KNOWS TROOPS MUST LEAVE BELGIUM

Peace Committee Named by Govt. Will Prepare People for Withdrawal

The Hague, July 24.—One of the objects of the campaign for an "honorable" peace which will be launched simultaneously in 50 German cities on August 1 by a German committee of which Prince von Wedel is chairman, is to help prepare the ground for the evacuation of Belgium. This is according to a well-authenticated report received here from Germany. With the German troops out of Belgium, it is believed by German authorities and the committee that one of the chief obstacles standing in the way of peace would be removed.

GERMANS ALLEGE THEIR DESTROYERS WERE VERY BOLD

Berlin, July 24.—German torpedo boats in their raid from the coast of Flanders on the night of July 22-23, went up to the mouth of the Thames without sighting any British naval forces, says a statement issued to-day by the admiralty. Later they encountered several small British cruisers, but returned to their base undamaged.

SIX GERMAN DESTROYERS CHASED BY BRITISH BACK TO BASE ON BELGIAN COAST; NUMEROUS HITS WERE MADE

London, July 24.—Six German torpedo boat destroyers were engaged in a running fight by British light forces off Schouwen Bank yesterday, says a statement issued by the admiralty this afternoon.

The German vessels were repeatedly hit, but they succeeded in reaching the Belgian coast. The text of the official statement follows: "At midnight, July 23, while near the North Hinder light vessel, some of our light forces sighted three enemy destroyers which were retiring before the damage inflicted on them. "Subsequently off Schouwen Bank six enemy destroyers were engaged and a running fight ensued, during which the enemy was repeatedly hit, but he succeeded in reaching the Belgian coast. "One of our vessels was hit once and one officer and one man were slightly wounded. There was no other damage or casualty."

RUMORS PERSIST ROUMANIA TO ACT

By Middle of August, It is Said; Morait Shakes His Finger

London, July 24.—Rumors persist that Roumania will enter the war by mid-August, but there is no confirmation of such reports in official circles. Major Morait, the military critic of the Berliner Tagblatt, in German papers which will be reached London, warns Roumania not to tempt Providence in view of the present developments on the western front, together with the presence of Bulgaria in the rear and the formidable nature of the Austrian defences.

"If Italy's frontiers have proved extremely unfavorable for an offensive against Austria," he writes, "the frontiers of Roumania, should they become a theatre of war, are calculated to send the Roumanians headlong to disaster, and neither the assistance of 100,000 Russians nor of General Sarrait will be able to save them from their doom."

SIR E. GREY BECOMES VISCOUNT OF FALLODON

London, July 24.—For "personal and family reasons," Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, who recently was created an earl, has received the royal permission to take the title of Viscount instead of earl, under the style of Viscount Grey of Falldon. The inference is that the foreign secretary took the lower dignity to avoid the risk of being confused with Earl Grey, formerly governor general of Canada.

NO ANNEXATION, SAYS COUNT KAROLYI'S PARTY

Hungarian Independence Party Wants No More German Domination After War

Milan, July 24.—A declaration published by the Hungarian Party of Independence, reconstituted recently with Count Michael Karolyi as its president, says that the party hopes that "the present war may be finished as soon as possible by a peace preserving the country's interests and territorial integrity."

"Territorial expansion," the declaration continues, "is not in the interest of the Hungarian nation and would prevent the conclusion of peace. The present war shows that excessive armament and the alliances of great powers, opposed to each other, have caused the tension which brought on the disastrous catastrophe to the Hungarian nation as well as human culture. It is absolutely necessary that after the conclusion of peace the cause of this tension be abolished and a solid foundation of permanent peace laid."

"This, however, is possible only if the relations of the nations and powers opposed to each other are no longer settled by brute force, but only on the basis of firm international and judicial organization."

"The party demands, therefore, that in concluding peace, the settlement of conflicts by international courts of arbitration be made compulsory on every power."

PATTULLO WILL SIT FOR PRINCE RUPERT

Indications Leave No Doubt He Will Defeat Minister of Agriculture

AN ABLE MAN OF WIDE KNOWLEDGE

What Mr. Brewster and Mr. Macdonald Found in the North

Prince Rupert, July 19.—One has not to be very long in this city to become convinced that T. D. Pattullo will have no difficulty in beating Hon. William Manson in the old Skeena constituency, the western portion of which now bears the name of the G. T. P. Pacific terminus.

The minister of agriculture has not a happy fate in facing the electorate as a minister summoned to the council on the eve of an election. In 1907, he had been taken into the McBride cabinet as provincial secretary and minister of education, he was soundly defeated in Alberni by Mr. Brewster, then entering public life. He is deemed to an equally decisive beating here at the hands of Mr. Pattullo, who will enter the legislature for the first time as the first member for Prince Rupert.

The same impression to be gained here by chatting with townfolk, fishers and railwaymen is to be gleaned also among the settlers of Terrace, Pacific, the Kitsumkaleen and Lakelse valleys. Mr. Manson's friends, for some reason, look upon Terrace as a stronghold for the minister. A disinterested visitor fails to find any grounds for this confidence. If Mr. Pattullo does not get a majority in that portion of his constituency as well as all others it will be a most astonishing thing.

News from the Bella Coola valley, which was visited by Mr. Brewster and Mr. Oliver two years ago, but which considerations of time made it impossible to include in the present tour, are that it is more solidly behind the Liberal leader and the local candidate than it was then.

Country Districts. Mr. Bowser's boast that he will win in the country districts in spite of the cities being against him is entirely shattered by a trip through any of the rural constituencies of the province. Those on Vancouver Island are certainly not to be included in the government column, the northern and central portions of the province have no use for the premier, and the number and tone of the messages reaching the Liberal leader from the southern and Boundary districts assure him of a large measure of support there.

Warmly enthusiastic has been the welcome extended to Mr. Brewster and his party here. The Liberals are exceedingly well organized in the city; they have the assistance of a bright, newsy and well-edited paper, the News; there is no lack of energetic volunteers whose heart is in the work and whose devotion to the cause is deep and loyal; and in Mr. Pattullo they have a candidate whose integrity, ability and knowledge of public questions is undoubted and who is a host in himself as a campaigner. A. Pattullo, of Woodstock, nothing more is needed to recommend him to those who know the record, political and journalistic, of that fine western Ontario family.

In the three short stays they made in the city Mr. Brewster and Mr. Macdonald were kept busy meeting old and new friends and several deputations waited upon the leader. He was assured of the hearty approval of all Liberals for his action in issuing a writ against the premier, and both at the public meeting in the Westholme Opera House on Friday evening and at a reception held in the Liberal Association rooms last evening he was the object of flattering demonstrations. As in the south, the audiences addressed thus far in the north have manifested a keen interest in Mr. Macdonald's references to the Vancouver election and the conspiracy hatched against his reputation. His speeches have carried conviction everywhere and not a hearer but goes away satisfied that his honor is untouched.

At all points the contrast between the Bowser and the Brewster meetings is a matter of comment among those who have attended both, and the testimony is general to the remarkable difference in favor of those being held by the leader of the opposition.

At Prince Rupert. Prince Rupert shares, in a business way, in the general depression which had government at Victoria and Ottawa is accentuating. There is little doing outside of the fishing industry and the people are marking time while they look forward with impatience to the advent of the north business government under Mr. Brewster.

It is disheartening to see the magnificent dry dock and shipbuilding plant here idle. It is easily one of the finest and most complete on the Pacific coast and ranks with the best on this continent. About the only signs of animation in the yard are afforded by the guard of the Irish Fusiliers on duty there.

At a time when munitions are urgently needed here is a plant which might be in operation, to the double benefit of the allied cause and the workmen of Prince Rupert, but no advantage is taken of its facilities. Had the Laurier government remained in office there is not a doubt that vessels of a Canadian navy would now be building at the yard and that it would be one of the busiest places imaginable.

In every regard the plant is of the most modern type, and Superintendent

J. H. Pillsbury, under whose direction it has sprung into being, is quite ready to tackle any feat of naval or marine construction that offers, in wood, iron or steel. A view of the plant in the several shops and of the fully-equipped ship-shed bears him out in his confidence.

The dry dock is in three sections, each capable of independent use and any one a valuable acquisition to coast shipping. Connected, the three sections can take in a vessel of 20,000 tons, handling it quickly and easily. The dock is tested frequently and is instantly available for use. Thus far it has been requisitioned but once or twice, and then for minor uses.

The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company has a splendid plant a few hundred yards north of the dry dock, displaying as much activity as there is quiet and inaction about the latter. From and through this there is passing a steady stream of fish to the Atlantic coast and eastern cities, where a ready market is found for the products of the North Pacific waters. About 200 tons daily of fresh halibut is being rushed east, and in less than a week from the time the hardy fishers catch it on the banks it is being exposed for sale in the markets of New York, Boston, Montreal, Toronto and innumerable other centres and in course of consumption.

The business which T. H. Johnston, its manager, of with excellent men under him directing the several departments, is organized on a basis of marked efficiency. The buildings are admirably placed on the shores of Seal Cove, with the harbor in front and the G. T. P. main line at the back. The packing and shipping shed is at once a lesson in good management and a scene of unremitting industry at this season of the year. Through an open door in front come the halibut, who enter the way from the tiny "chickens" of two or three pounds, which are not shipped out, up to monsters of a hundred pounds or over. The fish are gutted outside, a sure, swift blow of a razor-sharp knife shears off the head, and the body of the fish is passed inside.

There they are picked up and placed in large scoops to be weighed, the watchful eye of an inspector constantly on them, and passed on to the packers. Firmly bedded in crushed ice, the fish are matted down in boxes and wheeled away into the refrigerator cars waiting on the siding. If enough cars accumulate to make up a special train one sets out in the early morning light on the long journey east; if not the cars are coupled on ahead of the day express and sent through. As many as twelve cars in a day have been sent out, with a total shipment of four hundred thousand pounds of fish.

In the great cold storage warehouse there can be packed away, to await marketing, 12,000,000 pounds of the harvest so abundantly yielded by these northern seas. Some of the rooms are filled with frozen herring for bait, tons of it in big stacks of twenty-pound blocks.

The company not only makes all the ice needed in its business and for the icing of cars, but supplies the commercial requirements of Prince Rupert. Its ice-making plant has a capacity of 50 tons a day.

Government Wharf. The government wharf, of which not a little has been heard in the House, apparently has as one of its uses that of an asylum for government supporters. Its maintenance is in excess of any revenue derived from it, and what the Times correspondent saw in ten minutes that he stood and watched a group of employees fully explained the reason. Six men, more or less able-bodied, were working with cant-hooks on a piece of planking fifteen feet long. They appeared to be taking it out of the flooring of the dock to replace it with a new piece, but why such a perfectly good bit of planking as it was should be condemned only the machine could explain. Even if it had to be moved, a man could have handled it easily. The lumberjack who could not have rolled away a log of the same length would have been laughed out of camp as a weakling. Yet there were half a dozen men, at four dollars a day each, idly toying with a plank and seemingly having great difficulty to move it at all. The inclination was strong on an eye-witness to walk over and lift the plank away by hand. This work, however, is of a piece with road work, where economy and efficiency are the last things thought of. There is an election in sight, and Hon. William Manson needs votes.

Almost within a stone's throw of the drydock is the site of the provincial government buildings, still only a site. The clearing of this was one of the scandals of the early days of the city. For months men idled away their time at forty-five cents an hour—clearing and leveling the site, and when, in the natural course of events, the work had to cease to an end the recipients of public bounty looked upon almost as an act of gross injustice to them.

Post Office Site. Another monument of graft and waste is the post office site. This was purchased by the federal government for some $5,000 although it had been offered to a realty firm not long before for $5,000 on terms and probably could have been got for $50,000 cash. On the excavation of this, in part, there has been spent $25,000, and all the country has to show for the total expenditure is a gaping hole in a hillside.

One could fill a volume with the stories told here of incompetence and mismanagement. Instances adduced by the speakers from the public accounts of that sort of thing elsewhere are capped by the people here with significant local instances and illustrations.

This farmer was a very positive man. "Far fence posts," said he, "and they will not forever. I have tried it three times and I know."

Haynes absolutely guarantees all watch repairs.

STURMER IS RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER NOW

Petrograd, July 24.—Sergius Sazonoff, minister of foreign affairs, has resigned. He is succeeded by Boris Vladimirovitch Sturmer, the premier, who has taken over the office.

M. Sturmer retains the leadership. Alexei Khvostoff, former minister of the interior, has been re-appointed to that office, while M. Mikaroff has been appointed minister of justice.

M. Sazonoff retired from the foreign ministry at his own request. The emperor in a receipt referring to M. Sazonoff dwells on the seal with which the minister followed his majesty's suggestions, "inspired by justice and the country's honor." The emperor regrets that the state of M. Sazonoff's health compelled him to resign.

JAS. WHITCOMB RILEY PASSED AWAY AT 63

Paralysis Caused Death of Hoosier Poet at Indianapolis Home

Indianapolis, July 24.—James Whitcomb Riley died on Saturday night, while only Mr. Riley's nurse, Miss Clementia Prough, was awake at the poet's home. He had asked for a drink of water, and reclined on his bed again. Miss Prough resumed her vigil, and, noticing that the poet seemed not to be resting easily, approached his bed. Mr. Riley died before she reached his side. Mr. Riley's death was due to paralysis. He suffered a violent stroke about 7.30 o'clock Saturday morning, and the members of his household were greatly alarmed, but under the doctor's ministrations the poet seemed to improve, and early Saturday evening was regarded as much better. Information was given to the public that Mr. Riley was in no danger, but within a few hours he was dead. Members of Mr. Riley's family were summoned immediately. They are his brother-in-law, Henry Eitel; his nephew, Edmund H. Eitel; and his niece, Miss Elizabeth Eitel.

James Whitcomb Riley, "The Hoosier Poet," was born at Greenfield, Indiana, in 1843, the son of a leading attorney of that place. He received a common school education, and, acquiring a taste for a roving life through accompanying his father about the circuits, gave up the study of the law, for which he was intended, taking to the road, first as a sign painter, then as assistant to a patent medicine peddler, and afterwards as a member of a strolling company of actors, for whom he composed songs and remodeled plays. He made a study of the "Hoosier" dialect; his poems in that vernacular were widely popular, and obtained his entrance to the magazines. Many of them appeared in The Indianapolis Journal, of whose staff he became a member.

Mr. Riley's first collection of verse, published in 1883, was "The Old Swimmin' Hole, and 'Leven More Pieces." In its publication he used the pen-name of "Benj. F. Johnson, of Boone." The combination of humor, pathos, and sentiment in Mr. Riley's verse appealed to "high" and "low" alike. Although styled "The Hoosier Poet," many of his most poetic pieces were written in ordinary English, such as "When She Comes Home," "Love's Prayer," and "Afterwhites." His appreciation of children is manifested to a remarkable extent in many poems dealing with their experiences, and some of these are familiar to a wide circle of readers.

Mr. Riley was made a member of the American Academy of Arts and Letters, and was awarded its gold medal for poetry in 1912. He published a complete collection of his poetry in the Biographical Edition, in 1912.

AUSTRIA HAS ILL, WOUNDED, IN LINE

Moving Troops From Italian Front and Serbia to Russian Front

AUSTRO-SWISS FRONTIER CLOSED BY VIENNA GOVT.

Milan, July 24.—Information received from Switzerland is to the effect that the Austrian government has closed again the Austro-Swiss frontier. The reason is believed to be a general levy en masse.

Austria is calling out her last reserves, including half recovered invalids and wounded, and is withdrawing a large part of her troops from the Italian front, as well as transporting troops up to now stationed in Serbia. These forces are being sent to the Russian front. It is said that already 100,000 of her army of occupation in Serbia has been sent to Galicia.

The maximum number of reserves that can be put into the field is estimated at about 400,000.

Another reason for closing the frontier is to prevent news from getting to the allies of the grave condition of the dual monarchy.

HALF-PRICE SALE OF PARASOLS STILL CONTINUES

SEARCH FOR MURDERER IN SAN FRANCISCO

Police Scouring City for Man Who Set Off Bomb Saturday

San Francisco, July 24.—Virtually the entire organization of the police department was being used to-day in an effort to run down the perpetrator of Saturday's bomb outrage, which took the lives of 6 and injured 44 persons during San Francisco's preparedness parade. Chief of Police D. A. White held a conference late yesterday with all the precinct captains and gave special orders for their co-operation. A special bureau with a squad of detectives attached was in operation to-day with the one purpose of bringing quick retribution. In addition to this bureau, a secret bureau is to be organized by the chief of police with a number of detectives trained in the investigation of bomb plots and outrages in eastern cities. In addition to the efforts put forth by the police force, the chief has asked for the co-operation of the entire city. It was momentarily expected that others would be added to the list of dead to-day. At least two of the seriously wounded were between life and death all last night and early this morning.

The temper of the city, thoroughly aroused by the character of the crime, is expressed by the offer of $5,000 reward by Mayor James Rolph, Jr. for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. A reward of $1,000 already had been offered by the brother of one of the bomb victims. It was expected that steps would be taken by the state government to-day to add to the reward.

Clues.
The police are working on a number of more or less indefinite clues. Several conflicting stories have been told by persons who claim to have witnessed the placing of the suitcase believed to have contained the bomb, but the police have accounts of others whose stories tally.

As part of the investigation, every lodging house in the city is being canvassed, particularly in the poorer sections of the town, and the landlords questioned as to recent tenants whose actions might be regarded with suspicion. All plumbing shops and metal supply stores in the city are being visited in an effort to find the origin of the matters that composed the bomb. The infernal machine, as partially reconstructed by the police, evidently consisted of a heavy piece of iron pipe, six or eight inches in diameter, charged with nitro-tinuel, nitro-glycerine or some similar high explosive. Bullets, slugs and various kinds of scrap metal were the death-dealing missiles scattered broadcast by the firing of the exploded.

This is believed to have been set off by clockwork.

None of the various clues offered has led to arrests as yet. The only man taken into custody is Frank W. Joseph, a Finnish sailor, who was arrested shortly after the explosion for commencing the act of the bomb-maker, according to the police. There is nothing to connect him with the outrage, the police admit.

Following a meeting last night of the law and order committee of the Chamber of Commerce, recently organized to break the "Redeemers' strike," Chairman F. J. Koster announced that a call would be issued to-day for a mass meeting of citizens on Wednesday

ENTENTE WARSHIPS AWAIT DEUTSCHLAND

Off American Coast Keeping Watch; Bremen Has Not Put in Appearance

Norfolk, Va., July 24.—Only one of the allied warships patrolling off the Virginia Capes waiting for the German submarine Deutschland or her sister ship, the Bremen, was in sight early to-day, and she was cruising far out at sea.

Seafaring men who had been expecting the arrival of the Bremen within the last two days now say she can not be anywhere near the Capes. The weather during the last 48 hours has been ideal for a dash into the harbor. The sea has been rough, the sky has been overcast almost continuously and rain has been falling.

If the Bremen had been near, shipping men say, she would have taken advantage of these conditions to come in. Persons in German circles who predicted the coming of the Bremen yesterday admitted their disappointment, but thought the boat had been delayed in starting. They recalled that the Deutschland was more than a week overdue.

TURKISH STATEMENT.
Constantinople, July 24.—A defeat of British cavalry detachments by Turkish forces east of Suez, near the canal, was announced by army headquarters to-day. The British fled toward the canal pursued by the Turks.

British detachments advancing west of Katia, 30 miles from the canal, were driven off by Turkish skirmishers.

"People should never assist." "No," replied Miss Cayenne. "And yet everybody wants to be a little bit entertaining. And so many of us can't sing or recite." —Tribune, O., Humeral.

MANY QUESTIONS FOR BRITISH GOVT.

Besides Ireland, Dardanelles and Mesopotamia Will Be Discussed in Parliament

London, July 24.—An acute stage has been reached in the Irish question. Unless the situation suddenly changes doubt is expressed whether the government will be able to introduce an amending bill this week as had been promised.

The Nationalist members of parliament held another meeting to-day. The Nationalists insist that the bill shall conform to the terms agreed upon in the settlement and they say they will have nothing to do with the proposals to make the exclusion of the province of Ulster permanent or reduce the Irish representation in the imperial parliament pending the final settlement.

In addition to the subject of Ireland, the government will have many questions to engage its attention during the week. Critics of the cabinet will attempt to prolong the debate on the bill for the appointment of the promised committee to investigate the campaigns at the Dardanelles and in Mesopotamia, while introduction by Mr. Asquith to-day of a new vote of credit will open a general debate on the conduct of the war.

THE WAR'S PROGRESS.

While the last week has not been marked by striking territorial gains in the main war zones there has been no relaxation of the grinding pressure which was ushered in by Brusiloff's thunderbolt smash in the early part of June.

The German war office says the allies have not been able to resume their offensive on both sides of the Somme, but it is careful to refrain from declaring that the operation has been abandoned.

ingen and von Mackensen have their way he will not make another. The fighting in the Riga section is somewhat obscure, but Petrograd attaches profound importance to it.

The last week has been marked by a renewal of the Grand Duke's sensational advance in Asia Minor. The capture of Balbut on the high road between Erzerum and Trebizond has been followed by the occupation of other points fifty miles northwest of it.

"CIVILIZATION AND HUMANITY." The tender Hun heart is torn with anguish at the thought of what the barbarous British may do to his submarine which sailed in triumph into the port of Baltimore and rent the filament of Britain's sea supremacy into shreds.

"It is quite possible that British vessels are really preparing to do what it is suggested they may do—assemble at the mouth of the Chesapeake and attempt on sight to sink the Deutschland and her crew.

That is a moving appeal, but, strange to say, it appears to have had no softening effect upon the stony hearts of the American people. The New York Sun thus expresses the popular mind upon the subject:

judgment of its dastardly, cowardly character, no offer of such atonement as is possible for the death of the thousand and more innocent non-combatants, through Herr Dr. von Jagow's Ministry of Foreign Affairs or through any other German official channel.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE. The government press says the Liberals fear the soldiers' vote. It knows, of course, that this is not the case. The sentiment of the British Columbians on active service is no different from the sentiment of the electors within the province as exhibited in the recent by-elections.

"Necessity knows no law," said the Hun when first he planted his big feet upon the bosom of Belgium. The law of necessity is again in operation, and the Hun is, thinking about withdrawing from riven Belgium as the first step towards "an honorable peace."

GOT WHAT WAS COMING. The scapgoat son of an affluent tradesman came to the end of his resources recently, and sent home a piteous appeal for funds, adding that if help were not forthcoming he and his wife would be driven to the workhouse.

An old Scotch farmer, who had been henpecked all his life, was about to die. His wife felt it her duty to offer him such consolation as she might, and said: "Sandy, you are about to go, but I will follow you."

"Considerably more than a year has elapsed since the perpetration of that great crime against the law of nations, the law of humanity and the law of civilization; and there has been, so far as the public knows, no denunciation of the crime, no acknow-

The government has appointed Henry Saunders a school trustee in place of H. F. Helsterman, resigned.

A party of civic officials and friends made the annual visit to Elk Lake on Thursday. The water commissioner stated at a dinner subsequent to the inspection that it was only a question of money to make the water service equal to the best on the continent.

You, Too, Can Have Sound Beautiful Teeth

The cost is probably much less than you anticipate, and as for pain and discomfort, there is none!

Only a day or two ago one of my lady patients informed me that she would have had her teeth attended to months ago had she not been possessed of the idea that perfect dentistry was something totally beyond her means.

Are you laboring under the same misapprehension? If so, let me assure you that the question of cost should be the last thing to deter you from benefiting by my up-to-date dental service.

My absolutely modern equipment and my extensive clientele make it possible for me to provide the very best dental service at the lowest possible price.

Let me examine your teeth; it will cost you nothing. Let me explain the nature of your requirements and tell you of my remarkably low rates.

MINISTER HERE FROM SASKATCHEWAN

Hon. A. P. McNab Says Crop Prospects Are Exceptionally Bright

On a short visit to the city, the minister of public works for Saskatchewan, Hon. A. P. McNab, with Mrs. McNab, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. McNab has been on the coast for some little time, having come west with Hon. A. Turgeon, the attorney general of Saskatchewan.

Mr. McNab says the crop prospects in that province are exceptionally good, and in the northern section the promise is as bright as was the case 12 months ago. "The farmers are carrying out considerable improvements to their buildings," he said, "that will mean an increased demand for western lumber, in which the British Columbia yards will benefit. If the returns for the harvest are as good in 1916 as they were last fall, not only will the farmers in Saskatchewan want lumber, but those who have investments on the coast will have ready money for their obligations in the form of taxes and payments, etc."

Mr. McNab said he found a much more hopeful feeling prevalent on the coast, particularly on the American side, than was the case on the occasion of his last visit. While British Columbia appeared to have felt the depression worse than any part of Canada, he did not doubt that the recovery would come, aided by the harvest in the western provinces.

Mr. McNab is a typical prairie man who combines business in a city with the conduct of a farm. He resides at Saskatoon, and prior to receiving his present appointment in 1912 was minister of municipal affairs for the province.

THE NEW EDISON

DIAMOND-DISC PHONOGRAPH

Own one of these instruments. Set apart a period of each day as your "musical hour," and you will come to know the very personality of every famous artist and master instrumentalist.

Your imagination can conceive no more realistic reproduction of music than the newly invented Edison Phonograph provides. It embodies a new art whereby all forms of music are actually re-created.

Differing in a score of ways from the ordinary talking machine, the new Edison re-creates music so that the reproduction is indistinguishable from the original. In actual test, the living artist side by side with the instrument, this has been proven, not once but a hundred times.

UNVEIL PICTURE OF JAMES STUART M'ADAM

Special Service at Methodist Church, Esquimalt, Yesterday Morning

At the Methodist church, Esquimalt, yesterday morning Rev. Robert Hughes, the pastor, held a special service after the regular morning service for the purpose of the unveiling of the picture of the late James Stuart McAdam, who was for years a resident of the Esquimalt district and one of the earliest trustees of the church. He also was reeve of the Esquimalt municipality.

The ceremony took place in the presence of Mrs. McAdam, widow of Mr. McAdam, the trustees of the church and others. Among these was F. H. Wright, also one of the early trustees of the church. The picture was placed in position by William Smallwood, while those present sang the hymn "Servant of God, Well Done."

HELD FLOWER SHOW

West Saanich Women's Institute to Give Proceeds to the Red Cross Society.

A flower show was held on Saturday afternoon in the West Saanich hall in aid of the Red Cross Society. It was under the auspices of the West Saanich Women's Institute and was followed by an entertaining programme in the evening. There was a profusion of flowers and the competition was very keen, many splendid blooms being exhibited. There was a large exhibit from the experimental farm sent by Professor Stevenson, who acted as judge. After the show Professor Stevenson donated the flowers sent from the farm to be auctioned in the hall, the proceeds to be given to the Red Cross Society. Mr. Bailey and some of the other exhibitors also donated their flowers for the same purpose. The amount received for the Red Cross as a result of the show and entertainment is not yet known, but will be estimated at a meeting of the West Saanich Women's Institute to be held to-morrow. At the musical entertainment the programme consisted of instrumental and vocal numbers by local performers and was greatly enjoyed.

The useful work performed by dogs in France reminds us that within living memory dogs were employed to draw carts in England for pleasure as well as for the conveyance of fish. In the first half of the 19th century they were largely used by working men and the humbler members of "the fancy" for Sunday outings. The dogs employed were sturdy animals of a mongrel character, generally with a strain of the old English bull mastiff. Twenty miles in an hour was nothing to them, and while on these excursions they were sparingly fed on bread soaked in a little beer, which is said to have been a sustaining diet.—London Chronicle.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW A COMPLETE SUCCESS

Directors of Shawnigan and Cobble Hill Women's Institute Complimented

The second annual flower show of the Shawnigan and Cobble Hill Women's Institute was held by kind permission of the directors in the hall of the Shawnigan Lake Athletic Association. It was held in conjunction with the Shawnigan Lake regatta and was well attended, 700 persons paying for admission. The display included five divisions and thirty classes. While there were no entries in some of the classes on account of the backward season, the entry list totalled 150.

The judges expressed extreme satisfaction with the very high level of the exhibits, which they considered of unusual excellence, especially in view of the bad season. They congratulated the exhibitors very warmly upon the improvement over last year's show. The judges also specially complimented the directors of the Women's Institute upon the admirable organization of the exhibition and on the careful attention given to every detail in the arrangements, which reflected great credit on those who were responsible for the success of the day. Mrs. Frank Elford, president of the institute, Miss Alice Ravenhill, being secretary-treasurer. Ice cream was sold for the benefit of the Red Cross funds and brought in a large return.

COMMISSIONERS HERE TO HOLD SITTING

Inquiry to Be Held in Victoria To-morrow Concerning Contracts in Saskatchewan

To conduct the inquiry into the Saskatchewan public works situation, in so far as receiving evidence in this city is concerned, two of the commissioners, Mr. Justice Newlands and Mr. Justice Lamont, arrived in the city last evening on the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer from the north. Chief Justice Sir Frederick W. G. Haultain, another member of the commission, will join them here this afternoon. The commission will sit to hear evidence to-morrow. The secretary, Mr. Ireland, has already arrived from Regina.

The commissioners who will conduct the inquiry here are all well known men, particularly the chief justice who recently received the honor of knighthood. Sir Frederick was for several years premier and attorney general of the Northwest Territories before the creation of the provinces, and till appointed to the bench was leader of the opposition in the Saskatchewan legislature.

Mr. Justice Newlands was a judge in the territories prior to 1906, when he was assigned to the province of Saskatchewan. He has acted as royal commissioner on similar occasions previously.

Mr. Justice Lamont was a prominent politician in Saskatchewan and its first attorney general, being appointed to the bench in 1907. He has sat both in the House of Commons and in the local assembly.

The object of the buildings commission, as it is known, is to probe the circumstances under which the contracts for the provincial jail and asylum were awarded. The former deputy minister of the department and two or three other witnesses will be heard at the session here.

AT THE THEATRES

ROYAL VICTORIA.

For the first time to-night and for the balance of this week, the Royal Victoria will have for its attraction, William Farnum in a powerful story entitled "The Wonderful Adventure." The story is in part biographical. Captain Lawton, the author, said recently while discussing his latest work at his summer residence at Beechhurst, L. I.: "Some of the events embodied in it actually occurred to a man who is still living and whose name is honored as one of the most famous of modern novelists. The idea that some of the more striking events of his life would make an impressive photoplay if transposed from my play and novel occurred to me while I was cruising in my yacht Omoo in the West Indies. I at once wrote the scenario on board and put back for New York where Mr. Fox became interested in my work and accepted it for the use of Mr. Farnum in the above play." It is a photodrama of modern life of thrilling power and tense interest.

On the same programme will also be shown a Pictorial Weekly and an excellent comedy.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

A new departure is announced in pictures for children each afternoon this week. There is undoubtedly a great need for programmes suitable for young folk in these days of long 5-reel features of heavy drama. "Rumpelstiltskin" is a fairy play in four acts produced by the New York Motion Picture Company and founded on the popular nursery story. The settings are in beautiful colors and the fairy scenes, which abound all through the film, will assuredly please the young folk.

The feature has drawn big crowds of young and old wherever it has been shown and doubtless many parents in Victoria will be glad of a play eminently suited for the children. The Majestic theatre is meeting the desire of many in providing a programme suitable for the young.

The evening performance will commence at 8.30 following without a break the children's feature, which will only be exhibited in afternoon. The announcement for the adults is a three-reel drama, "West Bound" with Kathryn Williams taking the principal part; a second episode, which is a complete story in itself, of the Stargare series: "A Voice in the Wilderness," and the usual breezy comedies which are always a feature in the Majestic programme. The children's picture should certainly make a great hit this week.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

The bill at the Pantages theatre, which opened with the matinee, this afternoon, is remarkable for the amount of refreshment for wearied spirits which it offers. It may be summarized as mirth and melody; both of these in abundance.

"The Elopers," with Teddy McNamara as the bright particular star, is the headliner. This is a most attractive tabloid musical comedy based on the big musical extravaganza of the same name and retains the principal features of the original. There are three men and eight dancing girls in the cast which features, as well as the inimitable Teddy, his clever sister, Nellie McNamara, and Jessie Maher. The costumes and setting of the piece add much to its pronounced popularity.

Lazar and Dale, two blackface comedians, offer a most amusing number called "Joining the Union," which is only a pretext for delivering some very good patter intermingled with some musical renditions on piano, trombone and violin.

Davett and Duval offer a novelty sketch entitled "Holding Out," which depicts the hard life of two out-of-work actors, but in this case they find opportunity to obtain numerous laughs at their predicament.

Dickinson and Deagon have a patter number that is remarkable, especially by the work of the young lady impersonating a shy little girl making her debut in a singing offering; the humor of the act is infectious.

Will Morris is probably the best and most comical cycling comedian that has ever visited this city; he keeps the audience in a state of high glee without a single word; his pantomime with the wheel is a scream, and besides Morris is a good rider.

Florence Rayfield is a very attractive girl who sings some new songs in a most pleasing manner.

The Fourteenth episode of the "Irony Claw" serial develops more mystery in the disappearance of the hero, "The Laughing Mask."

VARIETY THEATRE.

Followers of Bluebird Photoplays will be delighted with the announcement that beautiful and talented Louise Lovely, the most consistent star on the Bluebird programme, will again be the attraction at the Variety theatre to-night, to-morrow and Wednesday, in "Bobbie of the Ballet," a five-reel episode based largely on theatrical life and its vicissitudes.

The rapid rise to permanent popularity of this talented Australian girl has been one of the marvels of the present year. She was well known as a dramatic artist in Australia, but had never appeared on the screen until she came to America, around last Christmas, and applied to Joseph De Grasse for work as an "extra" in his Bluebird company.

Struck by her charm and beauty Mr. De Grasse found a place for her in a minor part in "The Grip of Jealousy," then being in process of making. Before her first week had ended Miss Lovely was acting the leading role and blossomed forth as a star of the sixth feature presented in the popular Bluebird series.

Since that time she has been a Bluebird star at fixed intervals of every five weeks, having been as the star in "Tangled Hearts" and in "The Gilded Spider." Now, as the star of "Bobbie of the Ballet," she will be seen in a role that is better suited to her peculiar gifts of physical charm and dramatic talent than has been supplied by any photoplay Bluebird has thus far provided her with.

There is an intense element of human interest in the story, with cross-current of varying themes and counter plots to make the narrative effective of gripping entertainment. In Miss Lovely's support will be the equally beautiful Gretchen Lederer, the talented character actor, Lon Chaney and the versatile Jay Belasco who plays the lead. "Bobbie of the Ballet," is sure to maintain the standard of excellence that has brought Bluebirds into such pronounced popularity with screen fans.

DOMINION THEATRE.

The Famous Players present the inimitable Marguerite Clark in "Silks and Satins" on the Paramount programme at the Dominion all this week. The plot of this romantic drama involves two periods of historic and romantic interest, namely the Napoleonic era and the present.

Diminutive Marguerite Clark portrays the role of a modern American girl and that of her ancient French ancestress, Felicite, for whom she has been named. The leading men and women in her support are Thomas Holding, Vernon Steele, Clarence Hardysides, W. A. Williams and Fayette Perry.

Felicite is found, as the play commences, to be in a very sad mood on the eve of her wedding, for her narrow minded father is forcing her to marry a man not of her choice. She detests this young Felix Breton, whose cold, nonchalant manner offends her. The only person, for whom her heart craves is Jack Desmond, who is greatly disliked by her father.

According to the custom of the old family, a much cherished table bequeathed through a long succession of ancestors, is ordered to be removed to the floor below, so that the wedding gifts may be placed on it. During the removal proceedings, the awkward bridesmaids let the table fall down the stairway to its destruction, where Felicite finds it, much to her dismay. Among the ruins she uncovers a drawer, which had been hidden for decades, and carefully concealed in it are two packages and a diary. Anxious to learn their contents, Felicite hastens to her boudoir. In the first package, a bracelet is revealed, the exact duplicate of which she has had presented to her by Felix Breton, her future husband. The remaining one contains a small locket with two miniatures framed within it. On close examination she traces in the faces of the couple a distinct likeness to herself and Jack.

Taking up the diary she reads the following story, as it occurred in France generations before:

Felicite, in order to escape the attentions of her would-be husband, flees from her father's home. On the road she is accosted by Henri, a burly ruffian who wishes to marry her. Jacques, a soldier of fortune, passes by, and rescues the girl from the fellow. Her father dies, and she is forced to live with Henri and his father, who are distant relatives of hers. Etienne, her husband-to-be, fears to fight Henri, and sends Jacques in his stead, having no knowledge of the love existing between his intended bride and the swordsman. By means of his quick wits and sword, Jacques recognizes and saves Felicite from the dangerous situation. On the road from Henri's chateau they come to a cross-roads, one leading to Etienne, the other to a new land. Felicite chooses the one to happiness—the road to the new land.

Happy over the decision of her great-grand parent, Felicite decides to follow the same course. By the next day she is safely on her way with Jack.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT REVIEWING TROOPS

Governor-General at Sidney This Afternoon; Esquimalt Inspection To-morrow

H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught this afternoon is visiting the military camp at Sidney, where are quartered the 143rd B. C. Bantams, the 231st Seaforth Highlanders and the contingent of 200 Yukoners. The governor general left Victoria at 2 o'clock so as to reach the Sidney camp in time to review the troops at 8 o'clock.

Accompanying his royal highness were Capt. Stanton, his military secretary; Major Duff, A.D.C., and Capt. McIntosh, A. D. C.

Col. Duff, Stuart, camp commandant, will be in command with Lieut.-Col. F. W. Boulton and Major E. A. Seely Smith, general staff officer, as his staff officers. Lieut.-Col. Powley will be in command of the 143rd and Lieut.-Col. Leach in command of the 231st. The bands of the battalions will be in attendance.

The governor general was to have visited the fortifications at Esquimalt this morning, but owing to the long drive to Sidney this afternoon the inspection at Esquimalt has been postponed until to-morrow morning.

The troops who will be reviewed this afternoon number about 1,500 men.

BANTAMS WILL HOLD RECRUITING RALLY

Returned Soldiers to Make Appeals This Week From Stages of Victoria Theatres

To-night the Bantams will start a recruiting rally in the effort to secure more recruits in Victoria for the 143rd Battalion, C. E. F. Since July 4 a total of 35 recruits have been enlisted in Victoria, in addition to those enlisted elsewhere, and of this number but five were local men. The Civilian Recruiting Committee which was formed recently to assist recruiting has arranged for the rally, and the services of a number of the returned soldiers who are recuperating at the Convalescent Home at Esquimalt have been secured. Commencing to-night short recruiting addresses will be made by the returned soldiers from the stages of the various places of amusement in Victoria on behalf of the Bantams.

This morning a recruit arrived in Victoria who has come half way across the continent to enlist in the Bantams. He made his way from Winnipeg at his own expense to Vancouver where he called at the recruiting office and was enlisted by Lieut. Ely and sent to Victoria to join his fellow Bantams in camp at Sidney.

The strength of the 143rd has now reached 850 men all told, and the recruiting staff is binding every energy to hurry the work of enlistment in order that the battalion may be ready for overseas service as soon as possible. Some interesting additions have been made to the exhibition of curios in the windows of the central recruiting office of the Bantams at the corner of View and Broad streets. Among the additions are some visiting cards of the son of Admiral von Spee, who was drowned when his father's ship was sunk by Admiral Sturdee's squadron off the Falkland Islands, and cards of the officer's mess of the German cruiser Neuenburg which also went down in that action. There are also some interesting postcards from the

TAKES SUPPLIES FOR EXPLORER STEFANSSON

Schooner Great Bear Leaves Puget Sound on Tuesday for Herschel Island

Seattle, July 24.—Instead of a leisurely hunting and whaling trip for the benefit primarily of sport for a number of wealthy big game hunters, the voyage of the schooner Great Bear has resolved itself into a dash for Herschel Island and the mouth of the Mackenzie river for profit. Speed has become necessary because of the lateness of the season. The Great Bear must get in and try to get out again before she is encircled by the polar ice. She will sail north at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Somewhere in the Arctic, either at Herschel Island or farther to the eastward, Capt. Lane expects to meet Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, or one of his messengers. Capt. Lane found Stefansson last year after he had been given up as lost, and he promised at that time to return again this year with supplies. It is also probable that Stefansson will come out with the Great Bear.

It may also happen that the Great Bear will be frozen in at Herschel Island and will have to spend the winter there. In that event John Borden, millionaire sportsman of Chicago, who is half owner of the Great Bear and a partner with Lane in the whaling and trading venture for which the schooner was built, will mush out over the snow to Fairbanks.

It was a most congenial party of wealthy sportsmen that planned to spend the summer months on the Great Bear, but the delay in construction of the vessel has spoiled the dreams of Rochester Slaughter and C. K. Knickerbocker of Chicago.

The Great Bear, which has just been completed at Port Blakeley and is probably the staunchest craft of her size ever built in this country, has been loaded with 275 tons of trading supplies. This includes everything from needles and thread to lumber and rifles and ammunition.

Capt. Lane and John Borden have formed the Borden-Lane Company, Whaling and Trading, and posts will be established along the Northern Canadian shore. A head station will be established at Herschel Island, which will be used as the distribution point. Next year the Great Bear will get an earlier start and all of the stunts planned for this trip will be repeated. For the Chicago sportsmen have promised to make the voyage next spring. The Siberian coast will be touched at that time.

The Great Bear will head out directly from Cape Flattery by Unimak pass, thence making the Friblof islands and Nome.

TITAN'S SAILING DATE.

An effort is being made to get the Blue Funnel liner Titan away from Seattle on July 30. She was originally scheduled to sail from this port on July 25. When she touches here on her outward voyage the Titan will make her last call in the trans-Pacific service. Following her arrival in the Orient she will load for the United Kingdom, and she will be replaced in this service by the liner Proteusians.

GEORGE ON ALASKA TRIP.

The G. T. P. steamship Prince George, Capt. D. Donald, which arrived from Anxox on Sunday night, left port on time this afternoon for Skagway and points in Alaska. When she leaves Vancouver at midnight the steamer will have 175 passengers all told, her entire accommodation being taken up.

MONTEAGLE HAD FINE TRIP FROM YOKOHAMA

C. P. R. Liner Reached Port at Noon With Heavy Passenger List and Full Cargo

Thirteen days, twenty-one hours steaming from Yokohama, the Canadian-Pacific liner Monteagle came alongside the outer docks at noon today. The liner brought in 98 saloon passengers and 37 steerage, one of the largest lists she has carried since she has been in the trans-Pacific service. Her cargo amounted to 5,885 measurement tons and included 3,000 bales of raw silk valued at $1,530,000.

Capt. A. Halley reported one of the finest passages he has experienced during his long career as an officer in the Oriental trade. The only dirty weather experienced throughout the trip broke yesterday when the liner was fast approaching the Vancouver Island coastline. A moderate gale blew from the southeast, causing the ship to pitch a little. Two days of fog were encountered in mid-Pacific when the liner was in the vicinity of the meridian.

"We were very fortunate this voyage. The sea was as calm as a millpond until we reached the coast," said Capt. Halley.

The Monteagle was three days late in getting away from the Orient on her return trip. She was two days behind in reaching Hongkong on her last outward voyage, and she was unable to make up the lost time. In crossing the Pacific, however, the liner cut down the time by several hours.

The officers of the Monteagle are saying a lot about a new loading record established by the vessel while at the China station. At Hongkong the Monteagle discharged and loaded approximately 3,000 tons of cargo in 44 hours, and within 48 hours after her arrival was dispatched on her return trip.

"This is a record that will take some beating," was the substance of remarks by the steamer's officers in speaking of the smart performances in handling of cargo.

This is the rainy season in the Far East, but the liner fortunately was not seriously delayed by rain while taking on freight at Japan ports.

Capt. Halley, boasts of a walking stick that to all intents and purposes is a weather barometer. Whenever rain is in the air the handle of this remarkable stick exudes moisture, and up to the time Capt. Halley last went ashore at Shanghai, this novel barometer had never failed him. During the stay of the Monteagle at Shanghai the general skipper sauntered up town and before he could return a heavy down-pour of rain completely spoiled the outing. "You may not believe me," said the skipper, "but the rain streams (not drops) came down as thick as lead pencils. It was not the rain coming down, but the water that came up, that ruined my clothes. The water rebounded from the sidewalk to my knees."

The Monteagle remained here but a short time. After disembarking 20 saloon, 20 second class and 52 steerage passengers, she left at 1 p. m. for Vancouver.

HARRISON LINE MOVEMENTS.

Two Harrison steamers got away from San Francisco on Saturday, one for Victoria and the other for London. The counselor, Capt. Sandford, cleared for this port and is due to arrive to-morrow with United Kingdom cargo. The barrister, Capt. Richards, left the Golden Gate on her return trip to the United Kingdom, via the Panama canal. She was loaded with a full cargo of foodstuffs.

EUREKA GETS NEW NAME.

The steamer Eureka, which was recently purchased by the Alaska Steamship Company from the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, to ply in the Alaska trade, according to the vice-president of the former concern, will probably be rechristened the Skagway in honor of the thriving northern city.

STEEL STEAMER IS BUILDING FOR JAPAN

Kishimoto Steamship Company Behind Order Placed With Wallace Shipyards

Vancouver, July 24.—It transpires that the steel cargo steamer which is to be built at the Wallace shipyards is for the Kishimoto Steamship Company, of Osaka, and the news became public with the arrival of the steamer Bankoku. Captain K. Konaka, of the Bankoku, was asked by his owners to take advantage of his visit here to go to North Vancouver and see what is going on and the Japanese shipmaster visited the Wallace yards in company with Willes Kemp, manager for Frank Waterhouse & Co., to which firm the Bankoku Maru is chartered.

Captain Kanaka was met by Mr. Wallace and W. Howie and was shown the plans for the new steamer. The order was placed here by Messrs. Dingwall, Cotts & Co., through John Eddie, on behalf of the Kishimoto Steamship Company. The steamer is to be 315 feet long and 45 feet beam and will have a carrying capacity of 5,000 tons.

Captain Kanaka was shown the work already done in preparing the site on which the ship will be built. A powerful gantry crane will be erected which will greatly facilitate the handling of the materials and work on the steamer will commence early next month, it is expected. She is to be delivered early in 1917.

SHNA YAK IN TROUBLE.

When the steam schooner Shna Yak went hard ashore eight miles south of Point Sur, on the Monterey coast, during the week end, while steaming in a dense fog, Capt. Close and all hands succeeded in reaching shore safely in the lifeboats. The crew reported that the vessel was believed to be badly damaged. The Shna Yak is well known at this port, having made a number of trips here from San Francisco. When the mishap occurred she was bound from San Pedro to the Golden Gate.

VETERAN DIVER ON KENKON SALVAGE JOB

Kadono, Now Seventy Years of Age, Was Expert Engaged in Salvaging Empress of China

Probably the most interesting figure aboard the Japanese steamer Kenkon Maru No. 3, which now rests on the keel blocks in the Esquimaut graving basin, is chief diver Kadono, who has the reputation of being the most expert diver in Japan. Kadono is a veteran of the submarine game. He is seventy years of age, but despite his advanced years is far more active and nimble in his particular line of work than men half his age.

To the work of this expert, K. Inui, owner of the Kenkon Maru, attributes the success attending the salvage of the steamer after she had been lodged on the Belle Chain reef for over six months. When Mr. Inui decided to come over here from Japan shortly after the Kenkon Maru was wrecked he persuaded Kadono to take charge of the salvage job and with a number of other divers and wreckers crossed from Yokohama by the liner Hawaii Maru.

Donning his diving suit, Kadono was the first man of the Japanese outfit to go below and examine the hull of the steamer as she lay on the rocks, and it was on his report that the plan of salvage operations was outlined. The aged diver worked just as hard as anyone in getting the ship afloat and he claims that the many hours he spends under water does not affect his health in the least. He was the first to volunteer his services to go below to adjust the steel lines beneath the hull when the vessel was being straightened up in dry dock. Kadono has been engaged in salvage work all his life, but this is the first time he has supervised the floating of a vessel on this side of the ocean.

One of the greatest salvage jobs he worked on was the raising of the C. P. R. liner Empress of China off the Japan coast several years ago.

SCHOONER WAS FROZEN IN Bender Brothers Shows Effects of Long Sojourn in Northern Ice.

Seattle, July 24.—Seventeen days from Bethel on the Kuskowim river, where she was frozen in during the winter, the schooner Bender Brothers has arrived in Seattle. She enjoyed splendid weather all the way down, but shows the effects of having spent the winter in the ice.

The Bender Brothers was frozen in last October while discharging freight at Bethel. Several of the persons on board, including the captain and chief engineer, mushed over to Seward and returned to Seattle. They went north again on the Ruby this spring. The Bender Brothers was left high and dry on the shore of the Kuskowim and had to be dug out of the sand before she could be floated.

One member of the Bender Brothers' crew was W. J. McLean, who went inside seventeen years ago and had not been out since. He is going to San Francisco and maybe east for a trip before returning to the north. He followed the stampede into the Iditarod last year, but says that the camp is no good except for big dredging outfits.

MAKURA ON TIME

Canadian-Australian Liner Left Honolulu at Midnight on Friday.

On the last lap of her voyage here from the Antipodes, the Canadian-Australian liner Makura, Capt. J. D. S. Phillips, sailed from Honolulu on Friday at midnight. The liner is due to reach port on Thursday night.

When she sailed from Auckland, N. Z., the Makura carried a very light list of cabin passengers, but the number was augmented by people boarding the ship at Honolulu. The Makura's cargo amounts to about 3,000 tons.

NOW AT VLADIVOSTOK.

The Robert Dollar steamer Beattie Dollar, from Vancouver, via Victoria, is reported to have reached Vladivostok on July 14 with a cargo of war supplies for Russia. The Japanese steamer Kenkon Maru, No. 5, also from Vancouver, reached Vladivostok the same day.

SALVAGE BOAT PILOT DUE AT DESTINATION

Touched at Salina Cruz En Route From Victoria to Ocos, Guatemala

If all goes well the little salvage steamer Pilot is expected to reach her destination, Ocos, Guatemala, late tonight to start work on raising the former German liner Sesostris, which for the past nine years has been hard ashore on the southern coast.

Word was received from Capt. F. C. Stratford today at the offices of the B. C. Salvage Company to the effect that the Pilot put into the Mexican port of Salina Cruz on Sunday morning for bunkers and fresh water and left the same evening for the south.

Ocos is about a day's steaming from Salina Cruz and the local officials of the salvage company are of the opinion that the wrecking outfit will reach the Guatemalan coast late today or early to-morrow.

The attempt to save the Sesostris will prove one of the most difficult salvage jobs ever undertaken on this coast, as the vessel lies about half a mile inshore in a small artificial lake which has been dug by native labor under the supervision of her present owner around the hull of the ship. When, after many months of hard work, sufficient sand had been excavated, the water seeped in and the craft is now partly afloat.

In order to float the Sesostris it will be necessary to dig a deep channel from the lake to the sea, and this will be the most difficult part of the undertaking, as heavy surf breaks continually over the exposed Guatemalan coastline. A temporary breakwater will have to be built by the salvors to prevent the surf blocking the channel entrance with sand.

Capt. W. H. Logan, of the B. C. Salvage Co., is still with the Salvor at the wreck of the steamship Bear, ashore at Sugar Loaf Reef, Cape Mendocino. Should the Bear be floated within the next week or two, it is expected that Capt. Logan will proceed south to supervise the operations at Ocos.

In the Saturday afternoon contest, Balcorn did the pitching and gave one of his high-class exhibitions, allowing but three hits and striking out 11 men.

In the Sunday morning game the Ladysmith team did a little better, scoring four runs off Milne, who was touched up freely in the first three innings.

BIG LEAGUE CLUBS MAY NUMBER PLAYERS

New York, July 24.—That the big league baseball magnates are studying ways and means to make the game still more attractive to its patrons is evident by several suggestions and innovations now being discussed among the American and National circuits.

The Cleveland club of the American League, has just inaugurated a system of numbering the players in order that the casual attendants at the games may have no difficulty in identifying the different members of the team.

FIVE C'S OBTAIN A DRAW AT WORK POINT

Great Stand by May and Tucker Staves Off Defeat for the Churchmen

Although the Garrison caught the Five C's out of form on Saturday afternoon at Work Point the best they could do was secure a draw after running up a score of 202 for 7 wickets.

The points gained by the Churchmen gave them a commanding lead for the championship and practically put the Garrison out of the running. The Five C's have 5 more games to play and they win them all with the possible exception of next Saturday's contest with the Inco's.

"CY" YOUNG STILL HOLDS THE RECORD

Sixty-Nine Batters Retired by the Veteran Twirler Without a Hit

Tom Hughes, of the Boston Nationals, recently pulled off a nice stunt when he worked in 16 consecutive innings without allowing a base hit to be made off his delivery, but it is hardly nice enough to be a major league record.

It was in 1904 that Young proceeded to shatter all records in this line, and before he got through he had created a new record in hurling hitless ball and one which stands to-day clean-cut and without a spot or blemish and without doubt the greatest piece of pitching the game ever witnessed.

This would give the great "C" 23 innings of hitless ball, or in other words, as far as the records show, 69 batters stepped to the plate and were retired in succession.

Just as one pitcher in the history of baseball, that is, a hurler who was working in a league of recognized standing and class, is credited with pitching two consecutive games in succession wherein the opposing batters failed to register a base hit, a big pitcher sailing under the name of Guye Wright, who hurried for the Dayton club of the Western Association, back in 1901, on September 1 of that season pitched a no-hit no-run game against Columbus.

DUKE INSPECTS THE SCOUTS AND GUIDES

Interesting Ceremony at Oak Bay Golf Links on Saturday; Music in Evening

H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, Chief Scout for Canada, on Saturday afternoon at the Oak Bay Golf Links formally inspected the Victoria Boy Scouts. The royal visitors arrived at the grounds shortly before four o'clock, the inspection taking place promptly at the time fixed by his royal highness.

Accompanied by the duchess and the Princess Patricia the duke crossed over to the saluting point. In readiness for the inspection the boys stood at the "alert," and the moment his royal highness took up his position the order was given and the Scouts brought their Scoutmasters of each troop were presented, and his royal highness listened with close attention while told of the members of the district Scouts who were now serving at the front or who had been wounded or killed in action.

After the Scouts the duke inspected the Girl Guides, under their guide mistress, Miss Leighton.

Appreciation was expressed for the splendid work which is being done by the boys, for the effort being put forth by the officers, and to those of the ranks who had offered themselves.

Before calling for three cheers for the King, which the scouts gave with lustiness and hats raised on their staves, the duke, who cap in hand set the example for the boys, presented to the provincial-commissioner, the Hon. T. H. Henegay, a Silver Wolf medal.

Three cheers were called by Mr. Henegay for the Duke, and for the Duchess and Princess Patricia by Colonel Cuncliffe, both being given with great heartiness.

The Girl Guides, a body hitherto little seen in Victoria, surprised every one by their smart appearance, good drill and large turnout.

After leaving the Country Fair and Flower Fete the viceregal party were conducted over the grounds by J. J. Shallock, chairman of the Oak Bay Red Cross committee.

At Government House in the evening their Royal Highnesses were entertained by a command performance by Leo Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky, the Russian artists who are spending the summer months in Victoria.

Late Governor of Massachusetts is Greatly Impressed With Conditions in Orient

Delighted with his first visit to the Orient and surprised with the wonderful change wrought in the Philippines by the Americans in the past few years, Ex-Governor David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, arrived on the Montague this afternoon.

In the course of a chat with the Times, Mr. Walsh said that he thought the Philippine question was one of those that while the Filipinos naturally wanted self-government, they were willing to wait all the time was ripe for the devotion of local administration from Washington.

"My visit has been one of leisure, and I shall go home with a broadened outlook on the countries of the far east."

Social Democratic Party—George E. Winkler, the well-known prospector and mining man, will contest Comox constituency in the interests of the Social Democratic party.

Alleged Housebreaking—In Saatchi police court an Italian was charged with attempting to break into his neighbor's house, on Roderick street, at 2 a. m. to-day. It is stated that he was disturbed by the striking of a match which aroused the proprietor's wife, who gave the alarm.

High School Attendance—The school board officials were naturally greatly interested in the returns for the High school entrance examination, which are published to-day. The number of successful candidates makes a large prospective entry into the city High school.

Miners on Strike—Fernie, July 24—All the miners at Coal Creek quit work this morning except the fire bosses and fan men. No reason is given, but it is supposed that the operators' refusal to grant a ten per cent advance in wages is the cause of the suspension of work.

WELL-KNOWN PIONEER RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Geiger Arrived in the City Fifty-Two Years Ago

Mrs. Geiger, relict of the late Thomas Geiger, passed away at 7 o'clock this morning at the residence of Mrs. McFee, Byron street, Oak Bay, with whom she had resided for the past year. The news of her death will be received with deep regret by a large circle of friends.

The death of Mrs. Geiger, who was 77 years of age, removes another of the best known pioneers of Victoria, as she had been a resident of the city for 52 years.

She leaves to mourn her loss three sons, Thomas F., E. F., and C. W. Geiger.

The remains are reposing at the Sands funeral parlors. The funeral has been arranged to take place on Wednesday morning, from the parlors at 8.45 and fifteen minutes later from the Roman Catholic cathedral.

PROFESSOR MARTIN HERE FROM ORIENT

Japanese Journalism is a very different thing to that of this country, where we teach accuracy as the first essential," said Professor Frank L. Martin, of the School of Journalism attached to the University of Missouri.

Professor Martin arrived with his family to-day on the Montague, having for the past fifteen months been in charge of the Japan Advertiser, one of the best papers published in English in the land of the mikado.

Although teaching newspaper work occupies most of his time, Professor Martin is a practical newspaper man who looks at the calling from the standpoint of the journalist, and not the university professor.

He says the vernacular press lacks the accuracy of the Anglo-Saxon newspaper, and therefore the translations from their influential papers which appear in English papers published in Japan, are often misleading.

The papers published in English can never have a large circulation in that country, he says, for only the official classes read them, outside the limited number of the foreign residents who naturally use them as the medium of information.

Although teaching newspaper work occupies most of his time, Professor Martin is a practical newspaper man who looks at the calling from the standpoint of the journalist, and not the university professor.

He said first for the discharge of the accused because more than two sessions had passed since they were committed for trial, while they were ready and pressing for trial. He argued that the failure of the crown to bring them to trial in this time should be followed by release of his clients.

He then asked that the indictments be quashed. His contentions included these: "That ministers of the crown cannot be tried for ministerial acts before the ordinary courts of law, but must be tried in the House of Commons or the Legislative Assembly."

"That no offence was charged in the court alleging that William Salt was influenced not to give evidence before the public accounts committee of the legislature or the royal commission."

"That the accused could not be tried both for conspiracy to commit an offence and for the actual commission of that offence."

"That nine of the counts included several offences in each, contrary to the criminal code."

There was no offence in the alleged manipulation of the tenders which precluded the granting of the parliament buildings contract to Thos. Kelly.

ASKS DISCHARGE OF ROBLIN AND OTHERS

Counsel for Manitoba Ex-Ministers Moves Before Mr. Justice Prendergast

Winnipeg, July 24.—A. J. Andrews, K. C., general counsel for Sir Rodmond Roblin, George R. Caldwell and James H. Howden, moved this forenoon before Mr. Justice Prendergast that the charges against the ex-ministers be quashed and that the accused be discharged.

Mr. Andrews said that he did not conclude his argument this forenoon and continued this afternoon.

He asked first for the discharge of the accused because more than two sessions had passed since they were committed for trial, while they were ready and pressing for trial. He argued that the failure of the crown to bring them to trial in this time should be followed by release of his clients.

He then asked that the indictments be quashed. His contentions included these: "That ministers of the crown cannot be tried for ministerial acts before the ordinary courts of law, but must be tried in the House of Commons or the Legislative Assembly."

"That no offence was charged in the court alleging that William Salt was influenced not to give evidence before the public accounts committee of the legislature or the royal commission."

"That the accused could not be tried both for conspiracy to commit an offence and for the actual commission of that offence."

"That nine of the counts included several offences in each, contrary to the criminal code."

There was no offence in the alleged manipulation of the tenders which precluded the granting of the parliament buildings contract to Thos. Kelly.

That the counts were too general and failed to give the defence information on which to base its case.

MINERS ON STRIKE—Fernie, July 24—All the miners at Coal Creek quit work this morning except the fire bosses and fan men. No reason is given, but it is supposed that the operators' refusal to grant a ten per cent advance in wages is the cause of the suspension of work.

AUSTRALIANS ENTERED VICTORY ASSURED, POZIERES VILLAGE SAYS LLOYD GEORGE

Lived Up to Their Fine Reputation in Fighting North of Somme
 Only Necessary to Press on With All Resources, He Declares

British Headquarters in France, July 24.—Via London, July 24.—To the Australians is the glory of to-day's action, which takes the British offensive to the end of its third stage.

Not once in the three weeks have the guns been silent. All the while the fighting has continued until the spectator has become numbed with this superhuman effort. Prisoners taken in each fresh attack express the same wonder at the persistent hammering of the British. It has been for 24 hours a day, the army fighting night as well as day.

While resisting many counter-attacks during the week, the British have been pushing forward. More German artillery and more troops have been massed to meet the increasing numbers of the British, while the British guns have kept moving nearer.

Villages like La Boisselle have become so unrecognizable from shell-fire that one does not know where the village begins or ends.

Pozieres was under the same British shell fire, and the other villages suffered before the Germans were forced out. Not a human was seen in the neighborhood, except near a communicating trench, in front of which a few British were making a shell crater into a field fortress.

Through all the army there is a sense of exultation which seems to allow no one to become tired. The death of comrades is accepted as something inevitable and there is a strange absence on the part of the British of any grumblings. They go at it as part of the day's work.

DEUTSCHLAND HAS NOT LEFT WHARF
 Intimated German Submarine at Baltimore Will Make Risky Attempt Soon

Baltimore, July 24.—Asked to-day whether the German submarine Deutschland would sail on her return voyage to Germany, Paul G. L. Hilken, a member of the Eastern Forwarding Company, the boat's American agent, said she would start "just as soon as we can get her ready, and that will not be much longer."

GERMANS IN U.S. FEAR TRADE LOSS
 Indicated Pressure on Washington as Result of British Blacklist

Washington, July 24.—Indications that officials are considering the advisability of taking economic retaliatory measures against Great Britain for blacklisting nearly 100 firms and individuals in the United States under the Trading with the Enemy Act, were apparent in administration circles here to-day.

Sweden retaliated when Great Britain blacklisted business houses and individuals in Sweden by refusing to permit shipments for Russia to pass through her territory, according to information received by the state department.

DISLODGED GERMANS AT POINT ON LIPA
 Russian Official Reports German Claims; Austrians Admit a Withdrawal

Petrograd, July 24.—An official statement issued to-day says: "On the Lipa yesterday we dislodged the Germans from the village of Galichan and took some prisoners and one machine gun. On July 21, near the village of Kolmoff, on the Lipa, an Austrian company 123 strong surrendered to our troops."

Berlin, July 24.—Further attacks by the Russians in strong force have been made on the Teutonic lines northwest of Beresteck, in southern Volhynia, and hugging close the Germans on the other side of the street so that the German artillery could not fire on them.

Vienna, July 24.—Under the menace of a heavy Russian assault, the Austrians in the Carpathian region of Southern Bukovina, southeast of Tatarow, have withdrawn toward the main ridge of the Carpathians, the frontier of Transylvania, the war office announced yesterday.

BRITAIN'S REPLY TO STATES ABOUT MAILS
 Charges Proved Groundless in Brief Memo; Formal Answer Later

London, July 24.—The foreign office has published the text of the note handed to the American ambassador replying to certain American complaints against the British censorship of mails. The reply is confined to the few specific allegations made in the recent American note.

Washington, July 24.—The note continues, "It is anticipated that such an insinuation should be made, especially as the complaint from the cable company appears not to have been adequately examined."

Another night patrol under Lieut. Saptl. of the Royal Canadian Regiment, engaged an enemy patrol with bombs. Six casualties were inflicted upon the Germans.

Washington, July 24.—Great Britain's reply to the American note protesting against interference with neutral mails is regarded by officials as unsatisfactory principally because it deals with specific cases instead of the principles involved.

BILL FOR IRELAND DROPPED FOR TIME
 That is Construction Put Upon Mr. Asquith's Announcement To-day

London, July 24.—Confirming publicly the suspicion that the cabinet has been unable to reach a decision in regard to the home-rule-amending bill, Mr. Asquith in the House of Commons to-day announced that the government would not introduce any bill of this kind with regard to which no substantial agreement among all parties had been reached.

The Hague, July 24.—The Dutch steamship Maas was sunk near the North Hinder lightship as the result of striking a mine. Then members of the crew were drowned.

DOMINIONS WILL BE ASKED ABOUT TRADE
 Asquith Says Post-War Conditions Will Be Discussed at Conference

London, July 24.—Mr. Asquith made it clear in the House of Commons to-day that the appointment of a committee to consider commercial problems after the war, which recently was announced, would not interfere with the holding of a larger conference in which the Dominions would participate.

Galt attacked an enemy post. Fifteen bombs were thrown among the garrison and a point blank fire was opened upon it with a machine gun."

Another night patrol under Lieut. Saptl. of the Royal Canadian Regiment, engaged an enemy patrol with bombs. Six casualties were inflicted upon the Germans.

COURTENAY FIRE NOT DUE TO BAD WIRING
 Courtenay, July 24.—The disastrous fire which occurred here on Friday night was not caused by defective wiring, as the wires from the building adjoining the opera house, where the fire started, had been removed since its occupancy by the soldiers of the 102nd Battalion.

ADVANCE LOOKED FOR AT NEW YORK
 Reported Munitions Orders and Railroad Situation Factors of Influence

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
 New York, July 24.—There was nothing in the news over Sunday. The continued talk regarding large munitions orders along with the rather favorable Washington opinions that every effort will be made to prevent a railroad strike, has much to do with the strong closing Saturday, and on a continuation of such reports a further advance in the list is looked for by many.

TO-DAY'S TRADING ON THE WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, July 24.—Wheat closed 20c higher for July and 30c higher for October and December; oats, 1c lower for July and 1c better for October; barley, 1c lower; flax, 1c higher for July and 1c better for October. The market quickly changed to-day from a decidedly easy one to a strong bull market. Shorts had sold at the top of the bulge and were caught. There was some legitimate buying, but the bulk was speculative trade. A fair amount of spreading went on and outside markets were good buyers in Winnipeg. The cash demand is very poor, with the exporters out of the market. The contract grades were easy. Oats also was indifferent, barley strong and flax slow.

GREAT CROWD AT RED CROSS FETE

Six Thousand Victorians at Country Fair Honored by Royal Visitors Saturday

Gate receipts for Saturday's country fair and flower fete at the golf links, Oak Bay, under the auspices of the Oak Bay branch of the Red Cross Society, showed that there must have been close in the neighborhood of six thousand people present at the function.

Everyone had a good time. That was a foregone conclusion once the weather god had indicated his intention of giving a fine day for the occasion. For everything that human ingenuity could devise to make the affair a success had been done by the committee and their numerous assistants, who for days previous to the event had been busy erecting booths, installing tables and stages, and placing the necessary barricades about some of the enclosures.

The announcement that T. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia were to be present was another factor which contributed greatly to the success of the undertaking. Loyal citizens, anxious that the distinguished visitors would carry away the pleasantest recollections of their last stay in Victoria and appreciating the gracious act of their royal highnesses in consenting to attend the function, made a particular effort to patronize the undertaking. The great returns that passed through the gates, swarmed over the grassy slopes, and eddied round the main centres of attraction was at least responsible for very grateful feelings on the part of those who had labored so zealously to organize the undertaking.

Opened Early. The proceedings opened at 3 o'clock, by which time the grounds were already quite well filled, all the general attractions of the fete being in full swing. Two entrances were used, there, some distance apart, making an initial division in the tide of visitors which prevented too much of a crush at any one point in the grounds.

From the knoll in front of the clubhouse the full panorama of the fete unfolded to the view. Skirting the wood to the left were the "Odds and Ends" theatrical troupe, occupying the hollow of a natural amphitheatre from which the onlooker could at least see the clever performers, although the buzz of other events at times threatened to drown the voices of the singers; the country fair, with its attractive booths with old-time pasties and sweetmeats for sale; the Punch and Judy show, the egyptian encampment, etc., etc. Within the wood, under the shade of the trees, were the tea-tables, which were sought out by everyone some time during the course of the afternoon.

Royal Visitors Arrive. Everything was in full operation when the duke and duchess and Princess Patricia arrived, the duchess wearing a white serge suit with black and white hat, the princess in white with a rose-faced picture hat. Miss York, the lady-in-waiting to the duchess, wore a white costume with a black hat. They were accompanied by his honor Lieutenant-Governor Barnard and Mrs. Barnard, the latter in old rose with a white hat. H. J. S. Muskett was also of the party.

Mrs. Bullock-Webster, convener of the Oak Bay Red Cross ladies' committee, and Mrs. Lampman, one of the conveners of the fete, were first presented to the royal visitors and their suite. F. W. Clayton, secretary of Oak Bay committee; P. W. Jones, president of the Victoria District Red Cross; afterwards J. J. Shalleross, chairman of the Oak Bay Red Cross; and Mr. C. Williams, secretary-treasurer; and D. J. Angus, vice-chairman, being introduced. Bouquets of mauve sweet peas and wistaria, and of pink sweet peas and wistaria were presented by Master Curtis, dressed as a sailor, and Master Woolaston, dressed as a soldier, to the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia respectively, who graciously acknowledged the gifts.

Tea at Club House. The inspection by the duke of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides took place immediately. Afterwards the visitors returned to the clubhouse, the ladies' card-room of which, with its pretty Delft blue chintzes and rugs and simple wicker furniture, was transformed into a royal tea pavilion by the lavish use of Dorothy Perkins roses banked about the windows and arranged artistically on the tables, the chandeliers, the mantles and pictures. The pretty silver tea service and dainty china enhanced the general effect. Mrs. Bullock-Webster presiding at one of the tables and Mrs. Lampman at the other. Miss Dodo Campbell and Miss Dorothy Clayton waited on the royal guests.

Those who assist Mrs. Lampman and Mrs. Bullock-Webster in achieving such a charming transformation of the tea-room were Mrs. Evan Thomas and Miss Stikeman, whose help was invaluable.

After tea the visitors took a walk through the grounds, taking a great interest in the various attractions. At the flower-stall the Princess Patricia purchased a sheaf of sweet-lavender, and at the curio stall a set of quaint oriental china dogs. In front of one of the stalls the duchess discovered a small child, Winnifred Greenwood, weeping bitterly because she had lost her mother. In spite of her kind efforts to soothe the little girl the latter was inconsolable, and sobbed in the most heart-broken way until referred to her "real mother."

About half-past five the viceregal party and those who accompanied them returned to the waiting motor cars, taking their seats while the Fifth Regiment band played the National Anthem.

Many Diversions. The attractions of the recent garden party under I. O. D. E. auspices were repeated. There was, as before, the country fair, very popular with young and old. The booth in charge of Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Mann, assisted by the Misses E. W. Watson, Isabel Mann and Jessie Campbell, contained everything in the way of old-fashioned cookies and sweet-meats, jellies, pasties, preserves, etc. Mr. Wright-Hill again performed the duties of "town crier" with infectious heartiness and good humor, the cheery clanging of his bell never failing to draw a crowd of listeners.

Mrs. Norman Lee again coined a purseful of copper from the sale of oranges and miscellaneous wares, in her old-fashioned costume sultry the role of market-woman beautifully.

Small folk delighted in the donkey-cart, Toby Hodgins, Danny Lee and Dick Houghton having charge of the Shetland ponies and the donkeys which afforded rides or drives for the youngsters. A Punch and Judy show presided over by Mr. R. A. Baker, was an uproarious delight to the numerous big and little patrons who watched the quarrels of this immortal pair. There was a gypsy caravan, also the Egyptian figures on which hinted at the mystic genius of the fortune-teller who presided therein. Mrs. S. MacLure, Miss Le Neve and Miss Bick were in charge of the encampment, where were sold beads and pottery baskets and curios. Some of the smaller gypsies in the rich and fantastic dress of their kind were the Misses Gibson, McGaffey, B. Robertson and Findlay. The only gypsy boy was Master Gibson.

Other Booths. Very pretty booths were dotted here and there about the grounds. Right on the fringe of the wood was Mrs. Hattenbury's flower stall, which was much patronized. Nearby was the sweet lavender booth in charge of the Misses Mary Rattenbury, Mary James and Dolly McBride, a business-like Boston girl assisting considerably in the sale of the fragrant sachets and sheaves of lavender.

Owing to the nice weather ice cream was greatly in demand, and the booth in charge of Mrs. Galletly and Mrs. Woolaston, assisted by Mrs. Curtis, the Misses Bridgman, Jones, Duncan, Crother, Pitts, Irving, Oliver and Hodges, was soon depleted of its supplies. Candles, sold from an attractive booth in charge of Mrs. Neame, assisted by the Misses Helmecken, Neame, Lawson, Pitts and Nelson, were also soon sold out. Mrs. Fleming and Miss Hilda Fleming had a "Touch and Take" booth, which provided surprise packets and novelties without end.

"Odds and Ends" Troupe. The crowd which followed the example of the royal visitors and patronized the "Odds and Ends" theatrical troupe's performance were given a very entertaining programme. The stage was cleverly arranged, with pillars surmounted by jars of flowers and festooned with Dorothy Perkins roses. Mrs. Davis had charge of the diverting performance, and Mrs. Conyers Bridgewater made a splendid accompanist at the piano. The following is the programme in full, each item of which was much enjoyed:

- Opening Chorus—"Here We Are Again"
"Odds and Ends"

Lee, Cpl. Kenning.

and Dr. Hudson a very happy half-hour was spent by the younger visitors who had entered for the children's sports programme. This was carried out on the level stretch of ground at the southern edge of the wood, the events being as follows:

- 1. Wheelbarrow race for boys; three entries—1, S. George and M. George.
2. Skipping race for girls, three entries—1, Miss K. Fisher.
3. Potato race for boys and girls, six entries—1, K. Price.
4. Ginger beer, bun and summersault race for boys, eight entries—1, K. Price.
5. Sewing race for boys and girls, three entries—1, Miss K. Fisher and partner, J. Fisher.

8. Sack race for boys and girls, nineteen entries—1, Miss I. Watson.
9. Egg and spoon race for boys and girls, thirty-five entries—1, Miss I. Watson.
10. Slow bicycle race, six entries—1, A. B. Nash.

The prizes for the races were donated by Mr. P. F. Curtis.

Old-Time Dances. Mrs. George Simpson had charge of a bevy of charmingly-attired little dancers, and many gathered round the rose-garlanded Maypole to watch the graceful Maypole dance which they save during the afternoon. Holding the mauve, citron and pink and blue streamers in the dance were little Gladys Hemingway, Elsie Fisher, Helen Cameron, Edna Hale, Neta Wrigglesworth, Gertrude Gosse, Dorothy Geake, Marjorie Gibbons, Iona Porter and Kathleen Palmer. The May Queen was little Queenie Ball. Eight shepherdesses, with rose-twined crooks, were the Misses Zelba Ormond, Myrtle Patrick, Dorothy MacAdam, Eleanor McLennan, Marjorie Goss, Jessie Greer, Ella Simpson and Helen Straith.

Children also took part in the Japanese Love Song, which was presented by a number of girls on the stage erected for the "Odds and Ends" troupe. The little singers were all in costume, and were prepared for their act by Mrs. J. C. Newberry. Those taking part were the Misses Mona Hobbs, Francis Hall, Elsie Fisher, Queenie Ball, Doris Mattram, Doris Baker, Daisy Barrett, Elsie White, Daisy Barrett, Thelma Young, Margaret Smith, Jane Staff, Doris Morley, Rosy Phillips, Ada Phillips. Minutes of the early nineteenth century were performed under Mrs. Simpson's direction by Dorothy Geake, Marjorie Gibbons, Kathleen Gans, Irene Bailey, John Davidson, Nellie Catterall, Ivy Phillips, and Charles Oatard.

Baffles and Tea. There were one or two articles for raffle on the grounds, viz., a bracelet given by Mrs. W. J. Roper, and a Roman bag, which was won by ticket No. 368. Mrs. Mary Riter Hamilton, in a pretty improvised studio, made sketches of many of the visitors for a small fee, giving the proceeds to the general fund. Tea was a grand undertaking, in view of the enormous crush which had to be served, but the task was accomplished by virtue of very fine organization and the good humor of the assistants. The work was in charge of Mesdames Doe and Floyd, assisted by Mesdames Gowan, Homer, Hewitt, Fraser, Dukes, H. B. Johnson, Baxter, Perry, the Misses Mell, Smith, Grayson, Williamson, Raper and Jay, and many other young ladies.

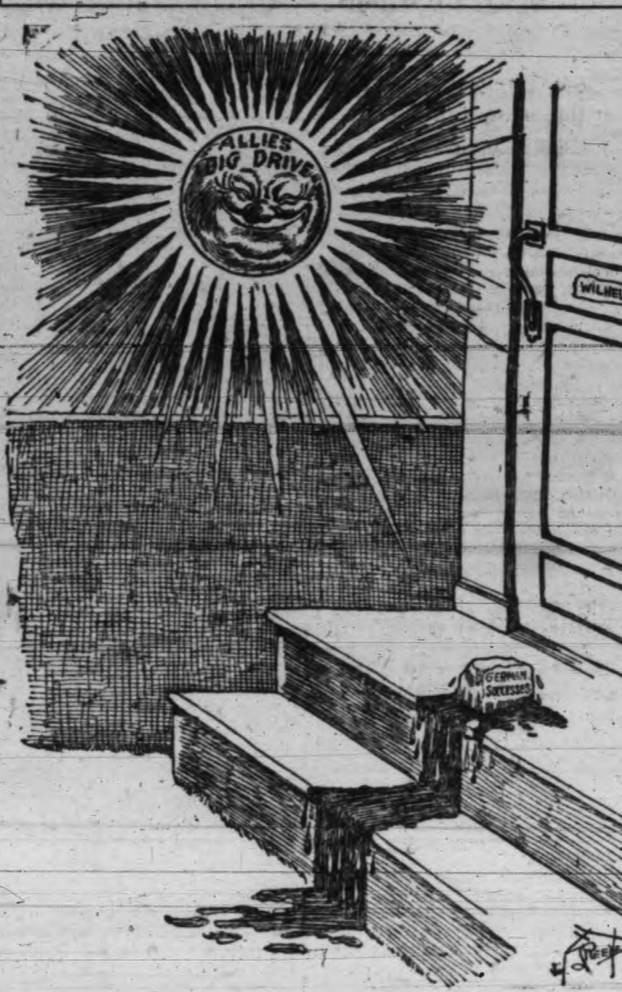

An archery competition was in charge of Mrs. M. P. Gordon in the absence of Mrs. W. J. Roper, and there were also clock golf, in charge of Mrs. William Todd, Mrs. Charles Todd, and Miss Mara; and a putting-green, in charge of Miss MacDowall, Miss M. Pitta, and Miss Pemberton.

Debted to Assistants. The Oak Bay Red Cross committee is indebted to the scores of ladies and gentlemen who assisted in making the undertaking such a success. Particularly do they wish to thank the Oak Bay Golf Club for lending the links, and it is not improbable that the great success of the undertaking may tempt the management to offer the course for some similar affair in the future. The great good-will of the crowd was also much appreciated, and was quite in keeping with the character of a country fair. The Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, after their inspection, turned to with a willing hand and helped splendidly in many ways. The B. C. Electric placed the whole of its surplus service on the Oak Bay system, running ten cars every hour during the afternoon in order to accommodate the big crowd.

The enormous attendance, which is quite a record for Victoria, must be regarded in the light of a personal compliment to the royal visitors, whom the citizens wish to give as good a send-off, as possible before they leave Canada. The thanks of the committee are also due to the Fifth Regiment band for furnishing a very fine programme of numbers; to Mr. MacConnell, of Madonna Farm, and other residents of Gordon Head, for giving a quantity of farm produce; to the pipers of the 66th Gordon Highlanders, and others.

Cure Your Bad Cough by Breathing "CATARRHOZONE" You may dislike taking medicines—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "CATARRHOZONE"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essence and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and Catarrh are cured. AUSTRIAN TO BE TRIED AT SYDNEY; HIGH TREASON
Halifax, July 24.—At a sitting in Sydney of the supreme court, Gaher Faber, a native of Austria-Hungary, was committed for trial on a charge of high treason.
It appeared that Faber addressed a letter to T. Kist Ennl, a banker, at 133 Second Avenue, New York, inclosing a $500 subscription to the Austrian war loan. The letter was intercepted by the provost marshal at Sydney, Faber was committed and the grand jury indicted him, bringing in a true bill of high treason.
The case came up before Mr. Justice J. A. Chisholm, who set the date of trial for July 27, at Sydney. The criminal code provides death as the sole penalty for high treason.
