1. Local elections to fill vacancies in the Wakayama Prefectural assembly are scheduled for 27 April 1948 and 5 May 1948. The vacancies to be filled resulted from death and it is assumed that surveillance, similar to that exercised during the April 1947 elections, will be required.

2. If the assumption expressed above is correct it is requested that three (3) observation teams be assigned to this unit, from tactical organizations, as was the case during the national elections held in April 1947.

3. Each observation team should be furnished transportation, interpreters and vehicle operators by parent organization. This unit can furnish billets and rations as well as guides and the necessary orientation.
