MEMORANDUM FOR: JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

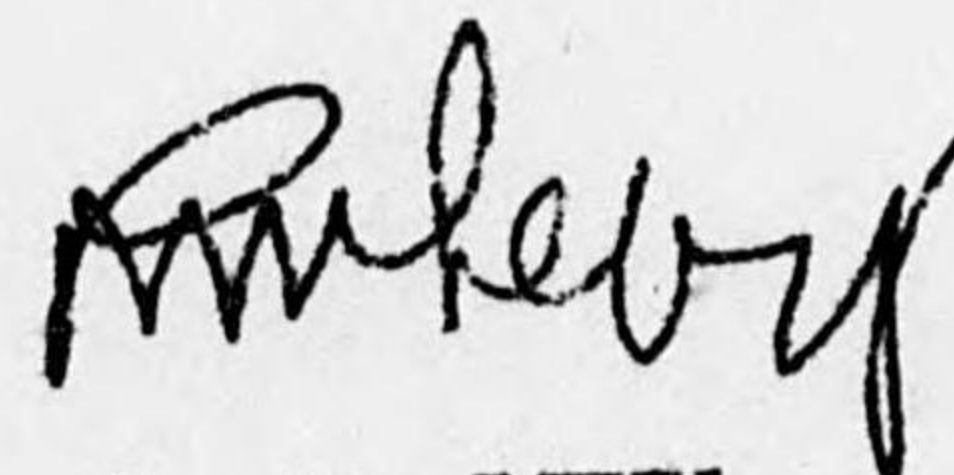

THROUGH: Central Liaison Office, Tokyo

SUBJECT: Robberies of Houses Occupied by Allied Personnel

1. The attention of the Japanese Government is invited to the fact that during recent months the number of robberies of houses occupied by Allied personnel has materially increased throughout Japan. The protection of Allied personnel and their property from the depredation of criminals is a function of the Japanese Government.

2. It is requested that the Japanese Government take adequate measures to provide proper security for the houses assigned to Allied personnel.

FOR THE SUPREME COMMANDER:

R. M. LEVY,
Colonel, AGD,
Adjutant General.
