RESOLUTION IS DISCUSSED

Change President Said He Never Saw It.

HAS NOT HIS APPROVAL

Members Were Called Up on Telephone.

Resolution announced by the Law and Order Committee of the Newport Chamber of Commerce Friday night regarding the action of Mayor E. P. Morrow in maintaining the presence of the National Guard in Covington, caused considerable comment Saturday.

"I know nothing of the resolution until I saw it in the newspapers," said Milton Marx, president of the committee, "but I am not in favor of it. It certainly has not my approval."

It developed Saturday that the resolution was drawn several weeks ago but never presented to the committee as a whole. It was at that time it was passed and held Friday. Some members, it was learned, were called up on the telephone to show the resolution.

The resolution follows: Whereas, the daily press carries articles and copies of editorializing on the governor requesting the withdrawal of the National Guard from the city of Newport, Ky.; and

Whereas, said National Guard was placed here at the request of various organizations established and reserved law and order; and

APPEAL BARED

Denhardt Criticism Proposed Plea to Governor.

Threat to appeal to Governor Saturday noon unless soldiers named in warrants issued by Judge Matt Moore were turned over to police was handled by Colonel Denhardt as a scheme of Judge Moore's to get in stronger with the strikers.

"I can't turn over men I haven't got, and I'm willing to prove the men named in those warrants are not involved in my strike,"

Asked if he would allow Judge Moore to inspect the records, Denhardt said he would only show them to a representative citizen and he did not consider Judge Moore's official advice as to troop removal has been received, he said.

ROBBERY NOT REPORTED UNTIL

Arrests Are Made.

COVINGTON SAFE ENTERED

Loss Was Kept Secret in Hope of Recovery.

As a result of a coup on the part of Covington and Cincinnati detectives Friday afternoon, Albert "Curly" Welby, 25, of 403 W. Fifth Street, Covington, and J. E. Raymond, 39, former of Dayton, O., were arrested for robbing the safe of the City of Covington Police Station.

Grand robbery in connection with the safe was reported by the Cincinnati Police Station to the Cincinnati Police Station.

Welby was formerly employed by the Cincinnati Police Station and was the same building with the Motor Car Co. Welby, who is the proprietor of the company, said Saturday.

Welby, when arrested, knew that the safe was not locked, and when the safe was opened, he found the loss of the safe in Cincinnati.

An attempt to sell the bonds in Cincinnati was made by the Cincinnati Police Station.

John Jones, James Higgins and Ma and Charles, Covington detectives, were called to the safe in Cincinnati.

According to police, Welby and Raymond called at the safe of the City of Covington Police Station and were requested to vacate the Community House, a two-story frame building, 11th and Brighton streets.

A letter to this effect was received by the Cincinnati Police Station.

John Jones, James Higgins and Ma and Charles, Covington detectives, were called to the safe in Cincinnati.

PASTOR'S TEST

Roetger to See How He Stands With Flock.

Rev. Paul H. Roetger, Sunday morning will test strength of his congregation at the 75th anniversary of the founding of the First Presbyterian Church in Covington.

The order, signed by all but one of the trustees, called for the removal of the pastor from the church.

"Peace be with you," said the pastor, "and I am glad to see you here today."

The church and Sunday school were filled to overflowing last Sunday, he expects a large crowd this Sunday.

2000 RAILROAD MEN WAGING

Wage Verdict Directly Effects Kentuckians

These men are now working for a wage so low that it drops below the poverty line, and a further cut would make them subjects of charity.

Some of these workers are living in abandoned box-cars. Their children are being sent to school or required to work after school to buy their food.

"Since the last wage reduction of the R. Y. Railroad Labor Board their earnings have been about $7 a month and the minimum $10."

"A score or more of employees, some of whom were citizens of Covington, appeared before the board and made an earnest plea for food for their babies."

"Sickness and death have created conditions in northern Kentucky of such a nature that it is imperative that the board take action to relieve the situation."

CHURCH WILL CELEBRATE

75 YEARS OLD

Former Pastors Invited to Return to Newport.

Congregation of Newport's first church—St. John's Evangelical Protestant, Seventh and Columbia streets—will celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding next week.

Rev. Paul H. Roetger, pastor, who arranged the diamond jubilee, has invited former pastors of the church to take part, and many out-of-town persons who formerly attended the church are expected to return for the celebration.

The jubilee will begin with a German service Sunday at 8 a. m., led by Rev. Roetger. Service will be held at 9 a. m. and a festival address will be delivered by Rev. O. E. Blosch, Pittsburg, at 10:30 a. m.

Monday night there will be an address by Rev. F. Schuyler, of Cincinnati. Rev. Ernest Voss, both of Cincinnati, Tuesday night, has been designated "Young People's Night" and will be featured by a talk by Rev. Carl A. Voss, Pittsburg.

What a shame that children and other persons, too, are not taught to love their neighbors as themselves. It is a real happiness in selfishness.

The women who started the flowers were well satisfied. She was glad that all who came by might enjoy their beauty with her and that the street was brightened up by their presence, for all professions who carry that way.

But the children, thoughtless as they were, did not stop to think that they were carrying the flowers to get no real pleasure. The blossoms faded and were thrown away.

Covington flowers are complete something about flower trees. It is something that would require a large pen for force to eradicate. But if something parents could help to remedy, by teaching the children, they would enjoy their beauty with her and that the street was brightened up by their presence, for all professions who carry that way.

STRIKE DUTY IS TO BE ENDED

Donaldson Shows Positive Statement at Meeting.

HE TALKED TO GOVERNOR

Union Leaders Pledge Support to Law and Order.

Troops in duty in Newport will be withdrawn Monday by Governor E. P. Morrow.

Lincoln Donaldson, Newport laborer, made that assertion Saturday at a meeting of Campbell and Newport officials with business men.

The governor told me long inaudible telephone last night that the troops absolutely would be withdrawn, Donaldson said.

After the meeting W. Case Thompson, Newport commissioner, and Louis Tipton, sheriff, discussed plans of the business men and labor in the city with their forces.

Edward Miller, president of Local 100, and T. W. Workman, and Philip C. Zimmerman, president of the Central Labor Committee, pledged their support to the law and order in the city with their forces.
