CITY HALL ANNEX PLANS PREPARED FOR DISCUSSION

Two Story Brick Structure at Cost of About $20,000 Is Under Consideration

Plans are now being completed for an annex to adjoin the rear of the present City Hall and provide facilities for the transaction of municipal business commensurate with the standing of Glendale among the communities of Southern California.

City Manager W. H. Reeves feels that the need for additional office space for administration purposes is imperative. He has no definite opinion, however, as to how soon the matter can be placed before the voters of the city for their approval in the form of a bond issue.

Meanwhile, plans have been prepared by Arthur Colon of 516 West Patterson avenue, a city draftsman, under the direction of City Engineer C. L. Hill. When completed, it is understood that these plans will be submitted to the city council for consideration.

According to Mr. Colon, the annex would be a two story brick building to match the architecture of the present structure, adjoining it upon the second floor and separated on the first floor by a twenty-two foot driveway running from the east to the west side of the building.

Opening up on this driveway would be a small receiving hospital for emergency cases. This would be a room fourteen by eighteen feet in dimensions which would be fitted up with bed and operating table and necessary equipment.

STUDY HISTORY TO SOLVE PROBLEMS, URGES SPEAKER

'Better Americanism' Is Topic of Address at Tuesday Club by Harry F. Atwood

"A study of the conditions in this country ten years prior to and ten years after the signing of the constitution of the United States would prove of the greatest value in solving the industrial and governmental problems confronting this country and the world," was the statement of Harry F. Atwood, Chicago, prominent lawyer, writer and social speaker, in his lecture on "Better Americanism, or the Constitution of the United States" at the open-forum meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club at Masonic temple yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Atwood summarized in a most gratifying manner the difficult task which confronted the fifty-five men who wrote the constitution, and also stated that they warned against democracy. Continuing, Mr. Atwood said:

"Despite that warning this generation is proclaiming it to the world and substituting democracy for the greatest heritage that has ever been given to any people. A monarchy or autocracy is where the power is derived through heredity. A republic is a representative government where power is given to regularly selected representatives. A democracy is a direct government, where people speak and act directly.

Sixteen Refuse to Sign "Of the fifty-five men who wrote the constitution, sixteen refused to sign it. The thirty-nine who did sign it were the greatest body of men that has ever met anywhere for human achievement, and they had studied over the governments of the world from the standpoint of cause and effect and also from the standpoint of success and failure. One of the great values of the constitution was that it provided for a strictly representative government." The men who wrote it also fixed individual property rights more securely than ever before. They knew enough about human nature to know that where individuals have reached a mental condition where they will destroy property they have reached a condition where they are ready to do violence.

In telling of the effects of democracy, Mr. Atwood illustrated by giving an example of how it would work out as applied to a game of baseball. "A baseball game, if played according to rule, results in recreation and satisfaction," he said. "However, if the verdict and score were to be given by the bleachers instead of by the umpire, it would result in a mob, murder, and of a certainty no more baseball. This spirit of taking things into their own hands without restraint is the very essence and spirit of democracy and has been the cause of the larger percentage of crime here."

The calling of a bond election is a necessity under the state school law. GENERAL STRIKE IN SOUTHWESTERN COAL FIELD LOOMS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 8.—A general coal field strike in the southwestern fields appeared certain today when operators announced open defiance to the threat by miners to strike on April 1 if wages are reduced. The Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' association announced that not only would wages be reduced, but would be "cut to the bone." The new scale, it was stated, would be $3.40 for day work. The present union scale is $7.81. The "check off" system will be abolished, it was further stated.

OBECHAIN TAKES STAND IN DEFENSE OF EX-WIFE

LOS ANGELES, March 8.—"Steady Ralph" Obchain took the witness stand in defense of his divorced wife, Madalynne Ogenchain, today. Obchain followed a few minor witnesses and launched into the telling of his story aimed to damage the prosecution's theory that Mrs. Obchain was a "woman scorned." Beginning with the day when in 1913 he first met Mrs. Obchain at a college fraternity dance, Obchain recited their love story which had its dramatic chapter in his dash to Los Angeles to defend her after she divorced him and when she was arrested for the murder.

TAFT TURNED INTO ARMED CAMP; FEAR VIGILANTES

TAFT, March 8.—Taft is an armed camp today. Not even in the days of the old frontier did so many citizens carry pistols as are doing so now through fear of the activities of the Ku Klux Klan, the night riders, the vigilantes, or whatever they may be. Doors of homes are barricaded at night, sawed-off shot guns are trained on windows and neighbors are organizing for mutual defense. And causing it all there seems to be a mysterious battle waged behind a double mask of deepest secrecy. Without the leaders of the rank and file of either faction being known, there appears to be two factions in the field, each operating under the guise of the Ku Klux and one representing itself to be the other.

GRAFT PROBE MAY DEVELOP INTO GREAT SCANDAL

LOS ANGELES, March 8.—Startling disclosures which, in the opinion of investigators may lead to a national scandal were believed likely today to develop in connection with a probe of an alleged conspiracy to defraud the government out of approximately $850,000 in a sale of army goods at San Diego. Federal agents inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the sale said today that the suspected plot to defraud apparently has wide ramifications, extending to all parts of the country and likely to involve persons in eastern cities in similar government sales. Two quartermaster corps officers are under surveillance and five Los Angeles and San Francisco business men are being watched as suspects pending action by the federal grand jury. Indictments in the case are expected to be returned when the grand jury takes up the matter Friday. According to evidence in the possession of department of justice agents, about $1,000,000 worth of goods were sold at auction for $148,000.

MAN AND BOY BURN TO DEATH; FIRE LOSS IS $1,000,000

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., March 8.—A man and a boy were burned to death and the central part of Cheboyan's business section was reduced to ruins in a fire which started in the Frost Kessler block today and swept north on Main street, defying all efforts of firemen, who finally abandoned the fight and limited their efforts to saving (Continued on page 2)

Miss Jeannette McDonald, telephone operator in the exchange, leaped three stories to safety when the telephone offices were destroyed. The dead are Frank Hosler, baker, who entered his shop in an effort to save his effects and Pete Laway, a boy, whose body is believed to be among the ruins.

IRISH REVOLUTIONARY PLANS HAVE FAILED, CLAIM

LIMERICK, Ireland, March 8.—It was the original plan of the revolutionists in the Irish republic army to make Limerick the rallying point for an attack against the Irish provisional government at Dublin, it was learned here today. The revolutionary plans, however, have apparently failed. Reinforcements of loyal troops have arrived and the loyalists outnumber the rebels five to one. Richard Mulcahy, minister of defense in the Dublin cabinet, said the loyal soldiers have the situation in hand.

WILSON AND BORAH JOIN TO DEFEAT PACIFIC TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Woodrow Wilson and Senator Borah have joined forces to defeat ratification of the four powered Pacific treaty. Both believe that the treaty is an alliance of four powers and as such is dangerous to the interests of the United States and both will leave no stone unturned to prevent its acceptance by the senate. From his quiet home in S street, where he has silently observed the course of events for the last year, Woodrow Wilson has written a letter to the Idaho irreconcilable, outlining his reasons for believing the treaty to be an "iniquitous" alliance of the strong.

HARDING EXPRESSES HIS SATISFACTION AT REPORTS

WASHINGTON, March 8.—President Harding today in a letter to Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, expressed satisfaction with reports of increases in the prices of staple agricultural products and pointed out that "there can be no restoration of general business stability without the establishment of equitable relativity between the producers' selling price and the cost to the consumer." The president's letter was in reply to Meyer's report on the activities and accomplishments of the war finance corporation since its organization.

PEACE IS BEING TALKED BY RIVAL IRISH LEADERS

LIMERICK, Ireland, March 8.—"Peace negotiations" are under way today between leaders of the rebel republican army and Richard Mulcahy, former chief of staff of the Irish republican army, and now minister of defense in the Irish provisional government at Dublin. It is believed a solution of the troubles will be found. One thousand additional members of the I. R. A. have arrived here. Up to noon there had been no disorders, although the rival forces were evidently ready for trouble. The six barracks have been taken over by the loyal forces who are occupying them. An armored car with the Sinn Fein flag flying over it patrolled the streets throughout the day.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Tomorrow Is Dollar Day! Welcome Wm. G. McAdoo Now, Will Hays Come, Too? Community Service Yours

—By Gil A. Cowan—

DOLLAR DAY! What a magic phrase among bargain hunters. Tomorrow the town will turn out to "trade at home."

If you do not believe that there will be a crowd, just glance through the columns of The Glendale Evening News tonight and see how well the merchants intend to repay their patrons Thursday.

In fact, you will find that the offerings in many instances will permit your dollars to do double duty. In others prices quoted there is anywhere from 20 per cent upwards saved on purchases.

All of which is made possible by the splendid spirit of co-operation on the part of those participating—the public, the dealers and their "home town" newspaper.

Every reader of this column is urged to take advantage of the advertised attractions, especially where your community storekeeper has gone out of his way to enter into the spirit of the day.

Upon the success of Dollar Day tomorrow hinges greater co-operative effort, better bargains as the seasons change and bigger business houses here in Glendale. Do your bit!

While the wind cut capers here last night and star gazers got an eye-ful of sand—it isn't half so bad as the twisters suffered yesterday in the south Atlantic regions of the United States.

Six people are reported killed, scores injured, buildings demolished and roads ruined in South Carolina by a tornado and rainstorm stirred by the March lion.

Yes, we agree that Southern California is the "bestest" place to be. The Pacific is a peaceful pond compared with what the Atlantic has to offer.

We have with us in southern California today William Gibbs McAdoo, his wife and two children. They arrived late yesterday and were received with all due ceremony.

The newcomer is known to fame for coining the far flung phrase of "director general of railroads" while serving as secretary of the treasury during war time.

He is further noted for having married one of former President Wilson's daughters, a very estimable and charming woman whose wedding provided the largest social event during the administrations of her illustrious father.

In addition to this, Mr. McAdoo is a lawyer and it is expected he will engage in the profession in Los Angeles. Already having had a world of experience in New York courts, not to forget his organizing genius in the United Artists picture corporation as well as directorial ability in connection with war financing, there can be no question of his future success.

To be in style Will Hays should follow McAdoo. Horace Greeley said, "Go West, young man."

Hays is no exception to the rule. Only do a little job in New York before you leave, Will, and you can live out here happily ever after.

Make the film magnates and the news service editors and other powers that be on Manhattan island agree to spend six months of every year no further east than "out where the west begins" and if they take a bath in the fresh salt brine on the Pacific they might wash away some of that Coney Island slime.

Nothing would broaden the vision or aid the crusade for better things than an enforced vacation to be enjoyed in Glendale and its surrounding foothills by the esteemed gentry who are now believing the sun rises and sets in New York.

They would at least learn that the sun rises over the Arizona desert, sets on the Pacific, and shines best on southern California.

One of the active agents in making this a better world is Community Service, Inc.

Last night a representative group of Glendale citizens extended an invitation to this great philanthropic foundation to send its organizers here and lay plans for the leisure hours.

This is but a start, the real work is yet to come. You are going to get out of Community Service just what you put into it, Mr. and Mrs. Glendale Citizen.

If you lack companionship, if you lack development, if you lack recreation, if you want to do something for others and don't know how—Community Service is the answer.

MOVIES USED TO AID POLICE

LONDON—The cinema has been adopted by the English police as a means of detecting criminals. Two dead babies were sent through the post from Ramsgate to Ireland, and the sender has not yet been discovered.

As a last resource the police are showing on the screens at kinemas throughout the country the label which was attached to the parcel, with the request that anyone recognizing the handwriting should at once communicate with the police.

SAVED BY HIS TIMEPIECE

LAWRENCE, Mass.—Roland J. Ferguson, of this city, is probably congratulating himself that he did not become addicted to a wrist watch. Ferguson was held up and robbed by three youthful bandits, who fired several shots at him. One of the bullets rendered his watch, which he carried in a vest pocket, a total loss.

The highwaymen took $50 from one of Ferguson's pockets and overlooked $250 in another pocket. The watch was so badly shattered by a bullet that they threw it aside.

Million Dollars Daily Is Spent on Soldiers

By WEBSTER K. NOLAN
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Uncle Sam's flat answer to those who charge him with failure to alleviate the physical and financial disabilities of his veteran fighters is that more than one million dollars a day, including Sunday, is being expended by the government for the ex-service men and their dependents. Supporting this answer, Uncle Sam points to the 1922 budget estimate of expenditures to be made directly for the benefit of ex-warriors, which calls for half a billion dollars.

Colonel C. R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, today outlined for International News Service the expenditures his bureau contemplates for the current year. The estimate, in round figures, calls for $510,000,000.

This sum will be divided, Colonel Forbes said, into seven composite branches of soldier relief work. For vocational training, the sum of $167,500,000; for medical and hospital services, the sum of $64,600,000; for payments on war risk term insurance, the sum of $81,700,000; for U. S. Government life insurance, the sum of $5,700,000; for soldiers' compensation, the sum of $161,000,000; for retroactive Government allowances on proven and extant claims, the sum of $2,000,000, and for salaries and expenses, that is, administration, the sum of $31,500,000. These figures total $514,000,000, from which Colonel Forbes deducts the $5,700,000 to be paid in United States Government life insurance claims, on the ground that it is a self-supporting branch of the bureau's activities.

Of the $167,500,000 allotted to vonational training Col. Forbes believes that not more than $2,000,000 will be used for administration expenses at the Government's camps, training schools and reconstruction centres. Thus the major portion of that allotment will go to pay the ex-service men an average of $115 per man per month while in training.

He pointed out that $115 was an average, declaring that the payments vary between $80 and $170 per month per man. The greatest amount will be expended for men at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O. In addition, it will pay for the former soldiers stationed at the bureau's six additional large training centres and forty-one small training centres.

The administration, or salaries and expenses, item will include salaries and expenses of the bureau's Washington office, its fourteen district offices, its 126 sub-offices and, as well, the salaries of all teachers.

Colonel Forbes declared that the bureau is handling satisfactorily 203,000 compensation claims, for which the $161,000,000 has been allotted; and 150,000 insurance claims, for which the $81,700,000 has been set aside.

Do You Know Meaning Of Buckled Goshes?

CHICAGO—Goshes—If they go flip-flop, boys, it's all right to smile and try to get her 'phone number, but if they're laced up, well mind your own business, for she's engaged. This is the newest of the code of Northwestern university, where, it is said, diamond rings are passe and goshes opened or buckled, are telling the story that heretofore has radiated from a solitaire.

While the maidens with their goshes unbuckled are "freebooters" in the field of love, even those who turn 'em down a la Captain Kidd deny that they will vamp the beau of another girl.

How the fastened gosh came to be a mark of fidelity to a man, according to the story, originated when one youth attending Northwestern requested his fiancée to button 'em up.

ROMMEL CO. LOW BIDDER

The Rommel Construction company of 144 South Brand boulevard, Glendale, was the low bidder for the Eagle Rock city hall job, it was learned at the meeting of the trustees there last night.

This Man Does Not Need Rifle for Hunt

SAN ANGELO, Tex.—Deer hunters who "acclaim" it's some feat to bring down a big buck by a rifle shot have a new trick to learn from Bascomb Cox, a prominent young Crockett county ranchman.

Cox goes deer hunting on horseback and "ropes" his game from the saddle. On a recent hunting trip near Ozona Cox lassoed a big buck while on horseback, roped and tied the pawing buck to a fence and then, with the aid of his father, branded the antlered monarch, using a pocket knife for a branding iron. The deer was then released.

PREDICT BUILDING BOOM

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—This city will witness the greatest revival of building this spring for more than fifty years. J. C. Jackson, secretary of the carpenters' union in Kansas City, is authority for the statement that a total of $14,289,700 will be expended in various building projects this spring.
Contracts for construction of an addition to one of the city's well-known high schools—which will cost approximately $211,000—have been awarded by the Board of Education. The work will begin immediately, according to reports.
High-priced homes in the southern section of the city lead the list of types of buildings to be constructed. Most of the homes will average nearly $20,000 on construction price. Apartment houses, family hotels, office buildings and school buildings are also planned.

STUDY HISTORY TO SOLVE PROBLEMS, URGES SPEAKER

ing committed by the youths of this country.
"Conditions two and a half years before the constitution of the United States was written was the same as in the countries which are experiencing a state of chaos today. In the 100 years of progress following the writing of this document there was no talk in this country of communism or socialism or government ownership, and history proves that any nation which has ever tried these things has had a stroke of paralysis."

Another cause for the chaos in Russia and other countries was attributed by Mr. Atwood to class consciousness. He stated that "today you can scarcely go any place where they are not talking about the 'classes' and the 'masses.'" The idea of the men who wrote the constitution was founded on Christ's teaching of "To Every Man According to His Work."

"The writers of the constitution sought to avoid many of the things that this generation is plunging into. One hundred per cent Americanism cannot be expected unless the schools teach the constitution and the speeches of Franklin, Washington and other men who were instrumental in the writing of it. There are people graduating from the universities that have never seen a copy of the constitution of the United States, and without a study of this, the basis of the government of this country, it is ridiculous to hope for better citizens. What is needed is an understanding of the fundamentals and their correct application."

Recording Secretary Resigns
The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, who announced that the members of the board of directors of the Tuesday Afternoon club had accepted with regrets the resignation of Mrs. Oliver O. Clark as recording secretary. Mrs. John Dunn was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

Mrs. W. L. Andrews, general curator, announced the following section meetings: Parliamentary law, at home of Mrs. C. A. Perry, 111 North Louise street, March 8; literary, at home of Mrs. C. A. Brandstater, 401 West Wilson, on March 13; music, two weeks from Friday, at home of Mrs. Helen Campbell; drama, at home of Mrs. L. G. Sherman, 316 West Lexington Drive, a week from Friday; Shakespeare section at home of Mrs. O. E. Von Owen on March 20. Mrs. Hutchinson announced that as it had been the custom of the club to entertain the husbands of club members some time during the year, that next Tuesday night, March 14, "Husbands' Night," will be observed by the club. For that evening Mrs. Pearl Keller Brattain has donated the use of her auditorium at 109-A North Brand boulevard. The program will be given by the glee club of the University of Southern California.

District Convention
Announcement was made of the district convention to be held March 28, 29 and 30 at the Santa Monica Women's clubhouse, and to which any member of the Tuesday Afternoon club is entitled to attend.

The theme of the convention will be "World Peace." A reception will be given by the local club of that city on Tuesday night, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

The annual federation banquet will be held on Wednesday night at the Ship Cafe.

The closing night will be in charge of the drama department of the district, of which Mrs. R. E. Chase of Glendale is chairman, and the program will consist of the three one-act plays, "Poor Old Jim," "Glory of the Morning" and "Mrs. Ritter Appears," which have met with such success and which will be given by the members of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

Women's Feet Are Growing Larger, Claim

CHICAGO—Along with the ballot, wearing of one-piece men's bathing suits and the "right" to smoke, m'lady has "enjoyed" a growth in her feet. It isn't a case of "just looking bigger," but her feet are quite a bit larger in reality than a few years past.

Take this from the thousands of she men who are at Chicago attending the annual convention of the National Retail Shoe association here.

"Women in business are on their feet more than they used to be," declared Buford H. Jones, of Boston, president of the Thompson-Crocker Shoe company, explaining the situation. "At least this is the explanation manufacturers advance."

Clerk Confesses to Writing Dire Threats

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—George Long, a war department clerk, has confessed that he was the author of the "threat letter" sent to a number of prominent Washington society matrons. The letters threatened violence unless various sums of money was forthcoming.

Long confessed, according to the police, that he wrote the letters because he thought the women had "too much money and they ought to give it to the poor."

The police termed Long a "harmless crank" and allowed him to go when the social leaders indicated they would not press charges against him.

He Succeeds Kenyon

Charles A. Rawson of Des Moines, has been appointed by Gov. N. E. Kendall to succeed William S. Kenyon as United States senator from Iowa. Senator Kenyon, who was head of the agricultural bloc in congress, resigned to become a federal judge. Mr. Rawson was born in Des Moines in 1867, is engaged in the manufacture of bricks and tilings, with many financial side lines. He was named chairman of the Iowa republican state central committee in 1912.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES REJECT BIDS ON INTERMEDIATE

Auditorium May Be Taken From Plans Because of Demand for Rooms

All bids for the construction of the new intermediate school were rejected last night for financial reasons by the grammar school board trustees and Architect Alfred P. Priest of 1422 North Central avenue was requested to re-advertise for bids at once containing provisions for a building both with and without auditorium.

Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, is of the opinion that classrooms are the big need of the grammar school system. He favors the elimination of the auditorium rather than classrooms at the new intermediate school.

Mr. Priest was requested to prepare as soon as possible plans for the proposed four room addition to the Columbus school.

The contracts on the Acacia school addition having been let upon the segregated basis, the board last night made a contract with Architect George M. Lindsey, who was present, to supervise its construction.

To Pay $11,500 for Land.
Agreement was made to pay David P. Edwards of 521 East Acacia street $11,500 for two and one-quarter acres adjoining the present Acacia school property on the east. This valuation was fixed by an appraisal committee consisting of Arthur Campbell, E. L. Schuyler and William Goss.

Miss Elsa Brennaman, supervisor of music in the grammar school system, was granted permission to attend a convention of music teachers in Nashville, Tennessee, the week of March 20 to 25.

Superintendent White was requested to take up further with neighboring superintendents the question of united action in the purchase of school desks and supplies.

Choose Husband Like Frock, Judge Advises

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y.—To lessen divorce choose a husband with the same skill and care that you would exercise in purchasing a dress.

This formula for married bliss was advanced by Justice Seeger in granting an annulment of marriage to Mrs. Marie D. Stevens. Mrs. Stevens declared she was only 15 years old when she met her husband, William, and married him ten days after their first meeting.

"The next time you get married," said the judge, "take a couple of weeks to think it over. When you are buying goods for a dress go over all the goods in the shop. You ought to take at least as much care in picking out a husband."

HIGH STIFF COLLAR GOING

LONDON—There is a masculine war brewing in London. It is directed against the high stiff collar. Fashion leaders have attempted to renew the popularity of the "choker" collar, which was famous along Piccadilly in the pre-war days, and have met with a storm of disapproval.

London dandies have become accustomed to the soft collar, and they have no desire to go back to the strangulating fashion of five years ago.

The newspapers have taken up the fight for the soft and low collar, and medical experts are quoted at length to prove that the high collar is a menace to the health of the British Empire. George Bernard Shaw is held up to the Londoners as the greatest exponent of the soft and low collar.

Soviets to Make Bid for World Trade Aid

By DAVID M. CHURCH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON—Soviet Russia is entering the Genoa conference with the firm conviction that there can be no economic rehabilitation of Europe except through the rehabilitation of Russia, but at the same time she will resist any effort at "economic and political enslavement," according to M. Leonid Krassin, head of the Russian Trade Delegation in London.

"The problem of the economic regeneration of Russia is not one merely of humanitarian activity, and is not confined in its scope to the salvation of Russia alone," M. Krassin declared. "Without it there is no hope for the regeneration of the economic life of Europe and even of the whole world."

"Heavy industry in Russia can be restored only by some form of general measure which shall embrace simultaneously all the enterprises of the given area. It is difficult to outline the mechanism of such an apparatus of reconstruction; but the most effective would appear to be the formation of several large trusts, with the participation both of the Soviet State and of foreign capital, the Soviet State granting land and existing equipment, and foreign capital giving in return a definite proportion of the output as compensation for the rights it has acquired."

Soviet leaders are wary in entering into negotiations with allied statesmen, Krassin indicated.

"One may anticipate that the financiers and industrialists of Western Europe and the political, no less, will undergo a great temptation to utilize their participation in the economic reconstruction of Russia to bring about the economic and political enslavement of our country," M. Krassin said. "If this situation arises an agreement is impossible, and a stubborn and protracted struggle lies before us."

Plate Glass Window Is Smashed by Wind

Did you hear about the terrible catastrophe?
"Yeah," said the small boy, "the wind blew up Broadway."

Not only that, but it blew out a plate glass window at the Sierra Club beverage plant, corner of Isabel street and Wilson avenue last night.

Outside of making the telephone company a lot of trouble, saving the white wings some worry for a day or two and planting paper bags, not to mention a million other trashy articles, in trees, little damage was done.

Local Midgets Have Chance to Take Title

Coach Normal C. Hayhurst of the local high school is putting in overtime this week drilling his championship 130-pound basketball team for the semi-final contest for the Southern California title which is scheduled to take place next Friday afternoon between the locals and the winner of the Burbank-Montebello game. The Red and Black "Midgets," who trampled over all opposition in the Central league, are conceded at least an even chance to cop the honors and the coming game will be watched by casaba followers all over Southern California.

Charles A. Taylor Is Speaker to Children

Charles A. Taylor, who directed Oliver Morosco's "The Halfbreed," gave a short talk last Saturday on "The Future of the Motion Picture" to the children's class at the Pearl Keller school at 109-A North Brand boulevard. Mr. Taylor and Pearl Keller-Brattain were friends in Seattle.

Mr. Taylor's father, D. B. Taylor, has recently purchased a home on Lomita avenue, and he also has two sisters residing in Glendale. Mr. Taylor has chosen Glendale and its picturesque surroundings for the background of his next production, entitled, "Old Lavender's Faith."

Divine Healing Topic by Rev. W. E. Edmonds

Divine Healing from a Biblical standpoint will be discussed during the prayer meeting services tonight by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian Church.

According to Rev. Edmonds, the discussion on this subject is designed to meet the extravagances of leaders in the healing movement and to weigh and test in the balance of Scripture and Christian experience the real worth and value of their claims.

This is the second study on this subject. It will be followed by two others. Much interest is being shown in these presentations. The public has been cordially invited.

HAVE YOU SECURED
LICENSE FOR FIFI?
IT'S NOW DUE

R. F. Allen, Canine Catcher, Is Making Census of Pets Throughout Glendale

Has your dog got his 1922 license yet? About 300 licenses have been issued already, according to City Clerk A. J. Van Wie, who stated that he expected applications for several hundred more in the near future.

"There seem to be a good many people here that are not familiar with the laws of the city of Glendale regarding the keeping of dogs," declared Mr. Van Wie. "They got by some other place without the expense of a license and they think they are going to get by here."

R. F. Allen of 229 South Jackson street is now on the job as municipal dog catcher. He is calling at each home, making a census of canine pets. In case "Fifi" or "Toddles" hasn't any license the family will be served with official notice to come and purchase one. If this fails to bring response, according to Mr. Van Wie, they will be invited to call upon Police Judge F. H. Lowe and pay a $25 fine.

Applications for licenses are being made at the rate of ten a day. Owners of pedigreed dogs were the first to apply.

Navy Furnishes Gobs With Movie Thrills

WASHINGTON—Owing to the peculiar needs of the naval service the Navy Department has established and today maintains a regular motion-picture exchange which in size and the field of activity is probably second to none.

This exchange has operated at the New York Navy yard for the past year and is handling between 1,700 and 2,500 programmes of the latest pictures.

It is furnishing regular programmes to the Atlantic fleet, Atlantic coast stations, West Indian and European stations and to some extent the Pacific Coast establishment. During the present year it is expected that this service can be extended to the Pacific and Asiatic stations. Sub-exchanges have been installed in various naval districts, including the stations in Haiti and Santo Domingo.

Motion-picture machines are now part of the engineering allowance for the navy, while regular courses in the operation of the machines and films are part of the naval training.

Yes, reading of the activity of the Reds is enough to give a normal man the blues.

BRYAN'S HOME HOSPITAL HIGHER COURT IS ALOOF

LINCOLN, Neb., March 8.—"Fairview," famous as the birthplace of the grape juice cocktail and the former home of William Jennings Bryan, is to become a Methodist hospital. A telegram from Bishop Stuntz of the Des Moines diocese of the Methodist Episcopal church, received today by Charles Bryan, brother of William Jennings Bryan, says the Methodists have accepted the offer of the former presidential candidate and will take over Fairview at once.

Fairview was first offered to the Presbyterian church, but the gift was declined because of maintenance provisions made by the donor.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The unwillingness of the United States supreme court to have anything to do with cases growing out of Volstead law violations after they have been disposed of by the lower courts was indicated twice. The court denied the petition of Michael Wiseman for a rehearing on his conviction on a charge of conspiring to facilitate the transportation of liquor into the United States from Canada, and denied a review to Roy Innes, convicted of transporting whiskey from Wyoming into Colorado.

Harding Will Remain Free of Party Fights

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—Not only does President Harding plan to hold himself entirely aloof from any of the Republican primary fights that are threatening party harmony in several directions, but he also plans to take very little part personally in the coming fall election campaign, according to word circulating among Republican leaders.

Several reasons are understood to have inspired the president's resolve in this respect: (1) He does not believe there is much danger in the Democrats capturing control of either house or senate, and (2) He does not believe it "becoming" for a president of the United States to personally engage in the give-and-take of a heated off-year campaign.

Recently several Republicans who are facing stiff fights for re-election this fall approached the White House to ascertain the chances of bolstering up their respective campaigns with a presidential speech.

They were informed that President Harding has made no plans for any participation in the coming election campaign, other than the ordinary counsel with party leaders, and that in all probability he will make no speeches whatever in support of any candidate.

Some prominent Republicans whose political lives are endangered in the primaries in their respective states have endeavored to enlist White House support for their candidacies. They have been advised that while the president would be glad to see them returned to Washington, he nevertheless believes it would be "bad politics" and the wrong spirit for the chief executive to actively aid them in winning their family battles.

The president will be aided somewhat in his resolve to steer clear of the primaries by the summer Alaskan trip, which, according to present plans, will get under way during June. It is likely the president will be gone for two or three months, and by the time he returns, most of the primary squabbles will have been settled.

Babe Ruth Tosses Up For Salary and Wins

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 8.—Just as though the signing of a five-year contract at terms that might make a railroad president wince was an every-day matter to him, the eminent Mr. Babe Ruth went about the business of training for the 1922 baseball season with seeming indifference to the buzz of comment occasioned when he appeared in the hotel lobby.

Ruth arose comparatively early Monday for a man who has contracted to fall heir to a half million dollars in the next five years. Contract, or no contract, he wanted to get in a round of golf before he donned a baseball uniform for an informal workout with the other Yankees in training here.

Like a good gambler, he knew how to win like a gentleman. It would have been the same had he lost, for the conference with Col. T. L. Huston, resulting in the slugger coming to terms last night in a contract said to call for not less than $75,000 a year for five years with a bonus of $500 for each home run made, was a meeting of two game sports.

Ruth was adamant for the price he had set originally upon his services. The colonel named a compromise figure. But neither would give an inch. "Let's toss a coin for it, then," suggested Ruth. "It's all right with me." But I will have to consult with Ruppert."

Accordingly, he got in touch with the president of the Yankees, gained his consent to the proposal over the long distance telephone, pulled a coin from his pocket, and gave it a blithe toss in the air.

"Tails," yelled Ruth. And "tails" it was. A moment later he was signed to a five-year contract, making him the highest paid man in baseball, or any sport, by many thousands of dollars.

New Courts Laid for Championship Games

WIMBLEDON, Eng. — Thirteen new courts have been laid down here in preparation for the World's Lawn Tennis championships, which will be held here in June. Turf for the new courts has been brought from Solway Firth, because this is supposed to be the finest tennis turf in the world.

A grandstand that will seat 14,000 people is being erected. The English tea habit will not be neglected, for a tearoom seating 1200 people is being constructed, so that the thirsty English audience may dash out between sets and sip a cup of Oolong.

NEARLY ALL BODIES HOME

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—The war department has nearly completed its task of bringing home the A. E. F. dead from France. It was announced. To date, there have been 44,085 bodies returned, leaving only 1,108 yet to be brought home. Approximately 32,000 American dead will be left in France, either at the request of their next of kin, or in absence of any instructions. Revised figures show that 77,712 American soldiers died between May, 1917, and December 31, 1919.

WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

LOS GATOS, March 8.—Mrs. Lida Nevin, 65, of San Francisco, was burned to death; R. L. Seward, a high school teacher, seriously burned in an attempt to rescue her, and twelve patients were driven from their rooms when an oil stove exploded in the room occupied by Mrs. Nevin at the Vista Grande Sanitarium, in the foothills near here, causing fire which destroyed the structure with a loss of $15,000. Mrs. Nevin is believed to have overturned the stove in an effort to get up, causing the explosion. Seward heard the explosion and battered in her door, but was driven back after being badly burned. Mrs. Lillie Clark, proprietress, was also slightly burned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—President Harding will ask Attorney General Daugherty to render an opinion as to the eligibility of Senator Smoot of Utah and Representative Burton of Ohio to serve as members of the World War debt funding commission, it was learned officially at the White House. The senate is now holding up confirmation of Smoot and Burton because of objections to permitting them to become members of the commission while they are members of congress.

LOST MEMORY RETURNING

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Arrival of his father, Dr. Frederick J. He recalled his father and childhood incidents, but the immediate past is still a blank. Dr. Pack will take his son home to Salt Lake City in the hope that familiar surroundings will completely lift the cloud of amnesia.

C. D. Gulick Wants Details on Quality of Accommodations Provided by P. E.

Are you satisfied with Pacific Electric service? C. D. Gulick of 1237 South Central avenue, municipal traffic expert, would like to know. Decision on Glendale's petition for a permit to operate a bus line in the city of Los Angeles is now being delayed by the Board of Public Utilities until it can obtain further information in regard to the service furnished within the local city limits by the Pacific Electric.

In order that there may be no doubt as to the quality of this service, Mr. Gulick is now gathering information which will indicate the public attitude toward the Pacific Electric. He stated that he would be glad to receive communications on the subject from commuters and others who visit Los Angeles by rail occasionally. Mr. Gulick is especially interested in how long it is necessary to wait for a car, the possibility of getting a seat and the general running time.

Headquarters have been established by Mr. Gulick at the city hall and he has stated that he would be glad to have any of those having opinions about the present service call upon him. The Board of Public Utilities has a rule not to consider matters of importance while one of its members is absent, explained Mr. Gulick, speaking about Monday's postponed decision. "W. L. Leeds is now in Arizona."

Great Housing Plan Would Reduce Rents

NEW YORK—Five-story tenement houses within thirty minutes of Grand Central Station will be built in block lots to meet part of the existing shortage of $1,000,000 apartments here, if the state legislature cooperates in a plan evolved by Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the Lockwood committee, which investigated housing conditions here.

Wholesale purchase of materials, and concessions from labor and material manufacturers, would be invoked to build the houses cheaply. The state legislature will be asked to amend the state insurance law to permit insurance companies to invest up to 10 per cent of their total assets in tenement houses for the period of the emergency. The investment would be required to earn 6 per cent. Rooms in the houses would rent for $9 each, while the apartments would rent at $8 a room.

Officials of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company already have given their approval to the plan, provided they have assurance policyholders will be protected. Ten per cent of the Metropolitan's assets would be more than $100,000,000. This sum, Mr. Untermyer has estimated, would construct 1,500 five-story tenements, accommodating 45,000 families, or 225,000 persons. The plan has also been approved by officials of the Building Trades council and other labor organizations. "They have expressed their willingness to contribute one day's work out of each week, or deduct one dollar per day from the standard scale of wages toward the realization of the venture," Mr. Untermyer said. "In return I have suggested that every mechanic and laborer working on these buildings shall have a preferential right to rent an apartment in them, so that the men who are doing the work will feel that they are building homes for their own occupancy."

Escaping Gas Found to Cause Death of Trees

WESTFIELD, Mass. — Majestic elm trees in a central location in this city are dying as a result of a leak or leaks in gas mains. Forestry officials have reported the destruction of many beautiful trees and the gas company has been called upon to check the escape of the poison.

58 Training Places to Aid War Victims

WASHINGTON—With their objective "the complete social recovery" of the neuropsychiatric cases and recovery of health in tubercular cases," fifty-eight training centers, outside of hospitals under the United States Veterans' Bureau, have been established throughout the land by the Veterans' Bureau. A comprehensive study of the best types of vocations to be taught neuropsychiatric cases has been made by the Rehabilitation Division of the Veterans' Bureau, and they confidently predict that every such case, through the proper type of training, will make a complete "social recovery."

France Asks Big Navy for Corsica's Defense

WASHINGTON—When France recently informed the Arms Conference that her navy was necessary to defend her possessions in the three seas, one of the reasons advanced was a remote little island in the Mediterranean known as Corsica. Perhaps a touch of sentiment entered into the mentioning of this quaint, far-away island as a cause for an extensive French navy. The great military genius and French idol, Napoleon Bonaparte, first saw the light of day on this island.

K-9 Hot Dog Ranch Does Thriving Trade

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Unique are the names and titles of many small shops doing business in the less important business sections of the national capital, but the prize goes to a two-by-four hole-in-the-wall of a shack on Fourteenth street, in the northwest section of the city. "The K-9 Ranch—Hot Dog!" is the peculiarly appropriate name stenciled in black, startling letters on a decrepit signboard above the entrance. And the vendors of the old-reliable hot-dog sandwich do a thriving business.

Women Oust Barbers and Other Workmen

SEATTLE—Encroachment of women in jobs formerly occupied by men is shown in a report just issued by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce. In 1920, in the state of Washington, there were 381 women barbers, hairdressers and manicurists; 48 women fishermen and oystermen; 7 women draymen, teamsters and expressmen; 5 women longshoremen; 24 women laborers in shipyards; 261 building laborers; 233 sawmill and planing mill laborers and 53 lumbermen, raftsmen and woodchoppers.

New Firms to Run Irish Ship Routes

NEW YORK—Direct ocean passenger and freight service between the United States and Ireland will start soon, it is expected here. Two groups of Irish-Americans already have started work on such projects. One group has incorporated a $500,000 company and is considering the purchase of two ships. The company has been named "Irish-American." The other group has secured an option on the steamship New York, for years a crack liner of the American Line.

LEGISLATIVE MOVE SUGGESTED FOR GERMAN DYES

Harding Says Congress Has Prevented Administration From Getting Action

By U. S. Press Association.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—President Harding let the Senate committee investigating the dye industry know that Congress has tied the hands of the administration in dealing with the reparation commission, and suggested that some legislative action be taken to permit the United States to obtain its quota of German reparation dyes.

The President's views as set forth in the letter were presented to the Senate committee investigating charges of dye monopolies and lobbies and in connection with an appeal of the Textile Alliance, once the agency for the government in receiving and distributing German dyes allotted to the United States as an associate power in the world war, for creation of some method by which the receiving of dyes could be resumed. The state department, it has been developed, abrogated its arrangement with the alliance last December, saying it had no legal authority to continue it.

Tax Filing Extended

Corporations have been granted a general extension of time for filing of income tax returns by Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair. They are given up to June 15 under a new Treasury decision for completing returns of income for the calendar year, 1921; the fiscal year ended January 31, 1922, and the fiscal year ending February 28, 1922. The extension, the announcement said, is tentative returns by March 15, April 15 and May 15, 1922, according to the yearly basis used, accompanied by one-fourth the estimated amount of the tax due.

Officials explain that the extension was granted because of the delay in the preparation of new Treasury regulations covering income and profits taxes.

Twenty Million Farm Horses

Of the 19,785,933 horses on farms in the United States on January 1, 1920, 120,540, or 0.6 per cent, were classed as purebred, according to the Bureau of the Census. The States reporting the largest percentage of purebred horses were as follows: Illinois, 1.2 per cent; Rhode Island, 1.1 per cent; Iowa, 1.1 per cent; Massachusetts, 1 per cent; Vermont, 0.9 per cent; Ohio, 0.9 per cent; Kentucky, 0.9 per cent; and Kansas, 0.8 per cent. The States reporting the largest number of purebred horses in 1920 were Illinois, with 15,559; Iowa, with 15,450; Kansas, with 8,369; Ohio, with 7,257; Nebraska, with 5,654; North Dakota, with 5,636; South Dakota, with 5,221; and Indiana, with 5,265.

Negroes' Wealth

The Census Bureau giving the number and value of farms owned by negroes in each of the states, shows the total value to be $2,257,645,325. That stupendous amount of property has been produced by their hands since the conclusion of the Civil War, and under conditions more difficult than any that ever before confronted a branch of the human family. Of this property we find that 97 per cent is in the south. The exact figures are $2,191,005,642 in the south and $66,639,683 in the rest of the country. Fifteen per cent of the colored people, according to the census, live in the north, the east and the west; 85 per cent of them live in the south. Yet instead of possessing 15 per cent of total property which that race possesses, the negroes outside the south possess but 3 per cent. Representative Bourke Cockran comments that "if this striking fact proves anything, it is that elsewhere in the country the productivity of the negro is just one-fifth of what it is in the south. And, strange as it may seem, it is in those states where treatment of the negro has been the subject of harshest criticism that he has produced and now holds the largest volume of property."

State Rail Control

Legislation that would restore to states control over transportation rates within the various states was endorsed at a hearing before the commerce committee of the United States Senate, by Governor Kendall of Iowa, Frank L. Smith, chairman of the Illinois Interstate Commerce Commission, and A. G. Patterson, president of the Alabama public service commission.

Canadian Total 8,772,631

Canada's population in 1921 was 8,772,631, an increase of more than 20 per cent over the figures for 1911. Population in 1911 was 7,296,643.

463,504 Purebred Sheep

Out of a total of 35,033,516 sheep on farms in the United States on January 1, 1920, 463,504, or 1.3 per cent, were classed as purebred, according to the returns of the census.

To Visit Muscle Shoals

The Agriculture Committee of the Senate has been authorized to make a personal inspection of the Muscle Shoals project, and the expense allowance has been made sufficient to permit of other Senators making the trip if they care to.

German Patent Treaties

The Senate has passed a resolution authorizing President Harding to revive the patent treaties of 1909 with Germany, suspended on account of the war.

With the British and local governments co-operating, several wells will be bored in Papua in a search for petroleum.

Vegetarianism is almost universal in northern China. Turnips, potatoes, corn, rice and millet are the principal foodstuffs.

GENERAL PERSHING SCHOOL ROOM FOR NEXT FALL GREAT NEED, CLAIMED

Tells Committee of Congress Country Should Maintain Proper Organization

By U. S. Press Association. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—After pointing out that the regular army was "relatively small at present" and limited in numbers first by the existing army organization act and later by appropriations acts, General Pershing told a committee of Congress that the following economic principle might be stated as to the military organization the country should maintain:

"In organizing the peace establishment, no unit should be maintained in a more expensive category if it can be safely and advantageously maintained in a less expensive category, and mobilized therefrom in time to meet the requirements of an emergency."

General Pershing explained that the cost of each group of the new army was different, the regulars being more than the organized reserve. In explanation of this, he added, that "regular army organizations must be maintained for duty in foreign garrisons, upon the Mexican border, for emergency service at home or expeditionary purposes abroad, and for all other duties which, in the nature of things, could not be performed by the citizen soldiers."

168,109 Soldiers Seen

Agents of the Veterans' Bureau have interviewed 168,109 disabled veterans in the national clean-up campaign of the bureau, says Director Forbes. The campaign was inaugurated to inform all disabled veterans of the benefits to which they are entitled under the various soldier relief acts and for the purpose of preparing and filing claims for disabilities received in the service.

As a result of the clean-up campaign the squads made 68,143 physical examinations, forwarded 48,845 compensation claims, 25,892 new vocational training claims, prepared 33,475 appeal cases and hospitalized 4,545 veterans whose disabilities were of such a serious nature as to require hospital treatment.

Supplementing the general clean-up campaign, Director Forbes inaugurated a hospital clean-up campaign whereby those clean-up squads visited the veterans at their bedsides and adjudicated many claims.

The Foreign Debt

The Stone & Webster Journal, in an interesting article on the soldiers' bonus plan, drifts into a discussion of the foreign debt, as follows: "At the moment those foreign debts appear to be about as good an asset as corner lots in an undeveloped prairie town. Our creditors are honorable nations and intend to pay us what they owe just as soon as circumstances permit. But, apparently, circumstances are not going to permit in anything like the immediate future. Our foreign creditors are all decidedly hard up as a result of circumstances over which they had very little control. The debts were a sheer necessity. They were made to keep civilization from disintegrating. There was as much necessity on our part in lending the money as there was on their part in borrowing it. We cannot, with safety, force or attempt to force payment prematurely. This nation is in the same position as that of the other allied nations; to change the figure we must all hang together if we don't want to hang separately."

Wool Consumption Normal

Many of the wool-importing countries of the world are now practically on a pre-war consuming basis and raw stocks are being converted into finished goods at almost the average pre-war rate, according to a report issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. Large stocks of wool exist in practically all the leading wool-producing countries, but the supply in the principal con-

C. of C. Board of Directors Discuss Civic Questions at Weekly Gatherings

Schools, Community Service, building restrictions and miscellaneous matters came before the board of directors' meeting at the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon.

C. E. Kimlin, member of the city council as well as a director of the Chamber, was named to attend a meeting of Community Service last night at which time an invitation was extended that organization to enter the local field.

Dr. Jessie A. Russell and Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, heartily endorsed the movement to co-ordinate the play time work in Glendale, both declaring it was essential that some means be used to obtain recreational centers.

Park School Discussed. On the subject of schools, Peter L. Ferry wanted the board to go on record as favoring the complete construction of the Park avenue intermediate. It seems to be the consensus of opinion that as much of it should be built as will permit the largest number of school rooms.

Superintendent White told of the pressing need for desk room for the deluge of youngsters coming in next fall and he expressed anxiety at any delay in actual building of the proposed units as far as the last bond issue will carry the board.

"Glendale has reached a critical stage," he said. "Instead of thinking of hundreds, as we have in the past, we must think of thousands and be prepared to care for 50,000 population within the next three or four years."

suming countries is less than has been recorded for some time, and is insufficient to meet present demand. The inability of consuming nations to obtain stocks is ascribed to the unsettled economic conditions throughout the world.

HARRY GIRARD GIVES FINANCIAL ESTIMATES ON BIG MUSIC EVENT

Outline of Proposed Organization Elaborated and Further Details are Given Out by Writer

Here is Harry Girard's third article on a prospectus and outline in detail for the Glendale May festival and Children's Choral Crusade: Editor The Evening News: The City Council of the City of Glendale should issue an invitation to the heads of all the civic, fraternal, and religious organizations established in the City of Glendale to meet them at an appointed time for the purpose of creating and organizing a perpetual Board of Governors, who will be responsible for the production of the Annual Glendale May Music Festival and the Children's Choral Crusade. There is only one item of importance: The adoption of the rule, that when a person ceases to occupy the position as head of one of the civic institutions, his or her successor automatically becomes a member of this Board of Governors, thus creating its perpetuity.

Producing Director. The Board of Governors should be vested with the power to engage and contract for the services of "A Producing Director," who will take the responsibility for the successful production of "The Event," from a financial, as well as an artistic point of view, at a stipend to be mutually agreed upon. The Board of Governors should also have the power to engage and contract for a professional press manager, for the ensuing year, at a salary to be mutually agreed upon. These two positions considered the working organization. The Board of Governors should appoint a committee to assist the working organization. A Press Committee, who will investigate the publicity obtained from time to time. A Building Committee, covering and becoming responsible for the building of the grand stands, also, the rental of the auditoriums needed for the week of "The Event." A Concession Committee, headed by one of the city council, empowered to license all concessions. A Float Committee is of the greatest importance as the proper management and organization means that the sixteen floats representing the sixteen different nations and peoples, to be used in the Children's Choral Crusade, can be obtained by subscription or donation. For example: The head of the Masonic order in Glendale, would be appointed a member of the Board of Governors. Appoint him on the Float Committee and request him to get busy a year in advance and collect contributions from the Masonic orders throughout the state, to build a Masonic float to compete for what would be a worthy prize. In friendly rivalry the exalted ruler of the Elks would do likewise and undoubtedly devise original ways and means to supply the funds for so worthy a contest. The Chamber of Commerce ditto. Likewise the Knights of Columbus, The I. O. O. F., The Rotary Club, The American Legion, etc. I doubt not but you would have many requests for industrial floats also; such as power, light, heat and transit, from the large corporations, who could not but appreciate its advertising values.

Music Committee. Then of greatest importance, is your Music Committee. This should be formed entirely of the heads of all the recognized musical organizations of the City of Glendale. Their duties would be to invite the guest societies to our city, arrange the programs, watch over the progress of the children in their work; and, in fact, control and be absolutely responsible for the success or failure from an artistic point of view of the May Festival, and all things musically pertaining thereto. There should also be a Program Committee. Practical men, who know and appreciate the value of advertising rates. A Ticket Committee, whose duties would be to issue season tickets. A season ticket printed in book form, containing six reserve grand stand seats for the six parades, and six concert seats, good for admission to any one of the concerts in any one of the five auditoriums. This book of twelve tickets could be sold for ten dollars, and should be issued in serial numbers, valid only when the cover contains the name and address of the purchaser. The sale of these tickets should start at least four months before "The Event." A Costume Committee should be created, to see that the individual and religious organizations in their pageant attire. And, finally, a Treasurer should be appointed. Preferably a representative banker; and a rule established that all funds expended must be by check bearing the endorsement of three persons: the director general, the chairman of the committee spending the money, and the treasurer. Thus, if the director general wishes to hire a band for the pageant he consults with the chairman of the Music Committee, and if they both agree that it is advisable, they endorse the check for the expense. The treasurer pays the money only on the double indorsement. Financial Estimate. Herewith follows an estimate of the cost and income that might reasonably be expected in the production of such an "Event." Expense—Five prizes at $5,000.00 each, donated. Five second prizes at $1,000.00, gross expense $5,000.00. Sixteen School banners at $50.00 each, gross expense, $800.00. Producing Director 12 months, gross expense, $5,200.00. Press Agent, 12 months, gross expense $2,400.00. Advertising, bill boards, printing, etc., gross expense, $5,000.00. 16 Electrical floats at $2,500.00, each, donated. 10,000 grand stand seats, cost of construction estimated, $5,000.00. Rental of 5 auditoriums for one week, gross expense, $1,000.00. Twelve months' advertising in daily papers, the weeklies, and monthly magazines. In the current events released in all motion picture theaters throughout the world, estimated worth $1,000.00. The city would have an event that would cost over a million dollars, if paid for at prevailing advertising rates. Prospective Receipts. 10,000 grand stand seats, built on Brand boulevard, from Colorado avenue to Broadway at 50 cents each for six performances, gross receipts, $20,000.00. 5,000 concert tickets at 50 cents each for six performances, gross receipts, $2,500.00. Program advertising, $5,000.00. Rental of concessions on Brand boulevard parking strips, from Loma to Colorado avenue, both sides of street, gross receipts, $3,000.00. Sale of banners, emblems, souvenirs, programs, etc., etc., $5,000.00. Total income, $58,000.00. Total expenditures, $24,400.00. Balance in treasury, $33,600.00. The above is only an estimate, but a conservative one. HARRY GIRARD.

Need $10,000,000 for Battle Against Famine

BY EDNA LEE BOOKER. By International News Service. SHANGHAI, March 8.—More than $10,000,000 is needed to cope with the famine problem in Kiangsu, Anhui, Shantung, Chekiang, Hupeh, Honan and Shensi provinces, where more than fifteen million people are facing starvation, according to reports made by the International Relief Societies of China. Last year the terrible famine in China was caused by the drought, while this year millions have been rendered destitute by floods from the Yellow river. At present only about $5,000,000 is appropriated for relief work. To prevent thousands from dying of starvation more than twice this amount is necessary, according to the relief societies. The distress, as investigated by the international committee, is shown in the following: Province Cause Destitute Kiangsu Flood—3,000,000 Anhui Flood—3,000,000 Shantung Flood—2,800,000 Hunan Drought—1,500,000 Chekiang Flood—1,200,000 Hupeh Flood—1,500,000 Honan Flood—1,500,000 Shensi Flood—1,000,000 A member of the relief society in Yuanchofu, Western Hunan, reports as follows of the terrible conditions existing: "Have seen people who have died already of starvation. Many thousands are in a starving condition. A hundred thousand need help at once and in two months five hundred thousand will need help. There are said to be many poets in Russia. CHAMPION RUNNER HERE; TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

Long Distance Title Holder Says Exercise Is Great Preventative of Flu

Ray Wilson, winner of the world's championship belt for racing endurance, stopped at 245 South Brand boulevard to chat awhile at the Studebaker agency.

He did not run out here from Los Angeles, however, as he came in his 1917 four cylinder Studebaker touring car which he calls his "circus wagon."

This automobile has made three transcontinental round trips between Seattle and New York City and, according to Mr. Wilson, its motor has not received the slightest attention since June 1920—over a year and a half.

"That is a wonderful record for a car," declared Mr. Wilson. "It is one which anybody will respect."

This Studebaker trailed Mr. Wilson officially upon his run between Seattle, Washington, and North Platte, Nebraska, during the early summer of 1920 in order that he might have witnesses that he ran every inch of the way and did not drop into a walk at any time.

Only One Can Beat Him. About the time most long distance runners are about ready to drop from exhaustion, Mr. Wilson is just getting his second wind. He does not feel that he has gotten started until he has passed the ten mile mark.

In his earlier days he ran the regular Marathon Distance of twenty-six miles and 285 yards in two hours, 48 minutes and 17 seconds. In 1908 he ran 61 and one-half miles between 7:29 in the morning and 11:45 at night. Mr. Wilson says the only one he knows who can beat his record for endurance is Peter Terway, a Y. M. C. A. runner of Canada, who has run 110 miles in twenty hours and ten minutes, taking nourishment in action.

"I like to run," remarked Mr. Wilson. "If people would only heed the advice of hard experience life would be a little easier for all of us. I have found that I can cure any kind of a cold by running and it is the same principle as going to bed and sweating it out, only it hasn't the dull after effect. The increased circulation helps to throw off the germs."

Cure for Influenza. Influenza can be cured by proper exercise, according to Mr. Wilson. He admits, however, that after a case has gotten control of a patient, quiet and rest and light food are the proper remedies.

"I never have experienced the joy of living more keenly than when in good training and regular running," asserted Mr. Wilson. "In all my running I have only had two blisters and they were caused by poor fitting shoes. I had one corn once for a few days."

"When you take perfect exercise your stomach will digest almost anything in reason. I don't mean that everybody should go out and run in their spare time but that they should eat and take a good long walk. You will be surprised to find how good you feel after you harden to it. I eat what I like and never diet. When you exercise properly, dieting is a joke. Walking is a great exercise for everybody. It brings all the muscles into play."

Get Examined First. "I don't want to be misunderstood in lauding the benefits of running. No young man should run more than ten miles and not that without the examination of heart, lungs and stomach by a physician. I have known of youngsters 16 and 17 running twenty miles in a race and it has detracted from their general health ever since."

"A man trained for the dash is not even trained in the first principles of distance running. What is good for one is bad for the other. If boys under 21 want to run, three miles is the proper distance."

"The average walker covers three miles an hour. A twenty-five mile walk once a week is enough for the novice. This distance three times a week is nothing out of the ordinary for the hardened walker."

"In running across the continent I run five or ten miles and rest. My average speed is five to eight miles an hour and twelve in sprints."

Mr. Wilson came to Southern California a few months ago to reside permanently. Yesterday was the first time he had seen this community in daylight. He stated that he would not object to settling in Glendale.

FAVORS SOLDIERS' BONUS

APPLETON, Wis., March 8.—"In justice to the four million men who in 1917 stood ready to sacrifice their lives for their country, the soldiers' bonus should be passed without further delay."

Former United States Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis thus expressed his views on the bonus question here when he addressed 500 members of the American Legion in Wisconsin in his first public address since leaving the federal bench, to devote his time to organized baseball.

Judge Landis attributed failure of passage of the measure to "the fellows who worked a hundred million miles from the German front, and who don't like the American Legion."

Senator New in Plea For Ratifying Treaties

By J. BART CAMPBELL

Written for International News Service WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—The alternative for such undertakings and understandings as the armistice conference developed is "a rule of brute force as will plunge the world into chaos and threaten humanity with oblivion," Senator New, Republican of Indiana, told the senate.

With a long prepared speech, urging senate ratification of the conference, Senator New, as an administration spokesman, opened what promised to be at least another week's debate on the four-power Pacific pact.

"We may not cast aside these treaties as mere idle words under penalty of being overwhelmed by the outbreak of righteous condemnation from all the peoples of the world," New said.

"It will not do for us to think these treaties may be dismissed with a contemptuous smirk that being merely treaties they mean nothing, are meant only to be broken, that they are valueless."

"It only because the 'spirit of sacrifice which flowed in and through the conference left the world a safer and better place to live in,' its decision ought to meet with the senate's approval," New contended.

He again advanced at considerable length the administration's interpretation of the four-power treaty that it does not provide for an alliance between the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, nor for the use of armed force by them.

New declared if an alliance were even implied or contemplated by the treaty, he would oppose and advise against its ratification. He denied that the pact was in any way a reflection, or an off-shoot of the League of Nations.

Home Land Banks to Help Lack of Houses

By W. K. NOLAN

Written for International News Service WASHINGTON — The establishment of home land banks, much along the lines of the present farm land banks, whereby the wage earner would be able to obtain long-time loans at low interest for the purpose of building a residence and escaping from the rent "evil," looms again as the announcement of Senator Calder (R.), of New York, that he would probably move soon for action on his proposed Home Land Bank act.

This bill has been buried in the committee on banking and currency of the senate since last April, and it is understood the committee does not favor its passage. However, a crisis in the building situation caused by the rise in the price of lumber of about 30 per cent, and increases in other building materials, has stirred

Senator Calder, who himself is interested extensively in real estate and building operations.

The bill apparently has been sidetracked by the committee, of which Senator McLean (R.), of Connecticut, is chairman; but Calder is determined—if, in his opinion after an investigation, it will afford a speedy way out of the present "bad" situation—to move for action at once.

Calder's bill was largely aimed at helping workers in crowded cities such as New York, Brooklyn, Chicago and Philadelphia.

It proposes to divide the United States into eleven home loan bank districts, under the supervision of a special bureau of the Treasury Department. A commissioner of the Federal Home Loan banks, appointed by the president, would administer the provisions of the act.

The bill also proposes to create co-operative building associations organized under state laws approved by the Commissioner of Federal Home Loan banks.

COMRADES AND FELLOW CITIZENS:

Are you sincerely anxious to be part of a really great service?

Do you honestly want to do a tremendous thing for God and home and country?

Would it make you very happy to reach thousands of people every day in an eloquent plea for the constitution and the flag?

You know the great issue in California and in the United States is:

Patriotism versus Treason. Loyalty versus Anarchy.

The Constitution versus Whiskey and Beer.

It would be an insult to ask you which side you are on. For of course you are for Patriotism and Loyalty, the Constitution and the Flag.

And you know a majority of the voters of this state and nation would be opposed to treason and lawlessness if only they could be made to see the truth.

But you say they won't listen to speakers, they won't read literature, they do not seem to want to stop and think.

What agency can we use to attract their attention and arrest their thought and arouse them to action?

Well, listen, friends. In the face of the above situation we know there is one great agency that will reach them. And facts and figures prove it is the most powerful and attractive drawing force in the world. Nobody doubts that. It is the most tremendous power in our contemporary life.

NAMELY, THE MOTION PICTURE.

Millions of people that cannot be reached by any other means flock to see motion pictures. Eighty-five per cent of all our knowledge comes through the eye, and what we learn through the eye we remember.

People say "in one ear and out the other," but whoever heard anybody say "in one eye and out the other?"

Bone Dry Federation has decided with your help to capture and use this great force in an appeal to teach reverence for the Constitution and respect for law. We have secured the rights to the greatest story of the day dealing with this vital question—eloquent in its message, dramatic in its appeal, gripping in its thrilling portrayal of present day conditions. Preachers, laymen, statesmen, lawyers, men and women, expert motion picture people unanimously declare it to be the message needed for this campaign. Thousands of churches, community centers, school houses and motion picture houses are waiting for it. The estimated cost of making this great picture is

TWENTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS.

We want you to enjoy the privilege of being part of this great work.

We know you will be happy in accepting this opportunity of doing the thing you have wanted to help do so long. Namely, carry a great message of loyalty to hundreds of thousands of people.

TWELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS have been subscribed, but on the condition that we raise TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS by popular subscription by April 1st, 1922.

Hence this earnest appeal to you.

We want you to be one of five hundred people to send in their check for TEN DOLLARS for this great work at once. We know that ten dollars is not very much for one person to give, but if we can only get five hundred of them we can surely make this TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS by April 1st, because there is some who will give one hundred dollars and some fifty dollars, and many, many hundreds who will give five dollars each.

Send in your check and become part of this great work, and tell your friends about it, please, because this is imperative. All monies given for this special work will be deposited in a special fund. Not one dollar of it will be used until the whole TEN THOUSAND is raised.

We are depending on you for help. Miss Alice H. Frank and Mr. Harry A. James, 1558 E. Wilson Avenue, Phone Glendale 747. San Fernando Valley representatives.

SPORTS CHATTER By BILL UNMACK PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The WORLD OVER By FRANKLIN B. MORSE PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The Hawaiian Islands need have no fear of not having swimmers to carry on the natorial glory of the islands when Duke Kahanamoku decides to step out of the competition. At a recent meet held in the Y. M. C. A. at Honolulu, the brothers, Pua and Warren Kealaoha, plainly showed they are among the fastest sprint men of the world. True neither of them broke any records, but their performances were such that must command respect in any part of the world.

Warren Kealaoha, for instance, won the hundred in 57.2-5 and the 226 yards in 2:28.3-5, while his brother Pua won the fifty yards in 24.3-5 seconds. Truly remarkable swimming and shows times that are far superior to the ordinary everyday swimming meet.

Then to finish up a day's work the brothers participated in the four-man forty yards each relay and clocked the distance in 1:16, two-fifths of a second better than the official world record, but lacking one second of the record of 1:15 made by the Chicago A. A. last July, but not yet accepted.

In the fifty-yard back stroke, Warren was again an entrant and he won this in 29 seconds, establishing a world record for this back stroke distance, obliterating his own 29.3-5 seconds made in the same tank April 30, 1920.

Such swimming as that is remarkable. The meet was a "radio" meet between the Y. M. C. A. teams all over the United States and the Hawaiian Islands. As such it was a closed meet and as a consequence it is doubtful if the A. A. U. will be able under their rules to recognize the new record.

The swimming situation in central California is still a matter of trouble for the Pacific Association branch of the A. A. U. To date, the new athletic leagues which have sprung up in the vicinity have not been able to come to an understanding with the district A. A. U. branch due principally to the absence in Europe of President Sam Goodman.

Until his return the A. A. U. branch is marking time waiting for Goodman. In the meantime the various leagues are going ahead and holding their respective swimming competitions and trusting to the matter being straightened out when Goodman gets back to his desk. The Protestant Church Athletic league has already held a very successful meet, run off under strict amateur rules, but not under sanction of the A. A. U.

On the other hand the A. A. U. at the present time is placing its efforts on meets promoted by the Olympic club in which swimmers from the Universities of California and Stanford are competitors. No unattached swimmers are competing and as all other swimming clubs are in the fight for greater recognition of swimming by swimmers by the A. A. U. these clubs are naturally not entering their individuals in competition.

1922 Normal Cupid Year Says N. Y. Clerk Peddling Licenses

NEW YORK—In a new Broadway comedy, "The Dover Road," the eccentric hero kidnaps ladies and gentlemen engaged in the business of eloping and, by keeping them prisoner, makes them postpone their decision for a week. At the end of that time he usually finds the patients willing to call off negotiations.

Some such "hero" must have been working in New York last year, for on Manhattan Isle there were 1,584 fewer marriages than in 1920.

Reduction in number of marriages, or some other circumstance, produced a falling off in the number of divorces by 348.

A. H. Zucker, record clerk in the Marriage License Bureau, today

terly reviewed the recent year by year nuptial record:

"Nineteen seventeen was a war year, abnormal; many married to get out of the draft.

"In 1918 and 1919 there were about the normal number of licenses. In 1920 there was too much money; salaries were too high. Many jumped into marriage with their eyes shut.

"Nineteen twenty-one was a different story. Money was scarce, housing accommodations were few. People looked before they leaped.

"But this will be about a normal year, I believe."

Mrs. Bernice C. Shidelsky is making a tour of the United States for the purpose of studying the divorce problem.

If the people really ruled, some of our present office holders never could have been elected.

With the announcement that the Coronado, Calif., golf championship for women will be played March 8 to 9 inclusive, it is interesting to note that this annual feature which was started in 1905 has gone along without missing a season, and is one of the oldest golf events of its kind in the west, if not in the country. While it is slightly antedated by the Western Women's championships, the Philadelphia Women's Golf association, the Women's Metropolitan championships and the Boston Women's Golf association, all of these cannot boast of full time consecutive play without any breaks.

Another interesting feature of this particular women's competitive golf event is the fact that the title has been won seven times by Mrs. Luther Kennett. This feat has been duplicated but not beaten by Mr. R. H. Barlow of the Philadelphia Women's Golf association. Mrs. Kennett has permanent ownership of two of the trophies; and a one year grip on another. Last season Miss Doroon Kavanaugh was the winner. She has only to win this year for permanent possession, having won the first log to possession in 1919.

Polo also will be in full swing from March 1 to 20 when the regular seasonal contests of the United States Polo association will be run off. These include the Pacific Coast Junior championship trophy, which was won last year and the year before by the Midwick team. This is open to teams of four whose aggregate handicap does not exceed twelve goals, only one player being allowed on the team with a rating of five or over. This trophy has been contested for beginning 1912.

Other plays will include contests

Lady Astor Has Say on Servants; Longs for Job As 'Slavey'

LONDON—"I admit there are many women among the working classes of this country incapable of filling a domestic job" is a statement made by Lady Astor, which brings a flock of denials and upbraidings in her trail. But the little lady from Virginia is used to them, and what she says goes. Nevertheless her mail-bag for a few weeks looks like being crammed to overflowing with protests from the domestic-loving women of England, and they are legion.

"I receive many letters," she went on, "asking why they should talk about unemployment among women, when it is impossible to secure a good domestic servant, no matter how high the wages are. I have a good deal of sympathy with that point of view, but a great many women are incapable of doing domestic work of any description, and if every one of them had a domestic job, that would not solve the problem of unemployment among women.

for the Joseph Jessop Challenge Trophy, open to teams whose aggregate handicap does not exceed eight goals, and no player allowed whose rating is three or over; the Hotel Del Coronado Handicap competition; and the Pacific Coast All-America Polo Trophy. This last is a perpetual trophy; open to teams of four, without handicap, provided there are entries from two recognized Polo club teams foreign to the state of California. The first competition in this series was held in 1909. Of eastern and middle west teams who have successfully competed for this trophy are the Meadow Brook team, which won in 1917, and the Onwentsia four of Lake Forest, Ill., which won in 1915.

While it seems a far shout from now until 1924 when the next Olympic games will be contested in France, it nevertheless is a fact that the wheels have been in operation for some time in the matter of preparation for the reason that there are a thousand and one angles to consider and the time is none too long.

To anyone who has had charge of a local meet, or a sectional or national event, it becomes at once apparent that the details rapidly multiply and, in the case of an Olympiad, the threads which span the world must be drawn and brought together. France already is at work in the matter of rearing a stadium, and the sooner it is completed the better, as the ground has a chance to settle which means much in the matter of firm, springy tracks for the runners and sprinters, and the right kind of turf for the games of various sort played on a field.

"In the House of Commons when I hear some one of the anti-women men talking about domestic servants I often long to apply to their homes and take on a job as 'slavey' just—as the soldiers used to say—to 'larn 'em.'"

Radio Expert Would Establish Air Police

By W. H. ATKINS
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON—America's leading radio engineers met here today to devise a method of policing the air to insure orderly use of the radio for all legitimate purposes.

Experts in private industry and officials of the war, navy and commerce departments were brought together by Secretary of Commerce Hoover. They declared that radio systems are on the threshold of their greatest development as a means of disseminating information of business and official character.

Exploits of the American small boy all over the United States have complicated the radio problem, the engineers said. American boys and other amateurs within recent months had set up their own receiving and sending radio stations on the roofs of houses and thereby gained virtually a monopoly of the air.

Commercial and official radio business transmitted from established stations has been seriously embarrassed by the fact that the air is filled with "clatter" by amateurs. Secretary Hoover said that he now seeks to establish by regulation wave-lengths for the different classes of radio apparatus. Mr. Hoover said that if the value of the wireless telephone and telegraph is to be preserved "ether cops" may be necessary to maintain order in the air.

At the present time, Mr. Hoover told the conference, the air is filled with sermons, music, gossip about the latest fashions and a vast amount of "small talk." Mr. Hoover said this practice of broadcasting all sorts of messages, without regard to the wave-length, is to be stopped.

Secretary Hoover announced that the representatives of the American Telephone and Telegraph company attending the conference had assured him of willingness to enter into any arrangement the Government may effect to safeguard proper use of the radio. The company controls the radio franchises.

The American boy, whose ingenuity is in part responsible for the present radio confusion, has a friend in Mr. Hoover. The Secretary said the conference can ill afford to take any step that would prohibit the American boy from using the radio under certain restrictions. What he aims to do, he said, is to specify wave-length limitations for amateurs and keep such radio users within the limits set by the government.

Within the last few months the conference was informed, American boys have been able to set up radio instruments at very small cost. The average instrument nowadays has a radius of 200 or 300 miles.

The main objection to pessimists is that they are so seldom willing to take anything.

Irish Free State Is Seen on All Sides

By DAVID M. CHURCH
Written for International News Service
LONDON—The eyes of Great Britain are on Ireland. Ireland's success or failure as a free state may be a determining factor in the disintegration of British rule.

Lloyd George and British statesmen are beset on all sides with demands for greater freedom.

The creation of the Irish Free State has given impetus to demands, which, if granted, would threaten the strength of British rule in almost every quarter of the globe.

India, Britain's most wealthy Far East possession, is in the throes of a precipitant revolution with freedom as the objective, and the Indian problem is undoubtedly the knottiest problem Lloyd George has on his hands with the exception of the final settlement of the Irish question and his domestic political difficulties.

Egypt, a protectorate of Great Britain, is demanding wider liberties, and the Egyptian question is one which is most vexatious, and it is whispered in political circles that this problem has threatened Cabinet rifts.

Scotland has at times been mentioned as the source of a possible demand for greater independence, although there is at the present time no indication that the Scottish people will arouse themselves to any serious demands; nevertheless, it is rumored that some of those who inhabit the northern half of the main British Isle are growing restive.

In the land striking miners have voiced their desire for the creation of a free state.

The people of the little Isle of Sark have gone ahead and established a government of their own without consulting either Lloyd George or King George. The population of this tiny isle is not extensive, but the spirit displayed there must be annoying to those statesmen who are striving to maintain British rule.

With his difficulties constantly mounting, Lloyd George faces this new spirit with apparent calmness, for it is but a part and fabric of the political situation which will undoubtedly force him before the people in a general election.

While the spirit of independence grows throughout Great Britain it is rumored that political enemies of the Prime Minister are perhaps encouraging the movement as one method of increasing the burdens of the leader they are seeking to unseat.

CITY HALL ANNEX PLANS PREPARED FOR DISCUSSION

Two Story Brick Structure at Cost of About $20,000 Is Under Consideration

of the new building would be devoted to the use of the police department with a special entrance to the east side of the building upon Howard street.

Place for City's Guests.
The desk sergeant's office would be located in the northeast corner of the building near the entrance. Adjoining it on the north side of the building would be the jail cells and accommodation for eight "city guests." The northwest corner of the northside of the building would be occupied with a locker room for members of the police department.

Other rooms on the first floor would be occupied by the women's and the juvenile wards. There would be an assembly room for the police department, also.

The northern half of the second story is to be used as a drafting room, twenty-two by fifty feet in dimensions. The health department would receive quarters in a space eighteen by thirty feet which would be divided and fitted up according to its requirements. Smaller offices on the second floor would be occupied by the chief of police, city attorney, and city magistrate.

A small room is to be fitted up as a law library, also.

Modern Court Room.

Alterations are contemplated in the present council room which is to be transformed into a modern court room by the installation of a jury box upon the south side of the room and a witness stand upon the north side. The removal of the health department to other quarters than the space it now occupies at the rear of the council room would permit the addition of a number of extra seats.

No provisions are made in the new building for the housing of municipal automobiles as the city is now erecting a quarters for the implements of the street department on the rear of its present property in the form of a $1000 sheet metal shed. The estimated cost of the annex is about $20,000.

Foothill Association in Sewage Discussion

At the meeting of the Glendale Foothill Improvement Association, of which E. H. Botsford is president, and which was held last night at the Central avenue school, report was made by a committee which had been appointed by that association to investigate the advisability of Glendale going in with the city of Los Angeles in regard to the issue of bonds for sewage disposal, without this city annexing to Los Angeles.

At last night's meeting this committee was instructed to confer with the council in regard to this matter. Other items also discussed at last night's session were those of a municipal bus line and of the new grammar school to be built in the northern part of the city.

MOST PERSNICKETY MAN DEFIANCE, O.—

Courthouse attaches here dubbed Arthur Snow "the most persnickety man in Northwestern Ohio."

When called for jury service, he asked to be excused on the ground that the other jurors and the lawyers used too much tobacco.

"When one takes an oath before God Almighty it can't be done if one is intoxicated with smoke," he told Judge Fred L. Hay.

The judge, who doesn't smoke himself, looked perplexed, but overruled the objection.

Much Interest Being Shown Toward Lecture

Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Glendale, states that she is very much gratified at the interest which is being shown by the people of this city in looking forward to the first of the series of three entertainments to be given by that organization, and which will take place Friday night, March 10, at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, at which time Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the suffragette, will lecture on "Ideals of Women, False and True." In meeting Miss Pankhurst in Los Angeles yesterday, Mrs. Biggs stated that she had the pleasure of getting acquainted with her 7-year-old adopted daughter, Miss Pankhurst and her mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, adopted four English orphans.

G. S. Howell Opens Real Estate Offices

G. S. Howell of 227 North Howard street has opened real estate offices at 520 E. Broadway with a year and a half's experience in the local field. He has been employed in the capacity of a salesman for a well-known realty firm, but he believes that the exchange field offers a large opportunity and he will try to bring people here and handle their property elsewhere. He states that he was very successful in this line of work at Pomona.

'Flower of the North' Is Shown at Glendale

The film version of James Oliver Curwood's famous novel, "Flower of the North," is a combination of splendid acting, thrilling sequence, artistic direction and logical continuity. The glamor and refreshing atmosphere of the James Oliver Curwood stories are known to millions, but the injection into this story of the character portrayal of a Walthall and the appeal of a Pauline Starke have strengthened many fold the natural grip of this typical Curwood creation. For months and months Vitagraph labored to make "Flower of the North," which will be shown for three days at the Glendale Theatre, a special that would stand out.

"There is a wealth of action in "Flower of the North"—Indian fights, night charges of the enraged redskins, a helpless girl whirling into the rapids as her canoe rushes on paddleless, physical fights and moral struggles.

Baby Peggy and Brownie, the wonder dog, will provide the comedy in "Chums," while a news reel and Aesop's Fables Modernized complete the program.

H. F. Brandenburg to Open Jewelry Store

H. F. Brandenburg of Portland, Ore., will shortly open a jewelry store at 229 North Brand boulevard. Mr. Brandenburg has visited all of the beach cities and other towns in southern California and decided that Glendale presented the best opportunities for a business of this kind, he states.

Canine Star Feature of T. D. & L. Picture

Ever since Jack London created the demand for outdoor animal stories with "The Call of the Wild" and the motion picture has become a general form of entertainment, fans have been asking why the producers of motion pictures should not bend their energies to satisfying this demand on the screen. They have satisfied it and done it plentifully in "The Silent Call," which came to the T. D. & L. theatre yesterday for a three-day run.

The story is one that will satisfy the heart of every one who feels in him that unquenchable tugging of nature. There's a vista of mountains upon mountains. There's an abundance of outdoor life. There's romance and action and finally—there's Flash.

The story brings out the dual nature of man-trained dog and wolf in the canine, Clark Moran, the hero of the picture, arouses the enmity of Brent by saving Flash, chained to a post, from a beating at the latter's hands. The primeval streak in the dog cropping out, he tears himself loose from civilization and mingles with the wolves of the hills, selecting as a mate, Nayhee, a full-blooded wolf.

The acting of this canine star is almost uncanny as he jumps to his cues, bristling at the sigh of Ash Brent, the man he is supposed to hate, and bringing together Clark Moran and the girl of his choice. And, after all, there's a moral for the dog in it, because he finds, in his brute analysis, that man is the inevitable tie to which he must bind himself by nature. The entire program is a winner.

MAN IS WITHOUT PULSE

LONDON—Chronic bronchitis, chronic asthma, sclerosis of the liver, badly diseased kidneys, and "frightfully distended heart"—these were the terms of a diagnosis by several doctors of the case of James Rosron, who claimed damages at Manchester county court.

"I don't know why he is alive," said one doctor in giving evidence. "He has no pulse."

It was stated that his heart extended to his ribs and reached down to his abdomen.

In spite of his afflictions Rosron gave evidence vigorously, describing how he strained himself in endeavoring to lift a beam. He was awarded $75 damages.

MANY CHILDREN STARVING

NEW YORK—Five hundred Assyrian children outside and three hundred inside the Near East Relief orphanage at Hamadan, Persia, are starving, the national headquarters of the relief organization was informed by a cable received from representatives in the Persian city.

These workers also reported nine hundred widows in dire want in the same city, with no funds available to care for them.

Glendale Boxers to Contest at Arcadia

Six "darkies" in the ring at once all enjoying a pleasant time hitting each other will be the feature of the "entertainment" to be staged tonight at the arena of the Arcadia Balloon school, according to Charles H. Bruck of The Sport Shop, 146 South Brand boulevard, who announced that he has some choice ringside seats for sale.

"Battling" Meyers of the Glendale Fire Department and "Bill" Barlow are scheduled for a bout as are also "Kid" Essex of Glendale, and Joe Reyna of Monrovia.

The principal match of the evening will be between Ed Cummings of San Gabriel and Joe Bonds of Los Angeles, who has been in the ring with Jack Dempsey, Carl Morris, Fred Fulton, Sam Langford and Bill Brennan.

WHALES, MENACE VESSEL

PORTLAND, Me.—The schooner Pilot captained by Fred Bickford, was virtually driven from the Jefferys fishing banks by a school of whales. This was the declaration of Captain Bickford on arrival in port here.

Blanche Davenport Is Chosen Chapter Head

At the regular meeting of the members of Chapter AH, P. E. O., who were entertained yesterday by Mrs. A. F. Webster and Miss Lillian Webster at the home of Mrs. C. D. Cady, 624 South Central avenue, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Miss Blanche Davenport, president; Mrs. Fannie Beach, vice-president; Mrs. Cora Webster, recording secretary; Mrs. Sala Logan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bernadine Worley, treasurer; Mrs. Amelia Wattles, chaplain; Mrs. Gladys Stephenson, guard. This chapter has donated $100 toward the educational fund of the P. E. O. organization, part of which was raised at the bazaar given at yesterday's meeting.

THIS MYSTERY IS SOLVED

BUCYRUS, O.—The phone rang. Night Patrolman Fred Bacon answered. It was a night when the zero weather was the nippiest.

Bacon was informed that a woman believed murdered had been committed in North Bucyrus. Wild screams of a woman could be heard plainly, it was asserted.

Mrs. O. L. Howard Is Hostess Behalf Class

The R. T. W. Class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. O. L. Howard, 364 West Doran street, yesterday afternoon, for the discussion of important business and the consideration of work for the coming year. Decision was announced to remember the work of the Baptist Christian Center, the Glendale Federated Charities, the Children's Hospital and the Orthopedic Hospital.

Following a piano selection by Miss Dorothy Howard a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed while the women cut and sewed baby quilts for the White Cross. Refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. A. J. Maxwell, Mrs. Paul Elliott and Mrs. O. L. Howard.

Zellerbach Paper Co. Squad Defeated for Second Time in Alley Contest

For the second time within two weeks, the recently organized Glendale Evening News bowling team last night trampled over the Zellerbach Paper Company squad of Los Angeles by taking all of a three game match by rather lopsided scores.

The total number of pins for the three contests was 2683 for the locals and 2304 for the visitors, the closest margin of difference between the teams occurring in the last tussle when the papermakers managed to come within ninety-one points of their opponents.

Wage Reduction Moves Are Pushed in England

By DAVID M. CHURCH. Written for International News Service. LONDON—Grave political and industrial reaction is expected in Great Britain as the result of a wage reduction movement which has found ready headway since the inception of the year 1922.

Unrest is increasing among workers as the result of wage reductions, and threatened wage reductions, according to reports received in labor circles here.

Authentic statistics gathered by labor experts here show that while the cost of living remains at more than 90 per cent above the 1914 pre-war standard, the actual earnings of hundreds of thousands have already been reduced to the pre-war basis.

The coming agricultural season's success is already threatened by wage reductions which have been put into effect by farmers throughout the agricultural districts.

Although labor officials will make no predictions at the present time, it would not be surprising if the spring planting season thus British agriculture faced with a labor shortage which may develop into a critical labor movement by harvest time.

Steps have already been taken which forecast wage reductions in the cotton industry. Employers have asked the officials of the cotton workers' unions for a modification of the working agreement which provides for three months' notice of any wage proposal.

The shipping federation has already proposed heavy wage reductions for those who follow a seafaring life. Tentative proposals call for a reduction of three pounds, or approximately $12, for sailors and firemen on monthly articles and for even heavier reductions for officers.

The Transport and General Workers' union announces receipt of notification that the employers of dock labor will shortly reduce wages.

Thus with wage reductions coming on top of each other British labor is aroused, and with an already serious unemployment situation in full swing, there are heavy clouds hanging over Britain's industrial world.

Policemen of Uniontown, Pa., are forbidden to wear mustache or whiskers.

Crosses Continent for Job, But Finds It Gone

SEATTLE—It took George Vilm, 17-year-old musician, seven weeks to walk and grab auto rides from New York to Seattle. Upon arrival here he learned that the job which had been offered him was filled. He wore out three pairs of shoes, he said, and two pairs of pants riding with tourists. George, who plays the piccolo, says he expects, eventually to land the job.

FORD BUYS OLD MACHINE

HUNTSVILLE, Ark.—Henry Ford may buy Muscle Shoals or even the battlefields of the world which are to be scrapped as a result of the Arms Conference, but a purchase which has interested Arkansas more than anything else was the purchase a few days ago of an old-fashioned carding machine, the first one ever brought to Madison county, for which he paid the "outlandish" sum of $300.

Sarah Trifles With Moonshine; Pinched, But Not Painfully

BLUEFIELD, W. Va.—An interesting experiment with the much-mooted problem as to how much moonshine liquor a person can carry around without detection has resulted in a fizzle here.

The experimenter was a colored woman who gave her name as Sarah Cook and her place of residence as Roanoke, Va.

Sarah alighted from a railroad train and started up Princeton avenue past Eli Watkins, state prohibition agent, and Jerry Watkins, deputy sheriff. They eyed her and noticed a peculiarity about her gait and her figure. Finally one of the officers grabbed her and gave her a pinch.

"Did you feel me pinch you?" he asked.

"No, sah," the negress replied. "Well, then you're pinched," the officer said. They took her before a magistrate, where three gallons of moonshine whiskey in hot water bottles was taken from under her corset.

The woman was fined $100 and sentenced to serve thirty days in jail.

Great Britain to Pay U. S. Debt, Is Claim

LONDON, March 8.—Assurances that Great Britain will pay her debt to the United States were given to America by Lord Inchcape, railroad magnate and financier and a member of the Geddes economy conference committee.

In discussing the debt in question with the International News Service, Lord Inchcape said: "America need have no doubt as to the stability of British finance."

"We shall live within our income and pay our way without borrowing any more money."

"We will reduce our debts." This was regarded as indicative of general restiveness in official and business circles in Britain over delay of the United States funding commission in announcing what the debt demands will be.

Business leaders declare there cannot be a trade revival until American funding terms are known. Officials are anxious to know the terms before proceeding with proposed budget increases.

Proposes Changes in Army and Navy Pay

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The joint army pay committee of congress has recommended passage of a bill completely re-organizing the system of pay allowances in the army, navy, marine corps and coast guard service.

The proposed pay allotments range from $21 a month for the "buck private" to $9800 a year for major generals and rear admirals and would effect a saving of $28,669,957 in the cost of the army and navy while giving relief "where most needed."

A new feature is a "sliding scale" for maximum pay allowances to be based on relative changes in the cost of living.

The pay of field officers, based on rank and length of service, is divided into six classes, ranging from $3900 for the second lieutenant and ensign serving his first five years, to $4900 for army colonels and navy captains with twenty-six years' service, or army lieutenant-colonels and navy commanders with thirty years' service. It limits the pay of all officers below colonel, however, to $5750 with all base and extra allowances.

Railway Opens Great Resources of Alaska

PORTLAND, Ore.—After six years spent in construction, the Alaskan Railroad is now ready for use, from sea level at Seward, on Resurrection Bay, northward to Fairbanks, a distance of 467 miles.

Fifty-two millions of dollars is the total sum which has been expended to date on the northern line, and an additional $4,000,000 will be needed for bridges and other construction not essential to the initial operation, according to William Gerig, one of the construction engineers, who has just returned from Alaska.

Four thousand men were employed on the railroad during the past season, completing the laying of 100 miles of track and eighty miles of grading. Gerig stated that many of these men will remain in Alaska to engage in mining and follow other pursuits.

When the Government undertook the project of building a railroad through the agricultural and mining regions of Alaska, as a means of developing the rich resources of that territory, the existing line of the Alaska Northern Railroad, which extended seventy miles northward from Seward, was taken over and rebuilt.

Then a broad-gauge line was constructed through Anchorage, on Cook Inlet, into the interior as far as Nenana, 414 miles from Seward. The remaining fifty-three miles to Fairbanks is covered by a narrow-gauge line. It will later be converted into a broad-gauge road.

From Happy Station, near Fairbanks, a thirty-seven-mile extension was built to Chatanika, and another branch line was constructed from Matanuska to the coal fields.

"Do not make the mistake of believing the road to be capable of operation only in summer," said Gerig. "It is an all-year proposition. Six feet of snow is the greatest obstacle to be overcome during the winter, but that is not insurmountable in railroad operation."

Gerig is enthusiastic over the possibilities which the new railroad will open up, citing a variety of natural resources heretofore practically undeveloped, which will be available through the operation of the railroad.

"The low-grade placer fields adjacent to Fairbanks can now be worked at a profit, due to the railroad," Gerig stated. "It is estimated that $10,000,000 worth of gold is included in this deposit."

"Its mining requires fuel, and, prior to the coming of the railroad, wood cost from $16 to $30 a cord at Fairbanks. That made mining unprofitable. By means of the railroad coal from the Matanuska field can be delivered for $6 a ton at Fairbanks, and one ton of coal is equal to two cords of wood."

"In earlier days supplies had to be brought into Fairbanks by boat during the summer season. Transportation ceased in winter. Merchants were compelled to stock up to last a year. Thus it was that flour sold for $25 a barrel and oats at $140 a ton. Since the coming of the railroad these have been cut
