

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., October 12, 1893.

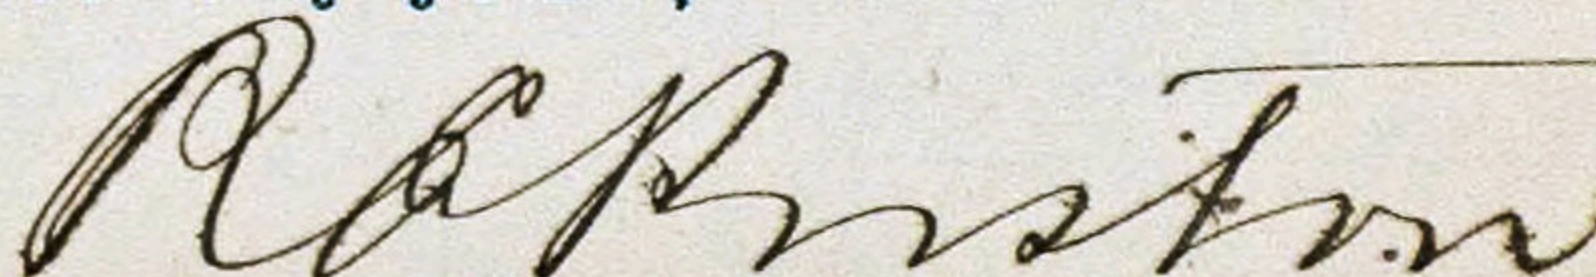

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 11th instant, stating that the United States Marshal is about to lock up the Cochran house and leave it uncared for until the sale some weeks hence, and suggesting that some person be left in charge of the premises, and inquiring whether payment for such services could not be made from your appropriation for contingent expenses, you are informed that this would not be a proper charge against any of the appropriations for your mint.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of the Mint.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 183

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
October 12, 1893

Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 11th instant, stating that the United States Marshal is about to lock up the Cochran house and leave it uncared for until the sale some weeks hence, and suggesting that some person be left in charge of the premises, and inquiring whether payment for such services could not be made from your appropriation for contingent expenses, you are informed that this would not be a proper charge against any of the appropriations for your mint.

Respectfully yours,
R.E. Preston
Acting Director of the Mint.