The above was the result of a campaign which was more earnest than exciting, brought to an issue on Monday last. Notwithstanding the general interest in the contest, as evidenced by the large vote polled, there was probably never a quieter election held in Glendale. Voting began as soon as the polls were opened and continued steadily throughout the day, the whole machinery of the election board working with smoothness and dispatch. It became evident soon after noon to those who were well acquainted with conditions and voters, that the Citizens' ticket as a whole was receiving the largest proportion of votes and would win out by a good majority, the size of which, however, was a surprise even to those who made it. The support given to Mr. Grant, the independent candidate, which resulted in his election, came very largely from his neighbors on the East Side, who wanted a representative on the board and was a tribute to his well-merited reputation.

Mr. Coker was the victim of a blunder which made him apparently a candidate for two offices (the four-year and the two-year term), the real contest of the day narrowing down to the issue between Coker and Grant. Aside from the result given above, some facetious voter cast a ballot for J. P. Lukens and J. C. Sherer for the four-year term, and these gentlemen are therefore entitled to the distinction which attaches to those who "also ran."

Next Monday the outgoing board of trustees will hold their last session and canvass the vote officially.

There are rumors of changes to be made by the new board in appointive offices, but in view of the fact that the old members are in the majority and are apparently satisfied with the city attorney, engineer and street superintendent, it is doubtful whether such changes will be made.

TROPICO-GLENDALE BERRY GROWERS' SAFE BLOWN OPEN.

About three o'clock Wednesday morning, burglars blew open the safe of the Berry Growers' association on Brand boulevard near the school house, Tropic, and secured seven or eight dollars in cold cash for their trouble. The explosion was a severe one and was heard by people in a nearby house, who had no correct idea of the cause. The safe door was blown off its hinges and the sides of the safe bulged slightly outward. An inner office door was blown into several pieces and other slight damage done to the office. A bottle which had contained glycerine, and a short handled axe, were left by the robbers as souvenirs of the occasion. Aside from the loss of the few dollars belonging to the association, Mr. Drendel, the secretary, is the loser of a gold watch which he had put in the safe a day or two before, pending repairs. Some rather valuable papers were also lost. The business of the berry growers has scarcely begun for the season or the robbers might have fared better.

BUSINESS DEAL OFF.

The sale of Woods Grocery to Logan Brothers, which was reported as having been made, two weeks ago, proves to not have been consummated. The parties, by mutual consent having agreed to call the deal off.

LOCAL ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN

On Monday evening a fraternal visit from two of the largest Odd Fellows lodges in Los Angeles was enjoyed by members of the home lodge in Odd Fellows hall, where great preparations had been made for their entertainment. American Lodge No. 385 and Semi-Tropic Lodge No. 271 came in a body, accompanied by members from the Ackley and West End Lodges, with an encampment lodge and a lodge of the military rank in full uniform, making the largest body of Odd Fellows ever assembled in Glendale. Greetings over, the evening was spent in speeches of a complimentary character, in readings and music, and this was topped off with a banquet of the "best ever" variety, a general fine time being enjoyed until time for the last car to leave the city.

Glendale lodge hopes to have another such affair soon, together with so large a body of men in full uniform and the splendid floor work executed, made an occasion not soon to be forgotten by those fortunate enough to be there.

A communication from the Board of Trade with signatures of a number of business firms in the city indicating a desire to have one day of "Fleet week" set aside as a holiday, was received. The president of the board was authorized to issue a proclamation naming such holiday.

Request of the Verdugo Canyon Water company for the lowering of its main across Fourth street and that it be allowed to place its division box in different location, was referred to street superintendent.

The question of eliminating steps down and up from sidewalks at alleys was referred to city engineer and street superintendent.

Trustee Anderson of the committee on water supply made an oral report and recommended that reservoirs supplying water for domestic use be covered and cleaned out once in two months for the period between March and October and that pipe lines not in use be flushed once a month. The clerk was requested to communicate with the various companies and request that they act in accordance with these recommendations.

Report of engineer on the cost of improving Everett street and Third street to Sixth, was received and filed.

Trustee Randolph offered resolution number 135 adopting a map showing improvements to be made on Everett street from the southerly line of Third street to the northerly line of Sixth street, which was adopted.

Trustee Campbell offered resolution No. 136 declaring intention to improve a portion of Everett street, which was adopted.

On motion the president appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Watson, Campbell and Anderson to secure plans for a fire engine house and report to the board.

The clerk was instructed to request the Miradero Waier company to grant the city of Glendale the same privilege regarding fire hydrants as have been granted by other water companies.

Adjourned to meet Monday, 20th, at 2 o'clock p. m. at City Hall.

VERDUGO ROAD ELECTRIC RAILWAY PROJECT ABANDONED.

Steps Taken to Attain the Same End by Another Route.

The finishing touches were put on this scheme at the meeting last Saturday, which was an adjourned meeting called for final action in a long drawn out and finally unsuccessful campaign. Messrs. Blackburn and Goode reported that Mr. Hawes had failed to make good his promised contribution to the bonus fund and that consequently there was nothing further to be done in regard to the matter. On motion the committee was discharged and in accordance with the action of previous meeting, it was declared that all subscribers who had paid in their bonus money to the Bank of Glendale, should be allowed to withdraw the same. A resolution was then unanimously adopted by a rising vote extending thanks to the committee for the work performed by them in attempting to secure the building of this road.

This matter being disposed of, Messrs. Goode and Blackburn then made a new proposition to the meeting, for a road connecting with the Los Angeles Railway by a route through to a junction with that company's tracks in Eagle Rock, from the eastern city limits of Glendale. They reported that practically all of the rights of way from the Eagle Rock end to the Glendale city limits, had been secured. They propose to build and equip a railway from Eagle Rock to Glendale, avenue, the exact route to be determined later. This line will come into Glendale either on Third or Fourth street or on a private right of way between these streets, possibly making a loop around these two streets at the western terminus. Sufficient progress has been made and enough encouragement given to warrant the proposition which they make, to build and equip the line with gasoline motor car, and have it in operation within four months from the time a bonus of $3500 shall be paid in and the deeds to rights of way secured. They stated that his route to a connection with the Los Angeles Railway company's tracks is 4000 feet shorter than the route down Verdugo Road, which has heretofore been under consideration. On motion the chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of three to attend to securing the bonus required and whatever rights of way and franchises may be necessary for the road. It was suggested that the contributors to the bonus fund for the Verdugo Road proposition, agree to contribute one-half of the respective sums promised for that road to the present project, and although no action was taken, the sentiment of the people present seemed to favor it, two or three contributors to that fund declaring their willingness to do this.

It is thought that but little trouble will be experienced in securing the comparatively small sum required. The chairman has since named the committee provided for above, as follows: F. H. Vesper, G. H. Barager, H. M. Overton.

It is not intended that this project shall be allowed to drag and it will be energetically pushed either to success or a demonstration of its impracticability. Should it fall there remain other routes to be worked on and other schemes to be tried. The people of Glendale propose to have another railroad and instead of being discouraged at the failure of one project are more determined than ever to obtain closer connections with Los Angeles.

GLENDALE, CAL., APRIL 18, 1908

Monrovia is about to adopt an ordinance levying a license tax on business concerns in the corporate limits, while Glendale is as seriously considering the advisability of repealing a similar measure.

The El Monte Gazette plaintively asks its contributors to restrain their output of "poetry," and intimates that it has a hook full ready to publish when copy runs short.

We will wager our office towel against the Gazette's big pumpkin, that it hasn't a bushel of "poetry" in the shop!

We have sometimes questioned the real meaning of the term "lady" and "gentleman," and even greater minds have struggled with the framing of a definition. We are no nearer a solution of the perplexing question since learning that a "real lady," a Miss Bennetts, won several thousand dollars at faro up at Bullfrog the other day (or night) after which she treated the assembled "gentlemen" to strong drink and retired to her quarters.

Political campaigns are generally looked upon by newspaper folk as something in the nature of a harvest, when a few "fat" things will come their way and put money into the emaciated exchequer. The municipal campaign just ended in this bailiwick is certainly unique in this respect, as the successful candidates or their friends did not squander a single dollar for publicity, as far as can be discovered by inquiry at the business office of this great moral and political moulder of public thought.

The News was in receipt of a telegram last week asking information as to the reputation of Rev. J. M. Hilbish, formerly of the Methodist church here. We were glad to reply that his reputation was good, and were somewhat astonished a day or so later to note by the press dispatches that Mr. Hilbish had been "mobbed" by the Turlock populace.

We have no particulars and can only infer that the reverend gentleman had been making intemperate remarks and possibly charges against the people of Turlock which were not couched in language of "sweetness and light."

Mr. Hilbish had a few pet aversions when here which he has probably elaborated until they have grown to be creatures of a most hideous mien. Dancing and the wearing of flowers in the hats of the ladies of his congregation were apt to lend variety to discourses which otherwise would be devoted to the "demon rum." We fancy that the ascetic and reverend gentleman has been preaching temperance in an intemperate manner, but it was not good form in the people of Turlock to mob him.

About Dancing

A very estimable lady at Tropico who teaches the graceful art of dancing to a class of young folks, was (as published in this paper a fortnight ago.) recently the recipient of an anonymous letter and a copy of that vile pamphlet entitled "From the Ballroom to Hell." This publication was exploited several years ago in the Los Angeles Times. Its author is a fellow who taught dancing for some time and then conceived the idea of putting into print some of the creations of his lewd and fertile fancy and palming them off upon unsophisticated zealots as facts of value.

There was a time in the history of the Jews that dancing was a means of worship. It has been termed by some one the "poetry of motion" and has been for ages and continues to be a symbol of light heartedness, jollity and innocence. From the Maypole dance of happy children to the stately minuet of our grandparents, it was looked upon as a graceful expression of the joy of life, and altho interdicted by the Puritans and the Quakers, it has only been in the last generation or so that it has been denounced with any considerable bitterness as "an invention of the devil."

It is interesting to note that the New England Methodist Conference assembled at Worcester, Mass., recently by a vote of 107 to 42, petitioned the ruling powers of the church to remove the ban against dancing and card playing. Which leads us to recall the assertion of Gallileo, or was it Brother Jasper? "The World Do Move."

Our City Election

The people of our small but constantly growing city are deserving of congratulations upon having conducted a municipal campaign in which great and general interest was taken along lines of fairness and decency. There were no personalities tinged with vitriolic emphasis generally indulged in, and the discussion of matters of common interest was, as far as we know, carried on in a proper spirit of reason and not at a too high temperature. The result should be fairly satisfactory to all classes of our people.

We believe we have a board of trustees who will act in a spirit of fairness to all sections and classes; we are quite sure of the fact that the business of the city will be administered with honesty and in accordance with the wishes of all but a possible factious minority which, like the poor of the Scriptures, are always with us.

It is no reflection at all upon the defeated candidates that they were not selected instead of their opponents. They were the victims of circumstances and of votes impersonally cast into the ballot box by citizens who were inspired by motives which varied in detail, but which on the whole were efforts to do the greatest good to the greatest number. We think it an error to assume that the result of the election was a triumph for prohibition. Of the three old members of the board who were re-elected, it is safe to assume that they received some votes because of and others in spite of their record on this subject. The question was not properly an issue in the campaign. The ordinance now on our statute books will doubtless remain there until the matter is submitted to the people for their verdict, as it doubtless will be whenever a proper petition is presented to that effect.

We now have two years before us in which to devote ourselves to the building up of our city undisturbed by political plots and plans. It promises to be a period of great growth and development and much responsibility rests upon our city officers. Hector, the great Saint Bernard who for several years has attended the West Glendale school, has not been banished by the general newly-made rule which excludes all dogs from the building and grounds, as he has proved himself an apt pupil. Since he stepped on a rusty nail and hurt his right paw he takes three and carries one to make four, proving himself a scholar in addition. He himself has long been considered an addition, being such a "thorough believer in "dear old Grammar school days" that he seldom misses a school day.

The owner of a thousand dollar lot in Glendale who had not visited his property for some time, found the other day that a formidable barrier had been erected at either end of it. Investigation disclosed the fact that two rival bands of juveniles had chosen it for a battle ground and that the structures were improvised forts behind the protection of which the opposing forces are wont to contend in ferce contests in which clods figure as the favorite missiles of war. The forts will be leveled to the ground and the matter referred to the Hague Conference.

SEEING THE FLEET.

Efforts have been made the past week to induce the Salt Lake Railway company to run special trains from Glendale direct through to San Pedro today in order that our people might have an opportunity to witness the magnificent spectacle of the arrival of the fleet at that port. Their shortness of rolling stock however made it impossible for that company to comply today, but on Monday they agree to give us a special train with a round trip fare of seventy cents, provided 100 round trip fares are guaranteed. Whether this will be done or not, we are unable to state at this time. The Pacific Electric was approached in regard to the same matter about the same time, but at first gave no encouragement. On Thursday, however, they concluded to make the people of Glendale some concession and notified their agent that on Saturday and Sunday mornings a two-car train will leave Glendale at 7:20 and a three-car train at 7:50 through to San Pedro, returning at the pleasure of the patrons and that they will take care of all the passengers who wish to go.

The fleet is scheduled to arrive at San Pedro at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

It was at first announced that the entire fleet would remain at San Pedro until Sunday morning, when the three squadrons of four ships each would leave for Long Beach, Redondo and Santa Monica respectively. Later orders, however, are that immediately upon arrival at San Pedro, the various vessels proceed to the posts assigned during their stay on this part of the coast. This necessitates the abandonment of the idea of a grand fleet illumination at San Pedro Saturday night, and will cause general disappointment. The fleet will reassemble in Santa Monica bay a week later preparatory to its departure northward.

LATER.

It is definitely announced that the Salt Lake train will leave Glendale at 8 Monday morning, stopping at Third, Fourth and Ninth streets, Glendale, and at Cypress street and the school house, Tropic.

SPECIAL INVITATION TO THE PUBLIC.

Mr. Wilmot Parcher, President of the Board of Trustees of our city, requests us to give a special invitation to our people to be present at the City Hall next Wednesday evening when the newly elected Board of Trustees will be inaugurated. While it is always desirable that the citizens show sufficient interest in the proceedings of the board to be present at its meetings, it is particularly requested that they come out next Wednesday evening and by their presence give encouragement particularly to the new members who are assuming arduous duties imposed upon them by the suffrage of their neighbors.

Card of Thanks

Having sold my bakery business on Glendale Avenue to Mr. Pettitt, I wish to thank the people of Glendale for their generous patronage and recommend my successor to them for the same liberal treatment.
J. FLUHR.

MRS. WALTER C. FRALEY HONORED.

A surprise party that had the genuine element of surprise in it, and yet did not descend upon its victim to find her in a condition of embarrassing unpreparedness, so skillfully was it planned and executed, occurred at the home of Mrs. Walter C. Fraley on Glendale avenue last Tuesday evening. The occasion was a birthday and the lady's sister, Mrs. Mabel C. Hackman and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Newcomb, were responsible for the event.

At 8 o'clock a company of nearly forty guests assembled at the residence of Mrs. Hackman and a little later marched across the street in promiscuous phalanx to the residence of the lady to be honored; the most of the gentlemen of the party carrying some part of the generous commissary supplies provided for the occasion by the ladies, who planned the surprise. The hospitable home was comfortably filled by the unexpected but welcome guests, and a foraging party of picked men sallied forth to procure chairs and tables to meet the necessities of the occasion, which were soon supplied. The majority of the guests took part in a progressive game of whist which served as the frame-work upon which was hung two or three hours of pleasant social intercourse. The prize for the best score among the ladies was awarded Mrs. Tonk, a beautiful bouquet; while to Mr. C. F. Parker was given a lemon pie, ripe, juicy and generally luscious, which he disposed of in a mysterious manner, not disclosed to the reporter. After cards, tables were spread and the sumptuous repast afforded by the contents of mysterious packages carried in by the guests, was discussed in proper spirit and with dexterous efficiency. A number of her relatives were among those who assisted Mrs. Fraley in so happily celebrating the anniversary, prominent among them being her mother, Mrs. Ellen B. Newcomb, who in spite of the passage of time, continues to add by her presence to the charm of many a festive occasion.

PROCLAMATION.

Believing it the duty of every true American at all times to be patriotic, and the opportunity not occurring more than once in a lifetime to view the finest fleet in the world, of which every American citizen is justly proud; Therefore, in honor of the coming fleet to our shores, and in compliance with a petition by the citizens of Glendale, as President of the Board of City Trustees I hereby appoint and declare Tuesday, April 21st, as a civic holiday, and request all business places to close for the day.

The class in United States history is completing the study of the Civil War period. Special reports are being prepared on such topics as "Lincoln, His Life and Work," "The Modern Battleship and Its Predecessors," "The Campaigns in the Shenandoah Valley," "The Submarine and the Development of the Torpedo," "the History of Glendale." These reports are to be not less than fifteen minutes long.

The class in Modern History is busily engaged with the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Era. Special reports are being prepared on such topics as "Peter the Great of Russia," "Napoleon," "Bismarck," "Cavour," "The Government of Germany of Today and the Personality of the Emperor," "France of Today and Its Government." These reports are to consume not less than ten minutes in reading and represent extended research.

The physical geography class took their fourth trip for the year on last Saturday, when twenty-three left for Rubio canyon, a place selected on account of the excellent opportunity of studying structure and position of rock strata, waterfalls, formation of mountains and valleys.

A profitable day was spent and many interesting physiographic features were noted on the way from Glendale to Rubio. Each student found several specimens to add to their required collection of rocks, several now having twenty or more different ones.

After a study of the ocean, tides and coast lines, the class intend spending a day at San Pedro and possibly another at Redondo, where many interesting features are to be studied.

These trips are proving not only a pleasant outing, but highly valuable in applying knowledge gained from the text book and awakening the student's power of observation to their natural surroundings.

The botany students are beginning the study of bacteriology, which is a science by itself, one that has developed rapidly during the last twenty years, and one of vital importance to all.

During the year much stress has been placed on the physiological and the agricultural side of botany, testing fertilizers, finding the most favorable conditions governing of propagation by means of grafting, budding and cuttings. One recitation each week has been given to the subject of forestry.

About four weeks were devoted to plant analysis, and the students are now working on a class herbarium to be completed at the close of the school year.

WATER RIGHTS APPEALED TO U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Litigation involving the ownership of the water of the Los Angeles river, as between Los Angeles and the ranchers of the San Fernando valley, which has been dragging through the various State tribunals for years, was today launched upon another stage when R. M. Widney, counsel for the Los Angeles Farming and Milling company, perfected an appeal to the United States supreme court.

The process of appeal was through the Los Angeles office of the State supreme court, Robert L. Dunlap, the deputy clerk, completing the certification of the records this morning.

This appeal is taken in the face of an adverse decision by Judge N. P. Conrey of the Los Angeles superior court and a subsequent affirmation by Justices McFarland, Lorigan and Henshaw of the supreme court. Chief Justice Beatty handed down a dissenting opinion.

The action was brought by the city of Los Angeles against the Los Angeles Farming and Milling company to have it adjudicated that any right which the defendant may have to the water is subordinate and subject to the plaintiff's ownership.

This was based on the claim that as the successor of a Spanish and Mexican pueblo the municipality held the prior and paramount ownership and use of the water of the river from its source to the city and from the surface to bedrock so far as may be necessary to give an adequate supply of water for the use of its inhabitants and for public and municipal purposes.

This view of the case was upheld by Judge Conrey, and an appeal was taken to the State supreme court by the defendant, and three of the justices affirmed the opinion of the lower tribunal.

Chief Justice Beatty, in his dissenting opinion, said:

"In my opinion, the paramount right of Los Angeles to the waters in the Los Angeles river is limited to the present city, comprising four square leagues (about 17,500 acres) constituting the original pueblo, and cannot be asserted for the satisfaction of the wants of the additional 10,400 acres added by the amended act of incorporation, or the territory since added and that which may hereafter be added by the joint action of the municipal authorities and the inhabitants of the extensive incorporated area adjoining the city."

Doubtless it was this dissenting opinion that gave the defendant renewed hope and resulted in the step taken today.—L. A. Express.

A WHEELBARROW ELECTION BET.

City Marshal W. L. Nelson is to ride down and up Glendale avenue between Third and Fourth streets this evening in a wheelbarrow pushed by Otto Amberg, as the result of a bet on the late election. Nelson bet Amberg that Watson would be elected trustee and Amberg in maintaining the opposing view agreed to do the wheelbarrow act and trundle Nelson in state along the public street if Watson was a winner, which he was, as the public knows. About seven o'clock, therefore, the Glendale public is invited to be present in force and see the marshal get the ride of his life.

N. P. BANKS POST HONORED.

N. P. Banks Post, Grand Army of the Republic, was most highly honored at the Department convention held in Santa Ana, last week, by having Dr. J. O. Garmon, adjutant of N. P. Banks Post, elected council of administration, a most responsible position to hold in the department of California and Nevada of the G. A. R. N. P. Banks Post is certainly entitled to this honor and it has fallen upon a most worthy and patriotic man.

BUNGALOW BURNED.

Tuesday evening the bungalow home of Mrs. M. H. Coleman at Oak Drive in Tropico was discovered on fire and in a few minutes was a column of flames. Nothing from the burning building was saved except a rocker. Mrs. Coleman had crossed the street to telephone and her daughter, Miss Mable Coleman, prepared to light the lamp when the lighting of the match ignited the fumes of gasoline with which the rooms were filled, the tank of the gasoline stove having been filled but a few minutes previous. Too much praise and commendation cannot be given the Glendale fire department which endeavored to save a few of the contents of the burning building when it was discovered that all efforts to save the bungalow were futile. It was a long, hard run, to be met with defeat.

The neighbors and citizens have responded most generously with a subscription for Mrs. Coleman who is a widow with a daughter, Miss Mabel. Mrs. J. H. Sibley has extended the hospitality of her home to Mrs. Coleman and daughter, the former of whom is prostrated over her loss.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

The assault on old Fort Sumpter, forty-seven years ago was duly remembered by members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. After a short business session the program was taken up by Mrs. Lillian S. Wells, her appearance being greeted with applause, as she is well known as an impartial speaker on topics of interest to the club, and especially along patriotic lines. Her address was filled with anecdotes of wit and pathos.

Many interesting old relics, as well as photographs of famous battle fields, illustrated her talk. The Civil War was discussed in a way that commanded close attention, an impartial viewpoint of both the North and the South being given. The speaker, born a northerner, spent twenty years in the South and was familiar with conditions on either side of Mason and Dixon's line.

Mrs. J. L. Overton finished the hour with illuminating reminiscences of plantation life before and during the war and in a few words brought her hearers in close touch with war-time in "ole Missouri." The ladies were given a vote of thanks at the close.

A POPULAR HOSTESS ENTERTAINERS.

A very charming afternoon was spent by the members of the Sewing Club in the pretty bungalow home of Mrs. Harry Howe, Burchett street, on Wednesday afternoon. The club, composed of about fifteen members, spends the afternoon of meeting in sewing, as a rule, for the hostess, and in this way they cheerily accomplish a great deal for each other, and incidentally enjoy themselves immensely. This occasion was no exception to the rule.

Mrs. Howe proved herself a charming capable hostess in her new home, which is built along most quaint and artistic lines, and is so located as to command an unsurpassed panorama of our lovely foothills and the wonderful beauty of San Fernando valley. Mrs. Howe was formerly a Michigan girl and has already made for herself an enviable social niche in Glendale, in the same quiet way in which her husband, Prof. Howe, has won unquestioned popularity among pupils and patrons of the Union High school, and among the athletically inclined throughout the county.

PATRON'S DAY.

Last Friday was Patron's Day in the west Glendale school and a number of friends and parents availed themselves of the opportunity to visit the pupils and teachers. Time of preparation had been too short for extensive exhibit work, but that displayed won much praise from the visitors. Flowers and bunting bespoke a welcome from the scholars who did themselves proud in special work for this Patron's Day, the first they had ever given. There was good music, typical school songs and readings and recitations. To the great pleasure of the happy pupils, the guests without exception declared the day a perfect success.

The district attorney's office at Los Angeles has ruled that voters whose names are on the great register for 1906 can vote at the coming primaries if they have not changed their residence, even though they have not registered this year; but they cannot vote at the election in November unless they register again. So if your name is on the last great register and you have not moved into another precinct, don't fail to be on hand to vote at the primary on May 5th, whether you have registered this year or not.

The attempts of the S. P. machine to thwart the will of the people by appointing delegates to the Republican State convention instead of having them elected at primaries, savors strongly of the tactics of that erstwhile Republican leader, Abe Rueff, who has resorted to all the feats of juggling known to the profession of law and politics to thwart justice and keep out of the penitentiary. But failure awaits both attempts alike.

THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Monday and Tuesday of the coming week have been declared holidays for the purpose of giving the school children an opportunity to join in the welcome to the fleet.

A fact of importance in connection with our schools is brought to our attention by a member of the board of trustees who wishes that parents and guardians might understand the necessity of sending children to school as regularly as possible, for on the average daily attendance is based the apportionment of the State money among the different districts. In our own grammar school district it is estimated that the absence of a single pupil for one day costs the district about ten cents.

A SPECULATIVE CHANCE.

Mr. J. L. Overton has been hunting anxiously all week for the individual who will sell a lot on Glendale avenue between Third and Fourth streets for $1000. Up to this writing he has been unsuccessful. He desires that we announce, however, as loudly as possible so as to catch the ear or the eye of the coy owner of this valuable realty near the city lot, that he will pay $1000 promptly and no questions asked.

E. M. Durant, charged with fencing in public lands in Antelope valley for grazing purposes, pleaded guilty to one count in the indictment and was discharged on the other three by United States Judge Erskine M. Ross this morning. Durant will be sentenced in a week. Howard Doyle, an employe of Durant's, was discharged. Durant was indicted by a grand jury nearly a year ago, following his action in fencing in forty acres of land in the Antelope valley. Durant is a well known member of the University club, president of the Western Art Tile Works at Tropic and interested in a large cattle company with stock west of Lancaster.—Times.

IMPRESSIVE EASTER SERVICES.

Preparation is complete for the Easter service at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Fourth street. The service to be conducted by the popular new rector, Rev. Fackenthal, and very special music has been prepared. Easter Anthems will be a feature at each service, of which there will be three, beginning with early communion at 7:30 a. m. and followed by the prayer service at 11:00. Evening service will be called at 7:30.

BOOK SOCIAL.

At the residence of Mrs. L. A. Monroe on Fourth street, Wednesday afternoon next, at from 2 to 5 o'clock p. m., will be given a Book Social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. A general invitation is extended to the public to be present. Representations of the titles of well known books will be the feature of the entertainment, prizes to be given to the best guesser.

Notice of Dissolution

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between A. L. Eves and C. G. Wilkinson has been dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having claims against the old firm will please present them without delay, C. G. Wilkinson assuming and will pay all debts now owing by the old firm of Eves & Wilkinson. All persons owing the old firm of Eves & Wilkinson will please pay the same to C. G. Wilkinson. The business will still be carried on under the name of C. G. Wilkinson.

LINCOLN-ROOSEVELT REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

There is nothing more reassuring in the movement of the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League to free the Republican party from corrupt machine rule in this state, than the rapid progress the League is making in organizing its forces. Organization is going on everywhere; new clubs are being formed daily. The weakness of most reform movements is a lack of organization. No one knows better than the machine itself that at any primary, or in any convention, a small organized force will win out every time against an unorganized majority. The sentiment of the Republican voters of the state is overwhelmingly opposed to the rule of the paid S. P. bosses. All it needs is organization and the corrupt machine will be routed from one end of the state to the other. Voters everywhere who believe in the principles of Lincoln and Roosevelt and want to see the Republican party in this state run by the people instead of by the railroad, should lend a helping hand to the work of organization. Full information regarding the plan of organization, etc., can be had by addressing the headquarters of the League at 524 S. Spring street, Los Angeles, Cal.

"Who is putting up for the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League?" is a question that some of the machine organs are asking. The people who are tired of machine politics and railroad rule are doing it. The League is supported entirely by voluntary subscriptions from the rank and file of the party, whose only motive is to regenerate the party and secure good government in the state. No railroad or other corporation is contributing, nor is any candidate for office doing so. It is a people's movement, depending upon the individual Republican voters for its support, financially and otherwise; and by that support, and that alone, it will win or lose at the coming primaries.

It is for the taxpayers to say by their votes at the primaries on May 5th—not at the polls next November—whether their representatives, or representatives of the Southern Pacific, shall be sent as delegates to the National Republican convention; and whether the people or the railroad will control the State Central Committee and the state machinery of the party.

It is for the individual Republicans, the taxpayers themselves, to say at the primaries on August 11th, and not at the polls in November, whether they will send to the legislature representatives of the people or representatives of the railroad. If the taxpayers want the railroad to continue to govern them in its own interest and to its own great profit, all they need do is to let the machine run the primaries and the election will take care of itself.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB.

The Five Hundred Club met on Thursday in the charming foothill home of Mrs. Gillelan on Randolph and Louise streets. The usual time of meeting comes on alternate Tuesdays, but this was given to honor a former member, Mrs. Thornton of Los Angeles, who is soon going away. The home was beautiful in decorations of foothill blooms, and the ladies enjoyed thoroughly the splendid game they put up during the afternoon. The hostess further extended genial hospitality when at the close of the day she served a dainty feast which in dainty appointment bespoke the spring season.
