

ELECTION IN IOWA.

LE CLAIR, IOWA, Oct. 19, 1857. To the Editor of the National Era: The returns of the election held on the 13th inst. are slowly coming in, and it will probably be two weeks before the result is officially declared; but enough is known to warrant the conclusion that the Republicans have carried the State by a majority of 2,000 or 3,000—a decided gain in the vote in August.

It is worthy of notice, in relation to the field, with the determination to conquer, if possible, Judge Love, Republican candidate for Governor, and Orman Paville, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and the State, assisted by Henry O'Connor, Judge Smith, and Governor Grimes. Ben. M. Samsel, of Oklawaha, was elected for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, were equally active and used all their skill and eloquence to convince the people that if the Republicans triumphed, the State of Iowa would be flooded with negroes, &c. The old cries of Amalgamation, Negro Equality, &c., were used with effect. The Convention of the Constitution was assailed as an Abolition instrument, aiming to defeat the execution of the Executive and Legislative powers.

In this county (Scott) the Republicans have gained largely since the August election, having secured 100 majority in the county, and 200 and 300 majority; and this in face of the bitter opposition of the Pro-Slavery Know Nothing party, who were not only active, but Mr. Nicholas Rasch, a thoroughly educated German, is re-elected Senator. He was first elected in 1855, to fill a vacancy, and having been re-elected in 1856, he is now for a second time elected to the Senate. He is a man of high ability and faithfulness, and was unanimously nominated for a full term.

THE TIMES. To the Editor of the National Era: We find all the world about as suddenly fallen from prosperity to poverty, and some say it is all owing to the tariff being too low, some to the extravagance of the Government, some to the extravagance of the people; but, sir, I believe it is all owing to the banks, and to the abuse of public confidence by these banks, which are now in a state of total prostration.

THE MERCHANT HANOVER, it may be said, and who enables the merchant or manufacturer, as the case may be, to pay his interest? Certainly, the consumption of the goods, and the manufacturer. And who make up the great mass of consumers? The mechanical classes; laborers of all classes and all names. Those who spend their money in the purchase of goods, and who are the great consumers of the goods.

overwhelmingly victorious, except in the two districts of the State, where the Democrats carried the vote. In the rest of the State, the Free State party carried by thirteen hundred majority, out of an aggregate of two hundred and thirty thousand votes. All rights are lost, and would stand, except for the fraudulent returns mentioned elsewhere.

coming epidemic. Transactions of this kind have taken place in private. Bank officers in fact, as most of their bills receivable, as well as the receipt of the gold and silver, could not be otherwise paid.

There is a general disposition on the part of the creditors to ease the debtors, whom it is not in the least interest to oppress. The quality of goods on hand is very large, and unmarketable in the present time. Some of the best of the goods are now being exchanged will improve in time to admit of sale before the winter sets in.
