Cinematographer

An Indian Cinematographer, well-heard for his realistic picturization and poetic framing sense. Started his career as a Studio Photographer, he gradually established in Hindi Films as well as Hindi Web series. Apart from cinematography, he is also a great Photographer. Photography is yet also another passion which is very close to his heart. With his creative approach, he has won much fame in a short span of time. His famous works are Avartan film, Camp banvas web series, Angel priya web series, Mere yaar ki Shadi session-1, WWF, & Home credit etc. There are still ever-expanding opportunities in the Indian cinema, as people evolve, the perception of cinema also evolve simultaneously. It is the cinematographer’s responsibility to keenly work on audience’s needs.
As I feel the objectives of the entertainment should always be the feel of relief by touching the various corners of our hearts. In no way the abusive and unneeded voilance should be the journey of the entertainment. Let's enlist the characters of our daily life who have a heart of human being. Those characters who have feeling of humour, regards and emotions. In this movie too, we will find some characters whom we see daily around us. They are normal human being with a strong characteristics.
