

ELECTRIC SIGN

CITY TRUSTEES RESCIND ACTION RELATIVE TO SIGN AT FOOT OF BRAND BLVD.

Several matters of unusual interest which were to come up for a hearing before the City Trustees drew quite an audience to the Council Chamber Thursday night. One of these was the consideration of protests in regard to the action of the Board at its last meeting ordering the arrow pointing north removed from the electric sign placed at the south end of Brand on San Fernando Road.

A. G. Spohr was the first protestant and at his request the City Clerk read a letter he had addressed to the Board setting forth the protests of 125 persons who had contributed to the fund subscribed for the erection of the sign. He declared it would be injurious to the city and highly misleading to the traveling public were the arrow removed and tourists led to believe that in traveling along San Fernando Road from that point they were traversing a representative section of Glendale and its business district. The object of the sign, he declared, was to point the way to the real residential and business heart of Glendale that the traveling public, if it desired to investigate the town, might be led in the right direction. The better the impression of Glendale's chief business center and residence districts, the more potent would be the attraction of residents to the city and the better for all concerned—the south as well as the north. Several speakers followed Mr. Spohr with arguments along the same line declaring that there was no intention to divert any business that might be secured by the few merchants or garage owners on San Fernando Road; that it was merely an effort to guide the public so it would not obtain a mistaken impression of the city which would be obtained were it to suppose that in traversing San Fernando, which is practically the southwest boundary of Glendale, it was passing through the town.

Mr. Hollister declared he had done considerable soliciting for the signs and was confident most of the men who had contributed through him would not have done so had they not supposed the arrow would point the way. Said he: "It seems to me the people in that section ought to have pride enough to want people going through our town to know that we have something better than now exists on San Fernando Road."

A. T. Cowan contributed a few words to the discussion, saying: "We know very well the bulk of Glendale is north of that road and the arrow was placed on the sign in justice to the traveling public that it might know after once entering the city that Glendale continues in that direction. There is nothing to forbid them from following San Fernando Road. It is merely information that we who paid for the sign wished to give the traveling public."

C. D. Lusby asked what were the grounds of objection to the sign. Trustee Stephenson stated the con-

DELIGHTFUL TRIP

PARTY OF GLENDALE PEOPLE VISIT LAKE HEMET, CAMP KEENE

A party consisting of Mrs. Pearl Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brain, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bott, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Pratt and Dr. C. Stuart Steelman drove in two machines to the Lake Hemet country, 100 miles east, to stay over Sunday at Camp Keene, returning home Monday. They found the camp crowded. It is 17 miles from Hemet and 5800 feet above sea level. Four miles further is Lake Hemet, a beautiful body of water 123 feet deep in the center and held in by a dam 130 feet high. Fishing in the lake is very good, Dr. Steelman said, though the party he was with did not engage in the sport, but he saw many who were very successful anglers. The return trip was by way of Idyllwild and Banning. The road between these two places is wonderfully beautiful, the Doctor said, as in many places it borders clear running streams and winds about down through shaded canyons, permitting many glimpses of lovely mountain and valley scenes. This makes one of the finest short auto trips in Southern California, was the verdict of the party making it.

QUICK ACTION.

ALFRED BAINES LANDS IN CALIFORNIA, BUYS HOME AND BUSINESS, IN ONE WEEK

Alfred Baines, wife and four children arrived in Los Angeles a little over a week ago from Toronto, Canada, where they had been for a short time, going there from Rochester, N. Y., where Mr. Baines was in business for 20 years. He began to hear of Glendale soon after landing in the big city so came out here on Wednesday of last week to look around. The next day he bought one of J. H. Flower's new houses, at 1140 East Chestnut and arranged to open an up-to-date shoe repairing shop in the front part of John Gysin's painting room at 312 East Broadway. He bought his machinery and had it installed, and is already at work. This is certainly quick action for a new Californian. Mr. Baines thinks so well of Glendale that he bought a vacant lot in addition to the purchase of a home and business.

HONORING MRS. HEARNSHAW

Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw was guest of honor at a prettily appointed little luncheon given by Mrs. Arthur Dibern Wednesday at her home on West Lomita. The table was centered with coreopsis and covers were laid for Mesdames Charles H. Sanders, Stanley Collum, James Apple, R. D. Angelica, F. Augustine, Jack West, Mrs. Hearnshaw and the hostess. Following the luncheon the ladies enjoyed a social afternoon together.

Mrs. Hearnshaw and her daughter are leaving about the 20th for Chicago to be gone until the first of September. Last week Mrs. H. was given a surprise complimentary luncheon by her sister, Mrs. Charles Sanders, at which the ladies mentioned above were guests and covers were also laid for Mrs. Frank Gorman, of Hollywood, and for Mrs. E. Allen. It took place at the home of the hostess at 1320 North Brand boulevard, and Cecil Brunners were used in decoration of the pretty table around which the guests gathered.

SHAKESPEAREANS

TUESDAY CLUB STUDENTS OF GREAT PLAYS GUESTS OF MRS. CABLE

Instead of the annual picnic with which the Shakespearean Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club usually closes the year, a most delightful two-course luncheon was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Colin Cable at 505 South Columbus avenue, Thursday, June 3.

Covers were laid for thirty. The guests were seated at one large table and four small ones, all beautifully decorated with flowers. Members of the section contributed to the first course but ice cream, cake and punch were furnished by the hostess.

After the luncheon a short business session was held. With a beautiful and appropriate little speech Mrs. Yard presented Mrs. McClure, the teacher, on behalf of the section, with a handsome vase filled with coreopsis, to which Mrs. McClure responded. Mrs. Greenwalt then presented two bouquets of flowers to Mrs. Yard in appreciation of what she has done for the section this year as curator. The members had hoped she would consent to be the curator next year, but on account of other duties she refused. Mrs. O. E. Von Oven was then unanimously elected curator of the section for the coming year.

Guests then adjourned to the living room where a delightful and for the most part impromptu program was enjoyed which included the following numbers:

Vocal solos—Mrs. Frank Arnold: "Thou Art So Like a Flower," "Come, Oh, Come With Me," both by Vernon Spencer, and "The Star" (Rogers).

Piano solo—Mrs. L. N. Hagood: "Valse" by Moskowski, and "The Flatterer" by Chaminade.

Songs—Mrs. Charles Parker: "Madcap Margery" (Norton), and "Could I?" (Tosti).

Humorous stories—Mrs. Charles Turk.

Readings—Mrs. Montgomery: "The Corpse's Husband" (Anon), "Angelina Johnson" (Paul Laurence Dunbar).

Reading—Mrs. E. H. Willisford: "The Complaint."

Readings from Paul Laurence Dunbar—Mrs. W. E. Evans.

Reading—Mrs. Calvin Whiting: "Johnny's Prayer."

The section decided that its first study the coming year will be Macbeth, and that the opening meeting will be held in October at the home of the curator.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

JUDGE LOWE ADDRESSES BOARD ON MATTER OF CITY CHARTER

The Board assembled at 8:15 p. m. June 3, 1920. All members present. Minutes of the regular meeting of May 27, 1920, were read and approved.

The hearing of protests against the assessment for the opening of Orange street was taken up. The board was addressed by Mr. Fisher, representing the owner of Lot 23, Campbell Tract, protesting against the assessment made against that lot, as being confiscatory.

Mattison B. Jones, representing protestants Joseph, East and Traver, spoke for his clients. Mr. East, John Robert White, and others, expressed themselves in regard to the matter, and on motion the hearing was continued until the next regular meeting of the board; the matter in the meantime to be considered by the Committee of the Whole.

The matter of a Freeholders' charter was then taken up and Judge F. H. Lowe addressed the Board as a representative of the Chamber of Commerce in the absence of the President of the association. Judge Lowe expressed the unanimous opinion of the Chamber of Commerce as favoring a new charter for the city. He stated that the Board could proceed with the matter on its own initiative, or it would be possible, under the law, to bring about an election for a Board of Freeholders by a petition signed by 15 per cent of the voters in the city; he favored the latter method, believing that it would bring the matter more directly to the attention of the people and educate the public in regard to the subject.

Mr. Fram spoke on similar lines. M. P. Harrison addressed the Board on behalf of the trustee of the Kelley Water Works system in Casa Verdugo, stating that it is necessary that some action be taken to give relief to the people who are depending on that system for their water supply. The City Manager explained the situation as he understood it, and on motion of Trustee Stephenson the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Spohr, representing the Greater Glendale Development Association requested that a letter be read which he had addressed to the City Manager in regard to the action of the Board at the meeting of May 27th, by which the Association was required to remove the arrows from the signs recently erected over San Fernando Road. The letter was read, in which the writer stated that it was not the intention of the parties responsible for the erection of the signs to discriminate against anyone or any part of the city and stated that these signs differ from the automobile signs all over the state, only in the fact that they are larger; that there is an arrow on practically every sign of the many that have been put up. The letter concluded with the request that the signs be allowed to stand as they are. Messrs. Spohr, Hollister, Cowan, Ketterling, Lusby, Huntley and others addressed the Board in favor of the signs being allowed to remain as they are. Trustee Stephenson favored postponement of action on the part of the Board. Trustee Bartlett made a motion, seconded by Trustee Robinson, that the action taken by the Board of Trustees at the meeting of May 27, 1920, ordering the arrows removed from the signs referred to, be rescinded. Roll call resulted as follows:

Ayes. Bartlett, Henry, Robinson, Shaw.

Noes. Stephenson.
Absent. None.

Mattison B. Jones presented to the Board a deed conveying to the city for alley purposes the east fifteen feet of the lot owned by him on Brand Blvd. On motion, the deed was accepted and ordered to be recorded.

The City Manager reported in regard to the application of the Glendale Plant & Floral Company for a permit to remove a building, explaining the provisions of the ordinances in regard to fire districts in the block on which the building is located, and on motion, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Communication was read from Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., as follows:

June 3, 1920.
Hon. Board of Trustees,
City of Glendale, Cal.
As you are doubtless aware, our

ORANGE STREET

HEARING OF PROTESTS AGAINST OPENING CONTINUED FOR ONE WEEK

Much interest was manifested in the hearing of protests against assessments levied for the purpose of opening Orange street north of Lexington Drive, which were presented before the City Trustees Thursday evening.

Attorney Fisher, representing the owner of Lot 23 in the Campbell Tract where Orange street now stops, and Mattison B. Jones representing the owners on the Southwest and Southeast corners of Lexington and Orange, also Jesse Joseph, addressed the Board. Mr. Fisher claimed that the opening of Orange would leave his client a frontage of only 16 feet and that against that frontage an assessment of $200 had been levied which he pronounced confiscatory, offering, on behalf of his client, to deed the property to any one who would assume the assessment provided it stood unchanged. Mr. Jones pointed out inequalities and discrepancies in the assessments levied and showed that the benefits of the opening would be realized by owners north of Milford rather than by those south of Lexington to whom the opening would be a damage rather than an advantage. He declared it was unfair to make the property cornering on Lexington and Orange assume the chief burden of the opening and that the expense should be more evenly distributed by assessing property north of that point. John Robert White and Dr. Kammerling sustained the points made by Mr. Jones saying however they would be willing to pay the amount already assessed, but no more. After listening to the arguments the Board continued the hearing for one week.

WHITE BREAKFAST

MEMBERS OF RICHARD GRIDLEY CHAPTER ENTERTAINED BY REGENT

Members of the Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a few guests, for the fifth time since her regency were entertained by Mrs. John Hyde Braly with a white breakfast, at her home on North Brand boulevard Thursday. These delightful affairs which mark the close of the chapter year have come to be the red letter days of the organization.

Promptly at 12:30 o'clock the company gathered around three tables spread in the dining room and library of the Braly mansion at which covers were laid for thirty-two. Centering one of the tables were large bowls filled with fine scarlet and white carnations and the bluest of cornflowers in a mist of gypsophila, a combination which could not fail to suggest the patriotic spirit of the chapter. Occupying the central place at the third table was a jar filled with beautiful tall white "Annunciation Lilies," sent by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearce in the name of their infant daughter, who is regarded as the grand-daughter of the Chapter of which her mother is a member.

The piece de resistance of the delicious four-course collation was the spiced baked ham for which Mrs. Braly is famous among her friends, the guests enjoying the feast being: Mrs. T. H. Addison, Miss Sophia Goff, Mesdames Elizabeth Ford, S. C. Leppelman, Gertrude Follansbee, C. W. Houston, Maria L. Patterson, T. W. Preston, Harriet R. Rathun, C. Lona Marsters, Sarah Thompson, Lizzie Peirce, Theodore Peirce, Miss Ida D. Meyers, Mesdames Wayland A. Chapman, S. H. Butterfield, Sherwin Gibbons, John G. Peart, J. R. Mitchell, H. A. Strong, J. A. Crawford, Carrie D. Wilson, Miss Vivian Wilson, Mesdames A. B. Purrier, E. W. Hayward, Charles E. Stanley, J. F. Franklin, Mabel F. Ocker, J. M. Brunt, Miss E. G. Gibbs, J. H. Braly.

After the coffee cups had been removed Mrs. Braly introduced Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee and Mrs. Preston as joint toastmistresses. On assuming the duties delegated to her

TRAIN TICKETS LEGAL TENDER

By RALPH H. TURNER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
CITY OF MEXICO, May 1. (By Mail.)—Having made a ten-cent purchase, the resident of Mexico City extends the store-keeper a 50-centavo or one peso bill. He waits for change. The clerk, fumbling in his pocket or the cash drawer, produces a stack of street car tickets. The proper change is counted out, in tickets, the customer pockets them and the transaction is complete.

Such is the situation in Mexico today as regards small change.

Time was, a few weeks ago, when the customer would grumble at the sight of tram tickets given in exchange for real money—and tickets for which he had no earthly use. But one must learn to expect anything in Mexico and having learned to expect it, become reconciled to it.

The situation is improving, however. Not that there is any prospect of an increase in the amount of small change. The outlook in that respect is as gloomy as ever but the tradesmen have agreed to accept the tickets as legal tender. When everyone in town had acquired so much "change" that there was no need of walking, even for a block, the rest of one's natural life, the merchants decided it was only fair that they take some of it back.

So now the senior-about-town pays for his cocktails in tram ducats and the woman in the market place lays down the same currency in payment for her vegetables.

Just why this change shortage should exist nobody seems to know. The people blame it on the government, just as everything is blamed on governments the world over, but the Ministry of the Treasury declares it has been issuing small bronze pieces in increasing amounts. The fact remains, whatever the cause, that almost every variety of "change" in Mexico is sold at a premium ranging from 5 to 15 per cent. Government authorities blame speculators for this condition. They have been hoarding the coins, it is declared, so as to exact a premium on their sale after they have cornered the market.

The shortage is greatest, and most annoying, in the case of 5, 10 and 20-cent bronze pieces. Formerly there were silver pieces, but these have disappeared altogether, just as the 50-cent silver coins disappeared when the government began to issue paper bills. Never was there a better illustration of the economic theory that "cheap money" always crowds "high priced money" out of circulation.

Just now the situation shows no sign of relief.

The bootblack, when you hand him 50 cents, continues to give you a slip which is "good for another shine," declaring he has no change. While the beggar woman, when you brush her aside on the plea that you have no change, appeals to you irresistibly:

"Then give me a street car ticket."

Mrs. N. Le Blanc of 1119 South Glendale avenue has returned home from a three weeks' stay in Ocean Park, where she was in charge of a skilled nurse. Owing to the good care taken of her, the sea breezes and the change, Mrs. Le Blanc's health is somewhat improved.

Napoleon Le Blanc of 1119 South Glendale avenue received a telegram a few days ago announcing the death of an oldtime friend whose wife spent a month in his home some years ago. Since her return to Kansas City the dream of her life has been to come to California to live, but inability to dispose of the Kansas City property prevented. But just a month ago Mrs. Le Blanc received a letter from them stating that they had fallen heir to over three million dollars and that they would soon leave for California, but death came to the husband before the start could be made.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bird and family who came from Tulsa, Oklahoma, about a month ago to visit Mrs. Bird's mother in Hollywood, have rented the J. M. Fife home at 314 North Orange street and are now moving in. Mrs. Bird has visited California before but this is Mr. Bird's first experience and after spending a few months he is expecting to purchase a home and enter into business if all that has been said about Southern California climate, and especially Glendale, proves true. Mrs. Bird's sister, Mrs. L. A. Hart, of 729 East Raleigh, was instrumental in securing the Fife home for them, and is happy indeed to have her sister and family in Glendale.

DEATH OF NOAH C. GIBBS

home was destroyed by fire on Memorial Day.

We were all away at the time and did not see with our own eyes the first part of the effort to save our property, but from what we have heard of the first part of the fire and from what we ourselves actually saw of the last part, we feel that the Fire Department of the City of Glendale, with the aid of the unselfish volunteers, accomplished all that any Fire Department anywhere could have accomplished.

We have nothing but the highest praise for the manner in which the fire was handled.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)
MR. AND MRS. JOHN ROBERT WHITE, JR.

Traffic Officer Trautwein had rather an unusual experience one day this week. He was driving west on Broadway in a city machine, headed for the city hall when a young man on a motorcycle shot past him, with cutout open and making considerable noise. Trautwein shouted for him to halt but evidently was not heard so he speeded up and followed the motorcycle, which attained a speed of 55 miles an hour before it was overhauled, nearly in front of the city hall. The young man, A. W. Reynolds, of Orange street, was fined $20, for speeding and making too much noise.

Out in the Open With a Kodak

Can you have a happier, more health-giving vacation than to get out under the open sky? You will cheat yourself out of one of the best things life has to offer if you don't take at least a few days for a motor trip along the shining highways that lure you on and on; a leisurely climb up entrancing mountain trails or a rest beside the mountain lake or the glorious western sea.

TAKE A KODAK WITH YOU

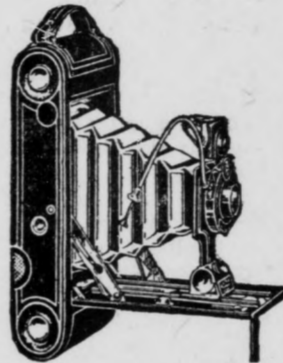

You'll see so many things that you'll want to remember always. You'll want to snap the setting sun just before it disappears below the shining waves; turn the lens upon some distant tree-covered peak or leafy canyon, on some foaming waterfall or crystal stream. The curve in the road just ahead is a pleasing prospect that you will want to take with you back to the hum-drum everyday life.

You will capture some wonderful views that you will want to have enlarged—some that you will want to have framed for Christmas gifts. There will be amusing things that you will be glad to recall, too, when you are looking over your kodak album.

COAL FOR 7,000 YEARS

Estimates of how long it will be before we exhaust our natural resources, such as coal, iron ore and oil, continue, as they have for many years, to furnish employment for speculative scientists and others. The latest word on coal, from C. M. Darling of the government bureau of mines, is reassuring. He told the Railroad Fuel association that we have enough minerable coal in sight to last us for the next 7,000 years, at the present rate of consumption.

Even if Mr. Darling is a couple of thousand years out, any prospect of coal famine that this generation or the next need fear will be limited to such as we have experienced, due to failure to produce or to transport. A reassuring feature is that there has been no indication of verifying alarmists of the past who attempted by forecast to exhaust some of the mineral resources within a few score years.

MR. AND MRS. HICKOK, FROM BROOKLYN, NEW YORK CITY,
NOW GLENDALEANS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hickok have bought the Dorrance place, 800 East Windsor Road, and will move in next week. They came here from Brooklyn, N. Y., a month ago, stopping in Los Angeles, but heard so much about Glendale that they made up their minds to locate here. Mr. Hickok is a newspaper stereotyper and was employed by the New York World while living in Brooklyn. Before that he held a position on the Denver News-Times. He came out to California determined to rest for awhile, but the second day he was in Los Angeles he went around to one of the afternoon newspapers and was surprised to find in charge of the stereotyping department a man who was an apprentice of his on the Denver News-Times. He was badly in need of help and soon persuaded his former boss to go to work for him. Mr. and Mrs. Hickok will have to sort of camp in the new home with a few pieces of second-hand furniture they can pick up, until their household goods arrive from Brooklyn.

Is Your Boy or Girl Getting a Square Deal?

The winner in the race of life must be alert in every faculty. Competition is so keen that the man or woman who is to succeed must be fully equipped.

You can't be your best—you can't do justice to yourself unless you have perfect vision.

Boys and girls have been branded "backward in school; not so much has been expected of them as of apparently brighter pupils and their mental development has been partially arrested all because of imperfect vision.

This is pitiful and tragic. It's not a square deal. It's not in keeping with the wishes of most parents to give their children every opportunity possible. For the most part it's due to thoughtlessness on the part of parents.

Let me examine your eyes and your children's eyes. I have performed this service for more than 2000 Glendale people and have satisfied them all. I can help you if you need glasses. If you don't, I'll tell you so.

Mrs. Purrier two amusing ones. Then conundrums were called for. Mrs. Houston asked why Noah was the greatest financier in all history. Mrs. Braly guessed it was because he rested his ark upon a bank but was declared to be wrong as the answer explained that when all the world went into liquidation, Noah was still able to float his stock.

Mrs. Preston told of the Sunday school teacher who, after telling with impressive circumstantial detail the Bible story of the forty children who mocked the prophet and were eaten by the three she bears, asked members of her class what lesson the story taught, and one little girl piped up: "It shows us how many children three bears can eat." Many conundrums were told and many answered by the bright chapter members.

Mrs. Braly was called upon and with sincere but unaffected phrase told the members how big a place the chapter holds in her heart and life and what a pleasure it was to receive the letter from the New Bedford, Mass., regent inquiring about the White Breakfast and to realize that its fame had spread to the Old Bay State which had been the home of the ancestors. She warned that the coming year would bring heavier demands upon the chapter than ever before and expressed the hope that every officer would manifest to the world that the chapter honors home, country, flag and God. She then pronounced the subordinate officers duly installed as follows:

Vice Regent, Mrs. C. W. Houston. Secretary, Mrs. Mabel F. Ocker. Treasurer, Mrs. S. C. Leppelman. Registrar, Mrs. Maria L. Patterson. Chaplain, Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee.

Mrs. Houston as Vice-Regent then installed Mrs. Braly as regent of the chapter.

Mr. Braly was also called upon for a speech and succeeded in making the ladies realize how much he enjoys attending their sessions and especially their White Breakfasts.

Toastmistress Follansbee told of the little girl who queried whether there were any men in heaven because she had never seen any pictures of bearded angels. She was told by her mother that a few men had gotten in by a close shave. Mrs. Follansbee assured Mr. Braly it would take a close shave to get him out of the chapter for he has become so much a part of it.

Mrs. Hayward responded to the toast, "East and West," declaring we should begin to realize, particularly this presidential year, that the problems of the East are the problems of the West and the twain are one.

Mrs. Ocker, recording secretary, gave a brief but most interesting history of the national D. A. R. organized in 1890 with 18 members. Mrs. Braly, it was explained was invited to be one of the charter members but was unable to attend the meeting and joined soon afterwards. Mrs. Ocker showed how its patriotic field had enlarged with its development from the promoting of patriotism among the young and preservation of historic landmarks to its greatest work of the present day Americanization effort among foreigners who have sought this shore.

Later, Miss Ida Meyers, Chairman of Americanization told of the work of the Glendale chapter in co-operation with Los Angeles chapters at the Albion and Nineteenth Street School where foreign mothers are instructed in American ways and standards and foreign men in American speech and ideals.

Mrs. Leppelman as treasurer made a detailed statement of the mile of pennies receipts and stated that the treasury contained $128.

Mrs. Rathbun described the new building just completed for the maternity hospital and suggested that the chapter undertake to furnish a room the coming year.

Mrs. Butterfield responded to the toast, "Presidential Possibilities" and rejoiced in the fact that women would now help to make party platforms. She declared the times call for a man of fearlessness and integrity who will put his own pride of place in the background, thinking only of the public good.

Mrs. Houston announced that she had a surprise for the regent, Mrs. Braly; that she had been commissioned to send to Philadelphia for a regent's pin representing the Richard Gridley Chapter to be worn by the regent at all D. A. R. meetings and functions; that she had expected to be able to present it, but had been advised of a lot of red tape in the way of counter signatures to the application by other officers, but that it would arrive soon. Mrs. Braly seemed much affected by the announcement and made suitable acknowledgments. This practically closed the meeting except for a rising vote of thanks to host and hostess for their delightful hospitality.

 Attention of the objectors was that the sign discriminated between the various sections of the town. As a compromise Mr. Stephenson suggested that the placing of the sign might be changed so it would point up Brand, making the arrow unnecessary. Mr. Lusby then said if the sign could be changed so it would not ruin the effect no one would object, but if the purpose for which it was erected, viz., to guide the traveling public was to be defeated, he, for one, would favor removing all electric signs and laying them away for future reference. He took the same view advanced by Mr. Spohr that if there is objection to an arrow with a light attached, there should be objection to all automobile signs as discriminatory.

Mr. Kitterman, cashier of the First National Bank, declared that personal interests were being allowed to cloud the issue and that the fear a little revenue might be lost to the few shops or gasoline stations on San Fernando Road were at the bottom of the protest; that he did not believe a single nickel would be lost to them. Said he: "If the traveling public can be led to discover that we have a real city here, that sign will not only benefit this part of Glendale, but also the part that thinks it is being injured now."

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Kelley, who live on South Glendale avenue, stated they would be very sorry to have any traveler following San Fernando Road so far misled as to think what he saw there represented Glendale.

J. G. Huntley talked along similar lines and the desire to protect the fair reputation of Glendale with the traveling public which, he declared, was the motive prompting the erection of the sign.

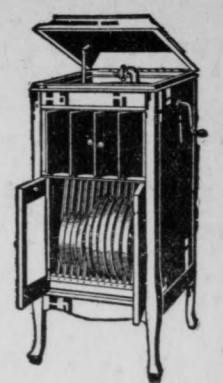

Mattison B. Jones suggested that the words "Business Center" be added to the arrow and was downed by the laughing declaration of several voices that his suggestion would make matters worse instead of better.

Trustee Stephenson said he thought the action taken at the previous meeting was perhaps a little hasty, and on motion of Trustee Bartlett the Board voted to rescind that action.

Mrs. Follansbee pointed out how fortunate above all other California chapters is the General Richard Gridley organization in having Mrs. Braly for its regent and her home for its meeting place. She contrasted conditions two years ago when the country was in the midst of war at the time the White Breakfast took place, and one year ago when peace was so recent we were incapable of appreciating the gravity of the reconstruction problems facing us. These problems have proved worse than we thought they would be, she declared, "but for today," she begged, "let us turn our faces away from these perplexities and just be happy and drink to this toast: 'Here's to us all! God bless us every one!'"

Mrs. Houston then called the chapter roll to which members were expected to reply with quotations, conundrums, famous or amusing epigrams, or original skits. Mrs. Addison opened this part of the program with a clever original poem in rhyme giving the history and progress of the "mile of pennies" which the chapter is accumulating for what is known as the "Maternity Hospital" in Los Angeles, a philanthropic enterprise in which members are greatly interested. Her poem stated:

"Now daughters, I am here to say We have reached nearly one-half the way,
 With 1900 feet,—or about Making three-eighths of a mile blotted out."

Later, members turned in donations to the penny fund which totaled $28 or thereabouts, and on motion of Mrs. Houston the chapter voted to send a cheque to the hospital for $75 which with the $50 cheque sent at Christmas time would bring the year's donations to $125.

Mrs. Lizzie Peirce responded to a toast to the flag, by reading a very beautiful poem.

Mrs. Hayward read a very beautiful epitaph and Mrs. Follansbee and
