Mesers, Stanley and Lichtenhein mow stand two games apiece, the result of a hard-fought victory gained yesterday by the latter gentleman. The concluding game in the first section comes off today, and great interest attaches to the denomenout. Messrs, Perrin and Knott added another draw to their list, and Messrs, Fisks, and Marache gain failed to meet each other.

The second class players, who figure in the Minor Tournament, are now batting hard and fast. They number the same as in the grand tourney, and are pitted as follows:
