

Richard P. Hunt
Esteemed friend

July 28th January 1828

Thy letter of the 21st Instant. come duly to hand, annexing thy debt on Edward G. Fairbanks for $379³²/₁₀₀ at ten days date, which is in full for my account. For which I am much obliged —

For the last week or two, more wheat has been brought to market than the forepart of the present winter. The price now is about one dollar for 1 Bu.
for the best quality. The price of Rye is 53¢ for 1 Bu.
(say for 60¢) Corn 3/6 — It is my opinion that all these articles will be pretty low the ensuing season —

Pork has declined in New York — My last quotations from New York are $13 for mess pork, $9 for prime — = prime Beef 8¹/₂ — Mess Beef 8 to 8¹/₂ — Hogshead $5³/₈ for Bacon nominal —

Timothy seed is worth from 11/ to 13/ for 1 Bu.
in this market — Clover seed is scarce & the price high I have not heard of any sales, but presume it would bring from 12 to 14¢ for the —

I am Truly thine &c
