

Love True - so I have long with sides. I still love with sides, I believe that with sides will be brought together.

I remain your friend
Ernest Smith

Rev. A. A. Phelps

Gerrit Smith Esq.

Penns Apr. 20 1839
Talg.

I thank you very dear letter, for your frank & friendly letter recd. last evening. Don't think so badly of the Non-Resistants. I am more than half a Non-Resistant myself - and my friendly think that I am in a fair way to become a whole one. When I see you, as I hope to do next month in N. York, I will tell you that you had an influence in bringing me into the Non-Resistance path. And I think too, that you are too much alarmed about Non-Resistance.
It will be many years before a thousand of our Abolitionists will turn Non-Resistants.
I expect to leave home - next from Monday for N. York - and I shall leave home with great confidence that I shall have the happiness of seeing the Massachusetts Dispensary quieted, or in a fair way to be quieted. W. H. Burry T. H. & Bright have