NOTICE TO DRY GOODS MERCHANTS.

MR. MONDELET & CO., DYERS,
180 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel,

HAVE the honor of informing Dry Goods Merchants that they are still in the habit of stuffs to pieces, viz.:—Silks, merinoes, woolens, muslins, worsted satin, cloths, ribands, crapes, velvet parasols and umbrellas. They will render them as perfect as the original. Those who may entrust them with their goods may rest assured that they will spare no pains to satisfy them. They would recommend merchants to do their work done during the summer, as it can be done at less prices than in the winter. jy20

GARRAUD'S INSTITUTION.—Hitherto a certain class of society have had reason to complain of the difficulty, we might say, impossibility of procuring for their children, a complete education as is desirable. For this deficiency, therefore, to view with pleasure an establishment where their children may obtain a course of instruction equal to most and various.

Mr. and Madame Garraud have recently established a seminary for both sexes in Rampart street, between St. Ann and Maine streets. A long experience in the art of instruction enables them to satisfy every desire on the part of parents.

French, English, History, Geography, Mathematics, Mythology, Drawing, Book-Keeping, and in short every department of a complete education are taught with care, zeal and assiduity. Professors of well ascertained merit are attached to the establishment.

Music, Dancing and the use of the Sword will be imparted to those desirous of acquiring a knowledge of them.

All the various manual arts which can obtain access in an educational institution or a Young Lady's education will be taught by Madame Garraud herself.

Boarders and half boarders will be received in the establishment.

For terms and references, see Prospectus at Mr. Lyon's, Book store.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD—Runaway since the 8 April last, from the plantation of the undersigned at McDonoughville, opposite New Orleans, the mulatto BOY, named BENJAMIN, aged about twenty-three years, about 5 feet 6 inches high, (a carpenter by trade) well built and a handsome boy—has a large mouth, rather thick lips, long and flat nose, has no beard, and is of a dark brown color. He is well known in the neighborhood, French and English. He is a good sugar maker and will probably attempt to work at his business.

ALSO—The negro JEAN BAPTISTE, aged about twenty-five years, a very fine butcher in height, (hanging measure) about 5 feet 8 inches, is a creole negro, speaking the English language fluently. He is of a weak constitution, thin face, bright eyes and has a small beard nearly grown.

Three (3) negroes were seen yesterday on the Canal Verret, near the plantation of the undersigned.

The whole reward will be paid to the person who will lodge them in one of the jails of this city—or one-half for the apprehension of either of them.

BUYING AND SELLING IN GENERAL.

NOTICE.—Mr. MICHEL BERTHET, has the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June next, they will open at No 190 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A BUYING AND SELLING establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, in many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a designed study of chemistry applied to it, together with the hope that an institution will be felt in surmising to them the most valuable articles either for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their ability by the care and elegance of their work, and by the finish imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinoes, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tulles, velpeau or figured silks, ribands, flounces, covers, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and woolen shawls, silk stockings; they clean silk dresses without changing the colors. By new chemical processes they bleach muslins jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new. merinoes, they clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of feathers, gentlemen's clothing without ripping them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing of every color and in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors.

They likewise re-dye black stuffs, giving them various colors.

Terms moderate.
