Dear Deborah
I have found a Gentleman & lady here who know a little of me as well as I of them - they live very near the school, now in Dorbury - I think they are going to morrow I sent them as I am sure you will get it there is no early conveyance to morrow so you must perform work for the evening, and may not get this till morning after I have seen better to day than yesterday it is amazing how easily I am affected the least expectation has the effect of bringing on me - we are obliged to be very careful to not think that mental exertion is more to my health than bodily - He says he is that to plan & execute getting off the bed is now a great & tedious effort - & just as difficult as deal with the most intricate subjects I went to church today & this afternoon was you the called to be present at the letter that I enclose - I should not have supposed that Mrs. Hervey thought it would be as she is by no means as strong as that other patients - she begins to be rather uneasy to get home - I sometimes stay she but I try not to keep it out of her head all I can I see she is not fit to think of at all I am glad very to see you - should see Hervey but could not have himed by in the room - more for the come her out to see any body - she was glad very to
