STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

ADMINISTRATION

1. General:

a. AR 210-10 places the responsibility of Administration upon the Unit Commanding Officer to insure that the provisions of Army Regulations and other Department of Army directives or directives from higher authority are strictly observed, and that local instructions are guided by their spirit and intent. When interpretation is necessary, Commanding Officers are expected to interpret the regulations reasonably, intelligently, and with due regard for the interests of the service.

2. Operation:

a. AR 1-5 gives the alphabetical listing of all Army Regulations published by the United States Army. AR 1-15 describes in detail what maintenance is required on the proper posting of AR's in keeping them up-to-date with current changes. All changes to a basic AR should be posted in the base AR as well as posted in AR 1-10. As a temporary expedient, AR's are changed from time to time by DA circulars and changes to the base AR pending publication of a new base regulation. All changes are numerically listed in chronoligical order.

b. The Administrative Section will be charged with the responsibility of carrying out the following functions.

(1) Detachment Command and Administration
(2) Personnel Administration
(3) Message Center Operation & Administration
(4) Couriers
(5) Supply

(12) Annex "L" - Supply

(13) Annex "M" - References

3. MISSION

a. In accordance with directives promulgated by higher headquarters, to carry out the following functions within the geographical area administered by the Prefectural Governments located on the island of Kyushu:

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNBS No.

3. a. (1) Render essential advice and assist all Japanese Governmental authorities in the execution of their duties.

(2) Strengthen, encourage and support all constituted authorities in the maintenance of effective autonomous administrations.

(3) Maintain general surveillance of political, economic and sociological developments.

(4) Foster all activities influencing the attainment of a democratic ideology.

(5) Stimulate initiative, self-reliance, integrity, responsibility and fearless leadership on the part of all public servants.

(6) Collect, maintain and submit to higher headquarters vital statistics on the financial, economic, legal welfare and educational status, and the effectiveness of the judicial, executive, and legislative branches of the Prefectural and subordinate echelon governments.

(7) Inform civil affairs sections of higher headquarters of current developments and progress in the execution of SCAP directives to the Japanese government, by local authorities.

4. ORGANIZATION

a. The Kyushu Civil Affairs Region is a detached unit of the Civil Affairs Section GHQ SCAP and maintains surveillance over the following Prefectures:

Fukuoka	Miyazaki
Saga	Kagoshima
Nagasaki	Kumamoto
Oita

b. The Headquarters compromises the Chief Civil Affairs Officer, the Deputy Civil Affairs Officer, the Administrative, the Supply Section, and six staff sections.

c. The Chief Civil Affairs Officer is the Commanding Officer and is responsible for operations, administration, discipline and the accomplishment of the assigned mission. All decisions and orders of a command function or nature will be made by the Chief Civil Affairs Officer. He will determine and announce the policies or the guidance of subordinate chiefs and the conduct of the Region's operations. He will establish and maintain a close professional and personal Liaison with the governor of each Prefecture within the Regional area of responsibility, to assure the development of a mutual relationship of confidence, whole-hearted co-operation, and sympathetic understanding, to the end that any reluctance to seek needed assistance from civil affairs personnel will be overcome and that prompt and accurate reports may be assured of any and all circumstances prejudicial to the maintenance of law and order, health and security.

d. The Deputy Civil Affairs Officer is the executive officer and will be responsible for the supervision and conduct of all administrative activities. He will act for the Chief Civil Affairs Officer in his absence.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNBS NO.

5. GENERAL POLICIES

a. Support and deal through Prefectural executives and members of their staffs wherever possible.

b. Limit routine reports to bare essentials and hold to an absolute minimum. Include more data and less narrative.

c. Organize sectional activities so as to permit the chief of the section the maximum freedom for over-all supervision and personal field observation.

d. Chiefs of functional divisions to be permitted the maximum latitude and initiative in the organization and direction of the activities for which they are responsible. They will be held responsible for compliance with directives from higher headquarters pertaining to their functions, the efficient conduct of the activities under their jurisdiction, meeting of all deadlines on reports and correspondence, keeping the Chief Civil Affairs Officer constantly informed of the current status of critical matters and the gist of directives from higher headquarters including changes or modifications, the observance of sound staff procedures in the conduct of business and the editing of all drafts of correspondence or publications originating within their activities to insure breivity, clarity, correct composition and form.

e. Problems involving two or more sub-divisions of the Regional Organization will be supervised by the section having paramount interest, which section will be responsible for coordination and final action.

f. Maximum use to be made of visual aids and graphs in maintaining statistical data.

g. Each subordinate office or section will maintain a daily journal for the logging of important telephone conversations, conferences and historical data.

h. To conserve travel appropriations and insure the efficient utilization of automotive transportation and interpreters, field trips will be coordinated to effect joint conferences whenever possible. Special Rail Cars will be made available to the maximum.

i. Periodic staff conferences will be conducted for round table discussion of matters of general interest and for general briefing on activities of the several sub-divisions.

j. Up-to-date policy files will be maintained in each office for the guidance of subordinates and successors.

k. Whenever the solution to a problem involves two or more sub-divisions, the agency of paramount interest will obtain evidence of concurrence by securing the initials of all agencies concerned on the official file copy of the publication or correspondence prior to transmission or publication.

l. To conserve personnel, equipment and space, a central filing system will be maintained. Duplicate files of correspondence will not be maintained.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO:

m. Each sub-division will prepare and maintain up-to-date organization charts, detailed descriptions of mission and functions by sub-section, and an SOP for each job position which will become a part of the organization and functional manual of the Region. Currently existing directives and regulations in-so-far as they are not inconsistent with the foregoing policies and the newly assigned mission on the Region will be generally continued in force and included in this manual.

n. The manual to be prepared in appropriate sections, properly indexed and will conclude with a general bibliography of pertinent regulations and directives arranged for ready reference.

o. Chiefs of functional division will be responsible for efficient utilization of subordinate personnel including compliance with all existing laws and regulations relating to hours of employment, sick and annual leave, and investigation of unauthorized absence from duty. Daily time sheets will be maintained and a weekly report certified to the Chief clerk, (on forms to be provided) for use in the preparation of payrolls.

p. Correspondence intended for higher or comparable level headquarters and to governors of prefectures will be prepared for the signature of the Chief Civil Affairs Officer or his Deputy in his absence. Recurring reports and routine reports, as distinguished from matters of policy or directives may be signed, "For the Chief CA Officer", by the chief of the interested functional division, or in his absence, by his immediate assistant. Such signature will include the official status of the individual under his signature. All TWX messages will be prepared for the signature of the Chief Civil Affairs Officer or the Deputy in his absence.

q. The Japanese Central Liaison and Coordination Section will provide a two-way channel of communication and liaison between all elements of the Region and the several Prefectural governments, their subordinate governmental echelons, and the special agencies of the National Government situated within the Regional Geographical area of responsibility. The functions of this section will not be construed to prohibit or interfere with direct communication between the Civil Affairs Regional Headquarters and Japanese Governmental executives, nor between subordinate parallel staff sections as circumstances indicate to be necessary or adviseable. It's primary purpose is to provide the governors and their staffs with a rapid and effective means of contact with Chief Civil Affairs Officer and the members of the Regional Staff.

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

LEGAL AND GOVERNMENT

1. GENERAL

a. The primary purpose of the Legal and Government Section is to assist in the establishment and maintenance of a democratic form of government. To accomplish this, the responsibilities of this section are threefold.

(1) To act as legal advisor to the Chief of Kyushu Civil Affairs Region on all matters of law and government, and to keep him informed of all current developments within that field.

(2) To report through channels to higher headquarters all developments in the field of government, together with information and recommendations which may have bearing on changes in current or future programs, and to report degree of compliance with the directives of higher headquarters.

(3) To act in an advisory and consultative capacity to all governmental units and agencies, and to maintain surveillance over them to insure compliance with directives.

2. MISSION

a. Maintain surveillance over the Japanese Government to extend but not limited to those governmental functions discussed in succeeding paragraphs.

(1) To maintain surveillance over the administration of justice, Legal and Government Section will:

(a) Observe the propriety of the administration of justice in the Japanese Courts without interference in individual cases.

(b) Bring to the attention of higher headquarters, cases of injustice or miscarriage of justice.

(c) Observe the functioning of national and local laws and suggest revisions to higher headquarters.

(d) Aid and advise judges and procurators in order to further the just, speedy and efficient operation of the court system. This aid and advice will be general in nature and will not be extended to individual cases except where prosecution of such individual cases may require the procurement of witnesses and/or evidence from non-Japanese individuals or agencies, or where advice is required to insure compliance with occupation force directives to and restrictions on the Japanese Courts.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO.

(e) Assist in the education of the general public concerning legal and judicial reforms.

(2) Maintain surveillance over police and prisons within the zone of responsibility. This surveillance will include:

(a) Visits to jails, police stations, prisons, and other places of confinement operated by the Japanese Government. By personal observation and questioning of inmates, inspectors will determine whether individuals have been confined for excessive periods of time without trial, have been mistreated, denied counsel, or otherwise deprived of civil rights. When these conditions are discovered, the delinquency will be called to the attention of the Japanese authorities concerned. When these conditions exist due to the deprivation of civil rights of Japanese and other nationals by occupation forces, corrective action will be taken with the unit concerned. In both instances, report will be made to higher headquarters.

(b) Visits and close personal liaison with police and public safety officials throughout entire zone.

(c) Observation and report to higher headquarters of general efficiency of police system to include investigation and report of incidents which indicate corruption, malfeasance in official matters, or inefficiency. Close attention will be directed to the complete decentralization of police as required by the Police Law.

(d) Liaison and contact between Japanese police and occupation force units.

(3) Maintain surveillance over local political parties to include analysis of local political personalities, organizations, and societies to determine the true aim of such persons and organizations and means whereby objectives are achieved. Such information will be evaluated in terms of trends and developments in the field of local politics. Report will be made to higher headquarters showing important political trends or significant strategy pursued by local political parties and organizations.

(4) Maintain surveillance over activities of officials and local governmental bodies within their zone of responsibility. This surveillance will include but will not be restricted to:

(a) Aid, advice, and encouragement of Japanese officials in their efforts to establish an orderly, democratic, and decentralized governmental administration at all governmental levels. Special emphasis will be placed on the development of a sense of responsibility of government to the people.

(b) Frequent conferences with officials to determine the organization and degree of efficiency which is displayed in the functioning of all municipal, prefectural, and national governmental bodies within the zone. When indicated, conferences on specific problems will be held to consider problems of public administration.

(c) Attendance at prefectural, city, town, and village assembly meetings and such meetings of independent boards and commissions as is necessary to determine the degree of governmental proficiency displayed by those bodies, and general nature and kinds of laws and administrative regulations under consideration. Close attention will be directed to the passage of by-laws providing for local taxation as authorized or required by national legislation.

(d) Maintenance of continuous review over activities of assemblies and chief executives of prefectures, cities, towns, and villages to ascertain laws, orders, regulations, or acts which establish, maintain, or represent restrictions on political and civil liberties or which retard the development of local self government. Such laws, orders, regulations, or acts will be reported by letter to higher headquarters without delay.

(e) Preparation and submittal through channels with supporting evidence, for transmission to Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, recommendations for the removal of corrupt or incompetent officials. Recommendations for removal of Japanese officials will be carefully considered prior to submitting, and supporting evidence must be sufficient to establish beyond a reasonable doubt that the retention in office of the official concerned would be detrimental to the objectives of the occupation. When removal from office is indicated the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers will be informed so that necessary action may be taken.

(f) Acceptance and careful review of all petitions addressed to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers. When practicable, the veracity of statements made in petitions will be checked prior to transmittal, using local agencies, and appropriate recommendation will be included in the forwarding indorsement to higher headquarters.

(5) It is imperative that Japanese elections be free and representative expression of the will of the Japanese people. General participation by the electorate and faithful observance of the applicable laws and ordinances will achieve this. To insure complete freedom of election activity during elections, Legal and Government Section will exercise close and continuing surveillance over all national and important local elections. Routine surveillance will be maintained over all other elections.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. _____

(a) A policy of impartiality will be observed and enforced by occupation force personnel throughout this command in all elections.

(b) To implement surveillance Civil Affairs Region will:

1. Inform local election administration Committees, Chief Executives, Candidates, law enforcement agencies, and the public in general that Civil Affairs personnel will observe the elections.

2. Refer to the proper Japanese authorities all violations or delinquencies in the administration of the elections which come to notice.

3. Encourage efforts by information media to publicize the elections and to encourage free discussion of election issues.

4. Observe election procedures followed generally throughout the zone. In the case of important elections, this observation should include visits to and conferences with election officials and party leaders prior to the announcement of election and the election day, visits to polling places and ballot counting stations during the actual election period, and post election surveillance to include close examination of any claims of fraud, mismanagement or illegal acts.

5. Report serious violations of election regulations or any unusual incidents immediately to higher headquarters.

6. Initial reports will be followed by a letter of confirmation giving complete details and circumstances surrounding the violation or incident.

(c) Election reports will be submitted monthly. These reports will include a short narrative and will contain an analysis of political trends as shown by election results.

3. ORGANIZATION

a. Under the overall supervision of the Legal and Government Analyst as Section Chief, Kyushu Region is divided into two areas for the purpose of carrying out the Legal and Government program. One area consists of the prefectures of Kumamoto, Kagoshima, Miyazaki and Oita under the surveillance of a General Investigator (Translator-Interpreter), who shall also act as assistant Section Chief. The second area consists of the prefectures of Fukuoka, Saga and Nagasaki under the surveillance of a General Investigator (Translator-Interpreter). Office administration, including general surveillance of Japanese National Translators and Japanese Professionals is the responsibility of a General Investigator. A Clerk-Stenographer is responsible for general stenographic duties within the section.

b. To assist the DAC personnel mentioned in the preceding paragraph seven Japanese Nationals are utilized: two Professionals in the capacity of legal advisors, two Translators, two interpreters and one Typist.
