

SCHOOL ELECTION

DANIEL CAMPBELL AND JOHN TODD ARE RE-ELECTED WITHOUT OPPOSITION

The election for school trustee of the Glendale Union High School and the Grammar schools passed off very quietly in Glendale yesterday, a small vote being cast and there being no opposition to either candidate.

Daniel Campbell of 1750 Highland avenue, North Glendale, was re-elected high school trustee for the term of three years, receiving 85 votes, the entire vote cast for high school trustee in Glendale.

John Todd, of 1657 West Broadway, received 87 votes, the full vote cast for grammar school trustee. Mr. Todd has already served a term of three years as grammar school trustee.

The election judges were Mrs. Florence B. Rathbone and Mrs. Cora M. Nichols, and the election inspector, J. E. Henderson.

In Tropic there was a little more interest and excitement shown, a total of 174 votes being cast for grammar school trustee and 149 for the Union high school trustee. There were two candidates for grammar school trustee and the result was a tie, each candidate receiving 87 votes. The matter was referred this morning to the county superintendent of schools and it has not been learned what action will be taken.

The candidates were Irving H. Oliver of 647 East Acacia avenue and David G. Hibben of 123 East Laurel street, Tropic.

Daniel Campbell received the total number of votes cast for Union high school trustee, no other candidate being presented.

The Tropic election judges were Mrs. Merritt W. Ludden and Mrs. Charles J. Bruck, and the election inspector, Miss Regina Bacon.

VINE STREET BIRD CLUB OUTING

Norman and Harold Begg, Dorothy and Marjorie Sherman and Mrs. Minnette Sherman, spent an enjoyable day at Verdugo Park, Thursday.

They went for the purpose of studying the birds and had the good fortune to run into the Los Angeles Audubon Society. Mrs. Fargo, who was president last year, and who spoke on birds at the home of Mrs. Nanno Woods some time ago, was with them. Also, a Dr. Palmer, who is connected with Biological Survey Department at Washington, D. C., gave a talk on "Derivation of Bird Names."

Dr. Dial of Hollywood, a scientific bird student, and owner of a $40 field glass, became interested in the children and the work that the Vine Street Bird Club accomplished last summer. This little club expects to resume its weekly meetings with the beginning of the summer vacation and Dr. Dial has offered to go with the children and give his assistance in studying the birds.

HOME GUARD MEETING

SERGEANT SCHENCK TO MEET MEN FOR DRILL WEDNESDAY EVENING

There will be a meeting held in the City Hall Wednesday evening, April 11, for the purpose of completing the organization of a company of Home Guards in Glendale. The principal speakers at this meeting will be Col. Harry Light and Mattison B. Jones.

Prior to the time of that meeting all persons desiring to join the Home Guards should see C. B. Wilde at the office of the Ford Agency, 824 West Broadway, or W. R. Phelon at the Southern Cal. Gas Company's office, 1212 West Broadway. Very active steps are in progress to organize a large company of Home Guards in this city.

Sergeant H. Schenck of 200 West Ninth street, Glendale, who has been allowed a 60-day furlough, will likely serve as captain of the company. Owners of automobiles who are willing to list them subject to be called for in case of immediate need, should report to Mr. Wilde or Mr. Phelon. Glendale is comprised of a patriotic lot of people who are ready to do all within their power to preserve the dignity of the United States.

C. OF C. DECORATIONS

Each show window of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce contains flower pictures, beautiful to look at and one is sweet to smell. Mrs. Mae N. Ackley and Mrs. Henry R. Harrower were the ladies of the Glendale Garden Society who certainly achieved there a work of art Friday. Their flower picture is greatly enhanced by the queenly white lilies donated by Mrs. Bartlett, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, honoring and honored by the graceful vase loaned by Mr. LeRoy W. Bosserman. There is a lesson to think over suggested by the dainty blues in the wild lupine contrasted with the royal high-brow blossoms in that vase. It must have been of such these that the Master spoke and the poet sang, "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. Yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

WALT. LE NOIR CHURCH.

FORMER GLENDALE PASTOR TO WED

Elder E. E. Francis, formerly pastor of the Christian church here, is to be married Sunday next to Miss Bertha Lacock, at her home in Eureka, Ill. Elder Francis was greatly loved by the members of his congregation here and by his brother ministers, and his many afflictions while in Glendale knit the bonds of friendship all the closer. He is now pastor of the Christian church at Perry, Mo., and is doing a fine work. His wife-to-be was a missionary in Porto Rico for several years and came home on account of ill health a year or more ago. She has for the last few months been resting and regaining her strength at her Eureka home. She is a lady of sweet Christian character and will be an ideal helpmeet for Elder Francis. The best wishes of the many friends of both are theirs.

PATRIOTIC MEETING

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION MEET WITH THE REGENT, MRS. BRALY

The Gen. Richard Gridley Chapter, D. A. R., met April 5 at the home of its regent, Mrs. J. H. Braly, 201 Brand boulevard. Flags and bouquets of red, white and blue flowers gave a patriotic air to the spacious rooms. Mrs. Braly told an interesting patriotic story and then introduced Mrs. Follinsby, who read the annual report of Lily C. Cole, chairman of the state committee to prevent desertion of the flag. Mrs. Sara Bancroft Fry of Pasadena, vice-chairman, was to have been present to give an address on this subject, but was detained at home by illness in her family. This was a wonderfully illuminating report, telling of the work the various chapters had been able to do. The best we have is far too precious to abuse and what is more to any of us than our country and our country's flag.

Hearty co-operation is being given by the state superintendent of schools, Mr. Edward Hyatt, and in all patriotic exercises are embodied a salute to the flag, reading of the flag law and interpretation of the same and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" in all the schools of the state. Picture shows did use "Star Spangled Banner" as an exit march, but through the efforts of the D. A. R., thirty picture shows in Los Angeles have discontinued this custom.

This chapter reported it would have copies of the flag law framed for every school in Glendale, Tropic and Casa Verdugo, and is also arranging with school authorities to have "The Star Spangled Banner" made a regular part of every school entertainment. Arrangements are being made to have one of the local theaters feature "The Star Spangled Banner" each week.

Mrs. Rochester very beautifully and with much feeling, recited the following poem, written by Mrs. Edward Orton, Jr., Columbus, Ohio, director-general of reports on Smithsonian Institute, National Society, D. A. R.:

The flag of the right, and not of the wrong,
The flag of the weak, as well as the strong,
The flag that we hold, the flag that we prize,
The flag that we hail, with shouts and with cries,
The flag of the true, the flag of the brave,
The flag that we place upon the dear grave,
The flag that we'd serve through battle and strife,
The flag that o'er all floats proudly on high,
The flag of our land, its tints of the sky,
The flag of the red, the white and the blue,
The flag of all time for me and for you.

Mr. Braly urged the D. A. R. to get people to cultivate the vacant lots. All the daughters quickly responded to the appeal of Mrs. Ocker to join the Red Cross Society.

A splendid report was given in regard to the progress, in collecting a mile of pennies for the Maternity Home.

A pleasant social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. IDA D. MYERS.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB OPEN MEETING

GLENDALE RED CROSS

AUXILIARY TO LOS ANGELES CHAPTER FORMED AT MEETING THURSDAY EVENING

The High School auditorium, Time, 8 p. m. April 4. Occasion, organizing the Glendale auxiliary to the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross society.

On the stage were Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president of the Federated P.-T. Association of Glendale; Miss M. E. Scott, secretary Los Angeles Chapter American Red Cross Society; Rev. T. F. McCrea; Mr. A. West, Red Cross organizer; Rev. Vernon W. Cowart, Pastor Baptist church; Mr. A. T. Cowan, vice-president Chamber of Commerce, and the chairman, Rev. Dr. C. Irving Mills, rector St. Mark's Episcopal church.

After prayer by Rev. Cowart, the chairman, Dr. Mills, stated that Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, was prevented by illness from attending.

It had been decided to have a Red Cross auxiliary in every Episcopal church, but he thought it best to include the whole City of Glendale. So a few met at the house of Mrs. Hutchinson and arranged for this mass meeting.

He called upon Mr. A. T. Cowan, vice-president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, who said, in substance, there has not been any time in my life when the name Red Cross had greater meaning than during the past few weeks. We realize our responsibility to Glendale and to the United States. The Chamber of Commerce stands for THE PEOPLE AT WORK—the people of the entire City of Glendale. If not already at work, they now have the opportunity to work. Such an organization encourages work to aid those needing a helping hand.

I take great pleasure in noting in this audience several people who oppose war; but now that the war is imminent, they are here to add their help and support. We need the enthusiasm that will bring financial aid. As representing the Chamber of Commerce, standing for the people at work, I feel assured that Glendale will not be found wanting.

Mrs. Hutchinson, president of the Glendale P.-T. Association, said:

"I would not be true to the P.-T. A. were I not interested in the Red Cross. I might as well try to extol the work of The Master, Himself, as that of the Red Cross. Its button means help and mercy. At the time of the dreadful San Francisco calamity, our school children gave up their lunches that the relief train might be loaded sooner, and start to feed the destitute.

"There was great trouble because this coast had no organized Red Cross. I do not speak for war, which I do not believe can come—for the Peacemaker's sake it will not. But in case of fire, flood—any great calamity, the Red Cross is the thing. Yet, if war must come, the Red Cross will be ready. Our P.-T. A. stands for up-lift, and merciful help—either in peace or war."

Mr. McCrea told what good things the Red Cross had done in China when millions were starving from neglect of the Chinese government.

Before that timely help, the Chinese people were very bitter against the Americans—their minds had been poisoned. But now they are for us. They would go into this war under our leadership. They remember those 80,000 bags of American flour brought on the American relief boat, the Buford. It arrived in time to save millions of destitute Chinese men, women and children. It made China our friend. Now the call comes to help our own boys who must go to the front. If we did so much for far-away China, what should we not do for our very own at home—or in case of war, for the sick or wounded of our own blood, whether friend or foe, at home or abroad?"

Miss Margaret S. Scott, looking over the tensely interested audience, said with a smile that would cheer the wounded in a tent, or the dying on the field of battle: "I am more than glad to be here. I feel sure Glendale will win another banner to hang on her High School wall—the prize for enlisting the largest number of auxiliary recruits to the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Red Cross society, the humanitarian arm of the government, in peace or war."

"Did the Good Samaritan withhold his help because the wounded man by the roadside was a Jew? Did the great-hearted Knights Hospitallers stay their merciful hands because the sick or dying were infidel or pagan? Did Jesus, the Master Healer, ask if the leper were Gentile, Israelite, Greek or Roman?"

FIRST AND ALL THE TIME FOR THE UNITED STATES

The management of the Evening News would be pleased to have it clearly understood that The Evening News stands first and all the time for the just rights of citizens of the United States. At a time when there were controversies between countries of foreign lands, the Evening News was slow to take sides and did not prefer to do so, but now when it comes to trouble existing between the United States and another country, the Evening News has only the interests of the United States to consider. The Evening News is pleased to see the United States flag everywhere unfurled, and there is further pleasure in knowing that all the people, regardless of political faith and previous nationality, are rallying to the support of the best government upon which the sun ever shone.

40 MILLION ACRES OF RECLAIMED LAND READY FOR SETTLERS

Forty million acres of barren land in the west are waiting to be converted into prosperous farms, according to the Reclamation Service of the Interior Department to-day. Soon modern irrigation canals will dot these wastes, supplied by the Reclamation Service from the fund obtained by sale of public lands in semi-arid sections. Since the service was established 1,500,000 acres of land have been reclaimed and 1,000,000 of those acres are producing crops that will help bring down the high cost of living. Homes have been established on these lands by 30,000 families, and even thriving cities and railroad centers have sprung up where barren wastes existed.

Projects now under way or completed embrace approximately 3,000,000 acres of irrigable land, divided into 60,000 farms. The net investment thus far is about $100,000,000. In some cases the Reclamation Service even controls its own reservoirs and coal mines for the people who have moved to the opened territory. This instance is illustrated at Williston, North Dakota, where such a mine has been maintained for five years without the loss of a life. Telephone lines, lighting and heating plants and other public service means are likewise maintained by the Government for the benefit of the settlers.

WOMEN CAN RENDER SERVICE TO NATION

Without going beyond their own dooryards millions of American women can render real service to the nation. This service is as real as that rendered by the soldier on the field of battle. It is to plant and care for the little plot of land that lies back of the house—to make a home garden.

One million dooryard gardens planted in our suburbs and cities this spring would mean a national saving of possibly $50,000,000, a sum as large as that which President McKinley was given by Congress for the prosecution of the Spanish-American war. Growing vegetables for home consumption in these gardens would relieve the railroads of the necessity of carrying millions of pounds of bulky freight, thus releasing thousands of cars and engines for hauling men and munitions.

Our experts have calculated that an average American family uses about 20 bushels of potatoes a year. It does not take but a fraction of an acre to produce this quantity of this important food-stuff, since a fair yield of this crop is 200 bushels in a season, and it is not uncommon for potatoes to run to 400 or more bushels per acre.

Radishes, lettuce, early beets, beans, peas, tomatoes, spinach, and numerous easily cultivated vegetables can be raised in the back yard provided the soil is fertile and intelligence is employed in the process. There is no reason in the world why 3,000,000 back yard gardens should not be planted this spring, planted as soon as the ground is warm enough, and supply 3,000,000 families with good, cheap, nutritious foods all this summer, war or no war.

The hitherto wasted resource of our dooryard land should be utilized at once. It is no more work for a woman to tend a vegetable garden than it is to tend a flower garden or a house plant. At present it is more patriotic to subordinate flowers to food.

SOCIALIST PARTY MAY SPLIT

A split in the Socialist party ranks over the question of America's entrance into the war may be caused at the convention in St. Louis to-day by eleven men heretofore prominent in Socialist councils, who have issued a manifesto supporting President Wilson's course against Germany, even to the point of war.

Charles Edward Russell, writer and socialist leader, was one of the signers.

"A few weeks ago," Russell said, "the executive committee of the Socialist party issued a manifesto purporting to declare that a majority of the members of the party opposed war with Germany. A minority of the party has now joined in a manifesto setting forth our belief that the executive committee's declaration is a betrayal of democracy; that is far from representing the belief of all socialists, and that, on the contrary, socialists should support the President against Germany and should condemn in every possible way, Germany's course in the war.

Among the signers to this manifesto are: J. G. Phelps Stokes, William English Walling, Upton Sinclair, Charlotte Perkins Gillman, William J. Ghent, Leroy Scott, R. W. Bruere, William L. Stoddard, Walter E. Kruesi and his wife, Charlotte Kimball Kruesi, and myself."

GLENDALE W. C. T. U.

The Glendale W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Sherer, 106 W. Broadway. The officers for the present year, beginning April 1st, are: president, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart; vice-president, Mrs. Mary L. Moore; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jennie Mottern; recording secretary, Mrs. Louise Morton; treasurer, Mrs. Nannie Palmer; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Mary L. Moore; Y. P. B. secretary, Mrs. Katherine Rowe; and L. T. L. secretary, Mrs. Fannie Brooks. The vice-presidents appointed from the various churches are: Adventist, Mrs. Annie Frank; Baptist, Mrs. V. H. Cowser; Congregational, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke; First Methodist, Mrs. Laura Marsh; Christian, Miss Mary Chester; Presbyterian, Mrs. J. F. Chandler; First Lutheran, Mrs. John Esterly. The Department Superintendent will be announced at the next meeting.

The County Convention will convene at Whittier April 25th, 26th and 27th, and will be held in the beautiful new Friends Church. The carfare will be 75 cents, return trip. The sun will rise at 5:35 a. m. and the service will begin just on time.

The best place to see and hear will be on the hills on the east side of the rock. The speakers will face the rising sun.

Parking for automobiles will be provided along the sides of the boulevard east of the city limits. No cars will be permitted inside the fencing enclosure, the rock or the golf grounds.

Miss Agnes Scott of Los Angeles was the guest over night Friday of Miss Mabel Eckles of 1125 North Central avenue.

Mrs. Thomas Meagher and daughter Geraldine of Tenth street are spending the week end with friends at Ocean Park.

Miss Mabel Eckles spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Los Angeles, as the guest of her friend, Miss Agnes Scott of 1085 West 38th street, Los Angeles.

Mrs. H. E. Adams, mother of Mrs. A. L. Weaver, has gone to Riverside to attend Easter services on Mt. Roubidoux. Mrs. Adams will remain a week or two in the orange blossom belt.

Chapter B. A. of P. E. O., held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Weaver, Friday morning. A very interesting paper on California wild flowers was given by Mrs. Madeline Kelly.

Mrs. R. T. Burr and children, Charles and Genevieve, of 823 Campbell street, have been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Delano, at Lindsay, Cal., and will arrive home this evening.

The Young People's Societies of Glendale and Tropico will hold a sunrise Easter service on the first hill of Mt. Verdugo at 5:30 Sunday morning. Rev. Cole of the Christian church will be the speaker.

Kilborn's Grocery, 1601 Vine St., was one firm to be hit by the war. The meat cutter, John Railsback, who is a member of the naval reserves, was summoned to the colors last night and went at once.

David Hicks and Clifford Van Os-doll are wearing the victors' laurels since Wednesday. The boys went up into the foothills on a little camping excursion and their trip was featured by an encounter with a big rattlesnake. However, a shot from the trusty rifle soon dispatched the reptile, which on closer examination, proved to be four feet in length and possessed of six rattles and a button.

Earl X. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Price Brown of 147 South Louise street, is another high school senior who will leave his last year of school unfinished to answer his country's call. He is a member of the Twenty-first Company of Coast Artillery Corps, N. G. C., which company is at present waiting orders. The high school seniors in many cities are being granted or guaranteed their diplomas if called into service before graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Glenn, who have resided on West Colorado boulevard the past winter and who will leave for their Ashland, Oregon, home in about a week, are guests of Mrs. D. H. Imler and Miss Cora Hickman at Park Villa for the remainder of their stay in Glendale. Miss Margaret Bowers of Los Angeles was a guest at Park Villa on Friday and to-day, and she as well as the Glenns are former Indiana friends of Mrs. Imler and Miss Hickman and their father, James B. Hickman.

The "at home" given by the Young People's Society of the First Baptist church, in the parlors of the church, Thursday evening, proved a most enjoyable occasion for all present. A very interesting program was given under the direction of Miss Evelyn Kent, chairman of the social committee, consisting of several largely original and very clever sketches, readings and music. An informal reception followed the program and dainty refreshments were served, all present voting the members of the Young People's Society' delightful hosts and hostesses.

Mrs. Frank W. Chambers of 860 South Glendale avenue, and son and daughter, Sidney and Frances, took a trip Wednesday afternoon over to the Southwest Museum at Garvanza, near Sycamore Grove, spending a very interesting afternoon in viewing the exhibits. The museum is open to the public every afternoon in the year, and so many and interesting are the exhibits that it is impossible to see them all in one afternoon. Among the many things of interest noted by Mrs. Chambers were the Colonial furniture and dishes, a wonderful exhibit of eggs and sea shells, and the fine arts exhibit, including many Chinese and Japanese pieces of art. The exhibits are mostly from South American and the Western States.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stanley Yeamans of 122 South Central avenue and their daughter, Mrs. Edith L. Braswell and her son, Horace, moved from Glendale Thursday into Los Angeles. Mr. Yeamans will leave for Hawaii in a week or two, where he goes to establish an office, and will remain there for the rest of 1917 and possibly all of 1918. Mrs. Yeamans and Mrs. Braswell and son expect to leave Los Angeles in about six weeks to join Mr. Yeamans in Hawaii. Their departure from Glendale will be generally regretted by their friends here and in Los Angeles and all hope that their sojourn in the island will be a pleasant one and that they will decide to return again to Glendale to make their home. They have leased their home on Central avenue for a year.

IN OVERLAND TO IDYLLWILD

Mrs. Louise Purnell, Mrs. Cilas Appenfelder, Mrs. Mable Hutchings and Mr. Tom Morgan have returned from their trip to Idyllwild in the San Jacinto mountains, having had a very delightful trip in Mrs. Purnell's 85-4 Overland. The Overland was the first car to go over the road from Keen camp to Idyllwild since the season closed. The road is a narrow one and there are some stiff grades. After leaving Keen camp the party passed through snow, finding it in places 3 feet deep. After enjoying their luncheon at Idyllwild the party started down grade on the wagon road and found it very rough and dangerous. Arriving at the foot of the grade, they stopped long enough to take a long breath, thankful that they were out of it; then went on to Palm canyon, which they found too warm for comfort. Returning, the party drove through Yucaipa valley, following the San Gorgonio river, then going over the mountain to Oak Glen. They were a tired but happy party when they reached home. Mrs. Purnell is especially pleased with the work of her Overland, as she had no car trouble whatever.

GARDEN SOCIETY DOES BIG WORK

A largely attended and highly enthusiastic meeting of the Glendale Garden Society was held Thursday evening in the library of the Third street school. The activities fostered by the society during the past few weeks were touched upon by various members. Mr. G. W. Henderson spoke about the free agricultural classes held every evening for one week at 1111 W. Broadway, so interesting and educational that he attended every night, and hopes that at no distant date arrangements can be made to resume these adult home gardening classes. The free floral exhibit held during the Christian Endeavor week was described by Mr. Francis Henry, especially the educational value of the wild flowers, all labeled, and explained by experts to the constant stream of visitors. In this connection, the society also maintained a free rest room for the benefit of strangers.

The two free stereopticon lectures arranged by the society were also mentioned. The first one, by David Curry, on Yosemite Valley, brought out a crowd of 200 Glendale residents. The second lecture, by Eugene Grubb, the Colorado Potato King, was delivered at the High School, by kind arrangement with Professor Moyses, and was attended by about 100 adults and between three and four hundred High School pupils and faculty. The survey of vacant lots made by the Bird and Flower club, a junior department of the Garden Society, showed over thirty different kinds of wild flowers in abundant bloom during the month of March. The decoration of one window of the Chamber of Commerce room with beautiful flowers is another civic enterprise of the society. Mr. Church, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, came early to the meeting to personally voice his appreciation of the good work done by the ladies.

A very interesting discussion was held upon the advisability of originating children's open-air vegetable markets, in order to encourage young people in the raising and marketing of home garden produce. Full mention of this most important step, which has been heartily supported by Miss Helen White, special agricultural teacher, and Mr. Richardson White, supervising principal of the Glendale Grammar schools, will be found in a special article to appear on Monday. Mrs. G. W. Henderson.

son, Mr. Frank Thomas, Mr. Francis Henry, Mr. Faries and others, made most valuable suggestions along this line.

A treat, never before enjoyed by the Glendale public, was afforded by Mr. Edward Scovelle, artist and traveler, who spoke upon the wonders of the Indian jungles. Beginning with an account of the tea plantations, the natives and overseers, he followed with an intimate description of the rajahs, their palaces, their prescribed powers, and their wonderful jewels. Then on to the jungles, where poisoned snakes lurk in beautiful orchids, where gorgeous birds and butterflies abound, where the hooded cobra and other terrible reptiles lie in wait for the defenseless animal and unwary traveler. Couched in vivid language and surrounded with an atmosphere of personal acquaintance and true artistic appreciation, Mr. Scovelle's talk was listened to with intense interest and rapt attention. Many were the expressions of regret when he closed his wonderful talk, and on every hand came requests for more, and more, and yet more. With charming friendliness, Mr. Scovelle has kindly consented to come again, to talk upon the Hawaiian Islands, where he resided for eight years in order to paint the volcanoes. Announcement will be made later of this coming event.

EASTER BALL

What promises to be one of the most delightful social affairs of the season is an Easter ball to be given by Sidney Simons and Vincent Salmacia at the Masonic Temple on Friday evening, the thirteenth, for which invitations are now being issued. The music will be furnished by the well-known Howdy Band, consisting of four pieces, including one of the most accomplished saxophone players in Southern California. The hostesses will be Mrs. V. Price Brown, Mrs. A. W. Beach and Mrs. D. H. Smith.

G. & M. RAILWAY ASKS FRANCHISE IN EAGLE ROCK

At the meeting of the Eagle Rock Board of Trustees Monday night, R. L. McNitt, acting as attorney for the Glendale and Montrose Railway, petitioned the board for a franchise for a right of way over Colorado boulevard from their present line to the lot on the west side of the alley, now known as the feedyard property. He stated that all the company wanted was a way to get across the south part of the street and onto their own property, which they recently purchased from Dr. A. S. Johnson. It was further stated that the company proposed to erect a very attractive and modern passenger station on their lot next to the alley, and keep all cars and freight at least thirty feet south of the front line of all their property.

SPECIAL CAR SERVICE

The Glendale & Montrose Railway are arranging for special service on their Eagle Rock line to accommodate those who wish to attend the sunrise-Easter service on Eagle Rock to-morrow morning. Beginning at 4:30 a. m. and continuing every fifteen minutes thereafter until the crowd is cared for, cars will leave Glendale for Eagle Rock. The usual fare of 5 cents will prevail. There will be 5 cent auto service also from the end of the car line to the rock.

GLENDALE RED CROSS

(Continued from Page One) war remembered or loved as is Florence Nightingale, the tender ministrant to friend or foe? In our own Civil War, many may be admired for gallant deeds, but who is loved like our own Clara Barton, the ministering angel to the wounded—gray or blue alike?

"Up to a year ago, the United States was at the foot of the list of nations in her number of Red Cross recruits. Not now, though Germany has her million or more, and little Japan boasts of nearly two millions, our own beloved country sees the Stars and Stripes wave over nearly five million Red Cross devotees—a vast army of practical peacemakers even in time of active service in war.

"The Los Angeles chapter which you are asked to join has nearly ten thousand, and you will probably raise it far above that number. But only the best can go into active service, under the strict requirements for ability, training and character. The Red Cross badge is a guaranty of personal distinction. Those who have seen the Red Cross woman at work on the battlefield, or in the seething waters of the dreadful Dayton flood, know that badge was bravely won and nobly worn.

"Thousands of sufferers in our great forest fires will long remember and bless the Red Cross rescuers who came in the dire hour of need. So will those thousands of helpless ones in the wake of the great tidal wave which swept over Galveston, Texas, within the memory of most who are here. In the greatest of mine disasters, where every miner was killed, the Red Cross helpers cared for the destitute women and children; not as paupers only, but found them employment—helping them to help themselves.

"In the terrible shirt-waist factory fire, what would many of the multitude of sufferers done but for the timely and tender Red Cross helpers?"

"In the face of threatened war, we want to do all that can be done at the earliest possible hour to prevent calamity—to save our brave soldiers from needless sickness and suffering, by preparing in time for whatever may come.

"All over the country the women are sewing, making things that will be needed somewhere, whether in peace or in war. The supply always falls short of the demand for men workers also. The Red Cross army of workers needs almost as many men as women.

"Saturday, April 14, is set apart as Red Cross Day in Los Angeles. There will be a great parade, music, and speeches at Central Park, where will be set a model Red Cross encampment, showing all details, except actual ministrations to sick and wounded."

The chair appointed as a committee to nominate officers of the Glendale auxiliary, Ezra F. Parker, merchant; Walt LeNoir Church, secretary Glendale Chamber of Commerce, and Alexander Mitchell, receiver of the Los Angeles U. S. Land Office.

The committee retired to do its work, and soon returned, reporting the following nominations:

President, John Hyde Braly; vice-presidents, Dr. C. Irving Mills, Ezra F. Parker, John R. White, Mrs. Mat-tison B. Jones, A. T. Cowan, secretary, Mabel Franklin Ocker, 200 South Central, phone 918-J; treasurer, F. H. Vesper.

Executive committee—John Hyde Braly, Rev. T. J. McCrea, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, A. T. Cowan, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker.

All these were unanimously elected.

While the nominating committee was out, Mr. West, accredited organizer of the American Red Cross society, told about details of organization, and referred to the facts and instructions given in the widely circulated leaflet, "What Is the American Red Cross?" He asked the very significant question: I wonder why there are no Red Cross revivals, as well as White Cross, or other religious revivals? He suggested that one was in order now in Glendale. The large audience seemed to think the point well taken. Mr. West further said we should get over our selfish views. Of the many boys going to the front, our own sons or neighbors may be among the sick or wounded. Don't let our soldier boys feel that the dear ones left behind will be neglected in their time of need. The deeply aroused American spirit may prevent the war; but in any event, the Red Cross organization will be a good thing—a preparation for any calamity which brings ruin and suffering on many people.

The drug stores and the banks in Glendale will have receipts to give you for your contributions. All can give $1. Every family should take the Red Cross Magazine, to know what is being done all over the world by the Red Cross workers, among whom will be many of our friends and neighbors. Cost, $2.

It was decided that the Board of Directors should consist of the presidents of all the secular societies and associations in Glendale, if members of the Red Cross society; or some member substituted by the president of each society.
