GEORGIA ELECTIONS.

On the 7th inst., an election was held in the state of corgin for eight representatives to Congress. The tections was thy districts for the first time, the state having been districted by the last Legislature. The reog been districted by the last Legislature. The re-reserved by pasterday's mail are meagre enough, and inconclusive of the result. The Columbus whig seper—due since Saturday—did not arrive, and we got withing whatever from Savamesh. We have received are Augusta papers, and one locofice paper from Co-cubius. The latter contains reported returns from several countries, rather favorable on the whole to the motories—they are, however, but reports, we give them of what they are worth—
