April 22nd, 1943.

Mrs. Mable Cornell,
Cornell Road,
Westport, Mass.

Dear Madam,

Just to-day in going over some letters that had been put away we found your letter with four coins in and must apologize for the delay in answering. The coins are only worth their face value and we are therefore returning them herewith. The small copper coin is Turkish and of very small value about half a cent. We do not issue a catalogue giving the value of coins.

Coins returned: Small Turkish copper,
1849 half dime,
1857 and 1901 cents

Yours very truly,
