Student Life . . .

Students have a good time in gameroom playing pool and getting away from the stress.

Small puppy brings big smiles to Elon students.

Even the Fightin' Christian likes our band.

Many students have licenses that display the pride at Elon.

Bikes at Elon have become the popular way to get around campus.

Getting a little crazy now and then happens to the best of us.

Wicked West

West Residence Hall allowed the Residence Hall Association and Student Union Board to feature something new this year — WICKED WEST. West dormitory was transformed into a haunted house that was fun and spooky. While people were inside screaming, others came out shaken up. On the way up the stairs, people would jump out at you. On the third floor, they featured an operating table prepared for patients. When it was all over, everyone was able to go to the second floor to have refreshments and bob for apples. All had fun!

Students took time out of their busy schedules to make creepy decorations to hang around the haunted house. Some found spooky masks, while others hung a sign displaying what was to come.

Homecoming 1989

First runner-up was Susan Koser representing Kappa Sigma. Susan is a junior from Gaithersburg, MD, and a member of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Sheri Geer, a member and representative of Alpha Sigma Alpha, was third runner-up. Sheri is a senior from Monroe, NC.

Eleanor Finger was fourth runner-up representing Kappa Alpha. A member of Zeta Tau Alpha, she is a senior from Charlottesville, VA.

The queen competition was based on results in the skit, carnival and float events, plus a campus-wide vote.

Heroic Theme

"Heroes" was the theme for Elon's Homecoming 1989. Many alumni returned to campus during the weekend, excited to see old friends and "Ole Elon." And homecoming also marked the first win of the season for the Fightin' Christian football team as they defeated Gardner Webb.

The heroes theme brought out many inspiring thoughts and dreams to the organizations that participated.

Organizations selected heroes that ranged from astronauts to mailmen to parents and children. Some organizations even picked super heroes, mascots, and famous brothers.

This theme allowed all to feel and know anyone can become a hero, as long as you believe.

It's a Family Affair

Parents Weekend was on September 29, 30, and October 1. This Parents Weekend was different from any other. Elon had a Southern pig pickin' instead of the dance at the Burlington Country Club. It was a success. Many families had a good time together eating, drinking, and getting old-time photos taken.

Parents still had the opportunity to walk around campus, look at the sculpture exhibit, and meet with professors.

The talent show was the highlight of the weekend for many parents and children. The emcee was comical and the acts entertaining.

A Pause That Refreshes

College Coffee is an event that happens every Thursday morning between 9:30 and 10:00. This time enables students, faculty, administration, and staff to spend time with one another.

Maureen Dougherty, Director of Student Activities, is in charge of College Coffee. She says that it is more developed this year. The coffees are "more programmatic" since most deal with a theme — such as, international, study abroad, blood drives, and political. According to Dougherty, they "take themes that have a national, local, and college concern."

People should look forward to these coffees since they are a great way to spend time out of the classroom.

Mindy, Lara Lee, and Tara enjoy hot chocolate, coke, and a chance to say hello.

Happy Holidays from Elon

Every holiday season is started out with the luminaries in front of Alamance. This tree and sidewalk lighting attracts both Elon students and the community.

ROTC sets up the luminaries every year, showing the Christmas spirit, so everyone can enjoy this night at Elon.

This year WGH Piedmont aired the event on the 11:00 p.m. show. The Rev. Richard McBride led the audience in song while musicians played. Carols were sung by the audience and hot chocolate was served to warm everyone up.

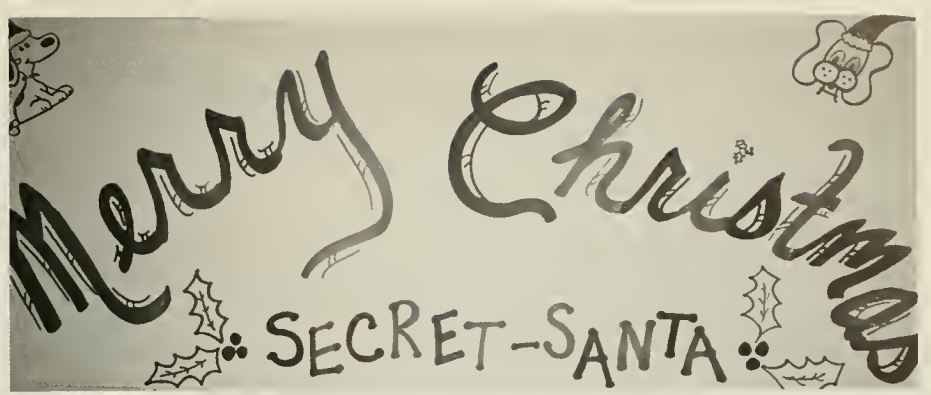

Mark Pruett begins the afternoon by setting up the luminaries for "Christmas at Elon."

Setting the mood, these musicians played a wide variety of holiday music. Although it was cold, everyone kept their spirits high.

The Christmas holiday is displayed through lighting of candles, secret santas, and children enjoying the magic of it all.

Drinking hot chocolate, singing, and being with friends are what the season is all about.

The Rev. Richard McBride leads the participants in the festivities.

Octoberfest at its Best

Octoberfest was held on Oct. 7 at the Fine Arts Patio. It was a time to get a team together to compete for the various prizes and have fun doing it.

The Wacky IMs finished first and received a $300 gift certificate to split between the six of them. They were Darren Lavin, Dawn Pearson, Will Monahan, Sean Convoy, Kevin Christmas, and Barkue Tubman.

Y'Alright team received a $75 gift certificate to The Cutting Board for placing second. That team consisted of Bob Moran, Ed Boswell, John Delaney, Jim Morran, Burt Re-pine, and Gray West.

In third place was the Honorable Six who received a $35 gift certificate to The Back Door. They were Kevin Barton, John Hoover, John Henwood, Toby Drysdale, Erik Townsend, and Dan Eastwood.

One team gathers together to plot their strategy for the next event.

Two Student Union Board officials tally the scores and call them into WSOE which broadcast Octoberfest over the air.

Arts at Elon

Elon's Fine Arts Center has been growing ever since its beginning in 1987. The building has made it possible for Elon to host a variety of cultural events. These events range from student productions to speakers that the Liberal Arts Forum sponsors.

Elon's Fine Arts building is "home" for the Music, Communication, and Drama departments.

The music students are able to get away and work in the practice rooms while communication students use the television production studio.

Both departments have played host to a number of productions. This fall, South Pacific was featured by drama students and the Art Department. Communication students direct shows ranging from open forums on controversial topics to the College Bowl.

The building gives students the chance to work in all the art styles from paint to clay to voice and video. The Fine Arts Center strives to offer a diverse mix of the arts to Elon students, faculty, and the surrounding community.

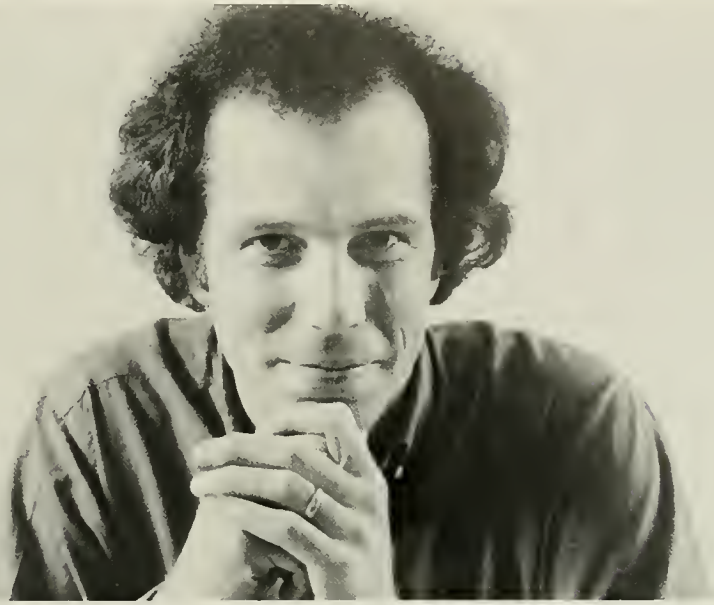

Peter Burchell from the Cousteau Society was one of the many speakers the Liberal Arts Forum brought to campus.

Sculptures

The Fine Arts building has been a showcase for local artists and students alike. The Tri-State Sculptures Exhibition was displayed this year during most of the fall.

This collection of works from sculptures in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia showed a wide variety of techniques, styles, materials, and ideas, according to Mike Sanford. Mike Sanford is both an exhibition coordinator and art professor at Elon.

Also in the fall, a student art show was held at Baxter House. This sparked an over-whelming student interest with over 200 entries. Kirsten Stump along with Michael Gaffigan helped to make this student show possible. Students plan to have more shows like this one in the near future.

The Fine Arts Center has a bright future ahead with the new and intense interest in art among students and others alike.

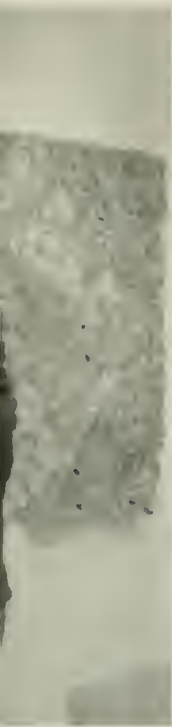

ORPHIC DREAM by William McCullough is a sculpture students and faculty voted on to be displayed permanently in front of the Fine Arts building.

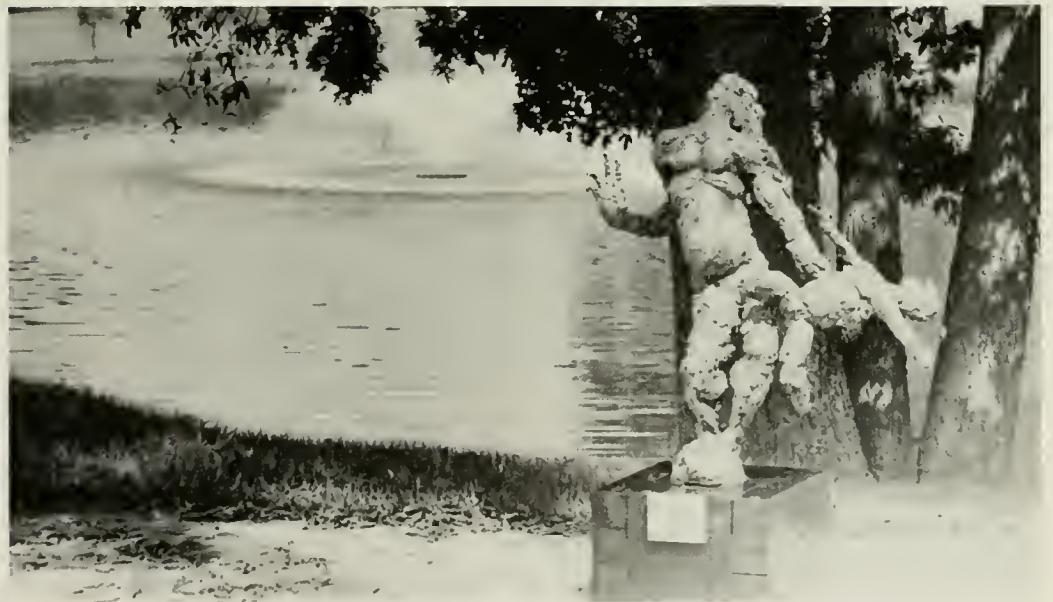

COKE TALES, by Hunter Levinsohn, was one of the popular sculptures here during the exhibit.

Spark Interest

A student admires and studies a fiber exhibit in the Isabella Cannon Room. Cannon's room was one of the places that we could catch a glimpse of the different artists' work.

Many students were not sure what to make of this piece of art. This was displayed in one of the main corridors and is entitled THE OFFERING, by Richard Montgomery.

A sculpture with a powerful message . . . MATERNAL WOMAN AS THE AMAZON FOREST WITH HER DESTRUCTIVE CHILD — MANKIND, a statement about the environment today. This work was also with the Tri-State Sculpture series by M.A. Johnson.

Finishing Touches

More than meets the eye

Clockwise: Mike Lawlor, a music major is just going with the rhythm. Harper Lake is always a soothing sight when looking from the Fine Arts Center. Beth works diligently to get her ceramics project to its perfect finish.

The arts at Elon are becoming more vibrant every year. The various programs offered have expanded due to a larger enrollment and more student interest and involvement.

New additions to the building include, an organ to the main auditorium and ORPHIC DREAM sculpture to the front of the building.

Elon's constant strive for excellence is apparent on the walls and in the air of the Fine Arts Center.

Places

When students have a big exam or a project due — where do they go to study and get their work done? After getting any needed information from the library, most students decide to go back to their rooms. "I've got everything I need right there," stated one student. Some other study spots around Elon's campus are; the library (the main floor for "social" studying and the basement for "serious" studying), second floor Alamance, the lounges around campus, and even the soundproof rooms in the Fine Arts Center and WSOE (Elon's radio station). If you've got that term paper to write or that major exam to study for, the best thing to do is lock yourself in your room, make some coffee, and unplug the telephone. Sometimes this is the only way you can get your work done!

"What's the quadratic equation?" Guy Gemmill pours over his math homework in hopes of getting a good grade.

to Study

"I like to study best in my room," says Ted Atwell. "Now that I live in an apartment off campus, I still study in my room. I put some headphones on and start reading."

Leah Beth Gingerich takes a few minutes between classes to look over her notes in the commuter lounge in Long Student Center. This lounge offers off-campus students a place to relax and grab a cup of coffee.

George Rainey finds some peace and quiet on the banister at Hook Residence Hall. Decked out in his tie-dye shirt and shoeless, Rainey displays a true Elon scene. In this relaxed position, Rainey seems absorbed in his reading material.

Dedication

Elon prides itself on dedication to excellence. The diverse faculty and student body make Elon special. The faculties' dedication and interest in students are aspects of Elon's academics that sets it apart from other schools. The ability to know the professors helps students to communicate with their professors more.

One program, still fairly new at Elon, is the Elon Teaching Fellows. And this year the Leadership Fellows was added. This program strives to draw students with strong leadership skills to Elon's campus. Elon's continuing growth, positive outlook, and dedication among students and faculty will bring the college into the nineties with great potential for the future.

Studying by the fountain can be a great way to gather one's thoughts.

Many students find that getting together in study groups is a good way to toss around new ideas. Some students prefer "study buddies" while others prefer studying alone.

Days Off

Above: "The times they are a changin' . . ." and Bob Dylan wasn't kidding. Today it's not surprising to see a student glued in front of a computer in his room. Right: Students can watch helpful movies or a comedy in the Learning Resources center.

If you need help in math, biology, English, or Spanish students can head to the LRC for tutoring help.

Not Just Note

College academics is not just notebooks and pens . . . it includes, among other things, lab work, internships, study abroad, and tutoring in the Learning Resources Center.

Elon offers internships in all majors which can include television and radio stations, museums and parks, and on-campus work study.

The LRC, the writing center, and Career Services are all places students can go to get some extra help or some advice with papers, projects, or finding the right job.

Elon also offers Job Fairs throughout the year. These fairs allow students to get a jump on interviewing, have resumes finished, and meet with companies that pertain to their field.

Computer labs are readily available to Elon students, and they are located in Alamance and Mooney buildings. Each lab boasts more than 30 computers.

There are a number of ways that students can get ahead at Elon since there are many opportunities available to them. The education we are receiving at Elon will help us greatly when we are ready to tackle the "real world."

Communications majors have the chance to "study" on state of the art equipment.

Books and Pens

STUDY-TRAVEL

The European Experience

LONDON

From London to the rest of Europe, traveling abroad is the way to go. Either going for a semester or just for winter term, England is a fantastic way to see everything. The groups travelled to Dover, Oxford, Stonehenge, Stratford-Upon-Avon, and the Roman Baths. Other countries included Scotland and Holland.

The semester in England involves a lot more travelling — one can go to Paris, Munich, Barcelona, Rome, Athens, and even Berlin. Many fall semester students flew to Berlin and got a piece of the Berlin Wall — Gina Finelli says, "it was incredible, to be able to be there exactly one month after the wall first was cracked . . . what joy and spirit we all felt that day we became part of history as we chipped pieces off the wall."

There is so much to do and see in Europe, no one should let this opportunity of a semester or winter term fly by them.

Elon Goes on the Road

COSTA RICA

When 16 Elon students headed to Costa Rica with Dr. Chalmers Brumbaugh, a political science professor, and Dr. Ernest Lunsford, a spanish professor, they never realized they were embarking on a fantastic trip. This group was in Costa Rica during it's Presidential Campaign. The group was able to take part in briefings at the Costa Rican Foreign Ministry and U.S. Embassy. The students attended classes and were able to hear outside speakers. The group also got to take in the San Jose night life, daily excursions, a mountain trip, and the Caribbean coast. These students also had the pleasure in spending a month living with Cosa Rican families.

HABITAT

Habitat for Humanity has steadily grown in the last few years. This year Rev. McBride along with Beth Lyons took 11 students on a working trip to South Carolina and Americus Georgia. The group worked well together, learning to trust each other and enjoy the work they were doing. Before the trip was over, they called themselves the "Habitat Bunch." Motto: "The Theology of The Hammer."

ALOHA HAWAII

One of the newest programs Elon offers in the study-travel is a trip to Hawaii. The group of 12 students and Dr. Rao and Dr. Sissom, both biology professors, went to Laie, Hawaii. The students got to take part in biology seminars and also learned a lot about the Polynesian culture. They visited the Waikiki aquarium and Pearl Harbor. Some students also went on day hikes in the Wai Mea Falls Park.

"MOUNTAIN VOICES"

During the first summer session, Dr. Hood and 11 students lived in a lodge at the Blue Ridge mountains and worked with the U.S. Forest Service. They cleared trails and built shelters for handicapped access. Dr. Hood had his students study Appalachian culture. The group shared ideas while Dr. Hood shared his ability to play music. According to Dr. Hood, "... There was a connection between the students and what they studied that couldn't have come without the work, without getting their hands dirty."

Bridging for Peace

RUSSIA

This year Elon's jazz ensemble, The Emanons, went to Russia to perform and tour with Dr. Lennis and President Fred Young. The group toured in Prague, Leningrad, Kiev, and Czechoslovakia. Band member Mike Foster says, "Although we were in a communist country so far from home, it's amazing to see that the way people relate to each other is generally the same."

Elon student Rob Hughes and Elon professor Ernest Lunsford, were two of 20 people from North Carolina to take part in the program US-USSR Bridges for Peace, during the fall semester. They traveled to Moscow and other cities, talking and meeting with Soviets.

On May 19, 1990 — Dr. David Crowe will be taking a group to Russia and Hungary for approximately one month.

Climbing to the Top Organizations

WSOE

WSOE, 89.3 on the FM dial, Elon's radio station. WSOE reaches approximately 8000 folks in a 25-miles radius. Such things that appear on this station are news, service announcements, open forums, and of course — music!

"If it weren't for college radio stations like WSOE, such bands as REM and the Psychedelic Furs wouldn't be as popular as they are today," says one fan. Station manager is Ben Kaiser.

Colonnades

Colonnades is Elon's literary magazine. Throughout the year, Colonnades receives submissions from faculty, staff, and students including fiction, poems, photography and art. Prizes are awarded for each category for first, second, and third place. Honorable mentions are also given to good pieces of work that didn't place. Colonnades is the creative outlet for artists of all kinds. The editor-in-chief is Mindy Schneeberger.

Steve Davis, Trevor Oxenham, Nick Whiting, Meredith Hoffman, Wilma Dixon, Rosemary Haskell (advisor), Lara Lee Marshall, April Caraft, Karen Slotke, Chandra Crawford, Kim Beane, Mindy Schneeberger.

Meg Yost, Felicia Massey (adviser), Marie Milliken, Cathy Miller, Linda Adamson, Katie Holmes, Katie Mafko, Scott Lansing.

Phi Psi Cli

Phi Psi Cli is Elon's yearbook. The yearbook staff works hard all year to take photos, write copy, and layout pages. The yearbook tries to capture as much history as possible into 192 pages. When the staff has a deadline to meet, which there are four of, you can find them tucked away in the Yearbook Office in Long Student Center. Linda Adamson is editor-in-chief of the Phi Psi Cli.

The Pendulum

The Pendulum, Elon's weekly newspaper, has made some changes this year. It has had themes or headline issues portrayed in most of its papers, and many of the copies have been 12 pages long. The staff has been working incredibly hard this year. Stories are not only provided by the staff but also by students in journalism classes. The paper's editor-in-chief is Mindy Schneeberger.

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi is the prestigious national honor society of Elon College. The requirements to be nominated into Alpha Chi are difficult, thus making it more exclusive. After becoming a junior and acquiring a 3.67 grade point average, you can be nominated and voted in by the faculty. Initiations are twice a year — once in the fall and once in the spring.

Alpha Chi members are proposing a tutoring program for functionally illiterate adults from the Alamance Community College and Elon College area. They would be tutoring adults with reading problems.

BBB

Beta Beta Beta is a biology honor society. Our Sigma Mu chapter of BBB is not only a national honor society, but is also part of a professional society for undergraduates interested in biology and research. The organizations sponsor various events throughout the year.

Greg Zaiser, Linda Weavil, Karen Lalonde, William long

ODK

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national leadership honor society that recognizes members of the college who attain a high standard of efficiency in one or more collegiate activities. Each year members are tapped and given ribbons to wear symbolizing to others that they are going to become a member. This is indeed a high honor to receive.

Phi Alpha Theta

Phi Alpha Theta is the established honor society for those interested in history. Eligibility into the society includes the completion of 12 hours of history courses with at least a 3.0 accumulation in these courses. One must also have a 3.0 grade point average overall.

Phi Alpha Theta sponsored a paper contest this year, with a 100-dollar prize for the best paper (ten page minimum) on a history theme. Students, as well as faculty, are involved in the judging as a way to learn more about history through others' views. Phi Alpha Theta also sponsored a book sale this year.

Construction Company

Have you noticed a certain group of women who spend long hours at East Gym Dance Studio parading around in leotards? They are Elon's dance ensemble called the Construction Company. Approximately 25 individuals are selected from auditions held each semester to prepare for the two major performances held each academic year.

The company, made up of student and guest choreographers, performs jazz, ballet, tap and modern dance to a variety of music ranging from top 40 to jazz to classical.

Besides getting an excellent workout, this group of dancers display their extraordinary talents for the Elon community.

Elon College Gospel Choir

No need to audition for this singing group, but there is one requirement — you must love to sing!

In its beginning, Elon College Gospel Choir competed, but now, it performs mainly for the fun of it with the exception of a few command performances.

The choir sings gospel music while representing Elon at concerts in Alamance County, Burlington, and the area. And their voices have also harmonized in Maryland, New York, and Georgia.

The group plans to let their voices echo to the depths of Florida, and it hopes to hold a gospel music festival at Elon for choirs from area colleges.

Showband

For Elon's home football games, we get to enjoy the music of the Elon College Showband. Just as the people in the stands go crazy when we score a touchdown or get a field goal, the band kicks into action and leads us in our "fight" song.

Participants in the regular band are automatically in the Showband. Starting at the Fine Arts Center to load the instruments, playing at the games, then hauling the equipment back to Elon are some of the duties the Showband must shoulder.

For those interested but not in the regular band, a talk with the director and an interest in having fun while participating for an audience is all that's required. The hours of practice is another aspect of the responsibilities involved, but playing fun songs like "Louie, Louie" makes it more enjoyable. Positive audience feedback encourages the musicians and everybody has a good time at the games!

Alpha Psi Omega

The most visible part of the theatre is the performance, but that is only one small part. Alpha Psi Omega explores all aspects of theatre, from production design to backstage work. Participants in the group do not have to be on stage but they must support the arts. Attending meetings as well as recitals and productions are part of the job.

This is the perfect chance for students to experiment with their talents and get valuable experience under their belts. Student-directed one-act plays are performed in Whitley Auditorium from time to time. The chance to direct, as well as write and perform in these plays, teaches the students a lot of responsibility.

This group is very new but also very talented. Having a good time exploring their talents with friends and being able to exchange new ideas is a large part of the arts.

ESA

A new sorority has chartered on the Elon College campus — Epsilon Sigma Alpha. This is an international service and leadership organization that chartered in November of 1989.

This is the first year ESA opened at the collegiate level and Elon is the second college to charter in North Carolina. Elon's chapter has the highest membership of any ESA chapter with 52 members making up the charter class.

Anyone is welcome — no pledge period, since this is a learning period for all. The by-laws are the first on the agenda and are quickly being worked out so the sorority can get to work on raising money for philanthropies.

The original founders of Epsilon Sigma Alpha adopted Easter Seals and St. Jude's Hospital for the international philanthropies. Elon's chapter will be supporting them as well as others. These will include organizations such as Elon's Home for Children.

AKPsi

The career advancing honor society, Alpha Kappa Psi, is comprised of the top businessmen and women of Elon College. Our chapter at Elon is associated with other Alpha Kappa Psi's around the nation.

The requirements to become a member are: you must be a business major with at least a 2.5 grade point average and you must have completed one semester of college.

The privileges of this honor society are the opportunities the students are given: to go on tours of companies seeing all aspects of working for the business; hear honorable speakers from top corporations; and becoming more acquainted with seasoned executives. The connections made and doors opened through membership with Alpha Kappa Psi prepare you for the real world of business.

Accounting Society

Elon's top accounting students were being eliminated from the consideration lists right after the first of two interviews. They had learned just as much as students from other colleges and universities, so why the degradation of Elon's best? They had not been taught the correct interviewing procedure, according to Robert Lynch an accounting student.

There are six big firms that heir accountants and other colleges and universities accounting societies to invite their representatives to "sell" their firm to the students. Until halfway through the fall of 1989, Elon students were missing out on valuable information.

The accounting majors became a society so they could compete and make the connections that they were previously missing.

The society brings in pros from the field to find out what it's really like in the "real world." The office politics, the correct questions to ask, and the correct responses are all very necessary techniques to learn and are not taught at Elon. Professors support the society because they, too, realize that a real job and on hands experience cannot be taught in college.

NCSL

The North Carolina State Legislature of Elon College is an educational group that gets to experience government and all of its inner workings. This state organization of colleges around North Carolina learn parliamentary procedure and debate techniques.

NCSL keeps in contact with the North Carolina General Assembly. NCSL puts together resolutions, deals, and laws and takes them to the North Carolina General Assembly to be passed. The most recent law passed, with the most impact on colleges, was the acceptance of condom machines on campuses around the state. This law brought much recognition to the group.

NCSL is the first student-run organization and the first student legislature. Part of the privileges of belonging to such a group is the opportunity to meet such a wide variety of political leaders. The connections made and hands-on experience gained make this group even more special.

Pershing Rifles

Pershing Rifles is a national society. Although, aside from being a national society, Elon's group is elite. The brothers in this military fraternity are experts in such things as land navigation and drill and ceremony. Both men and women are able to pledge Pershing Rifles.

This fraternity is a great experience since it promotes both scholarship and brotherhood support. It also helps out greatly in training the brothers for camp and military life.

Our Pershing Rifles group is very involved at Elon. They set up blood drives; do food drives for Meal-on-Wheels; do the color guard ceremony at football games; arrange the luminaries at Christmas time; participated in a drill ceremony for Elon's 100th anniversary play; and raised the flag when the new Town Hall was opened.

Jon Southworth was the Commanding Officer (C.O.) for the year '89 and Holly Bell is the new C.O. for the schoolyear '90. Their advisor is Captain Lester Coleman.

Bacchus

If you are interested in boosting alcohol awareness concerning the health of students, Bacchus is the group for you!

These students work hard all year long to implement programs in the residence halls and around the campus and community. Theme weeks have been established to the program moving: National Collegiate Awareness Week and Drug Awareness Week.

Bacchus is forming a designated driver organization and is working to get that program established and well used on campus. Bacchus members are making the Elon community more aware than they have been.

S.U.B.

The Student Union Board, better known as SUB, is a major programming force for the college campus. SUB is a student operated organization filled with exciting, fun, and motivated people.

SUB held some incredible events this year. Who can forget hypnotist James Mapes; the music videos; Spring Break in Cozumel, Mexico; the movie "Dead Poets Society"; and Spring Fling '90?

Leadin SUB this year were Jim Bush, president; Bridget Murray, vice president; Marti Blythe, secretary; Kathy Burger, treasurer; Sharon Paul, contemporary music; Rob Whiteside, stage performances; Jeanette Jurkiewicz, outings and expeditions; Chris Bower, special events; Chuck Schultz, films and video; Mark Zolkowski, publicity; and Maureen Dougherty, advisor.

The events SUB sponsored this year have been some of Elon's best. The organization's motto: "If it feels good, SUB did it" has come to life. Stay tuned until next year . . .

ISA

The International Student Association is comprised of American students as well as international students. The international students come from South America, Asia, Africa, and Europe. This group of 50 active members meets to discuss issues and plan activities.

ISA formed so the many international students could find a way to make the transition more comfortable and become more acquainted with their surroundings. Trips all over North Carolina are arranged, such as ski trips and cookouts.

Activities with other international students around the Triad area have opened more opportunities for travel. American students are welcome to join ISA and learn about other countries as well as help plan activities. Each semester Elon College is treated to an international breakfast at College Coffee and given a chance to meet more students from other countries.

Many students came to Elon because they had attended high school in America, others saw advertisements and used this opportunity to explore other countries and cultures.

The Liberal Arts Forum is the organization that is responsible for bringing us the guest speakers who stimulate our minds and open our eyes to other aspects and ideas of interest.

These students work very hard all year long. They spend hours brainstorming on different speakers, just as they can choose who will be best for Elon students. Setting up people for symposium conferences throughout the year include political figures like Senator Dole.

Choosing a speaker can get very frustrating since everyone in The Liberal Arts Forum has different interests and concerns, however, this enables the group to get a variety of speakers. Guest speakers include environmentalists, businessmen, and sociologists. There is something offered for everyone throughout the school year.

Discover Fellowship

If you're a laid back person, enjoy meeting people, and do nothing but sit around your room on Sunday mornings — the Discover Fellowship organization is the group for you.

Discover Fellowship was established through the United Church of Christ located on Williamson Avenue across from Elon. Every Sunday morning there is a church study group that discusses various information and finds new topics in Religion. On Sunday nights there is a dinner open for all students.

Discover Fellowship works with Habitat for Humanity. Some students even participated in Habitat's Winter Term trip to Sumpter, SC and Americus, GA.

If you are interested in joining this group contact Rev. Richard McBride. Beth Lyons is their advisor.

Peace Group

The Peace Group of Elon is an extraordinary bunch. This group helps to foster awareness of different issues in the world; for example, Nicaragua, the Oxfam for hunger, and crop walk. They also increase consciousness on special class issues and will work with EARTHDAY/EARTHWEEK 1990 on April 16-22.

As a group, Peace Group has speakers come to campus, has presentations to increase student awareness, and has a fasting period during Thanksgiving.

Joining this group is quite simple. All you need is a lot of enthusiasm and an interest in developing awareness in yourself and other students and faculty.

Freshman Teaching Fellows

The Freshman Teaching Fellows have it a lot harder than the typical freshman. They not only have to deal with being away from home, roommates, and college life — but also the extra hard classes and hours required to complete the Teaching Fellows' first year.

These men and women will go on to become a teacher in the state of North Carolina for at least four years of their lives. This does not seem to be such a hard bargain for a full ride at Elon. During their college life here, the Teaching Fellows are able to travel to London for a semester, tutor others, and work at a local Elementary school. This experience enables the Teaching Fellows to become well-rounded and experienced in their field of study.

Sophomore Teaching Fellows

Who are the students wearing the black sweatshirts with huge green ETF letters? They are the Elon Teaching Fellows. In the program's second year at Elon, these students come here on full paid state supported education scholarships for four years.

Trips to educational institutions, such as The School of Math and Science are some of the activities of a teaching fellow. Most sophomores in this program will go to London in the spring semester to have chance at studying abroad.

Summer requirements for second year students are to attend one of the many workshops or go on a trip that will be both educational and fun. These summer sessions are anywhere from a week to two months, depending on the course.

The Teaching Fellows are discussing tutoring workshops for Burlington and Alamance County schools, which may also go into effect as a requirement.

After graduation, the Teaching Fellows are required to teach in a North Carolina public school for four years as a way to "pay back" the state for the education they received while at Elon College.

AEP

The National Broadcasting Society Alpha Epsilon Rho, is a Fellowship of men and women dedicated to performing excellence in radio and television. This new and growing honor society sponsors and produces audio and visual events for Elon College and the community. They raise money for their National Philanthropic Tourettes Syndrome, by planning the acquisition of a radio station and running it to profit the philanthropy.

Their official objectives are to encourage and reward scholarship and accomplishments among broadcasting students. To establish meaningful relations between student and professional broadcasters and to foster integrity in the youth of the powerful instruments of radio, television, and film are their goals.

EC Republicans

The Elon College Republicans promote the ideals and theologies of the Republican Party. The "off years" or years no election is held are pretty slow. However, on the years when an election is held the action really gets going for this group.

This group helps out during campaigns and fundraisers for the party and is able to learn a great deal through this hands-on experience. Meeting candidates and shaking hands with high-ranking officials is just part of the fun.

If you like politics, you will definitely find this very exciting. Participating in campaign rallies is also fun. The 1990s hope to be an exciting time for the EC Republicans as the congressmen and senators are elected.

Stage Crew is one of the seven committees of the Student Union Board. The 'Crew' handles bringing comedians, ventriloquists, magicians and similar acts to Elon. Members are involved in all phases of the performance from selection to booking to the actual performance. Some of the acts this year included: Lyn and Friends, Anthony Clark, The Riot Act, Beatrice Berry, Don Reed, Jordon Brady and James Maples. "SUB — If it feels good, we did it."

SGA

The Student Government Association is comprised of the three executive officers, an office secretary, 11 class officers, and 23 senators at large. These students are involved in projects, which they deem as being important. Most of these projects are student oriented; however, some reach out into the Elon and World communities.

The major emphasis of the fall term was split between two key issues. Our first focus is student discontentment toward current visitation policies and what the Student Government Association could do about this discontent. Secondly, another major concern was Elon College's responsibility toward the environment and the college's effort to create a recycling program. Both of these issues are being addressed by the administration, which should produce some results by the spring.

We were also concerned with the education of the Elon student, as to how much knowledge they received about school issues. One way we are trying to heighten issue awareness is through biweekly forums. These forums consist of prominent and knowledgeable speakers who address pressing issues which are important to students and at times, the Elon community.

It is also necessary to mention the involvement of other groups in the mechanics of Student Government Association operations. Without the cooperation and assistance of specialized groups, such as L.O.C.K and ENACT, our progress would have suffered.

The spring seems to be a time of promise at Elon and the Student Government Association hopes to be at the head of this move, by keeping its promise to represent and serve the students.

Sincerely,

Ed Boswell

RHA

Residence Hall Association, RHA, is a recognized campus organization which provides various types of programs and socials for students who live on campus.

Our RHA chapter is also a member of South Atlantic Affiliate of Colleges and Universities Residence Halls (S.A.A.C.U.R.H.) and North Carolina Association of Residence Halls (NCARH).

In October, a group of Elon RHA's went to Roanoke, Virginia, for the regional conference and others attended a conference in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Some of the programs that RHA sponsored this year were: the Dating Game, the Haunted House in West, the second annual semi-formal "A Night on the Town," Death by Chocolate, and an ice cream social in Harper Center.

Habitat For Humanity

The Elon College campus chapter of Habitat for Humanity began in the Spring of 1989. Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit housing organization that works in partnership with God's people in need to improve the conditions in which they live and to provide simple, decent housing. Since the start, noted speakers such as former President Jimmy Carter and Mayor Andrew Young of Atlanta have spoken on campus about Habitat for Humanity.

This past fall Elon's campus chapter took on a project called "Home for the Holidays". Students not only worked on the renovation of a home but raised money for construction materials. Habitat sold "Gobble Grams" to raise money for the "Home for the Holidays" project. Friendly "Dear Turkey" messages were delivered by a bird dressed for the occasion.

During the 1990 Winter Term, Habitat for Humanity sent a van full of 10 students and Chaplain Richard McBride to South Carolina to help build houses and view the destruction caused by Hurricane Hugo. The group also worked at Habitat for Humanity International Headquarters in Americus, Georgia. They experienced first hand how the organization runs and worked with other volunteers from around the U.S.

Elon's campus chapter of Habitat for Humanity hopes to build new relationships and a sense of community as well as new houses.

LaCrosse

The Elon LaCrosse Club has taken pride and excellence in the school and the sport of LaCrosse for the last 12 years. Over the past 12 years the Elon LaCrosse Club has played such powerhouse clubs as: VMI, Duke, Georgia, USC, Clemson, UNC, NC State, ECU, Wake Forest, Maryland, and the Citadel. "We feel that we have developed a good, constructive activity here at Elon College. We support a team of 30 players," says team member Scott Stewart.

Since the establishment of the team in 1976, a new enthusiastic fever has been spreading through the Elon student body. The students seem to love this fast-moving, hard-hitting, fast-action sport. The sport of LaCrosse is rapidly growing in North Carolina and hopefully will continue to grow, especially at Elon.

"A Decade of Growth,

Campus Life

Elon prides itself in providing many opportunities for student growth and development outside of the classroom environment — Campus Life!!

At Elon, the philosophy of student development is using the wellness model. This is where students make their own life choices — setting goals and achieving them.

The Office of Student Affairs is also an important part of campus life. This department is not only responsible for bringing activities to campus but being able to make each student feel at home and to be their own person.

In 1989, Elon put a Wellness Resource Center in Chandler Residence Hall. Here, students can find books and magazines on health and wellness topics. Also in 1989, a new student organization called BE WELL (Boost Elon Wellness: Education, Living, Learning) began to offer programs on wellness topics. The dining halls have contributed by beginning a nutritional program called, "Treat Yourself Right." This program educated students on the food they eat.

Elon's campus life has grown rapidly in the 1980s and hopefully will continue to grow in the 1990s. Students can find many things on campus to interest them and to get involved in. Elon has 16 intramural sports; nine intercollegiate sports; social, service, and honor fraternities; and over 50 other organizations ranging from College Bowl to the Elon College Gospel Choir. Getting involved is the best way a student can learn and grow in his or her college life!

Academic Life

Academics are very important to many students at Elon. The Academic Advising Center serves students who are undecided about their major. The center assists students in planning their schedules and helping them make the best academic use of each semester. Each student is assigned to an academic advisor and each student should utilize his or her advisor about any questions, comments, or concerns they may have.

In the past decade, Elon's courses and degrees have grown immensely. The faculty's size has increased to about 200, teaching over 31 major fields and offering a master of business administration and in 1986, a master of education degree. New buildings, such as the Fine Arts, and complexes like the Powell Tennis Courts have made it possible for students to expand along with the college.

Elon now offers many travel study programs, including: England, Mexico, Costa Rica, Hawaii, Israel, and Russia. These programs allow students to have the opportunity to travel, study, and have a good time.

In Memory

Billy, Barney, Fred ... the Campus Pet

Billy, Barney, Fred ... he had a thousand names and an entire campus of owners. Billy became a campus pet more than a year ago and remained so until his tragic death in February.

Although he could be seen anywhere on campus, Billy frequented the Varsity Grille. Stated one student, "I looked forward to going to the Grille in the morning and sharing breakfast with Billy."

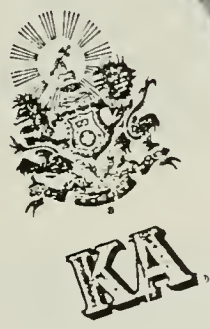

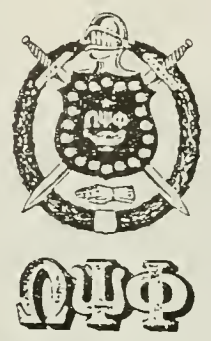

Another hangout of Billy's was the Fonville Fountain. On pretty days you could find him sitting on the edge of the fountain being admired by students between classes. If it rained, Billy always had shelter in someone's room.

On February 16, Billy was killed while attempting to cross the street near the gym. The news spread quickly and the campus grieved. Students cried, others remembered the good times they had shared with him, and some professors cancelled classes.

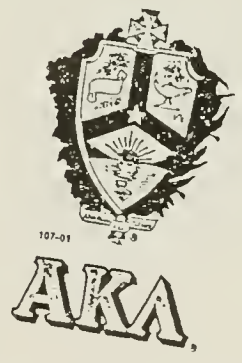

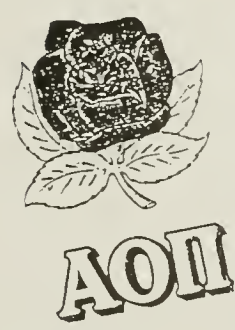

Billy will always be remembered as a part of Elon College. As one student commented, "Elon won't be the same without Billy ... he was the true campus pet." Goodbye Billy.

GREEK

Greeks Serve the Community

Sure Greeks can party a lot . . . but not all the time. In fact, contrary to popular belief, their main purpose is for community service and their philanthropy.

Greeks help out by delivering Meals On Wheels, volunteer at the homeless shelter, or tutor at the Elon Homes For Children. Many participate in the Big Brother or Big Sister program and dedicate time to Special Olympics.

Each organization supports a philanthropy such as the American Cancer Society or the United Way, helping to raise money for these causes.

Other activities are designed to benefit others in the community, such as car washes and T-shirt and doughnut sales. Adopting-a-highway has also become very popular.

All activities are a great way to bring the organizations together to have fun while helping good causes.

“Organizations will do almost anything to support their philanthropy.”

Raising between six and seven thousand dollars for the American Cancer Society, the brothers of Kappa Sigma seesawed continuously for nine days.

More Than Meetings

"Just playing around," says Cheri Brown of Alpha Sigma Alpha as she plays on the tires at the playground.

Everyone needs a break from those hectic schedules, and sororities are no different. What better way to relax and spend some "fun time" with your sisters. Whether it's a party or a night out on the town, sorority sisters enjoy life together.

Meetings are many and sometimes very, very long. The time comes when everyone just has to get out, play, and act a little crazy.

Burlington is not very big so the sisters get creative. Toga and other dress parties are interesting ways to make a party more mysterious — waiting to see what everyone will wear. When Elon becomes confining, sororities go in search of other fun places. The playground and bowling alleys are great escapes and great fun.

The friendship that is formed between sisters and brothers is unsurpassed by anything else. The good times and the bad, the hard work, dedication, sweat, tears, laughter, and love is all part of being a Greek. That special bond is always something to cheer about.

Out and About

Having fun together is what Greek life is all about.

It could be a friendly game of football, a competitive intramural game of volleyball or just hanging out together . . . it's the being together that counts.

Greek contribute to all aspects of Elon College by participating in lots of other organizations, such as honor societies and the media, and even working at local restaurants or admissions. "I loved my entire college experience," says one sorority alumnae — "But it is the time I spent with my sisters that is most vivid in my mind."

Greek Housing

The fall of 1989 brought the beginning and opening of the "Greek Row" (six houses). After months of construction and anticipation, four fraternities and two sororities were selected as recipients for the new lodges. The groups are ZTA, AOPi, Sigma Pi, Sigma Chi, Kappa Sig, and Sig Ep.

Other Greeks received new housing also. Tri-Sig moved to Haggard Ave.; Alpha Sig into a sixteen-person suite; AKL into an eight-man suite; and Phi Mu kept the same house.

Everyone, however, has mixed feelings about Greek Row. The housing has a lot of potential and makes Elon comparable to other colleges and universities. But the drawbacks are "no privacy", and "you can't study too well." There are also a lot of distractions due to the business.

The lodges have added a lot to Greek life at Elon. It has made it easier for Greeks to get together more often and get to know each other. One Greek said it was great, because "You feel like you're in the middle of everything."

Sigma Phi Epsilons unload their car to move into their new house on Greek Row.

These new houses await the arrival of their Greek residence. The "Greek Row" is ready to shine.

Fourteen Greek females disassociate themselves from their sorority during Winter Term so they can become rush counselors during the Spring Formal Rush. After applying and being interviewed, two women from each sorority are selected. The reason for disassociating themselves from their organization is so they can help non-greek women obtain unbiased help in choosing an organization during rush.

Not being able to wear Greek letters or participate in any activities with their sorority is not fun and games for the counselors. But many say it is worth the sacrifice to help women find an organization in which they feel comfortable. These women are not counselors to promote their particular organization but to promote the entire Greek System as a whole.

A Tradition of Excellence

In the beginning of the year, Elon hoped to have a good season. This hope not only became a reality, but the Fightin' Christians played in two National Tournament games. Sophomore John Wadsworth, freshman Steve Winston, and junior Donnie Brown all helped the team immensely with batting averages of .412, .400, and .389, respectively. This helped the team finish 21-2 in the district, 16-2 in the Carolina Conference, and 36-9 overall.

Leading the team were seniors Chris Cole (pitcher), Mark Nocera, and the 89-90 team captain Scott Lesmes. Chris Cole was only four wins short of breaking the school record, and according to Coach Rick Jones, he was the leader of the pitching staff.

The team was also successful with the help of Dave Crouse, Scott Miller, and Mike Kennedy, who all had the highest RBI's on the team. With an extremely good year behind them, the Fightin' Christians of Baseball can get psyched for an even better season next year.

“Catch” the Spirit of Elon Softball

Who said success was measured by the number of victories. This ball club improved greatly over the course of the year, winning six of their last 10 games. Leading the team with four homeruns, outfielder Angie Padon was definite offensive force for the Fightin' Christians.

Elon was a great fitting team with a total batting average of .336 and scoring 150 runs. Elon's overall record was 10-19, while in the SAC-8, the Fightin' Christians were 2-10. Elon may not have been a powerful team in this conference, but that was last year. The team is young and should improve and be a mighty powerhouse in the SAC-8 this year.

“The team was a very enthusiastic bunch, and had a lot of fun. We are looking forward to starting a new season in a fast pitch league.”

Elon's Finest

The Men's Tennis team almost made it a clean sweep with an over-all record of 17 wins and 2 loses. This outstanding record took them all the way to national competition. But to get to the National Tournament in Kansas City, they had to first win the District and Carolina Championships . . . which they did. They went on to win seventh place in 1989 Nationals — Way to Go!!

Elon Can Match Anyone

The Elon College Women's Tennis team began its year early in the fall with intense conditioning under the supervision of Coach Jackie Myers. The young Elon team, comprised of freshman, sophomores, and juniors, slowly began to pull things together in the fall, and grab a couple of unexpected wins.

In the spring of this year, the team suffered dreadful weather conditions, and thus, had to resort to indoor practices at Old Forest Raquet Club — the local courts near Elon College. From this extra playing time indoors, the team experienced an incredible increase in individual play. Amy Richardson led the team playing the number one position. She finished with an over-all record of 11 and 11. Go Christians! Following Richardson in the line-up was another sophomore — Coleen Kirk. Her over-all record finished up at 13-11. Therefore, Kirk and Richardson made up the number one doubles position for the Lady Christians. Following them were junior Mary Henson and transfer Cathy Meyers. Henson, filling the number three position finished the year with a 12-10 record; and with doubles partner Meyers, finished at 13-7. The rest of the team finals were: Victoria Karukas (14-6), Robyn Evers (12-7), Beth Joyce (1-2), and Jane Frye (5-4). The Christians over-all conference record was 8-1.

Getting Back on Track

The Men's Soccer team had a really good year. Their overall record was 6-8-2. Mike Venezia, Jeff Cabot, and Hunter Fitts contributed a great amount to the soccer team with their numerous goals. With these three men leading the team on offense, how could Elon help but have a good year!! But let's not forget how important a goal keeper is to any great soccer team. Elon had two talented goal keepers they could always depend on — Todd Hudson and John Brill. In 16 games, Todd Hudson had had 54 saves and four shut outs. John Brill also had an outstanding season. Elon has a lot of potential with their eight freshman and seven sophomores . . . we're looking forward to many dynamic seasons to come.

Getting a "Kick" Out of Soccer

The Lady Christians started off slow at the beginning of the season — but then got it together in time to shut St. Andrews out in the District play-offs. These women played their hearts out all year and it began to definitely pay off. Chris Greenspan led the Lady Christians on offense with 15 goals and 8 assists. And on the other end, Lauren Ounjian only let an average of 2 shots a game get by her. The team is still very young on the whole — so we, as fans, are expecting a winning season next year.

STRIVING FOR ACHIEVEMENT

Senior punter Tim Colchin was an effective player on special teams. He averaged 42.2 yards per punt and a long punt of 58 yards.

Well, it was a year of ups and downs for the Fightin' Christians football team. More downs than ups, but nevertheless, there were ups. Elon's team was young on both offense and defense. And it was also Leon Hart's first attempt to tackle the job as coach.

There were two major players that stood out on offense and defense. Senior split end Casey Beathard was the team's offensive leader. On the other side of the line, senior free safety Geno McCree was a major help, leading the team with 96 tackles. Elon's defensive unit improved steadily and was an important asset in several games.

The hard work and determination, accompanied with young talent, combined to reflect improvement on defense and offense. Given a few years, Elon should be strong contenders for the South Atlantic Conference championship and playoff prospects.

Far right: Trying to elude a tackle, freshman tailback Tracy Murphy proved to be a valuable asset as he rushed for 139 yards on 42 carries. Near right: Evading a Lenoir-Rhyne lineman, junior running back Brent Norfleet rushes for a gain of 20 yards.

GENO McCREE

Top: It was a year of shortcomings and downfalls for the fightin' Christians. Although they played hard, Elon could not muster up and give the fans a winning season. Middle: "Rainy days and Saturdays always get me down..." Cold and rainy weather, combined with the loss to Lenoir-Rhyne, caused frustration with the Elon Players. Lady Christians on the Warpath

The Lady Christians ended with a fairly good season. The key player throughout the year was senior Barbara Johnson. She started at forward and was always quick and alert on the court. But as we know, basketball isn't just a one-man game. There are five important parts of the team working together. Jana Silver, center, added to the strength of the team as the second highest scorer. We all know how important it is to get those 2-point baskets, but Courtenay Buchanan, along with Laura Foster and Elizabeth Ward, dazzled the crowds with their field goal 3-pointers. As well as being good shooters, the Lady Christians also excelled in defense. These women finished the year with a final record of 11 wins, 14 losses.

INTENSE . . .

With a record of 19-10 in the 1990 regular season and the knowledge that they will only graduate one senior, the Elon College Men's Basketball team can only be optimistic for next year.

Following the leadership and flash of William Massenburg, the team filled Alumni Gym throughout the year. Massenburg finished his last regular season at Elon with an impressive 23-point game average. Will definitely proved his value to the team with his stats, but it may have been his inspiration which has started this team on its way.

The leadership role now lies with the quick hands, feet and mind of point guard Wes Jones. Wes who dazzles the crowd and surprises his opponents with sharp passes will still be teaching us ball handling skills next year. It only takes one of these passes underneath to see 6'4" Pat Ceasar soar. Not only did Pat crunch a few slams this year, but he also picked up more of a scoring role by improving his game average to 16 points per game.

Another player who is just starting to show his potential is Vernon Thompson. Vernon eased some of the pressure on Massenburg by making opponents fear his accuracy from 3-point land. One had to be weary of Vernon's 15-point average both inside and outside the key.

While these players appear to have locked up starting roles in Elon's future, they should be driven by the intensity and desire of the other rising juniors and sophomores. Players like Anthony Akers, Pat Recio and Len Silvia will be there with their improved skills next year.

Above: Junior Wes Jones pushes his way into a jam to win possession for Elon. Right: Pat Ceasar flouts his inside shot as the second leading scorer for the Christians.

Here is a face recognized by many Elon students — William Massenburg. He was a real crowd-pleaser as he dazzled the fans with his amazing talent.

Head Coach Bob Burton yells out signals to his team as he led them to an overall winning season.

FEATURE ATHLETES

William Massenburg

William attended Wake Forest Rolesville High School. During his high school career, he played point guard on the basketball team. He was named 2A player of the year twice. Furthermore, he received the McDonald's Player of the Week, North Carolina Player of the Year, and was named to the North Carolina East-West All-Star team.

Now at Elon, William is a crowd pleaser at all home basketball games. He was named MVP of the team in 1988, and is working on a second title. He was also named to the All-Conference team, as well as, All-District.

John Wadsworth

John is an all-around athlete. He played football and baseball during high school, and continues to do so while in college. He attended West Carteret High School in Morehead City, N.C. While in high school, he lettered in football and baseball three years. He was named All-East Quarterback, as well as set the record for yardage, touchdowns, completions, and attempts. And in baseball, he set the record for homeruns and stolen bases. Now at Elon, John started at quarterback for 2 years, and has made 2 trips to the NAIA World Series.

The sound of Elon's name is echoing throughout the gym as the cheerleaders and stuntmen get the crowd psyched at the basketball games. And rest assured, those same enthusiastic cheerleaders and stuntmen are there, rain or shine, at all of the football games too! In a year when emphasis was strongly placed on school spirit, Elon cheerleaders excelled. Under the supervision of their advisor, Gina Jones, the squad excited fans with new stunts and ear-catching cheers. Because fans only see the end product, they do not realize how much hard work really goes into those cheers. In fact, a cheerleader practices about two to three hours a day. However, even though practicing these cheers time after time is extremely time consuming, and very exhausting — they still manage to produce a smile throughout every game, and during every over-time. Elon thanks all of you for your time, hard work, and support.

Above: Ted Atwill lifts Ashley Wilkes as they do their own imitation of playing "airplane". Above right: Lisa Perry proves how important it is to be able to depend on your partner. Right: Let's hear it for Mr. "Fightin' Christian" himself ... Yeah!

Bob Corritore (Captain), Randall McFarland (Co-Captain), Ken Seek, Missy Allen, Ted Atwell, Sam Thompson, Darrin Cranfill, Karen Wright, Kerri Hudzinski, Lisa Perry (Captain), Dione Ivey, Ashley Wilkes, Wendy Ellington, Rebecca McCuiston (Co-Captain)

Let's Hear it for School Spirit!

School spirit can be shown in many different ways: painting your face, wearing school colors, cheering loud, or yelling at the referee. But seeing a bunch of people go outside to watch a baseball game when it's about 100 degrees outside — that's true spirit! Way to support your team despite the temperature.

Another Reason for Playing Sports . . .

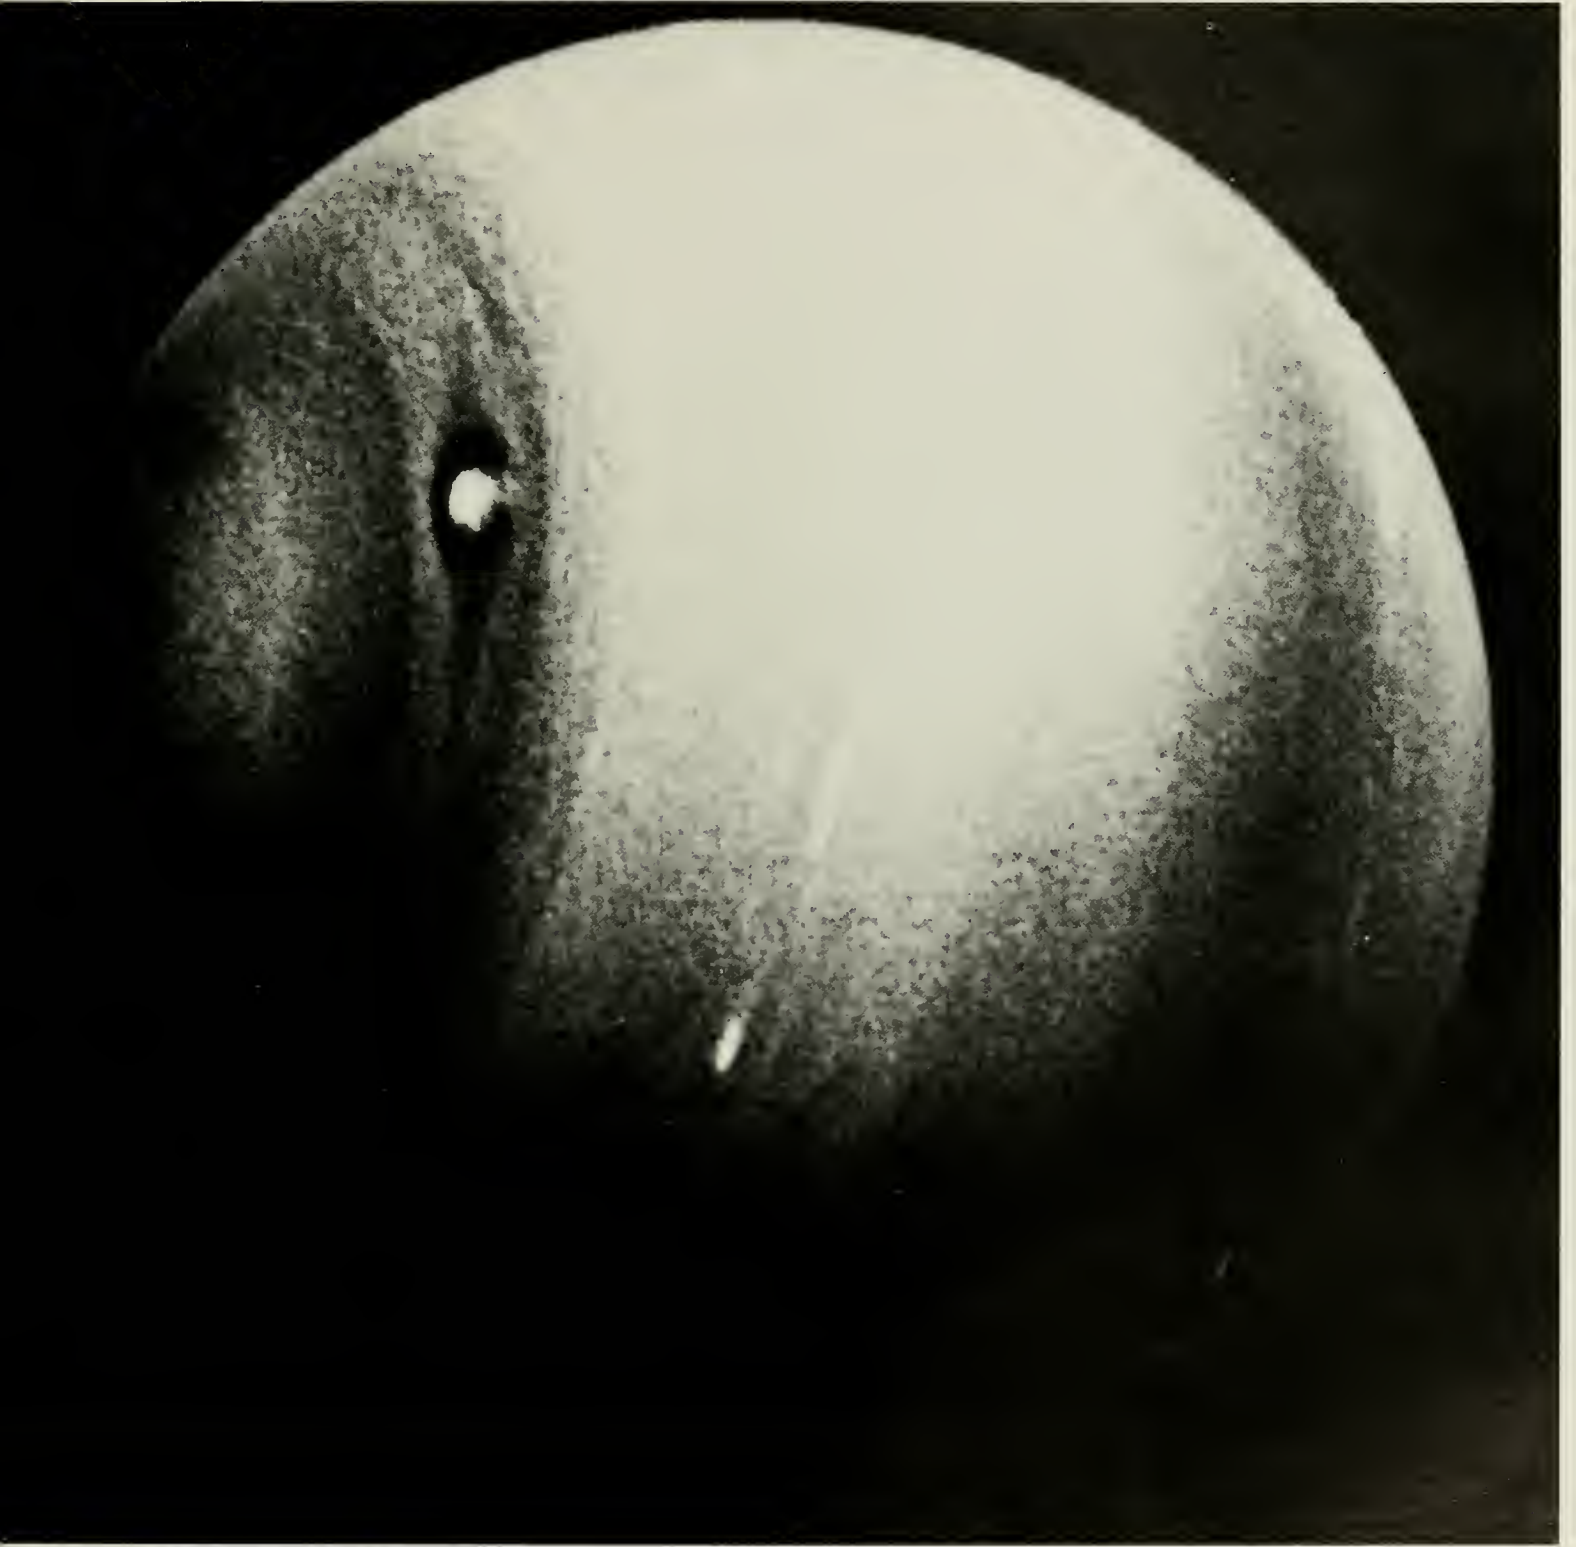

Charity!

Here is a perfect way of using recreation for the good of others. The brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon decided to raise money for Muscular Distrophy by collecting donations for their hundred inning softball game, of charity. These young men started playing early in the morning and finished well after dark. But it was all worth it . . . they raised over $1,000. Congratulations!

Catching A Glimpse Of The World In '89

Voyager capped its historic 4.43-billion-mile, 12-year tour of four planets when it skimmed 3,048 miles over Neptune's north pole in August, then dove past Triton, the planet's largest moon. Voyager was nearly 4.5 billion miles along a curving path that took it from Earth in 1977, past Jupiter in 1979, Saturn in 1981 and Uranus in 1986, and now past Neptune in search of the edge of the solar system.

The American Way

Miss Missouri, Debye Turner, was crowned Miss America 1990 this September. She gives the thumbs-up sign before tearfully walking the runway. Turner is the third black woman to get the crown.

The Supreme Court has limited the power of states to outlaw the desecration of the American flag. Justice William J. Brennan said, "We do not consecrate the flag by punishing its desecration, for in doing so we dilute the freedom that this cherished emblem represents."

Death . . .

Leaving a trail of death and destruction across the Caribbean, Hurricane Hugo smashed into the coastal city of Charleston, South Carolina on September 22, 1989. Hugo's 135-mile-per-hour winds caused more than half a million people to flee and left thousands homeless. Emergency aid of $1.1 billion was approved by Congress, the largest disaster relief package ever.

(Pictured on opposite page) A fiery explosion in a giant gun turret rocked the refitted battleship, U.S.S. Iowa, killing 47 sailors and injuring many others.

(Pictured above) A catastrophic earthquake rocked Northern California, caving in bridges and freeways, igniting fires and causing damage to buildings. The quake registered 6.9 on the Richter scale.

Fire Causes Damage to Student's Home

This was the home of a few Elon students this fall until fire struck one afternoon. Chip Lupo was one of the residents that had clothes and memorable things taken away by the fire. Firemen put the fire out quickly, and then sadly condemned the building. Now, Lupo and others had to find a place to live.

On the Move

Even the workers of Elon get a chance to relax a moment, grab a cup of coffee, and chat with friends.

WSOE workers get the chance to pose for the camera in between classes at College Coffee.

"Now how did this happen?"

Phil Murdock cleans off his bike so he can get a "clean ride."

This guy is ready to spike the ball over the net.

Pendulum Pulled

This year something drastic happened to the school newspaper. The November 9th issue was pulled off the stands because of a disturbing topic — DRUGS. This supposedly occurred because of Visitation Day at Elon. Needless to say, many students and faculty were outraged. This took away our First Amendment Rights — “Freedom of Speech.” The paper was distributed again the following week with the same material, but also included letters of concern. The impact of what happened has faded but the memory and distress of it all still lingers on.

East Campus Opens

East Campus Apartments opened this fall with some major-minor problems. The lake had not been filled and the sidewalks were not completed. There were mice, insects, and dampness in many of the apartments. Some students felt that they were paying too much money for so little comfort. Other students were quite pleased with their housing arrangements. Mostly, they were just happy to get off campus, have their own visitation hours, and cook their own food. “East Campus has a lot of potential,” said one resident.

This year four students got together and made what is now known as "The Morning Show." The show airs every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 7:00am to get the students of Elon out of bed, awake, and ready for their 8:00am classes.

Registration Lines

This year was no different than any other . . . as far as registration goes. The lines seemed longer than ever. New Student ID's were made and car registration went up.

Colonnades Literay Magazine staff is ready to tackle the proof-reading of submissions and the potato chips on the table.
