GREAT MASS MEETING ALMOST SOLID AGAINST ANNEXATION PLAN

BREAKGROUND FOR $50,000 SCHOOL FOR CATHOLICS

Rev. Father O'Neil Declares New Building Will Be '100 Per Cent Glendale'

Ground was broken at 8:30 o'clock this morning by Father James S. O'Neil, parish priest of the Holy Family Catholic church, for the new $50,000 parochial school to be erected on Louise street between Elk street and Lomita avenue, directly across the street from the church.

Permit for the erection of the school and a $15,000 eight-room convent building behind the church was granted to Father O'Neil yesterday by the Right Rev. John Joseph Cantwell, bishop of the Los Angeles diocese.

"It is to be a 100 per cent Glendale institution erected by the Glendale Construction company," said Father O'Neil after the ground-breaking this morning.

Only a group of workmen witnessed the ground-breaking, when Father O'Neil turned the first shovel of ground and offered a prayer for the success of the school.

For Boys and Girls
The school is to be for both boys and girls and there will be instruction in eight grades by Sisters of the Order of Blessed Virgin Mary.

According to plans the Sisters who are to serve on the school faculty will arrive from Dubuque, Iowa, in the summer to prepare for the opening of the school in September.

The Sisters will reside in the new convent building, which is to be ready for their occupancy when they arrive.

MYSTERY SHROUDS ATTACK ON NURSE AT HOSPITAL

Cut on Face With Knife by Man Who Escapes; Suspect Is Held

What is believed by the police to be an attempt to murder a young woman in the nurses' dormitory of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital at 125 North Jackson last night was suddenly halted, but Miss Myrtle Jones, nurse at the hospital, is in bed with her face swathed in bandages and a man who lives about thirty miles from Glendale is in a cell at Fire Station No. 1, under suspicion as her assailant.

Miss Jones occupies a room on the middle of the south side of the first floor of the dormitory building. It contains a large window to the ground a few feet below. About 6 o'clock last night she went to her room and opened the closet door to enter.

"I've got you now," hissed a voice in her ear, as a man grabbed her and snarled a cloth over her head. Trembling with fear, she felt the sharp point of a knife trace its course from the center of her forehead down the side of her face to her left ear.

Unable to scream because of the cloth over her face, Miss Jones could give no alarm until the man had jumped out of the window to the ground a few feet below. He was able to escape.

A few seconds later Miss Jones also jumped out of the window. She was seen by one of the nurses who happened to be crossing the street and taken to the operating room at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. Her wounds were dressed.

The police department was notified. Col. J. D. Fraser, Lieut. Joe Griffin and Detective Sergeant W. J. Royle found Miss Jones in a hysterical condition. For hours she raved continuously going from one spasm of delirium to another. She was unable to tell a coherent story of what had happened.

However, enough information was obtained from nurses acquainted with Miss Jones to establish a motive, the police say, of personal spite and revenge for the assault. Early this morning an arrest was made and a suspect is now being held for investigation. The charge against him is assault with a deadly weapon.

Miss Jones had recovered sufficiently this morning to give a coherent account of the attack. Her wounds are not considered serious, but there is a possibility that she may be disfigured for life.

Uncle John Says--

When anybody is lookin' for a donation of any kind, when money is needed for anything under the sun it's the storekeepers has to shell out. My boy runs a grocery back in Springfield and he says there ain't a day but somebody comes into the store collectin' for this or that, askin' donations for somethin' or other, solicitin' advertisin' for some circular that no one ever sees. And if he don't come across he ain't public-spirited, or all the lodge members will take their trade somewhere else and so on. The business men of a town pay out lots of money this way, a lot of it for the good of the town and a lot of it just plain charity that comes under the name of advertisin'.

So, that's one reason that I tell Mary when she's got any money to spend to spend it in Glendale. We owe it to our home business men.

REFUSE TO SIGN!

The outcome of last night's mass meeting showed very clearly that the people present by a vote of more than fifteen to one are opposed to annexing Glendale to Los Angeles. The gathering, which filled the high school auditorium to overflowing, in no uncertain terms made it known that the annexation "movement" is out of harmony with Glendale's progress.

This being true, it will be nothing less than a WASTE of the people's money to go to the expense of calling an election on the annexation question. To call such an election a petition signed by twenty-five per cent of the registered voters of Glendale must be filed with the city council. The law then compels the council to call the election—the people of Glendale paying the bills.

So large a list of petitioners can be secured only by the aid of the signatures of very many persons who are, at heart, opposed to annexation and would vote against it if brought to an issue at the polls.

Therefore, as a matter of good business and a saving of money for the people of Glendale, VOTERS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO ANNEXATION SHOULD NOT SIGN THE PETITIONS.

Some people sign a petition just to get rid of the person circulating it. That's a poor excuse for an important action. It will prove an EXPENSIVE excuse in this annexation "movement."

To be safe, to save money, to stop this annexation "movement" in the beginning, to rebuke those seeking to deliver Glendale into the hands of Los Angeles, to keep Glendale as "the fastest growing city in America," SIGN NO PETITIONS! It will be impossible for the "annexationists" to secure a sufficient number of signatures forcing the city council to call an election PROVIDED those OPPOSING annexation will REFUSE to sign the petitions, no matter what alluring PROMISES are made by persons circulating the petitions.

Safety first! SIGN NO PETITIONS!

SAY ANNEXATION NOW DEAD ISSUE

Local Realtors Go on Record Against Plan; Nothing In Supporting Project

Glendale real estate men are unanimously against the annexation of Glendale to Los Angeles. If the action taken by thirty-five members of the local Realty Board at a luncheon in the Chamber of Commerce building yesterday reflects their sentiment.

At this meeting, which was presided over by C. D. Thom, president of the realty board, the membership voted to go on record as unalterably opposed to anything that would tend to annex Glendale to Los Angeles.

The resolution to this effect was not drawn up in written form. It was taken up verbally by the membership and was passed unanimously.

E. P. Hayward, secretary of the realty board, said that it was impossible to create a discussion on the annexation question because every member present was bitterly against such a move.

"We couldn't raise a single point that would encourage talk favoring annexation," he said. "As a consequence, we just voted to go on record against the project, and as far as we are concerned, it's a dead issue."

Further, Mr. Hayward stated that the real estate board does not believe that the benefits of annexation as voiced by proponents of the move would ever materialize.

"We are decided," he asserted, "that annexation would never lower the present transportation rates; nor will it obtain any of the other so-called benefits. On top of this we do know that we would be burdened with the bonded indebtedness of Los Angeles.

"All in all, the only thing that can be said for the issue is that it would increase taxes for Glendale residents."

NOT ONE REASON FOR ANNEXATION

Exchange Club Endorses Statement at Luncheon by J. L. Howarth

"There is not a single reason why we should favor annexation to Los Angeles," declared James L. Howarth of 720 East Broadway yesterday noon in the Broadway Inn at the weekly luncheon of the Glendale Exchange club.

This statement was received with applause and endorsed heartily by all members of this association present.

"We would have no advantage from the standpoint of water, light, sewage, or transportation," continued Mr. Howarth. "If we will study all these facts, we will find that there is not a reason in the world why we should join Los Angeles."

Secretary of Labor J. L. Davis, who visited Glendale Monday, considered the idea of annexation ridiculous, according to Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson.

Red Cross Drive

The Red Cross drive was called to the attention of the club by Mrs. Anne Clarke of 818 East Acacia avenue, who expressed her opinion that every red-blooded American should join this organization.

An invitation from the Kiwanis club to join in a community Christmas celebration was received with favor by the Exchange club.

"It will be a very fine thing," asserted Capt. W. B. Kelly of 106 West Broadway. "It will make a lot of kiddies happy."

Preliminary plans for a dinner dance at the Broadway Inn December 6 were announced by George A. Whitaker of 400 East Broadway, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Membership Campaign

The success of a membership drive waged by the Los Angeles Exchange club was commented upon by George M. Lindsey of 706 East Broadway. As captains of rival teams to be selected later Attorney W. C. Anspaugh and Ed N. Radke were selected and requested to formulate plans for an active campaign.

H. J. Spaulding of Long Beach was a guest of G. C. McConnell of 625 East Broadway.

Besides those already mentioned, others present at the luncheon were: C. C. Coghlan, E. W. Jessup, L. H. Block, Ed Smith, W. C. Waring, W. Q. Widows, Fred E. Hoyt, Clyde Creighton, R. E. Johnston, Dr. Theodore P. Nealy, Dr. James A. Belyea, E. B. Sutton and Fred S. Hill.

Aide to de Valera Loses Court Battle

DUBLIN, Nov. 23.—Erskine Childers, chief aide of Eamonn de Valera, in the Irish republican cause, today lost his legal fight against the validity of the free state court which tried and condemned him.

Habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted in Childers' behalf before Master of the Rolls O'Connor in the chancery court.

Although the exact nature of the sentence imposed upon Childers was not known, it was believed generally that he had been sentenced to death, pending affirmation of the verdict by the free state cabinet. When the habeas corpus proceedings were begun Childers' friends said it was "intervention to save his life."

Towards the end of the proceedings a report was printed that the sentence called for deportation of Childers and eight other irregular prisoners, but this was not officially confirmed.

PEOPLE OF GLENDALE SHOW THEY ARE NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH LOS ANGELES PROJECT

This City Has Everything to Lose and Nothing To Gain, Is Pointed Out By Speakers At Big Public Gathering

"Resolved: That it is the sense of this meeting that we are unalterably opposed to the annexation of Glendale to Los Angeles."

Such was the climax of last night's mass meeting in the auditorium of Glendale Union High school.

To bring the discussion to a head, about 10:30 p. m., E. F. Kulp of 1234 Viola street made a motion that Roy L. Kent of 130 South Brand boulevard, who had been elected secretary of the meeting, be instructed to draft a resolution expressing definite opposition to annexation. The motion was seconded by A. T. Cowan, editor and publisher of The Glendale Evening News.

A call for the question was heard immediately. After a slight delay due to discussion, Attorney Mattison B. Jones of 1901 Kenneth road, who presided, called for a standing vote. With a few exceptions the entire audience arose. Even the "annexationists" in the audience were obliged to admit that the demonstration favoring the autonomy of Glendale was quite pronounced. Upon a vote of those opposed to the resolution or favoring annexation about 36 citizens arose.

The meeting was held in and around the high school assembly room. It is reported to have been the best attended mass meeting ever held in this community. Every seat in the auditorium was occupied, as well as several dozen extra folding chairs which were placed in the front of the room.

In addition, the stage was occupied by over a score of taxpayers. Spectators stood in each entrance three or four deep and the room was lined with those who could not obtain seats.

Judge Taft Speaker

Judge Frederick H. Taft of Santa Monica was the principal speaker. He stated that he was absolutely opposed to the annexation of smaller communities to Los Angeles.

"I am so unalterably opposed to annexation," he remarked, "that, if I cannot talk on that side of the question, I shall keep silent."

In definite terms, Judge Taft denounced those who put the dollar mark before the future welfare of their community.

"If we don't rise above the dollar mark," he exclaimed, "we are only fit to become the tail end of some larger organization and let them wag us or not as they please."

Commenting upon the attempt five years ago to annex Santa Monica to Los Angeles, Judge Taft asserted that the leaders in the movement had been those who had been rejected by the city as officials and refused public office and "naturally thought that the community wasn't fit for self-government." Laughter followed from the audience.

Against Improvements

"A good many of those people are still with us," continued Judge Taft, who emphasized the fact that he was speaking about Santa Monica and not Glendale, "and every time we attempt to spend a few dollars or vote a few bonds for the development of the community they are the ones who stop it if they can."

The city of Los Angeles is not in a position to make any promises to communities wishing to annex, according to Judge Taft. He stated that, as a matter of fact, the city officially never made any promises, but that the pledges were all made by the group in Los Angeles favoring the merger.

Speaking about the influence of Sawtelle, Wilmington and San Pedro in Greater Los Angeles, Judge Taft declared that no citizen of these districts had ever held an important office. He stated that there never had been a municipal election in Los Angeles.

"If you ever get anything of a public character that is worth while," he remarked, "you will pay for it."

"You don't need the impulse of Los Angeles to go ahead. YOU ARE THE ADMIRATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA AND THE WORLD BY THE MEANS IN WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN ABLE TO BUILD ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL LITTLE CITIES IN THE CONTINENT YOURSELVES."

San Pedro, which could not afford to finance the improvement of its harbor, had a reason for annexing to Los Angeles, according to Judge Taft. He called attention to the comparative growth of San Pedro and Long Beach which he remarked were about the same size at the time of annexation. He also brought out the fact that Wilmington has been a part of Los Angeles for years.

An enumeration of civic needs in Los Angeles for which bonds must be voted to obtain was made by Judge Taft as follows: A new city hall to cost $4,000,000 or $5,000,000; a new jail and hall of records; a convention hall, which would cost at least a million dollars, about $40,000,000; a school for bonds; a new sewerage system; a new garbage disposal system; two miles of new streets; many miles of new water mains; a number of new police stations; 1500 new street lights, 1700 new fire hydrants.

"It Can't Be Done"

"If you go into Los Angeles with the idea that it has some legerdemain by which can relieve you of taxes, you are simply mistaken—it can't be done!" exclaimed Judge Taft. "If you think you can get any better sewers, (Continued on Page 10)

Denies Discrimination Against Glendale In Making Assessment

"Glendale has not been discriminated against in the assessed valuation of its properties, and rumors in circulation to the contrary are unfounded."

This was the message brought back from Los Angeles last night by a committee appointed by the Glendale Realty Board to investigate the matter with E. Hopkins, county assessor.

The committee included Dr. Jesse A. Russell, James W. Pearson and W. L. Truitt.

"Our decision," Dr. Russell stated this morning, "is based on files and records available in the assessor's office. We took no stock at all in tabulated statistics."

"We found that no place in the county is on a level with Glendale as regards property value. Also, that the assessed valuation in Glendale is on the same basis as the property assessment in Pasadena, Santa Monica, Pomona, Long Beach and Los Angeles.

"Assessed valuation of property in Glendale, we found, has nearly doubled in the past two years. In the fiscal year 1921 and 1922 the assessed valuation of Glendale properties and annexes totaled $12,477,675. This compares with $21,981,560 for 1922 and 1923."

Dr. Russell stated that Mr. Hopkins, the assessor, refused reports that outside interests had played a part in Glendale's assessment. She quoted him as saying: "No official or representative of Glendale has had anything to do with the increased assessment valuation of Glendale property. Our estimates were compiled on reports obtained by deputy assessors from this office and said reports have been obtained from the values received and the values quoted on Glendale property."

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the committee will meet in Dr. Russell's offices to study data obtained in Los Angeles.

TAD JONES AGAIN KUSTED AT YALE

Jolly Game of Firing Coach Is Under Way Once More by Old Graduates

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The jolly old pastime of firing Tad Jones at Yale has begun all over again, this time just two days before the Harvard game.
Tad has been let out, his contract torn across the middle for a consideration, of course, and a new head coach already to say it on the dotted line. You don't believe it?
Ask any graduate who sits around the fireside at the Yale club. He is several hundred miles removed from the scene of activities at New Haven and therefore knows all about them. Jones, he will inform you, is out; that is, if he doesn't win the Harvard game Saturday. This done, all will be forgotten—until next year. By that time, Tad can get ready to have himself fired all over again. It has become an annual custom, like meeting the income tax collector half way and washing behind the ears.
Good Talking Point
Singularly enough, the decision to get rid of Jones seldom, if ever, comes up for consideration before the football committee at New Haven. The committee, in fact, is often the last to learn of it.
It is the Yale alumni that is inimical to Jones. They contend and with some reason, that Tad has had remarkable material since he returned to control Yale football in 1920, but has done nothing to show for it. Wherefore, they gain much satisfaction in firing him every year.
This time they feel particularly aggrieved. They traveled down to Princeton in high feather, saw Yale out-gain Princeton, lead in first downs by thirteen to five and lose on the score board by 3 to 0.
This rather sour performance has generated some real activity among Yale men in New York. They are now honestly and candidly out after Jones' scalp and there is a serious question of doubt as to whether Tad will be able to make his contract stand up for the year it has to run if he falls to beat Harvard.
Some have even gone so far as to wheedle "Greasy" Neale, coach at Washington and Jefferson, into a receptive frame of mind. Neale, of course, is quite unaware of the fact. They have neglected to inform him that he is to be wheedled.
As a matter of fact, Neale probably is as near the Yale bowl as he ever will be, unless his W. & J. team happens to go there to play a football game.

STANFORD ELEVEN READY FOR U. OF C.

Cardinal Supporters Believe Bears Due for Tough Battle Saturday

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Despite the fact that California figures to defeat Stanford Saturday in the annual "big game" by a more decisive score than has been rolled up for some time, there is no diminution of interest in the annual encounter nor is there any tendency on the part of Cardinal supporters to be down-hearted.
Andy Kerr, Stanford coach, has assured the Cardinal supporters that the best team of the season will trot on the field Saturday to give the Bears battle; that everything possible to do in the way of preparation has been done, and that there will be no apologies for the result Saturday.
Bears Have Workout
Last Saturday's game against Nevada was in the nature of a mere workout for the Bears. Scrimmage this week has been merely enough to hold the men on edge. Andy Smith is anxious to prevent over-confidence.
His chief problem is to decide just what combinations he will start Saturday. Charley Erb, Nesbit, Morrison and Nichols will probably be the combination that will solve his backfield dilemma where he has eight good men to fill four positions.
The seat sale indicates the great stadium at Stanford will be packed to capacity Saturday.

ANNEXING MOVE HAS ANOTHER FOE

D. C. Bear, Realtor. Says Our City Government O. K.: Favors Sewerage

Talk of Glendale annexing with Los Angeles is idle, according to Delana Beer, member of the real estate firm of Bear Brothers, 209 West Broadway. Mr. Bear yesterday said he was strongly opposed to any such move.
"At the time that the question was first broached," he stated, "I thought that perhaps it would benefit this city; but now, after studying the matter thoroughly, I am firmly convinced that such a move wouldn't benefit Glendale."
"We have a very good government here, and personally, I think it should remain in operation. It's all right to talk about annexing. Talk's cheap. But if such a thing would ever happen, we would soon find out that our taxes would be increased to a large extent. That's expensive."
For Sewerage Project
Mr. Bear stated also that he was in favor of the sewerage project. He said that he believed merely enough to hold the men on edge. Andy Smith is anxious to prevent over-confidence.
His chief problem is to decide just what combinations he will start Saturday. Charley Erb, Nesbit, Morrison and Nichols will probably be the combination that will solve his backfield dilemma where he has eight good men to fill four positions.

YOUNG HARRY TOO MUCH FOR 'CHRIS'

Easy Winner Over Columbus In Main Event Last Night; Kelly Throws Dodge

Young Harry of Los Angeles won from Christopher Columbus of the Central Athletic club last night in the main event of the weekly boxing program, held by the Glendale lodge, Woodmen of America. Harry was given a technical knockout when Columbus' second threw a sponge into the ring in the third round of their scheduled four-round bout. At that point Harry had led practically all of the way and had his blonde opponent at his mercy with his continual barrage of lefts and rights.
In the semi-windup George Burns and Jimmy West, a pair of Los Angeles sluggers, battled to a draw after each one became so fatigued that a knockout was impossible. The boys weighed 128 pounds.
Gets Two Falls
In the feature wrestling bout, Joe Kelly of Los Angeles managed to get two falls on Walter Dodge of this city, the first coming in three minutes and the latter taking five minutes. Kelly was too much for the local man, his scissors holds taking the top out of him. The first fall was brought about by a body scissors and the second by a similar hold around the head.
Following this athletic program the floor was cleared and the patrons enjoyed two hours of dancing, music being furnished by the Modern Woodmen "jazz" orchestra.

Double Header for 'High Grid' Friday

"A double header" will be staged Friday afternoon on the gridiron of Glendale Union High school.
An alumni team will clash at 1:30 p. m. with this season's full-weight team. This contest is scheduled to be fast and furious, according to Coach Normal C. Hayhurst, who is looking forward to the scrimmage with keen anticipation. A large turn-out of alumni is expected.
Lightweight teams from San Fernando and Glendale will attempt to buck each other's lines at 3:30 p. m. This game is one of the play-offs involved in the Southern California championship.
At the present time five schools are interested in this trophy: Glendale, San Francisco, Pasadena, Huntington Park, Whittier and San Diego. After this week only three schools will remain in the running and Glendale is expected to be one of them.

Picks Yale's Squad to Defeat Harvard

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Ed Robinson, coach of the Brown university team, which lost to Yale and defeated Harvard, today picked the Bull Dog to triumph over its ancient rival in the Yale bowl on Saturday.
"I think that Yale is a touch-down stronger than Harvard," he declared. "I do not look for the Crimson to cross Yale's goal line, but would not be surprised if it scored a field goal."

A delicious luncheon was served in the dining-room by the hostesses of the day, who numbered besides Mrs. Van Elton, Mrs. A. Stephenson, Mrs. John Holbe and Miss Harriet Myers. The guests were Mrs. Blackburn of Chapter L and the ladies of the museum staff.
The short business session, presided over by Mrs. Blanche Davidson, president, was followed by a most interesting illustrated lecture by the curator, Dr. Comstock on "Indian Architecture, Arts and Crafts."

KING IN SPEECH TO PARLIAMENT

Expresses His Deep Concern Over Various Problems Facing Great Britain

By DAVID M. CHURCH For International News Service. LONDON, Nov. 23.—With Westminster surrounded by a heavy cordon of police to prevent demonstrations by the unemployed, King George opened the deliberative session of parliament today with a speech in which he expressed "deep concern" over problems facing the country.

The king began by saying that parliament had been summoned to enact legislation which is necessary to give effect to the Irish free state constitution. He added that the questions of unemployment and state expenses "continued to give him deep concern."

"Ameliorative measures prepared by my late government are being examined afresh and you will be asked to make provisions for their continuance and extension," said King George. "You will be asked, also, to guarantee a loan, in accordance with the League of Nations scheme, for the restoration of Austria."

Near East Question "Negotiations for settlement of the difficulties in the Near East are proceeding. And it is my hope that at the conference at Lausanne, the efforts of my ministers, acting in whole-hearted co-operation with the representatives of our allies, may result in the re-establishment of peace and the restoration of security of the inhabitants in those regions which have been the scene of so much suffering."

"I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon your deliberations."

The royal speech called attention to the fact that the Irish constitution must become effective by December 6, under the stipulations laid down at the time the Anglo-Irish treaty was framed and signed.

The king concluded with the declaration that an estimate of the necessary expenditures would be laid before commons in due course of time.

Henry Ford Spends Large Sum for Mines

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Henry Ford today closed negotiations for the purchase of approximately $20,000,000 worth of coal fields in Kentucky in order to start his business of selling coal direct to the public—the first step in the promised fight to free the people of the lake region from the clutches of the coal profiteers.

SCORES DEAD IN MINE DISASTER

Blast Kills Many; Hundreds of Others Freed From Underground Prison

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 23.—The death list in the Dolomite mine disaster mounted to eighty-two today, according to latest figures available at the scene of the explosion, thirteen miles from Birmingham.

One-third of those killed were negroes. They were employed in Dolomite mine No. 3 of the Woodward Coal company.

Sixty others are in hospitals, some of them so badly burned or injured by flying debris that they may not recover.

All of the bodies have been recovered and all those not killed by the blast have been freed from the underground prison. It was stated early today by officials of the company.

It has been definitely established that the explosion was caused when a "skip" car, breaking away, crashed down the mine shaft, crashing through electric cables, caused an electric spark which ignited the dust in the mine.

In Sheet of Flames. Instantly the entire mine was enveloped in a sheet of flame that blazed upward through the shaft at least 200 feet into the air, and ignited the tipples. All men working near the mouth of the mine, it was said, were killed outright.

The No. 3 shaft is now opening into the old No. 2 mine and it was through the old shaft that mine rescue workers were able quickly to dig through debris choking the passages and bring out men who otherwise must have died in the gas.

The work of rescue was very rapidly carried out.

Crowds of curious gathered almost instantly after the explosion and they continued to arrive in such large numbers that the national guardsmen were called out to throw a cordon about the mine mouth and open lanes for ambulances. They still were on guard this morning.

All bodies have been taken to Bessemer, Ala., in the heart of the steel manufacturing district, and have been placed in morgues, where many of them still await identification. Officials of the company said they probably would not be able to complete a list of the dead today.

Exact Toll Unknown.

Officials of the Woodward Coal company said today that 475 men entered the shaft yesterday morning, but, owing to the fact that miners are constantly leaving and entering the workings all through the day there was no way of telling exactly how many men might have been caught by the blast. They estimated, however, that the number of men still alive were positive in asserting that all living and dead have been removed to the surface.

Mine rescue workers and company officials declared the mine to be one of the safest under ordinary conditions. Although black damp gas is not infrequent in the mine, they said, the ventilation is so excellent and safeguards are so well looked after that a disaster in the shaft was made doubly shocking.

WAR MOTHERS TO ENTERTAIN 'VETS'

Show Will Be Given Patients at Sawtelle 'Annex'; Mrs. Padelford, Chairman

Mrs. Florence Padelford, chairman of the relief committee of the Lester Myer chapter, War Mothers of America, was appointed at yesterday's meeting of that organization to make arrangements for an entertainment of the disabled veterans at the Sawtelle "annex" hospital.

Mrs. Padelford has probably been more active than any other local woman in aiding the unfortunate ex-service men at the Sawtelle institution, where there are more than 250 patients.

Will Give Remembrances. The Glendale War Mothers also passed a motion at yesterday's meeting, which was held at the American Legion hall on East Broadway, whereby each of the patients at the hospital will be given remembrances on Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Mrs. L. T. Rowley, who acted as chairman in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. B. Sherwood, announced that the "tea party," which had been planned for next Saturday afternoon in Los Angeles, had been postponed for several weeks, the exact date to be announced later.

Bank Robbers Wound Three; Secure $4,000

GALLATIN, Mo., Nov. 23.—Three men are seriously wounded, the First National bank here is wrecked, telephone and telegraph wires are all cut and $4,000 is missing from the bank safe here as the result of an explosion early this morning of six desperate bank robbers.

The bandits were discovered at work by John Chamberlain, town marshal, at 4 o'clock while robbing the safe. Binding him, the bandits set off two powerful explosions of nitro-glycerin, wrecking the bank.

The force of the explosion hurled chairs in all directions, wrecked partitions and blew out windows, tearing the heavy safe apart, as if it were pasteboard. Chamberlain meantime, worked loose from his bonds, opened fire on the bandits, but before he could fire a second time, he fell with his head and neck torn by buckshot from a shotgun in the hands of one of the robbers. He is in a serious condition, but is not believed fatally wounded.

Attracted by the explosion, townsfolk came running from all directions. Mayor Joseph Tate, who arrived first on the scene, fell before a volley of slugs fired by five of the bandits who had surrounded the demolition bank building while the sixth returned inside seeking the $30,000 kept in the bank.

Eight Income Tax Rulings Announced

Collector of Internal Revenue Rex B. Goodsell received today eight income tax rulings that affect men and women engaged in almost every line of human endeavor.

Uniforms of nurses, railway trainmen, barbers, surgeons and baseball players are held to make the place of ordinary clothing and therefore are personal expense and not deductible from income reported.

A taxpayer who sold a one-sixth interest in an expected inheritance from her father who was living at the time of sale and had made no will, must report the entire amount received which is taxable as income for the period in which received.

Any sum embezzled by a deceased administrator and later recovered, should be allocated, in reduction of the loss to the estate, to each year in which the funds were stolen in proportion that the sum embezzled in a particular year bears to the total amount embezzled.

Where citizens of a community organize a corporation which contracts with the municipality to build a water system, the municipality agreeing to pay an annual rental and to operate the system, the income received by the corporation under the contract is not exempt from tax even though the city obligates itself to pay all taxes imposed.

A vein of coal acquired by a taxpayer for the purpose of meeting the needs of some of its customers who were working on contracts relating to the war is held not to be property that is subject to a deduction for amortization.

A contribution to a cemetery corporation is not an allowable deduction nor is a fee owner allowed a deduction for depletion when minimum royalties were received and no ore extracted. A corporation organized and operated to foster an appreciation of or desire for good music and for the promotion of musical art is within the meaning of the exemption clause "educational purposes."

Where a tax is placed on the assessment list after the dissolution of a corporation the former stockholders are not liable to the five per cent penalty and one per cent interest on account of the failure of the dissolved corporation to pay the tax within ten days after demand.

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

IN THE BACK PAGES

Did you ever notice what a totally different atmosphere you will find in the advertising pages of different magazines?

It is a stranger, totally unacquainted with our American magazines but with a shrewd mind, should be shown the advertising pages of any one of our magazines. I think he could tell, without looking at any of the reading matter or knowing anything further about the subject, just what class of readers the magazine was addressed to.

In the Men's Magazine

There is, for example, the magazine which is addressed par excellence to men, though many women read it. It is interesting to note by the way that in a field of perhaps 20 first-class magazines this is the only one that is looked upon as appealing primarily to men, though there are about half a dozen that frankly appeal to women. I won't write the name of this magazine but you know what it is, very likely you take it. Turn to its back pages and mark the distinctly masculine note of its advertising. Masculine things advertised in a masculine way. Revolvers, suspenders, razors, tobacco, adding machines, locks. Life insurance, shingles, underwear, root paint—such articles as these dominate its pages. Automobiles? Yes, but far more than automobiles, the parts and accessories, brakes and piston rings and tires, oils and spark plugs and valves. Imagine a maker of spark plugs or piston rings advertising in a woman's magazine!

Now turn to a magazine of distinctly feminine appeal and see how the atmosphere changes. Tapes, blankets, corsets, lingerie, pearls, dish towels, complexion secrets—I turn the pages at random and pass through a sort of combination food shop, department store, and beauty parlor.

Guess Which This One Is

But the difference in appeal of the various magazines is not only a sex difference. It is far more subtle than that. Enter with me the back pages of a certain magazine and then guess what that magazine's front pages contain. This magazine contains many ordinary advertisements but it also contains an unusually large proportion of this sort of appeal: "From Laundry Wagon to District Sales Manager, the Same Opportunity Open to You." "A Big Raise in Salary Is Very Easy to Get If You Go About It In the Right Way." "Be Master of a Real Job." "Your One Chance to Earn the Biggest Money of Your Life." "Doubles His Salary Then Doubles It Again." "High School Course In Two Years." "How Good Is Your Memory?" I will leave you to guess the name of this magazine. Do you remember the catch our big brothers used to spring on us when we were little, "Tar, pitch

L. A. Teachers Meet and Discuss Music

At the meeting Monday night of the Los Angeles Teachers' association, in the Tejo building, the subject of the program was "Our Problems in Public School Music." Miss Alice Rogers, superintendent of music for the Santa Monica schools, spoke on "Music in the Junior High." Mrs. Dora Gibson then read a paper on "Problems of Voice in Class."

Following her reading, Mrs. Gibson supervised a series of demonstrations by nine girls from the glee club of the Glendale high school, ending with a rendition of Salter's song, "Hushed." Frank Anderson, of the Los Angeles Polytechnical high school and Mrs. Emma Bartlett, of the Inglewood high school, also supervised demonstrations by their pupils, one of Mr. Anderson's boys rendering an original piano composition and Mrs. Bartlett's mixed quartette giving selections from "Mikado," which they are preparing to present.

BEAUTY CHATS

AN OLD LADY'S LETTER

The other day I had such a charming letter from an old lady of 70 that I want to tell briefly what she said to me. She has few wrinkles and few gray hairs and easily passes for 50. She confesses that she has a great desire to grow old gracefully.

I think from her letter that she has succeeded. To look 50 at the age of 70 is an even greater achievement than to look 30 at the age of 50, for after the half century most people break physically and lose interest mentally.

It happened that this correspondent wanted a nourishing face cream to keep away the wrinkles, but what interested me most was her fear that I would think her foolish for this bit of vanity. We do not think it vain that a young girl should try to preserve her beauty; why should we think it vain when an old lady tries to keep herself attractive? Why should it ever be vain in a woman to increase the beauty of the world by making herself prettier?

I sent my nice old friend the formula for a nourishing skin food. I hope she is using it faithfully and that it will keep the wrinkles from gathering thickly for a long time to come. I wish all old ladies would do the same! There is really more reason for an elderly woman to use cold cream than for a young one. For old people cannot exercise so much, therefore all the bodily functions slow up and a sallow skin is only too apt to follow. Therefore anything which helps to stimulate the skin, to cleanse it and to make the pores act is to be recommended. A cold cream massage for this is splendid.

David—Dampening your hair each day would not cause it to drop out. You must have some trouble with your scalp or a run down system to cause the condition you mention. I will be glad to send you a formula for an excellent hair tonic if you wish it. Massaging the scalp every day until it glows from the increased circulation will prove helpful; and if a good tonic is needed to this treatment it is often all that is needed to restore the hair to its former health.

Constant Reader—A girl of 17, height 5 ft., 7 ins., will be normal weight at 128 pounds.

Polly—The trouble with your complexion comes from using too many cosmetics. There is no sense in a healthy young woman making a practice of using rouge all the time. Use a nasal douche morning and night and the trouble may disappear; if not, consult a doctor.

Tomorrow—Starch as a Bleach.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Clemenceau Pleased by Row Over Speech

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Georges Clemenceau left New York today for Boston, intensely tickled by the typhoon of wrath his Tuesday speech has stirred up in the senate. The "tiger" scanned the newspapers in Grand Central terminal while being hustled aboard his car. The angry retort of Senator Borah particularly pleased him.

"I like that," said the former French premier. "That arouses discussion. That will make people think. I like a discussion. That is a democratic quality I learned years ago."

The Frenchman indicated that he might have something more to say concerning the League of Nations and America's attitude toward Europe in speeches in Boston and Chicago. To the last he defended the League, saying it was no menace and contending that America's absence hurt the league and the peace of the world.

Clemenceau lay in bed until 7:45 a. m. and arrived at the terminal just in time for his train, departing at 8:33 a. m.

A crowd of persons who knew of his departure was on hand to bid him farewell. There was much handshaking.

The former premier autographed a photograph of himself for Frederick Condit and Miss Anne Morgan. He was brought to the station by Colonel E. M. House.

As the "Tiger" vanished in the car vestibule, the crowd cheered.

A GREEN FISHERMAN

"What are you going to do with that mouse?"

"Use it for bait."

"For bait?"

"Yes, I'm going after catfish."

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health with Key to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Because this letter will be very helpful to many of you and will encourage those of you who are similarly affected, I am going to give it, although it takes nearly the whole of our space. It is very much worth while.

"My Dear Dr. Peters:

"I wish to let you know how grateful I am for your shrink the stomach articles in our paper. Two years ago I was condemned, practically, to death from hard spots in the aorta, causing angina pectoris. I suffered terribly from pain in the heart region and I was gradually nearing the end when I took your advice as to diet. In three or four days I was walking around like a new man, either up or down hill, when previously a half block's walk, or any exercise of any consequence, would bring on the chest pains and heart disturbances. I count the reading of your articles as one of the most fortunate things I have experienced.

"I found I was too optimistic at first, as a slip in my diet—two full meals—brought the whole trouble back. However, I immediately went on the three-low-calorie days (500 C's a day) again, and am now in very good condition and fully cognizant of the fact that I have got to watch my step if I keep what I have gained. I have had a very bad bronchial cough with soreness at times in my chest and it has occurred to me that an enlarged stomach rubbing the sore chest may have been the cause of my angina. My heart, however, is not just as it should be—misses a beat every so often.

"I have written more than I intended, knowing that you are a busy mortal; but I must add that I feel very, very grateful to you. You are doing a lot of good in the world, and I knew what the Lord would have me do. I should like to earn a white mark or two myself. But I am old, 66, short or health and means and cannot see my way clear as to what I should undertake.

"With best wishes for your present and future, I remain,—H. C. G."

First let me remark, Mr. G., that at 65 years of age you are not old. You ought to be in your prime. So don't feel that way about yourself. We have followers up to 83 years who are active and optimistic and happy.

There are two forms of angina pectoris. The true form, which is due to organic changes in the aorta and the heart arteries and muscles, and the false form or pseudo-angina, now more often called functional angina pectoris. Angina pectoris is caused by anything that causes hardening and degeneration of the arteries (arterio-sclerosis). And Osler says that over-eating is the largest factor producing that condition. Poisons such as alcohol, tobacco, chronic infections and syphilis, also, will cause arterio-sclerosis.

The functional type of angina pectoris which may later develop into the true type, is thought to be due to hysteria, certain toxic agents, notably tobacco, and to instability of the nervous system. The treatment is to avoid as far as possible all mental and physical excitement, tobacco, alcohol, coffee and over-eating.

The question of diet is highly important as you have shown in your case. In the true form medicine also may have to be taken.

I am sincerely glad you have been helped so much by the articles. Will you write us again?

Cook in moderate oven twenty minutes, or until thoroughly heated and top is brown. Serve hot.

RICE MUFFINS: Mix and sift one cup of flour with two teaspoons baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt; stir in one and one-half cups cold, boiled rice, one cup milk and two well beaten eggs. Beat well and turn into well greased muffin pans and cook in hot oven thirty minutes.

SPICED CAKES: Cream five tablespoons butter, add one cup sugar and the yolks of two eggs; mix well and sift two cups flour, one teaspoon soda, one-fourth teaspoon ground cloves, one-fourth teaspoon mace and one and one-half teaspoons cinnamon together and add them alternately with two-thirds cup sour milk. Beat well and add one teaspoon vanilla and the stiffly beaten whites of one egg. Bake in sheet pan in moderate oven for twenty-five or thirty minutes. When done, cool, cut into small squares, glaze or other desired shapes and ice with cream icing.

BROILED BIRDS ON TOAST: Wipe thin slices of veal cut from the leg or shoulder. Pound the meat on both sides and cut into three by three and one-half inch pieces. Spread pieces with good bread stuffing, roll and tie, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour. Brown in hot butter, or other preferred cooking fat. Put in saucepan, cover with thin white sauce and cook slowly until tender. Serve on small circular or square pieces of toast, cover with white sauce and garnish with parsley. (The trimmings may be used for making white stock, which may be added to the sauce or stuffing.)

ORANGE SALAD: Peel and remove all of the white portion from five oranges. Then carefully remove membrane from each carpel, keeping pulp in its original shape. Marinate with French dressing, which has been made with lemon juice instead of vinegar. When ready to serve, pile orange pulp in center of crisp lettuce heart leaves. Garnish with strips of canned pimiento, or a bit of maraschino cherry.

COFFEE CAKE: Mix and sift two cups flour, one-fourth cup sugar, one half teaspoon salt and two teaspoons baking powder together; beat two eggs until light, add one-half cup milk and stir into dry ingredients. Add two tablespoons melted butter spread in shallow pan, sprinkle with three tablespoons cup of nuts and one teaspoon cinnamon. Bake in a hot oven twenty-five minutes. ## The MUCKER

by Edgar Rice Burroughs
Copyright 1921 by Edgar Rice Burroughs

"Wait!" whispered the girl. "Here they come now, we can see them from here in a moment," and she dragged the mucker down behind a bush.

In silence the two watched the approaching party.

"They're the Chinks," announced Byrne, who insisted on using this word to describe the proud and haughty samurai.

"Yes, and there are two white men with them," whispered Barbara Harding, a note of suppressed excitement in her voice.

"Prisoners," said Byrne. "Some of the precious bunch from the Halfmoon doubtless."

The samurai were moving straight up the edge of the river. In a few minutes they would pass within a hundred feet of the island. Billy and the girl crouched low behind their shelter.

"I don't recognize them," said the man.

"Why—why—O Mr. Byrne, it can't be possible!" cried the girl with suppressed excitement.

"Those two men are Captain Norris and Mr. Foster, mate of the Lotus!"

Byrne half rose to his feet. The party was opposite their hiding place now.

"Sit tight," he whispered. "I'm going to get 'em," and then, fiercely, "for your sake, because I love you—now laugh," and he was gone.

He ran lightly down the river bank unnoticed by the samurai who had already passed the island. In one hand he bore the long war spear of the head-hunter he had slain. At his belt hung the long sword of Oda Yoritomo, and in its holster reposed the revolver of the Count de Cademont.

Barbara Harding watched him as he forded the river, and clambered up the opposite bank. She saw him spring rapidly after the samurai and their prisoners. She saw his spear hand go up, and then from the deep lungs of the man rose a savage yell that would have done credit to a whole tribe of Apaches.

The warriors turned in time to see the heavy spear flying toward them and then, as he dashed into their midst, Billy Byrne drew his revolver and fired to right and left. The two prisoners took advantage of the consternation of their guards to grapple with them and possess themselves of weapons.

There had been but six samurai in the party, two had fallen before Byrne's initial onslaught, but the other four, recovered from their first surprise, turned now to battle with all the terrific ferocity of their kind.

Again, at a crucial moment, had Theriere's revolver missed fire, and in disgust Byrne discarded it, falling back upon the long sword with which he was no match for the samurai. Norris snatched Byrne's spear from the ground, and ran it through the body of one of the Japs who was pressing Byrne too closely. Odds were even now—they fought three against three.

Norris still clung to the spear—it was by far the most effective weapon against the long swords of the samurai. With it he killed his antagonist and then rushed to the assistance of Foster.

Barbara Harding from the island saw that Byrne's foe was pressing her closely. The white man had no chance against the superior swordsmanship of the samurai. She saw that the mucker was trying to get past the Jap's guard and get his hands upon him, but it was evident that the man was too crafty and skilled a fighter to permit of that. There could be but one outcome to that duel unless Byrne had assistance, and that mighty quickly. The girl grasped the short sword that she constantly wore now, and rushed into the river. She had never before crossed it except in Byrne's arms. She found the current swift and strong. It almost swept her off her feet before she was halfway across, but she never for an instant thought of abandoning her effort.

After what seemed an eternity she floundered out upon the mainland, and when she reached the top of the bank she saw to her delight that Byrne was still on his feet, fighting. Foster and Norris were pushing their man back—they were in no danger. Quickly she ran toward Byrne and the samurai. She saw a wicked smile upon the brown face of the little warrior, and then she saw his gleaming sword twist in a sudden feint, and as Byrne lunged out awkwardly to parry the expected blow the keen edge swerved and came down upon his head.

She was an instant too late to save, but just in time to avenge—scarcely had the samurai's sword touched the mucker than the point of Oda Yoritomo's short sword, wielded by the fair hand of Barbara Harding, plunged into his heart. With a shriek he collapsed beside the body of his victim.

Barbara Harding threw herself beside Byrne. Apparently life was extinct. With a little cry of horror the girl put her ear close to the man's lips. She could hear nothing.

"Come back! Come back!" she wailed. "Forgive me that cruel laugh, O Billy! Billy! I love you!" and the daughter of old Anthony Harding, multimillionaire and scion of the oldest aristocracy that America boasts, took the head of the Grand Avenue mucker in her arms and covered the white, bloody face with kisses and in the midst of it Billy Byrne opened his eyes.

She was caught in the act. There was no escape, and as a crimson flush suffused her face Billy Byrne put his arms about her and drew her down until their lips met, and this time she did not put her hands upon his shoulders and push him away.

"I love you, Billy," she said, simply.

"Remember who and what I am," he cautioned, fearful lest this great happiness should be stolen away from him because she had forgotten for the moment.

"I love you Billy," she answered, "for what you are."

"Forever?"

"Until death do us part!"

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad.

TODAY—David M. Church writes that the Prince of Wales bids fair to become a reasonably good golfer, according to the conclusion of Andrew Kirkaldy, a professional of no mean attainments.

TOMORROW—Ellis H. Martin, San Francisco correspondent, tells how the post office officials in California handle the enormous task of distributing election literature.

By DAVID M. CHURCH
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON—Here are royal secrets for "golf bugs." The Prince of Wales is going to be a "braw golfer," if he only gets a little more practice. You may take this on the authority of Andrew Kirkaldy, as fine a professional as ever drew breath on the heathered links of St. Andrews.

Kirkaldy acted as mentor for the Prince of Wales when he played himself in recently as captain of St. Andrews. It took considerable inducement to get Kirkaldy to discuss the prowess of his royal pupil but he finally cut loose.

"Man, he's a fine homely sort and given some practice will make a grand golfer," Kirkaldy said.

"When he sent for me on the morning he played himself in as I asked him what ball he would like to play with. He asked me what sort I used, and then said: 'If it's good enough for you it will do for me.'"

"Then we came down to the tee. The Prince says: 'This is an awful job,' so I told him to just keep his eye on the ball."

"I was a bit disappointed when I saw him top it in front of you crowd; but he did not miss it."

"It's maybe not right to repeat what he said, but the young man seemed to see the joke after he had duffed the ball, and I said to him: 'Never mind, Your Highness, ye've hit it.'"

"He's a sport to the core, a right likable chap, and he's going to be just like his grandfather was."

There you have Andrew's opinion of the Prince as a golfer, but what English golfers are more concerned about is the style that the Prince has set in golfing sweaters. He has been appearing lately in a beautiful pair of "baggy plus fours," accompanied by a sweater which is a riot of colored bars.

Ambassador Harvey has at last achieved success. Once again he and Lady Nicotine are on speaking terms. The Ambassador likes to smoke a pipe, and when he first came to England he found that English tobaccos did not suit his taste and high duties made the smoking of American tobaccos almost prohibitive. The Ambassador consulted a firm of tobacconists in London. For more than a year the blenders of this firm attempted to find a mixture which would not burn the Ambassador's lips and tongue or dry the throat. Now after more than a year of experiment the perfect tobacco has been found to suit the taste of the American Ambassador, and when he plays golf he puffs as good a pipe as any of his English opponents.

Little is heard of Princess Mary these days. All England seems to understand why and is awaiting with great interest a happy event in the Lascelles household. The Princess is not appearing in public.

An election in England is the harvest time for teachers of elocution. Many candidates for parliament have no oratorical powers and have no desire to speak upon the floor of the House of Commons, yet it is necessary for them to address their constituents. Therefore they hire themselves to teachers of elocution and take a few lessons before they blossom out as campaign speakers. Many actors out of work have made considerable sums during the campaign by coaching candidates.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SKATES

"Uncle Wiggily, you had better put on your warm clothes this morning!" called Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy in the hollow stump bungalow, just before she told the bunny gentleman that breakfast was ready.

"Put on my warm clothes—why?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Because it's very cold—freezing!" answered the muskrat lady.

"Good!" cried Mr. Longears. "We'll have snow and ice for Thanksgiving."

"There isn't any snow, but I think there must be some ice," spoke Nurse Jane. "For the little puddle at the back door is frozen solid."

"Hurrah!" cried the bunny gentleman, as he jumped out of bed and began dancing around the room. "I'm going skating after breakfast, Nurse Jane!" he said.

And when the bunny gentleman had eaten some carrot pancakes with maple sugar, sprinkled around the edges, he looked in the glass to see if his pink nose was twinkling properly and then he looked for his skates.

He had not used them since the winter before, and they were a little dull and rusty. But Uncle Wiggily soon had them polished and sharp, and slung them over his back. Uncle Wiggily started to hop away from his hollow stump bungalow.

"Where are you going?" asked Nurse Jane.

"I am going to look for a place to skate, and maybe I will have an adventure," answered the bunny uncle. "Perhaps I'll have both."

"Well, don't fall down and bump your nose," said Nurse Jane with a laugh as he began to wash the dishes.

Uncle Wiggily hopped through the cold woods and over the cold fields until he reached a pond of water. That is, it had been a pond of water in the summer, but now, when it was almost Thanksgiving, the pond of water was frozen into ice.

"Hurrah!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Here's a place to skate!"

He sat down, fastened his skates on his paws, and then began to glide over the frozen pond. Uncle Wiggily was just wishing Uncle Butter, the goat, or Mr. White-wash, the polar bear gentleman, would come along to skate with him when, all of a sudden, there was a cracking in the bushes at the side of the pond.

"Hello!" said Uncle Wiggily to himself as he heard this noise. "Some one is coming now!"

And some one came, but it was no one the bunny wanted to see, for it was the Woozie Wolf!

"What are you doing here?" growled the Wolf.

"I am skating," answered Uncle Wiggily. "The bunny did not need to ask what the Wolf was doing, or going to do. Well the bunny knew that the Wolf wanted to nibble ears."

"So you are skating, are you?" growled the Wolf. "What do you mean by skating?"

"Well," answered Uncle Wiggily, "you see I have fastened on my paws some sharp, steel runners, and with them I can glide over the ice faster than you can run. Do you want to see me?"

asked the rabbit eagerly, for he thought he might skate away from the Wolf.

"No, indeed, I don't want to see you," howled the Wolf. "I know my paws some sharp, steel runners, and with them I can glide over the ice faster than you can run. Do you want to see me?"

"No, indeed, I don't want to see you," howled the Wolf. "I know my paws some sharp, steel runners, and with them I can glide over the ice faster than you can run. Do you want to see me?"

RADIO EXPLAINED

BY LIEUT. JOHN R. IRWIN
INSTRUCTOR U. S. AIR SERVICE

DYNAMOTORS

Rotary converters, described in the preceding article, cannot be used for changing direct current at one voltage to d. c. at another voltage. The most compact machine for that purpose is the "dynamotor." An application which will occur to the radio student is the securing of several hundred volts for the plate potential of vacuum transmitting tubes from batteries giving only 10 or 12 volts (see Fig. 1). In the dynamotor two separate armature windings are placed on a common core. One acts as a motor, the other as a generator. There is but one frame and one set of field magnets. The two windings are connected to commutators at opposite ends of the shaft. The ratio of voltages is fixed when the machine is built, so the output voltage depends on the voltage supplied. The field coils receive the current from the same source as the motor armature.

A dynamotor can be driven by mechanical power as a generator and can then deliver d. c. at two different voltages. Such machines have been designed for a fan drive on airplanes, the low and

Book Reviews

"My Life and Work" which Doubleday, Page & Co. publish, is the autobiography of Henry Ford written in collaboration with Samuel Crowther. The book not only narrates the history of a picturesque and remarkable career, but is also an exposition of Mr. Ford's philosophy of business: First, finance a price that will move the product, then meet that price by manufacturing better. Make the very best possible article at the lowest possible price, and inevitably there will be a return of profit. If the price is right the profits will take care of themselves.

Seldom appears a book of reminiscences of a great singer which catches so truly the note of personality as does Emma Calve's "My Life," just published by Appleton. Calve is a name to conjure with in the music world; her popularity is one of the greatest there has been among the opera stars. In "My Life" she tells her own story with frank simplicity and from her girlhood to the days of her triumphs in opera and concert she narrates the usual course of an eventful life. The stories of other great singers she includes are delightful; and music lovers will find many interesting glimpses of a musicianship which is recognized as pre-eminent in the vocal field.

E. P. Dutton & Co. have just published and will send free to any one asking for it a list of "Books for Children" that will be of the greatest help to any one wishing to make selections for book gifts to young people.

VERNIER FILAMENT RHEOSTAT

The construction of this vernier adjusted filament rheostat is such that the vernier and coarse adjustment are obtained on the same shaft and knob without any clutch action so that the vernier adjustment is of the handiest possible type. A drawn aluminum shell containing the resistance wire and forming the body of the rheostat gives an exceedingly rugged construction. The resistance wire is wound on a heavy insulating strip of such size that the winding does not loosen and produce short circuits.

regulator. The flux is therefore reduced, counteracting the effect of the rise in speed. This type of dynamotor is adaptable to any circumstances where the speed will be variable.

They Say That

In an address before the Medical School of Journalism, at Chicago, E. W. Howe, of Atchison, Kan., said that a majority of the people in the United States have only a "newspaper education." It was considered, even by journalists and by Mr. Howe himself, to be a misfortune that it was so.

Even at that, the people of the United States are the best educated people in this or any other country. Newspaper education seems to have done considerable for them.

The fact is, newspaper education is the broadest education given out today. It is the only education that is up to the minute. The schools, with all their merits, use text books that are old. They teach literature that is old.

Newspapers, on the other hand, report history in the making. They concern themselves with everyday topics that touch real life. They always look to the future in a very practical sense. Their literature is that which is being produced today.

And newspaper education is almost as diversified as college education itself. It teaches English and geography, and grammar and spelling. In addition it deals with science in every line. It tells of achievement. It teaches morals of the highest order. It publishes wit and humor, and philosophy and poetry and everything you will find in the text books.

After all, newspaper education, with all its faults, is about the most practical, the most complete education in the world today.

RED CROSS DRIVE FOR BUNDLE ON

Donations Go to Distressed Greeks in Smyrna; Tomorrow Last Day

Glendale has only today and tomorrow to donate its quota of food, shelter and clothing for the relief of destitute Greeks in Smyrna, according to R. W. Mottern, exploitation director for the Red Cross' Bundle Days. "The ultimate recipients of these donations," he said this morning, "will go to thousands of distressed people."

"It is not their fault, they are not to blame, the misfortunes of war, backed and fired by centuries of Turkish hate, jealousy and religious fanaticism, are responsible for the present condition. This is why no means their choosing their fates, their farms, homes and all kinds of business lie in mute yet eloquent, silent, showing what inhuman rage and brutal savagery can do unrestrained as the Turk showed in and around the ancient and once beautiful city of Smyrna."

When the "terrible Turk" began his work of destruction, murder, open rapine and plunder, the innocent people, non-combatants, fled before the maelstrom like wild fire for their lives. More than 700,000 saved their lives, but without food, shelter or clothing. Sufferers, Women and Children

Most of this vast number are helpless women and children, old men and women. It is their physical needs that appeal to America, their power and prodigious with her vast resources. Responded to every needy call to the ends of the earth and still have enough and to spare. It has not impoverished us in the least, but rather has fired our interest and enthusiasm to do still more.

"This exciting, new season should record for each citizen of Glendale some worthy action that will fill the soul with joy and praise for the opportunity to think of and extend a helping hand to others."

This appeal comes mostly for clothing of all kinds, no matter in what condition, from the head to the foot, for the worst you have will be the best they will have. Drag out from your closet old, cast-off, faded, partly worn garments, out of style, fit for moths and mice, and bundle them up, give them to a school child to take to the nearest school house, take them yourself, you will feel better and your home will be free of useless clothing.

Val vest stores have already started for the seat of need. The enormous volume of American Red Cross relief supplies for the Near East, Greece and surrounding country, soon to be speeding across the Atlantic on a Shipping Board vessel, includes, in addition to the following cargo table: "Two thousand four hundred tons of flour, 400 tons of cocoa, 200 tons of sugar, 800 tons of beans, forty tons of prunes, 100 tons of lard, substitutes, 200 tons of rice or corn grits, 400 tons of salt. The total cost of these items is $315,000."

The following clothing outfits will be loaded aboard the same ship: Three thousand baby outfits, 20,000 boys' suits, 40,000 children's underwear, 20,000 women's dresses, 20,000 children's dresses and 20,000 women's underwear. The total cost $130,500."

Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Gattell attended the gathering of the various agencies of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company Saturday night to commemorate the winning of the cup by the local division, of which Mr. Gattell is a member. The celebration, which included a very fine dinner, was held in the private auditorium of the company at their buildings, Sixth and Olive streets, Los Angeles. Mr. Gattell, who, with his record of 100 life policies written in the month of October, helped materially to make possible this victory of his division.

Senators, without regard to party, expressed their opinion either publicly or privately that it is poor taste to say the least, for the militant old tiger to come to this country as its guest and then before the glamour of his welcome has worn off accuse America of bad faith toward Europe.

It appeared probable today that Clemenceau's remarks have let him in for a verbal dressing down on the floor of the senate. The resentment of Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, and other members of the old irreconcilable group in the senate, is keen, and the tiger's second speech added fuel to the fire.

"Insolent," and "impudent" were some of the terms applied to Clemenceau's remarks by senators of the old irreconcilable group.

It is virtually certain that Clemenceau will not be accorded the courtesy of the senate floor when he reaches Washington on his tour. Foreign visitors of Clemenceau's rank are usually given this privilege.

Clemenceau's accusation of America leaving France "in the lurch" was attributed by senators today not to America's failure to join the League of Nations, but to the senate's failure to pass the tripartite treaty which pledged America and Great Britain to defend France's frontiers in the future.

BENEFIT READING CIRCLE
 As a tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. R. T. Burr, members of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle meeting yesterday at the library voted to hang an exceptionally fine copy of Joshua Reynolds' masterpiece, "The Boy and The Rabbit," on the library walls. Mrs. Burr, who was an active member of the circle, died last year.

The circle meeting yesterday was attended by more than fifty women. At the morning session Mrs. Harold Bird gave a review of "We Can Have a New Race in Two Generations," by Dr. Henry Wright Chaffin. The article deals with the care of orphan and dependent children and or making them physically fit by proper environment and care.

After Mrs. Bird's review Miss Roberta Winans, community service director, was introduced and led the company in two games.

After the luncheon the roll was called with quotations in response and then Mrs. A. A. Barton continued reading from the pamphlet, "Truth Telling As a Problem in the Child's Life." This article is proving of great interest to the circle as it deals with children's lying, the causes and means of correction.

Next week there will be no meeting of the circle because of Thanksgiving activities. However, the following week the regular meeting will take place.

THEATRES

The Glendale Ouida's immortal romance, "Under Two Flags," which plays at the Glendale theatre for the last time today, is one of the best known stories in the world. It first achieved fame as a work of fiction, then as a play, and now Universal has produced it as a photodrama with popular and talented Priscilla Dean playing that colorful role. The plot deals with the adventures of an English nobleman, an exile from his own country because he shouldered a brother's crime. He goes to Algiers, where he is known only as "Victor." There he enlists under the French flag and Cigarette, "daughter of the regiment," falls madly in love with him. The story develops into a tremendous struggle between love and patriotism.	The T. D. &amp; L. Magnetic, sensational "Brawn of the North" is in its last day at the T. D. & L. theatre. Laurence Trimble and Jane Murfin, who made "The Silent Call," have here evolved another supreme dog drama, a drama that sends the great Strongheart through the trackless snows of the "famine lands" far to the north, into wolf fights and many other perils of the forest primeval, to guard a baby for—but that is the story! Friday and Saturday at 3:30, 7:30 and 9:15 o'clock, the T. D. & L. will present that whirling array of feminine charm, "The Greenwich Village Girl Revue," eight beautiful musical, jazzy dancing girls in a turbulent act gorgeously staged and presented, something the like of which Glendale has probably not seen before.

MONEY TO LOAN

PICK OUT YOUR HOUSE ANYWHERE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

I'll help you buy it
If you can spare $30 per month ($1 per day) above your present expenses, I will help you finance the purchase of a $5,000 home.

By this method my clients find that they obtain lower prices from owners; they are paying their rent to themselves; they are paying several hundred dollars less interest and they are getting as their own broker and banker.

I will help finance the purchase of any property to cost from $1,000 to as high as you care to go at less than 6 per cent net cost to you for the use of the money needed and all services rendered. The payments you can make each month will be just as small as the amount I can serve you.

'GLENDALE AWAKE' IS SPEAKER'S TOPIC

Dr. H. P. Dunlop of Chicago
Talks at Presbyterian Church on Christ

"Glendale Awake" was the theme taken by Dr. H. P. Dunlop, evangelist of Chicago, for his address last night at the Tropic Presbyterian church. He said, in part:

"Sodom and Gomorrah were self-satisfied, prosperous, wicked cities and God said He would destroy them because of their sinfulness. He did rain fire and brimstone upon them and they perished. As God looked upon sin then so does He today and your refined, respectable, perturbed sin is a stench in the sight of a holy God. So, Glendale Awake!"

"Christians also awake to the fact that 'Ye are the light of the world.' Men are asleep today to awfulness of sin; to the fact of a judgment; to the fact of a hell; to the time of repentance. The devil has a lot of religious dope for folks these days and all he asks is for you to just live in that one pet sin and he will in the judgment claim you for his very own. God never changes; sin must be punished, so Glendale awake!"

Talks on Sin Tonight
Dr. Dunlop has announced for his text tonight, "Be sure your sin will find you out" (Num. 32:32). There will be a special duet by Dr. and Mrs. Dunlop, "The Great Judgment Morn."

In speaking of the meetings, Dr. J. F. Winnard, pastor of the church, said:

"We are delighted with the fine crowds each night and especially with the hearty co-operation of the Methodist church members and their pastor. We want the many new families who have lately come into our district to use this splendid opportunity to get acquainted with the good folks of our churches and to enjoy these wonderful meetings."

Evangelistic Meet Held Today Twice

Prayer meetings in connection with the evangelistic meetings at the Tropic Presbyterian church are to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and 3 o'clock. A meeting will be with Mrs. William Russell at 324 Mira Loma avenue, and the other with Dr. and Mrs. St. Clair at 1250 South Maryland avenue.

Meetings were held today with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fry of 333 Cerritos avenue and at the Myers' home at 1316 South Central avenue.

CUT RATES, IS PLEA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Charging American railroads with getting 20 per cent of the price of farm products, Senator Capper, Republican of Kansas, this afternoon demanded the Republican party enact legislation reducing freight rates.

COMMISSION: "CITY BOUNDARIES NOT CONTROLLING FACTOR IN DETERMINING UTILITY RATES."

Satisfaction in regard to the present city government was expressed by Robert E. Johnston of 440 South San Fernando road, who said that he had always been courteously received by local officials and had found "an attentive ear" at the city hall.

"I don't feel that it is the time to go into the city of Los Angeles," he said. "There may be a time when it is ripe for us to go into the city of Los Angeles, but it is not now."

Have Much to Lose
Dr. Jessie Russell of 268 South Brand boulevard stated:

"It is my personal belief that we have little to gain and much to lose by annexing to Los Angeles at this time."

William J. Schaeffle of 1859 South San Fernando road stated that he had moved away from Los Angeles because he wanted to live in Glendale. He inquired why anybody would want to annex this community to Los Angeles. He said that he was impressed by the unity expressed in the meeting and suggested the formation of a "taxpayers' league for the welfare of the community."

Dissatisfaction over the local government was expressed by Rudolph Streit of 506 West California avenue who admitted, however, that the remedy lay in the prerogative of the voters of the community and not in annexation.

"Why not change the city government if we are dissatisfied with it?" he exclaimed. "I am very skeptical of the taxrate of Glendale coming down in the near future and I am equally skeptical about the tax rate of Los Angeles remaining where it is."

Opposition to annexation largely because of satisfaction over the local school system was voiced by J. F. Bourne of 305 North Central avenue. He said that he did not believe Los Angeles was anywhere near bankruptcy. He said that certain districts within the city limits of Los Angeles had been waiting for sewers for 18 months and likely would have to wait another eighteen months.

Others participating in the meeting were O. A. Lane, Judge F. H. Lowe, Asa Hall, Alex Mitchell, A. B. Smart, G. B. Woodberry. Good feeling prevailed in the arguments and the "annexationists" were listened to with respect. However, the meeting in no uncertain voice showed that Glendale is strongly opposed to annexation with Los Angeles.

Working Girl Wage Liveable, Is Claim

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A working girl can eat three "squares" a day at a cost of from 90 cents to one dollar a day; dress in comfort and style on $117.30 a year; secure a desirable room for from $8 to $20 a month and provide herself with toilet articles, medical and dental services, vacation, amusement and laundry for an additional $121 a year, according to a report of industrial welfare commission investigators who made their inquiries in San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles.

Their report will be made the basis of a hearing on minimum wages in California for women. Representatives of organized labor will present evidence which they declare will show the report inadequate. The present minimum weekly wage for women is $16.

Here is what Mrs. Elsa Lissner said the year's clothing could be bought for:

Shoes, two pair, $12; corsets, two pair, $5; petticoats, two, $4; stockings, eight pair, $4; night gowns, three, $3.75; underwear, bloomers, vests, $1.25; camisoles, three, $3; dress (silk or wool) to last two years, yearly portion, $12.50; apron or house dress, $1.50; coat (to last two years) yearly portion, $15; suit (to last two years) yearly portion, $12.50; sweater (to last two years) yearly portion, $1.75; hats, three, $15; gloves, two pair, $3; handkerchiefs, twelve, $1.20; kimono, $2; waists, one at $4, two at $2—$8; rubbers, 85 cents; umbrella, for two years, yearly portion, $1; repairing shoes, $3;

Glendale Red Cross Urges Subscriptions

In order that everyone will have an opportunity to respond to the Red Cross roll call drive, tables will be established Friday at various local banks and business houses. These tables will be open for subscriptions from 10 to 2, in charge of loyal Glendale Red Cross workers, and the public is urged to open its pocketbook and its heart to this worthy cause.

So far only 600 enrollments have been recorded out of the 2000 minimum set by local headquarters as the necessary total, if Glendale is to come up to its quota. The drive started Nov. 11 and closes on the last day of the month, so it is evident that Glendalians will have to dig down into their pockets.

In charge of the various tables Friday are the following: Mrs. John C. Dunn, Security Trust & Savings; Mrs. E. R. Rohr, L. A. Trust & Savings; Mrs. Townsend Clark, The Glendale State; Miss Blanche Davenport, Glendale National; Mrs. R. A. Blackburn, Glendale Savings; Mrs. Lillian Dow, C. & S. Cafeteria; Mrs. W. A. McPherson, Chaffey's; Mrs. Fannie Stockbridge, Quality; Mrs. D. W. Porter, Ralphs; Mrs. D. D. Justice, Pendroy's, and on Saturday, Mrs. H. J. Wellman, Community Trust & Savings.

The state of Minnesota is lining its fine new highways with trees. In most of the states it is still the practice to line them with billboards.

cleaning and repairing clothing, $4. Total, $117.30.

De Molay Lodge to Install Officers

Glendalians, particularly Masons and their close friends, have been invited to attend the installation of officers of the recently organized local chapter of De Molay at the Masonic temple at 8 o'clock tonight. There will also be present delegates from the Hollywood and other chapters in southern California.

De Molay is a junior Masonic organization for sons or close friends of Masons and the Glendale chapter has only been in existence since early in October. At present there are fifty members in the chapter. While De Molay is a secret order, public installation of officers is permitted, and the ceremonial tonight will undoubtedly attract a record crowd.

Ira L. Vance, of the advisory council of the local chapter, is to act as installing officer tonight. Percy Prieaux and Rev. C. M. Calderwood will assist. Joseph Thompson will serve as marshal and Mattison B. Jones as orator. The officers elect and appointive will wear the robes emblematic of their offices.

Preceding the ceremonial there will be vocal selections by Miss Gladys White and Mr. Pia.

MAN SHOT AND KILLED

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 23.—Frank Patelli, a section hand was shot and instantly killed at Pullton, seven miles north of here. His cousin, Matero Cinquini, is being sought by officers. Patelli was shot in the head. The shooting occurred in a small shed close to the Northwestern Pacific railroad station. Cinquini claimed the shooting was accidental.

Rail Employes Ask for Increased Wage

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Railway clerks, freight handlers and station employes—271,000 in number—today applied for an increase in wages.

Application for the wage increase was made before the United States railroad labor board this morning by E. H. Fitzgerald, president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Railway Freight and Express Employes.

"It is becoming continually more difficult for the railway employes to maintain what has been recognized as a comfortable standard of living," Mr. Fitzgerald declared.

Fitzgerald based the claim for wage increases principally on the fact that there has been a material reduction in the purchasing power of the railway wages during the past four years, and that "a considerable increase" must be made to restore the former living standard of the employes.

The present average monthly wages of clerical and station forces are $85.80 as against $109.02 under the labor board decision of 1920, according to Fitzgerald.

CITIZENS OPPOSE ANNEXATION PLAN

Great Majority at Meeting
Last Night Vote Against
Los Angeles Project

any better schools, any better police protection, you are at perfect liberty to go and try the experiment. But, remember, that the skids are greased for you to go in, but the doors are locked so that you can't get out. Annexationists say, "Ultimately it is your destiny to go into Greater Los Angeles, why not now?" "Ultimately it is your destiny to die—why not now?" the speaker humorously remarked.

OPPOSITION TO ANNEXATION WAS EXPRESSED BY ATTORNEY JONES, WHO PLACED THE MORAL ISSUE PARAMOUNT. HE CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT LOS ANGELES WOULD BE WITHIN HER RIGHTS IN GRANTING PERMITS TO POOL HALLS AS SOON AS GLENDALE SHOULD ANNEX.

"Personally, I have always been against the annexation of Glendale to Los Angeles," he asserted. "I stated so a few months after coming to Glendale. So long as the city of Los Angeles refuses to give great and glorious communities the privilege of self-government by means of what is usually termed the borough system, I would not be in favor of annexation. That is my position tonight."

For Self-Government
"I believe that the great principle of self-government obtains in city affairs. You in your own municipality have a hundred-fold more power and influence than you would have in Greater Los Angeles. It is a greater pleasure to be a big man in a little place than a little man in a big place. You men, who stand out like mountain peaks here, would not be known in Greater Los Angeles."

The cause of the annexation movement, according to Attorney Jones, is dissatisfaction over the city's supposed lethargy in the solution of the sewer problem and talk of the location of a disposal plant in the northwest section of the city. He expressed confidence that this problem will soon be settled to the satisfaction of all. He pleaded with those urging annexation on this grounds for a little patience.

"I think that the reason that this meeting is here is because so much time has elapsed and nothing has been done," declared John S. Knox of 435 South Central avenue, speaking about the sewer question. "I think this matter has come to the front because the council has failed to tell the people what is being done on this important point."

Mr. Knox painted the charms of Los Angeles in glowing colors and said that on a recent trip east he found everyone talking about the city and it made him feel proud.

"It was easy to gain business appointments by saying you were from Los Angeles," declared Mr. Knox.

Didn't you say anything about Glendale on your trip?" inquired H. James. And the big crowd had a hearty laugh.

School Management
Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of 1901 Kenneth road expressed doubt whether Glendale wanted to turn over the management of her school system to Los Angeles. She urged caution, in view of stories of alleged scandal in Los Angeles schools now being published in Los Angeles papers.

"I maintain that Glendale is able to care for herself for a little while longer," she remarked. "I should hesitate a long time before turning over the schools to Los Angeles."

In regard to the effect of annexation upon transportation rates and telephone tolls the following telegram was read by Roy L. Kent from Harley Brundage, president of the state railway
