58 VICTORIA.

CHAPTER 1.

An Act to amend and explain the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894. [14th March 1895.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, and to remove doubts which have arisen as to the construction of the said Act : 57 & 58 Vict.
c. 58.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Local Government (Scotland) Short title.
Act, 1894, Amendment Act, 1895.

2. Whereas doubts have arisen with regard to the construction Polling place for parish ward not required to be within the ward.
57 & 58 Vict.
c. 58.
of subsection (4) of section fifty-six of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, it is hereby enacted that, where any parish has been divided into wards for the purpose of the election of a parish council, it shall not be necessary that the polling place at the first or any other election of parish councillors for any such ward shall be situated within the ward.

CHAPTER 2.

An Act to provide for the Supply of Seed Potatoes to Occupiers and Cultivators of Land in Ireland.
[14th March 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Seed Potatoes Supply (Ireland) Short title.
Act, 1895.

2. The Guardians of any poor law union may apply to the Powers of Guardians to borrow.
Local Government Board for a loan under this Act for the use of any electoral division of their union, and if they satisfy the Local Government Board that the occupiers of land in that division are generally unable, through poverty and the extent of the failure of the potato crop, to procure an adequate supply of seed potatoes, the Local Government Board may approve of the application, and in that case shall transmit it to the Board of Works, who may, with the consent of the Treasury, make, out of any moneys at their disposal for the purpose of local loans, a loan to such Board of Guardians, on the security of the poor rate, leviable in the said electoral division, and without requiring any further or other security.

Terms of loan.

3.—(1.) Such loan shall be repayable by the Guardians to the Board of Works by two equal instalments, the first of which shall be paid on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and the second on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

(2.) The interest on such loan or on so much as is for the time being not repaid shall be at the lowest rate fixed by the Treasury for interest on local loans in Ireland, and shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments to the Board of Works out of the Irish Church Temporalities Fund.

(3.) When any such loan is made for the benefit of any electoral division, all poor rates leviable in the division shall become forthwith charged, without any deed of mortgage or other instrument, with the repayment by the said instalments of the loan:

Orders for payment of loans may be made by Local Government Board.

4. If at any time the Board of Works certify that any sum is payable to them by the Guardians of any union on account of any loan under this Act for the benefit of an electoral division, the Local Government Board shall, by order under their seal, assess that sum on the electoral division, and shall send copies of the order to the Guardians and to the treasurer of the union; and thereupon the treasurer of the union shall, out of any money then in his hands to the credit of the Guardians, or if such money is insufficient, then out of all moneys subsequently received by him on account of the Guardians, pay the amount mentioned in the order to the Board of Works. The Guardians shall debit the electoral division with the amount so assessed.

Application of loans.

5.—(1.) Where the Guardians obtain a loan under this Act for the benefit of any electoral division, they may apply the whole or any part thereof in purchasing seed potatoes, and in defraying all expenses incurred for carriage, storage, or otherwise in providing the same for sale, and shall, when required by the Local Government Board, repay to the Board of Works any portion of the loan which is not so applied.

(2.) The Guardians shall sell such seed subject to the following provisions:—

(a.) Seed shall not be sold to any occupier of land the rateable value of which exceeds fifteen pounds, nor for less than the net price paid by the guardians for it, including all expenses incurred for carriage, storage, or otherwise in providing such seed for sale:

- (b.) The Guardians may sell to any such occupier of land a quantity of seed potatoes not exceeding twelve hundredweight :
- (c.) They may sell to any person, who cultivates for his own use any land under a contract made by him with the occupier of the land for the purpose of growing potatoes, seed potatoes not exceeding six hundredweight: Provided that upon any such sale the Guardians shall obtain such security as they may think sufficient for the payment of the price of the seed sold :
- (d.) Seed shall not be sold to any person unless the Guardians, or such persons as the Local Government Board may nominate in that behalf, are satisfied that the land into which it is to be put has been properly prepared, and is ready for sowing :
- (e.) An abatement of one-fifth shall be made in the price of all seed which is paid for in cash ; and any loss thereby occasioned shall be charged on and paid out of the Irish Church Temporalities Fund :
- (f.) All sums received for seed paid for in cash shall be paid by the Guardians to the Board of Works at the prescribed times, and shall be applied in repayment of the loan with which the seed was bought.

6.—(1.) The amount due to the Guardians on account of any seed sold shall be paid by two equal instalments. Recovery of price from purchasers.

(2.) For obtaining payment of each such instalment due from any person the Guardians shall levy the amount, where the person is rated to the poor rate, either as part of the poor rate payable by such person, or by a special rate to be added to the poor rate assessed on the tenements occupied by such person, and to be collected therewith.

(3.) Where such person is not rated to the poor rate the Guardians shall make a special rate for the purposes of this Act in which he shall be rated.

(4.) Every such special rate shall be recoverable in the same manner and with the same remedies by the collectors of the poor rate as if it were poor rate, and shall be lodged to the credit of the Guardians with the treasurer of the union, and shall be transmitted by the Guardians at their next meeting to the Board of Works.

(5.) Provided that no person shall be entitled to make any deduction from his rent on account of any such special rate.

(6.) The first of such special rates shall be made by the Guardians at the same time as the first ordinary poor rate made after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and the second of such special rates shall be made by the Guardians at the same time as the first ordinary poor rate made after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

The first instalment payable by each purchaser of seed shall be due on the day on which the first of such special rates is made, and the second instalment shall be due on the day on which the second of such special rates is made. Any such instalment may be paid to the Board of Guardians at any earlier date.

Power to
instalment.

7. The Lord Lieutenant, with the consent of the Treasury, may, on the application of any Guardians made through the Local Government Board, postpone the payment of any instalment due from or to the Guardians under this Act to any day not later than the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine; and the time of making the special rates for the purpose of obtaining payment of any instalment so postponed shall be postponed for a corresponding period; and the postponed instalment shall become due on the day on which such postponed special rate is made.

Power of entry and inspection.

8.—(1.) The Lord Lieutenant, on the application of the Local Government Board, may, with the consent of the Treasury, appoint inspectors to assist the Guardians in the purchase of seed potatoes under this Act, and in all arrangements for the inspection, storage, and distribution of the same, and those inspectors shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament such remuneration as the Lord Lieutenant with the approval of the Treasury may direct.

(2.) All purchases by the Guardians of seed potatoes under this Act shall be made subject to the approval of the Local Government Board.

(3.) Any member of the Board of Guardians of the union, or any person nominated by the Guardians, or any inspector appointed under this Act, may at all reasonable times enter into and examine any land occupied or tilled by a purchaser of seed under this Act from such Guardians, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the seed has been properly sown, and may do all acts reasonably necessary for that purpose.

(4.) For the purpose of facilitating such examination the Guardians shall keep a list of the names and addresses of all purchasers of seed, and shall permit such list to be inspected by any person having authority to enter and examine under this Act.

(5.) If any person refuses to a Guardian or other person acting in execution of the powers conferred by this section admission to any land which such Guardian or person is entitled to enter or examine, or obstructs or impedes him in so entering or examining, the person so offending shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Summary recovery of price of seed.

9. If any purchaser of seed from Guardians under this Act does not properly sow such seed, the Guardians may forthwith recover the price of such seed, whether the amount is more or less than two pounds, before the justices in petty sessions, in the manner prescribed by the Act of the session of the twenty-second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fourteen, and any Acts amending it; and the provisions of such Acts shall apply as if the amount was under two pounds.

22 Vict. c. 14.

Rules and regulations.

10. The Local Government Board may make general rules and regulations as regards,—

- (a) the times and manner of summoning and holding meetings of Guardians for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) the time within which applications are to be made under this Act:

- (c) the information to be given by Guardians to the Local Government Board in respect of the persons in the several electoral divisions in the unions who are in need of, but are unable to procure, seed potatoes, and who the Guardians believe would be willing to purchase the same under this Act :
- (d) the forms of all estimates, circulars, notices, and receipts to be used by the Guardians under this Act :
- (e) the times at which sums received by Guardians as the price of seed paid for in cash are to be paid to the Board of Works :
- (f) any other matter or thing, whether similar or not to those before mentioned, in respect of which it may seem to the Local Government Board expedient to make rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

11.—(1.) Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect any proceedings which might have been instituted by the Board of Works or by any Guardians for the enforcement of any contract or the recovery of any debt. Savings.

(2.) No electoral disability or loss of parliamentary or other franchise shall be incurred by any voter by reason of the purchase of seed under this Act.

12. If at any time within three months before the passing of this Act the Board of Works have advanced money to any Guardians for the purchase of seed, the sum so advanced, or any part thereof remaining unpaid, shall be a charge upon the rates leviable on such electoral divisions in the union as the Local Government Board appoint ; and such sum or part shall be repaid in the same manner as sums lent by the Board of Works to Guardians under the authority of this Act, and the provisions of this Act relative to the repayment of loans made under the authority of this Act shall apply to such loans made before the passing of this Act. Repayment of loans made by Board of Works.

13. If at any time within three months before the passing of this Act any outlay has been made by any Guardians, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, for the purchase of seed for sale to occupiers of land or other persons qualified to purchase such seed under this Act in the union, such outlay, and all resolutions and proceedings of the board and of their officers in relation thereto, shall be ratified and confirmed and be as valid and effectual as if the outlay had been made, and the resolutions and proceedings had been passed and taken, under the authority and in compliance with the provisions of this Act ; and all persons who have acted in any manner in making any loan to any Guardians, or in making any advance of money to the Board of Works for the purpose of any such loan, or in making such outlay for seed, shall be released and indemnified from and against any penalties and surcharges in consequence thereof. Confirmation of expenditure by Guardians, and indemnity.

14. In this Act—

The expression “poor rate” means any rate leviable under the Acts made for the relief of the poor in Ireland :

The expression “rateable value” means the annual rateable value under the Irish Valuation Acts, and, where any land occupied

CHAPTER 7.

An Act to provide, during twelve months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army. [9th April 1895.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and fifty-five thousand four hundred and three men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions :

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid :

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

And whereas the Army Act will expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five on the following days :

- (a.) In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April ; and
- (b.) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July ; and
- (c.) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1895.

Army Act
(44 & 45 Vict.
c. 58.) to be in force for specified times.

2.—(1.) The Army Act shall be and remain in force during the periods herein-after mentioned, and no longer, unless otherwise provided by Parliament; that is to say,

(a.) Within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, both inclusive; and

(b.) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five to the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, both inclusive; and

(c.) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, both inclusive; and the day from which the Army Act is continued in any place by this Act is in relation to that place referred to in this Act as the commencement of this Act.

(2.) The Army Act, while in force, shall apply to persons subject to military law, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions.

(3.) A person subject to military law shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number herein-before mentioned.

Prices in respect of billeting.

3. There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation provided by him in pursuance of the Army Act the prices specified in the schedule to this Act.

Amendments of Army Act.

Amendment of
44 & 45 Vict.
c. 58. s. 136 as to deductions.

4. To section one hundred and thirty-six of the Army Act shall be added the words "or by any law passed by the Governor-General of India in Council."

Repeal of 44 & 45 Vict.
c. 58. s. 151.

5. Section one hundred and fifty-one of the Army Act shall be repealed.

Amendment of 44 & 45 Vict.
c. 58. s. 163 as to proof of certain documents.

6. In section one hundred and sixty-three, sub-section (1), paragraph (c) of the Army Act, after the words "Queen's regulations" shall be inserted the words "or regulations referred to" in section one hundred and forty-two of this Act," and after the word "circulars" in each place where it occurs shall be inserted the words "or orders,"

7.—(1.) In section one hundred and eighty, sub-section (2) (c), of the Army Act for the words "Governor of any presidency in India" shall be substituted the words "Governor-General of India," and the words "within such presidency" shall be omitted. Amendment of 44 & 45 Vict. c. 58. s. 180 as to Indian forces.

(2.) In paragraph (d) of the same sub-section for the words following "entitled" shall be substituted the following words:—"may complain to the officer appointed in that behalf by the Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India with the approval of the Governor-General, and that officer shall cause his complaint to be inquired into, and thereupon report to the Governor-General in order to receive the further directions of the Governor-General."

(3.) In paragraph (f) of the same sub-section, for the words "The Governor of any of the presidencies in India" shall be substituted the words "The Governor-General of India," and the words "who is serving in or belonging to such presidency" shall be omitted.

8. In section eighty-three, sub-section (6), and section one hundred and ninety, sub-section (15) of the Army Act, for the words "army hospital corps" shall be substituted the words "medical staff corps." Amendment of 44 & 45 Vict. c. 58. ss. 83, 190, as to definition of corps.

9. In section one hundred and ninety, sub-section (8) of the Army Act, the word "Fencible" shall be omitted. Amendment of 44 & 45 Vict. c. 58. s. 190 as to description of Royal Malta Artillery.

CHAPTER 8.An Act to amend the Grand Jury (Ireland) Laws.

[14th May 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Certificate of completion of contract to be furnished to grand jury.
6 & 7 Will. 4. c. 116.

1.—(1.) Where, at the time of the holding of the presentment sessions at which application for payment for the execution of any work of maintenance under the Grand Jury (Ireland) Act, 1836, and any Act amending the same is made, the county surveyor is unable, by reason of the time for completing such work not having expired, to furnish a certificate that such work has been completed, it shall be sufficient for any contractor for such work, and he is hereby required, to produce to the presentment sessions and to the grand jury at the next ensuing assizes respectively the certificates herein-after mentioned.

(2.) It shall be lawful for the presentment sessions to allow an application for payment on the part of any such contractor for such sum as he would be entitled to under the terms of his contract at or before the next ensuing assizes, on the production of a certificate from the county surveyor of the due execution of the work up to a period of seven days before the date of the holding of such presentment sessions, which certificate the county surveyor is hereby empowered to give: Provided always, that no grand jury at the said ensuing assizes shall allow any such application unless a certificate from the county surveyor be produced to it of the due execution up to the said ensuing assizes of the work according to the terms of the contract, which said further certificate the said county surveyor is hereby empowered to give.

Conditions as to payment.

2. No application for payment as aforesaid which, before the passing of this Act, was allowed by the presentment sessions shall be disallowed by reason only that the certificate on which such allowance was made was premature, but before allowing any such application it shall be the duty of the grand jury to ascertain from the county surveyor whether in the interval between the presentment sessions and the assizes the contractor has duly performed his work according to the terms of his contract.

Half-yearly payments.

3. Every contract entered into under the Grand Jury (Ireland) Act, 1836, and any Act amending the same for maintenance works shall imply a term for half-yearly payments, unless the contrary be therein expressly declared.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Grand Jury (Ireland) Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 9.

An Act to apply the Documentary Evidence Acts to the Board of Agriculture. [14th May 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Documentary Evidence Act, 1868, as amended by the Documentary Evidence Act, 1882, shall apply to the Board of Agriculture in like manner as if that Board were mentioned in the first column of the schedule to the first-mentioned Act, and the President or any member of the Board, or the Secretary of the Board, or any person authorised by the President to act on behalf of the Secretary of the Board, were mentioned in the second column of that schedule, and as if the regulations referred to in those Acts included any document issued by the Board.

Application of Documentary Evidence Acts to Board of Agriculture. 31 & 32 Vict. c. 37. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 9.

2. This Act may be cited as the Documentary Evidence Act, 1895, and the Documentary Evidence Act, 1868, and the Documentary Evidence Act, 1882, and this Act may be cited collectively as the Documentary Evidence Acts, 1868 to 1895.

CHAPTER 10.

An Act for settling and securing an Annuity upon the Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel in consideration of his eminent Services. [14th May 1895.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland did, by an humble address to Your Majesty, pray Your Majesty that you would be graciously pleased to confer some signal mark of your royal favour upon the Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel, Speaker of the House of Commons, for his eminent services during the important period in which he had with such distinguished ability and dignity presided in the Chair of the House, and did assure Your Majesty that whatever expense Your Majesty should think proper to be incurred upon that account the said House would make good the same :

And whereas Your Majesty in answer to the said address was graciously pleased to declare that Your Majesty was desirous, in compliance with the wishes of your faithful Commons, to confer upon the said Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel some signal mark of your royal favour, but as the same could not be effectually granted and secured without the concurrence of Parliament, Your Majesty recommended to the House of Commons the adoption of such measures as might be necessary for the accomplishment of that purpose :

Now we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have resolved that the annual sum of four thousand pounds be granted to Your Majesty out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, to begin upon the day upon which the Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel, late Speaker of the House of Commons, ceased to hold the office of Speaker of the House of Commons, to be settled in the most beneficial manner upon, and to continue during the life of, him the said Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel, and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Annuity of 4,000*l.* to be paid to the Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel.

1. One annuity of four thousand pounds shall be charged upon and payable quarterly out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or the growing produce thereof, to the Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel, during his natural life, beginning on the day upon which he ceased to hold the office of Speaker of the House of Commons; provided that one half of the annuity shall abate and be suspended during any period that the said Right Honourable Arthur Wellesley Peel hereafter holds any place, office, or employment under Her Majesty of equal or greater amount in salary, profits, or emolument than the amount of the annuity.

Treasury to direct payment of annuity.

2. The Treasury are hereby authorised and required by warrants under their hands to direct the payment of the said annuity according to the provisions of this Act.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as Mr. Speaker's Retirement Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 11.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Taxation of Costs under the Lands Clauses Acts.

[14th May 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Fees for taxing costs in compensation in inquiries and arbitrations. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.

1.—(1.) Where under the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any Act incorporating the same, any question of disputed compensation is determined by the verdict of a jury, or by arbitration, the costs of and incidental to the inquiry or to the arbitration and award (as the case may be), shall, if either party so requires, be taxed and settled as between the parties by one of the masters of the Supreme Court, and such fees shall be taken in respect of the taxation as may be fixed in pursuance of the enactments relating to the fees to be taken in the offices of those masters; and all those enactments (including the enactments relating to the taking of fees by means of stamps) shall extend to the fees in respect of such taxation.

(2.) Section forty-five of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1868, and section one of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1869, are hereby repealed.

31 & 32 Vict.
c. 119.
32 & 33 Vict.
c. 18.

2. This Act may be cited as the Lands Clauses (Taxation of Costs) Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 12.

An Act to make provision for the temporary absence of the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District.

[14th May 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. If and whilst the receiver for the metropolitan police district is temporarily absent from his duties a person appointed by warrant under the hand of the Secretary of State may temporarily act as and shall be deemed for all purposes to be such receiver.

Power to provide for temporary absence of receiver.

2. This Act may be cited as the Metropolitan Police (Receiver) Act, 1895, and shall be read with the Metropolitan Police Acts, 1829 to 1890.

Short title.

CHAPTER 13.

An Act to amend the Cruelty to Animals (Scotland) Act, 1850.

[30th May 1895.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Cruelty to Animals (Scotland) Act, 1850.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Cruelty to Animals (Scotland) Act, 1895, and it shall be read and construed along with the Cruelty to Animals (Scotland) Act, 1850.

Short title.
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 92.

2. The definition of the word "animal" in section eleven of the recited Act shall be amended by adding at the end thereof the words "or any game or fighting cock, or other domestic fowl or bird," and every person who shall in any manner encourage, aid, or assist at any cock fight, whether in a place kept for that purpose or otherwise, shall be guilty of an offence under the said Act.

Extension of definition of "animal."

CHAPTER 14.An Act to provide for the Regulation of Fees payable in the Courts of Law in Scotland. [30th May 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title and extent.

1. This Act may be cited as the Courts of Law Fees (Scotland) Act, 1895, and shall apply to Scotland only.

Power of Court of Justiciary and Court of Session to regulate fees.

2. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the High Court of Justiciary as to that Court, and for the Lords of Council and Session as to the Court of Session and Sheriff Courts, with the approval, in each case, of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make by Act of Adjournment, or Act of Sederunt, respectively, such rules and regulations as may, in their judgment, from time to time be necessary for carrying out the following purposes, viz. :—

(a.) To alter or otherwise regulate the amount of any fees for the time being payable in any of the above-named Courts of Law, or in any office connected therewith, or to the officers thereof, and to prepare or approve of amended tables of fees in place of the fees now payable :

(b.) To frame regulations as to the time and place of payment of the said fees, and to prescribe forms of books to be kept in any office in which such fees are payable.

Provided always, that when, under any Act of Parliament, it is enacted that the fees to be drawn from any office or department shall not be greater than may be reasonably sufficient for defraying the expenses of such office or department, such provision shall receive effect in any regulation of fees under this Act.

Taxation of accounts in Court of Justiciary.

3. All accounts of expenses found due in the High Court of Justiciary, or in any inferior Court whose judgment has been brought under the review of the High Court of Justiciary, by suspension or appeal, or otherwise, unless the amount of the expenses found due shall have been determined or modified by the said High Court, shall be remitted to the auditor of the Court of Session to be examined and taxed in like manner, and subject to the same regulations, as accounts of expenses in actions in the Court of Session.

Power to regulate fees to keepers of London and Edinburgh Gazettes for certain notices. 19 & 20 Vict. c. 79.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands, to regulate, alter, and amend the table of fees payable to the keepers of the London Gazette, and of the Edinburgh Gazette, for notices under the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act, 1856 ; and section one hundred and eighty-three of the said Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

5. All Acts of Parliament or Acts of Sederunt, in so far as inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

[30th May 1895.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the sum of seven million eight hundred and fifty-five thousand two hundred and sixty-eight pounds.

7,855,268*l.* out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st
March 1896.

2. The Treasury may borrow from any person, and the Bank of England may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sum, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of seven million eight hundred and fifty-five thousand two hundred and sixty-eight pounds, and the Treasury shall repay the moneys so borrowed with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Power to the Treasury to borrow.

Any sums so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

3. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund (No. 2) Act, 1895.

Short title.

CHAPTER 16.

An Act to grant certain Duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, to repeal and alter other Duties, and to amend the Law relating to Customs and Inland Revenue and to make Provision for the Financial Arrangements of the Year. [30th May 1895.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies to defray Your Majesty's public expenses, and making an addition to the public revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several duties herein-after mentioned ; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE.

Duty on tea.

1. The duty of customs now payable on tea shall continue to be charged, levied, and paid, on and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, on the importation thereof into Great Britain or Ireland (that is to say) :—

Tea, the pound - - - Fourpence.

Addition to customs duties on special kinds of beer.

2.—(1.) In addition to the duties of customs payable on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, on beer of the descriptions called mum, spruce, or black beer, imported into Great Britain or Ireland, there shall be charged, levied, and paid, on and after the said first day of July until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the duties following (that is to say) :—

For every thirty-six gallons of beer where the worts thereof are or were before fermentation of a specific gravity—
Not exceeding one thousand two hundred and fifteen degrees - - - -	0	2	0
Exceeding one thousand two hundred and fifteen degrees - - - -	0	2	4

(2.) This section shall extend to Berlin white beer, and other preparations, whether fermented or not fermented, of a character similar to mum, spruce, or black beer.

3. In addition to the duties of customs payable on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, on every description of beer (other than is specified in the last preceding section) imported into Great Britain or Ireland, there shall be charged, levied, and paid, on and after the said first day of July until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the duty following (that is to say) :—

Addition to customs duty on all other beer.

For every thirty-six gallons where the worts thereof were before fermentation of a specific gravity of one thousand and fifty-five degrees	-	-	0 0 6 and there shall be allowed and paid in and for the same period in respect of all such beer a similar addition to the drawback granted on exportation, shipment for use as stores, or removal to the Isle of Man, by section four of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881. And so, as to both duty and drawback, in proportion for any difference in gravity.

44 & 45 Vict. c. 12.

4. In addition to the duty of excise payable on and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five in respect of beer brewed in the United Kingdom, there shall be charged, levied, and paid, on and after that day until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six—

Addition to excise duty on beer.

For every thirty-six gallons of worts of a specific gravity of one thousand and fifty-five degrees, the duty of sixpence, and so in proportion for any difference in quantity or gravity.

5. In addition to the drawback of excise otherwise payable in respect of beer exported from the United Kingdom as merchandise or shipped for use as ship's stores, there shall be allowed and paid in respect of beer brewed in the United Kingdom between the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six—

Addition to excise drawback on beer.

For every thirty-six gallons of beer of an original gravity of one thousand and fifty-five degrees, the drawback of sixpence, and so in proportion for any difference in quantity or gravity.

6. Regulations of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, under section one hundred and fifty-nine of the Spirits Act, 1880, may regulate the removal for exportation of methylated spirits, and where spirits used for methylation are removed from a place of methylation and exported in accordance with those regulations, there shall be paid to the exporter an allowance of twopence for every gallon of such spirits, computed at hydrometer proof, and subsection three of section three of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1885, shall apply, as if the spirits were exported and the allowance made in pursuance of that section.

Regulations for and allowance on exportation of methylated spirits.

43 & 44 Vict. c. 24.

48 & 49 Vict. c. 51.

Extension of 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 36, s. 119
as to time for payment of drawbacks to other allowances and drawbacks.
48 & 49 Vict.
c. 51.
52 & 53 Vict.
c. 42.

7. After the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, section one hundred and nineteen of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876 (which limits the time for the payment of a drawback on the exportation of goods), shall extend to the payment of any allowance in respect of spirits exported, used, or deposited, which is payable under section three of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1885, as amended by section twenty-one of the Revenue Act, 1889, and to an allowance in respect of methylated spirits exported which is payable under this Act, and to the payment of any drawback of excise which is allowed on the exportation of any goods, in like manner as if it were in terms made applicable thereto, and the date of user or deposit were the date of shipment.

Amendment of 43 & 44 Vict.
c. 24, ss. 74
and 95 as to removal of spirits for exportation or ship's stores.

8. Spirits to which any sweetening or colouring matter or any other ingredient has been added in warehouse, and spirits warehoused by a rectifier of spirits for exportation or ship's stores, and British liqueurs, may, if bottled and packed in cases when delivered from a warehouse, be removed, notwithstanding anything in sections seventy-four and ninety-five of the Spirits Act, 1880, to another warehouse for exportation or ship's stores.

PART II.

STAMPS.

Repeal of an exemption from stamp duty
on receipts.
54 & 55 Vict.
c. 39.

9.—(1.) Exemption numbered eight under the head "Receipt" in the First Schedule to the Stamp Act, 1891, is hereby repealed; and the duty shall be charged as if the exemption had not been contained in that schedule; provided that neither the name of a banker (whether accompanied by words of receipt or not) written in the ordinary course of his business as a banker upon a bill of exchange or promissory note duly stamped, nor the name of the payee written upon a draft or order, if payable to order, shall constitute a receipt chargeable with stamp duty.

(2.) This section shall take effect as from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

Repeal of stamp duty on M.D. degree in Scotland.
54 & 55 Vict.
c. 39.

10. The duty imposed by the Stamp Act, 1891, upon the admission of any person to the degree of doctor of medicine in either of the universities in Scotland, shall cease to be payable.

Reduction of stamp duty on powers of attorney for transfer of small sums of Government stock.

11. The stamp duty on a letter or power of attorney for the sale, transfer, or acceptance of any government or parliamentary stocks or funds shall be—

Collection of stamp duty in cases of property vested by Act or pur-

12. Where after the passing of this Act, by virtue of any Act, whether passed before or after this Act, either—

- (a) any property is vested by way of sale in any person; or
- (b) any person is authorised to purchase property;

such person shall within three months after the passing of the Act, or the date of vesting, whichever is later, or after the completion of the purchase, as the case may be, produce to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue a copy of the Act printed by the Queen's printer of Acts of Parliament or some instrument relating to the vesting in the first case, and an instrument of conveyance of the property in the other case, duly stamped with the ad valorem duty payable upon a conveyance on sale of the property; and in default of such production, the duty with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the passing of the Act, date of vesting, or completion of the purchase, as the case may be, shall be a debt to Her Majesty from such person.

power.

13. Whereas section ninety-eight of the Stamp Act, 1891, provides that "a policy of insurance against accident" includes a notice or advertisement in a newspaper or other publication which purports to insure the payment of money upon the death of or injury to the holder or bearer of the newspaper or publication from accident, and doubts have arisen as to the like notices or advertisements in other cases, it is hereby for the removal of doubts declared that "a policy of insurance for any payment agreed to be made during the sickness of any person or his incapacity from personal injury" within the meaning of the Stamp Act, 1891, includes a notice or advertisement in a newspaper or other publication which purports to insure such payment.

Extension of 54 & 55 Vict.
c. 39, s. 98
to policies of insurance for sickness.

14. Where foreign securities within the meaning of sections eighty-two and eighty-three of the Stamp Act, 1891, are issued in the United Kingdom, and the interest thereon is not payable in the United Kingdom, and such evidence of the amount of the securities as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue require is produced to them, then the Commissioners, if in their discretion they consider it expedient to do so, may accept payment of the amount of stamp duty which would be payable if all the said securities were duly stamped, and on such payment may dispense with the necessity of the securities being stamped. The Commissioners shall give notice in the London Gazette of any such dispensation.

Amendment of 54 & 55 Vict.
c. 39, as to the payment of stamp duty on certain foreign securities.

15. So much of section fifteen of the Stamp Act, 1891, as limits the time within which the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may mitigate or remit any penalty payable on stamping shall be repealed.

Abolition of limit of time for mitigating penalties under 54 & 55 Vict.
c. 39, s. 15.

16. Section one hundred and forty-four of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883 (which exempts from stamp duty certain documents relating to the estates of bankrupts and to bankruptcies), shall apply to the estates of companies wound up by order of the Court under the Companies Winding-up Act, 1890, and to such winding up, in like manner as if the company were a bankrupt and the winding up were a bankruptcy; and proceedings under section fifteen of the latter Act shall for this purpose be part of the proceedings in the winding up.

Extension to companies of 46 & 47 Vict.
c. 52, s. 144
as to exemption from stamp duty.
53 & 54 Vict.
c. 63.

PART III.

INCOME TAX.

Grant of duty of income tax, and application of Acts.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 34.

17.—(1.) There shall be charged, levied, and paid for the year which began on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, in respect of all property profits and gains respectively described or comprised in the several Schedules A., B., C., D., and E. in the Income Tax Act, 1853, the following duties of income tax (that is to say):—

For every twenty shillings of the annual value or amount of property profits and gains chargeable under the said Schedules A., C., D., or E., the duty of eightpence; and

For every twenty shillings of the annual value of the occupation of lands tenements hereditaments and heritages chargeable under the said Schedule B., the duty of threepence.

(2.) All such enactments relating to income tax as were in force on the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five shall have full force and effect with respect to the duties of income tax hereby granted, so far as those enactments are consistent with this Act.

Assessment of income tax under Schedules A. and B., and of the inhabited house duty for the year 1895-6.

16 & 17 Vict. c. 34.

18.—(1.) The annual value of any property which has been adopted for the purpose of income tax under Schedules A. and B. in the Income Tax Act, 1853, or for the purpose of inhabited house duty during the year which began on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, shall be taken as the annual value of such property for the same purpose during the year which began on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five: Provided that this section—

(a) so far as respects the duty on inhabited houses in Scotland, shall be construed with the substitution of the twenty-fifth day of May for the sixth day of April; and

(b) shall not apply to the metropolis as defined by the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869.

32 & 33 Vict. c. 67.

(2.) The inspectors or surveyors of taxes shall be the assessors of the income tax under the said Schedules A. and B., and of the house duty.

PART IV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Repeal.

19. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed, to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

custodier of consignations.
12 & 13 Vict.
c. 51.
20 & 21 Vict.
c. 18.

No fees shall be payable to the Accountant in cases of consignations other than those which are or may be prescribed by the Lords of Council and Session with the sanction of the Treasury.

4. All consignations shall be entered by the Accountant in a book or books, to be kept by him for the purpose, in such form as the Lords of Council and Session may from time to time by Act of Sederunt prescribe, and any person interested shall be entitled to inspect such books under such regulations as to fees or otherwise as the Accountant may, with the approval of the said Lords and of the Treasury, prescribe.

Consignations to be entered in books kept by Accountant of Court.

5. Within ten days after receipt of any consignation in money the Accountant shall lodge the same on deposit receipt in one of the banks in Scotland, established by Act of Parliament or Royal Charter, and every deposit receipt for money lodged in any of the said banks representing a consignation, whether lodged by the Accountant, or by any party to a cause, or by any other person, shall be taken in name of the Accountant and his successors in office, and shall bear on the face of it the name of the party or parties by whom or on whose behalf the consignation is made, and of the cause, or proceeding, or bond to which it relates.

Consignations to be deposited in bank.

6. The Accountant shall be responsible for the safe custody of all consignations made with him, and shall be bound to account for the same with interest, if any, accrued thereon to the person having right thereto, subject to the orders of the Court. The Accountant shall not be liable for any loss resulting from the failure of any bank in which any consignation shall have been made as aforesaid.

for.

7. As soon as may be after the passing of this Act, the Lord Ordinary in Exchequer Causes, on the representation of the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, shall, after such inquiry as he may deem necessary, determine the amount of consignations made prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the name of the Accountant, or of any of the Clerks of Court, as the case may be, or deposited in bank in the name of any person by order of the Court, or in virtue of the provisions of any Act, or otherwise deposited in the name of any party or agent in a cause or proceeding, or by a trustee in a sequestration or cessio as an unclaimed dividend or special deposit, and not paid out or otherwise accounted for; and shall certify the same to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, appending to his certificate a list of the consignations made prior to the said date and found by him to be still unpaid, or not otherwise accounted for, including any interest which may have accrued thereon, and also the amount at the aforesaid date at the credit of the fund called "the Interest Account of Unclaimed Dividends," in terms of section one hundred and fifty-three of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act, 1856; and the Accountant or the Clerk of Court, as the case may be, shall account for, and any bank having the custody of such consignment shall pay over, within one month after the receipt of a requisition to that effect, the amount so determined, to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, who shall in exchange grant a receipt binding himself and his successors in office to relieve the said Accountant, or Clerk of Court or bank, of any claim that may be established in respect of any sum so paid over to him, which receipt shall be a discharge to the said Accountant, or the said clerk or bank.

19 & 20 Vict.
c. 79.

Clerks to lodge returns of consignations subsequent to 1888 with Accountant of Court.

8. Any Clerk of Court who may have, at the passing of this Act, the custody of any consignations made with him or his predecessors in office respectively shall within six months after the passing of this Act, lodge with the Accountant a detailed statement of all consignations made with him or his predecessors in office on or after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and not at the date of the passing of this Act paid out or otherwise accounted for, and the Accountant shall examine and check such statement with the relative books and vouchers in the hands of the said clerk; and the said clerk shall thereafter, on being required by the Accountant, pay over to him the several amounts so found due, with interest, if any, or deliver to him the deposit receipts or other securities or vouchers applicable to the said consignations, and the Accountant shall, upon such payment being made, grant a receipt binding himself and his successors in office to relieve the said clerk so paying over or making delivery as aforesaid, of any claim that may be established in respect of such consignations and interest, and shall thereupon become responsible for any consignations so paid over or delivered.

lodge returns

9. On or before the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, the Accountant shall lodge with the Lord President of the Court of Session, and with the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, a detailed return of all consignations made with him and his predecessors in office, or with any of the Clerks of Court during the year ending thirty-first December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and which are unpaid or not accounted for at the date of the said return; and, similarly, on or before the first day of April in each succeeding year, a like return of unpaid consignations shall be made in respect of the year which shall have terminated seven years prior to the previous thirty-first December, and the Accountant shall, along with the said return, deliver the deposit receipts or other vouchers, or pay the amount of such consignations mentioned therein, with any interest which may have accrued thereon, to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, and the endorsement by the said Remembrancer of any deposit receipt or other voucher shall be a sufficient warrant to a bank to pay the amount deposited, with interest, to the said Remembrancer, who shall, upon such payment being made, grant a receipt binding himself and his successors in office to relieve the Accountant of any claim that may be established in respect of such consignations and interest, and shall thereupon become responsible for any consignations so paid over or delivered.

of consignations with Lord President.

10. Section one hundred and fifty-three of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act, 1856, is hereby repealed, in so far as regards the manner in which unclaimed dividends after the lapse of twenty-five years from the closing of a sequestration and any interest thereon are to be dealt with, and in lieu thereof the Accountant shall at the end of seven years from the date of deposit hand over the deposit receipts or other securities or vouchers for any unclaimed dividends or special deposits or unapplied balances belonging to a bankrupt estate, and received by him in terms of the above-mentioned section, to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, who shall thereupon obtain payment, in the manner and on the conditions aforesaid, of the amount due, principal and interest, from the bank in which the deposit was made, and each bank in which a deposit of unclaimed dividends has been made shall on or before the first day of April in each year account to the said Remembrancer for the interest on the interest account of unclaimed dividends for the preceding calendar year, and a receipt under the hand of the said Remembrancer shall be a sufficient discharge to the Accountant for the duties imposed on him by the said section, and to the said banks for the payments so made by them.

Unclaimed dividends in a sequestration to be made over to the Queen's Remembrancer.
19 & 20 Vict. c. 79.

11. It shall not be necessary for the Accountant to enter in detail in the register of unclaimed dividends the names of those creditors whose unclaimed dividends do not, respectively, exceed one pound sterling, and section one hundred and fifty-three of the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act, 1856, in so far as inconsistent therewith, is hereby repealed.

Unclaimed dividends if under twenty shillings in amount.

12. The Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer shall report to the Lord President of the Court of Session any instance of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act which may come powered to pay five thousand pounds towards improvements in Advocate's Library.

15. It shall be lawful for the Treasury to pay to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings out of moneys accumulated under the provisions of this Act towards the making of any additions, alterations, or improvements in or about the Library of the Faculty of Advocates at or adjoining the Parliament House, Edinburgh, and of such alterations of the buildings, courts, offices, and chambers at the said Parliament House, as the said Commissioners, with the consent of the said Faculty, may think proper, such sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of five thousand pounds, as shall by the said Commissioners be required.

Right to claim moneys in Queen's Re-membrancer's hands.

16. Every person having any legal claim to the moneys to be paid over in terms of this Act, or any part of them, shall have such and the like claim thereto, and such and the like right to demand and recover the same from the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer, after payment thereof to the said Remembrancer, as from the person or persons having possession of such moneys before payment to the said Remembrancer; and an order by the court in which any consignment has been made or received for the payment thereof, or of any part thereof, to any person or persons named, shall be sufficient warrant to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer to make such payment, and such court shall continue to have jurisdiction relative to the disposal of such consignment, and the parties to the cause shall have the same rights of appeal and otherwise in case of dispute regarding the consignment as they would have had if the money had remained in the hands of the Accountant or any of the Clerks of Court.

"Clerk of Court."

17. The expression "Clerk of Court" shall mean and include the Clerk or any of the Circuit Clerks of Justiciary, the Principal, Depute, or other Clerks of Session, the Clerk of the Bills, and the Clerk of Teinds.

CHAPTER 20.

An Act to amend the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883. [27th June 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1.) Where under the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, the dividend on any share capital of a company has been guaranteed by a barony, the Lord Lieutenant may, with the consent of the Treasury, and with the consent of the company and of the grand jury of any county in which the tramway is situated given in the manner required by this Act, provide by Order in Council for the redemption by the Treasury under this Act of their liability in respect of the guaranteed dividend, and may by the Order provide for the payment and application of the money paid for the redemption, for any consequential reduction and rearrangement of the capital of the company and of the baronial guarantee, for increased provision for securing the public interests whether by means of directors or otherwise, for any other change in the constitution of the company, and for all such matters as may seem necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the purposes of the Order.

Arrangement for redemption of Treasury contribution to tramway guarantee.
46 & 47 Vict.
c. 43.

(2.) Any such Order in Council shall be subject to the like petition of appeal and confirmation as an order under the said Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883.

(3.) For the purpose of this section the grand jury may give their consent by a presentment.

(4.) For the purposes of this section the company may give their consent by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority. A meeting shall be specially called for the purpose, and the resolution shall be deemed to have been passed by a two-thirds majority if—

(a) when there is no poll, it is passed at that meeting by a majority of two-thirds of such members of the company for the time being entitled, according to the regulations of the company, to vote, as may be present in person, or, if the regulations of the company permit proxies, by proxy, at such meeting; and

(b) when a poll is demanded at the meeting by not less than five members present as aforesaid at such meeting, the resolution is passed by a majority of two-thirds of the votes recorded at such poll in accordance with the regulations of the company.

(5.) Unless a poll is demanded, no proof of the majority being a two-thirds majority shall be required. The declaration of the chairman and an entry in the minutes or books of proceedings of the company that the resolution has been carried and no poll demanded, or, if there is a poll, of the result of the poll, shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the facts so declared or entered.

Terms for redemption by Treasury of their contribution to guarantee.

2.—(1.) The Treasury may consent to redeem, and may redeem their liability to the grand jury in respect of the guaranteed dividend on the share capital of the company by payment of a capital sum not exceeding in any case thirty-three and a third times the estimated annual amount of such liability; and upon the payment of that sum, the liability proposed to be thereby redeemed shall cease, but the aggregate sum which can be guaranteed by the Treasury shall be reduced by the maximum annual amount of the liability redeemed.

(2.) The amount required for any such payment may be advanced to the Treasury by the National Debt Commissioners, and shall be repaid with interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum by a terminable annuity for such period not exceeding thirty years as may be determined by the Treasury, which annuity shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament for the service of the Board of Works, and if and so far as not so paid shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof, and the amount of such annuity shall be certified under the hand of the Actuary and Comptroller General or assistant comptroller of the National Debt Office.

Enforcement of obligation as to maintenance and working of tramway.

3.—(1.) The redemption of their liability by the Treasury under this Act shall not affect the obligation of the company or any grand jury under the principal Acts as regards the efficient maintenance and working of the tramway, and if at any time it appears to the Lord Lieutenant on the report of the Board of Trade that such obligation is not fulfilled, he shall declare the same, and thereupon, until the Lord Lieutenant declares that the obligation is being fulfilled, the grand jury shall pay to the Crown an annual sum (accruing from day to day) equal to three per cent. on the capital sum paid by the Treasury for the redemption of their liability; and such sum as may be from time to time certified by the Board of Works to be due under this enactment shall be paid by the grand jury at the cost of the guaranteeing baronies or other guaranteeing areas, and section four of the Public Works Loans (Ireland) Act, 1877, shall apply as if the sum and certificate were such sum and certificate as are in that section mentioned.

40 & 41 Vict. c. 27.

(2.) Any declaration of the Lord Lieutenant for the purposes of this section may be made as often as occasion arises.

Short title and construction.

39 & 40 Vict. c. 65.
44 & 45 Vict. c. 17.
46 & 47 Vict. c. 43.

4. This Act may be cited as the Tramways (Ireland) Act, 1895, and shall be construed as one with the principal Acts; that is to say, the Tramways and Public Companies (Ireland) Act, 1883, and the Tramways (Ireland) Acts as therein defined.

CHAPTER 21.

An Act to provide for prohibiting the Catching of Seals at certain periods in Behring Sea and other parts of the Pacific Ocean adjacent to Behring Sea, and for regulating the Seal Fisheries in those Seas.

[27th June 1895.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Seal Fishery (North Pacific) Act, 1893, and to re-enact it with amendments: 56 & 57 Vict.
c. 23.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) Her Majesty the Queen may, by Order in Council, prohibit, during the period specified in the Order, the catching of seals by British ships in such parts of the seas to which this Act applies as are specified in the Order. Power to prohibit by Order in Council the hunting of seals in Behring Sea and adjacent parts of the Pacific Ocean.

(2.) While an Order in Council under this Act is in force—

- (a) a person belonging to a British ship shall not kill, take, or hunt, or attempt to kill or take, any seal during the period and within the seas specified in the Order; and
- (b) a British ship shall not, nor shall any of the equipment or crew thereof, be used or employed in such killing, taking, hunting, or attempt.

(3.) If there is any contravention of this section, any person committing procuring aiding or abetting such contravention shall be guilty of a misdemeanor within the meaning of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the ship and her equipment and everything on board thereof shall be subject to forfeiture to Her Majesty. 57 & 58 Vict.
c. 60.

2.—(1.) Her Majesty the Queen may by Order in Council make, as respects such parts of the seas to which this Act applies as are specified in the Order, regulations— Power to regulate seal fishing.

- (a) for entering in the official log of a ship particulars respecting the hunting, killing, and taking of seals, and
- (b) for regulating the hunting and taking of seals, with power to prohibit or restrict the use therein of any particular kind of vessels, methods, or implements.

(2.) If there is any contravention of any such regulation any person who committed procured aided or abetted such contravention shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(3.) If the regulations under this section provide for the entry of particulars in the official log of a ship, the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, with reference to official logs (including the penal provisions), shall apply to every ship engaged in seal fishing within such of the seas to which this Act applies as are specified in the Order. 57 & 58 Vict.
c. 60.

Procedure for enforcing Act.

3.—(1.) Any offence or fine under this Act may be prosecuted or recovered in like manner as if it were an offence or fine under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

(2.) For the purpose of the forfeiture of any ship under this Act, section seventy-six of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, shall apply.

(3.) Where any commissioned officer on full pay in the naval service of Her Majesty the Queen has reasonable cause to believe that, during the period and in the seas specified in an Order in Council under this Act, any British ship has been used or employed in contravention of this Act, or of any regulation made thereunder, he may stop and examine her, and detain her or any portion of her equipment or any of her crew, and may seize the ship's certificate of registry.

(4.) For carrying into effect an arrangement with any foreign State, an Order in Council under this Act may provide that the powers under this Act of such commissioned officer may, subject to any limitations, conditions, modifications, and exceptions specified in the Order, be exercised in relation to a British ship and the equipment crew and certificate thereof by such officers of the said foreign State as are specified in the Order, or in relation to a ship of the said foreign State and the equipment crew and papers thereof by such British officers as are specified in the Order.

Provision as to ship's papers.

4.—(1.) Where an officer has power under this Act to seize a ship's certificate of registry, he may, subject to the directions of an Order in Council under this Act, either retain the certificate and give a provisional certificate in lieu thereof, or return the certificate with an indorsement of the grounds on which it was seized; and in either case may, if the ship appears to him to be liable to forfeiture, direct the ship, by an addition to the provisional certificate or to the indorsement, to proceed forthwith to a specified port, being a port where there is a British court having authority to adjudicate in the matter, and if this direction is not complied with, the owner and master of the ship shall, without prejudice to any other liability, each be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(2.) Where in pursuance of this section a provisional certificate is given to a ship, or the ship's certificate is indorsed, any officer of customs in Her Majesty's dominions or British consular officer may detain the ship, until satisfactory security is given for her appearance in any legal proceedings which may be taken against her in pursuance of this Act.

Evidence.

5.—(1.) A statement in writing, purporting to be signed by an officer having power in pursuance of this Act to stop and examine a ship, as to the circumstances under which or grounds on which he stopped and examined the ship, shall be admissible in any proceedings, civil or criminal, as evidence of the facts or matters therein stated.

(2.) If evidence contained in any such statement was taken on oath in the presence of the person charged in the evidence, and that person had an opportunity of cross-examining the person giving the evidence and of making his reply to the evidence, the officer making the statement may certify that the evidence was so taken, and that there was such opportunity as aforesaid.

6.—(1.) Her Majesty the Queen in Council may make, revoke, and alter Orders for the purpose of this Act, and every such Order shall be forthwith laid before both Houses of Parliament and published in the London Gazette. Orders in Council.

(2.) Any such Order may contain any limitations, conditions, modifications, and exceptions, which appear to Her Majesty in Council expedient for carrying into effect the object of this Act.

7.—(1.) This Act shall apply to the animal known as the fur seal, and to any marine animal specified in that behalf by an Order in Council under this Act, and the expression "seal" in this Act shall be construed accordingly. Application, construction, short title, and duration of Act and repeal.

(2.) This Act shall apply to the seas within that part of the Pacific Ocean known as Behring's Sea, and within such other parts of the Pacific Ocean as are north of the forty-second parallel of north latitude, and shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the Behring Sea Award Act, 1894.

57 & 58 Vict.
c. 2.

(3.) The expression "equipment" in this Act includes any boat, tackle, fishing or shooting instruments, and other things belonging to a ship.

(4.) This Act may be cited as the Seal Fisheries (North Pacific) Act, 1895.

(5.) The Seal Fishery (North Pacific) Act, 1893, is hereby repealed as from the passing of this Act, but shall be deemed until that passing to have continued in force, and any Order in Council in force under that Act shall continue as if it had been made in pursuance of this Act. 56 & 57 Vict.
c. 23.

(6.) This Act shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and no longer unless continued by Parliament.

CHAPTER 22.

An Act to make temporary provision for the Relief of Distress in Ireland. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) At any time before the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the Local Government Board for Ireland may, if they think fit, by order under their seal Extension of power to grant outdoor relief in food and fuel.

authorise the board of guardians of any poor law union to administer relief in food or fuel, out of the workhouse, for any time not exceeding two months from the date of such order, to any poor persons resident in the union, and the said board may, by a like order, revoke any such order either wholly or partly or with reference to any particular person or class of persons.

(2.) On the receipt by the guardians of any union of any order of the said board authorising such relief, the guardians shall make provision for affording such relief accordingly for such time and on such conditions as may be specified in the order or until the said order is revoked.

25 & 26 Vict.
c. 83.

(3.) The proviso in section two of the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act, 1862, shall not apply in the case of any persons for whom relief is authorised under this Act.

(4.) The expenses incurred in affording relief to any person relieved under this Act shall be charged in the same manner as if such expenses had been incurred in affording relief in the workhouse to such person under the Acts relating to the relief of the destitute poor in Ireland.

Confirmation of expenditure by guardians and indemnity.

2. If at any time before the passing of this Act any outlay has been made by any board of guardians with the sanction of the Local Government Board for Ireland for the purpose of providing out-door relief in food or fuel, such outlay and all resolutions and proceedings of the board of guardians and of their officers in relation thereto shall be ratified and confirmed and be as valid and effectual as if the outlay had been made and the resolutions and proceedings had been passed and taken under the authority and in compliance with the provisions of this Act; and all persons who have acted in any manner in making any such outlay or otherwise in providing such relief shall be released and indemnified from and against any penalties and surcharges in consequence thereof.

relief not to involve
disability.

3. No electoral disability or loss of any parliamentary or other franchise shall be incurred by any person by reason of a grant of out-door relief having been made to him under this Act, or by reason of any such grant ratified under this Act.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Out-door Relief (Ireland) Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to amend the Law as to the Calling out of Volunteers for actual Military Service.

[6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Amendment of 26 & 27
Vict. c. 65.
ss. 17-20.

1. Sections seventeen to twenty of the Volunteer Act, 1863, shall apply in the case of any part of a volunteer corps in like manner as they apply in the case of a whole volunteer corps.

2. Whenever an order for the embodiment of the militia is in force, any member of a volunteer corps may offer himself for actual military service; and, if the services of such number of members of any corps as in the opinion of the Secretary of State is sufficient to enable them to be separately organised are accepted, then those members may be called out, either as a corps, or as part of a corps, and this Act and sections seventeen to twenty of the Volunteer Act, 1863, shall apply accordingly.

emergency.

3. This Act may be cited as the Volunteer Act, 1895.

Short title.

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to amend the Law of Distress Amendment Act, 1888. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. A certificate granted to a bailiff by the judge of a county court under the Law of Distress Amendment Act, 1888, may at any time be cancelled or declared void by a judge of that county court, and so much of section seven of that Act as refers to the cancellation of certificates is hereby repealed.

Power to cancel bailiffs' certificates.
51 & 52 Vict.
c. 21.

2. If any person not holding a certificate for the time being in force under the Law of Distress Amendment Act, 1888, levies a distress contrary to the provisions of that Act, he shall without prejudice to any civil liability be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Penalty for acting without certificate.

3. The power to make rules under the Law of Distress Amendment Act, 1888, shall extend to making provision for fixing the duration of certificates granted, or to be hereafter granted, to bailiffs.

Duration of certificates.

4. A court of summary jurisdiction, on complaint that goods or chattels exempt under section four of the Law of Distress Amendment Act, 1888, from distress for rent, have been taken under such distress, may, by summary order, direct that the goods and chattels so taken, if not sold, be restored; or, if they have been sold, that such sum as the court may determine to be the value thereof shall be paid to the complainant by the person who levied the distress or directed it to be levied.

Unlawful distress.

5. In any proceeding against any person for an offence under this Act such person shall be competent, but not compellable, to give evidence, and the wife of such person may be required to attend to give evidence as an ordinary witness in the case, and shall be competent, but not compellable, to give evidence.

CHAPTER 25.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Costs allowed to Mortgagees. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Mortgagees Legal Costs Act, 1895.

Charges, &c. where mortgage is made with solicitor.

2.—(1.) Any solicitor to whom, either alone or jointly with any other person a mortgage is made, or the firm of which such solicitor is a member, shall be entitled to receive for all business transacted and acts done by such solicitor or firm in negotiating the loan, deducing and investigating the title to the property and preparing and completing the mortgage, all such usual professional charges and remuneration as he or they would have been entitled to receive if such mortgage had been made to a person not a solicitor, and such person had retained and employed such solicitor or firm to transact such business, and do such acts; and such charges and remuneration shall accordingly be recoverable from the mortgagor.

(2.) This section applies only to mortgages made after the commencement of this Act.

solicitor with whom mortgage is made to recover costs, &c.

3.—(1.) Any solicitor to or in whom either alone or jointly with any other person any mortgage is made or is vested by transfer or transmission, or the firm of which such solicitor is a member, shall be entitled to receive and recover from the person on whose behalf the same is done or to charge against the security for all business transacted and acts done by such solicitor or firm subsequent and in relation to such mortgage or to the security thereby created or the property therein comprised, all such usual professional charges and remuneration as he or they would have been entitled to receive if such mortgage had been made to and had remained vested in a person not a solicitor, and such person had retained and employed such solicitor or firm to transact such business and do such acts, and accordingly no such mortgage shall be redeemed except upon payment of such charges and remuneration.

(2.) This section applies to mortgages made and business transacted and acts done either before or after the commencement of this Act.

Definition of mortgage.

4. In this Act the expression "mortgage" includes any charge on any property for securing money or money's worth.

Extent of Act.

5. This Act shall not extend to Scotland.

CHAPTER 26.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Friendly Societies.
[6th July 1895.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Friendly Societies Act, 1875 (herein-after referred to as the principal Act):

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Amendments of 38 & 39
Vict. c. 60.

1. In sub-section five of section eleven of the principal Act the words "to any member" shall be omitted.

Grant of annuities.

2.—(1.) For sub-section eight of section eleven of the principal Act shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

Appeals.

"(8.) From a refusal to register a society or any rules or amendment of rules, an appeal shall lie as follows:—

"(a.) If the assistant registrar for Scotland or for Ireland refuses to register, the society may appeal to the chief registrar, and if he refuses, to the Court of Session in Scotland, or to the High Court in Ireland:

"(b.) If the central office refuse, the society may appeal to the High Court in England."

(2.) For sub-section four of section twelve of the principal Act shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

"(4.) A society may appeal from the cancelling of its registry, or from any suspension of the same which is renewed after six months, as follows:—

"(a.) from the assistant registrar for Scotland or Ireland to the chief registrar, and from him to the Court of Session in Scotland or the High Court in Ireland; and

"(b.) from the chief registrar, in cases not relating exclusively either to Scotland or to Ireland, to the High Court in England."

(3.) For the proviso to sub-section seven of section twenty-nine of the principal Act shall be substituted the following proviso:—

"Provided that an appeal shall lie from the refusal of the chief secretary or other principal officer of the society, or his omission after three months from the receipt of a request in writing made on behalf of a branch to grant such a certificate, to the High Court in England or Ireland or to the Court of Session in Scotland."

3. A secretary or treasurer of a society or branch shall not be a trustee of that society or branch, and accordingly at the end of paragraph (b) of sub-section one of section fourteen of the principal Act, shall be inserted the following proviso: "Provided that the same person shall not be secretary or treasurer of a society or branch and a trustee of that society or branch."

Trustees.

4. The requirements of section fourteen of the principal Act as to certificates of death shall not apply in cases where the body cannot be found; and accordingly in sub-section two of that death.

section, after the words "This sub-section shall not apply to deaths "at sea," shall be inserted the words "nor to a death by colliery explosion or other accident where the body cannot be found, nor to any death certified by a coroner or procurator fiscal to be the subject of a pending inquest or inquiry."

Exemption from stamp duty.

5. For sub-section two of section fifteen of the principal Act shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

"Stamp duty shall not be chargeable upon any of the following documents:—

"(a.) Draft or order or receipt given by or to the society in respect of money payable by virtue of its rules, or of this Act:

"(b.) Letter or power of attorney, granted by any person as trustee for the transfer of any money of the society invested in his name in the public funds:

"(c.) Bond given to or on account of the society or by the treasurer or other officer thereof:

"(d.) Policy of insurance or appointment or revocation of appointment of agent or other document required or authorised by this Act or by the rules of the society."

Amendment of 38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60, s. 15, as to nominations.

6. At the end of sub-section three of section fifteen of the principal Act shall be added the following words:—

"and the receipt of a nominee over sixteen years of age for any amount so paid shall be valid, but the marriage of a member of a society shall operate as a revocation of any nomination theretofore made by that member under this section. Provided that where a society pays money to a nominee in ignorance of a marriage subsequent to the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the society."

Membership of minors.

7. For sub-section eight of section fifteen of the principal Act shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

"(8.) The rules of a registered society or branch may provide for the admission of a person under twenty-one years of age but above one year of age as a member, and any such member may, if he is over sixteen years of age by himself, and if he is under that age by his parent or guardian, execute all instruments and give all acquittances necessary to be executed or given under the rules, but shall not be a member of the committee of management, or a trustee, manager, or treasurer of the society or branch."

Investment of funds.

8. The following provision shall be added as a new sub-section after sub-section (1) of section sixteen of the principal Act, and shall be numbered (1A):—

"The rules of a society with branches and of any branch thereof may provide for the investment of funds of the society or of that branch by the trustees of any branch, or by the trustees of the society, and the consent required for any such investment shall be the consent of the committee of management, or of such majority as aforesaid of the society or branch by whom the funds are invested."

9.—(1.) For sub-sections five, six, and seven of section seventeen of the principal Act shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

Rate of interest.

“(5.) A society investing money with the Commissioners shall be entitled to a receipt entitling to interest at the following rates:—

“To a friendly society legally established before the twenty-eighth of July, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, which had invested funds with the Commissioners before the twenty-third of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, a rate of interest in respect of any assurance made before the fifteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, of - - - Threepence per centum per diem.

“To a friendly society legally established between the twenty-eighth of July, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and the fifteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, which had invested funds with the Commissioners before the twenty-third of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, a rate of interest in respect of any assurance made before the fifteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, of - - -

Twopence halfpenny per centum per diem.

“To a friendly society legally established before the twenty-eighth of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, which had invested funds with the Commissioners before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, a rate of interest in respect of any assurance made on or before the said twenty-eighth day of June of - - - Twopence per centum per diem.

“To a society in respect of any investment with the Commissioners, other than as herein-before mentioned, a rate of interest of - - -

Two pounds fifteen shillings per centum per annum.”

(2.) For sub-section ten of the same section shall be substituted the following sub-section:—

“(10.) A society having funds invested with the Commissioners at a rate higher than two pounds fifteen shillings per centum per annum shall retain at that rate so much only of its funds as arises from assurances made before the date applicable to that rate, after deducting all benefit payments and management expenses incurred on account of such assurances; and whenever the society fails to satisfy the Commissioners of its title to retain at that rate any part of its funds, the Commissioners shall require the withdrawal thereof, or the transfer thereof to the rate of twopence per centum per diem, or two pounds fifteen shillings per centum per annum, as the case may require, and in default of withdrawal within thirty days, shall transfer the same in their books accordingly, and shall notify such transfer to the society."

(3.) In sub-section eleven of the same section, after the words "twopence per centum per diem" shall be added the words "or two pounds fifteen shillings per centum per annum, as the case may require."

Disputes.

10.—(1.) Section twenty-two of the principal Act, which relates to the settlement of disputes, shall apply to every dispute between any person aggrieved who has for not more than six months ceased to be a member of a registered society, or any person claiming through such person aggrieved, and the society or an officer thereof, and accordingly in that section after the words "registered society," where they first occur, shall be added the words "or any person aggrieved who has for not more than six months ceased to be a member of a registered society, or any person claiming through such person aggrieved."

(2.) At the end of proviso (d) of the same section shall be added:—

"but in the case of a society with branches the said forty days shall not begin to run until application has been made in succession to all the bodies entitled to determine the dispute under the registered rules of the society, so however that no rules shall require a greater delay than three months between each successive determination."

Amalgamation of juvenile and adult societies.

11. After section twenty-four of the principal Act shall be added the following section:—

"24A. A society consisting wholly of members under twenty-one years of age, and a society or branch or branches of a society having members above twenty-one years of age, may, by resolutions registered in the manner required for the registration of an amendment of rules, become amalgamated together as one society or branch, or provide for distributing among several branches the members of a society consisting wholly of members under twenty-one years of age, and the provisions of section twenty-four shall not apply to such amalgamation."

Societies with branches.

12. At the end of section twenty-nine of the principal Act, relating to the registration of societies with branches, shall be added the following sub-section:—

"(8.) A branch that has wholly seceded or been expelled from a society shall not thereafter use the name of the society or any name implying that it is a branch thereof, or the number by which it is designated as such branch, and any officer or member thereof contravening this sub-section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act."

Conversion of societies into branches.

13. A resolution to convert a society into a branch may be passed by a majority, and accordingly, in sub-section one of section twenty-nine A of the principal Act, the words "a majority" shall be substituted for the words "three fourths."

14. To section twenty-nine B of the principal Act, enabling registered societies to contribute to the funds and take part in the management of other registered societies, the following paragraph shall be added:—

Contributions by societies to the funds of other societies.

"This section shall in respect of contributing to the funds and taking part in the government of a medical society, that is to say, a society for the purpose of relief in sickness by providing medical attendance and medicine, extend to any registered trade union or branch of a registered trade union, and a society or trade union or branch shall not withdraw from contributing to the funds of any such medical society except on three months notice to the society and on payment of all contributions accrued or accruing due to the date of the expiration of the notice."

15. At the end of section thirty of the principal Act, which relates to collecting societies, shall be added the words following:—

Collecting societies.

"The last words in the name of any friendly society to which this section applies, and which is registered on or after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, shall be 'collecting society.'"

16. After section thirty-one of the principal Act shall be added the following section:—

Subscriptions not recoverable.

"31A. Except as provided by section thirty-one of this Act, the subscription of a person being or having been a member of a registered society shall not be recoverable at law."

17. In paragraph (d) of sub-section one of section forty-one of the principal Act, which regulates the application of the Act to the Channel Islands, for the words "bailiff of the parish" shall be substituted the words "constable of the parish."

Application to the Channel Islands.

18. In the Second Schedule to the principal Act, which specifies the matters to be provided for by the rules of registered societies, the words "and the consequences of non-payment of any subscription or fine," shall be added at the end of paragraph (2) of the said schedule.

Amendment of 38 & 39 Vict.
c. 60., Sch. II.

19.—(1.) This Act may be cited as the Friendly Societies Act, 1895.

Short title,
construction,
and printing.

(2.) This Act shall be construed with the Friendly Societies Acts, 1875 to 1893.

(3.) The principal Act shall, as from the commencement of this Act, take effect subject to the additions, omissions, and substitutions required by this Act.

(4.) Any copy of the principal Act printed after the passing of this Act under the authority of the Queen's Printer may be printed with the additions, omissions, and substitutions required by this Act.

20. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Commencement of Act.

CHAPTER 27.

An Act to extend and amend the provisions of the Agricultural Holdings (England) Act, 1883, so far as they relate to Market Gardens. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title and construction.

1. This Act may be cited as the Market Gardeners' Compensation Act, 1895, and shall be read and construed as part of the Agricultural Holdings (England) Act, 1883, herein-after called the principal Act, as amended by the Tenants Compensation Act, 1890.

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, which date is herein-after referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Amendment and extension of 46 & 47 Vict. c. 61. as to improvements executed in or upon market gardens.

3. Where after the commencement of this Act it is agreed in writing that a holding shall be let or treated as a market garden, the following provisions shall have effect :—

(1.) The provisions of section thirty-four of the principal Act shall extend to every fixture or building affixed or erected by the tenant to or upon such holding for the purposes of his trade or business of a market gardener.

(2.) The improvements numbered (1) "erection or enlargement of buildings," (6) "making of gardens," and (11) "planting of orchards or fruit bushes," in Part I. of the First Schedule to the principal Act shall, as far as regards such holding, cease to be comprised in the said schedule.

(3.) The following improvements shall as far as regards such holding be deemed to be comprised in Part III. of the said schedule :—

(i.) Planting of standard or other fruit trees permanently set out ;

(ii.) Planting of fruit bushes permanently set out ;

(iii.) Planting of strawberry plants ;

(iv.) Planting of asparagus and other vegetable crops ;

(v.) Erection or enlargement of buildings for the purposes of the trade or business of a market gardener.

(4.) Section fifty-six of the principal Act shall be read and construed as if the words "with the consent in writing of his landlord" were not included therein.

(5.) It shall be lawful for the tenant to remove all fruit trees and fruit bushes planted by him on the holding and not permanently set out ; but if the tenant shall not remove such fruit trees and fruit bushes before the termination of his tenancy, such fruit trees and fruit bushes shall remain the property of the landlord, and the tenant shall not be entitled to any compensation in respect thereof.

4. Where, under a contract of tenancy current at the commencement of this Act, a holding is at that date in use or cultivation as a market garden with the knowledge of the landlord, and the tenant thereof has then executed thereon, without having received previously to the execution thereof any written notice of dissent by the landlord, any of the improvements in respect of which a right of compensation or removal is given to a tenant by this Act, then the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of such holding, as if it had been agreed in writing after the commencement of this Act that the holding should be let or treated as a market garden.

Application to current tenancies.

5. Any compensation payable under this Act shall as regards land belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, Her heirs and successors, in right of the Crown or in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, and as regards land belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall, be paid in the same manner and out of the same funds respectively as if it were payable in respect of an improvement mentioned in the first part of the First Schedule to the principal Act, except that as regards land belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, Her heirs and successors, in right of the Crown, compensation for planting strawberry plants and asparagus and other vegetable crops shall be paid in the same manner and out of the same funds as if it were payable in respect of an improvement mentioned in the third part of the said schedule.

As to Crown lands and lands belonging to the Duchies of Lancaster and Cornwall.

6. For the purposes of the principal Act and of this Act the expression "market garden" shall mean a holding or that part of a holding which is cultivated wholly or mainly for the purpose of the trade or business of market gardening.

Interpretation.

CHAPTER 28.

An Act to prohibit the giving False Alarms of Fires.

1. Any person knowingly giving or causing to be given a false alarm of fire to the fire brigade of any town or parish outside the metropolitan area or to any officer thereof, whether by means of a street fire alarm, statement, message, or otherwise, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction, and shall, on conviction for such offence by a court of summary jurisdiction, be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

False alarms of fire.

Evidence on behalf of accused.

2. In any proceeding against any person for an offence under section one of this Act such person shall be competent but not compellable to give evidence, and the wife of such person may be required to attend to give evidence as an ordinary witness in the case, and shall be competent but not compellable to give evidence.

Application of the Act to Scotland.

3. The provisions of this Act relative to giving a false alarm of fire by means of a street fire alarm shall not apply to any burgh or police burgh in Scotland in which a person who wantonly rings a fire alarm is liable to a penalty under the provisions of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, or of any local Police Act.

55 & 56 Vict. c. 55.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the False Alarms of Fire Act, 1895.

Commencement of Act.

5. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

CHAPTER 29.

An Act to amend the Fisheries (Ireland) Acts, 1842 to 1891, by providing the right of appeal in certain cases.
[6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Appeal as to alteration of close time.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 106.

1. It shall be lawful for any party who may consider himself aggrieved by any decision which has been or shall hereafter be made by the Inspectors of Irish Fisheries, whereby the close time for salmon fishing in any district, river, or lake has been altered pursuant to the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1842, and any enactment amending the same, to appeal to the Lord Lieutenant in Council against such decision; provided that such appeal, if made against a decision pronounced after the passing of this Act, shall be lodged with the Clerk of the Privy Council within one month from the publication of the decision appealed against in the Dublin Gazette, and if made against a decision pronounced before the passing of this Act, shall be so lodged within three months from the passing of this Act, and provided that no decision made before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, shall be questioned under the provisions of this section.

Mode of appeal.

2. Every such appeal shall be brought in like manner as appeals under the ninety-second section of the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1842.

Evidence

3. Upon such appeal it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant in Council to receive such evidence as may be offered in support thereof or of the decision appealed against, and to alter, confirm, or rescind such decision and to make such new rule or order in lieu thereof as he may deem expedient.

4. Any rule or order so made and any decision appealed against and so confirmed or varied shall commence and take effect at the expiration of six weeks from the date of the publication of the result of such appeal in the Dublin Gazette and not sooner, anything contained in the thirty-ninth section of the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1848, to the contrary notwithstanding, and until the expiration of such time as aforesaid the close time in force when the decision appealed against was pronounced shall continue to be the close time in the district, river, or lake affected thereby.

Time when rules or orders shall have effect.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 92.

5. The provisions of the thirty-fifth section of the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1842, shall apply to such rule, order, or decision in like manner as if the same were a decision of the Inspectors of Irish Fisheries within the meaning of that section.

Provisions applicable to rule or decision.

6. This Act shall extend to Ireland only and may be cited as the Fisheries Close Season (Ireland) Act, 1895.

Extent and short title.

CHAPTER 30.

An Act to amend the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial and Provident Societies (Amendment) Act, 1895. This Act and the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 and 1894, may be cited together as the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 to 1895.

Short title.

2. In all proceedings in winding up a society in Scotland under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, the court having jurisdiction shall be the sheriff court.

Proceedings in Scotland.

3. For sub-section one of section seven of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, shall be substituted the following sub-section :—

Appeals. 56 & 57 Vict. c. 39.

(1.) If the registrar refuses to register the society, or any rules or amendments of rules, the society may appeal from such refusal as follows :—

(a) in England, to the High Court ;

(b) in Scotland or Ireland, to the chief registrar, and if he refuses to the Court of Session in Scotland or to the High Court in Ireland.

Printing of future copies of principal Act.

4. All copies of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893, printed after the passing of this Act by any of the several printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty duly authorised to print the statutes of the United Kingdom, shall be printed with the substitution required by this Act.

CHAPTER 31.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament. [6th July 1895.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

14,534,875*l.*
out of the Consolidated
Fund.

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the sum of fourteen million five hundred and thirty-four thousand eight hundred and seventy-five pounds.

Power for the
borrow.

2. The Treasury may borrow from any person, and the Bank of England may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sum, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of fourteen million five hundred and thirty-four thousand eight hundred and seventy-five pounds, and the Treasury shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Any moneys so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

Appropriation of Grants.

3. All sums granted by this Act and the other Acts mentioned in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty, amounting, as appears by the said schedule, in the aggregate, to the sum of thirty-three million seventy-eight thousand six hundred and fifty-two pounds nine shillings and twopence are appropriated and shall be deemed to have been appropriated as from the date of the passing of the first of the Acts mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) for the services and purposes expressed in Schedule (B.) annexed hereto.

Appropriation of sums voted for supply services and of sums applied as appropriations in aid.

The abstract of schedules and schedules annexed hereto, with the notes (if any) to such schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

54 & 55 Vict. c. 24.

4. If a necessity arise for incurring expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated to naval and military services by this Act, and which it may be detrimental to the public service to postpone until provision can be made for it by Parliament in the usual course, each of the departments entrusted with the control over the said services shall forthwith make application in writing to the Treasury for their authority to defray temporarily such expenditure out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected by the saving of expenditure upon votes within the same department, and in such application the department shall represent to the Treasury the circumstances which may render such additional expenditure necessary, and thereupon the Treasury may authorise the expenditure unprovided for as aforesaid to be temporarily defrayed out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected as aforesaid upon votes within the same department; and a statement showing all cases in which the naval and military departments have obtained the sanction of the Treasury to any expenditure not provided for in the respective votes aforesaid, accompanied by copies of the representations made to them by the said departments, shall be laid before the House of Commons with the appropriation accounts of navy and army services for the year, in order that such proceedings may be submitted for the sanction of Parliament, and that provision may be made for the deficiencies upon the several votes for the said services in such manner as Parliament may determine.

The Treasury shall not authorise any expenditure which may cause an excess upon the aggregate sums appropriated by this Act for naval services and for army services respectively.

Declaration required in certain cases before receipt of sums appropriated.

5. A person shall not receive any part of a grant which may be made in pursuance of this Act for half-pay or army, navy, or civil non-effective services, until he has subscribed such declaration as may from time to time be prescribed by a warrant of the Treasury before one of the persons prescribed by such warrant.

Provided that, whenever any such payment is made at more frequent intervals than once in a quarter, the Treasury may dispense with the production of more than one declaration in respect of each quarter.

Any person who makes a declaration for the purpose of this section, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Short title.

6. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Appropriation Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 32.

An Act to amend the Local Government Act, 1894, so far as regards the transfer of any stock, share, or security standing in the name of, or dividends payable to, a local authority.
[6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Alteration of name on transfer of stock standing in the name of local authority.
56 & 57 Vict. c. 73.
51 & 52 Vict. c. 41.

1.—(1.) Where any stock is standing in the books of any company in the name of any local authority the following provisions shall have effect :—

- (a.) If by virtue of the Local Government Act, 1894, or anything done under that Act or the Local Government Act, 1888, the name of the local authority is changed, then upon the request of such authority and the production of a statutory declaration by the clerk of the authority specifying the stock, and verifying the change of name and identity of the authority, the company shall enter such stock in the new name of the local authority in like manner as if the stock had been transferred to the authority under that name, and pay to that authority all dividends accrued and to accrue due thereon :
- (b.) If by virtue of the Local Government Act, 1894, or anything done under that Act or the Local Government Act, 1888, any other local authority becomes entitled to the stock or any dividends thereon, a certificate of the clerk of the county council, or the order or award under which the local authority becomes so entitled, shall be a sufficient authority to the company to transfer the stock into the name of the local authority specified in that behalf in the order, award, or certificate, and to pay the dividends to such authority :
- (c.) If in any other case any other local authority is entitled to the stock or any dividends thereon, the court may on application make an order vesting in such authority or person as the court may direct, the right to transfer the said stock, or pay such dividends, to the authority in or to whom the same ought to be vested or paid, and the Trustee Act, 1893, shall apply in like manner as if the vesting order were made under section thirty-five of that Act.

56 & 57 Vict. c. 53.

(2.) In this Act—

“ A local authority ” includes any urban or rural sanitary authority, council of a borough, improvement commissioners, local board, urban district council, rural district council, board of guardians, highway board, burial board, parish council, overseers, churchwardens and overseers, and chairman of a parish meeting and overseers :

“ County council ” includes the council of a county borough :

“ Order of a county council ” means an order made either by a county council or by any joint committee of county councils, and, if such order requires confirmation by the Local Government Board, means the order as confirmed by that Board :

“ Company ” includes the Bank of England, and any company or person keeping books in which any stock is registered :

“ Stock ” includes any share, annuity, or other security.

(3.) The jurisdiction of the court under this Act may be exercised by the High Court, or in cases within the jurisdiction of a palatine court or county court, by that court.

2. This Act may be cited as the Local Government (Stock Short title. Transfer) Act, 1895.

CHAPTER 33.

An Act to amend the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, so far as respects the Magistrate by whom and the Place in which the Case may be heard and the Criminal held in Custody. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1.) Where a fugitive criminal has been apprehended in pursuance of a warrant under section eight of the Extradition Act, 1870, and a Secretary of State on representation made by or on behalf of the criminal is of opinion that his removal for the purpose of his case being heard at Bow Street will be dangerous to his life or prejudicial to his health, the Secretary of State, if it appears to him consistent with the Order in Council under the Extradition Act, 1870, applicable to the case, may in his discretion by order, stating the reasons for such opinion, direct the case to be heard before such magistrate as is named in the order, and at the place in the United Kingdom at which the criminal was apprehended, or for the time being is.

Hearing case elsewhere than at Bow Street. 33 & 34 Vict. c. 52.

(2.) The magistrate may be, if the place is in England, a metropolitan police magistrate or a stipendiary magistrate, and if it is in Scotland, a sheriff or sheriff-substitute, and if it is in Ireland, any stipendiary magistrate, and the magistrate hearing the case in pursuance of the order shall for that purpose be deemed to be a police magistrate within the meaning of the Extradition Act, 1870, and also shall have the same jurisdiction, duties, and powers, as near as may be, and may commit to the same prison as if he were a magistrate for the county, borough, or place in which the hearing takes place.

(3.) Provided that, when the fugitive criminal is committed to prison to await his surrender, the committing magistrate, if of opinion that it will be dangerous to the life or prejudicial to the health of the prisoner to remove him to prison, may order him to be held in custody at the place in which he for the time being is, or any other place named in the order to which the magistrate thinks he can be removed without danger to his life or prejudice to his health, and while so held he shall be deemed to be in legal custody, and the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall apply to him as if he were in the prison to which he is committed, and the forms of warrant used under the said Acts may be varied accordingly.

struction.

2. This Act may be cited as the Extradition Act, 1895, and shall be construed together with the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873; and those Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1895.

CHAPTER 34.

An Act to provide in certain Cases for the Alteration of the Boundaries of Colonies. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1.) Where the boundaries of a colony have, either before or after the passing of this Act, been altered by Her Majesty the Queen by Order in Council or letters patent the boundaries as so altered shall be, and be deemed to have been from the date of the alteration, the boundaries of the colony.

(2.) Provided that the consent of a self-governing colony shall be required for the alteration of the boundaries thereof.

(3.) In this Act "self-governing colony" means any of the colonies specified in the schedule to this Act.

CHAPTER 35.

An Act to make provision for the Construction of Works in the United Kingdom and elsewhere for the purpose of the Royal Navy, and to amend the Law relating to the Acquisition of Land for Naval Purposes.

[6th July 1895.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the construction of the works specified in the schedule to this Act both in the United Kingdom and in the colonies in the schedule mentioned :

And whereas by the Defence Act, 1842, and the enactments amending the same (in this Act referred to as the Defence Acts), and by the Military Lands Act, 1892, powers are conferred on a Secretary of State for the acquisition of land for the defence of the realm, and for the military purposes of any portion of Her Majesty's military forces, and it is expedient to extend those Acts to the Admiralty and Her Majesty's naval forces :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Admiralty may forthwith proceed to construct the works as specified in the schedule to this Act at the places therein mentioned, and for that purpose may acquire such lands and execute such works as they may deem expedient.

Power for Admiralty to construct scheduled works.

2.—(1.) With a view to the purchase of land in the United Kingdom for the purposes of this Act, or for any purpose of Her Majesty's Navy, the Defence Acts, and the Military Lands Act, 1892, except so far as it relates to a volunteer corps, shall have effect as if they were herein re-enacted with the substitution of the Admiralty for a Secretary of State, and for the principal officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance, and for the Ordnance Department, and of naval for military, and naval service for ordnance service.

Powers of Admiralty as to purchase of land.
5 & 6 Vict. c. 94.
36 & 37 Vict. c. 72.
55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

(2.) All land acquired by the Admiralty in pursuance of this Act shall vest and be managed under the Admiralty Lands and Works Act, 1864, and sections nine to nineteen of that Act shall apply accordingly, and the provisions of the Defence Act, 1842, for the like purpose shall not apply.

27 & 28 Vict. c. 57.
5 & 6 Vict. c. 94.

3. The Treasury shall issue out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof such sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of one million pounds as may be required by the Admiralty for commencing, advancing, or completing the works as specified in the schedule to this Act.

Issue of money out of Consolidated Fund for expenses of scheduled works.

4.—(1.) Before any moneys are issued for the purpose of expenditure under any one of the heads in the schedule to this Restrictions on applications of money issued.

Act, the Admiralty shall submit to the Treasury an estimate, with such details as may be required by the Treasury, of the expenditure under that head for which it is for the time being proposed to issue money, together with the statement of a date by which the work or portion of work therein provided for is expected to be completed.

(2.) There shall be no excess of any expenditure proposed by the estimate under any head in the schedule above the amount stated for that head in the schedule, unless the Admiralty previously certify that the excess will be compensated by a saving under some other head, and that the excess will not cause the total expenditure to exceed the total sum specified in the schedule, and the Treasury are satisfied that the certificate is correct, and sanction the expenditure, and upon such sanction being given the said saving may be applied towards the payment of the said excess.

Borrowing to raise money for purposes of Act.

5.—(1.) The Treasury may, if they think fit, at any time for the purpose of providing money for sums to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund under this Act, or repaying to that fund all or any part of the sums so issued, borrow money by means of terminable annuities for such period not exceeding thirty years from the passing of this Act as the Treasury may fix, and all sums so borrowed shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(2.) The said annuities shall be paid out of the moneys annually provided by Parliament for naval services; and, if those moneys are insufficient, shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof, but shall not be payable as part of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt.

Accounts of expenditure.

6.—(1.) The Admiralty shall cause to be made out an account, in the form required by the Treasury, showing:—

(a) the money expended in pursuance of this Act, and the purposes on which that money was expended, distinguishing the expenditure under each of the heads in the schedule to this Act; and

(b) any securities created for providing such money.

(2.) The accounts of expenditure under this Act shall be audited and reported upon by the Comptroller and Auditor General as appropriation accounts in manner directed by the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, 1866.

CHAPTER 36.

An Act to make provision for Public Inquiry in regard to Fatal Accidents occurring in Industrial Employments or Occupations in Scotland. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Fatal Accidents Inquiry Short title. (Scotland) Act, 1895.

Extent of Act. 2. This Act shall extend to and include all cases of death of any person or persons, whether employers or employed, engaged in any industrial employment or occupation in Scotland, due or reasonably believed to be due to accident occurring in the course of such employment or occupation.

Proceedings on occurrence of fatal accident. 3.—(1.) Upon the occurrence of any death to which this Act applies, the procurator-fiscal of the county or district in which the accident shall have taken place, shall, so soon as he receives information of the death or deaths, proceed to collect evidence thereon, and shall also forthwith present to the sheriff a petition craving him to hold a public inquiry in regard to the cause or causes of the death or deaths, and the circumstances of the accident, and shall also furnish to the sheriff clerk, so far as possible, by letter posted or delivered, information as to the names and addresses of the wife or husband, or of the nearest known relative, and of the employer, if any, of each person who has lost his life in the accident.

(2.) If more deaths than one have resulted from the same accident, the petition and inquiry shall relate to the whole deaths which have resulted therefrom.

Public inquiry as to accident. 4.—(1.) Upon presentation of the petition, which shall narrate briefly the circumstances of the case so far as known to the procurator-fiscal, the sheriff shall pronounce an order directing that a public inquiry in regard to the death shall be held at a time to be specified in the order, being a time as soon as reasonably possible, in such court house within his jurisdiction as may be nearest to the place where the accident occurred, or, if special circumstances appear to him to make it expedient, in such other court house or other building as may be available and convenient, and shall grant warrant to cite witnesses and havers to attend at such inquiry, at the instance of the procurator-fiscal, and of all parties who may be entitled to appear as herein-after provided.

(2.) Intimation of the time and place of the inquiry shall be made by the sheriff clerk, so far as possible, by letter, posted or delivered, upon information as to their names and addresses being furnished to him by the procurator-fiscal, to the wife or husband, or to the nearest known relative, and to the employer, if any, of each person, who has lost his life in the accident. In any case in which it is competent for any official or department of Her Majesty's Government to cause public inquiry to be made into the facts and circumstances of the accident under the provisions of any statute in force for the time being, then such intimation shall also be made to such official or department. The sheriff clerk shall also cause intimation of the time and place of the inquiry to be made by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in the district, or if there be more than one such newspaper, then in two of them.

(3.) In the event of the Secretary for Scotland being satisfied that the sheriff is unable, owing to the pressure of official duty or other cause which the Secretary for Scotland shall hold to be sufficient, to hold the inquiry, the Secretary for Scotland shall appoint a competent person, who shall possess the qualifications necessary for the office of sheriff-substitute, to hold the inquiry in his stead, and the person so appointed shall hold the inquiry and shall have all the powers of a sheriff under this Act, for the purposes of the said inquiry.

(4.) The inquiry shall be by the sheriff and a jury, and the sheriff clerk shall cite ten common, and five special, jurors for each such inquiry, or, if more inquiries than one are appointed by the sheriff to be held on the same day, for all the inquiries to be held by him on that day.

(5.) The jury shall consist of five common and two special jurors, who shall be chosen from the list of persons cited as aforesaid, in the manner prescribed by section forty-four of the Court of Session Act, 1868.

81 & 82 Vict.
c. 100.

(6.) The statutory provisions now in force in regard to challenges of jurors in civil and criminal cases in Scotland shall not apply to inquiries under this Act, but any person interested in the inquiry may state to the sheriff any objection which he has to a person balloted to serve on the jury, and if the sheriff shall consider that sufficient cause has been shown why such person should not so serve, he shall not allow the said person to serve upon the jury. Provided that, in an inquiry into the death of a person under this Act, neither the employer or employers of such person, nor any person or persons engaged under the same employers as such person, shall be jurors.

(7.) The jury, after hearing the evidence, and the persons appearing thereon if they so desire, and the summing-up thereof by the sheriff, if he shall consider such summing-up necessary or proper, shall return a verdict setting forth (so far as such particulars have been proved) when and where the accident and the death or deaths to which the inquiry relates took place, and the cause or causes of such death or deaths.

(8.) The jury may return a verdict by a majority of its number at any time not less than one hour after it has been enclosed.

(9.) Each juror empanelled at any inquiry under this Act shall be entitled to remuneration at the rate of five shillings for each day, or part of a day, during which he has served as a juror, and travelling expenses. Such remuneration shall be payable by the sheriff clerk, and shall be recoverable by him from the county council as a charge upon the general purposes rate, where the inquiry relates to a death from an accident which has taken place in a county, including any police burgh therein, and from the burgh commissioners or other municipal authority of a Royal or Parliamentary burgh, as a charge upon the burgh general assessment, or, where there is no burgh general assessment, upon the police assessment, where the inquiry relates to a death from an accident which has taken place in a burgh.

(10.) The jury shall be cited by the sheriff clerk from the sheriff court jury book in the manner provided by statute for the citation of jurors in civil cases in Scotland, and the existing statutory provisions relative to fines for non-attendance of jurors, and to the swearing of jurors, shall apply to inquiries under this Act.

Procedure at inquiry.

5.—(1.) At the inquiry, which shall be open to the public, the procurator-fiscal, or, in the event of his being unable to attend personally from any cause stated in open court, and held by the sheriff to be sufficient, his duly qualified depute, shall adduce evidence, including such medical or skilled evidence as he deems expedient, in regard to the cause or causes of the death or deaths, and the circumstances of the accident.

(2.) It shall be competent to the sheriff, at, or at any time subsequent to, the presentation of such petition :—

(a) to grant warrant to officers of the law to take possession of, and to hold in safe custody, subject to the inspection of parties interested, any article or thing which it may be considered necessary to produce at the inquiry ; and

(b) to inspect, either with or without the jury, or to grant warrant for the inspection by any person he may deem expedient, of any premises, machinery, or other thing, the inspection of which is or may, in his opinion, be, material for the purposes of the inquiry.

(3.) It shall be competent to the wife or husband, and to the relatives, and to the employer or employers, of any person who has lost his life in the accident, and in the case of an accident in or about a mine to an inspector of mines, and in the case of an accident in a factory or workshop to an inspector of factories and workshops, as also to any person or persons engaged under the same employers as such person, and to any other person or persons whom the sheriff may consider to have a just interest in the inquiry, to appear at, and take part in, and adduce evidence at, such inquiry, either by themselves or by counsel or agents, or by any other person or persons whom the sheriff may allow to appear on their behalf.

(4.) The evidence adduced at such inquiry shall be taken on oath, the witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination, and the inquiry shall be conducted as nearly as possible in accordance with the ordinary procedure in a trial by jury before the sheriff court. Provided that the examination of any person as a witness or haver at such inquiry shall not be a bar to criminal proceedings being afterwards taken against such person. Provided further, that no witness at such inquiry shall be compellable to answer any question tending to show that he is guilty of any crime or offence. The evidence shall be taken down in writing under the control and supervision of the sheriff, and as he shall direct, either at length or in shorthand, which shall afterwards be written out, and it shall in either case be duly authenticated as correct.

(5.) The verdict shall be recorded in the sheriff court books, and the procurator-fiscal shall obtain from the sheriff clerk a copy of the petition, as also the recorded evidence of the witnesses, or a copy thereof, and any reports or productions which may have been made in the course of the inquiry, or copies thereof, in so far as the same are in writing, and a copy of the verdict, and shall transmit the same, together with the usual schedule for the registrar of deaths, to the Crown agent. The sheriff clerk shall also transmit copies of the petition, and of the recorded evidence, and of any reports which may have been made, in the case of an accident in or about a mine to the inspector of mines for the district, and in the case of an accident in a factory or workshop to the inspector of factories and workshops for the district, and copies shall also be obtainable by any person having an interest in the inquiry, upon such reasonable payment to defray the cost thereof as the sheriff shall fix.

(6.) Every person attending such inquiry as a witness or haver on citation by the procurator-fiscal shall be allowed such expenses as are paid to any person attending a criminal trial by jury in the sheriff court on such citation.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the existing law and practice relative to the duties of procurators-fiscal to inquire and report to the Crown agent in regard to cases of death from accident, or relative to any powers at present vested in the Lord Advocate to cause public inquiries to be held, or the existing law or practice with reference to criminal proceedings against any person or persons criminally responsible for any death, nor shall the verdict returned at an inquiry under this Act be competent to be given in evidence or to be founded on in any subsequent judicial proceeding, civil or criminal, arising out of the same accident. Saving.

7. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:—

Interpretation.

“Industrial employment or occupation” shall mean employment or occupation for or in the performance of any manual labour, or the superintendence of any such labour, or the working, management, or superintendence, of machinery or other appliances, or animals used in the prosecution of any work ;

The expression “sheriff clerk” shall include sheriff clerk depute ;

The expression “procurator-fiscal” shall mean the procurator-fiscal of a county or of a district, and shall include the procurators-fiscal of the county of the city of Edinburgh, and of the city and burgh of Aberdeen ;

The expression “county” shall extend to the limits within which the sheriff has jurisdiction, whether by statute or at common law ;

The expression “district” shall mean any part of a county for which a separate procurator-fiscal is appointed, and shall include any county or combination of counties, or parts of counties, for which one sheriff court and one procurator-fiscal are appointed.

CHAPTER 37.

An Act to amend and extend the Law relating to Factories and Workshops. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

GENERAL LAW RELATING TO FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS.Sanitary Provisions and Safety.

Overcrowding of factory or workshop.

1.—(1.) A factory shall for the purpose of section three of the principal Act, and a workshop shall for the purpose of the law relating to public health, be deemed to be so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the persons employed therein, if the number of cubic feet of space in any room therein bears to the number of persons employed at once in the room a proportion less than two hundred and fifty, or, during any period of overtime, four hundred, cubic feet of space to every person.

(2.) Provided that the Secretary of State may, by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act, modify this proportion for any period during which artificial light other than electric light is employed for illuminating purposes, and may by like order, as regards any particular manufacturing process or handicraft, substitute for the said figures of two hundred and fifty and four hundred respectively any higher figures, and thereupon this section shall have effect as modified by the order.

(3.) Section seventy-eight of the principal Act shall be read as if there were included among the notices required by that section to be affixed a notice specifying the number of persons who may be employed in each room of the factory or workshop by virtue of this section.

Power to make order as to dangerous factory or workshop.

2.—(1.) A court of summary jurisdiction may, on complaint by an inspector, and on being satisfied that any place used as a factory or workshop or as part of a factory or workshop is in such a condition that any manufacturing process or handicraft carried on therein cannot be so carried on without danger to health or to life or limb, by order, prohibit the place from being used for the purpose of that process or handicraft, until such works have been executed as are in the opinion of the court necessary to remove the danger.

(2.) Provided that proceedings shall not be taken under this section in cases where proceedings might be taken by or at the instance of any sanitary authority under the provisions of the law relating to public health, unless the inspector is authorised to take proceedings in pursuance of section one or section two of the Act of 1891.

(3.) If there is any contravention of an order under this section the occupier of the place shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings a day during such contravention.

3.—(1.) Where notice of an act, neglect, or default is given by an inspector under section four of the principal Act to a sanitary authority, it shall be the duty of the sanitary authority to inform the inspector of the proceedings taken in consequence of the notice.

Provision as to notice to sanitary authority.

(2.) In section two of the Act of 1891, for the words "within a reasonable time" shall be substituted the words "within one month."

4.—(1.) A court of summary jurisdiction may, on complaint by an inspector, and on being satisfied that any machine used in a factory or workshop is in such a condition that it cannot be used without danger to life or limb, by order prohibit the machine from being used, or, if it is capable of repair or alteration, from being used until it is duly repaired or altered.

Power to make order as to dangerous machine.

(2.) Where a complaint has been made under this section the court or a justice may, on application ex parte by the inspector, and on receiving evidence that the use of any such machine involves imminent danger to life, make an interim order prohibiting either absolutely or subject to conditions the use of the machine until the earliest opportunity for hearing and determining the complaint.

(3.) If there is any contravention of an order under this section, the person entitled to control the use of the machine shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings a day during such contravention.

5.—(1.) If an inspector gives notice in writing to the occupier of a factory or workshop, or to any contractor employed by any such occupier, that any place in which work is carried on for the purpose of or in connexion with the business of the factory or workshop is injurious or dangerous to the health of the persons employed therein, then, if the occupier or contractor after the expiration of one month from receipt of the notice gives out work to be done in that place, and the place is found by the court having cognizance of the case to be so injurious or dangerous, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Penalty for employment of persons in places injurious to health.

(2.) This section shall apply in the case of the occupier of any place from which any work is given out as if that place were a workshop.

(3.) Provided that this section shall not apply except in the case of persons employed in such classes of work, and in the case of persons giving out employment and employed within such areas, as may from time to time be specified by the Secretary of State by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal

Act, and no such order shall be made except with respect to an area where, by reason of the number and distribution of the population or the conditions under which work is carried on, there are special risks of injury or danger to the health of the persons employed and of the district.

Penalty for allowing wearing apparel to be made in place where there is infectious disease.

6. If any occupier of a factory or workshop or laundry or of any place from which any work is given out, or any contractor employed by any such occupier, causes or allows wearing apparel to be made, cleaned, or repaired in any dwelling-house or building occupied therewith, whilst any inmate of the dwelling-house is suffering from scarlet fever or small-pox, then, unless he proves that he was not aware of the existence of the illness in the dwelling-house, and could not reasonably have been expected to become aware of it, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 5, as to fencing.

7.—(1.) In paragraph (1) of section five of the principal Act for the words “a steam engine and water-wheel” shall be substituted the words “any water-wheel or engine worked by any such power.”

(2.) In paragraph (3) of the same section after the word “employed,” the words “or working” shall be inserted.

(3.) In paragraph (4) of the same section for the words “for the purpose of any manufacturing process” shall be substituted the words “except where the parts are under repair or under examination in connexion with repair, or are necessarily exposed for the purpose of cleaning or lubricating or for altering the gearing or arrangements of the parts of the machine.”

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 9, as to restriction on cleaning of machinery in motion.

8. The first paragraph of section nine of the principal Act (which relates to the cleaning of machinery) shall apply, so far as the dangerous parts of machinery are concerned, to young persons in like manner as it applies to children, and for this purpose such parts of the machinery shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to be dangerous as are so notified by an inspector to the occupier of the factory.

Regulation as to position of self-acting machine.

9.—(1.) In a factory erected after the commencement of this Act, the traversing carriage of any self-acting machine shall not be allowed to run out within a distance of eighteen inches from any fixed structure not being part of the machine, if the space over which it so runs out is a space over which any person is liable to pass, whether in the course of his employment or otherwise.

(2.) A person employed in a factory shall not be allowed to be in the space between the fixed and the traversing portions of a self-acting machine unless the machine is stopped with the traversing portion on the outward run, but for the purpose of this provision the space in front of a self-acting machine shall not be included in the space aforesaid.

(3.) A factory in which a traversing carriage is allowed to run out in contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act, and any person allowed to be in the space aforesaid in contravention of this section, shall be deemed to be employed contrary to the provisions of the principal Act.

10.—(1.) A court of summary jurisdiction may, on complaint by an inspector, and on being satisfied that the provision of a moveable fire escape or moveable fire escapes is required for the safety of any of the persons employed in a factory or workshop, by order require the occupier of the factory or workshop to provide and maintain a moveable fire escape or moveable fire escapes sufficient for that purpose.

Provisions for escape from fire.

(2.) While any person employed in a factory or workshop is within the factory or workshop for the purpose of employment or meals, the doors of the factory or workshop, and of any room therein in which any such person is, shall not be locked or bolted or fastened in such a manner that they cannot be easily and immediately opened from the inside.

(3.) In every factory or workshop the construction of which is commenced after the commencement of this Act, the doors of each room in which more persons than ten are employed, shall, except in the case of sliding doors, be constructed so as to open outwards.

(4.) Sub-section one of section seven of the Act of 1891 shall apply to all workshops the construction of which is commenced after the commencement of this Act, and in which more than forty persons are employed, in like manner as it applies to factories, and sub-section two of that section shall apply to all workshops to which the foregoing provision of this sub-section does not apply, in like manner as it applies to factories.

(5.) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of section seven of the Act of 1891 with respect to fire escapes, an inspector may give the like notice and take the like proceedings as under section four of the principal Act and section two of the Act of 1891, and the provisions of those sections shall apply accordingly.

(6.) If there is any contravention of an order under this section the occupier of the factory or workshop shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings a day during such contravention, and a factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of the requirements of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act.

11.—(1.) An application to refer, under section seven of the Act of 1891, a difference as to a notice by a sanitary authority or by the London County Council must be made within one month after the time when the difference arises.

Provision as to arbitration with respect to fire escapes.

(2.) Where such a difference is referred to arbitration, the notice of the sanitary authority or council shall be discharged, amended, or confirmed in accordance with the award in the arbitration.

12. Where any matter in difference is referred to arbitration under section eight of the Act of 1891, the arbitrators or umpire may, on the application of any of the workmen employed in the class of employment to which the arbitration relates, and on such security, if any, as may appear to the arbitrators or umpire sufficient to provide for the costs of and consequential on the application, appoint any person to represent the workmen, or any class of them, on the arbitration, and any person so appointed shall be entitled to attend and take part in the proceedings of the arbitration either in person or by his counsel, solicitor, or agent to such extent and in such manner as the arbitrators or umpire may direct, and shall be subject to the same liability with respect to such costs as aforesaid as if he were a party to the arbitration.

Representation of workmen on arbitration as to special rules.

Extension of 41 & 42 Vict.
c. 16. s. 82, to death or injury caused by neglect of Act or special rules.

13. Section eighty-two of the principal Act, which provides penal compensation to persons injured by neglect to fence machinery, shall extend to any death or bodily injury or injury to health in consequence of the occupier of a factory or workshop having neglected to observe any provision of the Factory Acts or any special rule or requirement made in pursuance of the Act of 1891. Provided that in the case of injury to health the occupier shall not be liable under this section unless the injury was caused directly by such neglect.

Employment.

Restriction of overtime employment.

14.—(1.) A young person shall not be employed overtime in pursuance of section fifty-three of the principal Act.

(2.) A woman shall not be employed overtime in pursuance of section fifty-three of the principal Act for more than three days in any one week or for more than thirty days in any twelve months, and shall not be employed overtime in pursuance of section fifty-six of the principal Act for more than sixty days in any twelve months; and, accordingly, in section fifty-three the words “three days,” and “thirty days,” shall be substituted for the words “five days,” and “forty-eight days,” and in section fifty-six the words “sixty days” shall be substituted for the words “ninety-six days.”

(3.) Section fifty-eight of the principal Act shall, from and after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, apply only to male young persons of fourteen years of age or upwards, and the powers of the Secretary of State under section sixty-three of the principal Act shall extend to making orders as to the total number of hours of employment in each week, the periods of employment, and the intervals between such periods, which are to be conditions of the employment of young persons at night, and to rescinding such orders.

(4.) Section fifty-eight of the principal Act shall not authorise in any factory specified in Part Six of the Third Schedule to the principal Act the employment during the night of young persons in any process other than a process incidental to the business of the factory as described in Part One of the Fourth Schedule to that Act.

(5.) A young person shall not, in pursuance of section fifty-nine of the principal Act, be employed more than twelve hours continuously.

(6.) Section sixty of the principal Act shall, from and after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, apply only to male young persons of fourteen years of age and upwards, and nothing in that section shall be construed as authorising the employment of any person on Sunday.

(7.) For paragraph (4) of the said section sixty shall be substituted the following sub-section :—

“(4.) Such young person shall not be employed continuously for more than five hours without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal.”

(8.) Nothing in the Factory Acts shall be construed as authorising work during overtime on Saturday, or on any day substituted for Saturday as a half holiday, but work in accordance with section fifty of the principal Act shall not be deemed work during overtime.

15. Section seventy-seven of the principal Act, which requires registers to be kept of children and young persons, shall apply to all workshops to which section fifty-three of the principal Act applies.

Registers of children, &c. made compulsory in certain workshops.

16.—(1.) A child shall not, except during the period of employment, be employed in the business of a factory or workshop outside the factory or workshop on any day during which the child is employed in the factory or workshop.

Restrictions on employment inside and outside factory or workshop on the same day.

(2.) A young person or woman shall not, except during the period of employment, be employed in the business of a factory or workshop outside the factory or workshop on any day during which the young person or woman is employed in the factory or workshop both before and after the dinner hour.

(3.) For the purposes of this section a child, young person, or woman to or for whom any work is given out, or who is allowed to take out any work to be done by him or her outside a factory or workshop, shall be deemed to be employed outside the factory or workshop on the day on which the work is so given or taken out.

(4.) If a young person or woman is employed by the same employer on the same day both in a factory or workshop and in a shop, the whole period of employment of that young person or woman shall not exceed the number of hours permitted by the Factory Acts for his or her employment in the factory or workshop.

(5.) The principal Act shall apply as if any child, young person, or woman employed in contravention of this section were employed in a factory or workshop contrary to the provisions of that Act.

(6.) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that the customs or exigencies of the trade carried on in any class of factories or workshops, or parts thereof, either generally or situate in any particular locality, require that such trade should be exempted from the operation of this section, he may by order grant to such class of factories or workshops, or parts thereof, such special exemption as may be necessary.

Holidays.

17. Subject to and in the absence of any notice affixed and forwarded as provided by the principal Act and the Act of 1891, and substituting for any holiday herein-after mentioned another holiday or two half holidays, the holidays to be observed in a factory or workshop in England and Wales in pursuance of paragraphs (1) and (2) of section twenty-two of the principal Act shall be the whole of Christmas Day and of Good Friday, and of every bank holiday, and, unless any other holidays or half-holidays are so substituted, it shall not be necessary to affix in the factory or workshop any notice of the holidays or half-holidays to be observed, or to forward a copy of any such notice to the inspector of the district.

Days to be observed as holidays in England and Wales.

Accidents.

Notices of accidents.

18. For section thirty-one of the principal Act the following section shall be substituted, namely,—

(1.) Where there occurs in a factory or workshop any accident which either—

(a) causes loss of life to a person employed in the factory or in the workshop; or

(b) causes to any person employed in the factory or workshop such bodily injury as to prevent him on any one of the three working days next after the occurrence of the accident from being employed for five hours on his ordinary work, written notice shall forthwith be sent to the inspector for the district.

(2.) If the accident causes loss of life, or is produced either by machinery moved by steam, water, or other mechanical power, or through a vat, pan, or other structure filled with hot liquid or molten metal or other substance, or by explosion or escape of gas, steam, or metal, then, unless notice thereof is required by section sixty-three of the Explosives Act, 1875, to be sent to a Government inspector, notice thereof shall forthwith be sent to the certifying surgeon of the district.

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 17.

(3.) The notice shall state the residence of the person killed or injured, and the place to which he has been removed.

(4.) If any notice required by this section to be sent with respect to an accident in a factory or workshop is not so sent, the occupier of the factory or workshop shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(5.) If any accident to which this section applies occurs to a person employed in an iron mill or blast furnace, or other factory or workshop, where the occupier is not the actual employer of the person killed or injured, the actual employer shall immediately report the same to the occupier, and in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(6.) This section shall extend to workshops conducted on the system of not employing any child, young person, or woman therein.

Inquests.

19. Where a death has occurred by accident in any factory or workshop, the coroner shall adjourn the inquest, unless an inspector or some person on behalf of a Secretary of State is present to watch the proceedings, and shall at least four days before holding the adjourned inquest send to the inspector notice in writing of the time and place of holding the adjourned inquest.

Provided that if the accident has not occasioned the death of more than one person, and the coroner has sent to the inspector notice of the time and place of holding the inquest at such time as to reach the inspector not less than twenty-four hours before the time of holding the same, it shall not be imperative on him to adjourn the inquest in pursuance of this section if the majority of the jury think it unnecessary so to adjourn.

20.—(1.) Every occupier of a factory or workshop shall keep a register of accidents, and shall enter therein every accident occurring in the factory or workshop of which notice is required by the Factory Acts within one week after the occurrence of the accident, and this register shall be at all times open to inspection by the inspector and by the certifying surgeon for the district.

Register of accidents.

(2.) If any occupier of a factory or workshop makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

21.—(1.) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that a formal investigation of any accident occurring in a factory or workshop and its causes and circumstances is expedient, the Secretary of State may direct that such an investigation be held, and with respect to any such investigation the provisions of sections forty-five and forty-six of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1887, shall have effect, except that references to the said Act in the said section forty-five shall be construed as references to the Factory Acts.

Power to direct formal investigation.

50 & 51 Vict. c. 58.

(2.) This section shall extend to workshops conducted on the system of not employing any child, young person, or woman therein.

SPECIAL RULES AND REQUIREMENTS.

Laundries.

22.—(1.) In any laundry carried on by way of trade, or for purpose of gain, the following provisions shall apply:—

Application of Factory Acts to laundries.

(i.) The period of employment, exclusive of meal hours and absence from work, shall not exceed, for children, ten hours, for young persons, twelve hours, for women, fourteen hours, in any consecutive twenty-four hours; nor a total for children of thirty hours, for young persons and women of sixty hours, in any one week, in addition to such overtime as may be allowed in the case of women.

(ii.) A child or young person or woman shall not be employed continuously for more than five hours without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal.

(iii.) Children, young persons, and women employed in laundries shall have allowed to them the same holidays as are allowed to children, young persons, and women employed in a factory or workshop under the Factories and Workshops Acts, 1878 to 1895.

(iv.) So far as regards sanitary provisions, safety, accidents, the affixing of notices and abstracts and the matters to be specified in such notices (so far as they apply to laundries), notice of occupation of a factory or workshop, powers of inspectors, fines, and legal proceedings for any failure to comply with the provisions of this section, and education of children, the Factory Acts shall have effect as if every laundry in which steam, water, or other mechanical power is used in aid of the laundry process were a factory, and every other laundry were a workshop; and as if every occupier of a laundry were the occupier of a factory or of a workshop.

(v.) The notice to be affixed in each laundry shall specify the period of employment and the times for meals, but the period and times so specified may be varied before the beginning of employment on any day.

(vi.) Sections seventeen and eighteen of the Act of 1891 shall apply to laundries in like manner as to factories or workshops.

(2.) In the case of every laundry worked by steam, water, or other mechanical power—

(a) a fan or other means of a proper construction shall be provided, maintained, and used for regulating the temperature in every ironing-room, and for carrying away the steam in every washhouse in the laundry; and

(b) all stoves for heating irons shall be sufficiently separated from any ironing room, and gas irons emitting any noxious fumes shall not be used; and

(c) the floors shall be kept in good condition and drained in such manner as will allow the water to flow off freely.

A laundry in which these provisions are contravened shall be deemed to be a factory not kept in conformity with the principal Act.

(3.) Nothing in this section shall apply to any laundry in which the only persons employed are—

(a) inmates of any prison, reformatory, or industrial school, or other institution for the time being subject to inspection under any Act other than the Factory Acts; or

(b) inmates of an institution conducted in good faith for religious or charitable purposes; or

(c) members of the same family dwelling there, or in which not more than two persons dwelling elsewhere are employed.

(4.) Women employed in laundries may work overtime, subject to the following conditions:—

(a.) No woman shall work more than fourteen hours in any day.

(b.) The overtime worked shall not exceed two hours in any day.

(c.) Overtime shall not be worked on more than three days in any week or more than thirty days in any year.

(d.) The requirements of section sixty-six of the principal Act and of section fourteen of the Act of 1891 with respect to notices shall be observed.

Docks, &c.

23.—(1.) The following provisions, namely:—

(i.) Section eighty-two of the principal Act;

(ii.) The provisions of the Factory Acts with respect to accidents;

Extension to docks, &c. of certain provisions of Factory Acts.

(iii.) Section sixty-eight of the principal Act with respect to the powers of inspectors ;

(iv.) Sections eight to twelve of the Act of 1891 with respect to special rules for dangerous employments ; and

(v.) The provisions of this Act with respect to the power to make orders as to dangerous machines shall have effect as if—

(a) every dock, wharf, quay, and warehouse, and, so far as relates to the process of loading or unloading therefrom or thereto, all machinery and plant used in that process ; and were included in the word factory, and the purpose for which the machinery is used were a manufacturing process, and as if the person who by himself, his agents, or workmen temporarily uses any such machinery for the before-mentioned purpose were the occupier of the said premises ; and for the purpose of the enforcement of those sections the person having the actual use or occupation of a dock, wharf, quay, or warehouse, or of any premises within the same or forming part thereof, and the person so using any such machinery, shall be deemed to be the occupier of a factory.

(2.) The provisions of this Act with respect to notice of accidents and the formal investigation of accidents shall have effect as if—

(a) any building which exceeds thirty feet in height, and which is being constructed or repaired by means of a scaffolding ; and were included in the word “ factory,” and as if, in the first case, the employer of the persons engaged in such construction or repair, and, in the second case, the occupier of the building, were the occupier of a factory.

(b) any building which exceeds thirty feet in height, and in which more than twenty persons, not being domestic servants, are employed for wages ;

Tenement Factories.

24.—(1.) Where mechanical power is supplied to different parts of the same building occupied by different persons for the purpose of any manufacturing process or handicraft in such manner that those parts constitute in law separate factories, the owner (whether or not he is one of the persons so in occupation) of the building (which building is hereafter in this Act referred to as a tenement factory) shall, instead of the occupier, be liable for the observance, and punishable for non-observance, of the following provisions, namely :

Substitution of owner of tenement factory for occupier for certain purposes.

(a.) Section three of the principal Act, with respect to the sanitary condition of a factory ; and

- (b.) Sections five and eighty-two of the principal Act, with respect to the fencing of machinery in a factory, except so far as those sections relate to such parts of the machinery as are supplied by the occupier; and
- (c.) Save as herein-after provided, section nineteen of the principal Act, with respect to the notices to be affixed in a factory, and the matters to be specified therein; and
- (d.) Section thirty-three of the principal Act, with respect to the limewashing and washing of the interior of a factory, so far as it relates to any engine-house, passage, or staircase, or to any room which is let to more than one tenant; and
- (e.) Section thirty-six of the principal Act, with respect to the removal of dust, so far as that section requires the supply of pipes or other contrivances necessary for working the fan or other means for that purpose, and except in textile factories; and
- (f.) Section seventy-eight of the principal Act, with respect to the affixing of an abstract and notices.

(2.) Where different industries are carried on in the same tenement factory, the obligation to affix the notice required by section nineteen of the principal Act shall be on the occupier and not on the owner.

(3.) Sections eight to eleven of the Act of 1891, shall, if and as far as in the case of a tenement factory the Secretary of State by order so directs, apply as if the owner of the factory were substituted for the occupier.

(4.) The provisions of this Act with respect to the power to make orders in the case of dangerous premises shall apply in the case of a tenement factory as if the owner were substituted for the occupier.

(5.) Where, by or under this section, the owner of a tenement factory is substituted for the occupier with respect to any provisions of the Factory Acts, any summons, notice, or proceeding, which for the purpose of any of those provisions is by the said Acts or any of them authorised or required to be served on or taken in relation to the occupier, is hereby authorised or required (as the case may be) to be served on or taken in relation to the owner.

(6.) For the purpose of the provisions of this Act with respect to tenement factories all buildings situate within the same close or curtilage shall be treated as one building.

(7.) This section shall not apply in the case of any occupier paying a rent in excess of two hundred pounds a year.

Regulations as to grinding and cutlery in tenement factory.

25.—(1.) Where grinding is carried on in a tenement factory, the owner of the factory shall be responsible for the observance of the regulations set forth in the First Schedule to this Act.

(2.) In every such tenement factory it shall be the duty of the owner and of the occupier of the factory respectively to see that such parts of the horsing chains and of the hooks to which the chains are attached as are supplied by them respectively are kept in efficient condition.

(3.) In every tenement factory where grinding or cutlery is carried on the owner of the factory shall provide that there shall at all times be instantaneous communication between each of the rooms in which the work is carried on and both the engine-room and the boiler-house.

(4.) A tenement factory in which there is any contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act, but for the purposes of any proceeding in respect of a provision for the observance of which the owner of the factory is responsible, that owner shall be substituted for the occupier of the factory.

(5.) This section shall not apply to a textile factory.

26. A certificate of the fitness of any young person or child for employment in a tenement factory shall be valid for his similar employment in any part of the same tenement factory.

Validity of certificate of fitness in tenement factory.

Bakehouses.

27.—(1.) Sections thirty-four and thirty-five of the principal Act shall apply to every bakehouse, and so much of those sections as limits the operation thereof to cities, towns, and places having a population of more than five thousand persons shall be repealed.

Provisions as to bakehouses.

(2.) In section fifteen of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1883, the words, "which was not so let or occupied before the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three," shall be repealed.

46 & 47 Vict. c. 53.

(3.) A place under ground shall not be used as a bakehouse unless it is so used at the commencement of this Act, and if any place is so used in contravention of this Act it shall be deemed to be a workshop not kept in conformity with the principal Act.

Special Restrictions as to Employment.

28.—(1.) Section eight of the Act of 1891 shall extend to authorise the making of special rules or requirements prohibiting the employment of, or modifying or limiting the period of employment for, all or any classes of persons in any process or particular description of manual labour which is certified by the Secretary of State in pursuance of that section to be dangerous or injurious to health, or dangerous to life or limb. Provided that any special rules or requirements under this section which relate to the employment or period of employment of adult workers shall be laid for forty days before both Houses of Parliament before coming into operation.

Power to prohibit or restrict employment in dangerous trade.

(2.) Sections eight to twelve of the Act of 1891 are hereby declared to extend to workshops conducted on the system of not employing any child, young person, or woman therein.

Special Provisions for Health.

29.—(1.) Every medical practitioner attending on or called in to visit a patient whom he believes to be suffering from lead,

Notification of certain diseases to chief inspector.

phosphorus, or arsenical poisoning, or anthrax, contracted in any factory or workshop, shall (unless the notice required by this section has been previously sent) send to the Chief Inspector of Factories at the Home Office, London, a notice stating the name and full postal address of the patient and the disease from which in the opinion of the medical practitioner the patient is suffering, and shall be entitled in respect of every notice sent in pursuance of this section to a fee of two shillings and sixpence to be paid as part of the expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in the execution of the principal Act.

(2.) If any medical practitioner, when required by this section to send a notice, fails forthwith to send the same, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings.

(3.) Written notice of every case of lead, phosphorus, or arsenical poisoning, or anthrax, occurring in a factory or workshop, shall forthwith be sent to the inspector and to the certifying surgeon for the district; and the provisions of the Factory Acts with respect to accidents shall apply to any such case in like manner as to any such accident as is in those sections mentioned.

(4.) The Secretary of State may by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act apply the provisions of this section to any other disease occurring in a factory or workshop, and thereupon this section and the provisions referred to therein shall apply accordingly.

Lavatories in
trades.

30.—(1.) In every factory or workshop where lead, arsenic, or any other poisonous substance is used, suitable washing conveniences shall be provided for the use of the persons employed in any department where such substances are used.

(2.) A factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act.

Provisions as to humid factories.
52 & 53 Vict.
c. 62.

31.—(1.) The Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1889, shall apply to every textile factory in which atmospheric humidity is artificially produced by steaming or other mechanical appliances, and which is not for the time being subject to special rules under section eight of the Act of 1891, with such modifications of the schedule with respect to the maximum limits of humidity as the Secretary of State by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act may direct.

(2.) In section nine of the Cotton Cloth Factories Act, 1889, the words "and the arrangements for such ventilation shall be kept in operation subject, as far as possible, to the control of the persons employed therein," shall be repealed.

Temperature in factories and workshops.

32.—(1.) In every factory and workshop adequate measures shall be taken for securing and maintaining a reasonable temperature in each room in which any person is employed.

(2.) A factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act.

33. Section thirty-six of the principal Act shall extend to any factory or workshop where any process is carried on by which any gas, vapour, or other impurity is generated and inhaled by the workers to an injurious extent.

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 36, as to use of fans.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS.

34. The occupier of every factory and workshop shall on or before the first day of March in every year send to the inspector of the district on behalf of the Secretary of State a correct return specifying, with respect to the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, the number of persons employed in the factory or workshop, with such particulars as to the age and sex of the persons employed as the Secretary of State may direct, and in default of complying with this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Annual returns of persons employed.

35.—(1.) In every place where section twenty-two of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, is not in force every factory or workshop shall be provided with sufficient and suitable accommodation in the way of sanitary conveniences, having regard to the number of persons employed in or in attendance at the factory or workshop, and also where persons of both sexes are employed or intended to be employed, or in attendance, with proper separate accommodation for persons of each sex.

Sanitary conveniences. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 59.

(2.) A factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with the principal Act.

36.—(1.) In the regulation numbered (1) in section thirteen of the principal Act, after the words "end at seven o'clock in the evening," shall be inserted the words "or begin at eight o'clock in the morning and end at eight o'clock in the evening."

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. ss. 13, 14, as to period of employment.

(2.) In the regulation numbered (2) in the same section, after the words "two o'clock in the afternoon," shall be inserted the words "or when it begins at seven o'clock in the morning, at three o'clock in the afternoon, or begin at eight o'clock in the morning and end at four o'clock in the afternoon."

(3.) If in a non-textile factory or workshop the period of employment of young persons and women is from eight o'clock in the morning to eight o'clock in the evening, then, subject to the provisions of section fourteen of the principal Act, the period of employment of a child in a morning set may begin at eight o'clock in the morning, and in an afternoon set may end at eight o'clock in the evening, or on Saturday at four o'clock in the afternoon, and the period of employment of a child employed on the alternate day system may begin at eight o'clock in the morning, and end at eight o'clock in the evening, or on Saturday at four o'clock in the afternoon.

37.—(1.) In section fifty-three of the principal Act—
For the words "the factories and workshops or parts thereof" shall be substituted the words "the non-textile factories and workshops or parts thereof and warehouses"; and Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 53, and Third Schedule, Part III.

For the words "the factories and workshops and parts thereof" shall be substituted the words "the non-textile factories and workshops and parts thereof and warehouses," wherever those words respectively occur in that section.

(2.) In Part Three of the Third Schedule to the principal Act, before the word "factories" shall be inserted the word "non-textile," the words "and also" are hereby repealed, and for the paragraph marked "(x.)" there shall be substituted the following paragraph, namely :

"The said exception applies also to any part of a factory (whether textile or non-textile) or workshop which is a warehouse not used for any manufacturing process or handicraft, and in which persons are solely employed in polishing, cleaning, wrapping, or packing-up goods."

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 58 as to shifts.

38. Nothing in the principal Act shall prevent the employment of male young persons to whom section fifty-eight of that Act applies in three shifts of not more than eight hours each, provided that there is an interval of two unemployed shifts between each two shifts of employment.

Power to treat separate branches as separate factories.

39. The Secretary of State may by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act direct, with respect to any class of factories or workshops, that different branches or departments of work carried on in the same factory or workshop shall, for all or any of the purposes of the Factory Acts, be treated as if they were different factories or workshops.

Particulars respecting wages to be furnished in certain cases.

40.—(1.) In every textile factory the occupier shall, for the purpose of enabling each worker who is paid by the piece to compute the total amount of wages payable to him in respect of his work, cause to be published particulars of the rate of wages applicable to the work to be done, and also particulars of the work to which that rate is to be applied, as follows :—

- (a.) The particulars of the rate of wages applicable to the work to be done by each weaver in the worsted and woollen, other than the hosiery, trades shall be furnished to him in writing at the time when the work is given out to him, and shall also be exhibited on a placard not containing any other matter, and posted in a position where it is easily legible :
- (b.) The particulars of the rate of wages applicable to the work to be done by each worker, other than such a weaver as aforesaid, shall be furnished to him in writing at the time when the work is given out to him ; provided that if the same particulars are applicable to the work to be done by each of the workers in one room it shall be sufficient to exhibit them in that room on a placard not containing any other matter, and posted in a position where it is easily legible :
- (c.) Such particulars of the work to be done by each worker as affect the amount of wages payable to him shall (except so far as they are ascertainable by an automatic indicator) be furnished to him in writing at the time when the work is given out to him :

- (d.) The particulars either as to rate of wages or as to work shall not be expressed by means of symbols :
- (e.) Where an automatic indicator is used for ascertaining work, such indicator shall have marked upon its case the number of teeth in each wheel and the diameter of the driving roller, except that in the case of spinning machines with traversing carriages the number of spindles and the length of the stretch in such machines shall be so marked in substitution for the diameter of the driving roller :
- (f.) Where such particulars of the work to be done by each worker as affect the amount of wages payable to him are ascertained by an automatic indicator, and a placard containing the particulars as to the rate of wages is exhibited in each room, in pursuance of an agreement between employers and workmen and in conformity with the requirements of this section, the exhibition thereof shall be a sufficient compliance with this section.

(2.) If the occupier fails to comply with the requirements of this section, or fraudulently uses a false indicator for ascertaining the particulars or amount of any work paid for by the piece, or if any workman fraudulently alters an automatic indicator, the occupier or workman, as the case may be, shall be liable for each offence to a fine of not more than ten pounds, and, in case of a second or subsequent conviction within two years from the last conviction for that offence, not less than one pound. Provided that an indicator shall not be deemed false if it complies with the requirements of this section.

(3.) If anyone engaged as a worker in any factory or workshop, having received such particulars, whether they are furnished directly to him or to a fellow workman, discloses the particulars for the purpose of divulging a trade secret he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(4.) If anyone for the purpose of obtaining knowledge of or divulging a trade secret solicits or procures a person so engaged in any factory to disclose such particulars, or with that object pays or rewards any such person, or causes any such person to be paid or rewarded for so disclosing such particulars, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(5.) This section shall take effect instead of section twenty-four of the Act of 1891.

(6.) The Secretary of State, on being satisfied by the report of an inspector that the provisions of this section are applicable to any class of non-textile factories, or to any class of workshops, may, if he thinks fit, by order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act, apply the provisions of this section to any such class, subject to such modifications as may in his opinion be necessary for adapting those provisions to the circumstances of the case.

41. Every person who is in occupation of a workshop at the commencement of this Act shall before the expiration of twelve months from the commencement of this Act, unless he has already done so in pursuance of section twenty-six of the Act of 1891, serve on the inspector for the district a written notice containing the name of the workshop, the place where it is situate, the address to which he desires his letters to be addressed, the nature of the work, and the name of the person or firm under which the business of the workshop is carried on, and in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds. Any notice so served shall be forthwith forwarded to the sanitary authority of the district in which the workshop is situate.

Notice of existing workshops.

Amendment and extension of 54 & 55 Vict. c. 75. s. 27, respecting lists of out-workers.

42.—(1.) Every occupier of a factory or workshop to whom section twenty-seven of the Act of 1891 for the time being applies, and every contractor employed by any such occupier in the business of the factory or workshop, shall, on or before the first day of March and the first day of September in each year, send to the inspector for the district in which the factory or workshop is situate a list showing the names of all persons directly employed by him, either as workmen or as contractors, in the business of the factory or workshop outside the factory or workshop, and the places where they are employed, and in default of so doing shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings.

(2.) Section twenty-seven of the Act of 1891 and this section shall apply to any place from which any work of making wearing apparel for sale is given out, and to the occupier of that place, and to every contractor employed by any such occupier in connexion with the said work, as if that place were a workshop.

Evidence as to failure to lime-wash.

43. Failure to enter in the register kept in pursuance of section seventy-seven of the principal Act the prescribed particulars as to lime-washing shall be prima facie evidence of failure to observe the requirements of the Factory Acts with respect to lime-washing.

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. ss. 66, 75, and 54 & 55 Vict. c. 75. s. 29.

44.—(1.) In sections sixty-six and seventy-five of the principal Act the words "the inspector for the district" shall be substituted for the words "an inspector" wherever they occur in those sections.

(2.) In section twenty-nine of the Act of 1891, the words "the factory inspector for the district within which the offence is charged to have been committed" shall be substituted for the words "a factory inspector."

Amendment of 41 & 42 Vict. c. 16. s. 68, as to powers of inspector.

45. Section sixty-eight of the principal Act shall have effect as if in the paragraph numbered (2), which empowers an inspector to take with him a constable into a factory, the words "or workshop" were inserted after the word "factory."

Special inquiries and re-examinations by certifying surgeons.

46.—(1.) Every certifying surgeon shall, if so directed by the Secretary of State, make any special inquiry and re-examine any young person or child, and any expense incurred by the Secretary of State under this provision shall be defrayed as other expenses incurred by him in the execution of the Factory Acts.

(2.) The fees to be paid to certifying surgeons in cases where, in pursuance of this section or of special rules under the Factory Acts, they are required to examine the persons employed in a factory or workshop shall be in accordance with the scale set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act, or with such scale as may be substituted therefor by the Secretary of State.

(3.) Such fees shall, where the examination is in pursuance of this section, be paid by the Secretary of State, and where the examination is in pursuance of special rules be paid by the occupier of the factory or workshop.

47. Every order made in accordance with section sixty-five of the principal Act shall be published in such manner as the Secretary of State thinks best adapted for the information of all persons interested. Publication of orders.

48. Any notice, order, requisition, summons, or document, required or authorised by the Factory Acts to be served on the owner, as defined by this Act, of a factory or workshop, may be served by delivering the same or a true copy thereof to the agent of the owner as so defined. Service of documents on owner.

49. A person charged with an offence under the Factory Acts may, if he thinks fit, tender himself to be examined on his own behalf, and thereupon he may give evidence in the same manner and with the like effect and consequences as any other witness. Competency of defendant to give evidence.

50. Where, in pursuance of section eighty-seven of the principal Act, some person other than the occupier of a factory or workshop is brought before a court of summary jurisdiction, and convicted of an offence with which the occupier was charged, that person shall in the discretion of the court be liable to pay any costs incidental to the proceeding. Payment of costs by actual offender in lieu of occupier.

51. An inspector, if so authorised in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State, may, although he is not a counsel, or solicitor, or law agent, prosecute, conduct, or defend, before a court of summary jurisdiction or justice, any information, complaint, or other proceeding arising under the Factory Acts, or in the discharge of his duty as such inspector. Right of inspector to conduct proceedings before magistrates.

52. In the application of the Factory Acts to Ireland— Application to Ireland.

The expression "Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1874," where it occurs in sub-section eleven of section one hundred and six of the principal Act, and the expression "Public Health Act, 1875," where it occurs in sections four and seven of the Act of 1891, shall be construed as meaning the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and the Acts amending the same. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

53. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

(1.) The expression "the Factory Acts" means the Factory and Workshop Acts, 1878 to 1891, and this Act:

The expression "the principal Act" means the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878:

The expression "the Act of 1891" means the Factory and Workshop Act, 1891 :

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

The expression "owner" has the meaning given to it by section four of the Public Health Act, 1875.

(2.) References to any section of the Factory Acts shall be construed as references to that section as amended by subsequent enactments, including this Act.

Repeal.

54. The Acts mentioned in the Third Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule.

Commencement of Act.

55. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Short titles and construction.

56. This Act may be cited as the Factory and Workshop Act, 1895, and shall be construed as one with the Factory and Workshop Acts, 1878 to 1891, and those Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Factory and Workshop Acts, 1878 to 1895.

CHAPTER 39.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Summary Jurisdiction of Magistrates in reference to Married Women. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Summary Jurisdiction (Married Women) Act, 1895.

Application of Act. Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

By and to whom orders may be applied for. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 100.

4. Any married woman whose husband shall have been convicted summarily of an aggravated assault upon her within the meaning of section forty-three of the Offences against the Person Act, 1861, or whose husband shall have been convicted upon indictment of an assault upon her, and sentenced to pay a fine of more than five pounds or to a term of imprisonment exceeding two months, or whose husband shall have deserted her, or whose husband shall have been guilty of persistent cruelty to her, or wilful neglect to provide reasonable maintenance for her or her infant children whom he is legally liable to maintain, and shall by such cruelty or neglect have caused her to leave and live separately and apart from him, may apply to any court of summary jurisdiction acting within the city, borough, petty sessional or other division or district, in which any such conviction has taken place, or in which the cause of complaint shall have wholly or partially arisen, for an order or orders under this Act: Provided that where a married woman is entitled to apply for an order or orders under this section on the ground of the conviction of her husband upon indictment, she may apply to the court before whom her husband has been convicted, and that court shall, for the purposes of this section, become a court of summary jurisdiction, and shall have the power without a jury to hear an application, and make the order or orders applied for.

Powers of court.

5. The court of summary jurisdiction to which any application under this Act is made may make an order or orders containing all or any of the provisions following, viz. :—

(a.) A provision that the applicant be no longer bound to cohabit with her husband (which provision while in force shall have the effect in all respects of a decree of judicial separation on the ground of cruelty):

(b.) A provision that the legal custody of any children of the marriage between the applicant and her husband, while under the age of sixteen years, be committed to the applicant:

(c.) A provision that the husband shall pay to the applicant personally, or for her use, to any officer of the court or third person on her behalf, such weekly sum not exceeding two pounds as the court shall, having regard to the means both of the husband and wife, consider reasonable :

(d.) A provision for payment by the applicant or the husband, or both of them, of the costs of the court and such reasonable costs of either of the parties as the court may think fit.

6. No orders shall be made under this Act on the application of a married woman if it shall be proved that such married woman has committed an act of adultery : Provided that the husband has not condoned, or connived at, or by his wilful neglect or misconduct conduced to such act of adultery. Limitations of powers of court.

7. A court of summary jurisdiction acting within the city, borough, petty sessional or other division or district, in which any order under this Act or the Acts mentioned in the schedule hereto, or either of them, has been made, may, on the application of the married woman or of her husband, and upon cause being shown upon fresh evidence to the satisfaction of the court at any time, alter, vary, or discharge any such order, and may upon any such application from time to time increase or diminish the amount of any weekly payment ordered to be made, so that the same do not in any case exceed the weekly sum of two pounds. If any married woman upon whose application an order shall have been made under this Act, or the Acts mentioned in the schedule hereto, or either of them, shall voluntarily resume cohabitation with her husband, or shall commit an act of adultery, such order shall upon proof thereof be discharged. Court may vary or discharge order.

8. All applications under this Act shall be made in accordance with the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, and, in the case of a conviction of a husband for aggravated assault upon his wife, her application may, by leave of the court, be made by summons to be issued and made returnable immediately upon such conviction. Procedure.

9. The payment of any sum of money directed to be paid by any order under this Act may be enforced in the same manner as the payment of money is enforced under an order of affiliation. Enforcement of orders for payment of money.

10. If in the opinion of a court of summary jurisdiction the matters in question between the parties or any of them would be more conveniently dealt with by the High Court, the court of summary jurisdiction may refuse to make an order under this Act, and in such case no appeal shall lie from the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction : Provided always, that the High Court or a judge thereof shall have power by order in any proceeding in the High Court relating to or comprising the same subject matter as the application so refused as aforesaid, or any part thereof, to direct the court of summary jurisdiction to rehear and determine the same. Court may refuse an order in cases more fit for the High Court.

11. Save as is herein-before provided, an appeal shall lie from any order or the refusal of any order by a court of summary jurisdiction Appeal.

under this Act to the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice. Rules of court may from time to time be made regulating the practice and procedure in such appeals. And, until altered or repealed, any rules already made as to appeals under section four of the Matrimonial Causes Act, 1878, shall apply to appeals under this Act.

Repeal of Acts. 12. The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent therein mentioned, except so far as they apply to Ireland.

An Act to amend the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883. [6th July 1895.]

Certain false statements concerning a candidate to be an illegal practice.

46 & 47 Vict. c. 51.

1. Any person who, or the directors of any body or association corporate which, before or during any parliamentary election, shall, for the purpose of affecting the return of any candidate at such election, make or publish any false statement of fact in relation to the personal character or conduct of such candidate shall be guilty of an illegal practice within the meaning of the provisions of the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, and shall be subject to all the penalties for and consequences of committing an illegal practice in the said Act mentioned, and the said Act shall be taken to be amended as if the illegal practice defined by this Act had been contained therein.

Evidence on hearing of charge under the Act.

2. No person shall be deemed to be guilty of such illegal practice if he can show that he had reasonable grounds for believing, and did believe, the statement made by him to be true.

Any person charged with an offence under this Act, and the husband or wife of such person, as the case may be, shall be competent to give evidence in answer to such charge.

3. Any person who shall make or publish any false statement of fact as aforesaid may be restrained by interim or perpetual injunction by the High Court of Justice from any repetition of such false statement or any false statement of a similar character in relation to such candidate, and for the purpose of granting an interim injunction prima facie proof of the falsity of the statement shall be sufficient.

4. A candidate shall not be liable, nor shall be subject to any incapacity, nor shall his election be avoided, for any illegal practice under this Act committed by his agent other than his election agent, unless it can be shown that the candidate or his election agent has authorised or consented to the committing of such illegal practice by such other agent, or has paid for the circulation of the false statement constituting the illegal practice, or unless upon the hearing of an election petition the election court shall find and report that the election of such candidate was procured or materially assisted in consequence of the making or publishing of such false statements.

5. This Act may be cited as the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1895, and shall be construed as one with the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Acts, 1883 and 1895.

CHAPTER 41.

An Act to amend the Valuation of Lands (Scotland) Acts. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1895, and shall apply to Scotland only.
2. This Act shall be read and construed as one with the Valuation Acts.
3. In this Act the expression "Valuation Acts" shall mean and include the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act, 1854 (herein-after referred to as the Valuation Act, 1854), and any Acts amending the same.
4. Section six of the Valuation Act, 1854, shall be read and construed as if the following proviso were inserted after the words Injunction against person making false statement.

Candidate exonerated in certain cases of illegal practice by agents.

17 & 18 Vict. c. 91.

Amendment of section 6 of Valuation

Act, 1854, in cases of erections and structural improvements.

“ as compared with the amount of such valuation,” that is to say :—

“ Provided also, that where any lessee of any such lands and heritages, holding under a lease or agreement, the stipulated duration of which is twenty-one years or under from the date of the entry under the same, and in the case of minerals, thirty-one years or under from the date of such entry, has made or acquired erections or structural improvements on the subjects let, and where the actual yearly value of such erections or structural improvements cannot, under the provision of section six of this Act, be entered in the valuation roll, such erections or structural improvements shall be deemed to be lands and heritages within the meaning of this Act, and such lessee shall be deemed to be proprietor thereof for the purposes of this Act, and the assessor shall ascertain the yearly value of such erections or structural improvements as a separate subject, by taking the amount of rent, if any, in addition to the rent stipulated to be paid under such lease or agreement at which, one year with another, the subjects let, and such erections or structural improvements might together, in their actual state, be reasonably expected to let from year to year, in consequence of such erections or structural improvements having been made, and shall make a separate entry thereof in the valuation roll, setting forth all the particulars relating thereto as herein-before provided with respect to other lands and heritages.”

But this proviso shall not apply—

- (1.) To any erections or structural improvements made or acquired for agricultural purposes by the lessee of subjects wholly or mainly agricultural; nor
- (2.) To any erections or structural improvements made or acquired, and used exclusively for the purpose of working or cleaning minerals let under such lease or agreement as aforesaid, in respect of which minerals rent or lordship is stipulated to be paid; nor
- (3.) To coke ovens or other structures in which coal or other minerals are treated, where the rent or lordship stipulated in such lease or agreement as aforesaid to be paid in respect of such coal or other minerals is, by the terms of such lease or agreement, calculated upon the coke or other minerals as treated in such ovens or other structures.

Burgh
committee to be appointed.

5. From and after the commencement of this Act, appeals and complaints, under the Valuation Acts, to the magistrates and council in any burgh may be heard and determined in the same manner as prior to the commencement of this Act, by such magistrates and councillors of such burgh, or may be heard and determined by a standing committee of their own number to be annually appointed by such magistrates and council, consisting of not less than seven nor more than fifteen members, of whom three shall be a quorum, and to be called the burgh valuation committee. The burgh valuation committee may appoint a chairman, who shall have a casting as well as a deliberative vote. Any vacancy on the committee caused by death, resignation, or other cause, may be filled up by the magistrates and council. The town clerk shall be clerk of the committee. The determination of a burgh valuation committee shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the determination of the magistrates and council by whom it is appointed.

CHAPTER 42.

An Act for the better Regulation of Scottish Sea Fisheries. [6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Sea Fisheries Regulation (Scotland) Act, 1895, and shall be read along with the Sea Fisheries Acts. Short title.

2. This Act shall apply to Scotland only, and to the parts of the sea adjoining Scotland, or within the jurisdiction of the Fishery Board for Scotland. Extent of Act.

3. In this Act the expression "Sea Fisheries Acts" means the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868, the Sea Fisheries Act, 1875, the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883, and the Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1885, and the expression "Herring Fishery (Scotland) Acts" means the Herring Fishery Acts enumerated in Schedule I. to the Fishery Board (Scotland) Act, 1882, and includes any enactments amending these Acts or any of them. Definition.
31 & 32 Vict.
c. 45.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 15.
46 & 47 Vict.
c. 22.
48 & 49 Vict.
c. 70.

4. From and after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six the Fishery Board for Scotland established by the Fishery Board (Scotland) Act, 1882, shall be reconstituted in manner following (that is to say):— Constitution of Fishery Board.
45 & 46 Vict.
c. 78.

(1.) The Board shall consist of seven members, (viz., three members, of whom one shall be the chairman of the Board, a second shall be the sheriff of a county in Scotland, and the third shall be a person of skill in the branches of science concerned with the habits and food of fishes, and four members who shall be representative of the various sea fishing interests of Scotland,) to be appointed by Her Majesty from time to time after the passing of this Act on the recommendation of the Secretary for Scotland, and to hold office for five years, unless they sooner die or resign office. Four members shall be a quorum. The chairman or deputy chairman, as the case may be, shall have a casting as well as a deliberative vote.

Save as regards the number of the quorum, nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of section four, sub-section (2), of the Fishery Board (Scotland) Act, 1882.

(2.) It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Scotland to appoint a scientific superintendent, who shall hold office during pleasure, and be paid such salary as may be determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The superintendent shall, under the directions of the Fishery Board, conduct and supervise such scientific inquiries as the Board may deem necessary in carrying out the provisions of the Herring Fishery and Sea Fishery Acts.

(3.) The personal and travelling expenses of the members of the Fishery Board on scales to be approved by the Treasury shall be defrayed from moneys to be provided by Parliament.

(4.) The first meeting of the reconstituted Board shall take place on such day as shall be determined by the Secretary for Scotland, on and after which date the present members of the Board (other than the chairman) shall cease to hold office and be discharged of their duties.

Establishment of sea fisheries districts.

5.—(1.) On the application of a county council or of a town council, or of the police commissioners of a police burgh, the Secretary for Scotland may, from time to time, by order—

- (a) create a sea fisheries district, including any part of the sea adjoining Scotland, or within the jurisdiction of the Fishery Board for Scotland; and
- (b) define the limits of the district and the area chargeable with any expenses under this Act; and
- (c) provide for the constitution of a fishery district committee for the regulation of the sea fisheries carried on within the district; and may from time to time, on a like application by subsequent order, vary any order made under this section, and unite one or more districts or parts of districts into a separate district, or dissolve any district that may have been formed. Provided that no order shall be made affecting any county or burgh or police burgh, or any part thereof, except with the consent of the county council, town council, or police commissioners of such county or burgh or police burgh, as the case may be.

(2.) Before making any order creating a sea fisheries district the Secretary for Scotland shall cause the draft of such order to be locally published in such manner as he may direct, and shall, if any objections are made to such order, or to any of the provisions thereof, cause such local inquiry to be held as may in his opinion be required. Due notice of such inquiry shall be given by advertisement or otherwise, and the report of the person holding such inquiry shall, if the order is made, be laid with the order before both Houses of Parliament.

(3.) Every order made under this section shall be laid for thirty days before both Houses of Parliament while in session, and if either House within that period resolves that the whole or any part of the order so made ought not to be in force, the same shall not have any force, without prejudice nevertheless to the making of any other order in its place. Subject to any such resolution, every order so made shall come into force at the expiration of the thirty days aforesaid.

6.—(1.) In each fishery district there shall be a fishery district committee, who shall be a committee composed of such number of members (in this Act referred to as ordinary members) of the county councils of the counties, and of the town councils of the royal or parliamentary burghs, and the burgh commissioners of the police burghs, comprised within the district and appearing to have an interest, as may be fixed by the order creating the district, or by any other order of the Secretary for Scotland, with the addition of such number of fishery members representing the fishing interests of the district as may be directed by the order, but not exceeding one half in number of the whole committee. The fishery members may be distributed or apportioned among such portions of counties and among such burghs and police burghs as the Secretary for Scotland shall determine by the order. A fishery district committee shall, subject to the provisions of the order creating the sea fishery district, be a committee of a county council, or town council, or commissioners of a police burgh, or if two or more of such bodies are represented upon it shall be deemed to be a joint committee of such bodies, and the provisions of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, relative to joint committees shall apply accordingly.

Establishment of fishery district committees.

52 & 53 Vict.
c. 50.

(2.) So soon as an order creating a district has come into force—

(a.) The ordinary members shall be appointed annually in accordance therewith by the said county councils, town councils, and burgh commissioners respectively, from among their own number, and shall hold office until their successors are appointed.

(b.) Where such order has come into force before the first day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, the fishery members may be nominated by the Secretary of Scotland, but shall cease to hold office when their successors are elected as herein-after provided.

(3.) (a.) In the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and in every third year thereafter, being the year in which a county electoral roll falls to be prepared in terms of the provisions of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, or of any Act or Acts amending the same, the fishery members shall be elected (subject to regulations to be framed as to nomination, the manner of conducting the elections, and the mode of defraying the costs thereof, in so far as not herein provided, by the Secretary for Scotland) by all persons included in the expression "fishing interests" as herein-after defined.

(b.) The county and burgh assessors respectively, or other persons charged within a fishery district with the duty of the preparation of the county council and burgh registers of voters (including the registers of police burghs), shall, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and in every third year thereafter, prefix a distinctive mark (of which they shall have given due notice on the lists published by them) to the number or name of any county or burgh elector whom they shall respectively consider to be entitled, or who shall satisfy them that he is entitled, to be included in the expression "fishing interests."

It shall be lawful to object to the insertion or omission of the distinctive mark in this section mentioned as nearly as may be in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as to appeal and otherwise as in the case of any other entry in or omission from the register and lists of voters.

(c.) At an election each voter shall be entitled to a number of votes equal to the number of members to be elected for the county or burgh or police burgh, or for any two or more of them, for which fishery members are to be elected, and for which he has a vote, but he shall not be entitled to give more than one vote to any candidate.

(d.) The elections shall take place in counties (exclusive of burghs and police burghs) on the same day and, as nearly as may be, in the same manner, in the same places, and with the same returning and presiding officers and clerks, as the election of county councillors for the county in which the fishery district or part thereof, as the case may be, is situate, or, if there is a contested election for fishery members but there is no contested election for county councillors in the county council electoral division or divisions corresponding to such fishery district or part thereof, as the case may be, as if there were a contested election for county councillors in such electoral division or divisions; and, in burghs and police burghs not divided into wards, on the same day and, as nearly as may be, in the same manner, in the same places, and with the same returning and presiding officers and clerks, as the election of town councillors and burgh commissioners for the burghs and police burghs in which the fishery district or part thereof, as the case may be, is situate, or, if there is a contested election for fishery members but no contested election for town councillors or burgh commissioners in such burgh or in any ward thereof (if it is divided into wards), as if there were a contested election for town councillors or burgh commissioners in such burgh or police burgh or in a ward or wards thereof; and in burghs and police burghs divided into wards the elections shall take place at such time and in such place within the burgh as the town council or the police commissioners respectively may determine, and as nearly as may be in the same manner as the election of town councillors or police commissioners for a ward of such burgh.

(e.) The fishery members shall hold office for three years, and any casual vacancy shall be filled by a representative of the fishing interest, to be appointed by the fishery district committee of the district in which the vacancy occurs; provided that any person appointed to fill such vacancy shall remain in office so long only as the person in whose room he was appointed would have remained in office.

(f.) Where a town council of a burgh or burgh commissioners of a police burgh are represented by an ordinary member or ordinary members upon a fishery district committee, no county councillor appointed under the provisions of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, to represent any such burgh or police burgh shall in a county council vote in such appointment; and where fishery members are elected in terms of this section for a police burgh, the county electors within such police burgh shall not be entitled to vote in the election of fishery members for the county in which such police burgh is situate.

(4.) A fishery district committee shall from time to time elect a chairman, who shall hold office for such period as shall be fixed at the time of his election. The chairman shall have a casting as well as a deliberative vote.

(5.) The order creating a fishery district shall make provision in regard to the time and place of meeting of the fishery district committee and the appointment of a clerk.

(6.) The expenses of a fishery district committee, so far as sanctioned and payable by a county council, shall be levied and collected within the county (excluding police burghs) as an addition to the general purposes rate, and, so far as sanctioned and payable by a town council or burgh commissioners, by the town council acting as such or as police commissioners, and by the burgh commissioners as an addition to the burgh general assessment, or where there is no burgh general assessment, to any other available assessment, and the amounts so collected shall on or before the fifteenth day of January next ensuing be paid to the fishery district committee without any deductions whatever.

7. The Fishery Board shall convene, at least once in each year, a meeting composed of not less than one representative nominated for that year by each fishery district committee to confer with the Fishery Board, and for consultative purposes on matters relating to this Act. Annual meeting of representatives of fishery district committees.

8.—(1.) A fishery district committee may, from time to time, subject to such regulations as may be made in that behalf by the Fishery Board, impose penalties, and also make byelaws to be observed within their district, for all or any of the following purposes, namely,— Byelaws for regulation of sea fisheries.

(a.) For restricting or prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to such regulations as may be provided by the byelaws, any method of fishing for sea fish or the use of any instrument of fishing for sea fish, and for determining the size of mesh, form, and dimensions of any instrument of fishing for sea fish;

(b.) For constituting within their district any district of oyster cultivation for the purposes of section four of the Fisheries (Oyster, Crab, and Lobster) Act, 1877;

(c.) For directing that the proviso to section eight of the Fisheries (Oyster, Crab, and Lobster) Act, 1877, which permits edible crabs in certain conditions or under a certain size to be taken by or be in the possession of any person if those crabs are intended for bait for fishing, shall not apply;

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 42.

(d.) For repealing or amending any order made under section ten of the Fisheries (Oyster, Crab, and Lobster) Act, 1877 ;

(e.) For the regulation, protection, and development of fisheries for all or any specified kinds of shell-fish, and any such byelaws shall provide amongst other things for—

(1.) The fixing of the sizes and condition at which shell-fish may not be removed from a fishery, and the mode of determining such sizes ;

(2.) The obligation to re-deposit in specified localities any shell-fish, the removal or possession of which is prohibited by, or in pursuance of, any Act of Parliament ;

(3.) The protection of shell-fish laid down for breeding purposes ;

(4.) The protection of culch and other material for the reception of spat, that is to say, of the spawn or young of any kinds of shell-fish ; and

(5.) The obligation to re-deposit such culch or other material in specified localities.

(f.) For prohibiting or regulating the deposit or discharge of any solid or liquid substance detrimental to sea fish or sea fishing ; and (g.) For repealing or amending any byelaw made by the fishery district committee in pursuance of this Act.

(2.) A fishery district committee shall further have power to stock or re-stock any public fishery for shell-fish.

Power to prohibit seine trawling in certain localities.

9.—(1.) The Fishery Board may, by byelaw or byelaws, direct that the method of fishing known as seine trawling shall not be used in any area or areas within the limits specified in section six of the Herring Fishery (Scotland) Act, 1889, or in the schedule annexed to that Act, as defined in such byelaw, and may from time to time make, alter, and revoke byelaws for the purposes of this section.

(2.) Any person, who uses such method of fishing in contravention of any such byelaw, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding five pounds for the first offence, and not exceeding twenty pounds for the second or any subsequent offence ; and every net set, or attempted to be set, in contravention of any such byelaw, may be seized and destroyed or otherwise disposed of by any superintendent of the herring fishery or other officers employed in the execution of the Herring Fishery (Scotland) Acts. Provided always that, if no conviction shall follow, any net so seized shall be forthwith returned, and due compensation shall be made for any loss or damage occasioned thereto by such seizure.

Restriction as to beam trawling and otter trawling.

10.—(1.) The Fishery Board may, by byelaw or byelaws, direct that the methods of fishing known as beam trawling and otter trawling shall not be used in any area or areas under the jurisdiction of Her Majesty, within thirteen miles of the Scottish coast, to be defined in such byelaw, and may from time to time make, alter, and revoke byelaws for the purposes of this section. Provided that the powers conferred in this section shall not be exercised in respect to any areas under Her Majesty's jurisdiction lying opposite to any part of the coasts of England, Ireland, or the Isle of Man, within thirteen miles thereof.

(2.) No byelaw under this section shall be confirmed by the Secretary for Scotland until he shall have directed a local inquiry to be held in the district adjoining the part of the sea to be included in the byelaw; at which inquiry all persons interested shall be heard, whether resident in the district or not; and notice of such inquiry shall be sent to all committees of sea fishery districts in the United Kingdom.

(3.) Provided that no area of sea within the said limit of thirteen miles shall be deemed to be under the jurisdiction of Her Majesty for the purposes of this section unless the powers conferred thereby shall have been accepted as binding upon their own subjects with respect to such area by all the States signatories of the North Sea Convention, 1882.

(4.) Any person who uses any such method of fishing in contravention of any such byelaw, shall be liable on conviction, under the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Acts, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, and failing immediate payment of the fine to imprisonment for a period not exceeding sixty days, without prejudice to diligence by poinding or arrestment, if no imprisonment has followed on the conviction; and every net set, or attempted to be set, in contravention of any such byelaw, may be seized and destroyed or otherwise disposed of by any superintendent of the herring fishery or other officers employed in the execution of the Herring Fishery (Scotland) Acts. Provided always that, if no conviction shall follow, any net so seized shall be forthwith returned, and due compensation made for any loss or damage occasioned thereto by such seizure.

(5.) Sub-section two of section seven of the Herring Fishery (Scotland) Act, 1889, is hereby repealed, and the provisions of the foregoing sub-section shall be and are hereby substituted therefor. 52 & 53 Vict.
c. 23.

(6.) Failing payment by a certain date named in the conviction of the fine imposed upon the person or persons convicted, decree therefor may be pronounced against the owner or owners of the offending vessel or boat, and upon such decree being pronounced the person or persons convicted shall be relieved therefrom and from all penalties attaching thereto.

Mussel Fisheries.

11. The Fishery Board shall, within six months after the passing of this Act, and after due notice and advertisement of their intention so to do, draw up a list or schedule of mussel or clam fisheries or beds or scalps as presently existing within the area defined by this Act, and shall specify therein the situation and limits thereof and the names of the owners or reputed owners respectively.

The list or schedule shall be published and circulated in such manner as the Fishery Board shall think fit, and a copy shall be sent to each of the owners or reputed owners specified therein.

Fishery Board to draw up a list of mussel beds.

The principal list or schedule shall be kept and retained in the office of the Fishery Board, and shall be revised or added to as circumstances may require.

Acquisition of mussel and clam beds.

12. For the purposes of this Act, and with a view to the maintenance and regulation of mussel or clam fisheries or beds or scalps, and for the cultivation of mussels and clams generally, the Fishery Board may, if it see fit, take on lease or acquire by purchase any mussel or clam fisheries or beds or scalps whether on the list or schedule herein-before provided for or not; and with respect to the purchase of such fisheries or beds or scalps otherwise than by agreement, the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts in regard to the taking of land otherwise than by agreement are hereby incorporated with this Act.

Byelaws for regulation, &c. of mussel and clam beds.

13. A fishery district committee may, from time to time, subject to such regulations as may be made in that behalf by the Fishery Board, impose penalties and also make byelaws for the establishment or improvement and for the maintenance and regulation of mussel and clam fisheries or beds or scalps and for the cultivation of mussels and generally for all or any of the following purposes, viz. :—

- (a.) For restricting or prohibiting, either entirely or subject to such regulations as the Fishery Board may think fit, the removal or taking of mussels or clams from the mussel or clam fisheries or beds or scalps established or acquired as aforesaid within the area to which this Act applies;
- (b.) For prohibiting the sale, removal, or taking of mussels or clams for the purposes of manure from any part of the sea adjoining Scotland;
- (c.) For prohibiting the removal or taking of mussels or clams below a certain specified size from any part of the sea adjoining Scotland;
- (d.) For letting on lease by the Fishery Board, either for one year or for a period of years, any mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp either in whole or in part in any part of the sea adjoining Scotland, subject to such payment of rent and other stipulations and to such restrictions and conditions as the Fishery Board shall direct;
- (e.) For repealing or amending any byelaw made in pursuance of this section.

Right to deposit, dredge, or take mussels and clams.

14. The Fishery Board or their sub-lessees or tenants shall, where they have respectively acquired a title under this Act, and subject to the rights of the Crown and its grantees, and also subject to any byelaws from time to time in force in the district, have within the limits of each fishery district the exclusive right of depositing, propagating, dredging, and taking mussels and clams, and in the exercise of that right may within the limits of the district make and maintain mussel or clam fisheries and beds or scalps and collect and remove the same from place to place, and deposit the same as and where they think fit, and do all other things which they think proper for obtaining, storing, and disposing of the produce of their fishery: Provided always that, when the Fishery Board or their sub-lessees or tenants hold any mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp on lease, they shall in no case exceed the powers conferred upon them in their respective leases.

15. The Fishery Board or their sub-lessees or tenants, where they have respectively acquired a title under this Act, may, subject to the rights of the Crown and its grantees, impose tolls or royalties upon persons dredging and taking mussels or clams within the limits of the fishery district, and shall have power to carry into effect and enforce the restrictions and regulations which they are by this Act entitled to impose. All such restrictions, regulations, tolls, and royalties shall be imposed on and apply to all such persons equally, and shall be applied for the benefit of the fishery only.

Right of Fishery Board, &c. to impose tolls and royalties.

Any person who dredges or takes mussels or clams in contravention of any such restriction or regulation, or without paying any such toll or royalty, shall be liable on summary conviction to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and to forfeit all mussels so taken, or a sum equal to the value thereof if they have been sold, which forfeiture may be enforced in the same manner as a penalty.

The Court may direct such forfeiture to be delivered or paid to the Fishery Board, or to their sub-lessees or tenants, to be applied by them for the improvement and cultivation of mussel or clam fisheries within the fishery district.

16. The Fishery Board may, with the approval of the Secretary of Scotland, borrow from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and the said Commissioners may, if they think fit, lend on the security of the tolls and royalties to be imposed under the provisions of this Act, such sums as may be required for the purchase, lease, maintenance, or regulation of any mussel or clam fisheries, or beds or scalps, or for the cultivation of mussels or clams generally.

Fishery Board may borrow on security of the tolls.

17. It shall not be lawful for any person other than the Crown or its grantees, and the Fishery Board or their sub-lessees or tenants, in so far as they have respectively acquired a title under this Act, their agents, servants, and workmen, within the limits of a fishery district constituted by the order, knowingly to do any of the following things :—

Protection of fisheries district.

To use on or near a mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp, unless with the sanction of the Fishery Board or the fishery district committee, any implement of fishing, except a line and hook, or a net adapted solely for catching floating fish, and so used as not to disturb or injure in any manner any mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp :

To dredge for any ballast or other substance upon or near a mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp except under a lawful authority for improving the navigation :

To deposit any ballast, rubbish, or other substance on or near to a mussel or clam bed or scalp :

To place any implement, apparatus, or thing prejudicial, or likely to be prejudicial, to any mussel or clam fishery or bed or scalp, except for a lawful purpose of navigation or anchorage :

And if any person does any act in contravention of this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and every such person shall also be liable to make full compensation to the Fishery Board, or to the fishery district committee, or to their sub-lessees or tenants, and to the owner respectively, for all damage sustained by them or him by reason of his unlawful act.

Saving of orders under 31 & 32 Vict. c. 45.

18. All orders made under the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868, or any Act amending the same, before the commencement of this Act, but not confirmed, and all proceedings taken before the commencement of this Act with a view to obtain any such orders shall have effect and be proceeded with as if this Act had not passed.

Appointment and power of fishery officers.

19.—(1.) A fishery district committee may appoint such fishery officers as they deem expedient for the purpose of enforcing the observance within their district of byelaws made by the committee, provided that nothing in this section shall exempt the coastguard and Admiralty officers from their statutory duty in enforcing the law and regulations affecting vessels engaged in sea fishing.

(2.) For the purpose of enforcing those byelaws every such fishery officer may, within the limits of the district, or of any fishery district—

(a) stop and search any vessel or vehicle used within the district in fishing or in conveying either fish or any substance, the deposit or discharge of which is prohibited or regulated by any such byelaws ; and

(b) search and examine all instruments used in catching or carrying fish ; and

(c) seize any sea fish or instrument liable to be forfeited in pursuance of any such byelaws.

(3.) If any person without reasonable excuse (proof whereof shall lie on him) refuses to allow any such officer to exercise the powers conferred on him by this Act, or resists or obstructs any such officer in the performance of his duty, he shall for every such offence be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(4.) For the enforcement of the provisions of any such byelaws every such officer shall be deemed to be a police constable, and to have the same powers and privileges, and be subject to the same liabilities, as a police constable duly appointed has and is subject to at common law or by statute.

Power to Board to protect sea fisheries.

20. Without prejudice to any powers otherwise vested in them, the Fishery Board may from time to time, subject to the approval of the Secretary for Scotland and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, employ such officers and vessels and take such other means as shall be necessary for the efficient protection of the sea fisheries and for the observance of such byelaws as may from time to time be in force: Provided that nothing in this section shall exempt the coastguard and Admiralty officers from their statutory duty in enforcing the law and regulations affecting vessels engaged in sea fishing.

21. It shall be lawful for any sheriff or any two justices of the peace upon information on oath that there is probable cause to suspect any breach of any byelaw made under this Act to have been committed, or that any sea fish or instrument liable to be forfeited in pursuance of any such byelaw is concealed on any premises, by warrant under his hand to authorise and empower any fishery officer appointed under this Act, or any police constable, to enter the premises for the purpose of detecting the offence or the concealed fish or instrument at such time or times in the day or night as in the warrant may be mentioned, and to seize any such fish or instruments which may be found on the premises: Provided that the warrant shall not continue in force for more than one week from the date thereof.

Power to enter
places.

22.—(1.) All byelaws made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act shall before coming into operation be confirmed by the Secretary for Scotland.

Application of byelaws, &c.

(2.) Any byelaw under this Act may provide for its application either to the whole or to any specified part or parts of a fishery district, and either during the whole or any specified part or parts of the year.

(3.) The Fishery Board may, by their byelaws, in so far as not otherwise provided for, impose as penalties for the breach of any byelaw fines not exceeding for any offence the sum of twenty pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence the additional sum of ten pounds for every day during which the offence continues, and in any case forfeiture of any fishing instrument used or sea fish taken in contravention of, or found in the possession of a person contravening, any byelaw.

23. All penalties, offences, and proceedings under this Act, or under any order made thereunder, may be prosecuted summarily under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, and any person aggrieved by any conviction under this Act, or by any determination or adjudication of the Court with respect to any compensation under this Act, may appeal in the manner provided in these Acts.

Mode of recovering penalties.

24. The Fishery Board shall give every assistance in carrying out the provisions of this Act, and where necessary shall employ their officers to facilitate its execution.

Assistance from Fishery Board.

25.—(1.) Nothing in or done under this Act shall—

Saving.

(a) where the soil under any mussel or clam fisheries, or beds or scalps, is vested in the Crown, and is under the management of the Commissioners of Woods or the Board of Trade, entitle any person to acquire that soil without the consent of the Commissioners of Woods or the Board of Trade, as the case may require; or

(b) affect any powers, authorities, rights, or privileges, exerciseable by the Board of Trade in the public interest.

(2.) Except in so far as powers are expressly given under this Act, nothing in this Act contained shall affect or alter the rights of any person having or claiming to have a right or title to mussel or clam fisheries, or mussel or clam beds or scalps, in the sea adjoining Scotland, and within the jurisdiction of the Fishery Board.

Powers of Fishery Board where no district committee is constituted.

26. The Fishery Board shall in respect of any parts of Scotland where there is no fishery district committee have all the powers to make regulations and byelaws and to impose penalties given in this Act to fishery district committees.

Power to apply grant under 5 G. 4. c. 64., as security to Public Works Loan Commissioners.

27. Section one of the Fishery Board (Scotland) Extension of Powers Act, 1894, shall be read as if the words "in providing collateral security for any loan made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners with the approval of the Fishery Board" were omitted, and the words "as security for obtaining a loan from the Public Works Loan Commissioners" inserted instead thereof.

Definitions.

28. For the purposes of this Act—

The expression "fishing interests" shall include all persons engaged or employed in the industry or business of sea fishing, excepting fisheries for salmon and fish of the salmon kind as defined by any Act relating to salmon, either as owners of fisheries or interests therein, fishermen, fishing boat owners, smack owners, fish curers, fish merchants, or otherwise :

The expression "sea fish" shall not include salmon as defined by any Act relating to salmon.

CHAPTER 2.

An Act to grant Money for the purpose of certain Local Loans, and for other purposes relating to Local Loans.
[5th September 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. Whereas the term of office of the persons who are at the passing of this Act Public Works Loan Commissioners under the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, will expire at the end of a period of five years from the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and it is expedient to appoint Commissioners for a further period of five years ; therefore the following persons, that is to say :

Herbert Barnard, Esquire ;
The Right Honourable Lord Napier and Ettrick, K.T. ; Richard Musgrave Harvey, Esquire ;
The Right Honourable Lord Hillingdon ; Edward Howley Palmer, Esquire ; Thomas Salt, Esquire ; Samuel Steuart Gladstone, Esquire ; Herbert Cokayne Gibbs, Esquire ; Sir Edward Birkbeck, Bart. ; Edward Norman, Esquire ; Arthur O'Connor, Esquire, M.P. ;
The Right Honourable Lord Iveagh ;
The Honourable Sir Charles William Fremantle, K.C.B. ;
The Honourable Evelyn Hubbard ; Basil Guy Oswald Smith, Esquire ; Francis William Buxton, Esquire ; Edward Henry Loyd, Esquire ; Frederick Greene, Esquire ;

Appointment of Public Works Loan Commissioners for five years.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89.

shall after the passing of this Act be the Public Works Loan Commissioners under the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, and shall hold office until the expiration of five years from the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

Grants for public works.

2.—(1.) For the purpose of local loans there may be issued by the National Debt Commissioners the following sums, namely—

(a.) For the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of two million pounds;

(b.) For the purpose of loans by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole eight hundred thousand pounds;

(2.) The sums so issued shall be issued during a period ending on the day on which a further Act granting money for the purposes of those loans comes into operation, and in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887.

50 & 51 Vict. c. 16.

Provision as to Suck drainage loans.

3. Whereas the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland advanced during the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one the sum of Three thousand seven hundred and eighty-six pounds one shilling to the River Suck Drainage Board out of money placed at the disposal of the Commissioners under the Relief of Distress (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1880, and the Acts amending the same, by the Commissioners of Church Temporalities, and the sum so advanced was to bear no interest for two years after the date of the advance, but after the expiration of those two years was to bear interest at the rate of one per cent. per annum, and was to be repaid by an annuity of Three pounds eight shillings for every hundred pounds of the advance for thirty-five years, but no payments have yet been made on account of that annuity;

43 & 44 Vict. c. 14.

And whereas by the River Suck Drainage (Provision of Funds) Act, 1890, provision was made fixing the rate of interest on all advances made by the Commissioners of Public Works to the said Board at three and a quarter per centum per annum, and for the repayment of such advances by an annuity of four pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds advanced for forty years, and this provision was to take effect notwithstanding anything in any other Act;

53 & 54 Vict. c. 12.

And whereas it was not intended that the last recited provision should alter the terms on which the said advance to the River Suck Drainage Board was originally made, and it is expedient that those terms should be restored, and further, that provision should be made for enabling the Board to redeem by a present payment the annuity payable in respect of the said advance and any arrears thereof, therefore—

53 & 54 Vict. c. 12.

(1.) Nothing in section three of the River Suck Drainage (Provision of Funds) Act, 1890, shall affect or be held to have affected the said advance of three thousand seven hundred and eighty-six pounds one shilling by the Commissioners of Public Works to the River Suck Drainage Board, and that advance shall be subject to the same conditions both as to interest and as to manner of repayment as if that Act had not been passed:

(2.) The annuity payable in respect of the said advance, and any arrears thereof, may be redeemed by the River Suck Drainage Board by the payment of such sum as the Treasury, with the concurrence of the Irish Land Commission, fix as necessary for such redemption; and any sum so paid for redemption shall be paid over under the direction of the Treasury to the Irish Land Commission, and applied by them as money transferred to them from the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland:

(3.) The Commissioners of Public Works may, out of money placed at their disposal under this Act, advance to the River Suck Drainage Board the sum fixed as necessary for the redemption of the said annuity and any arrears thereof, and any such advance by the said Commissioners shall be repaid to the Commissioners in manner provided by section three of the River Suck Drainage (Provision of Funds) Act, 1890.

53 & 54 Vict.
c. 12.

4. Whereas there is due from the Commissioners of Anstruther Union Harbour to the Public Works Loan Commissioners the sum of sixteen thousand five hundred pounds, and this sum was under the Public Works Loans Act, 1887, written off from the account of assets of the local loans fund;

Remission of debt due from Anstruther
Harbour Commissioners.

And whereas there is also due from the Commissioners of the said harbour to the Fishery Board for Scotland the sum of six thousand five hundred pounds, but this debt is postponed to the security granted to the Public Works Loan Commissioners in respect of the said debt of sixteen thousand five hundred pounds;

50 & 51 Vict.
c. 37.

And whereas the Treasury have agreed to accept the sum of one thousand pounds cash in satisfaction of the said two debts, and it is expedient that this agreement be confirmed;

Therefore the said two debts, including all claims for interest in respect thereof, shall be extinguished, and the amount thereof shall be deemed a free grant by Parliament.

5. Whereas the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland during the years one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, made advances amounting in all to the sum of forty thousand pounds to the West Donegal Railway Company, for the purpose of enabling that company to complete the portion of their railway running between Stranorlar and Druminin, both situated in the county of Donegal, and such advances were repayable within twenty-five years, with interest at the rate of five per cent. (subsequently reduced to four per cent.) per annum;

Remission of interest accrued on loan to Donegal Railway Company.

And whereas by the Donegal Railway Act, 1892, the West Donegal Railway Company was amalgamated with the Finn Valley Railway Company, and the amalgamated companies are now known as the Donegal Railway Company;

55 & 56 Vict.
c. clxi.

And whereas the balance of the capital sum of forty thousand pounds due in respect of the said advances was repaid by the

Donegal Railway Company on the fifteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, but of the sums accrued due in respect of interest on the said advances, which amounted on that date to the sum of twenty-one thousand two hundred and thirty-two pounds sixteen shillings and fourpence, the sum of eighteen thousand one hundred and four pounds four shillings and sixpence only has been repaid by the said company, leaving the sum of three thousand one hundred and twenty-eight pounds eleven shillings and tenpence unpaid ;

And whereas arrears arose by reason of the income of the said portion of the railway for the purpose of completing which the advances were made being insufficient to enable any further sum to be repaid on account of the interest due in respect of the said advances, and it is expedient, for the purpose of enabling the Donegal Railway Company to raise by the issue of stock the sums required for the repayment of the capital of the said advances, to remit the balance remaining unpaid in respect of the interest on the said advances ;

Therefore the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may accept in full discharge of the interest accrued due in respect of the said advances, the sum of eighteen thousand one hundred and four pounds four shillings and sixpence, and the balance of the said interest remaining unpaid is hereby remitted and shall be deemed to be a free grant by Parliament.

Certain debts not to be reckoned as assets of local loans fund.
50 & 51 Vict. c. 16.

6. Whereas it is expedient that the principal of the several local loans specified in the schedule to this Act should, to the extent specified in the last column of that schedule, not be reckoned as assets of the local loans fund established under the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887 : therefore the principal of the said loans shall, to that extent, be written off from the assets of the local loans fund, and the provisions of section fifteen of the said Act shall, so far as applicable, apply thereto.

Remission of certain loans under Labourers Dwellings Act.
29 & 30 Vict. c. 44.

7. Whereas the properties mortgaged as security for the loans mentioned in Part II. of the schedule to this Act have been sold with the consent of the Treasury, and it is therefore expedient that the debts due in respect of the principal sums outstanding on account of these loans should be extinguished : Therefore the said debts shall be extinguished, and the amounts thereof shall be deemed to be a free grant from Parliament.

CHAPTER 3.

An Act for removing Doubts as to the Validity of an Act passed by the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada respecting the Deputy-Speaker of the Senate.

[5th September 1895.]

WHEREAS the Parliament of Canada have passed an Act intituled "An Act respecting the Speaker of the Senate," and providing for the appointment of a deputy during the illness or absence of the Speaker of the Senate, and containing a suspending clause to the effect that the Act should not come into force until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon has been signified by proclamation in the Canada Gazette:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to the power of the Parliament of Canada to pass that Act, and it is expedient to remove those doubts:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in the session held in the fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act respecting the Speaker of the Senate," shall be deemed to be valid, and to have been valid, as from the date at which the royal assent was given thereto by the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada.

2. This Act may be cited as the Canadian Speaker (Appointment of Deputy) Act, 1895, Session 2.

Confirmation of Canadian Act with respect to Speaker of Senate.

An Act to re-enact Section Thirteen of the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1891. [5th September 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. Section thirteen of the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1891, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act, with the modification that agreements thereunder may be entered into at any time within six months of the passing of this Act.

Re-enactment with modification of 54 & 55 Vict. c. 48. s. 13.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1891, and may be cited as the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1895, Session 2.

Construction and short title.

CHAPTER 5.

An Act to provide for the Acquisition of a Site for Public Offices in Westminster and for purposes connected therewith. [5th September 1895.]

WHEREAS various lands in and near to Great George Street, King Street, and Charles Street, Westminster, have been purchased from time to time by the Commissioners of Works for the purpose of a site for public offices, and whereas, with a view to providing a site for building new public offices near the said streets, and for improving the approaches to the Houses of Parliament, it is expedient to provide for the purchase by agreement of other land in the same locality as that above mentioned, and for purposes connected with the acquisition of the said site :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1.—(1.) The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof such sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of four hundred and fifty thousand pounds as may be required by the Commissioners of Works for such purchase of lands in Westminster for a site for public offices and such purposes connected with the acquisition of that site as the Treasury may approve.

Issue and raising of money for purchase money.

(2.) The Treasury may, if they think fit, at any time borrow money for the purpose of meeting the sums so to be issued, or repaying to the Consolidated Fund all or any part of the sums so issued.

(3.) The money so borrowed shall be repaid by an annuity or annuities of such amount as will repay the same with interest in such a term not exceeding fifty years from the date of the borrowing of the money as the Treasury may fix.

(4.) The annuities shall be paid out of the moneys annually provided by Parliament for the service of the Commissioners of Works; and, if those moneys are insufficient, shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund or the growing produce thereof.

Accounts of expenditure.

2.—(1.) The Commissioners of Works shall, within six months after the end of every financial year in which money is issued under this Act, cause to be made out an account, in the form required by the Treasury, showing the money issued and expended in pursuance of this Act, and the securities created for providing such money.

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 39.

(2.) The accounts of expenditure under this Act shall be audited and reported upon by the Controller and Auditor General as appropriation accounts in manner directed by the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, 1866.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Public Offices (Acquisition of Site) Act, 1895, Session 2.

CHAPTER 6.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament. [5th September 1895.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows;

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

Issue of 37,094,087l.
out of the Consolidated
Fund.

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the sum of thirty-seven million ninety-four thousand and eighty-seven pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Treasury may borrow from any person, and the Bank of England may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sum, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of thirty-seven million ninety-four thousand and eighty-seven pounds, and the Treasury shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Any moneys so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

Appropriation of Grants.

3. All sums granted by this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty, amounting, as appears by Schedule A. annexed to this Act, in the aggregate, to the sum of thirty-seven million ninety-four thousand and eighty-seven pounds are appropriated for the services and purposes expressed in Schedule (B.) annexed hereto.

Appropriation of sums voted for supply services and of sums applied as appropriations in aid.

The abstract of schedules and schedules annexed hereto, with the notes (if any) to such schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

In addition to the sums hereby granted out of the Consolidated Fund, there may be applied out of any money directed under section two of the Public Accounts and Charges Act, 1891, to be applied as appropriations in aid of the grants for the services and purposes specified in Schedule B. annexed hereto, the sums respectively set forth in the last column of the said schedule.

54 & 55 Vict.
c. 24.

4. If a necessity arise for incurring expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated to naval and military services by this Act, and which it may be detrimental to the public service to postpone until provision can be made for it by Parliament in the usual course, each of the departments entrusted with the control over the said services shall forthwith make application in writing to the Treasury for their authority to defray temporarily such expenditure out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected by the saving of expenditure upon votes within the same department, and in such application the department shall represent to the Treasury the circumstances which may render such additional expenditure necessary, and thereupon the Treasury may authorise the expenditure unprovided for as aforesaid to be temporarily defrayed out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected as aforesaid upon votes within the same department; and a statement showing all cases in which the naval and military departments have obtained the sanction of the Treasury to any expenditure not provided for in the respective votes aforesaid, accompanied by copies of the representations made to them by the said departments, shall be laid before the House of Commons with the appropriation accounts of navy and army services for the year, in order that such proceedings may be submitted for the sanction of Parliament, and that provision may be

The Treasury shall not authorise any expenditure which may cause an excess upon the aggregate sums appropriated by this Act for naval services and for army services respectively.

5. Whereas the Treasury, under the powers vested in them by the Appropriation Act, 1893, have authorised expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated by the said Act to certain votes for naval and military services for the year ended on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four to be temporarily defrayed out of surpluses, effected by the saving of expenditure on other votes for naval and military services for the said year; viz.,

- 1st. A sum of one hundred and thirty-three thousand two hundred and thirty-six pounds one shilling and sixpence (in part of one hundred and ninety-nine thousand six hundred and eighty-two pounds thirteen shillings) for navy services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid :
- 2nd. A sum of seventy-one thousand six hundred and twenty-one pounds seventeen shillings and threepence, for army services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid :

It is enacted that the application of the said sums is hereby sanctioned.

Declaration required in certain cases before receipt of sums appropriated.

6. A person shall not receive any part of a grant which may be made in pursuance of this Act for half-pay or army, navy, or civil non-effective services, until he has subscribed such declaration as may from time to time be prescribed by a warrant of the Treasury before one of the persons prescribed by such warrant.

Provided that, whenever any such payment is made at more frequent intervals than once in a quarter, the Treasury may dispense with the production of more than one declaration in respect of each quarter.

Any person who makes a declaration for the purpose of this section, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Short title.

7. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Appropriation Act, 1895, Session 2.
