EUREKA HARNESS OIL

It seems so, it seems so, but how can it be? replied Deacon Hardy, with a look of incredulity. "Little children, love one another," interrupted Polly. "There you hear that? That isn't swearing, Sister Ellen wouldn't have had so swearing parrot around her. She talked with this bird in it and day out of it."

"Oh, you go to blank," said Polly. The minister and Aunt Mary walked away together shaking their heads and Absalon went after his pig with a grudge in his heart. Deacon Hardy was looking for a long time at the parrot, and then he said: "It must be profanity."

"Yes, it must be," admitted Aunt Mary. "I never saw a parrot swear before."

"Then I must write his neck and bury him in the back garden," said Deacon Hardy. "He must have sworn the cat instead of the parrot."

DEACON HARDY'S PARROT

By Cyrus Stearn

Deacon Hardy had no more thought of keeping a parrot than of installing a pig in the parlor, but he went to the store and bought a young one. It was a blue and white bird, and he named it Polly. He was very fond of it, and he would talk to it every day. One day he was sitting in his chair, and he saw that Polly was looking at him with a very queer expression. He looked at her for a long time, and then he said: "What in blank is this blank or blank?"

"The deacon was looking at the bird with a very queer expression. He looked at her for a long time, and then he said: 'What in blank is this blank or blank?'"

PRINCE OF THE CHURCH.

New Archbishop of Chicago is the youngest in America.

Right Rev. James Edward Quigley, bishop of Chicago, who has been chosen by the Vatican as the new head of the Roman Catholic archdiocese of Chicago, is noted as one of the ablest and most energetic of the Roman Catholic prelates in America.

When he assumes his new office, Mr. Quigley will be the youngest archbishop in America and at the same time will preside over what is considered to be the second most important of the four leading metropolitan sees of the world.

The new archbishop is now in his forty-eight years. He was born in Canada, but while still an infant his parents removed to Lima, N. Y., where they remained for three years and then went to Rochester. He was the oldest child of the household and was early selected by his mother to be the priest of the family.

On arriving in Buffalo, about the close of the civil war, young Quigley entered the household of his relatives, Father Edward Quigley, at that time rector of the Immaculate Conception church. Father Quigley placed the

BECAUSE HE ASKED A M-I-S-S

"What's the trouble, my boy?" queried the minister of a young member of his flock. "You look sad."

"And I feel sad," replied the young man. "I asked a girl to marry me, but she said 'no'."

"That's too bad," said the minister. "But it's in accord with the Scriptures, which say, 'If a man does not have a wife, he is better off without one.'"

"Well, what would you advise me to do?" queried the youth.

"I would advise you to get a job," replied the minister, "and to get on with your life. You don't need this kind of a life in the city."

Thought It Was Tax on Babies.

Forgetting something in the midst of amusing mistakes, a candidate at a recent election in Australia, where the women have votes, said a story in his support town, and one of the burning issues before the electors was the question of herbage rates.

The candidate who was asked whether he was in favor of imposing these herbage rates, because if he was he would take good care that neither his husband nor himself would vote for him. A little discussion of the matter revealed the fact that the woman was a first-rate hand at a poll tax on babies.

That candidate now doubts whether the average female voter is not under a delusion, or, perhaps, say, a spell.

A Wild Disposition.

"I don't suppose you are known, but nevertheless it is a fact that the ladies are great consumers of peanuts."

remarked the proprietor of a fruit stand in a city where we are. We are not an observer and have been forced to take note of this particular feature of my business.

"Nearly every night belated husbands stop here and load their order pockets with the festive goodie, the purchase of which has two bags behind an exception. To my mind the peanut trade has made serious inroads upon the fried oyster business, for my regular customers tell me that their wives prefer warm goo to a live oyster."

Students of high education are investigating the rest of children. The government of Sweden has appointed a committee to gather data.

According to a report forwarded to the minister of education, children who are four years old should sleep twelve hours; children who are seven years old should sleep eleven hours; children who are nine years old, ten hours; children who are from twelve to fourteen years old, nine hours; and children who are from fifteen to twenty years old, eight hours.

It further points out that animals which are kept in the city are frequently due to lack of sleep.

CHOICE MISCELLANY

Inducing "Women."

A curious story of a wealthy old reclusive is told by a correspondent in Household Words.

Not a hundred miles from London and about five miles from a railway station, he says, stands a large house in beautiful grounds. Two rooms only in this house are occupied, one by the owner and the other by his young wife. The rest of the house is a hazy and a rope ladder. The owner's meals when cooked are passed up through a hole in the ceiling.

The chief peculiarity, however, of this eccentric being is that twice a week, late at night, he comes down his rope ladder dressed as a tramp. He then walks the five miles to the station room, where he changes his clothes, emerges in full evening dress and goes to the last train up to London.

It has been ascertained that he then takes a cab to one of the big clubs in the neighborhood of Pall Mall. What he does at the club is not known, but he is seen to be very much amused. He is seen to be very much amused. He is seen to be very much amused.

Land of the Pan God.

It is interesting to note that Oklahoma, with its possibilities of statehood, is known locally as 'The Land of the Pan God.' Just why the adjective is applied to the state is not clear. A number of correspondents are concerned about the question. The government has been asked to investigate the matter.

This man is a Scandinavian, with a wife and seven children, a toller in a western city, who by dint of hard work and economy has saved up a sum of $200, which he wishes to invest in a small piece of land for a home. He presents three propositions to us, wishing to know which is the best one for him to accept—(1) to buy five acres of timber land in the Adirondacks with no improvements at $10 per acre, another to buy unimproved prairie land in northern Kansas at $2 per acre and another to buy cut-off pine timber lands in northern Wisconsin at $10 per acre.

Now Listen to the Vows of a Lightning Bolt.

He hit down in Nebraska with a team of good horses, a new spring wagon, a limber, topped with a load of hay, and a pair of good horses. He was after warrents in Nebraska. He was after warrents in Nebraska. He was after warrents in Nebraska.

Weymouth Gazette.

Published every Friday by the Gazette Publishing Company, Weymouth, Mass.

Friday, Jan. 30, 1903.

The sympathy of a large circle of friends is now going out to Mr. Long who is under treatment at St. Margaret's infirmary in Boston.

We are being treated while struggling with this week's edition with the singular phenomenon of almost a total darkness with vivid flashes of lightning, volleyed roll of thunder and down pouring rain.

There are now twenty-two National and State special committees investigating the recent coal difficulties and when the reports are in, we shall know just as much as we do now.

A shadow darker than the London fog, which has prevailed for the past two days, hangs over us.

There are very fine papers read at the High school every week on current topics, art, literature, history and local matters.

When negotiations were begun with Columbia for a strip of land six miles wide for the Panama canal the rental for the same was to be $100,000 a year for all time.

The town report for 1902 is now in process of publication at this office and among the features of interest are the vital statistics of the Town Clerk.

There are but four weeks to the annual March meeting and while there is some still work being done in regard to nominations and resolutions, the campaign on the whole has been quiet thus far.

Forty-three men took the examination in Boston last week for positions as letter carriers in Weymouth.

The next regular meeting of the Monday Club will occur on Monday, Feb. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Wellington are issuing cards for a series of "at homes" at their residence on Quincy avenue, Braintree.

Naturally the music room with its beautiful new organ is an object of great interest to the invited guests and no less an attraction in the series of water colors on the walls of this room.

Next Tuesday evening the guests invited to the organ under the skilled fingers of Mr. Arthur M. Raymond.

Suppose the fish don't bite at first. What do you do? Check down your pole, throw out your bait.

Suppose success don't come at first. What do you do? Throw up the sponge and lick yourself.

Suppose you are not successful in your business. What do you do? Turn up your nose and look at the sky.

Suppose you are not successful in your love life. What do you do? Turn up your nose and look at the sky.

GRAND SUCCESS.

Their Sixth Annual Concert And Ball.

Firemen's Relief Association and Guests Enjoy a Concert, Banquet and Ball.

When the returns for the social events of the season are all in the sixth annual concert and ball of the Weymouth Firemen's Relief Association which was held at Fogg's Opera House last Friday night will stand on record as among the most pleasing and successful affairs of the season.

For several weeks Chief Edward Fahey with James F. Shaw, William L. Dunlop, Charles H. Smart, James Anderson, Andrew Smart, John Somerville, Thomas R. Dougal and Robert Matfield have been planning for the occasion and the plans were well made and successfully executed.

The reception committee consisted of Lieutenants D. H. Littlefield, John Taylor, M. J. Knight, H. W. Worden, H. D. Tisdale, C. S. Curtis, C. C. Green, E. C. Orr, J. B. South, T. H. Melville and M. (White), also D. F. Johnson, E. B. Nash, Gabriel Gallant, G. M. Keene and W. B. Baker.

This committee was uniting in their efforts to care for all who came and 700 people received a cordial greeting. Among the guests were Chief George Cushing and District Chiefs Littlefield, Lower, Lane and Harden of Hingham; Chiefs Choates of Milton; Williams of Quincy; Foster of Rockland; Reynolds of Hull; Kelley of Braintree; Peterson of Whitman; Wright of Abington; Crowe of Gloucester; Morse of Bath, Me.; Mapes of Cohasset; ex-Chief Frank D. Thayer of Braintree; ex-Chief Wm. Cushman of Weymouth; Capt. Proctor and Lieut. Proctor of Lisbon Falls, Me.

The first event of the evening was a concert by the Salem Chord Band. At 9 o'clock a supper which had been arranged in the hall numbered 22 which was a signal for the grand march which was to precede the dance and it was not until after 3 o'clock that the "all out" was sounded.

Twenty-four numbers with extras were on the order of dances and it was not until after 3 o'clock that the "all out" was sounded. Chief Fahey had as assistant marshals, Engineers W. O. Collier, J. H. Walsh, D. W. Hart and W. W. Pratt with Captains F. W. Littlefield, H. A. Nash, Jr., E. W. Sprague, C. W. Baker, J. A. Harris, E. S. Wright, C. W. Dyer, G. M. Pratt, J. S. Bacon, A. P. Poole and E. Ford as aids.

The occasion would not be complete without a supper and this is the MENU. SALADS: Lobster, Chicken, Potato, Turkey, Ham, Tongue, Escalloped Oysters, Mashed Potatoes, Saratoga Chicken, Chicken Croquettes, Banana Fritters and Apple Fritters with White Sauce.

FAIR AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

Methodist Church at East Weymouth an Attractive Place.

The center of attraction at East Weymouth has been the past week by the illness and passing away of Bertram Cushing Tirrell.

He was the eldest son of William H. Tirrell and a grandson of the late Dammery Tirrell, and was born Jan. 24, 1867.

After leaving the common school he worked in the shoe shop, and for several years was an employe of M. C. Diaz & Co.

He left the shop in order to fill an important position as the south Weymouth Laundry, with which he has been identified from the start.

He was a devoted and strictly honorable, one of the exceptional men who make their employe's interests their own.

In 1895, he married Mary Warren Thayer, and she and a little daughter survive him. His grandmother, parents, three brothers and a sister also remain.

He had endeavored himself to all with industry and industry, and his life was a life of sacrifice and usefulness.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were largely attended by relatives and friends.

James Wilson. James Wilson, an old and respected citizen of East Braintree, passed away on Saturday last.

He had been in feeble health for some time, and the cause of his death was pneumonia.

Mr. Wilson came to Braintree in the days of the Boston Flax Mills and was in the employ of that concern for many years.

Following this, he was in the employ of the Boston Flax Mills and was in the employ of that concern for many years.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday at 2 p. m., Rev. Melvin S. Nash officiating.

Mr. Lois White Shaw. Passed away suddenly at the last in Hingham, Lois White Shaw, daughter of late Major Jonathan White, and widow of the late John Shaw of South Weymouth.

She was born in 1829, and until the death of her husband she was a resident of that town. Her later days have been passed with her children.

Funeral services were held at her late home on Tuesday at 2 p. m., Rev. Melvin S. Nash officiating.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The most interesting and exciting game of basketball which has been played in our gym was that of last Friday between the junior and sophomore girls' teams.

The game was interesting because it was so well played and showed the practice which both teams have had this year.

It was exciting because a week before, the sophomore boys beat the junior boys, and so the sophomores were sure that their girls could beat the juniors.

The juniors, however, were not sure to allow the lower class to do so much bragging and all five of the junior girls went into the game with the determination to win.

Miss Lorraine, Miss Helen, Miss Margaret and Miss Mary were the stars of the game, and they all played well.

From the time the first ball was thrown to the end of the first half the girls worked hard and although the sophomores were near the goal, the juniors were not far behind.

At the end of the first half the score was 10 to 8. After a ten minute rest during which time the supporters of both sides showed the capacity of their lungs, the girls came on to the court with the same determination but they did not differ.

Before the game had hardly begun, Miss Lorraine threw a goal for the juniors and this started the girls to add to the score. In the meantime the sophomore boys, up in one corner cheered their team on while the juniors, who owing to the smaller number of boys, were added by the seniors in yelling, cheered their girls on to victory.

NORTH WEYMOUTH.

—The members of the Harlequin Club were very pleasantly entertained by Miss Helen Lord at her home on Commercial street last Friday afternoon. An enjoyable feature of the occasion was a dainty lunch served by the hostess.

—A. J. Richards and Son have purchased a new pair of handsome gray horses.

—Ferguson's bakery goods fresh every day at Bates' waiting room, Lincoln square.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Sterling of Keene, N. H., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sterling of Webb street, the past week.

—Henry Dugan, one of the oldest and best known citizens of East Braintree, died Sunday after a long illness, aged 73 years. Deceased was for over fifty years on employ of the Old Colony and New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads, being section boss, trackwalker, and for the last few years gang boss. Besides a widow, several children and a sister, Henry Dugan, Jr., night patrolman; John Dugan, second boss; Patrick, and Edward Dugan of New York. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the Church of the Sacred Heart. The burial was at Rantoul's cemetery. Deceased gave a short service at the home of Mrs. W. E. Thompson.

—C. F. Vaughan has been on a recent trip to New York and Washington.

—The officers of the Harmon Assembly No. 15, Hyattian Sisterhood, were installed by D.D.G.C. Mrs. Jones and suite of Wollaston on last Wednesday evening. At the close of the installation exercises, a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.

—Mrs. M. J. LaForest is the guest of friends at South Boston.

—School supplies of all kinds at Walsh's periodical store.

—The pulpit of the First Universalist Church on Sunday morning was filled by the Rev. Mr. Mead, of Boston, his subject being "Belief and Unbelief; how disintegrating in their cause and effect." His text was from II Cor. 4-13. The choir rendered the anthem "Nearer my God, to thee." Miss Alice Blanchard filled the soprano's place in absence of Mrs. W. E. Thompson. It being Christian Union Day, a union meeting of the young people's societies of the Universalist Churches in town, also Hingham, had been planned for the evening, but owing to the severe snow storm, few were able to attend. The meeting was in charge of the local president, Fred Deshler, who gave an excellent paper on the subject. Miss Bates sang "The Lost Chord," and addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. M. S. Nash, and Russ H. Gilbert of Rockland.

—The leading brands of 5 and 10 cent cigars at Bates' Lincoln square waiting room.

—Miss Cora Lang is ill with appendicitis.

—Edward Guttererson spent 8 day last with Edward Nash, formerly of this place, at his home in Newton.

—James Russell and wife of Newport, R. I., have been the guests of local friends this week.

—A business meeting of the Y. P. C. U. connected with the First Universalist Society was held with Mr. Nash at his room on Front street, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A good number were present and besides other business of importance was voted to apply for admission to the State Union.

They were speaking of the great politician.

"Yes," said one, "years ago I saw him roaming the streets with not a cent, and his hands in his pockets."

"How different!" spoke the other.

"Now he has thousands and his hands in other people's pockets."
