INFORMATIONAL

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

For the following films, write to the depository in your state listed below, or to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Division of Motion Pictures, Washington, D. C. Department employees and State extension workers may obtain prints on deposit with the depositories free of service charge for use in their work. Most of these organizations find it necessary to charge other borrowers a nominal service fee.

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION (1 reel, 11 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Shows the vast agricultural resources of this country; the democratic procedures followed by farmers in carrying out the AAA farm program; how these procedures are helping farmers to produce more of the foods needed in the war program.

FARM FRONT (1 reel, 11 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1941)

A documentary picture telling the story of the American farmer in national defense. It points out the relation of his work to the American ideal of the United States as a land of opportunity for all, and shows how he is working with industry to safeguard the American Freedoms.

FOR HEALTH AND HAPPINESS (1 reel, 9 minutes) 16mm, silent and sound, color (1941)

Discusses the vital bearing good nutrition has on human health and happiness. Shows scenes of well-nourished children from infancy to youth, and the food groups that contribute to all-around development.

ON THE ROAD TO TOMORROW (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1941)

Shows the youth of many lands and different races engaged in youth activities; explains our own youth movement in the 4-H Clubs, representing the great basic industry of agriculture, its spread into many foreign lands, and the results and significance of work and training of 4-H Club members.

THE TREE IN A TEST TUBE (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16mm, sound, color (1942)

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy show the many things the average man uses which are made of wood. The Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin, has been developing new and better uses for wood, thereby releasing metals, etc. for war needs. Shows some of the tests to which these products are subjected before they are offered for public or military war use.

WOOD FOR WAR (½ reel, 5 minutes) 16mm, sound, color (1942)

Shows many of the new uses of wood in war manufacturing and construction for civilian and military purposes. Stresses the especial need for forest-fire prevention in wartime to save manpower and timber.

ABOUT FACES (1 reel, 20 minutes) 16mm, sound, color; (1 reel, 15 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound, black-and-white (1941) (Free)

Entertaining subject on dental health. Follows "Danny" from the cradle to his induction in the Army, stressing importance of dental care.

Prints of the following film have been made available to all State Health Offices from which they may be borrowed. It will be shown exclusively under the supervision and authority of local health departments.

KNOW FOR SURE (Venereal Disease) (1 reel, 20 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942) (Free)

A very frank treatment, FOR MALE AUDIENCES ONLY, particularly for men in camps and war industries. Deals with prophylaxis, diagnosis, and clinical treatment. Also gives attention to follow-up treatment, sources of infection, and community control. Made in Hollywood, produced by Darryl Zanuck, directed by Lewis Milestone, for the Public Health Service.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Mines

The Bureau of Mines has many films, both sound and silent, in both 16 and 35mm widths, depicting mining operations and related manufacturing processes. They show where minerals are found and how they are extracted from the earth, manufactured or refined into useful everyday products, utilized, and conserved. The films deal with such minerals and mineral products as aluminum, asbestos, abrasives, acetylene, coal, concrete, copper, glass, iron, steel, lead, gasoline, petroleum, nickel, sulphur, and related subjects. Many of these films are made specifically for training purposes associated with training activities of the war agencies. They are available to Governmental agencies, educational institutions, engineering and scientific societies, civic and business associations, clubs, churches, and other responsible organizations.

These films are produced and circulated under the direction of Allan Sherman, Chief, Information Division, Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C. The cost of production is paid by cooperating industrial concerns. The pictures are free of trademarks, trade names, or other direct advertising material. Production is in charge of M. F. Leopold, Supervising Engineer, Motion Picture Production Section, Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C. Address inquiries concerning production and revision to him.

Distribution of the films is in charge of:

Louis F. Perry, Supervising Engineer
Graphic Services Section
Bureau of Mines Experiment Station
4800 Forbes Street
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

A complete library of all pictures is maintained at the above address. For the convenience of borrowers distant from Pittsburgh, copies of certain films are deposited at sub-distributing centers, selected with regard to accessibility.

OBTAIN FILMS FROM YOUR NEAREST DISTRIBUTOR

These Government 16mm sound films are available from the distributors listed below. These distributors are permitted to make a service charge to the user not to exceed 50¢ for the first subject and 25¢ for each additional subject included in a single shipment. (An exception is TARGET FOR TONIGHT, for which a service charge not to exceed $2.50 is permitted.) Transportation costs are additional.

With each film shipment is enclosed an attendance report card, stamped with the distributor's name, which should be filled out and returned promptly to the Bureau of Motion Pictures. No postage is necessary.

Persons interested in 35mm sound prints should write directly to the Office of War Information Film Unit, 35 West 45th Street, New York City.

*ALUMINUM (1 reel, 9 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1941)

The story of the "fateful metal"; importation of bauxite; transmutation into alumina and thence into aluminum sheeting and subsequently into fighting planes. This behind-the-scenes story of our most strategic metal is told in striking photography and eloquent commentary. Photographed on the Gulf Coast and at leading reduction and sheet-rolling plants, chiefly in the South.

THE ARM BEHIND THE ARMY (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

This is an official War Department film made so that men in plants turning out war materials might better understand their importance in the war. It shows that the success of the Army on the firing line depends upon the success of our labor and industry on the production line, "the arm behind the American Army."

BOMBER (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1941)

The manufacture of the B-26 Army bomber and suggests its speed and power as a combat plane. "As a production it ranks with the finest documentary films ever made. The camera work is excellent, with each frame a perfect photograph. A special commentary, written by Carl Sandburg, stresses power and certainty in its poetic composition."--the Hollywood Reporter.

*BUILDING A BOMBER (2 reels, 20 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1941)

An educational exposition on the building of the B-26 Army bomber, and is of considerable interest to engineering schools, vocational groups, and educational organizations eager to learn how our skyfighters are made.

*BUILDING A TANK (2 reels, 20 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

The speed-up of the tank production program, including technical details regarding construction and processes involved in the manufacture of the M-3 medium tank.

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION (1 reel, 11 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

The vast agricultural resources of this country; the democratic procedures followed by farmers in carrying out the AAA farm program; how these procedures are helping farmers to produce more of the foods needed in the war program.

HOME ON THE RANGE (1 reel, 11 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Produced by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, this film is an eloquent tribute to the men of the western ranges. It shows the contribution of the western range country to the war effort--wool and mutton, beef and leather. Gives brief scenes of dams, watering tanks, windmills, crested wheat grass, deferred grazing and a round-up.

LAKE CARRIER (1 reel, 9 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

The part played by lake freighters on the inland waterways carrying iron ore 1,000 miles to the steel mills of midwest industrial cities. Narration by Frederic March.

LISTEN TO BRITAIN (2 reels, 20 minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

This film, produced for the British Ministry of Information, is a remarkable factual record of the many sounds and sights of wartime Britain--from the roar of Spitfires to the shouts of children. There is no dialogue; the audience literally listens to Britain. Here are the English people--soldiers, mechanics, nurses, farmers, children--whom we can be proud to call our Allies. It will give Americans a new respect for Britain's fight against the Nazis, a deeper appreciation of the men and women who are carrying on that fight.

MANPOWER (1 reel, 8½ minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

To fight this war, ten million people must go to work by the end of 1943. Today the problem of manpower is crucial in our factories and on our farms. This film presents the problems and confusions now existing. Paul V. McNutt, Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, introduces the problem and suggests voluntary steps to be followed by employers and workers, cooperating with Government agencies, in attacking the problem. "Interesting and timely."--Showmen's Trade Review. "Factual, interesting and concise."--Motion Picture Daily.

MEN AND THE SEA (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Presented by the United States Maritime Commission, and dedicated to American Merchant Seamen, this picture shows the training of the men who man the cargo ships. Their job is vitally important in the winning of the war; they must get the guns and the food to where they are needed.

RING OF STEEL (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

This dramatic subject pictures the American soldiers as they are now, carrying on the traditions of past accomplishment, and outlines the part of the American soldier in the growth of the nation. Narration by Spencer Tracy. Many scenes of battle-grounds famous in American history.

SAFEGUARDING MILITARY INFORMATION (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Originally made by the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences as a training film for the U. S. Army, this film is now being shown generally throughout the country. It stresses the importance of secrecy on the part of military personnel and workers engaged in defense activities, and shows the results of careless talk, dramatic scenes of ship explosion, sabotage, and disastrous events resulting from thoughtless revelation of information to the enemy.

SALVAGE (1 reel, 7 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Donald Nelson, head of the War Production Board, discusses seriously and impressively the need for every American man, woman, and child saving and salvaging metals, fats, and rubber. For tanks, planes, and guns we need steel, copper, brass, tin, aluminum and rubber. We need the old lawn-mowers, plows, pots and pans, and the scrap metal in every home, on every farm. For shells and explosives we need nitroglycerine, and for nitroglycerine we need fats and greases. The job of salvage is not a one-time job, but one to be done once a week every week. American men and women can help win this war by salvage. "The neatest short to come from the Office of War Information Nicely photographed, cut and backgrounded, it boasts an amazingly fine spoken narrative by Donald Nelson."--Variety.

SONG SHORTS (1/3 reel, 3 minutes, each) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

ANCHORS AWEIGH - Splendid background scenes of the Navy at sea stir the audience while Conrad Thibault sings the Navy song in a rousing manner. The audience joins in the last chorus.

KEEP 'EM ROLLING - A rousing, patriotic subject, with production scenes as a kaleidoscopic background for the song. The Rodgers and Hart song is sung by Jan Peerce "off screen" and the audience is asked to join in the last chorus, with guiding words superimposed upon the film scenes of industry in action to "keep 'em rolling."

THE CAISSONS GO ROLLING ALONG - Robert Weede sings this well-known song of the Field Artillery, "off screen." Scenes of the Field Artillery in action make a stirring background. The audience is asked to join in the chorus.

TANKS (1 reel, 10 minutes) 16 and 35mm, sound (1942)

Graphically describes the manufacture of the M-3 medium tank. Photographed in Detroit, Fort Knox, Kentucky, and an unnamed Eastern seaport. "The photography is magnificent, the musical score by Jack Schaindlin forms a meaningful background to the film; and Orson Welles reads a fine script with dramatic excellence. In telling the tale of how the M-3 medium tank is assembled, tested and shipped overseas, all the component factors are fused into an outstanding reel. Exhibitors will find the subject an exciting way of showing how our production plants are forging the 'armament of victory.'"--Film Daily.

Ø TARGET FOR TONIGHT (5 reels, 48 minutes) 16mm, sound

An account of an actual air raid by the Bomber Command of the Royal British Air Force. The picture begins with new aerial photographs of enemy territory brought back by reconnaissance planes. These disclose the objective to be raided. Then comes the staff planning, routine of preparing the bombers, getting weather reports, instructing the crews, and the tension of the evening take-off. From this point, the camera stays with the big Wellington bomber, named "F for Freddie," and its crew of six. "F for Freddie" reaches its destination, descends to bomb the target amidst a barrage of enemy anti-aircraft fire, and there is a spectacular explosion as the bombs find their mark. Its engine in trouble, the wireless operator wounded, the plane heads for home. The picture ends with the crew's report back to headquarters. (The maximum service charge permitted for this film is $2.50.)

U. S. NEWS REVIEW: ISSUE NO. 1 (1 reel, 21 minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

The first of a series of monthly news reviews, this issue covers seven subjects: Women at War, War Rules for Fuel Saving, New Flag Made for the President, Malta Fights On, Keep the Coal Coming, War in the Pacific, Wartime Harvest.

WESTERN FRONT (2 reels, 21 minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

Released originally by United China Relief, Inc., in connection with their 1942 campaign for funds for China, this is a picture of China's plight and heroic fight. It emphasizes with the drama of reality the role that China continues to play as one of the United Nations. The ruthless brutality of Japan's destruction in China is shown. Against great obstacles China continues her fight and the people of the United States realize the importance of holding China as a fighting ally. The picture stresses the desperate needs of the Chinese people, although it makes no direct appeal for contributions.

WINNING YOUR WINGS (2 reels, 18 minutes) 16mm, sound (1942)

Lieutenant James Stewart of the U. S. Army Air Corps speaks directly to the audience in giving a birds-eye view of how the United States Army Air Force is being built into the strongest and best trained in the world. This picture was produced by Warner Brothers for the United States Army Air Forces, and stars Lieutenant James Stewart, who explains the work of the air force, the requirements for enlistment, and the benefits to be derived from the program. "It is probably the most inspiring film of its sort yet released."--Chicago News.
