

Boston Monday evening

Dear Nelson

I have just got your letter which was to reach me by your calculation yesterday night - I have not by me just now but that you could not have forwarded it so soon as you intended - I don't believe that Henry will be willing to lend you his watch at any rate - they broke open the letter this & are at liberty to act upon the information they have obtained - I don't know how long you shall have it done - I have next week - as to the copies of the Bible I was you what I have - but it is folly to try to get them so easy - I find little use for any thing even with new beginners - I suppose that Edwards drawing looks as what you want & I will send them but you must pay for them - for I have had them twice & they never to my thinking did me much good - I love you very much & am pretty well here - I am nearly well my face afflicts me very little just now - the only trouble is the constant confinement that I endure - Little trouble as Gray-leave is I must stay at home to see to her other wish I should visit nearly all the time what I could do as well as not - The school is better than I expected

I suppose Miss Doring is going to the Regent's West Quarter - I suspect this from some movements - but don't know it certainly -

I have a new scholar for Miss Parris - down the street you know George Bradford began with her to me & I was as much surprised as if the moon had fallen - ~~the~~ when she (Miss Parris) told me that Mr Emerson had mentioned my school to them I think this must have been a little later Brotherhood - don't you - George Brad - is gone to Bangor - I saw Mr Shack - did I tell you & got yr letter but am & have been anxious to hear from you & know just how you got on - I hear of you through Anne & of Anne through you A note to me that she was quite well she ought you - her hair also - I wrote to her to remain to her she was, but I have heard nothing since except Theodore held who was in town a <sup>few</sup> days since was just from Groton - had seen Anne & said she was not well - & Dr F. was visiting her whether it's some new district - or I mean - by the old story I don't know - but if she there much unless she could certainly let us know it - would she not? - I perately - in Portland last thurs day & Friday evening - he came up more tired than alive - having lectured 10 times in 7 days & traversed half the time to boot - he left the mob - to keep his appointment at Weymouth - & he went there Sat aft he staid at our house - was quite sick & sat up very little, perhaps trying to act like Theodore with time for the lecture & then he got up & gave it to us, I never heard him do better - I went down in the evening stage - & Sunday morning Brown left down in a party car & took Lavin & May Lavin & took me back - after lecture he got in about 12 o'clock had a beautiful time only could not find out how much money - they got over above the $50 of pledged ch. - was ready to be paid over - Stanton was left to go to Hanover, Monday (this) after
